Hamilton, Ont., March 14— The schedule meeting of the Canadian League was held at the Royal Hotel yesterday. The meeting was one of the largest and most enthusiastic that has been held since the league was organized, the following being in attendance, President, J. P. Fitzgerald of Toronto, Secretary, M.M. Robinson of Hamilton, S. Stevely, Geo. O'Neill and F. F. Bezzell, of London, W. S. Davidson, Dan McNabe, and Curtis Templin of Peterborough, Frank Shaughnessey, of Ottawa, Thos. Nelson and Richard Eacretto, of Brantford, W. J. Sheridan and J. Hilliard of Guelph "Pop" Williams "Rute" Deneat and W. H. Rhoades, of Berlin; Chas Stanley, of St. Thomas; Geo. Lee, of Hamilton. The Ottawa and Peterboro clubs were formally admitted to membership, making an eight club class C league.

Each club presented its list of desired home dates of the season, and Secretary M.M. Robinson and H. E. Walsh, of Brantford, were appointed a committee to draft the schedule for the coming season.

SEASON OPENS MAY 14

Several important amendments were made to the constitution, while President Fitzgerald and Secretary Robinson were both placed under salary, Robinson being granted an honorarium for his work as secretary last year. It was decided to open the season on May 14th, and close on Labor Day, while the salary limit was raised to $1,500.

The Peterboro club put through the only deal of the day, purchasing the release of "Old Folks" Templin from the Berlin club. Templin having secured the appointment as manager of the Peterboro Club.

Frank Shaughnessey, of the Ottawa Club, presented his side of the trouble with the Forest Wayne club, which club claims possession of him, Shaughnessey is part owner of the Ottawa Club, and for this reason claims that Fort Wayne will be unable to hold him, although word was received here to-day that the Fort Wayne owners intend taking the matter to the National Comission.

Complete arrangements were made for the coming season, and from the tone of the meeting there is no doubt but that the season of 1912 will prove unusually successful for the young league, which is in a fair way of becoming the strongest minor league in organized ball. The Ottawa and Peterboro representatives gave very enthusiastic reports of the manner in which the game is taking hold in these two towns, and it was the opinion that both would prove rattling good additions to the league.

SYMPATHY FOR ELLIOTT

A resolution of sympathy was passed, and the secretary instructed to forward a copy to Chaucer Elliott, manager of the St. Thomas Club, who is in New York, undergoing treatment for an injured leg. According to information received by some of the league officials, Elliott is in great danger of losing his leg, Messrs Robinson, O'Neill and Nelson were appointed a committee to look after Elliott's interests in St. Thomas until such time as he is in shape to take hold himself.

The only trouble met with at the meeting occurred over the fine that had been levied on the London Club for their use of season tickets last year. The London representatives were of the opinion that they had been taxed too heavily for their error and President Fitzgerald was instructed to make a thorough investigation and a final decision on the matter

FITZSIMMONS BATTERS FRIEND WHO ADMIRES JULIA GIFFORD

Chicago, Ill., March 14.—Since the day many years ago that Bob Fitzsimmons put away Cobett with a blow to the solar plexus at Carson City, the freckled-faced gladiator never put up a better fight than he did the other day. His victim this time was young Jack Taylor, University of Chicago student, all-round athlete and generally rated among the student body and around town as a "good-fellow."

Mr. Taylor is to-day confined to the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity house at the University of Chicago nursing numerous wounds. He refuses to see anyone. His friends declare, however, and so does Mr. Fitzsimmons, that Taylor is badly beaten up.

He blames young Taylor for causing his wife to leave him. He says that since his arrival here his wife has kept in hiding, but that she is still in the city.

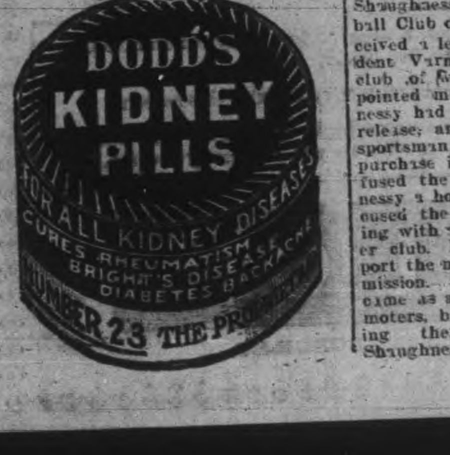
Yesterday, Fitzsimmons went to the offices of the Western Vaudeville Managers' Association on the eleventh floor of the Majestic building to see about some of his dates. While he was seated in the office Taylor came in to arrange some business, it is said, for Miss Gifford. Fitz. got up as the young man entered and handed him a hard knock on the jaw. Then things started.

Fitz beat and kicked and slammed the young man around the room until he was dragged off by two elevator starters, three office clerks and one janitor, two press agents, the shrieks of a young woman stenographer perhaps helping some. Taylor was carried from the building. Incidentally it might be remarked that the university student is said to weigh 186 lbs. ring side.

In discussing the fight Fitzsimmons who is playing at one of the outlying theatres, said: "I beat this young guy up and he's a sight to behold. I'm glad that a detachment of what what would constitute a full-sized Mexican revolution interfered.

"I have known for a long time that Taylor and my wife have been friendly. As soon as she heard that I was coming to town she ducked Mr. Taylor and his friends can testify that I landed him. I don't know where Mrs. Fitzsimmons is."

Taylor could not be seen, but sent word by a friend: "I know Mrs. Fitzsimmons. She is a friend of mine. Our relations, however, have been purely platonic and I was very much surprised at the brutal attack made on me."



BASEBALL

Ottawa, March 13.—Manager Frank Shaughnessy, of the Ottawa Base ball Club of the Canadian League, received a letter yesterday from President Varnell, of the Fort Wayne club of which Shaughnessy was appointed manager last fall. Shaughnessy had applied to Varnell for his release; and a well-known Ottawa sportsman had generously offered to purchase it for him, but Varnell refused the request and sent Shaughnessy a hot letter, in which he accused the Ottawa officer of tampering with a player belonging to another club. He also threatened to report the matter to the National Commission. Naturally Varnell's reply came as a shock to the Ottawa promoters, but he is mistaken in accusing them of "tampering" with Shaughnessy, for Frank had not yet signed, and understands he could not do so without permission of the Fort Wayne management. The Ottawas intend to make another big effort to get Shaughnessy, and though the outlook is blue, they have not abandoned hope. They have already written to the National commission explaining their position. In the event of Shaughnessy not being able to act, it is certain that the Ottawas will proceed with their plans. Louis Cooke, of the University of Illinois, has been recommended to the Ottawa club by Shaughnessy.

Berlin, March 14—The Green Sox will have the niftiest uniform in the Canadian League. The road suits will be made of grey goods with fine green stripe running through it; no collars, the shirts, like the Chicago Cubs wear green trimmings will prevail again, the letters Berlin will run up and down on the centre of the shirt. The home suits wil be made of the same material, only that the color will be cream instead of grey Green caps and sox.

Local Delegates Return From Canadian Ball League Meeting

Messrs. W. S. Davidson and Dan McCabe are back from Hamilton. Manager Templin went to his home in Reading, Pa., and will report here the last of April.

Mr. Davidson in conversation with The Review to-day said that the matter of securing "Old Folks" from Berlin was easily settled. There was so much business to do yesterday that the drafting of a schedule was left to Mr. H. L. Walsh and "Bobby" Robinson.

Mr. Davidson says that it is not so that the salary limit had been raised to $1,500 as stated in Toronto despatches. The only change is that the manager's salary is not included in the $1,200 limit.

The local management expects to be well looked after in the matter of suitable dates for its games. The League purposes opening the season on May 14. It is possible, that the Peterborough team may play at home on May 24th.

Clarence Darrow will be tried in Los Angeles, May 14th, on charges of jury bribing.

Pierre Vedrines, the aviator, has been nominated for the French Senate.

FIVE HOSPITALS TO SHARE IN HELM BEQUEST

County Council Decide in Favor of First Proposition

Cobourg, March 13.—At a special meeting of the County Council of Northumberland and Durham held here yesterday afternoon, the alternative clauses in the bequest of the late John Helm were considered.

Uder the terms of Mr. Helm's will the sum of $112,000 was left to be used for hospital purposes. The first plan left $20,000 to Port Hope Hospital, $20,000 to Cobourg Hospital, $6,000 to the Sick Children's Hospital at Toronto, $50,000 to the Toronto General Hospital, and $6,000 to the Muskoka Free Hospital at Gravenhurst. The alternative was that $100,000 should go to establish a hospital at Port Hope, the old Helm homestead in that town to be utilized for that purpose. The question of deciding which plan was in the best interests of the province and the people to be served, was left to the County Council.

The feature of Mr. Helm's will has set the representatives of the counties by the ears, and in fact they have divided into rival camps, one favoring the establishment of a fine, big hospital at Port Hope, and the other contending that the plans set forth in the first proposition would be more in the general interest of the province, and would give two hospitals in the counties besides granting aid to three institutions that are undoubtedly provincial in character. After a lengthy debate it was decided by a vote of 20 to 17 to accept the first proposition, which apportions the money among the five hospitals mentioned.

A FIREMAN'S PERIL

How Zam-buk Delivered Him

At 215 Fraser ave., Edmonton, Alta., lives W. P. Mahy, a former member of the local fire brigade, who has wonderful cause to be thankful for the curative powers of Zam-Buk. He says:—"A serious skin disease broke out on my face, and spread until I was in a terrible state. The spots and little ulcers were frightfully irritating, and yet when scratched or rubbed they bled and smarted. Shaving caused me agony, and sometimes I would have to go two or three weeks without a shave. I tried home-made remedies, herb salves, and various other preparations, but the sores got no better. When Zam-Buk was mentioned I had little faith that it would be able to do me any good. My case seemed such an obstinate one. I gave it a fair trial, however, and the first box made such a wonderful change for the better that it gave me encouragement to continue. I did so, and to cut a long story short, Zam-Buk, in the end quite cured me. My face is now clear of all traces of the terrible disease, which troubled me for so long."

Thousands of sufferers from eczema, blood poison, ulcers, chronic sores, piles, ringworm, cold sores, cuts, burns and skin injuries, have been relieved and cured, as was Mr. Mahy, by Zam-Buk. As a balm for all skin injuries and diseases it is without equal. All druggists and stores at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful substitutes.

END OF CAREER OF MAN WHO LET STOLYPIN BE SHOT

Head of Secret Service is Now in Jail.

RUSSIA SURPRISED

He Had Riff-raff to Protect Authorities and Maintain Order

St. Petersburg, March 11.—The sensation of the week is the sudden arrest of one of the mainstays of order in Russia, Colonel Kulabko. It is not easy to exaggerate the significance of this step. Imagine the Pope being excommunicated for heresy, or Kaiser Wilhelm being dethroned for Socialism, and you have a notion of what it means.

Colonel Kulabko was the head of the "Safety Service" in Kieff, and was therefore responsible for the lives of all the great men from St. Petersburg to Moscow who should visit that city, and more particularly the Czar. He was one of the chief "eyes" of the government. His subordinates were the secret police over the police of the Empire, the countermeners, whose duty it is to undo the subterranean work of the secret revolutionists, and if possible, to undo the conspirators themselves, together with their work.

KILLED PREMIER.

It was Kulabko on whom, in virtue of his office, the duty devolved of protecting the Czar and his ministers from the hands of regicides and bombists, last September. And we know how he discharged it. His deartmenpt actually engaged the criminal Bogroff, gave him a place in the theatre, and armed him with the revolver which killed the Premier Stolypin.

Bogroff really intended to deprive the Empire of its monarch, and he also found the opportunity which he had sought. But at the last moment he drew back. Why? He himself gave the reason after his arrest. He was afraid, he said, of the consequences which would accrue to his co-religionists—for Bogroff was a Jew. Pogroms, massacres, disabilities would embody the retaliation of the Russian masses. And he shrank from bringing down such tremendous reprisals on his brethren.

All Russia was horrified at the crime and at the perspective it opened up. The department of the secret police, which possesses almost boundless power, unlimited credit and impunity for "irregularities," turned out to be the instrument of the revolutionists, whom it was created to annihilate. Of all the incongruities in which the Empire abounds this is surely the most intolerable, people said. The government whose eyes were opened by the revelation, dispatched a senator to investigate the matter. And what Senator Trussevitch brought to light were indeed sensational doings—such as Carlyle's Abbot Samson would have called "tacenda," things to be kept secret.

But if the authorities were loth to speak, they were quite ready to act; and the revising senator recommended the dismissal of Colonel Kulabko from his post. Now, the Colonel, as the chief of the Kieff "Safety Service," was a czarlet, a little god, almighty in his own sphere, to whom common mortals looked up with awe. And his disgrace and dismissal came to them as that of Lucifer may have appeared to the archangels. Accordingly they moved heaven and earth to save their lord and master.

And, strange though it may seem, they succeeded. Some weeks ago Colonel Kulabko, though dismissed from the service, was sent to his superiors to another post at Perm. And he would be there at this moment were it not that his dismissal from Kieff, which had been kept secret was suddenly divulged, and then the Chief of the Gendarmes of Perm wrote to the minister declining to accept Kulabko as his fellow. The minister did not insist, and the Colonel remained one of the unemployed until the other day.

IN A FORTRESS

A day or so ago the Chief of the Kieff Gendarmes drove up in his carriage to Kulabko's house, had an interview with the fallen great man within, then came out, entered the carriage with him, and drove off to the Kieff fortress, where he now is. That is the beginning of the end of the man through whose—let us call it neglect—Stolypin lost his life four months ago, and the Czar of all the Russias was on the point of being assassinated.

Nobody knows as yet with certainty what charges will be made against the ex-Chief of the "Safety Service." That he will be accused of criminal neglect of his duty is certain. He was in receipt of large sums of money which, it is said, have not been satisfactorily accounted for. But the money shortage is a secondary matter.

Most serious is the charge of having employed ruffians and notorious criminals in the "Safety Service." He seems to have employed quite a number of roughs—the riff raff of society—in the most difficult, dangerous and confidental service of the Czar and that was and is a downright crime in the eyes of the law.

SUNDAY SGHOOL TEACHERS SCARCE

Falling off in the Work Due to This Situation

Kingston, Ont., March 13.—That drastic means should be taken to stir up the work of the Sunday school in different sections was in brief the summing up of a report submitted to the Kingston Presbytery at its meeting in Cooke's Church to-day by the moderator, Rev. A. M. Drumm, of Belleville. Rev. Mr. Drumm made the startling statement that seven Sunday schools had been closed. The main reasons for the closing of the schools had been lack of teachers, and in some cases lack of pupils.

GUELPH CHURCH AGAINST UNION

Results on Vote by Rev. Mr. Abraham's Congregation

Guelph, March 13.—At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Sunday night, the pastor, Rev. H. E. Abraham, announced the result of the voting on church union. The vote of the people of St. Andrew's was decidedly against the union, but there is apparently a lot of indifference being manifested, as only about fifty per cent. of those entitled to vote did so. The ballot submitted to the Presbyterians is slightly different to that of the Methodists, inasmuch as there are two plain questions asked, one on the question of union and one dealing with the basis of union. Following are the results as announced last night:

Those in favor of organic union and also the basis of union, 77.

Those in favor of union, but who make no mention of the basis, 22.

Those in favor of the union, but against the basis, 7.

Those against the union and also against the basis, 100.

Those against union, no mention being made of the basis, 20.

Against the basis, union not mentioned, 3.

The members of the session in favor of both the union and the basis were 10, with 5 against.

FINE OF $10.00 ON EACH OF THE TWO BARTENDERS

Served Liquor to Minors—Bartenders Must Help To Preserve Laws Says Magistrate.

Bruce Lee and Wm. Evans, both bartenders at the Grand Hotel, who were accused of selling liquor to two minors on the evening of Friday, March 8th, were assessed $10 and costs by Magistrate Dumble this morning. In each case, the penalty amounted to $13.05.

Mr. Jas. Haverson, K.C., of Toronto, appeared for the defendants.

The two youths who procured the liquor were called, and they told the story of the evening, as it was told on March 9th by the one who had been arrested and fined for being drunk. The boys were 18 and 17 years of age respectively.

Chief Thompson was not going to call any more witnesses, and Mr. Haverson then thought it unnecessary to put up any further defence.

His Worship said that he could not convict on the evidence. He believed the parties were guilty, but there was always the danger of an after-clap.

BAR WAS CROWDED.

"I suppose it is useless to ask you if you have any interest in serving people under age," said Mr. Haverson.

"I do not do it if I know it," said Lee.

In explaining how he had come to serve the boys, Lee said that March 8th was Edison pay night. The bar was crowded and he did not have any suspicion of them. They seemed to be over 21.

"If you had known that they were under age what would you have done," said Mr. Haverson.

"They would have got chased," was the answer.

To Chief Thompson, Lee said that he had received his instructions from the proprietor. They were to the effect that if he (Lee) knowingly sold liquor to prohibited persons he alone would be held responsible.

AGES JUDGED

Mr. George Cochrane, who was present in court, was called as a witness by the prosecution to judge the ages of the boys. He said he would take one to be about 20 years, and the other 18 years. He did not know either of them.

Mr. Charles Wylie, Insurance agent was also asked to give his opinion of the ages of the boys. He said "If I were talking to them on a business proposition, I think I would "hit" them up on about an eighteen year premium.

When His Worship gave judgement in Lee's case, Mr. Haverson, on behalf of Evans, pleaded guilty on a similar charge and Evans got a dose similar to Lee's.

In giving judgement His Worship said, "I must find him guilty." It is for the safety and salvation of our young men. The bartender must help to preserve them as well as the citizens who make the laws."

FINED FOR LOITERING

The two youths who were served with the liquor by Lee and Evans, were each fined $2 on charges of loitering about the bar-room of the Grand Hotel, on March 8, the evening on which Lee and Evans offended

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this.

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients as compounded in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now. We can tell you all about D.D.D. FIRE HALL PET IS NO MORE

Took to Pedestrians and Had to be Shot.

Owing to the fact that the little Irish terrier "Davy," which has belonged to the firemen for the past couple of years, had developed certain bad habits, Chief Howard was reluctantly forced to have the popular little animal shot.

"Davy" became the property of Chief Howard two years ago, when he purchased the little pup from Magistrate Dumble, and the Chief presented it to the firemen who have cared for him as a pet since that time.

The little dog has led a very eventful life, once narrowly escaping death when he was run over by the hose wagon, and several times he has figured in collisions with bicyclists. Lately "Davy" has displayed a liking for destroying the overcoats of pedestrians, and that led to the necessity of his being shot.

The dog was very popular among the policemen and firemen who called him "the policemen's and firemen's friend."

DID NOT MAKE A CONVICTION

Hanlan Howard "Couldn't Remember" Who Served Him

Judgment in Bartenders Case Was Reserved

The charge against Charles R. Nixon, proprietor of the Grand Hotel, of having allowed Hanlon Howard, a band Indian, to be served with liquor on his premises, was dismissed by Magistrate Dumble this morning.

The fact that the information was laid under the Indian Act probably helped to determine His Worship's judgment. The Indian Act states that the proprietor shall not supply liquor to an Indian, neither shall it be supplied by his agent, clerk or servant. The magistrate said that it had not been proven by the evidence that any agent, clerk or servant of Mr. Nixon had supplied the Indian, and he could not convict.

INDIAN CALLED.

Hanlon Howard, the Indian who had sworn to getting liquor at the Grand Hotel, was put in the witness box. He told his story and about his doings on the day in question, so far as he remembered. His evidence was very unsatisfactory, as most of his answers were, "I don't remember." In fact he used that expression so often that it got on the nerves of those listening.

The Indian, under a hot fire of question from Mr. Haverson, said he could not swear that any of the bartenders gave him liquor. He knew he had received a couple of drinks there but did not know who had served them. The three Grand Hotel bar-tenders, Bruce Lee, William Evans and Walter Chambers were in court but the witness could not identify any of them, as the man behind the bar who looked like a bartender and who had given him whiskey in a whiskey glass."

"I am afraid I am pumping a dry well," said Mr. Haverson, who, to several different questions, received the one answer, "I don't remember"

DID NOT SERVE

Lee, Evans, Chambers, and C. R. Nixon, were called in turn and they each told about their different connections with Howard's visits to the hotel. They all swore that they did not give the Indian any whiskey. Lee and Mr. Nixon had each put the Indian out of the bar on the afternoon in question. He was not drunk then but slightly under the influence.

PLEADS GUILTY

James O'Shea, who is in charge of the Palace Hotel bar, appeared before Magistrate Dumble this morning on a charge the same as Nixon's. He pleaded guilty to having given Hanlon Howard, one glass of whiskey and judgement was reserved until to-morrow morning.

Mr. G. N. Gordon appeared for O'Shea

INDIAN FINED $5

ANOTHER LESSON

From J. W. BROWETT Optometrist

You are a parent? Your child is in school a certain number of hours each day, using the eyes constantly. Each year the lessons become harder, books are taken home, studies are continued in the evening, the eyes are being overtaxed, the delicate muscles are strained; yet perhaps no thought is given to helping the eyes. We know that injury results from this neglect. We must realize that, if there is a cause for eye strain; there must be a remedy; the remedy most naturally would be rest for the eyes; this rest can be obtained by wearing resting Glasses. Come and let me explain to you scientifically why resting Glasses should be worn.

We believe that parents are wise in caring for their Children's eyes, the remedy is simple and the cost is slight.

LEAP YEAR ELOPEMENT

Authorities on the Lookout for Haliburton Couple

Lindsay, March 14.—County Court Constable Thornbury received a telegram from Donald, a hamlet in Haliburton county, on Tuesday night, asking him to detain a runaway couple who had purchased a ticket via Lindsay to Victoria Harbor.

The story from what could be gleaned from the telegram, is to the effect that a young man by the name of Elijah Bonny became enamored of a Mrs. John Cole, and wishing to make it more agreeable for himself, and the object of his affections, he took a trip to other lands with the pretty Mrs. Cole.

Bonny was described in the telegram as being a man of about 165 pounds, tall, well dressed, having on a dark fur coat and stiff black hat. Mrs. Cole was said to be about five feet in height, and her avoirdupois being 110 pounds. She was dressed in dark clothes with large plumes in her hat.

As Constable Thornbury did not receive the message until after the arrival of the Haliburton train, it was impossible to take any action last evening. The telegram asked for their arrest or apprehension.

The constable hurried around to every restaurant on receipt of the message, but elicited nothing concerning the eloping couple's whereabouts. Next the hotels were visited, where registers were closely scanned, and the proprietors interrogated, relative to the two.

In the telegram it was also stated that Mrs. Cole had deserted her two children, which is a sad feature of the case. The couple will in all probability be apprehended at Victoria Harbor, or they might possibly stop over in Orillia or Midland for rest. However, Constable Thornbury considers it is only a matter of a few days until the elopers are in the grip of the law.

GROWTH OF TRUSTS DUE TO THE LATE ADMINISTRATION

Declares Andrew Broder in Commons—Cockshutt Pleads for Renewal of Bonus.

Ottawa, March 15.—"When a man is drowning it is not a time to investigate, it is a time to save him, and after you have done so, find out how he got there," declared W. F. Cockshutt (Brantford), who strongly protested in the House of Commons last evening against the absence from the budget speech of any announcement of a renewal of the steel bounties. It would seem, he said, that the steel industry had fared better at the hands of a so-called free trade Government than it would at the hands of a so-called protectionist Government.

The budget was adopted at midnight without a division.

Alphonse Verville (Maisonneuve), who resumed the debate, devoted his energies for an hour and a half to a denunciation of the wicked policy of protection under which there had grown up in Canada 39 combinations and trusts. Instead of spending $10,000,000 of the $39,000,000 surplus on the navy, as suggested by the member for South York (W. F. Maclean), it should be devoted to lowering taxation.

Andrew Broder (Dundas) declared that the 39 combinations and trusts that the hon. gentleman had spoken about must surely have sprung up since Sept. 21; otherwise such a shrewd, observant gentleman would surely have protested against them long ago. If an evil existed it was a legacy from hon. gentlemen opposite.

Hon. Frank Oliver said that the trusts had grown up during the last few years, but he argued that this was a condition that had grown naturally out of the progress of the country, and for which that Government was not responsible, but with which it was dealing in the reciprocity pact.

He declared emphatically that the tariff legislation of the present Government, when it was brought down would be found to be framed in the interests of the combines.

W. F. Cockshutt (Brantford) expressed regret that no mention had been made in the budget of steel bounties. The very point expected had been missed. It was an anomaly that the steel industry had fared better at the hands of a so-called free trade Government than it seemed it was to receive from a so-called protectionist Government.

"When a man is drowning it is not a time to investigate; it is a time to save him, and after you have done so find out how he got there," said Mr. Cockshutt. The bounties should have been renewed, and then if it were found out later that they were not wanted they could be taken away. The cost was estimated at about $2,000,000.

"This Government was elected largely on the ground that it was protectionist Government. I am not ashamed of being a protectionist," he said.

The excess of imports over exports Mr. Cockshutt declared to be a danger to Canada. There was an unfavorable balance of $175,000,000 which had to be paid for in cash. Of this $165,000,000 had gone to the United States in the last year. He declared himself for protection for both the manufacturer and the farmer.

"The longer you hammer away at reciprocity," he said to the Opposition, "the longer you'll stay on that side of the House. We're glad to have you talk reciprocity." Not trade more with the United States, but trade more with the Mother Country should be the aim of Canada. A mutual tariff preference was coming, and it would come under a Canadian Premier of Britain—Bonar Law. Free trade was put forward by Cobden to fracture the Empire.

Before the orders of the day were called Hon. F. D. Monk announced that H.R.H. the Princess Louise had presented to the Government, through the Governor-General, a valuable oil painting of the Duke of Kent, the grandfather of King George, by Sir William Beachey.

ATTEMPTED TO LYNCH HIM

Deed Was Protest Against Organization of Society.

Rome, March 15.—A dastardly attempt to assassinate King Victor Emmanuel of Italy was made by an anarchist in Rome yesterday morning.

The would-be regicide chose for his attempt the anniversary of the birthday of the late King Humbert, the father of the present King, who himself died the victim of an assassin's bullet at Monza on Sunday, July 29, 1900, when leaving a distribution of prizes at a gymnastic fete. He was shot at three times as he entered his carriage. One bullet pierced the heart. His assailant was an anarchist, Bresci by name.

King Victor was fortunate enough to escape the several shots fired at him yesterday from a revolver, though aimed from a very short distance.

The unsuccessful attempt to assassinate the King made as His Majesty, with Queen Helene, was proceeding from the palace to the Pantheon to take part in the annual memorial service in honor of the late King Humbert.

The royal carriage was preceded and followed by an escort of cuirassiers. The procession was passing along the Via Lata when three shots rang out from amidst the crowd.

Consternation was on every face. The soldiers following the carriage immediately dashed forward, and as they did so their commander fell from his horse.

The wounded officer was moved to one side by one of his men while the others dashed up to the royal carriage, where they found the King and Queen sitting calm and unmoved.

Meanwhile the crowd seized the man who had fired the shots and attempted to lynch him. He was so badly handled that he was scarcely able to answer questions when he was handed over to the police.

The royal procession was not stopped for an instant, but proceeded toward the Pantheon, where the mass for King Humbert was completed without further incident.

After the conclusion of the service the King and Queen returned to the Quirnal along the same route.

At the police station, in spite of the man's bad condition owing to the mishandling he had received from the crowds, he was submitted to a keen interrogatory. He declared that his name was Antonio Dalba, that he was a stonemason. He described himself as an "individualist anarchist," and said that he made the attempt on the King's life as a protest against the organization of society.

All the circumstances lead to the belief that the assailant of His Majesty was not concerned in any plot of an organization.

The Pope, when assured that the King was unharmed, ejaculated: "I thank God most fervently for having saved the King's life."

COUNTESS OF WARWICK HERE FOR LECTURE TOUR

THE COUNTESS OF WARWICK PHOTOGRAPHED ON HER ARRIVAL

As deeply interested as ever in socialism, in the leading upward of the masses, in working girls' homes, in schools for tatting and institutions of that class, the Countess of Warwick has just arrived in this country from England to deliver thirty lectures in various cities in the United States.

"Why are you a socialist?" was one of the first of the blunt questions hurled at Lady Warwick by a person who is in the business of hurling questions of that kind.

"Because the present conditions of life are absolutely hopeless for the many," Lady Warwick answered, and she sighed as she spoke.

TORONTO MAN IS NEW MASTER OF ONTARIO WEST L. O. L.

Dr. Pyne Says Government Desires to Make English the Language of the Province.

London, Ont., March 15.—Fred. Dane of Toronto was elected Grand Master of the Orange Grand Lodge of Ontario West at the closing session last night by acclamation. Dr. Williams of Woodstock was elected Deputy Grand Master and H. C. Hocken of Toronto second deputy.

The passing of resolutions against bilingual schools and the ne temere decree, which were presented by the legislation committee, under Col. Scott, made up the principal business of the afternoon. The resolution respecting ne temere expressed satisfaction on the part of the grand lodge that the Federal Government had done what the order desired the Provincial Government to do, namely, to have the courts pass upon the ne temere decree, and the resolution further expressed the hope that only the Dominion Parliament should have the power of dissolving marriages.

An emphatic protest against "special privileges" in the matter of bilingual schools was voiced in that resolution, which was adopted after a lively discussion. It declared that the Ontario Government cannot compel obserbance of the law as long as there is "one loophole for the use of French in schools."

The resolution was brought in by Lieut.-Col. J. H. Scott of Walkerton and seconded by Controller H. C. Hocken of Toronto. A similar resolution will come before the grand lodge of Eastern Ontario in Kingston next Wednesday.

Hon. Dr. Pyne, who delivered a strong address, declared it was the desire of the Government to make English the language of the province. That was the purpose of the Department of Education in having prepared the exhaustive report of Dr. Merchant on the bilingual question. All were agreed that Ontario should remain English-speaking. Dr. Pyne also favored better-paid teachers, made responsible to the Government.

An address was given by Hon. Jas. Duff, who expressed opinions practically supporting all that Dr. Pyne had said.

CANADIAN GENERAL RECEIVES SHARE OF HYDRO WORK

Hamilton, March 14.—After the controllers cleaned up their regular business this morning, the Hydro board had a session and took up the matter of the contracts for transformers, which the council referred back because the work was divided between the Canada General Electric company, the Packard company and the Westinghouse company, the local firm being the lowest on only the largest transformers. While in Toronto yesterday the mayor and Controller Bailey made enquiries at the Hydro department and found that the Packare transformers were giving satisfaction.

ASSASSINATION OF KING HUMBERT

King Humbert was assassinated by Bresci at Monza. His assailant was immediately arrested, and on Aug. 11, 1900, condemned to solitary confinement for life; there being no death penalty in Italy. That he was afterwards subjected to great torture has been charged, but always denied by the Italians. However, he committed suicide in his cell on May 22, 1901.

ELECTRIC POWER TRUST THE NEWEST EVIL IN THE U. S.

Startling Statements Made in Report by Commissioner

Washington, March 15.—Startling statements respecting the water powers of the United States and their domination by a huge trust are contained in a special report to the President by Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, made public here yesterday. The report denounces as the merest guesswork many semi-official computations heretofore made as to the amount of electrical energy susceptible of generation from the water powers of the country. The highest possible amount which can be generated in the U. S., according to Mr. Smith, is 25,000,000 horse-power. At the present there is being generated in the U. S. for commercial use about 3,000,000 horse-power, being about 10 per cent. of the total stationery power produced by steam, water and gas combined. Of the 3,000,000 horse-power of electrical energy now being generated 1,800,000 horse-power, or 60 per cent., is controlled by the electric trust. This trust is composed of ten large groups headed by the General Electric Co. They control between them, in addition to the power now being developed, undeveloped water powers to the extent of 1,449,000 horse-power and municipal lighting plants, city street car systems, city gas plants and radial railways in great number.

These groups have seized nearly every strategic point in the eighteen sates in which water powers abound.

In California six great power corporations, of which the most important is the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. (with 118,343 horse-power), together control 375,000 horse-power, over 86 per cent. of all the developed water power in the state.

In Washington two companies control 210,000 horse-power, or about 70 per cent. of all developed water power.

In South Carolina the Southern Power Co. owns about 101,000 horse-power, or 75 per cent. of the total commercially developed, with 73,000 horse-power undeveloped.

In the Southern Peninsula of Michigan the Commonwealth Power, Railway & Light Co. controls 52,000 horse-power, or 73 per cent. of the commercially developed, together with probably 71,000 horse-power undeveloped.

Practically similar conditions exist in Montana, Colorado, Georgia, and Niagara Falls.

Dr. Sen is Said to Have Received $1,500,000 From Yuan

Special to the Review.

Shangai, March 14—It was reported here that Yuan Shi Kai and Dr. Sun Yat Sen have been parties to a plot. It is rumored that Yuan paid Dr. Sun $1,500,000 or more to withdraw from his office of provisional President, so that the way could be opened for Yuan to take the post. The leaders of the Republicans indignantly repudiate the stories, and declare that Dr. Sen has too much at stake to enter into any such bargains.

ELECTRIC SYSTEM MUST BE UNDER A COMMISSION

Hon. Adam Beck Introduces Bill In Legislature

Toronto, March 15.—After a period of about a year every city and town in Ontario having a contract with the Hydro-Electric Commission must have the control and management of its municipal electrical system in charge of a commission.

Such is the effect of a bill introduced in the Legislature yesterday by Hon. Adam Beck. The commission has come to see the necessity of having the administration of municipal systems removed as far as possible from the influence of local councils. The bill provides for the election of commissioners upon the same basis that light and water commissioners are now elected, but the coming into force of the measure is delayed in order to give municipalities an opportunity to elect or appoint commissioners as they desire.

In the meantime, where there is no commission control is not to be changed, except in the case of a city having a Board of Control, in which case the board has entire jurisdiction.

Provision for Appointment of Officers for Entire Province.

Toronto, March 15.—With provision made for the division of the province into not more than ten health districts and the appointment of a legally qualified medical practitioner to be known as the district officer of health for each district, the bill revising the Public Health Act was introduced in the Legislature yesterday by Hon. W. J. Hanna.

Centralization of power, and that centre the Provincial Board of Health with offices at the Parliament Buildings, is the chief feature of the health act in its revised form.

The new clause referring to the powers of the chief officer and members of the Provincial Board states that these officials shall possess all the powers conferred upon a medical officer of health, and the officers of the local board by the act or by the regulations.

Cities of 50,000 population or over, according to the last census, shall not be included in any one of the districts. These cities already have competent medical health officers.

Every district officers of health under the regulations of the new bill shall be paid an annual salary not exceeding $2,500, and an allowance of $1,000 for expenses. Such salary and allowance shall be payable in the first instance out of the consolidated revenue fund.

To defray a part at least of the cost of the new officers, the council of every part of a health district shall annually, on or before the first day of February, pay to the Provincial Treasurer such proportion of the salary and allowance of the district officer of health based upon the population of the county according to the last census of Canada and exclusive of the population of any city or separated town within the county, as may be certified by the chief officer.

Where communicable diseases exist in any boarding school or other institution where students are received for tuition the head of the institution shall immediately isolate the patient and within twelve hours after the disease is known to exist shall notify the medical officer of health. Medical health officers will have a measure of control over the meat sold in the markets of the municipality where he has authority and he can insist on finding out from the vendor where the meat came from. The M. H. O. may refuse a local license in case he is not satisfied with the information given or with the origin of the meat supply.

No isolation hospital can be established by a municipality until the plans for such hospital are approved by the Provincial Board of Health.

The corporation of every municipality shall enter into an agreement with the medical officer of health or some other legally qualified medical practitioner, resident in the municipality, for his medical attendance upon patients who are unable through poverty to pay for the necessary attendance and who are not cared for in a public or private hospital.

The medical officer of health shall be the executive officer of the local board, and with the local board shall be responsible for the carrying out of the provisions of this act and of the regulation of the bylaws of the municipality.

An annual conference of the medical officers of health will be held at such time and place as may be determined by the provincial board.

Oratorical flourishes marked the budget speech debate which stretched into the night at the Legislature yesterday. Although impossible to finish up by Easter the House worked after dark for the first time this session. The back-benchers were given a chance to unlimber their vocal artillery. Lively this happened now and then. Sir James Whitney and W. N. Sinclair had a set-to when the Premier declared that the much-talked-of telegram to the Elk Lake regions containing an election eve promise of a railroad was a forgery.

SINGLE TAX

The question of Single Tax is being taken up by the city of Winnipeg. As an illustration, in favor of the system, the effect in Victoria, as a result of that city, adopting Single Tax, the Winnipeg Tribune has the following to say—

In January, 1910, Vancouver adopted the Single Tax for local purposes. The first place to feel the effect of competition with it was Victoria, the capital of British Columbia. Other cities soon felt it also, and cities in the United States including Seattle, found themselves being outstripped by their neighbor on this side of the boundary.

So many men and so much money left Victoria for Vancouver in 1910 that Victoria was forced, in self-defence, to adopt the Single Tax for city purposes, which she did by a vote of five to one in January 1911.

The effect was magical.

In April, 1911, Victoria's building permits were $290,110, against $192,440 in April, 1910.

In April, 1911, this had grown to $423,960, against $212,814 in August 1910.

In November, 1911, it reached $616,625 against $104,295 in November 1910; while Seattle's buildings fell off from $1,020,235 in November, 1910 to $449,105 in November, 1911, although Seattle's population is about seven times that of Victoria.

WHAT IS WANTED

That was a very significant paragraph which "Windermere" cabled yesterday from the official memorandum issued by the British Government in connection with the new Navy Estimates. In order that we may have its precise wording before us again, we re-print it here;

"The development of the naval policy of Canada is, at the moment, somewhat uncertain. Until the proposals of the new Dominion Government are formulated, it is not possible to say how far the organization of the recently constituted Royal Canadian Navy may be modified, but the Admiralty will earnestly co-operate in any scheme which will enable Canada to take a real, effective part in the naval defence of the Empire."

The sting lies in the tail. There was no need for the British Government to go farther than to say that it would earnestly co-operate with any scheme which Canada might propose. But it did go farther. It did, in fact, go out of its way to add that this scheme should "enable Canada to take a real, effective part in the defence of the Empire." Our part is to be "real." Who can pretend that the "Niobe" was "real"—except for social purposes? It is to be "effective." Who will say that even the four cruisers and the six destroyers would be "effective" at a time when "only Dreadnoughts count?" It is to join in "the naval defence of the Empire." The best that was ever claimed for our toy navy was that it would share in the defence of Canadian ports and the Canadian grain-route. "The naval defence of the Empire" is a bigger business; and the British Admiralty, which has in its charge, is concentrating its fighting ships in the "home waters" of the British Isles.

When this Government consults the Admiralty—if it does not carefully gag the Lords of the Admiralty to begin with—it will discover, we confidently believe, that they never had anything but exasperation and contempt for the "separatist" navy policy of the late Administration, and that what they want now is a direct contribution of fighting ships to the fighting line of the British Navy.—Montreal Star.

WANT SHOP LICENSE DONE AWAY WITH

But Hastings People Resent the Action of Norwood Council

Norwood Register:—Some of the Hastings residents appear to be much incensed at the action of Norwood Council in memorializing the Provincial Government to have the shop license in that village cut off. This, of course, was to be expected. People naturally resent any seeming interference with what they consider to be their own affair. And this perhaps is justifiable when it happens to be entirely their own affair. In this case, however, it is not. The matter concerns the entire district surrounding Hastings. Local option is now in force in all the municipalities adjacent, and it has been the opinion of temperance people for some time that this shop license should be removed. It was not, however, until the electors of Hastings voted upon the question and decided to retain the license system that the people outside decided to take action.

Our neighboring contemporary, the Star, indulges in considerable mud-slinging and endeavors to lead its readers to believe that the movement is the outcome of business jealousy because the holder of the license and the seconder of the resolution happened to be engaged in a particular line of business. Fudge! Ghost stories of this character are always trumped up to draw people's minds away from the real issue. The movement did not originate with the Norwood Council and is not confined to Norwood.

Read what the Campbellford Herald has to say about the Hastings shop license:

"Rumors are afloat to the effect that a petition will be circulated in the district surrounding Hastings village and preseted to the license commissioners asking that the shop license in that village be discontinued after the present year. Should the commissioners act in accordance with the petition there is no doubt that it would very materially work out to the interests of local option territory. If the petition is circulated it should receive the approval of all who wish to see the local option law carried out. Now, that local option is law, let us endeavor to assist in maintaining it, and the removal of the Hastings liquor shop license would be in the interests of the community."

GIRLS FIX JOKE ON POLICEMAN

He Threatened Them for Wearing Male Attire

Girls Tied Him up and Relieved Him of Weapons

Vancouver, B.C., March 14.— For breaking into a college girls' surprise party, at which many of the visitors were masquerading in male attire, Policeman Jesse Troch was trussed up like a turkey, had his revolver taken from him and had the humiliation of hearing his conquerors call up the police station and tell of his predicament. Miss Arlena Cate and Miss Gertie Williams returned from the theatre Wednesday night to find the Cate home filled with young people who were there to give Miss Arlena a surprise birthday party. Some of the girls had arrayed themselves in men's clothes.

Troch and Jas. F. Geoghegan, Vancouver's City Treasurer, both practical jokers, tried some of their fine art on Miss Cate's party. Before they had finished the demonstration, Troch, who attempted to arrest the girls for appearing in the attire not built for their pretty curves, was seized and robbed of his gun, club, handcuffs, a smile and his liberty. Geoghegan was relieved of his dignity and placed in the cellar.

Once a captive Troch, it is said, pleaded with tears in his eyes to be released. He declared he had been afraid he would hurt the girls as they struggled in a heap on the floor. That was his explanation of why he was a prisoner. When the policeman's feet were safely tied, he was informed he was about to be taken to the police station. There, the girls told the now thoroughly frightened man, he would be reported as a "Peeping Tom."

With both men earnestly begging for freedom, the girls notified Night Sergeant Wynne Gasoway over the telephone of what had occurred, and asked the officer to come over. Before he arrived, however, Troch and Geoghegan were sent about their business and told to be good in the future.

The whole trouble started when James G. Soule let Troch in on the secret of the surprise party. The policeman and Geoghegan are friends. The latter fell in with Trochs' plans and went along. How the officer got into the house is not known, but what happened to him and his companion after their entrance is something which will provide Vancouver with a hearty laugh for some time to come.

Lady Betty Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

"No. Said: 'You can't get in here. This beach is for millionaires.' I'm blest if I don't shake the sand off my feet as soon as I can pack up and get out."

"No, no! Don't do that," I begged. "There's some mistake perhaps."

"No, there isn't," said he. "I'm not a millionaire. But I did think I looked as if I could afford a bath."

"Sally, dear, do let me introduce my cousin, Lord Mohunsleigh," I said in a great hurry.

Potter opened his eyes at the thin little man, and Mrs. and Miss Pitchley looked at him with interest.

"Do introduce us all," laughed Mrs. Pitchley, "and then we can sympathize with Lord—Lord—oh, but I can never learn to pronounce him!"

I introduced him to the mother and stepdaughter then, though I hadn't thought of its being necessary, and explained that my cousin, though spelled very elaborately, was pronounced Moonslee.

He had evidently abandoned all intention of immediate flight now, and his rage was visibly cooling. He was looking at Mrs. Pitchley with quite as much interest as she showed in him and with even more at the girl, although he talked to Potter Parker and answered his questions quite civilly. He explained that he had actually been ordered away from the beach, bathing suit and all, by some "impertinent ass of an official."

Potter was hospitably distressed, but Mrs. Pitchley was moved to laughter.

"Ha, ha, won't the man be sick when he sees you coming back with us and hears us call you Lord Mohunsleigh?—for if you'll point him out in time, that's what I shall call you, right under his nose. You see, this is a private beach. We all subscribe for our bath houses, but you'll be our guest, of course, and I'll put Mr. Pitchley's box at your service. He's gone off fishing for a few days. Only to think of the Earl of Mohunsleigh being turned back. Delicious!"

"Why, Mohunsleigh!" I cried.

"Can't say I thought of it that way till now," said Mohunsleigh, pulling his wiry mustache and condescending to grin slightly at last. "But it's true I'm not a millionaire you know."

"You're an earl. You can't say you're not, for I read in the Flashlight only the other day that the Earl of Mohunsleigh had sailed for America, though it couldn't be ascertained on what ship."

"Didn't know there was any particular reason why it should be ascertained," said Mohunsleigh. "I've run over to visit a chap in California—dashed nice chap, too, but thought I'd have a shot at New York first, and blest if I could stand it. Never could stand being grilled since a sunstroke I got when I was serving in India."

"Dear me, who and what does a lord serve?" broke in Miss Pitchley, which surprised Mohunsleigh and me both so much that he stared and I blushed. But she didn't, though no girl under Vic's age at least would think of cutting in like that with a stranger at home. Mohunsleigh was delighted to be spoken to by her, though, one could see. His eyes brightened up and he smiled, looking straight at her as if she were a new and absolutely desirable kind of rifle. I say rifle because Mohunsleigh is a great shot and would rather spend his money (what he has of it) on a new invention by way of a gun than anything else.

"Used to be in the army. I've chucked it now," he explained affably, beginning to look quite nice, for really, though small and wiry, with ginger colored hair and mustache and no colored eyes, Mohunsleigh isn't an ugly man when you come to notice his nice, sharp features. He's only a distant cousin of mine and so old (he's nearly forty) that in the first years of our acquaintance he made himself agreeable by teaching me to ride on his foot, but I always liked him—whenever I remembered his existence. Naturally, though, this hasn't been often, as one of his many eccentricities is to be continually prowling at the ends of the earth—anywhere where there may be animals to shoot. What kind he doesn't seem to care if they are only large enough. Once he was fond of tigers, but the last thing he had a fad for was polar bears, and he sent mother a skin, which makes the oak room smell strongly of camphor.

"I hope, anyhow, you're going to pay a good long visit to Newport," said Mrs. Pitchley.

"I meant to go back tomorrow morning," replied Mohunsleigh, "but perhaps I might stop on a bit longer."

"We'll give you some fun," volunteered Miss Pitchley, looking frightfully pretty.

"Will you?" said Mohunsleigh. "Jolly nice of you. I must think about it." Then he deigned to remember that I was his little long lost cousin, asked when I'd arrived on this side the water and a few other things, but he looked more at Miss Pitchley than at me. I suppose it is difficult to be much excited about a person who has taken riding lessons on your foot.

Potter asked Mohunsleigh where he was staying, and when he heard it was at a hotel he said his sister wouldn't allow that to go on. Lord Mohunsleigh would have to come to the Moorings, that was settled, and his man must be told to pack up his things directly. Mightn't word be sent by messenger at once?

"Haven't brought a man, thanks awfully. Shed that habit long ago," said my cousin. "I've got precious little luggage, too; picked this thing up in a shop as I came along and they charged me the deuce of a lot for it. You're awfully good, you know, and all that, to offer to put me up, but I only came prepared to spend a night or two."

Then Potter insisted and blew all Mohunsleigh's objections away one by one as if they had been threads of cobweb, still my cousin wouldn't give a definite answer, perhaps not understanding American hospitality, or perhaps having other ideas which he preferred. At all events we went to the bathing machines (which weren't bathing machines at all, but dear little houses) without anything being decided. The only invitation which Mohunsleigh had really accepted was Mrs. Pitchley's, for her husband's bathing box.

CREW OF FORTY NEARLY PERISH

New Steamer Goes on the Rocks During Fog

Mistook Alarm for Whistle of Another Boat

Halifax, N.S., March 13.—The new steamer, Isleworth, under charter of the Dominion Coal Company, broke three of her propeller blades last Sunday on a trip from Boston to Louisburg, and in consequence she is ashore to-night off Chebucto Head, at the entrance to this harbor, and will be a total loss. The Isleworth had a crew of 4 men, and they and Capt. Redding with difficulty got to land.

The Isleworth left Boston last Thursday. On Sunday she ran into ice and three of her four propeller blades were broken off. With the single blade she slowly made her way since Sunday, and when she struck this afternoon she was trying to enter this harbor for repairs. The fog was thick, a high sea was running, and Captain Redding, out of reckoning, found himself on the rocks, striking about 100 yards from the Chebucto Head fog alarm and lighthouse. They had heard the fog alarm and thought it was another steamer's whistle. Darkness was coming on and the captain determined to abandon the steamer. A boat was sent ashore with a line, and this was used in succeeding trips to get all the crew ashore. Five trips were made, the boat being pulled to and fro by the line. The passages became more difficult as time went on, and the last was especially dangerous, the sea having become much heavier.

There is no accommodation at Chebucto Head, and the 40 men will have to stay to-night in the fog alarm building. No supplies of food are on hand except what is in store for the light-keeper and his family.

The Isleworth is eight months old, and has a tonnage of 3,060 net.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—If the ballot were adopted in the House of Commons it would enable the representatives of the people to vote regardless of influence. Surely that is desirable. The great underlying principle of the good of the people and their greater freedom lies close to the heart of most men. Free them from other influences and let them give scope and rein to their better impulses, and if they are men at all they will do better under a ballot than under the whip of something else.

QUITTERS WILL BE THE SUBJECT

The Rev. W. C. Riddiford will take for his subject next Sunday evening, at the Park street Baptist church, "Protestant Quitters," a message to men of to-day to be loyal to what they profess to believe, and to ring true.

Owing to the rush of work, Mr. Patrick Morgan has postponed his promised return visit to Peterborough for a little while at least, but the Rev. W. T. Graham, D.D., pastor of the First Ave. Baptist church, Toronto, has kindly consented to take Mr. Morgan's place and will give a lecture in the Park street Baptist church on Tuesday evening, April 2nd at 8.15 on "Ignatius Loyola," the famous founder of the Jesuit Society. Dr. Graham is well read on the principles and workings of this now world-wide order, and is a forceful and logical platform speaker.

The meeting is open and free to all. Everybody is invited. No charge, simply a free-will offering to defray expenses.

WANT CHANGES IN THE HIGH SCHOOL ACT

County Pupils Pay Lower Rate Than Local Pupils

Toronto, March 14. — Claiming that the High School Act allowing county pupils to attend high schools in cities and towns at a lower rate than the city pupils was an injustice, a large deputation representing the high schools and collegiate institutes of the province waited on Hon. Dr. Pyne yesterday to ask that an amendment to the act be introduced at the present session of the Legislature. N. W. Rowell introduced the deputation.

Among those present were: R. S. Box and S. Martin, of St. Mary's; H. E. Guppy and Rev. Mr. Tolmie of Windsor; Mr. Benfield of Niagara Falls; J. Green and F. J. Geashi of Brockville; Dr. E. Hart and J. P. Prichard of Brantford; W. H. Hamilton of Guelph; J. A. Mundell and W. J. Keeler of Prescott; R. S. Steinhoff and Mr. Monteith of Stratford; W. S. Bean, F. H. Down, A. U. Hedgins and P. S. Connolly of Woodstock.

The amendment asked for is to make the sum payable by the county equal to 100 per cent. of the cost of maintenance of county pupils attending the high school.

Several of the speakers expressed their views on the matter, claiming that the present conditions were unjust. As matters stand at present, pupils from the county in which the high school is located pay 80 per cent. of the cost of maintenance and pupils from outside counties pay 65 per cent. This is what is objected to as being unjust.

A concrete instance was afforded by the town of St. Mary's, which at the present time has a debenture debt of $175,000 with a population of 3500. There are 200 pupils attending the collegiate institute in that town, and fully one-half of these come from Perth and other adjacent counties. As a result of the 80 and 65 per cent. fee for county pupils the collegiate institute loses a yearly sum of $951.68, which has got to be made up by townspeople in addition to paying 100 per cent of the cost of the city pupils attending the school. In St. Mary's the average cost per pupil for education is $35.38 per year, and the average amount received from county pupils is $25.71, leaving a deficit of $9.67 which has to be made up by the town. This plainly results in the cost being $45.46 per city pupil, as compared with $25.71 for county pupils.

Of course, these figures only apply to the town of St. Mary's, but they afford a good example of how the present act works out.

Hon. Dr. Pyne in reply seemed rather to favor the present conditions of the act. He admitted that the question was a very difficult one to deal with, and besides there were no representatives of county councils present to express their side of the case. The minister drew attention to the fact that county pupils were put to the extra expense of train fare and travelling expenses and this no doubt was one of the points that would make the county officials object to the proposed amendment. Dr. Pyne stated, however, that he would immediately bring the question before his colleagues and have it thoroughly discussed.

DICTAGRAPH IN DARROW'S ROOM

Conversations With Him Since His Indictment are Recorded

Los Angeles, March 15. — Probably a dozen conversations between Clarance S. Darrow, chief counsel of the McNamaras, and John R. Harrington, a Chicago attorney associated with him, were taken down through the aid of a telephonic device, according to District Attorney John D. Fredericks.

The conversations, which took place in Harrington's room in a local hotel, all occurred since the indictment of Darrow on a charge of bribery, said the District Attorney. Several days ago it was announced by the District Attorney's office that Harrington would be a witness for the State when the trial of Darrow is called.

District Attorney Fredericks stated that Harrington had secured a room at the hotel a month ago under an assumed name. The instrument was hidden behind a picture in the room, and stenographers in an adjoining room recorded the conversation, according to the prosecutor,

Has Taken Possession of Office of Industrial Commissioner

The office formerly occupied by the Industrial Commissioner in the city buildings has been occupied by permanent assessor W. J. Henry, and will be used by him in future. A safe, however, is required in which to store the assessor's books.

The request was heard at the Property Committee meeting last night. Two safes, one in the Oddfellows' hall, and one in the Peterborough Canoe Company's old office, were suggested as being available.

A new safe would cost in the neighborhood of $600 or $700.

On motion the procuring of a safe was left in the hands of the Mayor and the Chairman.

BEVERLY OF GRAUSTARK COMING

Robert M. Baker's excellent dramatization of George Barr McCutcheon's "Beverly" will be the attraction at the Grand next Wednesday, March 20. It is the story of an American girl in a European principality where all sorts and kinds of amusing dramatic and thrilling adventures happen to her. She is first deserted by her escort high up in the wild mountains on the frontier of Graustark, is rescued by an alleged band of brigands, falls in love with the leader of the band and is wooed and won by him. In a fight with the forces of Graustark he is wounded in her defence and she has him removed to an hospital under her protection. She masquerades as the ruling princess, meddles in affairs of state, brow beats minister and generals, defends her lover when he is accused of being a spy, helps him to escape from the castle by an under ground passage and in the end marries the supposed poor and lonely mountaineer to find that he is the ruling prince of a neighboring principality.

"Beverly" comes here direct from its long engagement at the Studebaker Theatre, Chicago, and is en route to Broadway, New York. The company appearing in this city is the one which played with so much success in the Western Metropolis. The cast comprises such well known players as Eleanor Woodruff, Edith Berwyn, Hazel Harroun, Lillian Allen Devere, Dorothy Leneve, Doris Jordan, Lawrence Evart, Davison Clark, Charles G. Perley, Edward Lyons, Kenneth Lee, Lebbeus G. Sweet, Thomas Wyatt, Harold Saltair, Bertrand Flint, and a dozen others. The seat sale opens Monday morning.

C. G. E. COMPANY PROVIDING FOR THE FUTURE

Ten Acres of Chamberlain Property Are Purchased

Ten acres of the Chamberlain estate immediately north of the present location of the Canadian General Electric company works has been purchased by the company within the last few days.

In reply to the Review's query today, Mr. E. G. Patterson, general superintendent of the company, stated that they had nothing in view in purchasing the land.

Mr. Patterson was asked if the acquisition of the property meant an enlargement of the present works, but the reply was to the effect that he did not know just at present.

This plot of land will, however, give ample accommodation for any additions to the works should the company's' business warrant an extension of their present plant.

DUMPING GROUND WANTED FOR THE CITY'S GARBAGE

Tenders Will be Asked for Collection, Removal and Disposal of Garbage in Outlined Area—Property Committee Faced Knotty Problem.

Before the Property Committee dispersed last night, Ald. Duncan asked if the members had any idea of the cost the city incurred in removing dead cats and dogs from the streets. He stated that the average expenditure for such purposes was $7 to $8 a month. The figures were a surprise to the committee.

The much discussed and decidedly troublesome garbage question confronted the City Property Committee again last evening and finally after a lengthy session the following motion was framed and moved by Mayor Bradburn, seconded by Ald. Morgan.

"That the chairman be authorized to ask for tenders for the collection, removal and disposal of garbage in the following area;—"From Smith street to the G.T.R. tracks, down to London, down Reid to Dalhousie, and out Dalhousie street to the river; the said garbage to be collected twice a week during the months from May 1st to Sept. 1st, from private dwellings, and three times weekly from all restaurants, hotels, fruit and fish stores, and from all other stores in said area, twice a week; and that any person wishing extra calls for garbage could have same by arranging with collector." Tenders to be in by Friday, March 29th, 1912.

Mayor Bradburn in moving the above resolution, said that it would at the least, bring the matter to a head, and it could be seen how the plan would work out for one year anyway.

The period leading up to the framing of the above resolution was taken up by a very wordy discussion on the the matter.

THE BURNING QUESTION.

Ald. Duncan opened up the matter when he reqired if it was the wish of the committee to appoint a sanitary inspector.

Mayor Bradburn—"Wel, I'll go back to my first question; what are we going to do with the garbage after we have collected it?"

Ald. Morgan—"Has anything further been done about getting a place settled on."

Ald. Duncan—"No; we have been awaiting word from Toronto regarding prices of incinerators.

MORE THAN $5,500.

It has been learned that an incinerator will mean an expenditure of $5,500 at least, without the concrete foundation.'

Ald. Brown—"Do you not think we could purchase a piece of land to better advantage than by hiring one.'

WANTED A DUMP.

Ald. Duncan—"I can't think of any place, suitable, outside of this place over here (meaning the river bank) without going away outside the city. Dr. McPherson and myself went out to look at a spot near the Isolation Hospital, but the place was not suitable. In Guelph they have three low places which are very satisfactory.'

Mayor Bradburn—"Can you suggest any place in the city of Peterborough where the land is low as you say it is in Guelph, which would be suitable for a dumping ground.'

Ald Duncan—"No, I can't."

OF COURSE.

Ald. Graham—"There is no doubt but what a smell would arise from this stuff wherever it was placed, when it was being burned.'

Ald. Morgan—"It couldn't be worse than Matthews.'

Ald. Duncan—"No matter where you put it you are going to raise objections.'

Ald. Graham—"Yes, that is right, I don't want it near my house."

ONE WAY OUT.

Mayor Bradburn—"Wouldn't it be possible to get some one to take the contract of collecting this garbage in the area we outlined. Let him take care of it, and dispose of it. Then it would be up to him to find a place to dump it.'

Ald. Duncan—"In the end wouldn't that cost more than buying an incinerator. However, we might try that method anyway.'

Mayor Bradburn—"I think we could try it for a year, and then say the next year, go to the people with a by-law to obtain the money to pay for it.'

A POSSIBILITY.

Ald. Duncan—"What if the people in the neighborhood objected to where it was being dumped."

Mayor Bradburn—"Well, if it was a rate-payer who objected he could complain to the contractor and not to the city. I would suggest that the plan be tried, in face of the fact that we have not the money to purchase an incinerator. There is the question, however, of how this is to be paid for."

The Mayor suggested that the system of putting it in with the taxes, as is done in Guelph be tried.

Ald. Morgan—"Suppose we collect it quarterly with the water rates."

Mayor Bradburn—"We could issue debentures up to $5,000 without going to the ratepayers to buy the land upon which to erect the incinerator. However, that amount is insufficient even to buy an incinerator. I would suggest, as I have said, that we ask for tenders for some one to collect the garbage in the area specified, the same party to dispose of it. We can ascertain the number of premises in this area from which the garbage will be collected, and then make up our minds on how much to collect from each, in payment. Let us find out anyway for how much we could have the work done by tender."

From the above suggestion the Mayor framed the motion which has been noted in commencement.

Those present at the meeting were Ald. Duncan, chairman; Mayor Bradburn, Ald. Morgan, Brown, Graham and Dr. McPherson.

SMALL FIRE AT CANOE FACTORY

Smokestack Responsible for Blaze —Employes Acted Promptly

A serious conflagration was threatened yesterday about half-past four, when the overheated smoke-stack in the Peterborough Canoe Company buildings, ignited the dust and other inflammable materials between the double floors of the upper storey of the factory. As soon as the fire was discovered the employes of the company attacked the blaze with pails of water and, in spite of the awkward position of the flames, had the fire pretty well under control when the fire brigade arrived on the scene. For that reason the damage was slight, although the whole premises of the company were endangered owing to the difficulty of fighting the hidden flames. The fire brigade finally extinguished the fire by chopping up part of the floor, thus making it easier to reach the blaze.

NORWOOD CURLERS CAME OUT AHEAD WITH LOCAL BY ONE SHOT

Five rinks from Norwood invaded the city yesterday and last night in the Charlotte street rink met five local quartettes. All the games were close, and every contest was won by real good curling, the Norwood braves carrying off the honors in two out of the five games. W. D. Campbell played a hard game to gain the one shot lead on Finlay, of Norwood. Maitland's skipping was greatly responsible for a two shot margin on Cuthbertson, and Hicks put away W. Roseborough. J. J. Bowes lost to Packenham, and McKelphie, of Norwood, defeated Stevenson. Although in games the Norwood curlers had a minority of wins, they defeated the locals by one shot on the total. The games were:

As a result of these two games Foote and Fitzgerald enter the consolation semi-finals. The semi-final games will be:—Read vs. Fitzgerald, and Foote vs. Renwick. The winners of those two games will play for the finals.

$500 TO BERLIN FOR TEMPLIN

The Hamilton Spectator has the following to say in reference to the Canadian League meeting of Wednesday last:—

For enthusiasm the meeting of the Canadian league held at the Royal Hotel yesterday afternoon surpassed all other meetings held since the organization of the league. Every club on the circuit was well represented, and each representative was there with a few good suggestions.

When the question of the salary limit was brought up there was quite a discussion as to the advisability of increasing it. It was felt that the larger cities of the league could well afford to pay the money, but that some of the smaller places might not be able to stand it. However, after the question had been thoroughly discussed it was decided to boost the limit, and the result will be beneficial to the fans and players alike.

The Peterborough club was forced to hand over $500 to the Berlin people, in consideration of the release of Old Folks Templin, newly-appointed manager of the Lift Lock team.

Heaslip and O'Connell starred for the Commercials, while Moore, Smith, and Stewart were chiefly responsible for their teams victory. The teams were—

MONCTON DID NOT GET TALLY

Maritime Champions Had 8-0 Score Against Them

Quebec, March 15—By the score of 8 to 0, Quebec Wednesday night took the second game from Moncton. With its former score of 9 to 3 in favor of the N.H.A. team, and about shows the difference in quality of the hockey played by the big teams and those outside its borders. With faster ice, but with a weakened team, Quebec to-night was at all times the master of the situation, and although Moncton put up a very aggressive game for the first twenty minutes, they were never in the hunt afterwards. Hague was the hero of the first period, stopping shot after shot, and if Quebec only got one tally, it was almost entirely due to Hague's splendid work. The second quarter was largely Quebec, and the final was all in favor of the locals, the Quebec team only toying with the visitors.

Quebec was minus the services of Oatman, who was unable to play owing to an injured foot, while Joe Malone, the captain, was forced to retire in the second period. The old penalty system was in vogue, but whether this had any effect or not upon the play there were only a few banishments meted out, and these for minor fouls.

BASEBALL

Jackson Miss., March 14.—A second game between the Regulars and Yannigans will mark the work of the St. Louis Cardinals here to-day. The youngsters defeated Bresnahan's Regulars 10 to 4 yesterday. Hughey Jennings sought a practice game for the Tigers here Sunday, but Mississippi does not permit the Sunday pastime.

Atlanta, Ga., March 14. — After spending several hours renewing acquaintances with the Highlanders, Cy Young left to-day for Augusta to go into training with the Boston Nationals. The veteran declared he had been greatly benefitted by his stay at Hot Springs and predicted that he would last "a year or two yet." Young said he had gotten a bad start last year which affected his work for the rest of the season.

Monroe, La., March 14.—To make up for the time lost during the five consecutive days of bad weather here, Manager Jennings ordered another double workout to-day. Moriarity, last year's captain, is expected to-day. Hughie has been trying to arrange a series of games with the St. Louis Cardinals, who are training at Jackson, Mich.

LACROSSE

Vancouver, B.C., March 15— The lacrosse war is on in earnest. Manager R. J. Fleming, of the Torontos, has started to tamper with the Vancouvers, Minto Cup holders, and Con Jones has undertaken to square accounts by stripping other Big Four teams of their stars.

The Toronto Club has made overtures to Micky Ion and Harry Pickering to go East, and in return the Vancouver Club president has wired Charlie Querrie, of Tecumsehs, that any agreement they made not to tamper with each other's players is cancelled.

It is likely Vancouver will go after Fred Graydon and "Mac" McGregor, of Tecumsehs, and also several Toronto home players.

Harry Hyland has come to terms with Vancouver, and will play here this year. The Scott brothers, of Montreal, will also probably be asked to come West.

For every player taken from the Coast, Con Jones says he will take [illegible] from the Dominion Lacrosse Union, which indicate some joyful times for players with big salaries in prospect.

Associated Boards of Trade Present Suggestions to Sir James Whitney.

Toronto, March 13.—Sir James Whitney yesterday received a deputation representing the Ontario Associated Boards of Trade, who presented the resolutions adopted at their annual meeting on Feb. 22. Among those present were: W. G. Trethewey, Dr. Reason, London; P. S. Coate, Chatham; A. J. Young, North Bay; H. J. Sims, Berlin; R. S. Gourlay and F. C. Morley, Toronto. The resolutions dealt with were: Fish and game preserves, advocating the benefits to be derived from stocking lakes with fish fry and wild rice the establishment of a prison farm in Northern Ontario, with a view to demonstrate the suitability of soil and climate for agricultural pursuits; urging the extension of the T. & N. O. Railway to Hudson Bay, and the vigorous opening up of the Temiskaming country by a system of branch lines; also the extension of the provincial railway north to Georgian and south to Toronto, as well as the construction of a complete system of radial electric lines through Southern Ontario, controlled and operated by the Government and local municipalities and acting as feeders to the main line of the T. & N. O., south from North Bay; development of Northern Ontario, including the construction of adequate roads and the clearing of lands for prospective settlers; that the Government get control of new townsites previous to incorporation; that the agricultural possibilities of old Ontario be developed, and farm laborers be encouraged to come to the province; that the good roads movement be extended in every possible way.

Sir James thanked the deputation for the suggestions, made and gave his assurances that the different recommendations would receive careful consideration.

Avalanche Kills Four.

St. John's, Nfld., March 14.—A terrible tragedy occurred at Tiltcover, Notre Dame Bay, which resulted in the death of four people, and the injury of several others.

Tiltcover is situated in a valley, with hills of great height surrounding it. Tuesday night an avalanche came down from one of the hills and demolished the dwellings of Mr. Williams, manager of the Tiltcover copper mine, and Wm. Cunningham, customs officer, burying the inmates and killing Williams, his son and two servants. His wife and two daughters were severely injured.

Cunningham and his family had a miraculous escape, the house being buried, and the family had to be dug out. Although they sustained injuries, none of them were serious.

Imperial Co-operation Urged.

London, March 14.—(C.A.P. Cable.) —In the Associated Chambers of Commerce yesterday Sir A. Spicer moved that, having regard to the American control of cables touching British territory, the Government be urged of the necessity, on national Imperial grounds, of co-operation with the Governments of the dominions, especially Canada, in establishing an independent, strictly all-British cable, in line with the Imperial Pacific cable.

This resolution was opposed by Sir J. Barron, Parliamentary Secretary to the Postmaster-General, who said that such developments were occurring in telegraphy that he asked the association not to pledge themselves to this resolution yet awhile. Spicer thereupon withdrew the resolution.

Car Plunged Into Hudson.

Hyde Park, N.Y., March 14.—The second section of the Twentieth Century, Limited, on the New York Central, from Chicago for New York, was wrecked near here yesterday morning at nine o'clock.

Four passenger coaches were thrown into the Hudson River and partially submerged, but no one was killed, and only four passengers were slightly injured.

The train was running at a high rate of speed.

Pitney to Supreme Court Bench.

Washington, March 14.—Mahlon Pitney, chancellor of the State of New Jersey, President Taft's nominee to succeed the late Justice Harlan on the Supreme Court bench, was finally confirmed yesterday by the Senate by a vote of 50 to 26. Justice Pitney will come to Washington on Monday.

Two Big Deficits.

Winnipeg, March 14.—In the Legislature yesterday it was announced that the cost of operating the Government elevators in Manitoba during the past year was $183,900 and the revenue produced was $99,755. The deficit on the Government telephone system was $140,000.

This Dynamite Was Harmless.

Kingston, March 14.—While men were engaged in thawing out five boxes of frozen dynamite in the office of Guay and Bergeron, Perth road, it caught fire and destroyed the offices and stores completely. Luckily the dynamite did not explode. No lives were lost.

Bail Jumper Killed by Posse.

Houston, Miss., March 15.—A posse yesterday cornered Reuben A. Dobbs, a fugitive, in a house near Anchor, Miss. Dobbs, well armed, stood off the posse during a 15-minute fusillade; then he fell mortally wounded. He died before a dotcor could reach him.

Dobbs was under indictment for alleged forgery. He forfeited his bail bond a year ago and had since eluded pursuit.

Rebels Take Jiminez.

El Paso, Tex., March 15.—A special to The Herald from Chihuahua says Jiminez was taken at noon yesterday by an advance guard of Salazar's army, consisting of 300 rebels. The federal garrison capitulated without offering resistance. Salazar's forces are now occupying the town. The city is an important point and has a population of 25,000.

Sues Sam Lichtenhein.

Montreal, March 14.—Rudolf C. Bach, editor of the defunct Free Lance, has entered action against Sam Lichtenhein, president of the Montreal Baseball Club and the Wanderer hockey team, for $2,000 damages for alleged false arrest.

Lichtenhein had Bach arrested for publishing an article in The Free Lance criticizing his (Lichtenhein's) management in terms which he considered were criminally libellous. Bach states that he was arrested in the evening so that he could not secure bail and had to spend the night in jail. The plaintiff was acquitted on the charge of libel.

Fighting Welland Canal.

Montreal, March 14.—The Chamber of Commerce yesterday decided to send a memorial to Premier Borden expressing disapprobation of any proposal which should have as its objects the postponement of the construction of the Georgian Bay Canal and instead the spending of money on the enlargement of the Welland Canal.

The chamber also heard protests against the Canadian Northern Railway plans for tunnelling the mountain and for erecting overhead tracks from Lagauchetierre street to the harbor.

I CAME into being as the spoken language came: slowly, gradually, and to meet an urgent need. I have been worked for evil, but mostly I have worked for good. I can still be worked for evil, but each day it grows more difficult so to do.

I am at once a tool and a living force. If you use me wisely, I am a tool in your employ. If you misuse me, my double edge will injure or destroy you. If you do not use me, I am a force that works ever against your accomplishment of the aims and purposes that animate your business.

I speak a thousand tongues and have a million voices.

I am the ambassador of civilization, the handmaiden of science, and the father of invention.

I have peopled the prairie, and with my aid commerce has laid twin trails of gleaming steel in a gridiron across the continent and stretched a network of copper into the far corners of the globe.

I am the friend of humanity—for I have filled the commoner's life with a hundred comforts denied the king of yesterday.

HIS FIRST WAGE $4 PER MONTH

Mr. William Snowden Celebrating His 79th Birthday

To-day, one of Peterborough's estimable and well-known citizens, in the person of Mr. William Snowden, is celebrating in quietitute and contentment, the seventy-ninth milestone of an honorable and useful career. Just that many years ago, to-day, Mr. Snowden first saw the light of day at the city of Newcastle-on-the-Tyne, England. The year was 1833. Fourteen years later, a mere boy, he sailed for Canada and located in Peterborough. Wages were not as encouraging in those early pioneer days as they are at present, and the magnificent sum of $4.00 per month was received by him for his first job, on the farm of T. W. Milburn, of Smith.

Graduating from the agricultural employment, Mr. Snowden went into the lumbering business, and moved to Bobcaygeon where he dwelt for ten years.

Twenty-eight years ago he leased the property known for so many years as the Phelan House. His occupancy and operation of this place was most profitable and successful. After being in business at this site for a number of years he built the property known as the Snowden House, finally leasing it to Mr. D. Fraser. He also erected a substantial group of stores on Simcoe street.

Mr. Snowden has been married 43 years, his bride being formerly Miss Milburn.

It is the desire of his numerous friends that Mr. Snowden may at the very least celebrate his alloted span of "three score and ten."

TURNER, THE MAN AND HIS ART

Interesting Lecture Before The Women's Art Association

A most enjoyable lecture, which was all too short in the opinion of those present, was given in the studio of the Women's Art Association, in the Public Library building, on Thursday evening by the Rev. F. J. Sawers, rector of St. Luke's church.

The subject chosen was "Turner, the Man and his Art." Both sides of the question were dealt with in a most interesting manner, and the glimpses of the personality of the great artist were much appreciated. Reference was made to some of Turner's most famous pictures, particularly the "Fighting Timerarri," and the "Burial at Sea."

The chair was taken by Sheriff Hall. At the request of the executive Mr. Sawers announced that Mr. Dobbin was to give a talk on the "Making of Books," on Friday, March 22nd, at 3.30 p.m.; also that on Thursday, April 4th, His Honor Judge Huycke has kindly consented to give his lecture, "The Holy Grail." Both these lectures will be given in the studio.

Mention was also made of the Twilight Musicale, to be held in the Conservatory of Music Hall on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, to which the public are invited.

OFFICERS FOR BALL CLUB

Mr. W. H. Denham is Elected President

The directors of the Peterboro Baseball Co., Limited held a meeting last night and elected the following officers—

President—Mr. W. H. Denham.
Vice-President—Mr. E. G. Patterson.
Treasurer—Mr. E. C. Macleod.
Secretary—Mr. W. G. Davidson.

An executive committee composed of the secretary, Dr. Wightman, E. J. Desautel and Dan McCabe was also selected.

Amongst the business matters disposed of was the ratifying of Manager Templin's contract. He is appointed for five months.

Stock has been allotted to all who have signed the subscription lists and the secretary will notify the subscribers to pay the money at the Bank of Nova Scotia. When all the money has been collected the stock will be issued.

Other matters of importance relative to the running of the club were discussed.

"Judging by the increasing enthusiasm among the citizens in general, the club will get a great boost when the season opens here. There has not been any further communication from Manager Templin, who is at his home in Reading, Pa., but word about deals is expected soon. "Old Folks" had a number of players on the string before he came here to take the managerial berth and he does not expect to have much trouble in landing a bunch of snappy players. He will return to Peterboro during the latter part of April, but the players will not report here until May 1. They will train at their homes in the south and arrive here in time for a two week's workout before the season opens.

NEITHER TEAM COULD FIND NETS

The score at full time read 0—0 in the game pulled off at Brock street rink from nine to ten last evening between the rivals "We Never Sleep" and the "Hungry Seven." The score indicated that the exhibition was by no means slow. The game was played for the oysters, but as the game was a draw each paid for their own feed afterwards.

The teams will probably meet again to battle for supremacy. The line-ups were:

WE NEVER SLEEP.
Goal—"Pat" Walker.
Point—"Monk" Cranfield.
Cover—"Punk" Neill.
Rover—"Star" Cavanagh.
Centre—"Honey" Lowes.

HUNGRY SEVEN.
Goal—"Robbit" Henon.
Point—"Tiny" Trotter.
Cover—"Heavyweight" Allen.
Rover—"Alice" Davidson.
Centre—"Giant" Bain.
Right—"Go Some" Gilgour.

LINDSAY 'LISTER HERE ON DRUNK

He Has to Pay $5.75 Within Ten Days

James McFadden of Lindsay, in Police Court this morning pleaded guilty to a drunk and disorderly charge.

McFadden is on the blacklist in Lindsay. He came to the city yesterday and met some old friends and promptly got drunk. He had a ticket for Lindsay in his pocket when arrested last night.

His Worship imposed a fine of $2 with costs, in all $5.75 to be paid in ten days. McFadden will pay Chief Chilton at Lindsay and the money will be forwarded to Chief Thompson.

NON-SUPPORT CASE

The charge of non-support brought against a man named McDonald, by his wife, which was aired in Police Court a few days ago was withdrawn. The parties concerned have compromised.

Every man makes the mistake of thinking he can fool his wife as easily as he used to fool his mother.

As though there are not enough evils in the world, people insist on inventing a lot, instead of intelligently combatting those that cannot be avoided.

REVOLUTIONARIES BUSY IN SIAM

Present King May be Driven From His Throne

London, March 15—Reports reached here to-day from Bangkok, Siam, to the effect that the revolutionary movement in that country is gaining progress. It is aimed at the new King Vajiravudh, and is being organized by the Malays of the south and the Laotians of the north.

It is stated that the revolutionary leaders are being helped financially by foreigners, who desire to obtain control of the country's resources.

Prince Dahil is being put forward as the successor of the present King and is acceptable to the British and French interests.

It is the general belief in Bangkok that the revolutionists will be successful, and that King Vajiravudh will be forced to hand over the throne to Prince Dahil.

Some Causes of Eyestrain

Eyestrain is the most common form of headache in children, and may come without apparent reference to any over-use of the eyes. It may be located near the eyes or in parts of the head away from them. It warns us that too great tension is being put on some part of the nervous system. A slouching, lounging posture in reading may bring about marked eye strain. The head bent forward with the chin resting on the breast obstructs the flow of blood from the head. Any congestion of lids or inflammation, however slight, itching of the lids, burning of the eyeballs, and styes, singly or in crops, should call your attention to the necessity of careful and efficient examination into the refractive condition of the eyes.

FOUND DEAD BY NEIGHBOR

Well Known Farmer Was Seized With Heart Trouble

Coroner Wood, of Lindsay, was called to Argyle this morning, having received word of the finding of the dead body of Mr. Colin N. McDonald who lived a short distance from Argyle on the seventh concession of Eldon.

It appears that Mr. McDonald was one of the best known men in the section, and was a bachelor was found dead in his house by Mr. John Torrey, a brother-in-law. The latter noticed the peculiar behaviour of the live stock about the place and fearing that something was wrong paid a visit to the house. On entering he discovered the remains of Mr. McDonald and concluded that the deceased had been dead for several days.

For some time past a sister of the deceased gentleman, a Mrs. McGinnis kept house for her brother, but recently she left on a visit, and had not returned. Heart failure is attributed as the cause of the sudden death.

The late Mr. McDonald was known throughout the entire township of Eldon, and was also well known in Lindsay. He was about 50 years of age, a staunch Conservative, and an active worker in the Sunday school, being the leader of a very large adult class. He was for a number of years a member of the Township Council of Eldon.

The late Mr. McDonald is survived by two other sisters, and two brothers, namely: Mrs. Chas. MacKay, of the Glen, Mariposa; Mrs. Flett, of Fenelon; Locklin, in Manitoba, and Donald in the United States.

It is expected that interment will take place at Glenarm cemetery.—Lindsay Warder.

ANXIETY FOR FATE OF GEORGE STREET

Ottawa Man Started With Harry Radford the Explorer

Ottawa, March 15— The reported desertion of Harry Radford of New York, in the barren lands of Northern Canada, has led to fear for the safety of George Street, of Ottawa. Street was with Radford, when the latter started on his dash across the barren lands towards the Arctic region. He is a son of C. J. Street, of Ottawa, a former official of the department of finance and a brother of Lieutenant Colonel. D. R. Street, of this city.

George Street went north a year ago as one of an exploration party head by J. P. Crean, of the interior department. He has the reputation of a hardy and experienced traveller, having made a number of successful trips into the north country and having been one of the few to negotiate the difficult overland trail into the Yukon. Since his last departure his relatives here have been informed of his movements at rare intervals and not always directly. The last letter written in July, from Fort Resolution, at the foot of the Great Slave Lake arrived in October. Street's friends here refuse to believe that he has been abandoned, although it is practically certain that whatever fate has overtaken Radford has been the lot of the Canadian also.

ANOTHER LESSON

From J. W. BROWETT Optometrist

You are a parent? Your child is in school a certain number of hours each day, using the eyes constantly. Each year the lessons become harder, books are taken home, studies are continued in the evening, the eyes are being overtaxed, the delicate muscles are strained; yet perhaps no thought is given to helping the eyes. We know that injury results from this neglect. We must realize that, if there is a cause for eye strain, there must be a remedy; the remedy most naturally would be rest for the eyes; this rest can be obtained by wearing resting Glasses. Come and let me explain to you scientifically why resting Glasses should be worn.

We believe that parents are wise in caring for their Children's eyes, the remedy is simple and the cost is slight.

ST. JOHN'S CHOIR CHORAL RECITAL

Choristers Making Good Progress With Difficult Choruses

The last rehearsal but one of the series of rehearsals for the above event to be presented in St. John's church next Tuesday, was held in the church last night. The singers acquitted themselves admirably, notwithstanding the heavy strain of singing the many choruses from the "Messiah," Mendelssohn's "Come Let Us Sing," and Stainer's "Daughter of Jairus." The choir will be assisted by Miss Brock, contralto; and Dr. Park, solo violin.

This event promises to be the great choral event of the season, and will appeal to all who are interested in oratorio works.

CANON DAVIDSON TO SPEAK AT BUFFALO CHURCH

Rev. Canon Davidson leaves to-morrow afternoon for Buffalo, where he will give mission addresses at the noon-day Lenten services to be held in connection with the different churches of the Protestant Episcopal church. These will be conducted in the large down town church of St. Paul's. Canon Davidson will be away four weeks and as a consequence, there will be no Saturday afternoon service at St. John's. The Tuesday and Thursday afternoon services are also cancelled for next week. Rev. Mr. Hornby, of Trinity College, Toronto, will take the services at St. John's on Sunday.

STAY AT HOME AND SEE "BUNTY"

Will be Presented at Grand, Wednesday March 27

The management of the Grand, Opera House announce the engagement of "When Bunty Pulls the String" for Wednesday, March 27th, the company coming here from Hamilton. The fact of this high-class attraction coming to Peterborough will make it unnecessary for local people to make a trip to Toronto to see "Bunty," which will be presented there next week.

The benefit match for Bruce Ridpath, which was at have taken place on Saturday night next, between two N.H.A. Teams, has been finally called off.

WOULD DO BOTH JOBS FOR $900

W. R. Turner Sends Application to Property Committee

But Appointment of Sanitary Inspector Hangs Fire

The thirty applicants for the position of sanitary inspector, will have to remain in suspense for a while longer, as no appointment was made by the Property Committee at their regular meeting last evening.

An application was received since the close of the day set for receiving the tenders, from Mr. W. R. Turner. He offered to undertake the work of sanitary inspector alone for $700, or the combined offices of plumbing and sanitary inspector at a yearly salary of $900.

The Committee decided to defer any appointment, which may be made until the tenders have been received for the collection, removal and disposal of garbage, and for which the chairman was authorized to ask on motion of Mayor Bradburn and Ald. Morgan.

"SPORT" ORDERED TO EXECUTION

Unless His Owner Decides to Pay a Fine

Young Lady Complained of Her Furs Being Torn

If Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Duncan have their dog "Sport" shot before to-morrow morning, there will not be any fine to pay. Otherwise Magistrate Dumble will impose a fine on Duncan for permitting a dog "owned, possessed or harbored" by him to run at large.

CHASED CUTTER.

The dog in question has a bad reputation. A young lady, Miss Tamlin by name, who was driving on Union street with her parents yesterday, testified that the dog raced after the cutter, and jumping at it, tore her furs in a couple of places. According to Detective Newhall this is a practice of the Duncan dog.

The officer was called to the witness box to tell what he knew about the animal. He said the officers had been trying to "serve" the Duncans for a couple of days. Every time an officer went near the premises the dog and another one were turned out and the doors locked. He said "Sport" was a mongrel, but Duncan emphatically stated that it was a coach dog, and that he had been offered $25 for it.

Mrs. Duncan suggested that the officer's evidence was a lie, but her statement did not carry much weight as she was not in the "box" at the time.

Chief Thompson has had several complaints about Duncan's dog lately.

His Worship said if Duncan would bring his dog to the police station it would be cured of its bad habits. He would reserve judgment until tomorrow morning. If the animal was shot in the meantime he would not impose a fine.

Duncan did not like the idea of having to lose another day's work. The magistrate said he would impose the fine at once if the defendant would sooner pay than have the beast shot.

"I would not like to see 'Sport' shot," said Duncan.

"You needn't watch the performance. You can turn your back while a policeman shoots it," returned His Worship.

"No, the dog will not be shot. The dog is not guilty," interposed Mrs. Duncan.

LABOR MEMBER HOLDS FORTH IN LEGISLATURE

In Speech in Budget Debate He Urges the Government Ownership of Public Utilities and Improvement of the Class of Immigrants — Introduces His Eight-Hour Bill—Measure to Change Size of Loaf.

Toronto, March 16.—The working man had his innings in the Legislature yesterday and public ownership and tax reform came in for exposition.

From the labor point of view, Allan Studholme, East Hamilton, spoke for three hours, taking up the entire afternoon session of the House, and flailing both the Government and Liberals in his characteristic style. He talked like a perfect automatum, his range of subject stretching from rural Ontario to the House of Lords. He attacked the Government's immigration policy, gave a few sidelights on the servant problem, and touched upon the eight-hour-day question.

That Ontario was not getting the right class of immigrants was his opinion. He referred to "indiscriminate immigration," and declared that the Government was not getting proper results from its endeavors. And immigrants came here on misrepresentation, he said.

Hon. James Duff spent $800 of the Government's money on his trip to the old country last year, said the speaker, who laid stress on this item in the public accounts and wanted to know what benefit accrued to Ontario by the visit of the Minister of Agriculture.

"Fifty-five acres for every human being in Canada and yet people are dying in the streets and little children are dying in the slums," he said. He wondered what the Government was doing to alleviate these conditions. He told of how people are working in sweatshops, in badly lighted buildings with long hours of labor. He contended that "he that earns should get more and a larger share of what he produces, and he that does nothing shall get less."

"We own the waterways of the country," he declared, "and we should own the railways, telegraphs, telephones and all other public commodities."

"People are talking public ownership everywhere," he added, "and on that question the labor party is as solid as the rock of Gibraltar."

In commenting on the favorable reception that avowed public ownership candidates would get if they came out forcibly on that question, the labor member said that if they did so "they would make the welkin ring."

"The hon. gentlemen opposite," added Mr. Studholme, pointing to the Treasury benches, "would then have to sit up and take notice."

"Free education," he declared, "should be provided for the children from the cradle to the university, for labor believes that nothing is too good for the child of the present and the man of the future."

"With tax reform we need not be anxious," remarked Mr. Studholme, "for even the Premier is beginning to see the public demand that there is for this reform."

The consideration, clause by clause, of the bill respecting the Joint Stock Companies Act, occupied the attention of the House in committee nearly two hours afterwards, and the bill was finally given its second reading.

To supersede the Nickle Bread Act, which caused such a lot of discussion after it was introduced a session or two ago, J. A. Ellis, member for East Ottawa, has introduced an amendment respecting the manufacture of bread, aiming at the abolition of the twelve-ounce loaf, and substitute therefor the sixteen-ounce loaf.

To provide that all married or single women or widows over the age of 21 years may vote at municipal and provincial elections, a bill to amend the Ontario Elections Act was introduced by Allan Studholme. On Monday, Mr. Studholme will introduce an eight-hour bill to provide a working day of eight hours, and a working week of forty-eight hours. All extra time put in must be paid for at a fifty per cent. increase.

W. Proudfoot, Centre Huron, introduced a bill to give the Ontario Railway Board jurisdiction over the construction by municipalities of bridges, culverts, tunnels, etc., with a 20-foot span.

BADEN-POWELL MAY COME TO PETERBOROUGH

Judge Huycke and J. H. McClennan on Ontario Council

Peterborough is assuming a prominent place in the scout movement. The latest evidence is the selection of His Honor Judge Huycke and Mr. J. H. McClellan as members of the Ontario Council. These two gentlemen have been behind the Boy Scouts here for some time.

Sir Baden Powell returned to England with the intention of visiting Canada again at an early date. The Ontario Council will have charge of his tour in Ontario, and it is almost a certainty that the Chief will pay a visit to Peterborough. This would be a big boost for the local scouts as well as a good thing for the city. Baden Powell will no doubt receive a royal welcome when he comes.

MAJOR LANGAS IS RECOVERING

King of Italy's Preserver Will Soon be Well

Rome, March 16.—Major Giovanni Langas, the commander of the royal body guard, who was wounded in the head when Antonio Dalba, the anarchist, attempted to assassinate King Victor Emmanuel, is considered by his physicians to be almost out of danger. He is suffering from an affection of the eyesight, due to a fragment of his helmet, which penetrated his skull, pressing on the optic nerve.

Dalba, the man who fired the shots, has been convicted three times on charges of theft and once for beating his mother. The police elicited the information that he failed to obtain a dynamite bomb, and therefore decided to use a revolver. He said he had waited for three years for a chance to kill King Victor, and was sorry that he had failed.

An alienist, who examined the young anarchist, declares that he is sane.

The suspicion begins to increase that the outrage was either the consequence of a plot or was due to the instigation of some persons who, remaining secret themselves, aimed the hand of the weaker-minded Dalba, who is reported for some days past to have practiced extensively shooting at a target. This is exactly the same thing as was done by the Anarchist Bresci before murdering King Humbert, the present King's father, in 1900.

YOUNG MAN HAD DOUBLE DOSE

Injury to Knee and Operation for Appendicitis

Walter Lowe, the young man from Campbellford, who had his knee injured while playing hockey, and who was brought to the Nicholls Hospital about five weeks ago, was removed to his home to-day. He is almost recovered from the injury.

While in the hospital he was operated upon for appendicitis.

Food Expert Wiley Resigns.

Washington, March 16.—In a statement issued late yesterday at the termination of his service with the Government, Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the pure food expert, declared he had resigned from the Department of Agriculture because almost from the beginning he had been antagonized to the enforcement of the pure food law, and that one by one he had seen the fundamental principles of that act either paralyzed or discredited. Dr. Wiley said that interests engaged in the manufacture of adulterated food had made appeal after appeal to escape the rulings of his bureau, and as a result, one after another of his activities in behalf of the people had been restricted.

Matters that properly should have come to the chemistry bureau, he said, had been taken away from him. The differences had been irreconciliable, he had lacked support, and finally had come to the conclusion that he could do more good in the service of the people as a private citizen.

Union a Failure.

Toronto, March 16.—Rev. Dr. McKay, moderator Presbyterian General Assembly, and Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendent Methodist General Conference, both now admit that the present church union movement has failed.

The Presbyterians in three hundred churches have given 21,768 for union, and 10,536 against. In addition to this substantial minority, the presbyteries are refusing to accept the basis of union, because they claim it would give a greater ministerial representation to the Methodist ministers than the Presbyterian in the annual conferences. This is because superannuated and ministers without charges, are members of the Methodist conferences, while clergymen have to be actively engaged in the ministry to be members of a presbytery.

The outcome of the church union referendum will, however, it is stated in high clerical authority, will be an increased federation along missionary lines.

TO OLD IRELAND

O green and fresh, your English sod,
With daisies sprinkled over;
But greener far were the fields I trod
And the honeyed Irish clover.

I'm weary for Ireland once again,
To see her fields before me;
In the sunshine or the rain,
And the longing in my heart, when it comes o'er me, stings like pain.

Deep in the Canadian woods we've met,
From one bright island flown;
Great is the land we tread, but yet
Our hearts are with our own.

And ere we leave this shanty small,
While fades the winter day,
We'll toast old Ireland,
Dear old Ireland, Ireland, boys hurrah.

MUST FORCE THE OWNERS

Asquith Fails to Bring Capitalists Into Line

Other Measures Must be Taken Says Premier

London, March 16.—The Government's efforts to secure to settlement of the coal strike by effecting an agreement between the coal mine owners and their employes have failed. After three days of joint conferences the negotiations were broken off last evening and legislative action now will be invoked to secure a minimum wage for all the underground coal workers.

In making this announcement to the conference yesterday Premier Asquith said:

"The Government have done all in their power to secure a settlement of the controversy by an agreement and they have come to the conclusion, with great regret, that this is impossible and that other measures must therefore be taken."

The official account of yesterday's conference, issued last night, says that Premier Asquith pointed out that the stoppage of work in the coal mines had now lasted more than a fortnight and was producing incalculable inconvenience and loss, and in some parts of the country actual suffering, though happily it had not been attended by disorder, the Premier added. Considering the number of persons directly or indirectly affected by the dispute, the situation was growing every day more serious and would continue a menace to the well-being of the country as long as it lasted.

After reviewing the abortive attempts to secure a settlement of the strike by an agreement between the interested parties, the official report continues:

"The Prime Minister stated that the Government would ask from Parliament a legislative declaration that a reasonable minimum wage, accompanied by adequate safeguards for the protection of the employer, should be made a statutory term of the contract of employment of people engaged in underground coal mines."

After the adjournment of the conference the miners' federation issued a statement to the effect that they have been empowered by their executive committee to consider the Government's bill in order to safeguard the interests of the workmen. The statement declared that the federation would advise a resumption of work until a satisfactory bill is passed by Parliament.

The miners' delegates express satisfaction at the turn affairs have taken.

Absolute Deadlock, Says White.

New York, March 16.—"All negotiations with the anthracite coal operators are off," declared John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, at the adjournment of the meeting yesterday afternoon, between miners and operators, in which the miners declined the operators' counter-proposition. "I look for a general suspension of work on April 1," he added.

The miners, in their reply, said: "Now, firmly believing that as public servants we have done more than our full duty during all these years when anthracite operators enjoyed unprecedented prosperity, we feel that the responsibility which must follow failure to reach a satisfactory settlement of the questions at issue, when weighed by a discriminating public in the light of what we have herein set forth, cannot be placed upon the anthracite mine workers."

Grant of $100,000 to Amundsen.

London, March 16.—The London Daily Telegraph has a despatch from its Copenhagen correspondent saying that a Cabinet Council will be held in Christiania next week, with a view to granting Amundsen a state subvention of $100,000 for the benefit of his polar trip.

PASSENGERS AND SAILORS MEET WATERY GRAVE WHEN BOATS COLLIDE

Special to the Review.

London, Eng., March 16—Six passengers and several sailors lost their lives as a result of the ramming of the P. & O. liner "Oceana" by the German bark "Pisagua" off Eastbourne early this morning. The "Oceana" which carried five million dollars in specie, and was bound for Bombay, sank in five hours while tugs were trying to beach her. A scene of panic followed the collision, lascars among the crew fighting with passengers to be first into the boats. The first boat away was over crowded and capsized a short distance from the vessel with loss of life variously put at from ten to twenty-five.

BORDEN MAY VISIT ENGLAND

Likely to Accompany Minister of Marine and Fisheries

Ottawa, March 16.—When Hon. Mr. Hazen, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, goes to consult the Admiralty at the end of May it is most probable that Premier Borden will accompany him to England.

Hon. Mr. Hazen cannot go before the end of May, as there are many outstanding matters in connection with his Department to be settled.

He will return to Canada and will spend the early part of the fall in preparing navy legislation.

Hon. Sam Hughes will also go to England during the summer and whatever naval legislation is prepared it is understood that it will be with a view to strong co-operation between the land and naval forces.

Senate to Amend Bill.

Ottawa, March 16.—The Liberal majority in the Senate yesterday gave an intimation of its intention to make substantial amendments to the Government's bill for the creation of a permanent tariff commission. Most of them were suggested by Sir Richard Cartwright.

Hon. Mr. Lougheed in the Senate yesterday gave no indication of what the Government's attitude would now be in the face of an adverse majority in the Upper House.

They were held for consideration by the Government, which will consider them and state its attitude on Tuesday when the bill comes up again.

Senator Cloran called attention to a press report stating that Speaker Landry of the Senate proposed to resign in order to put himself in a position to discuss certain public questions.

Speaker Landry stated that this was the first he had heard of the matter.

Commons Gives a Sympathetic Reception to A. K. MacLean's Suggestion That Self-Sacrifice of Mounted Police Officer Be Fitly Remembered—Hon. Mr. Hazen Introduces Bill to Amend Shipping Act.

Ottawa, March 16.—Eloquent tribute was borne in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon to the heroic sacrifice of Inspector Fitzgerald and his three companions of the Northwest Mounted Police, who lost their lives on the Dawson trail under tragic circumstances early in 1911.

The matter was brought up by A. K. MacLean (Halifax), who urged on the Government the propriety and desirability of making a financial recognition to the mother and sisters of the late inspector, who are now living in Halifax. Inspector Fitzgerald, he said, had intended, if he had lived, to retire from the force this year when he would have been entitled to a superannuation of $1,000 a year.

Alfred Thompson (Yukon) declared that the suggested grant would be a fitting recognition of the services rendered to Canada and the Empire in the sacrifice of Inspector Fitzgerald and his party. The Royal Northwest Mounted Police were doing a splendid and often a heroic work in the patrolling of the far north.

Sir Wilfrid Laurer and W. H. White (Victoria, Alta.), who had been for a number of years a member of the R.N.W.M.P., also added their tributes.

Inspector Fitzgerald, said Premier Borden, had borne a big part in that tragic march to death in a way that should inspire the respect and admiration of every citizen of Canada. He assured Mr. MacLean that he intended to give the proposed grant to the widow and orphans his earnest attention before the end of the present session.

Hon. J. D. Hazen introduced a bill to amend the Canada shipping act by providing (a) that certificates shall not be required for masters and mates upon sailing ships of not more than 100 tons registered tonnage, propelled by auxiliary power other than steam, employed partly in fishing and partly in the carriage of freight, and (b) that the Minister of Marine and Fisheries may fix the fee for replacing lost certificates.

Mr. Hazen explained that there were 4,588 gasoline fishing boats in the Maritime Provinces and that there were no such number of certified masters. In answer to David Henderson (Halton) he said that the proposed amendment would apply equally to gasoline boats on the great lakes. As to the second portion of the amendment, as the law was at present, if a certificate were lost the master or mate would be called on to pay half the original fee, a great hardship in many cases.

MAINE GOES DOWN

Havana, Cuba, March 16.—The battered remnant of the old battleship Maine was towed nine miles from the Harbor to-day and sunk in the middle of the Gulf Stream. The bones of her ill-fated sailors were tranferred with impressive ceremonies to the battleship North Carolina to be taken to the United States.

BOURASSA CALLED UPON TO ORGANIZE CATHOLIC PARTY

Montreal Roman Catholics Are Urging the Nationalist Leader To Go Into the Federal Arena as Head of a Movement For Separate Schools—Manitoba Insurgents Are the Prime Movers.

Montreal, March 16.—There is a serious movement on foot to establish a purely Catholic party in the House of Commons with Mr. Henri Bourassa as leader as soon as he can obtain a seat.

It is understood that the organizers of the recent movement in the west, which found energetic expression at a recent gathering in Manitoba Hall, Winnipeg, have communicated with the Nationalist leader here, informing that gentleman that they count on him to lead a greater movement which should, in their opinion, start from this city, as no relief can be expected from the two old political parties.

Although the Nationalist leader has not yet given his answer, his friends here believe that he will accept the invitation which comes to him from the western parties, and that he will drag Armand Lavergne into the contest for equal rights for the minority. Le Devoir declared the other day that the future of the confederation depended upon the action of the Senate, so it is thought that the vote in the Upper House will be the signal for Mr. Bourassa to throw down the gauntlet and declare for a Catholic party, irrespective of consequences and results.

The western men want Bourassa and Lavergne to resign their seats, and it is thought they expect to get Mr. Mulloy, M.P., to give up his seat for one at least of the champions of the altar and country. The story goes that Mr. Bourassa does not expect any eastern English-speaking Catholics will have anything to do with such a movement, which spells disruption of old party lines, and it is also stated that the Archbishop of St. Boniface opposes the movement, although this is not confirmed, yet the Don Quixotic campaign will go ahead.

MR. W. CHIPMAN AFTER THE JOB

Waterworks Commissioner's Salary at Toronto $5700

Toronto, March 16.—Willis Chipman, member of the board of works water experts, made application yesterday to the Board of Control for the position of waterworks commissioner. In his letter he stated that he had been engaged for the past twelve months on the city's water problem and was in a position to judge the magnitude of the work that must be undertaken by the city in the next few years. He suggested the salary of $5700 per annum.

Mr. Chipman stated that he was an honor graduate in civil and mechanical engineering at McGill University. For five years he held the position of town engineer at Brockville. During the past twenty years he has been engaged in connection with waterworks and sewage systems in different parts of Canada. The application will be considered by the board at another meeting.

Mr. Chipman superintended the construction of the sewers and pumping station at the south end of the city.

100 HOUSES TO BE TORN DOWN

Condemned by the Ottawa Medical Health Officer

Ottawa, March 17—Over 100 dwelling houses belonging to the C. P. R. and situated near the old St. Lawrence and Ottawa track on the block bounded by McTaggart, Redpath, Cumberland and Dalhousie streets wear "for sale" signs although they are still occupied, and from them the tenants must flee as soon as the buildings have been disposed of.

The reason is that these houses which are most of them frame rows or dwellings of a humble character were condemned by the medical health officer as the result of not being equipped with sanitary conveniences.

Every man makes the mistake of thinking he can fool his wife as easily as he used to fool his mother.

HORSE'S LEG SWELLED

Animal Was Too Sore and Lame to Work—Quickly Cured by "Nerviline."

"I have had a long experience in treating horses, and I can safely say that I know of no liniment for strains, sprains, and swelling that is so useful around the stable as Nerviline." Thus writes Mr. Joshua E. Murchison, from his home, Crofts Hill P. O. I had a fine young mare that wrenched her right fore leg, and from the shoulder down she was stiff, sore, and swollen. I applied Nerviline, and it worked like a charm; in fact, that mare was in shape to work a day after I used Nerviline.

Nerviline is a Trusty Liniment

"We have used Nerviline on our farm for twenty-five years and never found it wanting. For man or beast it is a wonderful liniment."

We have received nearly five thousand letters, recommending Nerviline as a general household liniment, as an all-round cure for aches and pains. One million bottles used each year. Try it yourself. Large bottles of Nerviline 50c; trial size, 25c. All dealers, or The Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

GARBAGE DISPOSAL

A problem of considerable municipal magnitude which the civic officials are struggling to solve, is summed up in the question "what methods shall we adopt to suitably dispose of the city's garbage. This question is not a new one to say the very least, but it is one that presents an armor, against which the Board of Trade and the City Council in the past have repeatly bumped, but in every onslaught they have been forced to take the count.

To the majority of citizens who have not looked upon, and guaged the matter very deeply, it looks as if the problem should not be difficult to settle. But let them ask themselves the question, where is a suitable dumping ground for refuse of all kinds, convenient to the city, which would prove unobjectionable to people dwelling in the vicinity.

Who wants to be assailed with an odor that would put any slaughterhouse stench to shame or to gaze upon a vapor that might easily resemble a Newfoundland fog.

As will have been gleaned from the reports on the matter in the news columns, the Property Committee seem disposed to purchase an incinerator. Funds sufficient to carry out this project, must be thought of, however. The Mayor and his committee do not wish to come to the people with a by-law to raise the necessary money, and yet a question of such vital importance to citizens generally, should not encounter material opposition. From here it looks as if this will eventually be the only way adopted. An incinerator represents an expenditure of about $6,000, but it would be money well invested and would undoubtedly settle the matter permanently. Every progressive, up-to-date city the size of Peterborough facing a garbage question should be provided with an incinerator.

However the Property Committee have decided to ask for tenders for the collection and disposal of garbage, thereby shifting the responsibility upon one man's shoulders. Until these tenders are received and disposed of, the problem will likely remain stationary.

BOOKLET ON NE TEMERE

Is Not a Weapon Levelled Against Non-catholics

SAYS FR. BROPHY

Is a Safeguard for Homes and Families of Catholics

Rev. John O. Brophy, pastor of the Convent of the Holy Name, Outremont, has just published in booklet form an apology for the "Ne Temere" decree, and as this booklet is published "permissu superiorum," it may be taken as the authoritative commentary on recent developments in connection with that decree, and as the pronouncement of the Catholic Church in the Province of Quebec on the vexed question as to whether the church or the State is supreme in regard to the marriage laws.

Father Brophy entitles his exposition of the "Ne Temere" as "an explanation and an appeal," and he discusses the whole subject, frankly and dispassionately, addressing himself more particularly to non-Catholics. He believes that the heated controversy which has arisen over the "Ne Temere" is founded on a misapprehension of its provisions. Pointing out that it is not a weapon levelled at non-Catholics, he proceeds:

"We, Catholics and non-Catholics, have too many common enemies to afford to squander our energies by flying at each other. We live side by side, and in peace and charity we must live. Professedly, we are all working for the cause of the Kingdom of God, and professedly we are trying to build up a glorious nation and mould a splendid people. These ends cannot be attained by dissension, but by harmony and peace and charity."

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH'S ATTITUDE TOWARDS MARRIAGE.

At the outset he lays down three cardinal principles of the Catholic Church's laws relative to marriage, saying these principles are not set down as an invitation to controversy, but as a matter of Christian belief. They are:—1. That Christian marriage is a sacrament. 2. That the Church and the Church alone, has full and complete authority over the sacraments. 3. That consequently "it is for the Church to decide who of her fold may or may not contract marriage; to decide how and when and where and before whom the sacramental contract is to be effected."

On this latter point he is very emphatic, declaring that "she (the Church) forbids any child of hers contracting marriage except as she prescribes. Marriage is possible only when these conditions are fulfilled; if they be omitted, it is not a marriage; just as the absence of the conditions prescribed by civil law nullifies the attempted civil contract."

Admitting that these principles are not the belief of all Christians, he nevertheless declares they are the firm and unalterable conviction of every member of the Catholic Church, each one of whom must acknowledge, profess, and submit to them. This belief regarding marriage is to them a law as binding as the Ten Commandments.

He proceeds to show that the Ne Temere decree is the result of efforts to deal with the thorny question of mixed marriages, to which the Church has never been reconciled. Mixed marriages, he states, result in the weakening of faith and are a danger to the peace of the family circle.

"Now the faith of the Church is the most precious possession of her children. She exists and labors to teach that faith and keep it intact. Nothing on earth, nothing in life can compare in importance with that priceless inheritance. There can be no choice between it and anything else in the wide world. It is more than riches, more than father or mother, than husband or wife or child,—it is more than life itself. No one is a Catholic who would not be willing to lay down his life for the faith."

FEW MIXED MARRIAGES RESULT SATISFACTORILY.

While admitting that some mixed marriages are genuinely satisfactory and happy. Father Brophy declares they are few.

"The universal verdict declares them to be almost a negligible quantity in the sum total. The vast majority of mixed marriages end in lamentable failure; in the loss or the weakening of the faith of the Catholic party and offspring, and in discord, or the disruption of the home. The Church cannot be indifferent to such distressing results."

Illustrating the point that it has never been the intention of the Church to legislate for non-Catholics, Father Brophy points out that the Benedictine Declaration, that a mixed marriage could be validly contracted without the presence of a priest was extended to Canada on November 24, 1764.

"It is in consequence of this fact that mixed marriages contracted before a non-Catholic clergyman were valid though illicit. The Catholic who so contracted marriage acted wrongly, committed a sin; but the marriage was valid, was indissoluble; and no mixed marriage was ever pronounced null and void in this country because contracted outside the Church."

But difficulties and contradictions followed upon this, embarrassing the Church tribunals and disquieting the faithful. The Ne Temere decree brought full relief by sweeping away confusion begotten of sectional promulgation of marriage laws.

"It brings all Catholic marriages under the common law, with the exception of Catholics of the Oriental Rites, who preserve the ante-Tridentine discipline, and of mixed marriages in Germany. The Ne Temere is addressed to Catholics, was enacted for Catholics, to regulate the marriages of Catholics, and concerns primarily no on eelse."

To bring out this point as English text of the Ne Temere decree is included in the booklet, only one paragraph in this decree, he says, can possibly affect non-Catholics. The paragraph is as follows:

"The same laws are binding also on such Catholics, if they contract betrothal or marriage with non-Catholics, baptized or unbaptized."

ATTACKS NEITHER CONSISTENT NOR LOGICAL.

He expresses surprise that this clause should have provoked such bitter comment and have started so many souls to astonishing expressions of wrath and indignation, and says the attacks on the decree are neither consistent or logical. "The power that could grant the Benedictine Declaration could withdraw it, and did withdraw it," he says.

He points out that while the non-Catholic party is free to contract, according to Catholic or non-Catholic form of marriage, the Catholic party is not free. "There is the obligation in conscience of obeying the Church, and under pain of nullity of the act." Since the Catholic party has no alternative, he thinks the non-Catholic should consent to the Catholic ceremony, saying there can be no objection on the ground of prejudice against the Catholic faith.

"Because it would be thoroughly inconsistent to enter into a life-long union with a Catholic and entertain these sentiments towards the faith, the convictions and principles of conduct of that Catholic. It would bode ill for the future peace and happiness of that married life."

He continues:—

"No disparagement of non-Catholics forms of marriage is intended or implied. This only is insisted upon: marriage is a sacrament, and a Catholic should and must receive the sacraments from the Church. Not a shade of difference is made between Catholic and non-Catholic clergymen. If two Catholics contract marriage before a priest who is not a parish priest, or a priest unauthorized by the parish priest or the Bishop, the marriage is invalid—it is not a marriage. This may be a mistake, an unintentional neglect—the decision remains inevitably the same; the marriage is null and void."

CHURCH'S AID IN CORRECTING IMPROPER STATUS

Having pointed out that the Ne Temere decree is not retroactive, but that it only applies to marriages contracted since Apr. 19, 1908, he said that in regard to contracts made since that time to which it is applied, the Church proceeds with all possible indulgence and every desire to spare feelings, avoid publicity and safeguard honor and good name.

"Every power she has is opened to facilitate the correction of the improper status, and restore peace of heart and soul, and set the faces of these two again towards God. A renewal of consent validates the marriage and gives legitimacy to the children."

But he sadly admits that in case one of the parties married outside the Church should claim freedom and the right to separate that party "is in reality free" although freedom from the bonds of marriage "does not here include freedom from the obligations imposed by natural justice."

To the question, should not the civil law exercise control, he says that the office of the State does not extend beyond taking cognizance of the act of marriage, and protecting thereafter the parties who validly contracted. The State, in naming an official to witness and record marriages, only follows the practice followed by the Council of Trent, and discharges the act with far less prudence and care than the Church, since the Church requires three witnesses and the State only one. Further, the Church exacts sufficient delay to investigate and to publish banns, while the State institutes no investigation concerning the contracting parties and usually demands no delay.

"The intervention of the State in marriage begins and ends with this adoption of Trent's method to secure publicity . . . To extend the jurisdiction of the State into the contract itself is to . . . . trespass upon the domain of conscience . . .

The State has no more power to legislate for him in these matters—to hold him to an invalid marriage, or to annul his valid marriage—than it has to forbid him hearing Mass on Sundays, or observing Christmas, or keeping abstinence on Fridays."

LIBERTY OF CONSCIENCE

"It is not without surprise that I for one, note the part that non-Catholic bodies have taken in synods and assemblies in protesting against the position of Cathlics in this question of marriage laws, and in petitioning the interference of the State. Astonishment is natural at this attitude of the official representatives of Protestantism. For if Protestantism stands for any principle or rests on any claim, it is that of liberty of conscience. This liberty of conscience must not be denied us. When a Catholic knows in conscience that his marriage is invalid, no law of the land can compel him to consider it valid, or bid him continue in that union. And when the Church perceives that her sons or her daughters have contracted invalid marriages, no law of the land can prevent her compel them to regularize the marriages or to separate."

Father Brophy concluded by stating that "the Ne Temere is not a weapon levelled at non-Catholics; it is a shield for the protection of the members of the fold, and for the safeguarding of the peace of homes and families. It ought to be regarded in this light and left to the members of the Church, to whom it is addressed."

Lady Betty Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

She kept her word and called him "Lord Mohunsleigh" in quite a high voice, just as we passed the man who had refused to let him go on to the beach before, but the man didn't seem impressed in the least. I think he didn't even recognize Mohunsleigh as the same person, or if he did he pretended very cleverly not to.

I had forgotten the horror of the bathing dress in my surprise at meeting Mohunsleigh, but it fell over me again like a cloud as soon as I was shut up in the bathing box with those wisps of green silk. I wouldn't have the maid help me and wrestled with the ordeal alone. It took me some time, but when everything was on (there were only four things, counting the cap and smart little sandals) I couldn't say to myself that the effect wasn't attractive. It was, and I did approve of myself in the quaint headdress, which was more like a fetching silk toque with an Alsatian bow in front than a mere cap.

But the awful moment came when I was ready, with my hand on the door. I'm sure Joan of Arc must have felt like that when she had let her hair down and put on that graceful white dress of hers one sees in the pictures, to be burned. She may have been dimly aware that she was looking quite her best, as I was, but even that couldn't have buoyed her up much at the moment, and it didn't me.

As I stood hesitating, somebody knocked. I peeped out, and it was Sally—quiet, unassuming little Sally, with her middle aged airs—looking like one of Stan's gaiety girl photographs, in a short, low necked dress of bright poppy color, with silk legs as shiny as an archdeacon's, only with quite a different effect.

"Come on, my green Undine," said she, and I came, because she pulled me so suddenly that otherwise I should have fallen flat on my nose.

Having seen her dressed so much in my style, it wasn't quite as bad as before, and when I was out of my box—like one of those little barometer women that tell fair weather—there was Mrs. Pitchley in crimson and Carolyn Pitchley in white, and lots of pretty women, all with the same lovely stockings. There hadn't been any standing about when we arrived, because we were early, not having gone to the Casino first as the others had, and it was a relief to find them, or it was, until I had a great shock.

THE SNOW STORM CAUSED DELAYS ON RAILROADS

Yesterday's snow storm has rather badly crippled the G.T.R. passenger service though the delays are not as marked as during the previous snow storm and business.

The 8.40 train due last night arrived with its weary passengers at one o'clock. The Port Hope train this morning was one hour and a half behind the regular time and the Toronto train was two hours and ten minutes late. The Lakefield service is on time.

The C.P.R. passenger service is not demoralized, the latest train being only ten minutes behind schedule time. Two freight trains, however, were stalled early this morning between here and Bethany.

POLICE HAVE OTTAWA YOUTH WHO IT IS SAID HAS VERY BAD RECORD

James Jordan too, is Entangled in the Net — Magistrate Orders Dog Shot.

"Guilty, Your Worship, and very sorry," said James Jordon at police court this morning to a charge of being drunk.

Chief Thompson said Jordon was a heavy drinker, but he had been fortunate enough to escape the arm of the law.

Magistrate Dumble reserved judgment. If Jordon misbehaves he will be put on the blacklist.

DOG TO BE SHOT.

Wm. Duncan's dog "Sport" has been ordered to execution. Duncan failed to bring the dog to the police station yesterday and he did not answer to his name when the magistrate asked for him this morning. His Worship signed an order whereby the officers may shoot "Sport."

YOUTH'S BAD RECORD.

A youth, giving his age as fifteen years, appeared before His Worship this morning on a charge of vagrancy. The lad, whose appearance greatly belies the age he gives, was a pretty seedy looking customer in the prisoner's box. The chief said he had been found breaking into the King George Hotel He had come from Ottawa on Saturday morning last, and said he was looking for work. When he arrived he had about $5, but he played pool and lost it all. While around the pool room he used a different name to that he gave the police. He said his father was a watchmaker and he had worked with his father at watchmaking for two years. His mother kept a boarding house in Ottawa.

Chief Thompson, since last Monday, when the boy first appeared before His Worship, communicated with the Chief of Police at Ottawa, and received word that the youth in custody here had a very bad record. He had been before the magistrate there on five or six charges, including larceny and arson.

The defendant evidently gave his age as fifteen that he might come under the juvenile act.

He was remanded until March 21st. that his parents may be communicated with.

WERE EARLY TO MARKET AND BOUGHT BUTTER AT 33 CENTS

The market this morning was decidedly small. There was not much of anything, and chickens were absent. Butter soared again and was gobbled up as fast as it appeared at 40c. per pound. Eggs were also in great demand. At the opening of the market some lucky citizens secured their butter at 33c., that price being asked by a lady who was but a short distance from another, who asked 40 cents. Very few apples were for sale; by the peck. The bad roads were chiefly responsible for the scarcity of the products from the farm.

The prevailing prices were:
Eggs, per dozen, 30 and 33c.
Butter per lb., 22 and 40c.
Potatoes, per bag, $2.
Parsnips, per peck, 30c.
Onions, per peck, 50c.
Wood, hemlock, per cord, $5.
Pork, hind per lb., 21c.
Pork, front per lb., 11c.
Beef, hind per lb., 9 1-2c.
Beef, front per lb., 8 1-2c.
Lamb, hind per lb., 12 1-2c.
Lamb, front per lb., 11 1-2c.
Turkey, one only, $3.

MR. W. RUDKINS' POSITION AS LINDSAY'S INDUSTRIAL OFFICER

Lindsay Warder

It may not be generally known that Lindsay has a new industrial commissioner, but yet such is the case, a new commissioner having been appointed by the industrial commission over a week ago in the person of Mr. William Rudkins, of Peterboro, who has been working steadily on the job ever since.

Mr. Rudkins, who is well and favorably known to a large number of citizens, is a very active worker, and has had considerable experience in the line of landing new industries being in a manner largely responsible for securing a number of the new industries now located in Peterboro, the electric city to the east He has a large American connection and is at present in the States negotiating with a large steel industry with a view to having the same located in Lindsay. A number of other propositions are also on tap and are being nursed along. Mr. Rudkins was secured as commissioner for a term of three months at least.

A meeting of the subscribers of the industrial movement was held last night, when a number of important matters were considered. A large number of the subscribers were in attendance and all agreed to continue the movement being quite willing to continue their subscriptions towards the movement. A steel mill concern is looking for establishment in Lindsay, and other concerns negotiating with Commissioner Rudkins include a rope manufacturing industry, a hardware concern and a woodenware concern. The latter proposition has been before the commission for some time and as the agreement is about in order to be submitted to the town council, it will in all probability come before the people for their sanction within a few weeks.

Mr. Rudkins who is in the city to-day, informed The Review that the President and Manager of the Dallstown Company, of Jameston, N.Y. with which he is identified, apart from his position with Lindsay will be in Lindsay shortly. It is the intention of this company to have a Canadian plant and Mr. Rudkins hopes to land the plum for Lindsay. The company manufactures steel castings, fireproof devices, and such lines, for steamships, railway coaches and large buildings, and would manufacture for trade in Canada and England.

THE LAST ROLL WAS CALLED

For the last time in the history of the old Murray Street Baptist church, the annual membership roll call took place on Wednesday evening, and the responses obtained were certainly encouraging. The gathering in the church was the largest for many years, every member of the congregation who found it possible to attend being there to respond when his or her name was called.

Letters from ex-members and others who were out of town were received and read.

The membership of Murray street Baptist church is between four hundred and four hundred and fifty.

PASSING OF DR. BOUCHER

After lingering for days in a state of semi-unconsciousness, one of Peterborough's cleverest and most respected medical practitioners, in the person of Dr. Robert Penniel Boucher, 196 Brock street, passed away at five o'clock this morning at the family residence in his sixty-fourth year.

While the death of Dr. Boucher was not entirely unexpected, yet the removal of such a capable and widely known physician and one who was in every respect a citizen of sterling worth and an example to the community, cannot but arouse the very deepest and genuine feelings of regret. By his brother physicians he was regarded with the highest esteem and one who ministered to sufferers indiscriminately, doing much without the least thoughts of remuneration.

The late Dr. Boucher was of English descent. He was the son of the late Judge Boucher of the united counties of Peterborough and Victoria. The deceased was born in Colborne in the year 1846. At ten years of age he came to Peterborough with the family, and received his preliminary education at the Public Schools here. In 1865 he commenced the study of medicine at Victoria College. After taking the regular course there, he spent a year at Bellevue Hospital, New York, before graduating in 1870. He subsequently spent two years in practice in the State of Missouri, returning to Peterborough in the year 1873, and entering into partnership with Dr. George Burnham. This partnership was dissolved in 1880, since which time up to his sickness he carried on an independent practice with much success. He enjoyed a large measure of the confidence and favor of the public and his reputation as a physician was always recognized.

In religion Dr. Boucher was a faithful member of St. John's Anglican church where he had occupied many important offices such as Lay Delegate, Chairman of the Advisory Board, and Church Warden. He was a member of the Masonic Order, A. F. A. M. He was a Conservative in politics, but was always mild and thoughtful on party questions. Dr. Boucher was also a member of the Queen Mary Hospital Board.

The funeral will be held on Monday afternoon conducted by Ven Archdeacon Warren of Toronto, owing to the unavoidable absence from the city of Rev. Canon Davidson. A service will be held in St. John's Church at two o'clock, after which interment will take place in Little Lake Cemetery.

The entire medical profession of the city will close their offices on Monday afternoon from two to four o'clock in order that they may attend the funeral and show their last respects to the deceased.

Oratorio Choral Recital in St. John's Church, Tuesday, March 19, at 8 p.m., by the Choir, assisted by Miss Brock, Contralto, and Dr. Park, Solo Violin. Silver Collection. RICHARD J. DEVEY, Conductor. 3d

TO TESTIFY IN THE BREEN DIVORCE CASE

Local People to Give Evidence in New York

Testimony of Lady Acquaintances To Begin Monday

As the result of visits to Peterboro by detectives, it is understood that several local citizens will give evidence in the Breen divorce case, the second hearing of which will be commenced in New York on Monday.

Much local interest is attached to this case in which Mrs. Breen wishes to obtain a divorce from her husband John J. Breen, who is well known locally.

The Review is informed on good authority that a detective was in the city this week, and his object was to secure witnesses who were well acquainted with Breen's actions while in Peterboro, to make the trip to New York, and testify in the interests of Mrs. Breen.

The case now before the courts is an appeal by Mrs. Breen, the jury at the recent hearing having been unable to arrive at a verdict. At that hearing considerable evidence was given by a Miss Deihl, a telephone operator, whom Breen had met in Toront-o.

The result of the evidence which will be given by the local witnesses two or three being lady acquaintances of Breen will be awaited with interest.

FAITHFUL FEW ARE DYING HARD

F. HEFFERNAN

A Peterborough product in the sporting world. To Ottawa followers of the college sports he is known as "The Cyclone" and "Moose." Since leaving Peterborough he has been in the limelight in baseball, rugby and hockey.

It has been suggested several times that the annual meeting of the Peterborough Hockey Club should be held at the close of the hockey season and the officers for the ensuing year elected. It has been the custom to do this in the fall but it would be an easy matter to make a change in the constitution of the Club and change the season of meeting. There would be several advantages from a spring meeting as against one in the fall. The officers and executive elected would have more time to get a line on their players and size up the hockey situation and the public could then be given better hockey.

A word to the wise is usually sufficient, probably the local Hockey Club Executive will harken to the suggestions of their staunch supporters and announce the annual meeting for an early date.

Hockey, the king of winter pastimes, is being gradually backed to the shelf, though not without a struggle. The majority of the enthusiasts have deserted the rink-side and the "rink rats" have the rink almost to themselves again. There are a few staunch followers who still haunt the ice box when scratch matches are being played. They are amongst the far seeing supporters who still have enough interest left to watch for young players and get a line on a seven which will be fast enough to carry the Peterborough colors one or two notches higher in 1912-13 than they went in the season of 1911-12.

OVER THE HOG LINE TO THE SILVERWARE

Season's Doings of the Peterborough Curling Club

Although the curling season this year has been a little shorter than usual, the members of the Peterborough Curling Club have had a busy time since the cold weather set in. and have played a large number of games, both with outside rinks and with local quartettes. The season's contests have, as usual been productive of some fine curling, and, it is a recognized fact in all the outside places in which the local curlers have played, or whose curling braves they have met on Peterborough ice, that the Peterborough curlers are about as accurate an aggregation with the stones as one would meet anywhere.

The local curlers, it is true, have been singularly unfortunate in all their cup games, but they have more than shown their metal in other contests. The redoubtable Scotch curlers met a rather severe defeat at the hands of the local brethren of the stane, losing on the whole by twenty-five shots.

The Peterborough men have engaged throughout the season in friendly games with Keene, Norwood, Campbellford, Lindsay, Bobcaygeon, Toronto Victoria, Oshawa, Claremont, and in all these games acquitted themselves very creditably.

The cup contests were for three pieces of silverware, the Waddell-Capon cup, the Fitzgerald-Bottum shield and the Neill-Sheppard trophy. In the games with the Toronto Victoria club for the Waddell-Capon cup, the locals lost to the Queen City curlers. They were only one shot down on the local ice, but went farther behind in Toronto. The Neill-Sheppard trophy changed hands, going to Orillia this year, by 22 shots. Bobcaygeon carried off the honors in the Fitzgerald-Bottum games, but were only able to gain a lead of three shots on the Peterborough stone sliders.

DISTRICT CUP.

The district cup was lost to Keene. In none of these cases have the Peterborough curlers been sore losers, and have always averred after a defeat that they were put under by superior curling. Their sportsmanship in this respect is admired by all the curlers they come in contact with.

BONSPIELS.

In the various bonspiels that the local boys have attended they have met with their share of the success. They carried off the honors and silverware in connection with the Oshawa bonspiel, Waddell's rink winning the W. F. Eaton cup. The winning rink was J. Brightman, A. Moore, G. H. Giroux and R. M. Waddell. The Bobcaygeon bonspiel was won by A. W. Archibald, J. S. Knapman, A. Moore and R. Neill. The Peterborough bonspiel was certainly a great success, and the bonspiel and the Grand Challenge cup were won by another local rink, composed of Messrs. W. P. Adamson, A. Webb, J. S. Knapman and G. H. Giroux.

INCREASED MEMBERSHIP.

Besides the games with outside towns there have been some fine matches between local rinks. This year the membership has been larger than other years, and all the men seemed to take quite an interest in the schedule games. The result was that thirty-one rinks were formed to compete in the schedule and the matches were played regularly. Dr. Wightman's rink won the schedule games, his rink being W. F. McKnight, A. W. Archibald, C. R. Cameron and Dr. H. Wightman.

The local bonspiel honors and prizes competed for by thirty-two Peterborough rinks, was won by W. J. Thompson's rink. The winning rink was: K. J. Grant, Stanley, H. Rose and W. J. Thompson.

The local bonspiel, followed by friendly clashes with Keene and Norwood, made a stirring finish for the gentlemen curlers this year.

THE LADIES, TOO.

The ladies curlers, too, have had a hand in the fun, and among other things competed for prizes given by Mr. J. A. Cameron. The prize was won by the following rink: Miss H. Davidson, Miss B. Morrow, Miss M. Davidson and Mrs. Coulthard.

The ladies have done a considerable amount of curling this season, and in games with the men have shown that they are proficient in the game.

STAR CATCHER FOR OTTAWA

The Ottawa Club is getting a number of good players together. The Free Press has the following to say about a deal yesterday:

The Ottawa Club closed with a star catcher this morning, and are somewhat relieved now that they have landed a backstop. Good wind pad men are scarce as hen's teeth this year. The new maskman is Billy "Red" Rowe, who caught for Albany, in the New York State league, last season. "Red" lives in Durham, N.C., and accepted terms with the local club by wire this a. m. Shaughnessy says he is one of the best throwing catchers in minor league baseball, and a reliable .250 hitter. He caught most of the games for Albany last season.

The Peterburgh, Virginia league club has given the Ottawa club an option on Pitcher Hannifan and Catcher Selvage. Hannifan is a tremendous fellow, with all kinds of stuff, and Selvage, according to Shaughnessy, is a steady hardworking backstop. The Ottawa club will make a fair priced offer for the men.

SPORTS AT Y. M. C. A.

The second game of the City Basketball League was played on the "Y" floor last night when the Eko Club (last year's champions) disposed of the Nemos in the best played game of the season. Score, Eko 13, Nemos 11.

Both teams were big and strong, and both checked very close, which kept the score down. Elliott and Canniff did the scoring for the champions, while Hill and Long tallied for the Nemos.

Following are the teams:

Eko—Elliott and A. Hall, forwards; Canniff, centre; Fleming and M. Turner, defence.

Referee—J. J. Thompson.

The next game in the City Basketball League will be played on Thursday evening when the Brownies and Ekos will meet; game will be called at 8.30.

The members of the Boys' Department are all very busy these days getting ready for the great gathering of all the members of the Pumpkin Centre Athletic Club, in the Old Red Barn (gymnasium) where they intend to give an old time hayseed carnival

EVIDENCE IN ENQUIRY INTO FARMERS' BANK

Canadian Bankers' Association Warned Finance Committee

Ottawa; March 16—That warnings had been given the department of finance by the Canadian Bankers' Association that the affairs of the Farmers' Bank at the time it was requesting a certificate were not above board and that the Dominion treasury board had heeded them to the extent of requiring unusual assurances from the bank, before granting it, was brought out in yesterday's evidence in the special inquiry into, the defunct Farmers' Bank, now in progress at the county court house.

The most important thing to determine appears to be the date on which Sir Edward Clouston's letter of warning in regard to the bank was received, Sir William Meredith stating this might have a vital bearing on the question of responsibility on the part of the government.

At Wednesday's hearing it was stated the letter was believed to have been received by the finance department the day after the issuing of the certificate and to-day it was brought out that it was written on the same day as the certificate's issue.

HAD HIS SUSPICIONS

Mr. John Knight, secretary of the Bankers' Association, Montreal was the first witness called. He testified to having been suspicious as to the status of the Farmers' Bank and to have gone to Toronto where he had a stormy interview with W. R. Travers and Dr. Beattie Nesbitt. He had looked over the books and stock list of the bank. He had informed Travers and Nesbitt that something was wanting and wanted to know "where the $100,000 came from." They had claimed they had this amount, $80,-000 of it, on deposit in the Trust and Guarantee Company, presided over by J. R. Stratton. The witness, however, had not been satisfied with this explanation.

MR. GEO. BURN

Mr. George Burn, manager of the Bank of Ottawa, and vice-president of the Bankers' Association, told of information given him by Mr. Knight as to the affairs of the Farmers Bank. Mr. Burn had therefore seen the minister of finance and told him Mr. J. R. Stratton of Peterboro was in town and would be able to furnish him with information as to the affairs of the bank. He had not himself actively intervened.

"What was your purpose in going to Mr Fielding?" asked Sir William Meredith.

"I thought he might get further light on the subject," replied Mr. Burn.

DEPUTY FINANCE MINISTER

Mr. T. C. Boville, deputy minister of finance was then recalled. A file of documents relating to the granting of the bank's certificate was produced from which a letter from Sir Edward Clouston was missing. Some reference to "a Syracuse deal" which was one of the many engineered by the management of the bank, followed, but its bearing on the bank's failure did not appear clear and Sir William Meredith was of opinion that it need not be taken.

TREASURY BOARD METHODS

Mr. Boville had written W. R. Travers that opposition to the granting of the bank's certificate had been filed and had received a letter in reply. The witness then explained the method adopted by the treasury board in dealing with urgent matters in the rush of the session. He was of opinion that the bank's certificate had been granted at an informal meeting; that it had been taken into the House Commons by the Minister of Finance and handed around to the few members of the treasury board present.

"Was this the usual practice?" asked the commissioner.

"No, not with matters of importance," replied Mr. Boville.

"Did the practice in granting this certificate differ in any way from that usually followed?" asked Sir William after Mr. Boville had stated that with the Farmers' Bank the amount set down to each shareholder was required to be sworn to.

"Yes. Ordinarily the department would require the producion of the shareholders' list, showing subscriptions of $500,000, with an affidavit."

FOR FIXING DATES.

The witness was unable to place the date on which he had received a letter in regard to the certificate which led the commissioner to say:

"Wouldn't this enquiry suggest to you the use of a rubber stamp for documents received by the finance department?"

NEVER DOUBTED TRAVERS.

Asked if he ever had had reason to doubt the good faith of W. R. Travers, the witness testified that he had not and thought it incredible that a man who represented such a list of shareholders should be of this character.

There was no afternoon session of the enquiry at the court house yesterday afternoon on account of the non-appearance of Mr. A. C. Braithwaite, of the Bank of Montreal, who was to have given evidence. The enquiry was accordingly adjourned to Tuesday, at Toronto

HOW ABOUT THAT MEMBERSHIP?

Citizens Should Co-Operate With Horticultural Society

With the approach of the spring season the Horticultural Society's activity is once more in evidence, their offer to the citizens being much more attractive and better than ever before, as it allows each one a choice of four options, any one of which is ideal in its particular line. In addition to this present distribution, The Canadian Horticulturist, a bright, newsy magazine devoted to all matters pertaining to flowers, gardening, etc., is sent, as well as a general distribution of flowering bulbs in the fall to each one becoming a member at the annual fee of $1.00. By taking advantage of this offer each citizen is given an opportunity of brightening up his own home as well as beautifying the city to such an extent as to make us all feel proud to welcome visitors to our midst that they may give our city the boost we are all trying to give, and it is hoped the response to this appeal will be greater than ever before, and that before the first of April each one will feel it his duty to join in the general movement for our own betterment.

The Directors of the Horticultural Society deserve commendation for the painstaking manner in which this work has heretofore been conducted and it now remains for our united effort to make one of Peterborough's greatest advertisements quite apparent to the casual observer.

Full particulars with application forms may be had any time by applying at any of the following places: Messrs. Jordan Bros., P. Connal & Son, Porter S. White, Mr. Frank Wise, Little Lake Cemetery, or to the Secretary, 203 King street.

"Fruit-a-tives" cured Appendicitis

NEWBURGH, Ont., Feb. 12th. 1910.

"Just about a year ago, our daughter Ella (fourteen years) was taken with terrible pains in the right side. We at once put her under the care of a first-class doctor, who pronounced it a case of Appendicitis and advised an operation. We took her to a Hospital in Kingston where she was again immediately examined by an eminent specialist. He said she had Appendicitis and must be operated on at once, if we wanted to save her life.

"Luckily for us and for her, an uncle came in with some 'Fruit-a-tives' and insisted on Ella taking them. Good results were apparent almost from the first dose, and the treatment cured her. 'Fruit-a-tives' saved our daughter from the surgeon's knife and to-day she is enjoying the best of health".

MARCH WEATHER RHEUMATISM WEATHER

Victims Can Cure Themselves With Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

With the coming of March, people who are afflicted with rheumatism begin to have unpleasant reminders of their trouble. The weather is changeable—balmy and springlike one day, raw, cold and piercing the next. It is such sudden changes of weather that sets the pangs and tortures of rheumatism, lumbago and sciatica going. But it must be borne in mind that although weather conditions start the pains, the trouble is deeply rooted in the blood and can only be cured through the blood. All the lotions and liniments in the world can't cure rheumatism. Rubbing may seem to ease the pain while you are rubbing, but there its value ends. Only through the blood can you cure rheumatism. That's why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have so many thousands of cures of this trouble to their credit. The new, rich blood which they actually make drives out the poisonous acid, and rheumatism is vanquished. Here is an example. Mr. W. C. Douglas, Webbwood, Ont., says: "I was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism, which spread through my entire system. For two months I was not able to go about, and seemed to be hovering between life and death. My joints were swollen and my legs and arms twisted until I expected that they would never return to their normal shape. The doctor seemed to help me, but not to cure me, and I would be better one day and worse the next. At this time a friend strongly urged me to try Dr. Wil-

NUT COAL IS SCARCE ARTICLE

Some Dealers Are Unable to Supply Customers

If the weather man hands out a couple more snowstorms like the one we were favored with yesterday, the citizens of Peterborough will most likely be up against a fuel famine. That is the natural conclusion when it is considered that there is not a coal and wood dealer in the city with hardwood for sale, and there are two dealers without nut coal at present and all the others, excepting one are watching for the bottom of the bin. The reason for the shortage lies with the railroads, which have not had enough motive power to haul the train loads of coal since the fierce snowstorms. There has been very little nut coal to reach Peterborough for the past month and though there is plenty on the way it is liable to be two weeks yet before it reaches its destination.

A Review representative telephoned the different dealers this afternoon and the answers were that they expected shipments everyday. Mr. Scott, of W. Scott & Co., said that he thought the coal dealers in the city had handled the supply fairly well. Scott & Co. had a close run but they got in a few cars last week which they expect will tide them over When asked if the miners' strike in Pennsylvannia had anything to do with the present shotage of coal. Mr. Scott said he did not believe so. "The strike may affect the supply later," said Mr. Scott.

Weir & O'Brien thought their cars were stalled at Port Erie. They like the others expected their coal in the course of a few days.

Rebels Helped by U. S.

New York, March 16.—The United States Government is receiving strong protests from representative Mexicans against the interference of United States citizens in the Mexican political situation. These protests are reinforced by remonstrances from British and other foreign capitalists having important interests in Mexico.

The complaint is that the rebel forces are continually furnished with supplies from the United States by way of El Paso on the Texas border. It is maintained that but for these supplies the rebels would have to lay down their arms.

Horses Poisoned; Rival Suspected.

Kingston, March 16—Charged with poisoning three horses belonging to Ernest Babcock, stage driver at Perth Road, a rival driver, was placed under arrest yesterday. Three weeks ago Babcock's horses died from strychnine. Provincial detectives, with local police, worked on the case. Babcock's neighbors felt so sorry for his misfortune that they presented him with a purse to replace his loss.

A Sign of the Times

PEOPLE are becoming very careful about what they eat and drink—

The preference for goods in sealed packages—especially in food stuffs—is now quite definite and becoming more so every day.

We must frankly admit that there are sound reasons for this preference. Food stuffs cannot be exposed to varying atmospheric conditions without losing both strength and flavor.

Tea—of all articles of everyday diet (excepting coffee, perhaps) needs protection most, and best merchants have been quick to appreciate the fact. So much is this the case that the selling of loose Tea in bulk will soon be a thing of the past.

RED ROSE TEA reaches you with all its virginal flavor, strength and purity—

—It is sealed in air-tight packages—dust and damp-proof—

—The former assures generous strength and richness—the latter that coaxing, delicate flavor, Qualities for which Red Rose Tea is famed.

Ask your Grocer for the 40c. package of Red Rose and you'll get better Tea—Tea that spends farther—for the same money.

You want "Good" Tea—well,

"Red Rose Tea is Good Tea"

Better Rural Delivery.

Ottawa, March 16.—The new rural mail scheme organized by Hon. L. P. Pelletier, Postmaster-General, will probably be brought down to the House next Monday, and will be of an important character.

Though short in its provision, the new scheme provides that the present system of duplication will be abolished and an up-to-date rural mail delivery given to the people.

In order to specialize the new scheme it is understood that it will be placed in the hands of a special commissioner with a Department who will have rank almost equal to a deputy minister.

Pelletier Will Not Resign.

Ottawa, March 16.—Official circles are not at all disturbed over the reports of the Opposition press to the effect that Hon. L. P. Pelletier, Postmaster-General, intends to resign his portfolio.

The Minister stated emphatically last night that there is no truth in the statement that he intends to throw Quebec County open to test the people on his attitude on the Keewatin school question. He finds he has so much work to do that rumors do not effect him.

Caught In Belt.

Brantford, March 16.—George Jordan, an employe of Massey-Harris Co., received terrible injuries here yesterday afternoon while attempting to put a belt on a revolving pulley. Jordan wore a long apron, and had to climb into a long passageway in order to reach the pulley. The apron caught and he was wound around the pulley. His scalp was practically taken off and the base of his skull fractured. He was reported still living at the hospital, but the doctors stated that recovery was impossible.

Officials at the factory state that Jordan's attempt to put the belt on was the height of folly.

Riot at Cock Fight.

Kingston, March 15.—There was a stirring time at a cock fight pulled off at Gananoque and it is the talk of the town. Two mains were held, one on an island near the town. Several owners became so much excited over the affair and so proud of the fighting abilities of their pets that they made a trip across the ice at night to settle matters. A free-for-all fight occurred among the men afterwards. One man was so badly battered up that a doctor was called.

ANOTHER LESSON

From J.W. BROWETT Optometrist

You are a parent? Your child is in school a certain number of hours each day, using the eyes constantly. Each year the lessons become harder, books are taken home, studies are continued in the evening, the eyes are being overtaxed, the delicate muscles are strained; yet perhaps no thought is given to helping the eyes. We know that injury results from this neglect. We must realize that, if there is a cause for eye strain, there must be a remedy; the remedy most naturally would be rest for the eyes; this rest can be obtained by wearing resting Glasses. Come and let me explain to you scientifically why resting Glasses should be worn.

We believe that parents are wise in caring for their Children's eyes, the remedy is simple and the cost is slight.

FAIR DIRECTORS DISCUSS MATTERS FOR 1912 FAIR

Some New Attractions Arranged for — Three Day Show to be Held.

The Fair directors held their regular monthly meeting in Hooper's palm parlors last night. The proceedings opened with an attack on the liberal array of good things provided by mine host, Mr. T. H. Hooper, which was followed by the transaction of some very important business. There were present, President J. H. Garbutt Vice-President G. A. Gillespie, Sec. F. J. A. Hall, and Messrs. Conway, F. Wise, J. J. Turner, sr., R. M. Glover, S Redmond, and R. Neill.

The first business was the report of the amusement committee, by its convener, Mr J. J. Turner. Mr. Turner explained that as a result of his trip to Toronto he had secured a first class attraction for the fair this coming season. The troupe engaged is a septet of five ladies and two gentlemen, who perform in musical acts, he also secured a quartette which will give a skating exhibition and a physical culture artiste, Miss De Lora, will also assist in the program. The troupe will visit five fairs, forming a circuit including Lindsay, Collingwood and Peterboro, at the cost of $1650, and the price to each fair will be $275. This is the same amount as was paid last year, and Mr. Turner said that the performance would be pleasing to all Mr. Turner did not think it would be wise to stop this sort of attraction as Belleville was doing this year, and also said that it would be wiser for Peterboro to remain on the circuit than to try to act alone in this matter.

President Garbutt repeated his explanation concerning the disadvantages of a four day show, viz., that it would overlap Belleville's exhibition and thus stop exhibitors from showing their goods at both fairs, and that many of the largest exhibitors could not afford to keep their animals in the city for four days at the one fair. Messrs. Glover, and Turner, who had previously favored the motion, said that they were satisfied with the explanations of the president and intimated that they now favored a three day exhibition. On the motion of Messrs. Wise and Gillespie, the motion calling for a four day fair was rescinded and replaced by one calling for a three day exhibition.

In regard to the bill now before the Provincial Parliament, concerning the lowering of the maximum Government grant to exhibitions from $800 to $500, two of the Board were appointed to interview Mr. E. A. Peck, M.P.P., and explain how the passage of the bill would affect Peterborough.

Mr. Hall was in receipt of a letter from the Lindsay Fair Directors advising the local directors that Dr. Vrooman, M. P. P., for Lindsay, would oppose the passage of the bill, which, he considered, would divert a large sum of money from the smaller fairs.

It was decided to ask Mr. Quartermaine to write an "In Memoriam" in appreciation of the late Mr. Leary's services to the Board, which will be presented to Mrs. Leary.

A list of accounts, including bills from the delegates to Toronto were presented and ordered to be paid.

Mr. Redmond reported that he and Mr. Moore had looked over the prize list and had nothing to recommend except another prize for the grade dairy cattle.

Secretary Hall reported that turnstiles, of which the Board proposed to buy three, would cost from $135 to $165 each. No action was taken in this matter.

A very interesting and progressive policy as regards the erection of new buildings for exhibition purposes was brought forward by Mr. Neill, who thinks that in spite of a present overdraft of $1,300, the Board of Directors can secure the present exhibition grounds and erect $20,000 of new up-to-date buildings. Mr. Neill's plan was briefly this: To organize a joint stock company, which by subscriptions from citizens, farmers and others interested enough to buy shares in the company will accumulate a capital of $20,000. This is to be used for building purposes and as security for the company's bonds which the city council would be asked to guarantee. With the money raised on the bonds the present site could be purchased at the expiration of their lease, five years from now.

The Directors considered the proposition very favorably as they believed that they should go ahead and improve the present accommodations which, as was pointed out last night, are no better than Lakefield's.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Neill, Gillespie, Turner, Conway and Wise was appointed to secure information on this subject and present it at the next monthly meeting. The committee will also arrange to have plans of the fair grounds prepared suggesting the future situation of the new buildings. It will be presented for consideration at the next meeting to be held on the evening of the second Wednesday in April.

The cost of the new buildings would be raised from the receipts from merchants who would be glad to pay for space in the modern premises. An example of this was the grandstand which cost $3,500 (the cause of the $1,300 overdraft) and which last year brought into the treasury $550, which was fifteen per cent. of its total cost.

At the meeting it was also decided to pay a certain prize of 50c, which has caused a lot of unjust comment. The prize was not paid because of a misunderstanding.

The meeting adjourned about 8.30 p. m.

FOLLOWS HIS RIVAL TO GRAVE

Senator Ross of Nova Scotia Passes Suddenly

Ottawa, March 18.—Senator Ross of Nova Scotia, one of the first members in the Dominion House after Confederation, died yesterday morning at 6.30 from asthma. He had not been well for some time, although he took his seat in the Upper House Saturday and had luncheon at the Parliament restaurant Saturday night. He was taken ill during the night.

Senator Ross was born March 20, 1825, and in three days would have been 87. He took a prominent part in Nova Scotian politics before Confederation, and was one of the leading Liberal opponents of Sir Charles Tupper against Confederation.

He was Minister of Militia under Alexander Mackenzie, and introduced the bill founding the Royal Military College at Kingston. He was later appointed collector of customs at Halifax, which position he held until 1906, when he was called to the Senate.

Senator Ross was a political rival of the late Senator Miller, who died two weeks ago, from pre-Confederation days. There are now no less than four vacancies in Nova Scotia.

To Stimulate Trade.

Toronto, March 18.—A committee of the Associated Boards of Trade has arrangements in hand for a trip of as many members as possible, to Great Britain in May. The plans include visits to the more important Chambers of Commerce, and it is hoped that the party will also be able to attend the meeting of the Imperial Federation of the Chambers of Commerce, June 8-9.

AGED WOMAN AND DAUGHTER PERISH

Many Others Had Narrow Escape in Sunday Calamity---Volunteers Made Heroic Rescues.

Sick Woman Was Heard Praying for Other Sufferers—$25,000 Damage Was Done.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., March 18.—Two women were killed and another severely injured in a fire that did $25,000 damage to the Logan and Hewson buildings, 36-38 Erie avenue, yesterday.

The dead are:

Mrs. Charlotte Pattison, aged 71.

Her invalid daughter, Melta, aged 37 years.

Another daughter, Ellen, is at the General Hospital in a serious condition as a result of inhaling smoke. Twelve other people had narrow escapes.

The fire was discovered shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday morning. By the time the firemen reached the fire the occupants of the building were escaping in their night clothing. Henry Fisher and his wife, who occupied the front portion of the first floor in the south section of the building, were the first to gain the street after a hard battle with the smoke.

Mrs. Ellen Whalen, an aged widow, who occupied apartments on the first floor in rear of the Fisher apartment, made her escape in the same manner. She was almost overcome by smoke.

Just after the firemen arrived, two heads appeared at a window on the second floor in the south portion of the building. They were those of Ella Pattison and her invalid sister, Melta. The firemen could see that Ella was supporting her sister and endeavoring to keep her head out of the window. Great billows of smoke belched from the windows.

As the firemen raised the ladders the women were seen in attitudes of prayer. Melta, who had long suffered from spinal trouble, could not move from her couch without assistance, was heard calling, "Please God send us help to save mother, Ella."

When the ladder was raised to the window Fred. Carter, electrician, sprang up it with a rope. When he reached the women they were in a semi-conscious condition. Gathering Ella in his arms, he dragged her through the window and lowered her to the sidewalk. She is reported to be in a serious condition, having been almost suffocated by smoke.

After rescuing the woman, Carter was so overcome by smoke that he was forced down the ladder by comrades. Robert Barr, proprietor of the Arlington Hotel, took Carter's place at the top of the ladder and with great difficulty hauled the unconscious form of the crippled woman from the room. She was passed down the ladder and died while being carried to the Trennick Hotel.

It was impossible for the rescuers to attempt an entrance to the smoke-filled apartments. The body of the aged mother of the two women was found on the bed in her own room, where the fire had subsided somewhat hours later. The body was burned almost beyond recognition, but physicians say the woman died of suffocation.

While firemen and spectators were deeply engrossed in the rescue two other families escaped.

Big Fire at Buffalo.

Buffalo, March 18.—Harold Moore, aged 21, and John Clifford, aged 45, were fatally burned and five others seriously injured in a fire that broke out late Saturday in the plant of the Buffalo Weaving & Belting Co. The fire was due to an explosion of naphtha. The property loss will probably exceed $25,000.

Every war brings into existence many new words, and as long ago as 1710, Swift deplored the fact.

CRITICAL PERIOD IN ENGLAND

Special to the Review.

London, March 18—Vague rumors that England was on the verge of a great international complication surcharged the air to-day and found credence in the stock market where the feeling was general that Germany may take advantage of the critical industrial situation. Editorials hint that grave trouble is impending, but the public is left in the dark as to cause of alarm.

TRAINMEN WERE IN CONFERENCE

Ottawa, March 18.—Meetings were held on Saturday and Sunday by the representatives of the Grand Trunk Co.'s conductors and trainmen, regarding the recent reduction of the pay of some of the company's employes on branch lines.

S. N. Berry, vice-president of the Order of Railway Conductors, had another meeting with Hon. W. T. Crothers, Minister of Labor, but stated that nothing had been decided upon as yet.

"We do not know what course of action we will take," he stated.

"As to whether we will apply for a conciliation board that I cannot say until to-morrow, when we will probably hold our final meeting."

It is understood the G.T.R. officials in Montreal will be conferred with preliminary to the taking of any action, as this is necessary before a reconciliation board can be obtained.

COL. HUGHES ANNOUNCES CAMPS FOR THE CADETS

Boys From Twelve to Sixteen Years of Age Would Attend.

Ottawa, March 18.—Col. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, has issued a memorandum on cadet corps training, in which he asks for the co-operation of all clergymen, officers of religious institutions and physical and military leaders of the Y. M. C. A.

Col. Hughes states that the plan of organization embraces obtaining through school inspectors and school teachers returns from every section of Canada of the number of boys from say twelve to sixteen years, whether attending school or not, who would desire to attend camp and be trained for one week, during the latter part of July or early in August.

Estimates will then be made of the number to be called from each locality. These will be formed into squads or sections by schools; the schools of a township or similar unit will constitute a company. The companies from each county will make up a regiment or a brigade, each under the name of its home county, town or township, and school section.

It is generally considered that, for this season, the camps should be held in the home county, unless in special cases. The cadets will be transported, camped, fed and in part uniformed. They will not be paid. The sale of liquor and tobacco in every form will not be permitted.

It is expected that 40,000 cadets will go to camp.

TORONTO GROCER ATTACKS HIS WIFE AND SHE MAY DIE

NINE SCALP WOUNDS

Mind of Assailant is Said to be Unhinged—He Alleges Nagging.

Toronto, March 18.—With nine deep wounds in her scalp and not likely to recover, Mrs. Anna Cordwell, aged 52 years, lies in a critical condition in the General Hospital.

Charged with attempted murder upon his wife, James Cordwell, aged 65 years, is held in Wilton avenue police station, said to be partially insane, muttering incoherently, and declaring at times that he "couldn't put up with the nagging."

Domestic squabbles led to the murderous attack upon Mrs. Cordwell by her husband in their little corner grocery store, 145 Sumach street, at nine o'clock Sunday morning.

At five o'clock in the afternoon, fearing that the woman would die, Crown Attorney Richard Greer, Inspector Gregory and a stenographer, obtained a deposition from the woman. At a later hour last night she had regained consciousness, but, according to the physicians, twenty-four hours must pass before they can ascertain as to whether she will live. Septic poisoning is feared.

The terrible scuffle between the man and wife started when Mrs. Cordwell refused to listen to her husband's orders when she was lighting the gas to cook breakfast. "I tell you not to light that gas," shouted Cordwell to his wife, to which Mrs. Cordwell answered that she would. "Well, if you do I'll kill you," the man said, opening the cellar door in the rear of the grocery store and walking down stairs. Mrs. Cordwell was placing a match to the heater when her husband returned. He was carrying a club. The women continued her work without watching him. Presently she was struck on the head and thrown to the floor. She lay stunned for a moment with the blood flowing from the wound. Then she arose and made an effort to resist further beating.

According to her story, Cordwell grabbed her by the throat and tried to floor her, but after a plucky tussle she eventually gained her freedom and rushed into the store. Her strength ebbing away quickly, she ran to the front door, but it was locked. Then she smashed a window looking into Blevin's place and screamed for help.

In a few seconds Cordwell followed her into the store carrying an ugly-looking iron box opener. He pounded her several times on the head with it. Mrs. Cordwood managed to thrust it from his hand, and then he picked up hammer lying nearby and struck her with it. The woman collapsed on the floor.

Hearing the commotion in the store, Harry Barnby and Mrs. Hanes of 143 Sumach street, a house across the road, rushed to the store. Barnby grabbed Cordwell and threw him into a chair and held him. A crowd of neighbors, which had quickly collected, tried to relieve the woman's sufferings.

When Mrs. Cordwell was taken from her home the husband started to the police station to give himself up. "She was all the time nagging me and I couldn't stand it," he said in explanation of his act.

The elderly couple were married on New Year's Day, but had only lived together for five weeks, and their principal occupation seems to have been arguing. Both have grown-up families of their former marriages. Cordwell had owned the little grocery store for a number of years.

TAXI ROBBERS FOUND GUILTY

New York, March 18.—Guilyt of robbery in the first degree, was the verdict brought in late Saturday by the jury that has been trying the case of Gene Montani, the chauffeur in the sensational taxicab hold-up of Feb. 15, when two messengers of a bank were robbed of $25,000. With the verdict was coupled a recommendation of mercy. Montani was remanded to the Tombs by Justice Seabury, pending arraignment for sentence on Wednesday.

BRITAIN CALMLY FACES CRISIS OF COAL STRIKE

Prospects for the Week Are Not Bright—Riots Likely to Break Out.

London, March 18.—Realizing that no settlement of the coal strike is possible for another week, the nation faces with extraordinary calmness the prospect of a swiftly increasing industrial paralysis, accompanied by hunger and destitution. The Cabinet discussed Saturday the draft of the bill, which, it is hoped, will end the struggle. To frame a measure which Parliament will pass and both parties to the dispute will accept, is regarded as the most difficult problem the Government has undertaken since it assumed office.

The chief difficulty lies in embodying in the legislation Premier Asquith's pledge that the minimum wage bill "should provide an adequate safeguard for the protection of the employers." It involves the application of compulsion in some form. The coal owners may be coerced by legislation to pay a minimum wage, but it is very doubtful if Parliament will ever pass a bill which does not also apply coercive measures to the men, subjecting them to penalties for breaking the agreements under which the minimum is paid.

It is generally assumed that it will necessitate a provision of compulsory arbitration with such revision of the Trades Disputes Act as will render the trades unions liable to damages for breaches of agreements by their members. To legislation of this character the labor leaders are strongly opposed, but the miners' executive have announced that they will direct the men not to return to work until a bill is passed which is satisfactory to them. Hence there is no certainty that the passage of a minimum wage act would immediately terminate the strike. It is considered significant that James Ramsay Macdonald, the labor member for Leicester, was not called into consultation at Saturday's Cabinet meeting.

While the strike thus far has been remarkable for absence of violence, there are indications that another week of enforced idleness is likely to lead to serious outbreaks in the Lanarkshire districts. After the news of the breaking down of negotiations was published, many non-union miners returned to the pits. They were attacked Saturday by a great crowd of strikers. The police made many arrests.

In Glasgow trade and progress have been practically throttled. Train services have been reduced, some of the lines abolishing Sunday service. At the Armstrong, Whitworth & Co. shipbuilding works, at Newcastle-on-Tyne, notification has been given that if the strike lasts another week 20,000 employes will be suspended.

That the prolongation of the strike will seriously affect the nation's oversea food supply is indicated by a cablegram from Buenos Ayres by a large firm of ship owners at Liverpool, stating that it will be impossible to obtain bunker coal for steamers at any River Plate port after the end of March.

In a speech Saturday night, V. Hartshorn, the Welsh mine leader, after declaring that compulsory arbitration would not settle the strike, said:

"The outstanding fact is that the workers are masters of the situation. They have all the power, and it is simply a question as to how they will use it."

Westphalian Strike Waning.

Berlin, March 18.—In spite of the strikers' denials, the strike spirit apparently is growing weaker in Westphalia. An important miners' meeting at Bocinun yesterday was sparsely attended. No disorders are reported anywhere. A meeting of the miners' delegates at Zwickau has reached a decision to strike to-day.

BOMB LEFT FOR JUDGE

He Sentenced Brandt To Thirty Year Term

Small Defect Saved Him but Inspector Was Hurt

New York, March 18.—An attempt to kill Judge Otto A. Rosalsky of the criminal branch of the Court of General Sessions, with a bomb came within a hair's breadth of being successful Saturday night. It was only a defect—said to be a small accumulation of dirt—in the mechanism of the infernal machine, which the justice had unsuspectingly opened that saved him from probable death or certain injury. The bomb later exploded while being examined by Inspector Owen Egan of the bureau of combustibues, wounding Egan about the face and arms and almost blinding him.

The intended victim of the explosion is one of the most conspicuous members of the New York judiciary at present, having lately received a great deal of publicity in connection with the Brandt case. It was Judge Rosalsky who sentenced Brandt to a 30-year term for burglary at Mortimer L. Schiff's home in 1907 and who later reversed his action.

The attack upon the jurist is the first case of such violence attempted against a judge here within memory, and it set the whole machinery of the police department speedily at work upon the mystery.

The bomb came in the regular mail, delivered by a postman to Judge Rosalsky's apartments at about 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

An hour afterwards the judge opened the box and discovering the nature of the contents, phoned police headquarter to send an expert. It was while Egan was examining the box in the judge's library that the explosion occurred.

A thick plate of glass which covered the mahogany table was ground as fine as snow, a great dent was made in the table itself, and the ceiling directly above was punctured with many holes larger than a man's fist.

Broken pieces of two dry batteries, of an elbow of iron pipe in which the explosive had been placed and a spring and cork were picked up in the room and held for the detectives to examine. It was believed that the explosive used was nitro-glycerine.

Judge Rosalsky declared that he had no suspicions to express as to who had sent the bomb.

Doctors Condemn Oily Liniments

The Public are Warned to Be Careful of These Strong-Smelling Oily Liniments Containing Harmful Acids, Ammonia, Etc.

Many people have clung to the old-fashioned idea that a thick, greasy liniment is the best kind. Doctors say not—and they know.

Recently a number of these white, oily liniments were analyzed, and they were found to contain an enormously high percentage of harmful acids, and such irritating chemicals as ammonia, etc. For the moment they may cause a warm sensation when first applied, but their continued use never cures rheumatism, and only deteriorates the skin, sets up inflammation and causes endless trouble.

When a doctor warns you to quit using a white, oily liniment—do so. He knows that a thick liniment can't penetrate, can't sink through the pores and reach the seat of the pain.

When asked his opinion a few days ago, Dr. Roberts stated that he considered a strong, penetrating, pain-subduing liniment such as "Nerviline," to be superior to any of the white, ammonia liniments. In his twenty-five years of practice he had witnessed cases of rheumatism, sciatica, and lumbago that simply would not respond to ordinary treatment—but Nerviline cured them. The same physician also spoke of the great advantages of keeping a preparation like Nerviline in the house always, because of cramps, diarrhoea, stomach disorders, earache, toothache, headache, and such minor ailments. Nerviline is a first-class cure. There is scarcely an ache or a pain, internal or external, that Nerviline won't cure. In thousands of homes no other pain-relieving medicine is used. Fifty years' continued success and the endorsement of the profession are proof that Nerviline is the liniment for the home.

FEED THE HUNGRY

The project of feeding famished millions in China with the damaged wheat of the Canadian West is taking definite shape. As a result of floods and droughts some 4,000,000 men, women and children will starve to death before June unless succor is received from across the sea. That succor, or at least part of it, is likely to go from Canada.

The wheat damaged by an unseasonably early winter lies on the prairies. The farmers would be glad to part with it. The Ogilvies and Lake of the Woods Milling people are understood to have agreed to grind it free. The Canadian Pacific Railway will facilitate its transportation to the Orient. Canadian boards of trade and business men everywhere agree that the project should be pushed if only for commercial reasons.

It will give Western grain growers some return for the injured portions of last year's crops, and it will tend to make the Chinese regard us in kindly fashion. They will be more inclined to trade with us, to buy our goods and to put up with our embargo upon their free movement into this country. But after all the humanitarian consideration should impel us most strongly. Over there people are starving. Over here are millions of bushels of grain. Let us get the grain or rather the flour which it will produce, to the famine-stricken ones as soon as possible.—Toronto News.

BUILDING UP CANADA

Building permits for February received from twenty-eight cities, by the Financial Post, indicate another record year in building activity and with the advantage of one extra day shows an 85.9 per cent. increase over February, 1911. Last month the Eastern cities showed a percentage increase, over January, 1911 of 44.9 per cent. as against 15.4 per cent. in the Western Division, owing, perhaps, to prospects of the earlier spring opening in the East. This month, however, the tables are turned and the West has eclipsed the East with a 140.6 per cent. gain, as compared with 16.5 per cent, for the East.

The large increase in some quarters is explained by the desire of builders to get started early in order to escape possible delay on account of stringency in brick and other building materials. Port Arthur is in first place with regard to percentage increase, showing a 2465.2 per cent. gain. Victoria, New Westminster, Brandon, Saskatoon, and North Vancouver follow in order with increases ranging from 800 to 400 per cent. The largest actual gain, $1,488,130, is reported from Victoria, one million dollars of the total being for additions to the legislative buildings there. Even with this amount deducted, Victoria would show a 166.8 per cent. increase over last year.

A few decreases are shown, the chief by Montreal, which did much to bring down the percentage increase of the Eastern cities. In view of the large increases shown by other Western cities, Regina's decrease of 3.7 per cent. is disappointing, but not important, as the figures for the two months of this year are $11,530 ahead of last year's. For the two months of 1912 increases are shown by all cities with the exception of Montreal, Halifax, Nelson and Sydney, the latter three being almost negligible.

Many of the cities this month have reported the "largest yet" and forecast increasing activity for March.

SENT TO PRISON FOR DOING NOTHING

Chicago, March 18.—Chicago's laziest man will begin serving a six-months' sentence in the workhouse. He is Gustav Schillinger, the father of several children.

"You are the most monumental example of humanity it has been my privilege to meet," said Judge Goodnow in sentencing him. "You are one of those fellows who were born tired and never got rested."

It is said of Schillinger that he has done no work for nine years except that performed while serving previous sentences in the Bridwell. He lived in a house provided by his mother, for which he paid no rent. His wife and children worked, providing him with clothing, food and spending money. He told the court that he did not repair the weather boarding on the house because when the weather was cold he could not do it and when it was warm it was not necessary.

CHILD'S MITE STARTED CHURCH

Philadelphia, March 18.—A childish bequest of 57 cents, made in 1895 by Ethel Shingle, just before her death, found its goal, when the handsome Methodist Episcopal Church of the Advocate, costing $105,000, was dedicated in Germantown. The little girl's gift was the beginning of a movement to raise the money necessary to construct the new edifice.

By a vote of the Sunday School Board the bequest of Ethel Shingle was made the nucleus of the building fund, and the structure when finished, was named the Ethel Memorial.

Sleep of Death on Bark.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 18.—With two members of the crew dead and six others with well developed cases of beri-beri, or sleeping sicknes, the British bark Brilliant, which sailed from Bombay three months ago, reached the Marcus Hook quarantine station, a few miles below this city, yesterday.

The Brilliant was last reported, at St. Helena on Jan. 20. At that time there was no sickness on board. The first case, that of an American, developed sixteen days ago. The following day an English sailor was seized with the disease. Both of the men died in less than a week.

Lady Betty Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

Instead of the men being away at a separate beach of their own, they were put with us, and kept popping out of boxes every minute, and running up to talk to the girls they knew, just as calmly as if they were in evening dress. My eyes almost came out of my head for an instant. Then I just swallowed hard and leaped over about five centuries of prejudice as if I were jumping across a tiny beck.

"Everything's a matter of custom," said I to myself, and in another minute I was racing gayly down to the water, hand in hand with Sally, as if we had been little girls with sand pails and shovels.

I expected to feel as if I had plunged into a million gallon bath of iced water, when I got out among the creamy breakers, but, judging from the sensation, Americans have had their part of the Atlantic beautifully warmed from underneath with some patent heating apparatus. It would be just like them!

The sandy beach is so level you can patter out ever so far until you finally have to bob up and down for the rolling waves as if they were royalties.

I can swim a little, and Potter took me beyond the breakers. It was great fun under that arch of turquoise sky, with the sun dancing on the clear green water as if the millionaires of Newport had been sprinkling gold pieces. But the best of all was the floating platform about a hundred yards from the beach, where we sat and let the emeralds and pearls spray over us.

At home when you are at the sea your governess or some other person who thinks enjoyment ought to be measured off by rule sits on the shore looking at her watch, and when you have been in exactly twenty minutes she tells you to come out directly or you will catch a chill. I've always wondered what it would do to you if you stopped in for twenty-one minutes, though I never had the chance to try, but in America all that is quite different, as different as the very way they say "seaside," with their accent on the first instead of the last syllable.

Nobody thinks about watches. You just bathe and bathe as long as you feel like it. When you are tired of it you come out. Then you bake yourself in the sand for a little while if you like and run back to begin over again. It is heavenly. No other adjective half expresses it.

When we did really make up our minds to stop out for good and had dressed ourselves, feeling like goddesses just born of the foam (or gods, as the case might be), we all met—our party, the Pitchleys and my cousin—to arrange about what Mohunsleigh would do.

It seemed that Mrs. Pitchley had invited him to lunch, and as she had been so kind about the bathhouse he explained to Potter he thought that he couldn't very well refuse. About stopping on he would decide later, but he consented to drive with us in the afternoon in a motor car of Potter's that holds six. By that time he would have had time to send a wire to a friend of his in New York and to make up his mind what he had better do about going back.

When we got home we found Mrs. Ess Kay much better and up. She was inclined at first to be cross with Sally and Potter for taking me to the beach, but when she heard about Mohunsleigh, she forgot to be vexed, and seemed almost excited about him. I can't think why.

She asked lots of questions, very quickly, one after the other, brightening up when Potter told how he had invited Mohunsleigh to come to the Moorings, but looking quite strained and wild at the news about his lunching with the Pitchleys.

"You oughtn't to have let him go, Potter," she said.

Potter shrugged his shoulders—those square American shoulders of his. "Strange as it may seem to you, he wanted to. That settled it. I didn't monkey with the gunpowder."

Mrs. Ess Kay's lips went down at the corners and her eyes flashed.

"How easy it is to see that woman's game," said she. "Cora Pitchley knows that Mrs. Van der Windt and the committee will be only too anxious for us to go to the pink ball now, and she thinks she sees a way of getting there, too, after all. Mark my words, she's got her earl; it'll go hard with her if she doesn't stick to him. Betty, can't you do something? He's your cousin. You've a right to him."

"I don't know that I want him particularly," I confessed. "Mohunsleigh's a dear, queer old thing, and I'm fond of him, but we haven't seen much of him at home for years. And I know he can't be bothered with me."

"Anyhow, he certainly ought to be here," said Mrs. Ess Kay anxiously. "It will be perfectly loathsome if we have to sit still and see the Pitchleys gobble him up."

"Poor Mohunsleigh!" I exclaimed. "Why, what will they do with him?" And for a lurid instant I beheld Miss Pitchley and Carolyn as beautiful ogresses, with their lips red—too red.

"They'll go to the pink ball with him and by him. They couldn't without him. That's what they'll do," said Mrs. Ess Kay, as if she saw my cousin's whitening bones picked clean by the Pitchley family. "And we shall have to be intimate with them the whole time he stays."

"Oh, you needn't feel bound to for my sake. It isn't as though Mohunsleigh"— I began, but Mrs. Ess Kay snapped my poor sentence in two, as if it had been cotton on a reel.

"I have to think for all of us," said she. "Cora Pitchley is a climber."

We changed our dresses (Sally says one must be forever changing one's dress at Newport), lunched, and then at the door appeared a gorgeous white motor car lined with scarlet, which I had never seen before. As we all had on white, from head to foot, we matched it beautifully, and, feeling that we looked nice enough even to grace an accident, if it must come, we started to pick up Carolyn Pitchley and my cousin.

As I stood hesitating, somebody knocked.

Mrs. Ess Kay didn't go, for she wasn't quite herself yet, and, besides, she perhaps thought that in the circumstances Mohunsleigh ought to be brought to call before she met him informally. I don't know that any of us were as sorry as we ought to have been not to have her.

The Pitchley house, which is called the Chateau de Plaisance, is on a much grander scale than the Moorings. It thinks it is an old French chateau and tries to convey the same impression to beholders, as do several others of more or less the same sort. But it's a hopeless effort. The poor dears might as well give up and resign themselves once for all to being a blot on the exquisite blue and gold landscape, though perhaps if they can hold out for two or three hundred years they may do better. The farther we went, along a glorious road called the Cliff drive, and the more charming colonial houses and delightful "cottages" I saw, the more I felt that the regular palaces were mistakes, with Newport for a setting and the sea for a background. I am glad that I didn't live at the time when all the real castles of the world were young and awkward. Perhaps they looked just as crude as these at first, though it's hard to imagine it.

When we went back the first thing that Mrs. Ess Kay asked was, "Well, what about Lord Mohunsleigh?"

"He's made up his mind to stop and send for his things," said I.

"You gave him my note? He's coming to us?"

"I gave him the note, and he's coming around presently to thank you for being so kind. But—he feels he had better stay with the Pitchleys. You see, it's like this. They happen to be sending a servant to New York today to do some commissions for Mrs. Pitchley, so the man will go to Mohunsleigh's hotel too. And as they're doing so much for him and Mrs. Pitchley and her husband know some friends of his at home, he thinks—but he'll tell you all about it himself."

"I told you so!" said Mrs. Ess Kay.

Chapter 10

WHILE we were motoring Mrs. Ess Kay had been terribly busy with her secretary, getting invitations ready for a violet tea.

She was giving the tea, she explained, to introduce me to Newport society, and she was having a violet one because it was not the right time of year for violets.

I meekly suggested that as a reason for giving some other kind of tea, but she said not at all. She wished to have that kind because violets were hard to get, though not impossible. I would see when the time came that she could get them. And I should also see, if it were indeed true that I did not know, what a violet tea was. She wanted it to be a surprise for me. She thought I would like it.

I hadn't long to wait before learning the true inwardness of a violet tea, for Mrs. Ess Kay was determined to get me "out" as soon as possible, and it seems that in America the time to bring a girl out is at a tea. At least that is one way, and as Mrs. Ess Kay was even then planning to give something very big just before the much talked about "pink ball," so as to "take the shine off that grand affair," she wished to get the teacups washed up before she sent out the next invitations.

I'm sure mother wouldn't take as much trouble for a house party to meet the king and queen as Mrs. Ess Kay did for that violet tea, and I daren't think even now, though it happened weeks ago, of the money she must have spent.

For one thing, she and Sally and I had to have violet dresses. She would buy mine (I don't see how I should have done it if she hadn't, especially as Vic wrote just then that mother felt poorer than ever, and that man hadn't yet proposed), and it was beautiful; pale violet silk muslin, trimmed with violets and their leaves. Then violet and silver livery was ordered in a great hurry for the four footmen—to be worn on one afternoon, and no more! But these things were mere sketchy details, compared to other preparations.

THE REVIEW

Satisfied Policy-Holder

[COPY]

Toronto, March 1st, 1912.

W. H. HILL, ESQ.,
Manager,
Sun Life Assurance Co.,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I wish to thank the Sun Life Assurance Company, through you, for the prompt and very satisfactory settlement of my 15 year Endowment Policy, No. 64345, which matured and was paid me to-day.

I have also a 15 year Endowment maturing to-day in a leading British Company.

The contrast, in the results, in favor of your Company is so marked that I want you to know it, but I am at a loss to know how such a difference could honestly occur. When I tell you that the profits in your Company are three and one-third times the profits in the other Company referred to, and this too notwithstanding I paid the other Company $1.15 per year more per $1000 than I paid you, you will realize my inability to comprehend the cause.

This is surely a tribute to the management of the Sun Life, and I am so well pleased I have applied for further insurance with you.

Incidentally, I would like to say a word for your loan privilege. As you are aware, I borrowed some money on my policy, a little over a year ago, which enabled me to obtain a substantial interest in a town site in the Northwest, and you will be pleased to learn that it has already yielded substantial gain and gives promise to pay hundreds per cent., so that it is impossible to fully realize the value of that Policy to me.

I thought as an old Peterborough boy you would be pleased to know I am delighted with the result.

Yours truly,
(Signed) ROBERT E. DOLAN.

"BREWSTER'S MILLIONS"

Probably no book dramatization of recent years has enjoyed the success and popularity that has attended 'Brewster's Millions" - George Barr McCutcheon's remarkable tale of frenzied finance, which comes to "The Grand" next Friday, March 22. The title character is in the capable hands of Louis Kimball and the supporting company is one of exception al merit. The story of the play is familiar to the average theatregoer and book reader and tells how Montgomery Brewster, inheriting a million dollars from his grandfather, while given a house-warming and a surprise party by his friends, who shower congratulations upon him, is informed by a solicitor that his mother's brother, who has just died, has left him a fortune of $7,000,000, on condition that he shall spend the million within a year, the reason for the stipulation being that the young man's mother had been left in want by the grandfather, and the uncle, does not wish her son to enjoy an inheritance derived from that source. The conditions are that he shall not give the million dollars away—that would be too simple—yet he is not to be mean. He must spend it in some legitimate way, by investing in some business, or using it for his enjoyment and that of his friends. Above all he must not disclose his purpose. He accepts the conditions and his efforts to make himself penniless in a short time, make up the fun that follows.

Up to the last minute, some complications or other threaten to defeat him, but his wit and dexterity extricate him from every emergency and he finally succeeds in his task.

BEST YEAR FOR CANADIAN GENERAL

Total Profits for 1911, Largest in History of Company

The Canadian General Electric Company, Limited, has issued its pamphlet report for the year ended December 31, 1911, showing total profits of $1,405,889, the largest in the history of the company, and an increase of 54 per cent. over 1910, which year in turn showed a gain of 45 per cent. over 1909. This is a splendid showing and should be most satisfactory to stockholders. The sum of $353,721 was charged out of earnings for depreciation of buildings, machinery, etc., as against $188,084 in 1910, and $91,093 in 1909. This amount is far more than was necessary, but the company had a surplus of money and could afford to be generous. Interest on loans amounted to $162,422. Net earnings, after these deductions amounted to $889,745. Dividends of 7 per cent, on both the common and preferred stock were paid, totalling $525,109.

Earnings for 1911 compare with the three preceding years as follows:

	Total Profits	Net	Per Cent. available common
1910	911,208	610,300	9
1909	625,990	483,236	7.3
1908	753,088	510,367	8

The dividend record of the Canadian General Electric Co. is as follows:—From 1893 to 1897, inclusive, 6 per cent. was paid on the common, in 1898 8 per cent., from 1899 to 1907, inclusive, 10 per cent. was paid, while since 1908, the dividend has been 7 per cent.

After payments of dividends last year, the sum of $364,636 remained to be added to the profit and loss account, making a total of $675,779, in addition to a reserve fund of $1,669,521. The total surplus is $3,345,311. It should be remembered that real estate owned by the company is carried on the books at a valuation below its market value, the appreciation being estimated, according to President W. R. Brock, at upwards of half a million dollars.

The balnce sheet shows current assets of $7,926,840 against current liabilities of $3,947,845, leaving a working capital of approximately $4,000,000. Real estate, buildings, etc., is carried on the books at $4,339,884 and machinery and tools at $2,252,669. The sum of $534,032 appears under the head of mortgages. This mortgage indebtedness was not incurred by the company but is made up of mortgages already existing on properties or business acquired.

Orders received to date in 1912 are in excess of those for the same period last year, so that the prospects for the current year are bright. Unfinished business at the end of 1911 amounted to $3,500,000.

During the past year the Canadian General Electric Co. acquired the property and assets of the Sunbeam Incandescent Lamp Co., of Toronto, and contracts have been let for additions to the buildings and equipment which will double the capacity of that plant, while at the Peterborough works a new stores building, 325 feet x 80 feet, is in course of erection. A new ornamental iron, bronze, and art metal building is to be erected in Toronto during the year. With these extensions and additions production will be materially increased.

LAID TO REST

The administration of the last sad rites of the church upon all that was mortal of the late Dr. R. P. Boucher took place in St. John's church at two o'clock this afternoon. The ceremony was deeply impressive and was witnessed by a very large number of the business and professional men of the city, including the entire medical fraternity.

The cortege left the late residence at two o'clock, and proceeded to St. John's church. Here, Ven. Archdeacon Warren, of Toronto, after conducting the devotional exercises, paid eloquent tribute to the sterling character borne by the deceased, and of his unswerving devotion to the principles of Christianity. His life was one that could be held up as an example to all and one that was in every sense worthy of emulation.

The hymns were, "For all the Saints,' and "Art Thou Weary" and "Nunc Dimittis." Chopin's funeral march was played by Mr. R. J. Devey. After the chanting of a hymn, the casket was conveyed down the aisle, preceeded by the pall-bearers. The immediate members of the family followed.

The bearers were Drs. Halliday, Eastwood and McCullough, and Messrs G. W. Hatton, J. A. Aylmer, and R. E. Wood.

The funeral cortege was very long. Interment took place in Little Lake cemetery.

LOAD OF GRAIN STOPS THE CARS

The car service on Charlotte street was held up for nearly half an hour this morning by a load of grain which had become stuck fast in the mud at the corner of Aylmer and Charlotte street, in crossing the street car track. The load was an unusually heavy one and the team attached could not move it without assistance. Although within a few feet of its destination, Mr. Geo. Mather's store, it was almost half an hour before it could be taken off the track and thus allow the cars to pass.

WAY OF ESCAPE PROVIDED WITH TEMPTATION

Life Would be Weak and Insipid Without Temptation

Rev. A. H. McGillvray Was Heard at Knox Church

Rev A. H. McGillvray, late of St. John's Church Vancouver, preached to large congregations at both services at Knox Presbyterian church yesterday.

In the evening, the preacher took his text from the epistle of the apostle Paul to the Philippians, chapter 4, verse 22: "All the saints salute you, chiefly those that are of Caesar's household." Rev. Mr. McGillvray, remarked on the zeal of the apostle Paul, in spreading the gospel, even while he was within the prison walls. He was anxious to gain converts even in Nero's council.

IMPORTANT QUESTION

The speaker wished to deal with a question which would be suggested by the presence of saints or Christians in Caesar's household— "Is it possible that wherever we are, however we may be situated, or whatever may be the circumstances, that a Christian life can be attained and lived." He dealt at length with the question stating that it was the general opinion that the theories of Christ would not always work out in life. People generally adapted themselves to their surroundings. In any community or church there could be found those, whose lives were characterized by a loftiness of aim and principle, and others whose lives were characterized by a laxity in principle. In many cases it depended upon the place where a person happened to be as to whether a Christian life was lived or not. Many who appeared to be devout Christians here, moved to the Northern states and became very different in their relations to God. There were also many who came from the outlying districts to the centres of population, and instead of remaining devout, as previously, they changed according to the general feeling in the new surroundings. This would bring up the question of whether Christian profession was merely for certain places and certain surroundings.

Sometimes it was said of someone, that his temptations were too great. Rev. Mr. McGillvray said that could not be so, as God always provided a way to escape, with the temptation.

In conclusion he suggested an answer to the question. He said, we must realize the need of temptation to begin with. The best way was not to try to explain a way or minimize but to accept temptations as they came. Temptations were given to develop us. Without temptation life itself would be very weak and insipid. My answer to the question is, "believe God." We need not fall if we depend on Him and lean on His arm concluded the speaker.

Oratorio Choral Recital in St. John's Church, Tuesday, March 19, at 8 p.m., by the Choir, assisted by Miss Brock, Contralto, and Dr. Park, Solo Violin. Silver Collection. RICHARD J. DEVEY, Conductor 3d

W.A.A. MUSICALE

The Womens Art Association concluded their series of delightful "twilight musicales" on Saturday afternoon by presenting an entire Irish program charmingly rendered, and most appropriate to the occasion. The spacious conservatory of Music Hall was again filled to the doors and prominent among the audience was a large representation of patrons of high class music.

The affair was in every sense extremely pleasurable, and fittingly closed the enjoyable entertainments given under W. A. A. auspices. The opening number, an overture on Irish airs, given by the Conservatory Orchestra, was rendered with a finish and feeling that would have been difficult to improve. Equally effective was their rendering of "The Shamrock" by Middleton. Both numbers won warm and enthusiastic applause.

In a selection entitled "The Minstrel Boy," Mr. Edward Hanrahan was heard to excellent advantage, the range of the piece bringing out the splendid resonant qualities, and sympathy of expression of the talented young artist's vocalism.

Mrs. L. J. Pettit, the popular reader, gave two very acceptable numbers in a manner that pleased all. Masters Otto and Paul Gliddon also acquitted themselves most creditably, winning rounds of applause.

Special mention is due the exceedingly effective singing of Miss Mary G. Chalmers, A.T.C.M., in a group of Irish songs. Of the three the beautiful selection "Come Back to Erin," a song which never fails to please, was the most popular.

The accompaniments were very capably supplied by Miss Dean and Miss Pearl McKee. Mr. Rupert Gliddon was musical director.

At the finish of the performance Judge Huycke, speaking on behalf of the Womens Art Association, expressed the pleasure they had experienced in the splendid measure of patronage that had been accorded them at every musicale. It indicated that the public appreciated high class music and that the efforts of the W. A. A. were highly regarded. The Regimental Band was also praised, His Honor remarking that he had heard the band spoken of by an authority as one of the best, if not the best, in the Dominion.

No Class To-night

Mr. Firth's matriculation class will not meet To-night.

There is a Great Advantage in Buying Your Suit Early In The Season

Aside from the fact that you have far better choice from complete stocks by purchasing early, there is also the advantage of getting longer and more satisfactory service from your suit.

Women, whom we have given this advice to on former occasions and who purchased their Spring Suit when we made our first displays, have freely expressed the desire to be among the first notified when our new Spring Suit stock arrived. They realize there is a great advantage in buying their Suit early in the Season.

And Now a Word About These New Spring Suits

First of all, jacket lengths of the new Suits range from 20 to 28 inches—a length especially chic in appearance. Sleeves are elbow or threequarter in length—large armholes are a particularly notable feature of the new styles. The skirts continue narrow, with straight lines, though ample enough in width to give perfect freedom of movement. Serge, Voile, Taffeta Silk, Satins and novelty materials enter largely into the new Suits for Spring.

Don't Miss the SPRING OPENING DISPLAY Wednesday, Thursday, Friday & Saturday, March 20th, 21st, 22nd & 23rd.

CANADIAN BALL LEAGUE DOINGS

Addition Likely to be Made to Riverside Grandstand

The executive of the local club has not received any communication from Manager Templin since he returned to his home in Reading, Pa., but it is expected that he is busy rounding up his team, and that some contracts will be forwarded at an early date. Secretary Davidson has had several applications for berths, including one from Midland, but he has forwarded them to Manager Templin, who will deal in the matter.

Negotiations with the Ball Park management are still going on. A definite settlement has not been arrived at yet, but it is expected that an agreement will be reached at the next executive meeting. It is not known yet what improvements will be made at "Riverside" but it is very probable that another section of grandstand will be erected before the Canadian League season opens.

They will practice at the Brock st. rink, to-night, from 9 to 10 o'clock and the above seven are expected out.

The two games to-morrow night which will be as follows: 8 to 9—Midgets v.s. Northern Lights; 9 to 10 Thistles vs St. John's of Lakefield are the preliminary games for the City Juvenile Championship, and the Clarke-Graham trophy. The youngsters have a bunch of followers and the games should prove a good drawing card.

The price of admission will be ten cents. Fred Kelly will referee both games.

The two winning teams will play off for the cup on Thursday night next.

FINALS TO-NIGHT IN CONSOLATION

Skips Fitzgerald and Foote Won by Same Score

The semi-finals in the local bonspiel were played off Saturday. Fitzgerald doubled the score on Read, and Foote put it over Renwick by seven shots. Both scores were the same, 14—7, and although it would indicate that the games were rather one sided, the winners had a hard fight for every point.

The finals will be played to-night between Fitzgerald and Foote.

SPECIAL STAFF NORMAL TEACHERS

Extra Diplomas for Honor Standing in French Also Required

For Teachers Who Will Give Instructions in English-French Schools

Toronto, March 18.—A specially trained staff of teachers with Normal School certificates as well as extra diplomas for having gained honor standing in French, will, it is understood, be secured as soon as possible by the education department to commence the work of establishing the English-French schools of the province on a plane of efficiency in teaching second not even to the best equipped schools in Toronto. Dr. F. W. Merchant's report has pointed out emphatically that the best results are obtained when the medium of instruction is in the beginning of the mother-tongue. It is evident, however, that the sooner the pupil begins to be taught at school in the English language the better it will be, and the teachers will take special care to make even the youngest of the French-speaking pupils conversant with the rudiments of the English language as soon as possible. English must be the language of instruction is to be the policy in the future, as it has been in the past, with regard to these schools.

In the Roman Catholic separate schools of Russell and the City of Ottawa, as well as in Prescott, and in both the public schools and separate schools of some of the districts, Dr. Merchant found that the teachers were practically not English-speaking. In future, it will be the aim of the education department to appoint in these sections only English-speaking teachers whose qualifications are supplemented by an academic knowledge of French.

Special attention will be given by the teachers to the grading of pupils. Hitherto it has been the tendency in the English-French schools, as in the English schools, to promote pupils too rapidly. Inspectors have noticed time and time again that at least 60 per cent. of all the pupils from Form II, senior to Form IV, senior would be doing more thorough and permanent work in classes one or two divisions lower than those to which they have been promoted. This has in the past been one of the most serious defects in organizing the so-called bi-lingual schools all through the province.

Sir James Whitney said in his campaign addresses last fall that if Dr. Merchant's report showed that any abuses had crept into the system of teaching in the English-French schools of the province, they would be rectified, no matter whose corns were trodden on. And Sir James Whitney can be relied on to keep his word.

REV. MR. HENDERSON TOOK PULPIT FOR MORNING SERVICE

The congregation of Charlotte street Methodist church welcomed back their pastor, Rev. G. W. Henderson, on Sunday morning by turning out in large numbers. In the evening Rev. J. G. Brown, of St. James Methodist Church, occupied the pulpit, delivering a strong, helpful discourse.

The evening anthem "Son of My Soul" by the choir, was given most effectively, the voices blending with noticeable harmony, the soprano and and alto parts being extremely well balanced.

The feature of the choral worship was the solo "The Bird With the Broken Pinion" beautifully rendered by Miss Brock. Not since the days when Miss Hendren sang this selection, has it been heard to better advantage or sung with more evident effect than by Miss Brock last evening.

MR. JOHN O'BRIEN WAS STRICKEN

Overcome With Apoplectic Fit While at Work

This morning Mr. John O'Brien, a pattern maker in the Canadian General Electric Companys' works, was seized by an apoplectic attack while at his work. The city ambulance was immediately summoned and the unfortunate man was hurried to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he was attended to by Dr. McNulty.

The Review was informed this afternoon that Mr. O'Brien's condition was serious and did not show much change for the better. It is believed, however, that he will recover.

Mr. O'Brien is one of the oldest employes in the pattern making department of the Canadian General Electric Works here, and the sudden attack of paralysis upon him is sincerely regretted by his numerous friends and fellow employes. His home is at 390 Downie Street.

Roosevelt's Plans.

Oyster Bay, March 18.—The first information concerning the plan of campaign mapped out by the Roosevelt leaders at their conferences in New York on Friday and Saturday was given yesterday by Col. Roosevelt.

Col. Roosevelt said at the outset that he would not make a country-wide speaking tour. He thought that such a thing would be inadvisable, and, moreover, that the physical strain would be too great.

"Drys" Active In Eastern Ontario.

Brockville, March 18.—The Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance conducted a temperance reform campaign yesterday throughout Leeds and Grenville, including Brockville. Eighty-two pulpits were occupied by imported speakers. On Tuesday a convention will be held in Brockville to talk over the situation with representatives from all parts of the counties. Rev. Ben Spence of Toronto is on the program as one of the leading speakers.

OCEANA RAMS BARK.

P. & O. Liner's Passengers and Crew In Danger In Channel.

Newhaven, Eng., March 18.—Four passengers and several sailors are believed to have been drowned Saturday morning as a result of a collision between the Peninsular and Oriental liner Oceana and the German bark Pisagua off Beechy Head in the English Channel.

For some time the lives of the liner's 41 passengers and of the 280 men of her crew were placed in jeopardy. The courage of the officers and the speedy arrival of assistance, however, prevented a terrible catastrophe.

Despite the fact that the life-savers and officials at Eastbourne insist that 25 passengers lost their lives, officials of the line declared last night that all of the passengers were landed in safety. The line officials refuse to say on what they based their belief, while the Eastbourne people told a thrilling tale of how an overcrowded lifeboat was launched from the steamer and after wallowing in the trough of the sea was capsized by an enormous wave. The occupants of this boat were mostly women.

The life-savers watched helplessly from the shore as they frantically endeavored to launch their own boat, but they were unable to save any person except a woman with a life-preserver around her, who was found clinging to the keel of the overturned boat.

Twenty-eight of the passengers were landed here and nine at Eastbourne.

Peace Being Restored.

Nanking, March 18.—The outlook in China is more hopeful to-day than at any time since the outbreak of the revolution. Carefully compiled reports received here show that, while the unrest is general, during the past week disorder has generally decreased, and there is increased confidence in a restoration of trade.

The districts of the northwest and of the distant west are in the worst condition, but the authorities in Nanking give the assurance that unless something unforeseen occurs, due to misunderstanding or outside intrigue, the entire country will be again under control within sixty days after the announcement of the formation of the coalition Cabinet.

The alarmist predictions that a widespread general uprising and mutinies in many places would occur have not been fulfilled. The flurry in the north appears to be practically over.

Missionary Guilty of Murder.

Pittsburg, March 18.—Rev. Dr. W. D. McFarland, former principal of the Pittsburg Central High School, but later in charge of a United Presbyterian mission in Greenville, Tenn., was found guilty in connection with the death of his former secretary, Elsie Dodds Coe. He was recommended to the mercy of the court.

Bandits Still at Liberty.

Hillsville, Va., March 18—Two thousand feet above sea level, among the crags and caves of the Blue Ridge Mountains, the Allen gang who demonstrated their contempt of constituted law by a massacre of the judge, the prosecutor and the sheriff of the Carroll County Court last Thursday, continued yesterday to defy capture.

The day's search by a posse of seventy-five detectives and citizen volunteers, demonstrated that, unless the militia is sent here to begin a systematic siege of the hiding places of the outlaws they never may be brought to answer to the indictments for murder, returned here Saturday. For such a plan a camping site was selected yesterday by representatives of Governor Mann.

Those who know the paths and passages of the highlands and points of vantage from which outlaws could ward off an attacking force with least hurt to themselves, say that the Allens unquestionably are concealed behind the overhanging precipices of Devil's Den, half way between here and Mount Airy, N.C. There, with provisions and ammunition, of which it is said they have plenty, an attacking force would find the aim of the Allens deadly.

C.N.R.'s Route Through Rockies.

Vancouver, March 18.—Across the Rockies at Yellowhead Pass and over Albreada Summit, separating the watersheds of the south fork of the Fraser River and the North Thompson, the Canadian Northern has secured lower grades than those possessed by any other transcontinental railway in Canada or the United States.

This is the main feature contained in a report submitted to T. H. White, chief engineer of the Mackenzie-Mann system, by W. I. Bassett, who was in charge of the engineering party engaged on permanent location work in that region during the past nine months.

A Gentle Reminder.

Neighbor—Hello, Jenkins! How are you? Haven't seen you in the garden for quite a time, and you never come and see the wife and me now. Why is it? Jenkins—Well, the fact is, old chap, that it's not through ill will or bad feeling or anything like that, you know; only you and Mrs. Possmore have borrowed so many things from me that when I see your place it makes me feel quite homesick.—London Answers.

Art and Science.

"What a beautiful picture of an angel!" said the lady who was visiting the art gallery.

"Yes," replied the aviation enthusiast, "but between you and me those wings aren't practical."—Washington Star.

Never Despair.

TEN SAILORS GO DOWN

Fishing Schooner Struck Rocks and Was Lost

Captain Made Mistake Owing to Darkness and Weather

Shelburne, N.S., March 18.—One of the most harrowing disasters known on this coast in years was that revealed by the ten survivors of the American fishing schooner Patrician, when a few minutes after midnight Saturday morning they knocked at the door of Captain McAlpine's house, Jordan Bay, Shelburne, and told him that of the crew of twenty who had set sail from Shelburne in the morning ten were dead. The schooner had crushed on Dull Rock, two miles off, at 10 o'clock, and Captain William Harding and nine of his crew had perished in the boiling sea.

The Patrician had arrived at Shelburne on Thursday. Friday morning she sailed from that port to continue fishing. Captain Harding decided to run back to Shelburne for shelter as the southwesterly storm had become fierce. In the darkness and thick weather Captain Harding made a mistake in his bearings, taking the Lockport buoy for the Shelburne entering buoy. When he discovered the error it was too late and the schooner crashed on the black ledges half a mile back of Dull Rock, and some two miles from Jordan Bay. The destruction of the schooner was almost instantaneous. After the crash she opened up and went to pieces. The impact on the rocks with the wind blowing a gale had been terrific.

So suddenly did the vessel break up that Captain Harding had no time to reach a dory and nine of his crew went down with him. Ten of the crew, however, managed to reach shore.

One of the boats of the survivors upset but the men grasped the dory and, regaining command of it, moved along over the tremendous sea toward the shore, which the ten men reached shortly before midnight.

A search was made yesterday for traces of the missing men, but nothing whatever was discovered. All that was to be seen was some of the fragments of the wrecked schooner, and not much of that.

The schooner was owned by Parker of Gloucester, and had 70,000 pounds of fish aboard.

A cloth dipped in hot water and then in bran will cleanse white paint without injury.

YOU CAN BE ABSOLUTELY SURE OF VALUES
If you carefully read the store advertisements and follow them in your buying.
Merchants advertise certain lines because they know these lines will advertise their stores. Because there is something about certain goods, they are put in conspicuous places and the people are told about them. It may be the exclusiveness or newness of design, it may be an unusual quality, it may be an attractive price.
But there is at least one definite, sure reason why a merchant advertises an article and is willing to stake the reputation of his store upon it.
Therefore, when you see an article advertised in THE REVIEW, depend upon it, that article is good value, as good value as can be obtained in that particular store.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills Cured

"I think it should be the duty of the schools to teach children how to keep well," writes Miss Nannie E. Naydon, a well-known and highly esteemed resident of Bristol. "Ignorance of the laws of health and the use of improper remedies destroyed my vigor, and led me to the verge of invalidism. I was as a girl ruddy and strong. Nothing seemed to affect me until I was about thirty. Then gas began to form in the stomach. I suffered with bloating and a general failure in strength set in. If I went upstairs my breath hurt. My system was very irregular, and until I grew pretty bad I didn't pay much heed to my condition. Then I got blue, worried all the time, wakened in the night, and couldn't get to sleep again. None of the medicine I took helped me. One day I was reading of a very interesting case like mine cured by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I took the same treatment. It was just right—didn't physic me to death, but took hold of the weak, sick parts of my system, and set things right. It seems as if Dr. Hamilton's Pills have made me young again, and all my color, spirits, vigor, and health of former days have returned to stay."

Every girl and woman should use Dr. Hamilton's Pills regularly. They help a woman in many ways. Beware of the dealer who asks you to take an inferior pill on which his profit is larger than on Dr. Hamilton's. Sold in yellow boxes, 25c per box, all dealers, or The Catarrhozone, Co., Kingston, Ont.

BURLESQUE SHOWS OFFEND REFORMER

Toronto Clergyman Claims Many of Them Are Indecent and Offensive

Toronto, March 18.—Rev. R. B. St. Clair, superintendent of the Department of Investigation of the Toronto Vigilance Committee recently paid visits to the local burlesque houses. His report is that the productions at one of these places is so revolting and suggestive of indecency that it should be closed, and an effort is being quietly made towards that end. In all the burlesque shows Mr. St. Clair found much to offend the finer instincts which he thinks should be eliminated if the morals of the public are to be protected from debasing influences.

Rev. Dr. C. S. Eby, an honorary president of the Vigilance Committee, addressed a goodly audience at College Assembly Hall last night. He pointed out that a great deal of reform work to-day was negative in its character, but that the Vigilance Committee was operating along educative lines. Reforms could be carried out only by good people, and if they were to have good people, they must clear up a great deal of prevailing ignorance. Parents must be shown the wisdom of giving children a knowledge of themselves.

The old days of prudery and the consideration of sex hygiene as a matter of indecency was passing away, and most people were ready to hear what science had to tell them. If men only understood how to breed children as well as they knew how to breed horses, cattle and pigs, there would be a great improvement in the race. Dr. Eby said he did not refer alone to physical development, but to mental and spiritual growth.

When there is a big fight going on among Americans, it is usually not owing to oppression; it's because the people love excitement and opportunity to beat the tom tom, and tell how much they believe in liberty, and human rights.

PASTOR TO FACE TRIAL FOR DEATH OF SECRETARY

Illness of Miss Elsie Coe to be Explained

Mrs. William Thaw Among Those to Help Him

Pittsburg, March 18—The Rev. W. D. McFarland, aged sixty, white-haired and austere, will be called for trial in Criminal Court to answer for the death of his pretty former secretary, Elsie D. Coe.

Not since the graft trials has any case aroused so much local interest as that of the divine who for several years held high positions here and was esteemed as a model minister, an able educator, a talented orator and sincere uplift worker.

Dr. McFarland was identified with the Presbyterian church, and in this work became associated with wealthy the position at the head of the academic department of the Pittsburgh High School. There he became identified with other prominent persons and these—ministers, church workers and educators—have remained, in part, his friends, despite the facts published relative to his association with the pretty girl whom he made his secretary and for whose death a Coroner's jury adjudged him responsible.

Detectives working on the McFarland case have uncovered a past of much interest, which begins in New England and thence covers many parts of the country through the South and West. The District Attorney's men, in addition, say they have found many skeletons in the divine's closet, which they will reveal at the trial to refute and confuse him.

Miss Coe's death caused a sensation, and when the name of Dr. McFarland was connected with the tragedy interest was augmented by the publicity given the girl's ante-mortem statement.

MRS. THAW INTERESTED.

Finally, the name of Mrs. William Thaw was connected with the case. Mrs. Thaw had employed Miss Coe's sister as her private secretary, and, liking both the girls, it became known that she had offered financial assistance to protect the name. Her money, it is said, will remunerate special counsel for the Coes, who will combat every effort made to cast reflections upon the Coe girl.

The death of Miss Coe occurred early in January. When Dr. McFarland curtailed his activity in the church and his campaigning in the interest of local option throughout Pennsylvania and Ohio, and was appointed to the High School he offered Miss Coe the position as his secretary. He had known her as a pupil, and is said to have favored her because of her brightness and attractiveness. As her employer, Dr. McFarland became acquainted with Miss Coe's widowed mother and sister, and eventually, with his wife, moved to the same apartment house.

After several years McFarland accepted the superintendency of the mission school work, which had been started by the Board of Home Missions of the United Presbyterian Church in north-eastern Tennessee, and went to Cedar Creek, a mountain hamlet, twelve miles from Greenville, Tenn. Dr. McFarland continued to write to his former secretary, and last summer Miss Coe prevailed upon her mother to permit her to visit the McFarland family. She remained with the McFarlands and various friends of theirs during July and August.

Early in September she returned to her duties in the school, but according to her relatives and friends, was in low spirits.

At the beginning of the year Miss Coe alarmed her mother and sister by saying she was ill, and on January 8th she was taken to one of the rooms maintained by Mrs. William Thaw in the Homeopathic Hospital, and there, when dying, told the story that resulted with McFarland's arrest.

HER FRIENDS STARTLED.

A brief death notice in a local paper was the first intimation the girl's friends had of her death. Then the Coroner cleared the mystery by making public the ante-mortem statement. The police reported that they had just missed the cleric by several hours, but had trailed him to New York. Then it was announced that he had doubled southward, and finally was arrested in his mountain home.

There his church members and mission workers, his elderly wife and acquaintances hastened to speak highly of him. While he was in the Greeneville jail, his former associates among ministers in Pittsburgh met and passed resolutions of confidence. Educators, who had known him in his school work met and raised a defence fund.

So far as the State is concerned, Assistant Chief County Detective Ira L. Berry has been looking after the details of the preparation of the case, and his desk is crammed with letters, documents and data, which he declares point to Dr. McFarland as a man different from the general conception of a divine.

Accusations have come through the mails unsolicited, but containing many charges against the minister and giving dates and places. All these have been investigated thoroughly, some of the charges carrying the investigators to the other side of the continent and bringing to light occurrences of twenty-five years ago. Berry declares that some of the developments have been highly sensational and that if necessary these will be used in the coming trial.

McFarland became widely known throughout the city and southwestern part of the State as an agitator and speaker in the interests of the Anti-Saloon League.

In court McFarland will be supported by his wife and able lawyers. He will have friends, many of them rich and influential, in the courtroom without doubt. But he must also face the now unfriendly gaze of Lillian Coe, his former secretary's sister, and Mrs. Coe, her mother, only recently able to leave her bed after the shock of her daughter's death.

DON'T BE A QUITTER

"Do it Now." Now, Don't be a quitter. In God's name I beseech of you to unite with some branch of the Christian church. Don't be a Protestant quitter. Detach yourself from that censorious group of over-righteous people who are ever thrusting out their lips and pointing their fingers at the church, for, with all her faults—which are, we admit, many—the church is the bride of Christ, and loved by Him as the apple of His eye.

YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN.

Young man, you need the fellowship of the church to bring out the best, yes, and also the worst that is in you. Young woman, you need the fellowship of the church to enrich and develop those dormant qualities and God-created instincts of your womanly soul, and to guide you in all the vital and important stages of life. Get your name on some church roll. Don't stay outside of the church. Make application for membership somewhere. Become an active bee in the busy life of Protestantism, not a miserable drone. Become the queen of some Protestant home, not the slave of the Ne Temere decree. If you must fall in love, and get married, marry a Protestant, and do it now. Don't be a quitter. Come back to Christ. Come back to the teachings of the dear old Protestant Bible. Get into the church, and what then? "Get busy." Quit you like men. Be strong. Stand fast by the faith.

I have read that in one of the battles of the wilderness a young man was mortally wounded. They telegraphed for his old father. He hurried to the hospital and found his boy lying on his face with a gaping wound between his shoulders. The father sitting by the beside of his dying soldier lad, said quietly, "My son that's a bad place to be hit." The dying man raised himself, though it meant awful pain, and said, with a look of triumph as he pointed to a hole in his breast: "But father, here is where the bullet went in." He died with his face to the foe. What are you going to do about it, when the last battle has been fought between right and wrong, between Rome and Protestantism, and you stand before the throne of the Eternal? Where will the wounds of life's battle be found, in your back, or your breast? Let us march on and on to certain victory with our faces to the foe. Stand by your guns. Remember the Boyne. Remember the Spanish Armada. Remember Trafalgar. Remember Waterloo, and do your duty. Protestantism is not a soulless religion. Protestantism is not dead. It lives, and by Gods' grace it will live forever, until this world is won for Christ. Yes. As Mrs. Howe has well said:

    coming of the Lord;
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored.
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword.
    His truth is march on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat.
He is sifting out the hearts of men
    before His judgment seat;
Oh, be swift, my soul, to answer Him.
    be jubilant my feet.
    Our God is marching on.

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me,
As He died to make men holy, let us
    die to make men free,
    While God is marching on.

GOOD GOODS AT GOOD PRICES

As Opposed to the Bargain Idea, Is the Subject

Some ideas gained from many years of practical experience in large retail stores will be given out by Mr. I. Brock, who will be the principal speaker at the Ad Club meeting tomorrow evening, Tuesday, March 19. His subject will be "Good Goods at Good Prices as Opposed to the Bargain Idea."

Previous to coming to Peterboro to manage the Brinton Carpet Company, of Canada, Mr. Brock was connected with the Robert Simpson's Departmental store in Toronto. He has charge of a local industry having 180 on its pay-roll; and Mr. Brock will have to his advantage in addressing the Club that outside view-point, which has made previous meetings of the local Ad Club so valuable to those in attendance at the same.

Local business men, other than Mr. Brock, will also address the meeting, one of these taking up the subject, "The Value of the Farmer Trade, and some Suggestions as to How Better to Appeal to it."

The meeting is called at eight o'clock sharp and will be held in the Dominion Bank Chambers, which same must be closed shortly after 9.30 hence all will get away early. Other than the addresses, which will be of a most valuable nature, some important business will come before the meeting for discussion, and it is desirous that all interested local business men be present.

GOOD MANNERS

There is an old and very truthful saying that "manners make the man" Another familiar quotation is "give a youth manners and you give him the key to palaces." Whether these sayings are in every sense borne out, in every day life, is a matter of personal opinion. One thing is certain however, and will be readily granted, that the acquisition and possession of good manners never did any one any harm. On the other hand they are generally admired, and conceded to be one of the commendable traits in all, whether it be man, woman or child. There are scores upon scores of simple rules of etiquette for all occasions, which while easy to remember and practice, are almost completely ignored.

On occasions arising every moment we are being judged by our manners and in too many instances are found lacking.

Below are enumerated for example some of the commonest and simplest rules of etiquette for the dinner table. Some of them are amusing and will may-be create a laugh. However, scan the list and see if there are any where you "fall down." Here are a few of the simplest rules—

Gentlemen should stand behind their respective chairs until all the ladies are seated, and then take their own seats. Care should be taken that their chairs do not stand upon the dresses of the ladies beside them.

Never decline wine by clapping your hand on the top of your glass.

Do not smack the lips.

Do not eat revenously.

Never take a long breath after you finish eating, as if you were weary.

Do not pick your teeth or plunge your finger into your mouth.

Do not suck your teeth, or roll your tongue around the inside of your gums.

Do not spit out fish-bones upon your plate.

Do not use the table cloth to wipe your mouth.

Do not drink or speak when you have any thing in your mouth.

Never watch the dishes as they are uncovered, or cry out when you perceive something dainty.

Do not attempt to tuck your napkin bib fashion into your shirt collar.

Never clean your plate. Leave something on. This may seem hard.

March Rod and Gun

"An Experience Off the Coast of Newfoundland: Hunting the Hair Seal" opens the March issue of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Ltd., Woodstock, Ont., and the interest of this article is a criterion of the interest of those that follow, which include articles discriptive of outdoor life from the Atlantic to the Pacific Among these is the first of a series of articles on the Culture of Black and Silver Foxes, which should prove of value to the many seeking practical information on this subject. A new feature this month is the creation of a Game Conservation Department edited by Mr. Frank Hyde, wherein matters pertaining to the subject of game conservation will be freely discussed. As this subject is a live one at the present time and is likely to be for some time to come, or until the improved laws for which good sportsmen are agitating have been enacted, this department should prove of exceptional interest.

HIS SUBJECT WAS "PROTESTANT QUITTERS"

The sermon on the subject of "Protestant Quitters" by the Rev. W. C. Riddiford, at Park street Beptist church last evening was heard by a large congrgation. The preacher made a strong plea to all Protestants to be up and doing, each to do his or her part for the glory of God and the Protestant religion. He referred to various kinds of "Quitters" and brought out many points which Protestans would do well to consider. In introducing his subject Rev. Mr. Riddiford said:

I know of no law of homeletics which forbids a man using more than one text, or circumscribes the bounds of a preacher's subject matter, so I present to you this evening two texts, one from the Old and the other from the New Testament; which are illustrative of the subject under discussion this hour— 1 Sam., 4; 10—"Quit yourselves like men, and fight — and the Protestants fought, and Israel was smitten."

1 Cor., 16; 13-14 — "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all that ye do, be done from motives of love.

"Over the stairway of the old Northwestern University training quarters," said the preacher, "I am told there was written in great, bold letters that no eye could miss, 'No Quitters Allowed Here.'" At that University the most slanderous thing that could be said about a man was to call him a "Quitter."

Students, professors and players, alike, looked with contempt upon such a man. Now, a quitter is a man who refuses to do in a game what he has been coached to do in practice. That man who, in a game, will not follow his interference, or that man who, after hours and weeks of practice, turns his back to a mass play, instead of plunging in head first and grabbing legs, or that man who, continually tackles around the neck or waist—like Willie in the parlor or on a ball-room floor, is a "quitter."

However, there are many more quitters than those who fall on the gridiron. For example—Here is a fellow who has been faithfully coached in loyalty to the church of his choice say, for twenty years, and he is now having his first chance to play his first big game away from home; will he be a "quitter" or will he play the real game as he knows it should be played? That is a very important question, a question that every Protestant is up against today in Canada. What are we going to do about it?

Are we going to quit ourselves like men and fight as did those ancient sons of Philita, and win out, or are we going to back down and be known forever to our posterity as Protestant Quitters? That is the question of to-day. It is not a question of Borden or Bourassa; Laurier or Monk, but of yourself and Jesus Christ.

The great game of liberty of conscience, and educational rights, is on, and we must settle it now, or it will settle us in the near future, and Canadian ideals will be trampled in the dust of our Protestant indifference by "The Protestant Quitters." The challenge has been thrown down to us, in those words of the now overnotorious Priest—"Protestantism is a soulless religions, Protestantism is dead." Such were the insults thrown into the teeth of our Canadian Protestantism. What are we going to do about it? Sit down and watch it twine it's home-destroying tendrils about our national life, or fight it? I have made up my mind what to do. My Roman Catholic friends and neighbors, and I have many, I am pleased to call such, may do as they please, but I feel called upon to fight it, and fight it I will, until in God's time, there will be established by the will of the people, one uniform and plain marriage law in this Dominion. This decree defies British law, disgraces and endangers home, and mother, and makes the French-Canadian conscience, whether it be Roman Catholic or Protestant, inferior to the German, which is not true. If a thing is wrong in Germany, how can it be right in Canada?

The spirit of Popery is unchanged and unchangeable. In a book written by Aop-Brock, and published "with the kind permission" of the late Cardinal Manning, there are some very graphic descriptions given of our illustrious Protestant Fathers. Listen, on page 19; he says, drawing a comparison between the devil and the dissenting minister—"The devil was flung out of Heaven by conceit; the latter is kept out of it by the same failing. On page 404, John Calvin the founder of Presbyterianism is described as "the greatest villain that ever was born on the French soil," and of Martin Luther it is said, "he was an arch-rogue, arch-liar arch-heritic." So are we all in Rome's eyes. The saintly John Wesley is a confounded reprobate," Page 411.

"The Pope-Blessed, Cardinal-Blessed and Bishop-Blessed Universe" in it's issue of March 16th 1909, speaks of the Church of England as the "craziest, rottenest, of all human and diabolical inventions, at which the whole world points the finger of scorn," and Father B. Vaughan, S. J., in a sermon reported in the Daily News of April 28th, 1907, described the Archbishop of Canterbury as a "heretic." In fact, we are all heretics. I am not saying this in any spirit of bravado, no, no. I am simply standing by Paul's advice to the New Testament Church at Cornith,—"Watch ye, stand fast in the faith. Quit ye like men, be strong. Let all that ye do, be done from motives of love."

How any one can listen to such language as this from one of the leading journals of Rome, and call it a Christian institution is more than I can tell.

Listen to this from the Western Watchman of St. Louis, published and edited by Father D. S Phelan:—"We would like to rack and quarter Protestantism, we would like to impale it and hang it up for crows to build nests of; we would like to tear it with pinchers, and pierce it with red-hot irons; we would like to fill it with molten lead, and plunge it into hell fire a hundred fathoms deep." Semper eaden, to be sure "Let all things be done in love." Now what kind of a Protestant do you intend to be? "A reed shaken by the wind, or a solid defender of the faith?" Will you be man enough to play the game, or will you be a quitter?

Protestantism to-day has too many cheap, silly, white-livered, jelly-spined, sickly quitters in it.

I know some men who expend more energy telling about the "peculiar" conditions where they are and apologizing for doing nothing, than would be demanded for doing a real work. Poor little fellows, going around on tip toe, talking in stage whispers afraid lest some sensitive soul shall be disturbed. Over sensitiveness is one of the greatest curses of to-day. "If you have been a Protestant quitter so far let me tell you how you can reform or quit being a quitter."

THE FIRST STEP.

I believe in putting first things first. "The first thing is back to Christ. The first thing and the last thing in Protestantism, as I understand it is personal acceptance and faith in Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour from sin. Yes, back to Christ. It is not enough that one who has denied his Saviour should go out like Peter and weep bitterly. He must renew his covenant of loyalty and live to it. No half way return will answer; you must get clear back to Christ as your Priest and Prophet, and King; clear back to Christ in a renewal of your broken covenant, and a consecration of all your powers of body and soul to Him. "who loved you and gave Himself for you."

THE SECOND STEP.

The second step is to get back to the Bible—your mother's Bible—your good, old Protestant Bible. It is one thing to fight for an open Bible but it is quite another thing to read when it is open, and a more profitable thing still, to live up to the teachings of the Bible. First, back to Christ; second, back to the Bible, and here again no half way work will answer; you must get clear back to the Bible as Christ believed and taught it; clear back to the Bible as the inspired and infallible Word of God, from the first letter of Genisis to the last letter of Revelations. We must go back to be old fashioned, enough to believe "that all scripture is given by the inspiration of God, and that holy men spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. Let the Protestant quitter who is sensible of having abandoned his faith get down that dusty volume from the shelf and read in Daniel the third chapter, of the three young men of Babylon who, when required to bow before the graven image, said: "Be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, and the God whom we serve will deliver us; and as he reads and ponders that story hope and faith will kindle afresh in his soul, and the power of a new affection will make his heart all aglow.

THE FAMILY ALTARS.

I plead for the reestablishment of our family altars. Where have they gone? There are too many Protestants bowing down to Rome these days. They are Protestant quitters, who for a few paltry dollars or votes, are Midas-like, selling their mothers' Christ and the old family Bible. Back to Christ. Back to the Bible. Back to the church. No man is a Protestant unless he is really an active member in some branch of the Christian church. I pity that man or woman who cannot find some Christian church in which they can labor for Christ. Get into the church. There is a place for you. Make application for church membership somewhere. Where? Anywhere, so long as you first accept Christ. Believe, and be baptized and you shall receive receive remission of sin. If you cannot work with this church get out and make room for those who will, don't be a stumbling block. Don't be a runabout a religious gadder, be loyal to Christ, be loyal to your pastor, whoever he is.

BE LOYAL.

Treat him as a man, not a mummy. Be loyal to the church of your choice, an di' you haven't made a choice—in

ANOTHER LESSON

From J. W. BROWETT Optometrist

You are a parent? Your child is in school a certain number of hours each day, using the eyes constantly. Each year the lessons become harder, books are taken home, studies are continued in the evening, the eyes are being overtaxed, the delicate muscles are strained; yet perhaps no thought is given to helping the eyes. We know that injury results from this neglect. We must realize that, if there is a cause for eye strain, there must be a remedy; the remedy most naturally would be rest for the eyes; this rest can be obtained by wearing resting Glasses. Come and let me explain to you scientifically why resting Glasses should be worn.

We believe that parents are wise in caring for their Children's eyes, the remedy is simple and the cost is slight.

WINSTON CHURCHILL INVITES GERMANY TO SAW-OFF ON DREADNOUGHT BUILDING

Sir Gilbert Parker Raises Question of Canada's Share in Imperial Defence.

London, March 9.—Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, yesterday introduced the naval estimates for the coming year in the House of Commons. The appropriations called for amount to $220,427,000, a decrease of $1,535,000 from the amount spent last year.

The First Lord accompanied the introduction with a straight talk to Germany, promising an augmentation or a retardation of British naval construction to correspond with Germany's naval program.

He said, he regretted the necessity of referring specifically to Germany, but continued:

"The Germans are a people of robust minds, whose strong masculine good sense and high courage do not recoil from, and are not offended by plain, blunt statements of fact, if they are expressed with courtesy and sincerity."

Mr. Churchill then went on to tell of the conditions under which naval competition would be carried on during the next few years.

He prefaced his remarks by the statement that the "two to one" standard was not necessary at present, although it would possibly become so.

"The 'two-power standard' has been extended by some of its supporters," continued Mr. Churchill, "to include the United States and by this means it has lost both good sense and reality."

The First Lord laid down a 60 per cent. superiority in battleships and battle cruisers of the Dreadnought type, as compared with the German navy, as a convenient basis for the next four or five years. He pointed out that Great Britain at present possessed an enormous superiority in pre-Dreadnought vessels, but as these declined in fighting value, the British ration of new construction would have to rise above the 60 per cent. standards.

Mr. Churchill said that it would be necessary for Great Britain to construct four and three Dreadnoughts every year alternately for the next six years.

The First Lord continued: "This is our position, that the Germans will not be gainers in naval power by any increases they may make and will not be losers from the basis I have laid down by any diminutions.

"Here is a perfectly plain plan and arrangement by which, without diplomatic negotiations, without bargaining, without the slightest restriction of the sovereign freedom of either power, this keen and costly naval rivalry can at any time be abated."

During the discussion of the navy estimates last night Sir Gilbert Parker said he regretted the First Lord had omitted to take notice of one aspect of the naval policy. This was the co-operation of overseas dominions, and he invited the right hon. gentleman to say whether the Government had any further information as to the intended policy of the Prime Minister of Canada and his Government with respect to the imperial naval policy. It was because the dominions thought their efforts were despised that they hadn't co-operated in a more effective, substantial form.

Norton Griffiths said there was undoubtedly a belief in distant parts of the Empire that their co-operation was looked upon as of small consequence, and he hoped the First Lord would make some precise, clear statement that the Admiralty did welcome the co-operation of the dominions. It was a cry often heard in Canada that if co-operations of the Dominion was desired they should have some representation.

Canadian Ministers were shortly expected in the country and he urged they should be sent back with a message to assure Canadians that the Admiralty wanted their co-operation and would give them some representation. Such a message would make their work much easier.

KAISER CALLS OFF HIS TRIP

Move is Connected by Germans With Churchill's Speech

Emperor Also Had Conference With Naval Minister

Special to the Review.

Berlin, March 19—The Kaiser, who was to have started Friday for Corfu to meet the Austrian Emperor, and the King of Italy, to-day most unexpectedly announced his postponment of the trip. Following so closely to Churchill's speech in the British House of Commons yesterday, the German people were quick to couple the two incidents, particularly as the Emperor had a long conference with the naval minister to-day. Alarmist rumors are in the air that trouble is brewing between Britain and Germany.

FROM WEDDING PARTY TO THE ELECTRIC CHAIR IN ONE YEAR

Auburn N.Y., March 19—From a wedding party to the electric chair tells the story of Domeice di Pasquale, who died in the electric chair yesterday morning, exactly one year after his conviction.

Di Pasquale shot Colognera Pollizzi during a quarrel at a wedding celebration at Rochester on November 13, 1910, according to the testimony. At the time of the shooting evidence showed that Pasquale had a razor uplifted in his right hand and that the shooting must have been done with a revolver in his left.

To the last he fought against death in the chair and a statement issued by the deputy warden after the execution told of his effort to hang himself in his cell early Friday morning.

He had made a cord of stands of bedding, shoestrings and light twine that he had obtained from articles necessary to his confinement, and after making a noose attached it to the ventilator. He was cut down and revived and closely guarded until his execution.

MUNICIPAL ACT AMENDMENTS ARE HARSHLY TREATED

Twelve Proposed Clauses Far Too Sweeping in Opinion of Government.

Toronto, March 19.—Not a gentle slap on the wrist, but a real healthy swat on the solar plexus did Geo. H. Gooderham's bill, embodying twelve clauses to amend the Municipal Act, receive when it came up for its second reading. After Hon. W. J. Hanna and Sir James Whitney had taken many biffs at it, the bill was sent to the municipal committee, where, by the looks of things, it may be still more ruffled.

Hon. Mr. Hanna considered that clause three was extraordinary. This clause aimed at street railways, telegraph and telephone companies, compelling them to remove all poles and wires from the streets and placing the wires underground.

"I scarcely expect to see this pressed in the committee," said Mr. Hanna. "It should not be given much consideration, and, besides, there is another bill now before the House in which these matters will be taken care of."

Number nine clause, thought the Provincial Secretary, was decidedly far-reaching. It was worded this wise: "For preventing, regulating and controlling the location and erection, within cities having 100,000 or over, of garages, apartment houses, tenement houses, or any buildings designed or intended for any purpose other than that of a dwelling for one private family, and alterations of any existing building for any purpose other than that of a dwelling for one private family."

"This practically means, if the bill goes through, that a private family can't have a boarder," said Mr. Hanna. "Rather drastic, I believe. It would be pretty hard on some people."

Clause twelve gave a city with over 100,000 population, meaning Toronto, only, full power to designate the width of any street. The present act requires a width of 66 feet. This, too, was pretty far-reaching, thought Mr. Hanna.

When the Provincial Secretary had concluded his onslaught, Sir James Whitney took up the attack. Mr. Gooderham's bill, said the Premier, might pit one city against another. Toronto would be the only city affected by such legislation, as it was the only one with 100,000 inhabitants. Regarding the clause to compel the placing underground of all wires, he said: "If this legislation is allowed to pass, we might as well give up all pretence of private rights and the protection of private property in this country. I am sure there will be no voice in support of it."

One clause which miraculously passed muster in the South Toronto member's bill was that relating to the erection of spite fences, of which Toronto residents have suffered considerably.

W. D. McPherson's bill respecting town planning, was sent to the municipal committee in company with a bill on the same subject introduced by Mr. Ellis of Ottawa West, and they will be revised.

Interprovincial registration in medicine throughout the Dominion is proposed by an amendment introduced by Dr. Jamieson, South Grey, to amend the Medical Act. The new amendments are to bring into force the Roddick bill, which means "reciprocity" in medicine between the provinces.

Another amendment introduced by Dr. Jamieson is to place such restrictions and conditions on the practice of osteopathy as seem desirable to the medical council. The ostepaths have been clamoring for recognition and for the legalizing of their profession. The amendments proposed will grant their requests, but under such conditions as will compel them to spend some years in study and pass such examinations as will place them on a much higher plane than at present.

To provide $400,000 for the erection of a provincial museum was the substance of a bill introduced by Hon. Dr. Pyne and given its second reading. The Minister of Education said that a museum had got to be a necessity because of material being scattered in different places throughout the city, with no proper accommodation. An institution of the sort would also be a great educational asset. The University of Toronto would provide the site and the rest of the cost would be split up between the university and the Government.

THE RIGHTS OF MINORITY

Bourassa Urges Separate Schools in Keewatin.

Spoke at St. Patrick's Day Celebration in Toronto.

Toronto, March 19.—References to the Keewatin school question and the action of the Borden Government roused Henri Bourassa to enthusiasm at the St. Patrick's Day assembly of the A.O.H. in Massey Hall last night, and his voice was husky with emotion as he described how the educational systems of the provinces were to be conducted by the provinces, after the solemn pledge of the crown had been given and ratified by an act of Parliament that the rights of the minority were to be preserved in every province of the Dominion.

"Gentlemen of Toronto," he pleaded, "I appeal to your straightforwardness and manliness to say that a solemn compact made by the Parliament of Canada should be preserved. (Applause.)

"Would you call those schools 'national' in which the minority are imposed upon by the majority — when those so-called schools deprives your children of what may be called their birthright."

From Mr. Bourassa's description of it, the so-called alarming reference of a leading Toronto daily to the effect that there are 157 schools in Ontario in which the French language alone is used on the playgrounds, was worthy of ridicule.

"Why, in that obscure, barbarous and mediaeval Province of Quebec," said he, "we learn to speak in both languages. We are very antiquated, I know, but I tell you frankly we are going to remain that way." At this stage of his discourse, Mr. Bourassa waxed particularly eloquent.

"I like to speak," said he, "in the language of the majority of the people of this country. I like to imbibe the great literature of the English language and read what the great British statesmen have said, but I also want to tell the majority of the people of Canada in their own language that neither I nor my race will stand for any humiliating treatment in the Dominion of Canada." (Applause.)

Ottawa, March 19.—The jury conducting the inquest on the victims of the fatal wreck on the C.P.R. at Hull on March 8th, returned a verdict practically exonerating Harvey Boal, the Canadian Pacific Railway's telegraph operator, for whose arrest a warrant has been issued, and placing the blame for the collision on The C.P.R.

LITTLE HOPE OF SETTLEMENT IN ENGLAND'S BIG COAL MINE STRIKE

MEN OF THE GREAT WESTERN COLLIERY PONTYPRIDD, COMING OUT

From present indications there is little likelihood of an early settlement of the coal miners' strike in England. The situation is indeed serious, with thousands of people facing starvation as a result of the big labor war. The government is making every effort to adjust the difference. The accompanying picture shows the workmen of the Great Western colliery at Pontypridd going out on the first day of the strike.

TO PASS THE BILL AT ONCE

Minimum Wage Measure Announced by Asquith.

London, March 19.—The Prime Minister announced in the House of Commons yesterday that the Government would endeavor to pass a minimum wage bill into law by the end of the week. It was learned last night on good authority that the bill will be a short measure, leaving to district committees the settlement not only of the minimum wage, but also the question of the employers' safeguards. No provision will be made for compulsory power to enforce the minimum or penalties on either the employers or the men for the breaking of contract.

The Labor party last night adopted a resolution not to oppose the bill, and the Nationalist whip issued an urgent request for the attendance of the Redmondites to support the bill.

Pending the production of the bill, there is little to record in the strike situation. The price of coal had a smart advance on the London market yesterday. There is constantly accumulating evidence that the dwindling coal reserves will soon bring to a halt many public and private services unless a settlement is reached. Some minor disorders have occurred in Lanarkshire and Lancashire, and at Middleboro the dockers refused to unload a cargo of German coal. But taken altogether the strike presented a remarkable absence of disorder.

May Affect Canada.

Cleveland, March 19.—Although the joint conference here on March 20 is between representatives of the operators and miners in the bituminous coal fields of western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, who are demanding wage increases, all bituminous miners in the U. S. and Canada will abide by whatever decision is reached.

In case of a walkout at the expiration of the present agreement on March 31, 306,000 men would be involved.

Expect Speedy Settlement.

New York, March 19.—The belief that a suspension of work in the anthracite coal mines on April 1 will not be continued long, and that a settlement will be reached, was expressed by coal operators here yesterday. It was pointed out that a similar situation existed when the agreement expired before. There was a refusal of the demands, followed by a suspension, and later negotiations were opened and the old agreement renewed. The miners, however, believe that six weeks' suspension will make a renewal of negotiations, with substantial concessions, an easy matter.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO WORKMAN

His Skull Was Fractured When Crank Fell on Him

Toronto, March 18— William Musgrove, of 36 Millicent street, was killed at the Sorauren Avenue siding of the Canadian Linseed Co., Saturday evening, about 6 o'clock. He was struck by a crank he was operating while unloading a car of coal and had his skull fractured.

Deceased was in the employ of the Connell Coal Co., and about 60 years of age. He was thrown to the ground by the blow, but quickly got up and started work again. In a few moments however he fell unconscious and died almost instantly.

PELLETIER AND LEMIEUX CAUSE TURMOIL IN COMMONS

The Ex-Postmaster-General Makes Attack on His Successor on His Alleged Anti Naval Campaign.

Ottawa, March 19.—Fireworks of superheated oratory flashed across the Commons chamber yesterday afternoon and evening when the naval estimates were under discussion. It was largely a duel between Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux and Hon. L. P. Pelletier. The ex-Postmaster-General made a determined attack on his successor in office on his alleged anti-naval campaign in Quebec.

Hon. L. P. Pelletier denied absolutely the insinuation. He had never declared there would be no naval policy. He was opposed, however, to the Laurier navy, which would be of no effective fighting value.

The debate at times got out of hand, shouts, threats and jeers were hurled across the floor of the House and the members sailed as close to the wind of Parliamentary language as was convenient.

Hon. J. D. Hazen used an expression which might perhaps be regarded as significant when he declared that the navy should not be subjected to a divided control which would destroy its efficiency in action.

The House passed the Quebec and Ontario boundary resolutions and the bill founded on them were introduced and read a first time.

When the House went into supply on the naval estimates, Hon. J. D. Hazen explained that the item of $1,600,000 asked for was based on the idea of maintaining the present naval establishment, without adding new ships of equipment, pending consultation with the Admiralty and the formulation of a complete naval policy.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux declared that he was surprised to see such a large amount of money appropriated for the maintenance of the Laurier naval policy. Each and every one of the Quebec Ministers in their constituencies had given their solemn promises that, as soon as the new Government came into power, every sign, every vestige of the naval service would disappear, that the Laurier policy was suicidal.

"Is it not time?" asked Mr. Lemieux, "to know distinctly whether Canada will do something or not. Let not my hon. friend be afraid. In the Province of Quebec he will find a majority of His Majesty's loyal Canadian subjects ready to stand by the policy of a Canadian navy."

Hon. L. P. Pelletier declared that Mr. Lemieux was not stating facts as they were. He challenged him to name one occasion on which he had declared himself opposed to a naval policy.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux declared that the Postmaster-General had made a speech at Lorette when he was elected by acclamation, in which he had declared for the repeal of the Laurier naval policy.

"I said then and I say now that I am opposed to the Laurier naval policy," replied Hon. Mr. Pelletier. "The leader of the Government made in the debate on the address statements perfectly satisfactory to us and the Province of Quebec."

"Weeping, incendiary speeches," declared Hon. Mr. Lemieux, "were delivered by the Postmaster-General, the Minister of Inland Revenue and the Minister of Public Works, and, despite this, we have a majority in Quebec. If the Minister of Marine and Fisheries comes back from England with a sane imperial policy, he will have my support, despite the firebrands that I see opposite."

This caused a scene of disorder which lasted some minutes, countercries of "take it back," being hurled across the floor of the House.

"I am not afraid to place my stand," said Hon. Mr. Pelletier, "beside that of the hon. member for Rouville (Lemieux), who, in 1903, said in a letter that he was absolutely opposed to helping England in her wars." (Shouts of "read it.")

"I am sorry I have not the letter here," said Hon. Mr. Pelletier, "but if some one will fill in the gap I will go and get it," and he went, cheers accompanying his exit.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley had hardly got started on the task of gap filling when the Postmaster-General returned with a big stack of copies of the letter, which he proceeded to read.

"Who is it addressed to?" he commented, "Henri Bourassa, my dear colleague."

"I want a copy," called out Hon. Mr. Lemieux. "Give him two or three, one for his leader," said Hon. Mr. Pelletier, to the page, to the great merriment of the House.

The point of the letter was an expression of sympathy with Mr. Bourassa in his protest against the naval resolution of the congress of Chambers of Commerce, and quoting Sir Wilfrid Laurier in opposition to Canada being plunged into the "vortex of militarism."

"To those people who rise in their seats in this House and call us arch-traitors, because of what some people have said," declared Hon. Mr. Pelletier, "I would say that we have gone as far as they have."

Hon. Mr. Lemieux declared that he stood by his letter. The principle at issue was that of a direct contribution to the British Exchequer versus Canadian navy. He had never been against helping the Mother Country, but certain persons in England and in Canada wished to drop us into militarism. To his friend opposite he said: "Let them bring a bold and Canadian policy and it will have the support, not only of their friends, but of the Liberals and especially of the French-Canadians of Quebec."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier declared that the Postmaster-General knew well that the bogey of conscription was paraded in Quebec. "Nothing will be better for the peace of the world," he added, "than to have from his lips and those of his associates the declaration that Canada owes something to Great Britain."

WOMAN WAS TIRED OF LIFE

Locked Herself In Room And Tried to End Life

Toronto, March 18 — Mrs. Cecilia Davis, who lives at 57 Trinity Square tried to commit suicide Saturday night by taking some bichloride of mercury tablets, but was discovered by her husband and her life was saved. She was hurried to St. Michael's Hospital and will be all right again in a couple of days.

The woman is 24 years of age, and the only reason she gave for the act was that she was tired of living. Her husband had to break in the door to rescue her.

Says Ottawa Ill-Treats French.

Ottawa, March 19.—Rev. Father Guertin, parish priest of Hull, comes out with a strong article against Hull being included in the proposed federal district with Ottawa.

He states that the French-Canadian minority in the capital city have been subjected to unfair treatment in the past, referring especially to the fact that, according to the agreement which long existed, the right of a French-Canadian to the mayoralty should have been respected.

Four Were Drowned.

Fall River, Mass., March 19.—Word was received by the Staples Coal Co. yesterday of the foundering of the company's barge Thaxter off Shinnecock, Long Island, Saturday, and the drowning of Captain Clarence Grinnell, of Fall River, and the three members of the crew.

Brockville, March 19.—The first church of Brockville, the largest Presbyterian Church in this presbytery, voted 456 to 30 in favor of organic union, and 429 to 24 in favor of the basis of union with the Methodist and Congregational Churches.

A Discovery of Vast Importance

It Is Now Admitted That Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, Coughs, and Colds Can Only Be Quickly Cured By Mixing a New Medicine With the Air You Breathe.

Scientists acknowledge that medicated air treatment is the only treatment that will cure these diseases, and that stomach medicines are worse than useless.

Catarrhozone air treatment has been found to be the most effective way to cure all diseases of the throat, lungs, and nasal passages. Its action is so prompt that in less than an hour an ordinary cold is cured, and after a more thorough use of Catarrhozone, Bronchitis, Catarrh, and all diseases of the throat and lungs are completely cured.

Catarrhozone is a very simple and powerful method of treatment. You simply breathe it through the inhaler and it immediately passes over every air cell of the throat, lungs, and bronchial tubes, curing and healing as it goes.

Catarrhozone treatment affords little drops of healing for sore places in the lungs, throat, and nasal passages.

PROFIT FROM GARBAGE

Some day, perhaps, when the incineration of the city's garbage has become an established fact, and the property committee runs short of funds, the question of disposing of the garbage at a profit may be food for reflection.

Rudolph Hering, an eminent engineer, writes an article on the disposition of garbage at profit, and in part he says—

The best system of disposition of a city's refuse depends entirely upon local conditions," he says. "For instance in Milwaukee I recommended incineration of garbage, while I told the authorities of Toronto that the best plan was to reduce their garbage into grease and fertilizer basis; as is done in New York and to market the products. You see, it all depends, as I have said, upon local conditions. In Milwaukee, the cost of hauling the garbage from the city to the disposition plant would have been no profit from the by-products but in Toronto it is possible to conduct the work of disposition so that the city can make a slight profit from it.

"These two cities have adopted the two principal systems of disposition which have been endorsed by modern scientific study. One system, as you will have noticed, provides for the destruction of the garbage, its incineration under terrific heat. The other provides for the drying-out of animal and vegetable juices in the matter, and their ultimate marketing. This latter process is not so pleasant and must be conducted at some distance from inhabited sections as even with the best and most up-to-date machinery some slight odor is unavoidable.

"When destroying garbage by incineration, it is usually advisable to include with it the ashes and street sweepings, as in order to secure the fierce heat necessary to smother the gases it is necessary to provide carboniferous fuel. According to this system, the ashes and garbage can either be collected mixed, or else singly, and after collection all dumped in the same furnace together. An incinerating plant should have suitable dampers and ventilating ducts to prevent the escape of smoke and dust into the building.

"Unless ashes and rubbish are combined with the garbage, other fuel will be necessary to secure the required temperature and the ashes and refuse might just as well be used that way, as it is a profitable way. The steam produced by such heat is of high market value—the city of Milwaukee sells the steam power from its garbage incineration plant for $2,500 a month—and the clinkers, left over after incineration, can be sold for filling land, for road making, or for the manufacture of sundry products. Such a plant, if properly managed, should be economical and inoffensive, this latter feature being proved by the presence of incineration plants in densely crowded districts. All over England you will find this system of mixed incineration, and a number of French and German cities are following suit."

NOTE AND COMMENT

New York World.

According to President Hill, there are rails on the Great Northern still in good condition that have borne the wear and tear of traffic for twenty years. These rails were made in Germany. There is, therefore, a means of making steel hard enough for service and durability without being too brittle for safety. American manufacturers ought to be able to make as good steel as the Germany. Why don't they do it?

New York World.

The earth's polar diameter is twenty-six and a half miles shorter than its equatorial diameter, and the depression should theoretically be as great at the one as at the other pole. It has been held that even a globe of solid matter revolving rapidly on its axis would take an oblate form through the piling up of matter toward the equator, and much more should this be the case with a molten sphere. How, then, explain this appearance of a great land continent and mountains 15,000 feet high massed around the South Pole, while water of unknown depths covers the North?

New York American.

Kansas is famous for many things, and now her Attorney General declares she leads the States in liberal provision for women. For instance, a woman can hold any elective office there; she can wear trousers if she likes; she can retain her maiden name after she is married; she can hold property which her husband cannot touch, and sell it without asking him, and, if she is able, she persuades her husband to give up his name and take hers. In only a few of the Eastern States can a woman practice law, but there are more than sixty women attorneys in Kansas; also more than a hundred women physicians.

Redmond, member of the Irish Parliamentary party, presiding last night at a St. Patrick's banquet at the Hotel Cecil, said that the home rule bill would pass the House of Commons by more than 100 majority, and inside of two years would become law. THE MARKET

Latest Quotations in Grain Dairy Products, Live Stock Etc.

CHICAGO, March 18.—Two bogies to-day frightened short sellers of wheat. The coal strike threatening to interfere with grain supplies at Liverpool caused one alarm, the other followed a rumor of a naval clash which might close the Dardanelles. In consequence the market closed firm at 1-4c to 1-2c advance. Corn scored a net gain of 5-8c to 1c, oats finished the same as Saturday night to 1-16c up, and hog products dearer by 5c to 15c.

The Liverpool market closed to-day on wheat ⅛d to 1⅛d lower than on Saturday, and on corn ⅛d higher. Berlin wheat closed ⅛c higher, Buda Pest ½c higher and Paris ¼c to ⅜c higher.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, March 18.—There was an improved demand from foreign buyers for Manitoba spring wheat and as prices bid were generally 3d to 4½d per quarter higher than Saturday, a fair amount of business was worked. CATTLE MARKETS.

Union Stock Yards.

TORONTO, March 18.—Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards were 87 carloads, consisting of 1672 cattle, 294 hogs, 94 sheep and 44 calves.

Exporters.

There were no cattle bought for export purposes, but there were a few loads of export weights, the bulk of which were bought by Messrs. Kennedy and McIntosh for the Montreal market and abattoirs, at prices ranging from $6.90 to $7.05; bulls, at $5.25 to $5.50.

Butchers

Best heavy steers for butchers' purposes sold as high as the exporters, $6.90 to $7.05; prime picked lots of butchers' weights, $6.25 to $6.65; good, $6 to $6.25; medium, $5.40 to $5.90; common, $5 to $5.30; inferior, $4.50 to $4.90; cows, the bulk sold from $3.50 to $5.25; a very few choice heavy weights brought more, as will be seen by sales reported.

Stockers and Feeders.

We only heard of one lot of feeders which were sold by C. Zeagman & Sons, 19 steers, 900 lbs. each, at $5.25.

Milkers and Springers.

Receipts of milkers and springers were light and generally of inferior, common and medium quality. Trade for them was dull and prices ranged from $30 to $55 each; they were bought by Mr. Fred Rowntree.

Veal Calves.

Veal calves were in good demand, selling from $5 to $8.50 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Sheep, ewes, sold from $4 to $5.50 per cwt.; rams, $3.50 to $4.50; lambs, $5.50 to $8, and one extra choice lot sold at $8.30.

Hogs.

W. J. Johnston quoted selects, fed and watered, at $7.50, and $7.15, f.o.b., cars, to drovers at country points, which means that the farmer would get $7 per cwt.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, March 18.—At the West End Market the receipts of live stock for the week ending March 16, were 1800 cattle, 125 sheep and lambs, 2350 hogs and 1500 calves. The supply on the market this morning for sale consisted of 650 cattle, 50 sheep and lambs, 1300 hogs and 450 calves.

During the early trading as high as $7.50 per cwt. was asked for full loads of choice steers, weighing 1250 lbs. each, which figure buyers refused to pay, which resulted in bringing sellers down in their views somewhat and finally sales were made at $7.15 and $7 was paid for cattle weighing 1125 lbs. each, and $6.50 to $6.75 for 900 to 1000 lb. beasts, while odd steers of choice quality sold at $7.25 to $7.35 per cwt.

The condition of the market for bull and cows was unchanged as the supply of such was ample to fill all requirements and the top prices realized were from $5.50 to $5.75 per cwt. The demand was principally for good to choice steers and as the offerings of such were limited, buyers in some cases found it impossible to fill their wants, altho bids of $7 were made freely for full loads. The trade in common and inferior stock was slow, the demand for such being very limited.

The strong feeling which has characterized the market for hogs of late still continues to be the main feature of the trade and prices to-day scored a further advance of 15c to 25c per cwt., owing to the small supplies coming forward and the keen demand for the same from packers. In consequence an active trade was done and even at the higher prices buyers in some cases could not fill their wants. Sales of selected lots were made at $8 to $8.25 per cwt., weighed off the cars.

A stronger feeling prevailed in the market for lambs and prices advanced 15c to 25c per cwt., which was due to the increased demand and the small offerings and sales were made at $7 to $7.25 per cwt. Sheep were quiet and firm. The tone of the market for calves was weaker on account of the increased receipts and prices are steadily reaching a lower level.

Butchers' cattle, choice, $7.25 to $7.35; medium, $6 to $7; common, $4 to $5; canners, $2.75 to $3.25; choice cows, $5.50 to $5.75; medium, $4 to $4.75; bulls, $4.50 to $5.75; milkers, choice, each $65; common and medium, each, $45 to $55; springers, $30 to $40.

Sheep, ewes, $5 to $5.25; bucks and culls, $4.25 to $4.50; lambs, $7 to $7.25.

Hogs—F.o.b., $8 to $8.25.

Calves—$1.50 to $10.

Lady Betty Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

One room, where tea was to be served, was entirely draped with violet silk, from the palest to the darkest shades, and for the smaller of the two drawing rooms—the one where Mrs. Ess Kay would stand to receive her guests—wire frames were made from measurements to fit and cover all four walls. I couldn't imagine what these frames were for at first, but when their hour came they were padded with moss and covered with fresh violets. The curtains were taken down from the windows, and a network of violets was hung up in their place, with an effect of great loveliness when the light streamed through the screen of flowers. And even this was not all, for a soft thick mat of grass and moss was spread over the polished floor, with a sprinkling of violets. All of the furniture was taken away and instead, along the wall, were placed banks of artificial moss and violets. No doubt these would have been real, too, but when crushed they would have stained the dresses of those that sat upon them. Altogether, the room was turned into a woodsy bower of violets, and I was given a great bunch of the dear flowers to carry.

There had been only a week in which to prepare these sensational effects, but everything was finished in time and without flurry. Already I knew a great many of Mrs. Ess Kay's friends, and on the day of the tea it seemed that each person whose acquaintance I had made had remembered me with a cartwheel of violets. All my flowers were placed in vases on tables in the big drawing room, adjoining the bower of violets, and as a card was attached to each bunch, pinned on the masses of violet satin ribbon which trailed from it, each giver could have the pleasure of seeing how his gift compared with his neighbor's. It was a wonderful display—a violet show. And, as Mrs. Ess Kay had said, "it was not the right time of the year for violets."

We stood on our feet for hours, smiled yards of smiles, and said the same things over and over again so many times that I began to feel like a phonograph doll which I saw in my first New York shop. Only when I ran down nobody wound me up, and I had to go on by myself as best I could, which was fatiguing and made the machinery squeak.

But everybody said it was a huge success. The New York papers had each more than a column about the "function," as they called it, and Mrs. Ess Kay was piously happy.

I had thought we were very gay before, but after the violet tea, from getting up to going to bed, we never had a moment that hadn't its own appointed place in the procession of hours, like the bead in a long rosary.

After breakfast we went to the Casino to play tennis, to listen to the concert or pretend to and to gabble. There we would meet everybody we knew, and it was odd to see the calm but slightly conscious air of superiority with which the everybodies, going in or out, passed the poor nobodies assembled to watch the Casino entrance. Just as the middle and lower class people stand till they are ready to drop only to see the queen drive into the park or leave Buckingham palace dreadfully bored to open a bridge, so these Americans jostle each other to see their millionaires and especially millionairesses going to enjoy themselves. Fancy if Londoners reduced themselves to a state of collapse for the pleasure of seeing Mr. Beit take off his hat to Mrs. Wertheimer! But the millionaires in America seem to be like our aristocracy, only more important, for the nonmillionaires take a great deal more trouble to stare at them than the common people do at us.

After the Casino there was always the beach, and the most delightful things happened at the beach. It was never twice the same. Then we would lunch with some one or some one would lunch with us at the Moorings. Afterward there would be a drive, calls to make, perhaps two or three wonderful "at homes" or concerts, with great singers and entertainers from New York, twenty minutes' rest and then a scramble to dress for dinner, with a "dinner dance" to follow, or amateur theatricals.

Of course, as I haven't been presented yet and don't know anything about what the season is like in town, except what Vic has told me, I can't judge of the differences at first hand, but then Vic has told me a lot, and I have heard Stan and Loveland talk, besides one seems to know one's own country and country people by instinct without having actually to see what they do, and I'm sure that even in the smartest set at home they don't dream of bothering their heads to think of such original entertainments as in America.

DOLLS DRESSED BY QUEEN VICTORIA

To be Exhibited in the London Museum

London, March 18. — Queen Alexandra has sent a number of interesting exhibits to the London museum, which will be opened by the King and Queen on March 21. Her Majesty has lent upwards of thirty dresses which have been worn by the Duchess of Kent and Queen Victoria, and some dresses which she herself has worn on notable occasions. The museum is already the possessor of a number of dresses which have been worn by royal English ladies, including Queen Mary's wedding robes, with the wreath of orange blossoms.

When the museum is opened it will be found to contain upwards of ten thousand exhibits, the majority of them associated with the lives of members of the Royal Family over a period covered by several reigns. One case will contain 132 dolls dressed by Queen Victoria, which have been lent to the museum by Queen Mary. Another interesting exhibit will be a complete set of coronation medals of all the sovereigns of England since the accession of James I., when coronation medals were first struck.

DEATH LIST OF 40,000 ANNUALLY

For the United States—Industrial Accidents Nearly 2,000,000

New York, March 19.—Upwards of 40,000 workmen are killed and 2,000,000 injured in industrial accidents in the United States every year. Besides 3,000,000 or more are ill annually from preventable causes, with a resulting loss in wage-earning efficiency of about $400,000,000.

These figures come from the year book of the American Museum of Safety, a non-commercial organization, whose business it is to remedy the vast social and economic waste caused by preventable shop accidents and by illnesses that come from industrial poisons, dust and noxious fumes, impure drinking water, poorly ventilated and general insanitary conditions in our industrial system.

The museum occupies several large halls in the Engineering Societies' building, No. 29 West Thirty-ninth street. Its rooms are filled with safety devices, few of them patented and all free for the asking, and on its membership rolls are the names of practically all the noted engineers and owners of big industrial plants in the country.

Floor space in the museum's exhibit rooms is free. Any person having a safety device approved by the organization may exhibit it there, with the understanding that their sale be not promoted. They are placed in the halls for the inspection of shop owners and others to whom they may prove useful, and anyone who considers that any article on show may be of use to him in safeguarding the lives and limbs of his workmen is at liberty to take it away and install it in his plant for the bare cost of manufacture.

Politeness Pays

In a humorous editorial, the "Saturday Press" of Saskatoon comments thus on a booklet recently issued by the Grand Trunk:—"Before starting on the Grand Trunk for Winnipeg the other day, we were handed a little booklet written by Elbert Hubbard, entitled: "Politeness Pays, Being Some Things Thought While on a Little Journey over the Grand Trunk." The gist of it was, that in the authors' opinion, there is at least one railway where courtesy in dealing with passengers and patrons is the universal rule; and where things are organized, systematized and modernized.

It is a fact, nevertheless, that, though obscure travellers and carrying in sight no such possibilities of publicity as Fra Elbertus, we found the deportment of the employees of the road all it is represented to be by him. Of course, one expects politeness from a porter but that a conductor from whom you ask a perfect superfluous question about the time should stop to set your watch by his and give you a friendly, "that's right now," at the conclusion of the operation as though he were interested in it, is really more than the mere passenger has any right to look for.

The thinking department of the road has been busy and has evolved a feature in the smoking room worthy of notice. This is a printed suggestion to non-smokers that they do not occupy seats in the compartment to the exclusion of those who desire to smoke.

PRINCESS IS BARRED FOREVER FROM A THRONE

PACT MADE PUBLIC

Smith Millions Not for Use to Finance Restoration

London, March 19.—The agreement between King Manuel, former ruler of Portugal, and Dom Miguel, Duke of Braganza, has been published. Braganza has posed for years as pretender to the throne, from which Manuel was deposed.

At the time the meeting between the two men first became known much interest was excited because Braganza's son had married Miss Anita Stewart, of New York. It was said that an American girl might some day sit on the throne of Portugal, and that an American woman, widow of "Silent" Smith, might boast of the honor of being mother-in-law to a king.

Until now, the agreement between the King and the Duke was guarded carefully. The details, as now revealed, preclude all hope that the former Miss Stewart will ever ascend the Portuguese throne. Moreover, they indicate clearly that the campaign to restore Manuel to the kingdom of his forefathers will not be financed for the millions left by the New York stock broker.

MARRIAGE ENDED HIS CLAIMS.

The agreement further states that by marrying Miss Stewart, although she was created a peeress by Franz-Josef, her husband forever forfeited any calims to the throne of Portugal.

The agreement comprises six articles, which deal at length with the revolution and the claims of the pretender. In the first Dom Miguel not only renounces all his rights, but undertakes to assist the deposed King with all his power to re-establish the monarchy. In article two, the ancient ban, under which Dom Miguel and his family were barred from Portugal, is rescinded, and the pretender is recognized as a member of the royal family.

In article three, the question of his succession is taken up. In case Manuel dies without direct heirs, the heir presumptive, Dom Alphonse, Duke of Oporto, who has already taken oath, will succeed to the crown, and after his death the kingship shall be invested in one of Dom Miguel's sons, even if Alphonse leaves direct heirs.

"HEEDED VOICE OF HIS HEART."

Dom Miguel is the father of the Prince of Braganza, and the Prince is his legal heir, but in the language of the articles, he, by marrying an American girl, "heeded more the voice of his heart than his interests," and his rights are to be transferred to Dom Duarte his brother.

Meanwhile, Prince Miguel and his wife, Princess Anita, are passing their time on the Riviera, and he has intimated that he will soon join the revolutionists.

Satisfied Policy-Holder

[COPY]

Toronto, March 1st, 1912.

W. H. Hill, Esq.,
Manager,
Sun Life Assurance Co.,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I wish to thank the Sun Life Assurance Company, through you, for the prompt and very satisfactory settlement of my 15 year Endowment Policy, No. 64345, which matured and was paid me to-day.

I have also a 15 year Endowment maturing to-day in a leading British Company.

The contrast, in the results, in favor of your Company is so marked that I want you to know it, but I am at a loss to know how such a difference could honestly occur. When I tell you that the profits in your Company are three and one-third times the profits in the other Company referred to, and this too notwithstanding I paid the other Company $1.15 per year more per $1000 than I paid you, you will realize my inability to comprehend the cause.

This is surely a tribute to the management of the Sun Life, and I am so well pleased I have applied for further insurance with you.

Incidentally, I would like to say a word for your loan privilege. As you are aware, I borrowed some money on my policy, a little over a year ago, which enabled me to obtain a substantial interest in a town site in the Northwest, and you will be pleased to learn that it has already yielded substantial gain and gives promise to pay hundreds per cent., so that it is impossible to fully realize the value of that Policy to me.

I thought as an old Peterborough boy you would be pleased to know I am delighted with the result.

Yours truly,
(Signed) ROBERT E. DOLAN.

LOCAL MAN IS IN TROUBLE

Wanted in Orillia on Charge of Theft

On Saturday Chief Chilton arrested a Peterborough young man of excellent character on the charge of theft. The offence is alleged to have been committed in Orillia and his arrest was the result of a message received from Chief Reid, of Orillia. The young man was never in court before and feels his position keenly.

Fifteen minutes after Chief Chilton received the message from Orillia he arrested the young man in the Benson House.—Lindsay Post.

NEW S. A. WORKERS WERE WELCOMED

The Manitoba Free Press has the following to say in regard to Salvation Army changes at Winnipeg: A special meeting was held at the Salvation Army citadel last evening to welcome the new officers who have recently been appointed to take charge of a number of important departments of the work. These included Major and Mrs. Findlay, formerly of Toronto who are now assistants to Col. and Mrs. Gaskin; Capt. and Mrs. Wright, late of the financial office of the Toronto headquarters, who will fill the office of cashiers for the western provinces; Adj. and Mrs. Carter, formerly in charge of the men's special work at St. John, N.B., now in charge of the government detention home, succeeding Capt. and Mrs. McAmmond, who will take charge of the woman's industrial home at Kildonan, which is to be opened May 6; Ensign Halpanny, appointed to the position of secretary at Grace hospital; and Capt. Phillips, who will assist Major McLean as divisional commander of the North West. Col. Gaskin presided, and addresses of welcome were given by Staff Capt. Mrs. Payne, matron of Grace hospital, Major McLean and Adj. McElheney. Brigadier Potter, head of the Army's Dominion finance department, Toronto, also gave a stirring address, and Capt. Bonongyne, who has been divisional cashier in Winnipeg for the past nine months, said a few words of farewell. Brigadier Potter and Capt. Bonongyne left for Toronto last night.

THE AD. CLUB

Meeting To-night in the Dominion Bank Chambers

There will be interest splenty at the meeting of the local Ad Club this evening when Mr. I. Brock, will address the local business men and others interested in advertising and the welfare of the city of Peterboro. The meeting is called for 8 o'clock and will be held sharp, in the Dominion Bank chambers.

Just how far the local business men will care to go in connection with some of the proposals that may come before the meeting, is of course uncertain. One thing sure, citizens of Peterborough should not do, is to sit idly by and "Watch Welland Grow'," see Guelph capture industries this city should have, and not do all within our power to make things better for Peterboro.

POLICE COURT

Two Returned Shantymen Imbibe With Usual Result

Fred Eastland and Thomas Flannigan have just returned from the lumber camps. They imbibed too freely in the "wine that cheers" yesterday afternoon and this morning they awoke at the police station in a cell.

Magistrate Dumble fined them each $2 at police court this morning, and warned them to keep away from the hotels.

Flannigan was not going to get drunk again but he wanted an "eye-opener" this forenoon. Chief Thompson advised coffee and a good breakfast and Thomas said he would try it.

There has been an influx of shantymen to the city of late as the camps are breaking up.

The flavor, fragrance, purity and deliciousness of "Salada" Tea commend it to the favor of every lover of good tea. Every year has but served to demonstrate more emphatically its superiority.

SPRINGVILLE YOUNG PEOPLE ENTERTAINED

Young People From Knox Church Were Their Visitors

Two loads of young people from Knox church drove to Springville last night, where they entertained the Springville young people for a little over two hours. One 'bus load upset only four times on the trip out, and the party reached Springville about ten o'clock. However, that didn't interfere with the quality or merit of the program which was provided by the visitors. About thirty-five young people comprised the strength of the party from Knox church.

Mr. Bruce Elliott, the president of the Springville Young People's Society, welcomed the visitors most heartily on their arrival, and Mr. Lorimer appropriately responded on behalf of Knox. The church orchestra were present, and aided materially in the program of the evening, which was as follows:

Chairman's Address—Mr. Lorimer.
Selection—The Orchestra.
Reading—Miss Shepherd.
Solo—Mr. Anderson.
Selection—The Orchestra.
Duet—The Misses Fair and Davis.
Reading—Miss Ruby Fair.
Selection—The Orchestra.

Solos were given by Miss Chiles, Mr. Dixon, Mr. Peters and Mr. Lorimer.

Miss Ross supplied the accompaniments.

When the program concluded about midnight, a vote of thanks was tendered to the Knox young people by Messrs. Fred Wilson and Bert Sanderson.

Very able speeches were made by Mr. Albert Bowles and Alex. Laing, after which the Springville young people provided grateful refreshments, and the party shortly after departed for home.

"PETERBOROUGH'S FAVORITE SHOPPING PLACE"

W.E.A.C. DANCE

About twenty-five couples spent a very enjoyable evening at the "At Home," held by the West End Club in their club rooms, George street, last evening. Splendid music for dancing was supplied by Miss Gladman. The pianiste was very popular with the dancers, being most unselfish with encores.

The hall was skilfully decorated with blue and white streamers, pennants and West End colors.

During the interval between the first and second parts refreshments were served.

The social committee of the club is to be congratulated upon the success of the affair.

The Choral Recital

The program of standard music to be given by St. John's Choir has been printed, and is a heavy undertaking for any choir. Peterborough might well be proud of such a production of music, amid the hustle and bustle of an industrial centre, where all are workers and have comparatively little time for regular study, outside of purely business and other local duties.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

The public are assured of a treat to-night at the Y.W.C.A., when Rev. I. Couch will give a lecture on the works of William Wordsworth, the famous poet. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

Some time ago it was noted that a harbinger of summer had been discovered in the shape of a common house fly. To heighten this belief the Review was favored to-day by a call from Mr. "Alfie" Cooney, who carried a mosquito in his hand. Alfie claimed that he had caught the nasty thing as it was in the act of operating on him. Probably the next thing that will be brought along will be a grasshopper.

The rehearsal of the Madrigal Club called for to-night, is postponed to Friday night.

Mr. J. W. Firth's matriculation class of the Y.M.C.A. will be held to-night.

Something has gone wrong with the mechanism connecting the town clock with the fire alarm system and the large bell refuses to respond when a call is rung in from an alarm box. Chief Howard and some mechanics have been trying to get the machinery in working order, as was manifested by the puzzling ringing of the bell this afternoon. Up to late this afternoon they had not succeeded in remedying the defect.

CELEBRATION HELD AT ENNISMORE

St. Patrick's Day in Ennismore was celebrated by a very successful concert held in the evening in St. Martin's Hall, the building being filled to capacity. Ennismore talent assisted by the local entertainers, Messrs. George Lynch and Wm. McLaren, furnished the program. The Ennismore Orchestra also helped. A splendid evening of pleasure was supplied, a lengthier report of which will be published on Wednesday.

SHAMROCK SOCIAL AT ST. PAUL'S

The young people of St. Paul's church, proved themselves to be ideal entertainers last evening, when they were "At Home" to the Young People's Society of St. Andrew's at what was styled a Shamrock Social. The colors and spirit of the Emerald Isle predominated, and every one present was enthusiastic in their praise of the entertainment. There was nothing stiff or formal about the reception, a delightful informality characterizing all the evening's proceedings.

On entering the door each one was met by a reception committee, who ascertained the names, which were written upon slips of paper and pinned to each ones person, together with a sprig of the emblem of the little green isle. This banished the need of formal introduction and encouraged friendship and social conversation.

A first class program, comprised of songs, recitations, and musical numbers followed; and delectable refreshemnts coming next, put the finishing touches to an evening of genuine enjoyment.

The president Allen Brown, acted as chairman. The attendance was highly satisfactory.

Fortune is apt to favor the brave who hustle while they wait.

A disconsolate widower wrote on his deceased wife's tombstone the words, "The light of my life has gone out!" In less than a year he had married again and on taking his new wife for a walk to the cemetery, was greatly chagrined to find someone had written on his late wife's tombstone beneath the original epitaph the words: "But I have struck another match."

"Electric chickens" was a recent topic in an English town. Was the address given by a layman?

SKIP FITZGERALD WON FINAL OF CONSOLATION BY ELEVEN SHOTS

The last step in the consolation competition of the local Bonspiel was taken at the curling rink last night when skip Fitzgerald's rink carried off the honors attached to the winning of the consolation games by defeating Foote's quartette 16 to 5.

Except in the first three ends, when Foote's braves secured four out of their five points, the winning rink had it all their own way. Fitzgerald's stalwarts seemed perfectly at home on the heavy ice which bothered their opponents considerably, and the condition of the ice may have had a great deal to do with the large, one-sided score.

The rinks were—

J. Brock	C. James
W. R. Terner	L. Dobbin
B. Best	W. T. Hall
J. E. A. Fitzgerald	H. F. Foote
Skip—16	Skip—5

In last night's match Ray Best took the place of Mr. E. C. Macleod who was unavoidably absent but who has acted as vice-skip for Mr. Fitzgerald in most of the local bonspiel games.

With the conclusion of the local bonspiel comes a period of inactivity at the curling rink that will not likely be broken before the opening of the rink next season.

SPORTS AT Y. M. C. A.

The Hayseed Band practiced last night for the carnival to be held on Friday night by the Pumpkin Centre Athletic Club. A full dress rehearsal of the band is called for Thursday night.

Senior Indoor Athletic contests are to be held to-morrow night at eight o'clock. The events are 40 and 220 yds potato race, running high jump, standing broad jump, fence vault and 12 lb. shot put. Harold Hill was champion last year and is a competitor again.

Arrangements are completed for a return game with Trinity College basketball team of Port Hope, the exhibition to be called at the gymnasium, Saturday evening at 7.45. Judging from the class of ball played at Port Hope, this game should be the best of the season.

Some people are no better than others, but they are more cautious.

SCHOOL FOR BASE STEALERS

Hughey Jennings has established a school for base-stealers. He comments in a Detroit paper as follows on his plans—

"In the campaign that is now being carried out by the Detroit Club, we will break the monotony, with a stunt that we have tried before, but not quite as elaborately as I am planning on now. We will construct at the lot where we practice a sliding 'pit' about twenty feet long. A trench about this length will be made and this is to be filled with sand and sawdust. A regulation base placed near one end of the pit will complete the outfit.

"Sliding will be the added number to our 1912 program. The way we have it arranged, the sliding feature should provide considerable amusement and enjoyment for the players and at the same time fit them in one department of the game where few players are really proficient. I hope that this will work out as successfully as our spring feature worked last year."

Chinese women are prohibited by law from being photographed. Some British actresses must sympathize with them.

SUNDAY BALL PROBLEM OF OTTAWA CLUB

Games Likely to Take Place at Coney Island Park

Ottawa, March 19.—The problem of Sunday games, which has been worrying officers of the Ottawa Baseball Club for some time, will probably be settled this week. It is no longer a difficulty, in fact, for the Canadian League magnates now have no fewer than three offers of diamonds for use on the Quebec side. The chances are that the Sunday games will take place at the New Coney Island Park, below Rockcliffe. Promoter Choquette will confer with representatives of the Ottawa Club this afternoon, and if satisfactory terms are reached a baseball plant will be immediately constructed at Coney Island. It is only a short distance from the Ottawa Electric Railway lines, and the company has already arranged to operate ferries. As the park will be situated on the Quebec side no difficulty whatever would be possible. The officers of the Connaught Park Racing Association have volunteered to accommodate the Ottawas and will rush work upon their grand stand, with a view to having it ready in time. Little Farm grounds is conveniently situated, but its stands are much too small to accommodate the crowds which will certainly follow Frank Shaughnessy's speed boys. A meeting of the Ottawa Club will be held this afternoon to settle the question. Lansdowne Park has already been secured for the midweek and holiday fixtures.

Whether Shaughnessy will be with Ottawa or not will be definitely known this week. He is keen in remaining, and hopes that Varnell will eventually yield to his wishes. The schedule may be out the latter part of this week. Three or four contracts were sent out yesterday and by next Saturday Shaughnessy hopes to be in a position to definitely announce his club. Frank is fortunate in being on familiar terms with the major league magnates and will likely get three or four of the Montreal club's reserves.

Fred Taylor, of hockey fame, may also be a candidate for the Ottawa team. The "Cyclone" has always had a hankering to become a big league star and this is the opportunity for which he has been praying. Taylor believes that he could rival Ty Cobb as an outfielder. He played for Listowell in the Western Ontario Timber League and boasts of a batting average of 320.

MANAGER TEMPLIN SIGNS PLAYERS

Two Outfielders, a Shortstop and a Catcher.

Manager Templin, of the local club, forwarded four contracts to Secretary Davidson to-day. They have on them the "John Hancocks" of a catcher, a short-stop and two outfielders. He did not send much information about the new men, but further news is expected in a few days. Old Folks expects to sign two pitchers and another catcher in the course of a few days. A desirable third baseman has a contract, but has not signed yet. He will likely be landed inside a week.

TEN TICKETS FOR A NAME

By Which The Local Canadian Leaguers Will be Known

Who can invent an appropriate name for the team to play in the Canadian League as representatives of the Electric City.

To the person whose effort meets with the approval of the directors, ten tickets of admission will be presented.

The fair fans are included, and it will not be surprising if the prize goes the way of one of the many local fanettes.

Last season the Hamilton team was known as the Kolts, and the Guelph nine as the Maple Leafs.

Suggestions should be forwarded to the sporting editor of the Examiner or Review, and all names must be in by April 1st, but it is not intended that this should serve as a tip.

SPORT TALK

Last night amid the pools and puddles of the Brock street rink a Review seven defeated the Colts by the score of 3 to 2. The half time score was 2 to 1. The ice was soft and watery and as a result the play was not as fast as it might have been. C. Richardson, Murvay, and Murty played the fastest game for the Reviews, while Powell and Merrit, held up the play for the Colts.

The teams were—

Review		Colts
	Goal
H. Quibell		W. Doughty
	Point
S. Richardson		A. Quibell
	Cover
Murvay		McNeely
	Rover
Young		Merrit
	Left Wing
C. Richardson		Powell
	Right Wing
Armstrong		T. Doughty

Murty		Hill

The Bell telephone seven, champions of the Mercantile League, have had their picture taken at the Roy Studio. The photograph is of the eight players and five local telephone officials in group form, and the boys are highly pleased with the "proof" that has been submitted to them, O. Cameron, A. A. Smith, G. W. Berwick, F. W. Doan, F. K. Spriggs, and the players; Flowers, Lansfield, Cooper, Nattrass, Paterson, Kelman, Raeper and Wettlaufer, as well as the cup, which Kelman made from a piece of lead piping. He fashioned the handles with the same material and fixed them in place, and also mounted the mug. The cup's shape is flawless and in the photograph it has the appearance of an expensive silver trophy. The boys intend to have it nickle plated in the near future, and after that treatment it will be a cup well worth the winning.

Advertising and the New World

WHAT populated America and made its growth one of the wonders of the world's history? Advertising. People heard of the opportunities in the new land, and, believing their material welfare would be bettered here, came.

What populated the farms of the West and made their rapid development the wonder of the century? Advertising.

The government and the railways were not content to wait until the farmers came one by one and discovered these fertile lands for themselves.

They advertised—and accomplished in a few years what in former days would have taken several generations to discover.

What has made cities grow in ten years as they have never grown before? Advertising and its results.

What has made it possible to build up big businesses in a few years where it used to take a generation of steady effort? Advertising.

What has made it possible for a manufacturer to introduce new goods in every corner of the continent in a few weeks' time, where it formerly required years of hard work? Advertising.

Advertising has changed the face of the map. Advertising has revolutionized the methods of doing business. Advertising has magnified the possibilities of business far beyond anything our most optimistic forefathers ever dreamed of.

Advertising has brought to the humblest home comforts and conveniences that were unknown to kings in former generations.

Advertising has raised the standard of living, simplified the manner of living, reduced the cost and time and trouble of supplying our daily needs.

Advertising has made a new world. It has been the greatest civilizing force in the world's history.

Advertising has brought the man in the backwoods in touch with the centres of art and literature and business and made him feel at home with the world.

Advertising brings the world's markets to the very hearth of every home and brings those who have needs to where their needs can be best supplied.

Advertising is to-day a dominant factor in every home, in every factory, in every business office. Like electricity, we have always had it in the world, but only lately have we found out what a tremendous power it is. Little by little it is being applied here and there, in all manner of ways to help the civilized human race.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.

BASEBALL

The London magnates have not yet decided upon a manager, although they have been swamped with applications. There might be a possibility that Joe Delehanty, who was given his unconditional release by the Toronto club a few days ago, will get the job, as he has been recommended by President McCaffery of the Toronto club. The matter of salary will cut the biggest figure in landing Joe, as several other clubs are after him. There is no particular hurry about getting a manager just yet, as about 20 players have been signed, and a manager will not be needed now until the time comes for the players to report.—Hamilton Herald.

The Mormons, we fear, are organizing a new campaign. But they will tell the "old, old story."

"Maids' Money," the title of a new book, seems specially devised to attract the men.

Women lose their maiden names when they marry—and most men lose their identity.

OTTUMWA WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ottumwa, Iowa.—"For years I was almost a constant sufferer from female trouble in all its dreadful forms; shooting pains all over my body, sick headache, spinal weakness, dizziness, depression, and everything that was horrid. I tried many doctors in different parts of the United States, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than all the doctors. I feel it my duty to tell you these facts. My heart is full of gratitude to you for my cure."—Mrs. HARRIET E. WAMPLER, 524 S. Ransom Street, Ottumwa, Iowa.

Consider This Advice.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous medicine, made only from roots and herbs, has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, confidential, and always helpful.

MINISTER WHO LOST LIFE IN FIRE WAS FORMER PASTOR AT PETERBORO

A despatch from Dauphin, Man., tells of the terrible death of a former preacher of Peterboro, Rev. David Cattanach, who was a superannuated minister. The despatch says—

Rev David Cattanach, a superannuated minister of the Methodist church, and Walter Blackburn, aged 3 1-2 years, brother of Mrs. Robert Cattanach, daughter-in-laww of Rev. Mr. Cattanach, were burned to death this afternoon, in a fire which destroyed the Cattanach home about 4 1-2 miles from Dauphin. The fire broke out about 5 o'clock, and the house, a one-story frame structure was quickly demolished. The aged clergyman and little boy were alone at the time, and the cause of the fire is not known. Mrs. Robert Cattanach had just left the house about 15 minutes before the fire broke out. On noticing the flames she hurried back and gave the alarm, neighbors and the children from the school, which is located just across the road, tried to give assistance, but their efforts were unavailing.

TRIED TO SAVE BOY

Mr Cattanach and the little boy whose home was on the next farm, were found burned to death close to one of the windows, it being evident that the old gentlemen had tried to push the little fellow to safety, as the child's body was almost through the aperature, while his own body was found lying on the floor. Everything was in good order when Mrs. Cattanach left the house and she cannot account for the outbreak. The wife of Rev. Mr. Cattanach and their son Robert were away from home at the time the fire occurred. Mr. Cattanach suffered from rheumatism, which impeded him somewhat in his movements; otherwise he would probably have been able to escape from the burning structure.

In addition to his widow, Mr. Cattanach, who was widely known both in Manitoba and Ontario leaves 5 sons, they are James M. Cattanach, president of the Cattanach advertising agency, Winnipeg; W. M. Cattanach, of the Imperial Grain Company, Winnipeg; George W., of Vancouver; Karman, of Eaton's Winnipeg; and Robert, who resided with his parents at Dauphin.

BORN AT GUELPH, ONT

The late Mr. Cattanach was born at Guelph, Ont., and before coming west in 1885 had been stationed at Mount Albert and Schomberg, Ont. In 1885 he became pastor at High Blubb, Man., but the following year returned to nOtario, where he filled charges at Cookstown, Peterboro, Sutton West, Stayner, Collingwood, and Burke's Falls. While located at the latter point he was superannuated. Seven years ago he came west, and had since resided near Dauphin.

MONEY GRANTS TO FENIAN VETERANS

Each Veteran Who Saw Active Service to Get $100

Ottawa, March 18.—The Government will ask Parliament for a cash grant for the Fenian Raid veterans of 1866 and 1870. Notice of a resolution allowing each veteran who saw active service $100 is given to-night by the Minister of Militia. There are some ten thousand "veterans" of the Fenian Raids in Canada, but probably only six thousand will qualify for the grant as having seen fighting.

Col. Hughes' resolution is as follows: "That it is expedient to provide for the payment of one hundred dollars to every person residing in Canada at the date of the passing of the Act, based upon this resolution, who was regularly enlisted in and served with the militia called out for active service in th eyear 1866 by the Government of Canada, with the exception of certain battalions of riflemen formed for service in the North-west."

Kubelik announces his intention to abandon strenuous money-making tours. But his work is all play.

THE DUSTY MILLER LOST BY FIRE

Old Grist Mill Wiped Out With Heavy Loss

One of the old landmarks of the Village of Woodville is no more. Sunday afternoon the old grist mill was wiped out of existence by a fierce fire, the origin of which is still a mystery.

About half a century ago the grist mill was established at Woodville in close proximity to the Grand Trunk station the owner being a Mr. White, who moved the machinery from Manilla. Afterwards the mill passed into the hands of Mr. Archie Campbell who was termed "The Dusty Miller," and the mill has been doing an active business ever since.

The fire, which broke out Sunday about 1.30 o'clock was first noticed in the engine room and secured a good start before the volunteer brigade was organized. The brigade fought hard, but owing to the bushels of dry material within the four walls of the large building, the flames spread with lightning-like rapidity and soon the entire mill was burned into ashes.

The mill was constructed of frame on a good stone foundation, and the loss to the owner is a heavy one. It is estimated that 2,000 bushels of wheat, 3,000 bushels of oats and 200 bags of flour were consumed, the only salvage being 100 bags of flour. The loss will be a heavy one to the owner, the mill and contents being valued at $12,000, while the insurance only amounted to $4,000.—Warder.

Judge a man by what he does rather than by what he threatens to do.

BOY KING OF SPAIN

London, March 19—A telegram to The Times from Seville, referring to King Alfonso's visit to that city says—

"His Majesty was intensely distressed. He visited by boat all the quarters inundated, distributed money, donated a large sum to the relief fund, and established a soup kitchen. He also attended the distribution of food. His presence is lightening the despair of the people."

The above despatch lends interest to the following character-sketch by Kellogg Durland—

When you shake hands with Don Alfonso XIII you come in contact with a live wire. His long, slender fingers close round you in a grip you don't forget. His swarthy features glow with a warm smile that puts you at instant ease. His lustrous brown eyes dartle expressive flashes that reveal all at once the dominant characteristics of the man— courageous determination, conviction, rugged courage.

Tall, lithe, clean cut, quick of movement, erect of carriage, forceful in thought, decisive in speech, he radiates the magnetism of a rare personality. Watch him reviewing a body of troops, or shooting at the traps, or at polo; meet him on a country road driving one of his eighty-horsepower touring cars at highest speed; chat with him in his study at the royal palace at Madrid, or run across him in a fashionable hotel corridor in London—the one impression surges upon you that here is a born leader of men.

I have seen him under all these conditions and many more. I have observed him from a myriad angles and talked with him on the greatest range of subjects, from politics to religion, anarchism, socialism, clericalism, feminism and Mr. Roosevelt. He is the keenest, the most alert of men, and the most radical king of any throne. Therein lies the secret of th security of his throne. Republican France presses upon the kingdom from the north, and republican Portugal nestles close at the southwest. Agitation against dynastic government rages in every section of Spain, yet Spaniards are loyal to Don Alfonso. That he is the most popular man in the country is facetiously attested by the reply I so often received from republicans to the question, "Who would be the popular choice for President if the monarchy was overthrown?" Answer: "Don Alfonso."

Don Alfonso inspires the confidence of his people on another score. He attends to business. I have seen him leave the palace at six a.m. to review a regiment of soldiers quartered outside the Capital. Every day he is up by seven, even when he has not gone to bed till the wee hours. After breakfasting with his beautiful queen and a quarter of an hour of play with their three children, he repairs to his study and is occupied with correspondence until ten, when his ministers have daily audiences. When the ministerial audiences have been concluded, military and civil audiences follow, generally lasting until one-thirty or two. After luncheon he attends to the multitudinous social and public duties that devolve upon sovereignty. He visits institutions, opens bazaars and art exhibitions, lays corner stones and what not.

At four he has tea with the nursery. At five he takes his exercise—polo and trap shooting are his favorite pastimes. At polo he plays a hard, reckless game. At the traps he is the crack shot in the kingdom. Last year at the annual championship shoot he came out second, having taken nineteen birds out of twenty-one, while the prize went to one who took twenty out of twenty-two. Several previous years he had scored first. At seven o'clock he returns to the palace and runs through the forty-six leading newspapers of Europe. Fluent in English, French, German and Italian, in addition to his own Spanish, he is able to read for himself what the world is saying about him and his kingdom.

There is nothing of the megalomaniac about Don Alfonso. He wants to hear all sides of every question. He learns from wide reading and personal conversation just what current opinion really is. After dinner he goes to a theatre, or the circus, of which he is very fond, or to a social function at the home of one of his court. With nothing exceptional to prevent he retires about midnight.

A bachelor who died at Frankfort, Germany, left an endowment for an annual prize of $125 to the man who weds the ugliest woman. If the woman is lame as well as ugly, the bridegroom will receive an additional $25.

ANOTHER LESSON

From J. W. BROWETT Optometrist

You are a parent? Your child is in school a certain number of hours each day, using the eyes constantly. Each year the lessons become harder, books are taken home, studies are continued in the evening, the eyes are being overtaxed, the delicate muscles are strained; yet perhaps no thought is given to helping the eyes. We know that injury results from this neglect. We must realize that, if there is a cause for eye strain, there must be a remedy; the remedy most naturally would be rest for the eyes; this rest can be obtained by wearing resting Glasses. Come and let me explain to you scientifically why resting Glasses should be worn.

We believe that parents are wise in caring for their Children's eyes, the remedy is simple and the cost is slight.

INDIAN RIVER

Special Correspondence.

Indian River, March 19.—Mr. and Mrs. James Hope, of Villiers, and Mr. Stephen Elmhurst visited friends at Lakehurst last week. They started for home last Friday morning and had the misfortune to be caught in the snow storm. They came as far as Lakefield, and after resting for a few hours started again. The snow continued falling so heavily and fast that Mr. and Mrs. Hope lost their way and remained over night at a friend's in Douro, but Mr. Elmhurst continued on his way and succeeded after many adventures, reaching his home here about midnight. He seemed rather anxious about the safe arrival of his co-travellers, but they were seen driving home Saturday afternoon, none the worse after their long, tedious journey.

Quite a number of the young men have been fortunate enough to receive Leap Year proposals. Apparently some of these proposals have not been accepted.

The recent snow storm blockaded the roads again almost as badly as they were a few weeks ago.

Quite a number from this neighborhood left for the West last week: Mr. Ernest Evans, Mr. W. J. Allan and Miss Mary and Mr. Sandy Nesbitt.

CLEVER PERFORMANCE OF THE FOUR LEAFED SHAMROCK

Capacity House Witnessed the Annual St. Patrick's Day Entertainment.

A splendidly executed and finished performance of the charming Irish drama "The Four-Leafed Shamrock," in three acts, was presented at the Grand last evening under the auspices of the T.A.S. Dramatic Society. In the past this organization has provided first class entertainments, and their reputation was fully sustained last evening. The affair which was held to commemorate St. Patrick's Day was accorded a very liberal patronage; in fact very few vacant seats were noticed. The audience was delighted throughout with the talent displayed by all who participated and which they showed by unstinted applause. Taken as a whole and remembering the fact that it was a purely amateur performance, skill exhibited both individually and collectively was above par. The staging of the piece was designed to to represent a quaint old Irish castle in which lived an aristocratic old family, who through an ill turn of fortune had been reduced to humble circumstances. The family consisted of the old landlord, his wife, and daughter Rose. Other characters who appeared in the play were Lord Kilgaven alias Joseph Hopkins, Hugh Dyllwyn, a lover of Rose, Miss Tetbury Tattleton, a literary lady, Molly McDonnell, an old servant, and Mick Maloney, a burglar.

In the role of Rose, the pretty daughter of the old landlord, Miss Carrie White carried off a large share of the honors of the evening. Miss White displayed ability of high order, and by her cleverness and aptitude was noticeably a general favorite. Her quaint Irish apparel was most becoming in the character which she essayed.

The dramatic personnel was as follows:—

Mr. O'Gorman of Gormansboro — John McCabe—(An Irish Landlord in Reduced Circumstances.)

Lord Kilgavan, alias Joseph Hopkins—Gerald McFadden.

Hugh Dyllwyn—Vince McCabe.

Mrs. O'Gorman—Lillian Simons.

Rose O'Gorman—Carrie White.

Miss Tetbury Tattleton—Emma Derocher—(A Literary Lady.)

Molly McDonnell—Annie Simons — (An Old Servant.)

Mick Maloney—Ed. Hanrahan.

The part of the aristocratic old Lord taken by Gerald McFadden was ably carried out. The revelation, however, of his deceit terminating in his undignified expulsion from the family circle was one of the highly amusing and cleverest climaxes of the play. Mr. Vince McCabe was very popular as the accepted lover of Rose. He possesses a good baritone voice which was heard in a cheery Irish ditty to excellent advantage. The role of the "literary lady" was was also ably essayed by Miss Emma Derocher. The comedy honors, however, fell to Miss Annie Simons in the character of an old servant. Her garrulous good humor and abundant fund of wit was always prominent. Mr. Jack McCabe's make-up as the old Irish landlord in impoverished circumstances, could not have been improved. Miss Lillian Simons and Edward Hanrahan both excelled in their respective parts.

The happy ending of the piece brought about by the discovery of the "four-leafed shamrock" and its message of hidden treasure which finally resulted in the retrieving of the family fortunes, and the uniting of the lovers was a most fitting wind-up to the whole affair.

Interspersed between acts were high class specialties of singing and dancing as follows:

Philharmonic Quartette — Messrs. B. New, Lee, Cairns and Albert New; "Where the River Shannon Flows" Little Misses Milloy; Minstrel Boy, Ed. Hanrahan; "Ireland I Love You" Gertrude Clancy; Dancing, Messrs. Quinlin and Callaghan; "Rory Darling," Joe Clancy; "Burglar and Child," Miss G. Delaire and Mr. Ed. Hanrahan.

The T.A.S. Dramatic Society desire to thank the Grand Opera management for their courtesy and willingness in doing everything that was possible in causing the concert to be such a success.

Small, smart tailored Hats are particularly prominent — such as the Cardinal, the Gaby, the Bunty Sailor and the Durbar Turban, and for the more dressy Hats, the Parisian designers have gone back to the early Victorian Era for the charming quaintness and picturesqueness of the New Models now being shown at the Spring Opening of Richard Hall & Sons Limited.

DINED AFTER THE PERFORMANCE

Four Leafed Shamrock Company Went to Hooper's

At the conclusion of the performance at the Grand last night, the company, together with a few friends adjourned to Hooper's Palm Parlors and partook of a very enjoyable supper.

After putting away the good things, Mr. J. Hanrahan went to the head of the table and the following list of toasts was run off:—

"St. Patrick"—Mr. Vincent McCabe.

"The Characters"—Mr. J. Callaghan.

"The Specialties"—Mr. J. McCabe.

"The Ladies"—Gerald McFadden.

"The King"—Mr. Albert New.

The gathering dispersed shortly after twelve.

CADET TRAINING LOOMS BIG IN THE MILITIA ESTIMATES

Col. Sam Hughes Defends the Summer Militia Camps of Charges of Drunkenness and Also Denies Allegations of Partizanship—Drinking Is Done by Men Picked Up at Last Moment to Fill Ranks.

Ottawa, March 20.—Col. Sam Hughes' estimates were before the House yesterday afternoon. The discussion centred largely around the training of cadets, the Minister announcing that he intended to institute exclusively cadet camps to which boys could go whether they had been trained under the Strathcona trust or not, whether they attended school or not. The time for military training was in youth.

The Minister defended the militia camps from the charge of being schools of drunkenness. It was the men picked up at the last moment to fill the ranks who disgraced the camps. Incidentally, he mentioned that it was proposed to drill 100,000 men in the militia camps this summer.

"I have no hesitation in saying," declared the Minister, in answer to questions of E. A. Macdonald (Pictou) and F. B. Carvell (Carleton, N.B.) "that if two equally qualified persons apply for a position, I will give it to the Tory. That is the rule that has always been followed."

F. B. Carvell: Does this mean that there is to be politics in the Militia Department in future?

Hon. Mr. Hughes: If my good friend wishes to call it politics, then there are politics in the Militia Department.

E. M. Macdonald: There should be no patronage in the militia service.

These were not officers, but merely caretakers, replied Col. Hughes. The particular caretaken of whose dismissal Mr. Carvell had complained was one of the best political agents in Mr. Carvell's constituency, said Col. Hughes. He had used his influence in the drill hall among the young men on behalf of the Liberal candidate.

"Every man I have appointed," said the Minister of Militia, "has been told to look after his business and not meddle in politics. Fitness is the first qualification for service. The man who neglects his business, be he Tory or Grit, must go.

Col. Hughes emphasized the fact that there was no intention of ever allowing politics to affect the service proper. All officers would be appointed and promoted without reference to politics.

When the vote for training was up, F. B. Carvell expressed it as his opinion that the militia was not the temperance agency the Minister would make out. He would object to sending 40,000 cadets to camp unless he were guaranteed there was no canteen. He also complained that the infantry were being discriminated against. Their increase in pay was not sufficient. They should get $1.50 a day.

Col. Hughes gave some statistics about the number of teachers that had been trained under the Strathcona trust, who could accompany cadets to camp. There were 3,933 in Nova Scotia, 565 in Prince Edward Island, 378 in British Columbia, 12 in Quebec (outside of cadet instructors), 179 in Saskatchewan, 283 in Alberta. From the figures given for Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, Col. Hughes remarked it would seem as if the lady teachers had been trained as well as the men, and he supposed they would go to camp too.

Referring to Mr. Carvell's criticisms the Minister of Militia declared that the men who disgraced the militia camps, did not learn to drink there. They were men who had been picked up by careless captains to fill their ranks just before going to camps. This, he added, would be remedied at an early date. The abuse of liquor in camps was not extensive. People who saw a soldier drunk at camp blamed it on the camp, never stopping to think that the same man would probably be drunk hours at home where he was drunk minutes there.

Reverting to the cadets, he declared, that boys made better men for being trained in military exercises. "Don't be afraid to trust the boys," he said. Last summer boy scouts had marched to Toronto and conducted themselves like perfect gentlemen. The Y. M. C. A. had offered to furnish twenty physical instructors to the cadets in camp, and the men interested in cadets in Quebec had offered to go to camp with the boys.

At present, said Col. Hughes, the law only allowed taking cadets to militia camps, but he proposed to change and have exclusively cadet camps.

Hon. H. S. Beland was doubtful about the advisability of the innovation. It was proposed, he said, to spend $130,000 this year on training cadets and this would increase. Canada was spending $8,000,000 on her militia, and the navy would cost $15,000,000 more. We were going pretty fast for a country that was not a militarist country.

The militia estimates, said Col. Hughes, in answer, were the lowest in five years.

London, March 20.—A bequest of $6,250,000 was left in the will of the late Baron Wandsworth for the founding of an orphanage.

The late Baron Wandsworth was head of the London banking firm of Stern Brothers which his father founded, and once was a member of the House of Commons, in which he introduced a bill for the better housing of the working classes in rural districts.

MAKE READY FOR WORK ON MONDAY

Special to the Review.

London, Eng., March 20.—The delegates for the Scottish miners, here this afternoon wired instructions to Glasgow that preparations be made for a possible resumption of work next Monday.

YOUNG BRIDE BADLY BURNED

Smith's Falls, Ont., March 20.—Mrs. F. Stephanick, a young bride of three weeks, undertook to light her fire yesterday morning with coal oil. The fluid exploded, the flames shot out and the woman was badly burned about the face and hands and some of the furniture caught fire. Mrs. Stephanick could not speak English, having but lately arrived from Austria, but she succeeded in attracting the attention of some neighbors, who rushed to her assistance and put out the fire before the firemen arrived on the scene.

Objected To the Nurses.

New York, March 20.—Dr. Mary Walker, whose advanced views have caused her to wear male attire for more than half a century, insisted on being removed from the Presbyterian hospital yesterday to a hotel because she could not stand being pampered by a "lot of female nurses."

Dr. Walker is ill from bronchitis and her condition is serious. She was a nurse herself during the civil war.

THE BILL IN THE COMMONS

Provides Reasonable Minimum Wage for Miners.

London, March 20.—The coal mines minimum wage bill, designed to put an end to the coal strike, passed its first reading in the House of Commons last night. The bill is backed by Premier Asquith, Foreign Secretary Grey, Chancellor Lloyd-George, and Sydney Buxton, President of the Board of Trade. It consists of six clauses and a schedule defining 21 districts, the country being divided for the purposes of the bill. As outlined by the Prime Minister, the bill provides a reasonable minimum wage for the miners and safeguards for the owners, these to be arranged by district boards. The minimum will be paid from the date of resumption of work. The enactment is for three years.

An important clause provides that if within a fortnight, any district lacks a recognized district board, the Board of Trade may appoint any person to act in place of the local body. There is nothing in the bill to prevent a recurrence of the strike should the miners be dissatisfied with the district board decision.

A brief debate followed the introduction of the bill, which does not give promise of easy passage through Parliament. The Opposition party is dissatisfied with the absence of penal clauses or measures for compulsory arbitration, and will move amendments with a view to remedying this.

The Prime Minister said that he introduced the bill with great reluctance, but that it was imperative in the interests of the country. Chancellor Lloyd-George said that the Government was confronted by the necessity of the speedy termination of the strike, but that recourse to drastic methods would create a perilous situation. The bill was far from revolutionary. It had been accepted by many of the owners and to prevent a national calamity, which would result from prolongation of the strike, it was worth experimenting with. Even though the remedy provided was only temporary, it gave the nation time to devise a more permanent solution of the problem.

Critics of the bill, he added, had not suggested an alternative. They talked of applying Governmental pressure on the disputants, but did not indicate how this should be applied. He denied that the demand for a minimum wage was a syndicalist proposal, as the Government conceded it to every civil servant.

MR. H. B. COLLIER LECTURES AT COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

Last night Mr. H. B. Collier, now of Toronto, and a past president of the Peterborough branch of the Royal Astronomical Society, gave an address to the members and public in general, at the Collegiate Institute Laboratory room. There was a good attendance.

Mr. Collier defined the essential differences between astronomy and astrology, and discussed the principles under which the astrologers of old formulated their system. It was essentially a part of the religion of ancient peoples, and all things material were so ordered and attempted to be governed.

He then described the appellations of the different constellations, and how their names were derived and applied, and with charts outlined the figures of the constellations and their places in the heavens.

Following he gave a very interesting address on the latest discoveries in astronomy as made at the several national and private observatories. The lecture was profusely illustrated with slides, many of them very rare, and all beautiful. The lantern was manipulated by Mr. H. O. Fiske, who is most generous in giving time and skill to aid in this feature of such lectures.

When the gathering adjourned members of the society were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Fiske at their residence, where a pleasant hour was spent.

EMPEROR TO MAKE TRIP

Decides to Pay all the Official Visits.

Berlin, March 20.—Misgivings aroused by the announcement of a change in the Emperor's plans were quickly allayed yesterday afternoon by another notification issued by the officers of the court marshal, which now states that the official arrangements for the Emperor's departure on Friday will now be carried out.

In the morning surprise was caused by the announcement that the Emperor had postponed his departure for Vienna, Venice and Corfu, scheduled for March 22.

There was a strong disposition here, to connect the Emperor's action with the speech delivered on Monday by Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, in the British House of Commons.

This was strengthened in consequence of the Emperor in the course of the morning paying a long visit to Admiral Albert P. Von Tirpitz, secretary of the Admiralty staff assembled in conference, the object of which, however, was not disclosed.

The negotiations which followed on the trip to Berlin of Viscount Haldane are being continued, but any big hopes of their success which may have been entertained are gradually failing. The negotiators would now be satisfied in all probability if they could achieve no more than a simple removal of the sources of misunderstanding which have hitherto existed.

The Bourse was weak yesterday. Government stocks were generally lower.

German Paper's Sharp Rebuke.

Cologne, Germany, March 20.—In replying to the Churchill speech The Cologne Gazette adopts an unually sharp tone. It says in substance that Great Britain must decide from the standpoint of her own interests what increase of her fleet is necessary, but that Germany must do the same thing. It continues:

"Germany will hardly ever have a navy equal to that of Great Britain, but if Germany's navy is to be destroyed, the victory must cost the enemy so heavily that England will hardly have any resources left to defend its great international interests."

COCHRANE WILL MAKE COMPANY STEP TO MARK

Ottawa, March 20.—Harvey Hall, of the Order of Railway Conductors started a vigorous fight in the railway committee yesterday on the bill respecting the Grand Trunk Railway, which asks power to assist financially any railway company at present incorporated, or hereafter to be incorporated.

Mr. Hall said the company had not treated its employes fairly, and was notorious for breaking its solemn agreements. It should get no favors till it came to time, and kept its bond.

Hon. Frank Cochrane declared that the company would carry out its engagements, or he would know the reason why. It might be necessary to club them to make them live up to their agreements with the men.

Claude Macdonell and Mr. Stevens opposed the bill, and finally it was referred to a sub-committee.

HOW THE AMERICANS AND THE CHRISTIAN CHINESE ESCAPED THE REVOLUTIONISTS

During the present outbreak in China foreigners have been in peril throughout. Several Americans, with Christian Chinese subjects, just managed to escape from Tien-Tsin in time. Efforts are being made by the Powers to have the anarchy stopped, but thus far without avail. It is feared that the outbreak will reach the southern part of the country, and soldiers have been rushed to restore order.

OSLER AND McCARTHY WARNED FIELDING THAT PROCEEDINGS WERE FRAUDULENT

Lawyer Members of Parliament Testify at Investigation to Having Advised Former Minister of Finance That Proceedings Were Fraudulent—Fielding Was Afraid of Being Charged With Favoritism.

Toronto, March 20.—"I told Mr. Fielding that I had personal knowledge that the stock subscription of the Farmers' Bank was obtained by false pretences." This statement, made by Sir Edmund Osler, K.C., M.P., at the Farmers' Bank investigation, held in Osgoode Hall yesterday, opened the way to a series of questions asked by Frank Hodgins, K.C., and Chief Justice Sir William Meredith, as to what the former Minister knew of the bank's situation before the certificate was granted.

Mr. Fielding was afraid to refuse the certificate lest the charge be made that the Government was favoring the larger banks, said the witness, but the Finance Minister was greatly worried over the matter. Mr. Osler knew that the Farmers' Bank directors had discounted notes so as to obtain their Government deposit and he had informed Mr. Fielding of this fact. The interview took place in the Parliament buildings at Ottawa, in 1906.

Travers had deposited many sums of money with him which were to be turned over to the Government as part of the Farmers' Bank deposit, said Mr. A. D. Braithwaite, manager of the Ottawa branch of the Bank of Montreal. On one occasion the convicted manager was $20,000 short, and attempted to secure a loan from Braithwaite, but the latter "knew Travers pretty well and did not want to have anything to do with him." Travers had offered to give notes, signed by shareholders, as security, but, the Ottawa man had refused, and later he notified Sir Edward Clouston, president of the Bank of Montreal, of Travers' request.

Mr. Leighton McCarthy, K.C., stated that he had written Hon. W. S. Fielding, and the Treasury Board on behalf of William Laidlaw, K.C., asking that the application for the Farmers' Bank certificate be not issued, on the ground that there had been fraud in connection with the use of the shareholders' notes.

Three checks had been sent to Travers while he was in Ottawa after the certificate, and Frank Hodgins, K.C., crown prosecutor, asked James C. Fitzgibbon if he knew anything about these checks, one of which was made payable to D. S. McCorquodale, when it had been sent to Travers. All that the witness knew in regard to the orders was that the checks were blank when sent to Ottawa, but he could not identify them.

Inspector of Detectives Duncan was called by the crown and produced a copy of a statement said to be made by Travers. Chief Justice Sir William Meredith preferred to have Travers come to the investigation and tell anything he feels disposed to and the banker will testify later. The inspector reeled off a list of checks, letters and other documents.

WOMAN HANGED HERSELF FROM EIGHTH STOREY OF HER HOTEL

Special to The Review.

New York, N.Y., March 20—A woman, supposed to be Mrs. Blanche Carson of San Francisco, suicided early this morning by hanging herself outside a window of her room on the eighth storey of the hotel Broztell. She had reached here from India on Monday and was arrested on a charge of smuggling when she tried to pass many thousand dollars worth of pearls under a valuation of eight hundred dollars. She was admitted to bail and the disgrace is supposed to have unhinged her mind.

LEADERS IN LAST ROUND OF THE BUDGET DEBATE

The Leader of the Opposition Objects to Various Fiscal Items Including the Handling of Forests and the Taxation of Railways — Sir James Loses Patience and Deals Sharply With His Critic.

Toronto, March 20.—With speeches by the leader of the Opposition and the Prime Minister, the budget debate came to a close in the Legislature yesterday. The range of discussion was wide and at time heated when the Elk Lake message and other hoary points of contention came up.

Mr. Rowell's first criticism of the financial policy of the Government was that there had been no pretence whatever to review the financial situation of the province, to point out its financial needs and to consider the sources from which the revenue was to be derived. At the present time the province was confronted with an alarming situation in connection with educational affairs, and if the schools were to reach a higher standard of efficiency the grants to education must be largely augmented. Large sums were also wanted for public health. In the Department of Agriculture there were increasing demands upon the resources of the province. Large expenditures of the public money were needed for good roads. Something was being done, but more was needed.

Another item in the receipts that Mr. Rowell criticized was the returns from the Department of Lands, Forests and Mines. He contended that the Government policy was depleting the timber of the province, and soon there would be little left. Assuming, however, that there was lots of timber, he thought the time had come when some consideration should be given to the interests of the future. He was not objecting to the revenue, but to forest depletion, and the Government should adopt a scientific forestry policy for the purpose of conserving the timber.

In regard to the supplementary revenue, which was a tax on corporations, he thought that the railways of Canada should be called upon to contribute the same proportion of taxation as the average citizen, in regard to the value of the property.

"I hope," said Mr. Rowell, "that the Prime Minister to-day, before he closes his address, will tell us whether there are any bilingual schools in the province. (Opposition laughter.) During the election he is reported to have said there was no such thing, but now that Dr. Merchant's report is in his hands it may be possible that the Prime Minister will be able to tell us that there are a few bilingual schools."

"How utterly impossible it is for the honorable and new leader of the Opposition to meet a political opponent with fair play," said the Premier, in reference to the statements of Mr. Rowell in his attacks on the Government, Sir James classed Mr. Rowell's remarks, in denunciation of the policy of the Conservative administration, as "fearful and wonderful."

"The leader of the Opposition says that when the Government proves incapable of handling the bilingual question the Liberals will announce their policy," said Sir James. "Some future historian may have the opportunity of using the statement from the Opposition."

In reference to the statements of the Liberals about the depletion of forests, he said: "Instead of selling timber limits, we are buying them, and we will buy more. We do not sell even to friends. The Government would hide itself from an outraged people if it had such a stain and blot on its record in the matter of the disposal of timber limits as had the late Government."

Sir James merely touched the bilingual school question. "Legally speaking, there are no bilingual schools. That's all I have to say on the matter," he said.

Before the debate was resumed, Mr. Rowell asked when the House might expect to hear the Government's policy with regard to the English-French schools of the province, in view of Dr. Merchant's report.

Sir James Whitney replied that he was not prepared to say when such an announcement would be made.

J. C. Elliott asked about the return from the Attorney-General of the correspondence about the county crown attorney, with which J. W Curry's name was associated.

N. W. Rowell said that the absence of the Provincial Treasurer from the House through illness was regretted as much by the Opposition members as by the Government. He remarked that the acting Provincial Treasurer, Hon. I. B. Lucas, and he had often met before and on occasions when their opinions were more in accord than at present.

The Opposition leader also had a kind word to say of Allan Studholme, the Labor member for East Hamilton. He hoped that there would soon be more independent members in the House; that it would be good for the House and good for the country. In that way it would be possible to get a better expression of the people's will.

"If labor men outside," he continued, "showed as much interest, persistence and enthusiasm there would be more independent representatives in the House."

BETTING AT RACE TRACKS TO BE RESTRICTED

To Racing Associations Incorporporated by Parliament

Special to the Review.

Ottawa, March 20. — Under the terms of a bill amending the criminal code which was introduced to-day by the Hon. Mr. Doherty and received its first reading, the privilege with regard to betting at race tracks is to be restricted to associations incorporated by an act of parliament. Hereafter it will not suffice for an association to obtain letters patent under joint stock companies act. Asked if this would affect applications now pending, Hon. Mr. Doherty said that two applications were granted yesterday.

SCIATICA

EXPECTED DEATH ANY DAY

Another Case Where Life Was Saved and Health Restored by "Nerviline."

It is because he feels it his solemn duty to tell to the world his faith in Nerviline that Victor P. Hires makes the following declaration: "For three years I was in the Royal Mail service, and in all kinds of weather had to meet the night trains. Dampness, cold, and exposure brought on sciatica that affected my left side. Sometimes an attack would come on that made me powerless to work. I was so nearly a complete cripple that I had to give up my job. I was in despair, completely cast down because the money I spent on trying to get well was wasted. I was speaking to my chemist one day, and he recommended "Nerviline." I had this good liniment rubbed on several times a day, and got relief. In order to build up my general health and improve my blood I used Ferrozone, one tablet with each meal. I continued this treatment four months and was cured. I have used all kinds of liniments, and can truthfully say that Nerviline is far stronger, more penetrating, and infinitely better than anything else for relieving pain. I urge everyone with lumbago, neuralgia, rheumatism, or sciatica to use Nerviline. I know it will cure them."

CURED SIX YEARS

There isn't a more highly-esteemed citizen in Westchester than Mr. Hires. What he says can be relied upon. For six years since being cured he hasn't had a single relapse. Don't accept anything from your dealer but "Nerviline." 50 cents per bottle, trial size, 25c; sold everywhere, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

SOME LIGHT ON CONDITIONS

An interesting address was delivered Monday in Toronto by Mr. H. Phillips, the English Sociologist, and a part of his address had reference to the coal strike. He affirms, what has been stated by others, that the major part of the difficulty arises over the conditions under which the work is carried on in its relation to payment and wage. The men are not paid directly by the employers. A part of the pit, or a section, is taken by a boss who is paid a rate per ton for coal delivered at the pit mouth. He in turn employs men to do the work of mining, and pays them what he likes, or as small an amount as they may be had to work for. The system has been one for many long years, and under it grave abuses have arisen, which the employers are almost powerless to correct, unless the whole system of mining be made over.

This would be practicable if mines were of equal productivity. From one, good coal may be taken with comparative ease of labor. In another, the proportion of good coal is discounted by quantities of rock and shale. From a given number of tons raised to the surface the money gain is small. Hence the difficulty of the minimum wage. It is said that if this becomes the law and enforced that collieries in many districts will be closed down as the last vestige of profit will disappear.

Mr. Phillips considered that the miners had justice on their side in the strike, their demand for an eight-hour day and a minimum wage of one shilling an hour not being exhorbitant, when the working conditions, underground and fraught with danger, were considered. A majority of the mine owners were willing to yield, and the strike continued only because the owners were divided, while the miners were united.

NOTE AND COMMENT

It is probable that we shall have another Commission. Presently we shall be governed by Commissions altogether. It is foreshadowed, at Ottawa, that the Industrial Disputes Act has not been the panacea that it was averred to be, and that the Conciliation Boards appointed under it have failed to conciliate. It is probable that a permanent Commission exercising wide powers, and making its enquiries in open court will command a greater respect for its awards than is now possible under the present system.

On Saturday last the shattered hulk of the United States battle ship Maine, which has lain in the mud of Havanna Harbor for fourteen years was towed out to sea and sunk in a depth of water estimated at 600 fathoms. Several parts of the vessel were removed to be erected in the National burying grounds and to mark the spot where the bodies of those who perished in the disaster were, and will be interred. The remains of sixty-five of the crew were taken from the wreck and will be interred by the Nation. So passes the last scene in the drama of the Maine.

POPULAR NEW SUMMER RESORT

An important announcement has been made to-day by the Grand Trunk Railway System, regarding a new and popular resort that will be open to Canadians during the coming summer. It is one that has not hitherto been known in Canada but that has appealed for some years to the American tourist traffic. The territory is known as New London, Connecticut, and its environments, and takes in such well-known places as Ocean Beach Crescent Beach, Fisher's Island, Watch Hill, Block Island, and Shelter Island Heights.

With the opening up of this resort the Grand Trunk and Central Vermont Railways will put on a fast daily electric-lighted train with modern equipment including the latest types of Pullman cars and first class coaches, leaving Montreal at 8 p.m. arriving at New London at 8.00 a.m. returning from New London at 8.00 p.m., and arriving at the Bonaventure station at 8.00 a.m.

This service will give Canadians from Detroit east the opportunity of a one night's ride to one of the most popular seashore resorts on the Atlantic coast and will offer new fields for the tourist and summer resorter. Splendid hotel accomodation is at present available and it is needless to say that this new Mecca for Canadians will be a popular one. The cost of fares to New London will be the same as to Old Orchard and sea-side resorts on the Maine coast.

MONTREAL, March 19.—Business in Manitoba spring wheat over the cable was quiet to-day owing to the fact that the demand was principally for March-April shipment, which exporters cannot very well fill on account of the scarcity of wheat here and near at hand. Cables on the whole were stronger and bids were 1½d higher. The local and outside demand for oats for prompt shipment was fairly good, of which supplies are small and prices steady. The demand for flour for domestic and export account continues good, and the market is active. Millfeed is scarce and firm. Lady Betty Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

In England there are just two or three kinds of parties. You give a crush, which is grand if you have a big house, or you ask a few bright, particular ones and enjoy yourself. Or in the country you have a house party and pick out the men because they can shoot and the women because they are pretty, or else, if it's winter, you hunt and you have theatricals. But the Americans at Newport turn up their noses at that slow, old fashioned kind of thing. They lie awake nights (I'm sure they must) to think of something so original that nobody else can ever have had anything the least like it before. It is better, too, to have it very sensational and startling. If you are invited to a party, you never know a bit what it will be like, whether you will dance in a barn and eat your supper on horseback out of decorated mangers, whether there will be captive balloons at a garden party, whether a Noah's ark will have been rigged up on a miniature lake or whether you will have a pair of skates provided for you and find yourself cutting figures on the ice in a gorgeously illuminated skating rink, with the thermometer up to goodness knows how many degrees outside.

Of course, in a place where everybody gets nervous prostration trying to outdo everybody else in originality and extravagance, it wouldn't be like Mrs. Ess Kay to let herself fall behind.

She simply made up her mind that her big entertainment should be the affair of the season before she decided what form it should take. She thought instead of sleeping for several nights and began to wear the expression on her face which I have in motor cars when I think we are going to telescope with something twice our size, and am trying to prepare for eternity with a pleasant smile on my lips. She ate scarcely anything, telephoned a good deal and took phenacetin in hot milk. Then suddenly it came to her—I mean the idea.

We were at lunch when she thought of it, and luckily there were no visitors except Mrs. Pitchley and Carolyn, Mohunsleigh and Tom Doremus. It was bad enough even with them, for she half sprang up, then sat down again, first going red, then going pale, and we all thought she was getting ready to faint. But as soon as she could speak she said, when we shrieked at her, "It's nothing—nothing. I've just thought of something, that's all."

Afterward, when she and Sally and Potter and I were alone together, she told us that at last she had got the inspiration for her big entertainment.

It was two days after the violet tea, so it was quite time she should get it, she said, and she had been dreadfully worried because the invitations ought to go out almost at once. The famous pink ball at the Casino was for the 23d, and she wanted to have her party the night before, so that everybody would be worn out, and the ball would fall flat.

"But we've got our cards all right now," said Potter. "Why do you want to queer the show?"

"I intend to show Mrs. Van der Windt what I can do," she answered.

"Suppose a lot of the people you want refuse you, so that they can be fresh for the ball?" Sally suggested.

"They won't," said Mrs. Ess Kay, "when they have seen what I shall say on the invitations."

Then she got up, went to her desk, took out some engraved cards which she had ready, all but filling in the date, and wrote something in one corner. "What do you think of that?" she asked Sally.

Sally took the card, looked at it for a minute, laughed and passed it on to me, while Potter came and stared over my shoulder.

She had written across the card: "Fancy Dress, with Masks. A Visit to the Maze; and Aladdin's Cave."

"Do you think that will bring them?" she inquired, with a triumphant and mysterious air.

"I think it will," said Sally.

"You know your business, old girl," remarked Potter. "They'll want to know what it means, and they'll be bound to come and find out. What is your idea, anyway?"

"I'll tell you another time," said Mrs. Ess Kay. "I should like it to be a surprise for Betty, just as it will be for the people outside. She'll enjoy it more."

I didn't tease to know the secret, though I was really curious, especially about Aladdin's cave, which seemed to promise something gorgeous. The mystery was religiously kept, but there was plenty of excitement in sending out the invitations.

There were endless discussions between Mrs. Ess Kay and Potter, and, though she seemed so angry with Mrs. Van der Windt and several other members of the ball committee for trying to make a stand against her, she was perfectly ruthless about the names she would scratch off the lists her secretary was continually making out and revising for her.

I heard her say that she wouldn't have dreamed of asking the Pitchleys if they hadn't "got hold of" Mohunsleigh, and that Cora Pitchley, whatever else she might be, was the cleverest woman in Newport to have scooped in all the honors. Though to this day I can't see exactly what she meant, for she never would explain.

Anyhow, whatever the superlatively clever thing was Mrs. Pitchley had done, there was no longer a question of her being kept out from the pink ball or anything else. People were charming to her, and we met Mrs. Van der Windt herself at the chateau at a luncheon party with a vaudeville entertainment afterward and also at a dinner. Mrs. Van der Windt seemed to like my cousin, Mohunsleigh, very much, too, and gave a moonlight motor car picnic especially for him, with only a few people asked besides ourselves and the Pitchleys and Tom Doremus.

Mohunsleigh had not expected to stay more than a few days, but when he found that the friend he wanted to visit in California was detained in New York on business and Mrs. Pitchley and everybody urged him very much to stop, he decided that he would. I didn't suppose that Mohunsleigh would care for frivolities after all the years he has spent tramping about in strange countries, killing things, but he appeared to be perfectly happy and nothing bored him so long as the Pitchleys were there.

When Mrs. Ess Kay was making out the list of invitations for the great blowout, as Potter called it, Mohunsleigh happened to stroll over to the Moorings alone. He came to tell us that he had made up his mind to stay, and why.

"You see," he exclaimed, "I hadn't an invitation for any special time from Harborough. It was a sort of standing thing, given when we met in Damascus last winter. I was to come when I could, and be always welcome—that sort of thing, don't you know. I cabled the day I sailed, and didn't get any answer, but I hadn't been in New York two hours when I'm blessed if the beggar didn't walk in on me at the Waldorf. Jolly glad to see me and all that, but had to hang on in New York for a bit on some business or other. Now he thinks he can't get off for a fortnight or so, and as what he's got on isn't my sort of racket, I might as well be here as anywhere else, perhaps a little better."

REV. MR. COUCH ON WORDSWORTH

The Literary class of the Y.W.C.A. held their regular meeting last night and were favored with an interesting address by the Rev. Isaac Couch, on "Wordsworth." Mr. Couch dealt principally with the study of Wordsworth's style and diction, quoting lines frequently to illustrate the qualities he wished to emphasize, and make a vivid expresition of the great works of that widely-read author. Mr. Couch's ideas were original and evidently the result of the deep study of Wordsworth's writings, and his thoughts were clothed in beautiful language which made the address exceedingly attractive to those present.

Sheriff Hall occupied the chair for the evening, and a very pleasing solo was rendered by Miss Ruth Dawson.

Next Tuesday evening the club will be addressed by the Rev. Mr. Rollins. This will be the last meeting of the literary class this season and a full attendance is hoped for.

TORTURED FOR NEARLY TWO YEARS

Mrs. Poulin Found Relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills

Rheumatism, Backache and Headaches Were Her Portion But Now She is a New Woman

McCreary, Man., March 19.—(Special.)—"Four boxes of Dodds Kidney Pills made a new person of me." The speaker is Mrs. Oliver Poulin, of this place, and her numerous friends here fully verify her statement.

"For nearly two years," Mrs. Poulin continues, "rheumatism tortured me. My back and head also ached. My eyes were puffed and swollen. I am sixty-three years of age, and you can see I was a pretty sick woman. But Dodds' Kidney Pills cured me."

Mrs. Poulin is only one of many who have had a similar experience. They were weak and run-down, and sick all over. Dodds' Kidney Pills cured them. How? Simply by curing the kidneys. The diseased kidneys were the cause of all the trouble. They were failing to strain the impurities out of the blood, and the result was disease all over the body. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured the kidneys, the impurities were strained out of the blood. The result was pure blood and good health all over the body. The cause of the disease had been removed Fatal Fire Incendiary?

Niagara Falls, Ont., March 19.—Coroner Wilson last night opened an inquest into the circumstances surrounding the deaths of Mrs. Charlotte Pattison and her daughter Melta, who lost their lives when the building in which they had apartments was destroyed Sunday. The jury viewed the bodies and adjourned to take the evidence later.

Miss Ella Pattison, who suffered severely from inhaling smoke while endeavoring to rescue her sister, is practically out of danger at the General Hospital. A most rigid investigation of the conflagration will be conducted, the authorities being determined to ascertain whether the blaze was accidental or incendiary. Many citizens incline to the latter belief.

New Excise Tax Bill.

Washington, March 19.—Oscar W. Underwood, Democratic leader of the House, supporting the proposed excise tax bill in the House yesterday, charged that the Supreme Court by its annulment of the income tax in 1895 was responsible for the growth of socialism in the United States.

The pending measure, which probably will pass the House to-day, is expected to raise between fifty and sixty million dollars a year in revenue for the Government. Multi-millionaires, Andrew Carnegie, J. P. Morgan, and John D. Rockefeller, would be compelled to pay their full share of taxation under its terms, the Democratic leader declared.

He's Senator Daniels Now

Ottawa, March 19.—Dr. J. W. Daniel, ex-M.P. for St. John, N.B., was yesterday called to the Senate to replace Hon. Josiah Wood, appointed Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick.

The new Senator was born at St. Stephen, N.B., in 1845, and entered the House at a bye-election for St. John City in 1904. At the general election that year he was returned, and also in 1908. In the September elections he ran for the city and county constituency of St. John and was returned, but resigned shortly afterwards to provide a seat for New Brunswick's Cabinet Minister, Hon. Mr. Hazen.

NASSAU NEWS

Special Correspondence.

Nassau, March 19th—The roads in this vicinity are very bad owing to the heavy snow storm on Friday last

Mr. Patrick Allen is again home after spending a term with the Grieves Lumber Co. Nairn Centre.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wilson gave their friends a Pie Social which was well attended. Quite a number of invited guests were unable to attend owing to a disappointment in the bus line. Mr. A. Deck arrived in due time with his load from the city, while others came in single sleighs. Music was supplied by the Tucker orchestra, while Mr. James France acted as floor manager There were dancing, dialogues, and prizes in the events. Miss Armstrong of the city won the prize for being the "belle" while R. Cleghorn and Mrs. Wilbert McMillan took the honors for the cake-walk. Dialogues were well received. Mr. Lockington sang a song "Gallant Jim Jeffries, the King of the Ring," which fairly brought the house down. After tripping the light fantastic till the wee sma' hours the crowd dispersed thanking Mr. and Mrs. Wilson for the enjoyable time they had spent.

Satisfied Policy-Holder
[COPY]
Toronto, March 1st, 1912.
W. H. HILL, Esq.,
Manager,
Sun Life Assurance Co.,
Peterborough, Ont.
Dear Sir,—I wish to thank the Sun Life Assurance Company, through you, for the prompt and very satisfactory settlement of my 15 year Endowment Policy, No. 64345, which matured and was paid me to-day.
I have also a 15 year Endowment maturing to-day in a leading British Company.
The contrast, in the results, in favor of your Company is so marked that I want you to know it, but I am at a loss to know how such a difference could honestly occur. When I tell you that the profits in your Company are three and one-third times the profits in the other Company referred to, and this too notwithstanding I paid the other Company $1.15 per year more per $1000 than I paid you, you will realize my inability to comprehend the cause.
This is surely a tribute to the management of the Sun Life, and I am so well pleased I have applied for further insurance with you.
Incidentally, I would like to say a word for your loan privilege. As you are aware, I borrowed some money on my policy, a little over a year ago, which enabled me to obtain a substantial interest in a town site in the Northwest, and you will be pleased to learn that it has already yielded substantial gain and gives promise to pay hundreds per cent., so that it is impossible to fully realize the value of that Policy to me.
I thought as an old Peterborough boy you would be pleased to know I am delighted with the result.
Yours truly,
(Signed) ROBERT E. DOLAN.

Some clothes you buy as "Semi-ready" are not Semi-ready Tailoring

BECAUSE it stands so high in public estimation most clothiers who can't get Semi-ready clothes parody the name with "Semi-ready made" or "just like semi-ready" and pretend that our trade name is an adjective or a descriptive term.

The way to be certain it's Semi-ready is to look for the trade mark and the price mark.

Semi-ready
This is it

The price is there always—whether the garment is $15, $18, $20, $25, or as good as $30 and $35. For we do tailor the most expensive cloth now—the exclusive weaves that the high-priced tailor asks $40 and $50 for.

PLENTY OF CHUCKLES IN BREWSTERS' MILLIONS

Sparkling Comedy at the Grand on Friday Evening—Elaborate Scenic Production.

Do you want to have a real good laugh and forget all about those little worries for a couple of hours? If so, do not miss seeing "Brewster's Millions" at the Grand Opera House on Friday evening next. The comedy is full of chuckles from start to finish and you will surely enjoy every minute of it.

The story of "Brewster's Millions" is odd and unique, and delightfully blended with romance. If you suddenly inherited a million dollars under conditions that you were to spend it within a year and to keep that condition secret, and that at the end of the year were not to have one possession to your credit that you had purchased during that period, do you think you could do it? It is a harder proposition than one would imagine. Think it over. That is what Monty Brewster did with "Brewster's Millions." The big feature of the play, of course, is the realistic yacht scene in the third act, a marvel of stagecraft in which Frederick Thompson has fairly outdone his wonderful ingenuity as a producer. The great third act scene shows Brewster's yacht at anchor rolling with the tide, with the lights of a port in the distance and an occasional flash of green wave, till the illusion is enough to affiict a sensitive person with mal-de-mer. A storm comes up and here it seems as if the very limits of stage realism have been reached and surpassed. Sullen, saffon colored storm clouds scurry across the scene, the yacht tosses and pitches, weighs anchor and steams off, the shore gradually receding. Here it is that Frederick Thompson has shown his mastery of mechanical and electrical stage effects.

One young lady in the city who has recently returned from a sea voyage during which she experienced a severe attack of sea sickness, was heard to remark that she was almost afraid to go on Friday night as she had heard that the yacht scene was so realistic as to almost make one ill.

Secure your tickets early for there is likely to be a big rush for seats for this most popular comedy.

After Spending Thousands of Dollars and Consulting the Most Eminent Physicians, He Was Desperate.

CHICAGO, ILLS.—Mr. J. G. Becker, of 134 Van Buren St., a well-known wholesale dry goods dealer, states as follows:

"I have had catarrh for more than thirty years. Have tried everything on earth and spent thousands of dollars for other medicines and with physicians, without getting any lasting relief, and can say to you that I have found Peruna the only remedy that has cured me permanently.

"Peruna has also cured my wife of catarrh. She always keeps it in the house for an attack of cold, which it invariably cures in a very short time."

POLICE COURT

Another Shantyman Complains of a Headache

A lone shantyman was the only wrong doer before Magistrate Dumble this morning. He answered to the name of James Garrett and his home was in Tweed. He missed his train yesterday, and being with some good friends, he incidentally got drunk.

When arrested, Garrett had $67 on his person besides his watch and several trinkets.

"You will likely go and get drunk to-day again," said Chief Thompson.

"No I will not get drunk," said Garrett, "but I will have a couple of drinks for this headache."

"Well you had better not come back here," returned the Chief.

"I wonder where the other fellows are," said the shantyman.

"You had better keep away from the other fellows," was His Worship's advice. "There are fellows lounging around this town, who live on new comers like you." "Why do you not go home?"

NEW ORGAN TO BE INSTALLED AT ST. ANDREW'S

Choir Will be Re-arranged to Face the Organist

It was definitely decided last evening that St. Andrew's Presbyterian church will be provided with a new and modern pipe organ. At the last congregational meeting the question of procuring one was left in the hands of a committee. This committee presented their report last evening, with a result that a resolution was passed authorizing the committee to install a new pipe organ. Prices are being ascertained with a view to finding a suitable firm from which to purchase.

The new organ will be a first class instrument in every particular. It will occupy the full space of the present organ loft, so that in future the choir will face the organist, as in George street church, and St. Paul's and many other churches. It will be fitted with an electric extended consol, and the wind will be supplied for the organ by an electric 10 h.p. motor.

When installed it is expected that the organ will be one of the best in Ontario.

NOTICE OF POSTPONEMENT

Owing to the sudden illness of Canon Montgomery, the lecture announced for to-night at St. John's School House, is postponed until further notice There will also be no Wednesday night service, to-night.

POWER BILL IN THE LEGISLATURE

Legal Committee Will be Present in City's Interests

Peterborough's Hydro Electric bill comes up before the legislature in Toronto on March 21st, so the legal committee were notified by letter by E. A. Peck, M.P.P., on Monday evening. It was felt that the city's interests should be looked after by a strong deputation. It was decided that the whole Legal committee should attend accompanied by Mayor Bradburn, L. M. Hayes, K.C., and City Clerk S.R. Armstrong. Ald. Duncan will take Ald. Gillespie's place the latter being unable to get away.

Spring Opening

This Notable Fashion Event, Which Began To-day, Scores an Emphatic Success

Those who attended this Fashion Event to-day voiced their positive opinion that, for being comprehensive in scope and for a truthful forecast, our Spring Opening speaks the final word upon the new fashions. It is intensely interesting, and if you fail to attend you will have real cause for future regret.

Yet, in all this splendid collection of the correct new styles, there is not one garment or one item of merchandise of unworthy quality or faulty workmanship. The fact that our standard of quality is strictly adhered to makes this Spring Opening of even deeper practical interest to you.

Don't Miss Seeing the Splendid Window Display To-night

RICHARD HALL & SON LIMITED

MILLINERY OPENINGS AND WINDOW DRESSINGS

Spring with its inevitable desire experienced by all, and particularly by the fair sex, for appropriate and becoming seasonable attire, is now assured, and to meet this demand, the very latest in millinery and ladies' dress goods, as decreed by Dame Fashion for the season of 1912, were thrown open to-day for the scrutiny of an exacting and discriminating public. It is the general opinion of the hosts of admirers who flocked to the various George street headquarters of millinery, that no previous season has uncovered such an unusual and complete showing of exclusive styles for this spring. The beautiful and gorgeous window displays exemplify the highest possible attainment in millinery decorative art, and the care, thought and time expended upon them is meeting with a deserved measure of praise. Styles which speak of originality and undoubted popularity are much in evidence, and especially in the ladies' hat designs is there sufficient variety to accommodate the most particular dresser.

The shapes of the early spring hats this year are all small, with the exception of a couple of styles, somewhat larger, which will be popular later in the season.

HALL AND SONS.

The attractive display windows of R. Hall & Son's departmental store are a source of delight to the crowds of passers-by. The color scheme of tan and fawn has been most effectively utilized, and the harmonious blending sought for, constitutes the most commendable feature of the whole window arrangement. The south window is designed to represent a rose vine clinging from lattice work, and from the top of this is suspended a beautiful garland of red roses. This background is mounted upon a dais. At each side of the rose-vine effect are pillars or pegolas. When illuminated this design presents a most striking and attractive picture. In front of the dais is a wicker chair and table, on which are arranged groupings of dress accessories. The floor is laid with puffed white silk. Latest Paris styles in hats complete the arrangement in this window. The other two windows contain samples of ladies' ready to wear and gowns.

The credit of the entire window arrangement is due to Mr. J. A. Nibb, who has had splendid experience in Toronto.

ROBERT FAIR.

Mr. Robert Fairs' store is most attractively arranged, both in windows and interior. Pink, white and gold predominate in the color scheme. In the windows are displayed the very latest and popular Paris models in the ladies' ready to wear and hats. The reigning favorites in the latter this spring, to be viewed in the millinery parlors, are known as the Bunty sailors, Durbar turbans, Harry Lauder tans and draped hoods. The Panamas and Milans will be worn later in the season. Plenty of floral adornment will be popular in hats this season. Macrame net is used extensively for trimming.

The striking window decorations were planned and carried out by Mr. Russell Wotten.

CRESSMAN'S.

With his characteristic taste and skill Mr. J. McNicholl has transformed the ample window space of A. W. Cressman's departmental store into a most attractive scene. Exclusive styles in women's new spring accessories, including hats, coats, ready to wears, and the latest novelties are all exhibited to the best advantage. The three windows are models of trimming skill and reflect extreme credit on their originator.

MISS McGIVERN.

Miss McGivern's millinery parlors were formally thrown open to-day, and those who took advantage of the opportunity to see the magnificent display of all the latest novelties and exclusive styles were delighted with the variety of new modes for spring and summer. The windows are also charmingly arranged and several natty hats, exquisitely trimmed, which are bound to be popular this season, are to be seen.

J. C. TURNBULL.

The J. C. Turnbull Company have also spared no pains to arrive at an effective window setting. The color scheme is most pleasing to the eye, and nothing has been neglected in the window arrangement. Some extremely classy samples of coats, gowns, hats and all lines of ladies' ready to wears are to be seen, and a special invitation is extended to all women to call and inspect the various lines for sale. The windows were decorated by Mr. Chester Taylor.

T. C. ELLIOT.

T. C. Elliot's big departmental store is also to the forefront in showing some of the latest lines in ladies' ready to wears, and some special adaptations for the little folks. They are showing everything that should have a place in the wardrobe of children. Two elegant gowns are to be seen in the north window of the store. The millinery department has everything to offer in the way of the season's latest creations in that line, and inspection is invited. The credit of the window designs is due to Mr. Elric White.

MIDGETS AND ST. JOHN'S TO BATTLE FOR JUNIOR HONORS

Final Game Called for To-night When Winner Will Take the Clarke-Graham Cup.

The Midgets and St. John's of Lakefield were returned winners in the preliminary round for the Junior city hockey championship at the Brock street rink last night. Jack Thirnbeck's seven broke into the finals by defeating the Northern Lights 3 to 0, while the Cementville seven did likewise with the Thistles, the score in the second game being 1 to 0. The Midgets and Lakefield will battle for the championship and the possession of the Clarke-Graham trophy to-night the date having been changed by mutual agreement.

MIDGETS vs. LIGHTS

At eight o'clock the Midgets, the successors to the Chieftains and the Northern Lights were started away by referee Fred. Kelly. There was a very small crowd to cheer for either team. There were several other attractions for the evening and the ice box was neglected. The price of admission ten cents to see both games should have been popular, but the fans do not want hockey now even for nothing. Those who stayed away missed a chance to see next season's Junior O.H.A. team because from the Juvenile ranks will come a seven to represent Peterboro in the Junior series next season. It is proving to be a training school as was intended. Most of the players in all three local teams were boys who failed to catch a place on the Junior O.H.A. seven this season. They are all under eighteen and of course have room for development.

The condition of the ice last night made the fracas at times like water polo. There was "water, water, everywhere," and it was almost impossible to do anything with the puck. It was necessary to carry the rubber right in on the nets to score, as it very seldom could be lifted from the slush. The players were continually overtaking the puck also and combination was almost impossible. What little passing there was Jack Thirnbeck's septet had the most of it but it was superior individual work that beat the Lights.

Halpin got the first counter on a nice rush along the boards for a shot. Carew got the second after considerable work in the Northern Lights' goal territory. The half ended with the figures reading 2 to 0. The Midgets had had the most of the play but they could not connect for more than the two counters.

Grover Halpin was responsible for the third and last goal of the game He got it on a lone rush, similar to his first one. The Lights buzzed around Dwyer several times, but could not beat him. Altogether he had a very quiet time of it.

Speaking of the merits of the individual players on the Midgets, Halpin perhaps deserves special mention. He played rover, a new position for him, this season and it fitted him like a glove. He was always working and by some neat stick handling and a nifty shot, he notched two of the three counters. As for the others they all plugged away in the slush. Without a doubt the better team won and on hard ice, the score would likely have been a great deal larger. Barrie and Callaghan, with Halpin, will make a strong bid for a place on next season's Junior O.H.A. team and Davidson, Rose and Carew can also put up a hard fight if they decide to get out. Davidson is a husky boy and although he is playing on the defence for the Midgets he would make a splendid wing man.

As for the Northern Lights they are a decidedly improved seven upon that which practiced with the Midgets on Wednesday last. Swanston in goal did not seem to be very much at home, but he had a few good stops to his credit. Coughlin, who is a brother of "Jerry", made a good cover point. He was spare man on the Juniors at the opening of the season and will make someone hustle next winter. Butcher, the youngster at centre was fairly good. He is a comer. Primeau of the Tool Room seven, deserted the Midgets, when he was not needed by them for last night's game. He gave Rose a busy session.

The line-ups were as follows—

	Midgets
	Dwyer
	Davidson
	Callaghan
	Halpin
Barrie	Carew	Rose
	O
Brotherson	Butcher	Primeau
	Neill
	Coughlin
	Revoy
	Swanston
	Northern Lights

LAKEFIELD VS. THISTLES.

The second game was anybody's until the final gong sounded. It was one round of uncertainties as a 1—0 score would suggest. A break in luck in the early part of the first half gave the Cementville aggregation a one goal lead which proved sufficient to win the game though their stock got a rude jolt several times.

The ice was even in worse shape than for the opening fixture between the Midgets and Northern Lights. The Thistles were much lighter on an average than the Anglicans who had it on any of the challengers in weight. The local youngsters could not body effectively and the weight of the Lakefield seven rather handicapped them for a while. In this period, Cullen got in a nice rush and scored on Huycke. This was the only counter of the game.

From the minute play started in the second half, the Thistles were on the aggressive. In fact they had so much of the play that Huycke had only two shots on him during the final period. Cavanah, Knapman & Co., slammed and hammered around the Lakefield nets time and again but could not make an impression. Hill of the Trent Valley League finalists, was in goal for the Anglicans and he could not be scored upon. His defence men helped him out well. The Cementville septet seemed contented with the one goal margin and they did not take many chances on losing it so far as offensive work went.

Hill in goal for the winners was the star. Cullen and Sabitino, with Blewitt were the pick of the other six. Blewitt is a brother of Braden Blewitt, of Trent Valley League fame while Joe Sabitino is a brother of Michael and Tony. He broke away several times for rushes but the fiendish checking back of the Thistles forwards was too much for him.

Orm Cavanah is certainly a promising youngster. He was at it hammer and tongs, all the time last night and never seemed to tire. He could rush and then by checking back intercept passes and block the opponents' rushes. He is developing the poke and in another year or two he will be one of Peterborough's best juniors.

Huycke in goal did not have much to do, but he acquitted himself creditably on every occasion. Matthews, a younger brother of Harold of the "Grillers," with Roy Smith, worked nicely at point and cover point. The Thistles are nearly all Collegiate boys.

The line-ups of the two teams were:—

	THISTLES.
	Huycke
	Matthews
	Smith
	Long
Cavanah	Knapman	Richardson
Blewitt	Pimmett	Young
	Sabitino
	Nolan
	Cullen
	Hill
	LAKEFIELD.

Owing to the thaw, the rink management desire to remove the ice at the Brock street rink on Thursday and it is therefore necessary that the final for the city juvenile championship be played to-night. It is rather a hardship for the finalists, considering the gruelling contests of last night, but the present arrangements are the best that can be made.

The Lakefield seven will be here in time for the game to commence at 8 p.m. They will be accompanied by a number of rooters.

It will be a battle royal between the two teams. The Anglicans have played together all season, being champions of the Lakefield Town League. They are pretty confident of a victory to-night, but on the other hand the Midget supporters have something to say also. 'Tis true the local youngsters have not played much together but they got away with more attempts at combination last night than did the Lakefield seven.

The Peterboro Baseball Club will adhere to the blue and white as club colors. This was the decision made by the executive. Blue and white sweaters with blue and white socks will be ordered at an early date. The uniforms which will be grey, will arrive shortly.

NAME OF "LIFTERS" IS SUGGESTED

For the Ball Team—"Quakers" is Popular

Have you suggested a nick name for the Peterborough baseball team? The one who first suggests the name that it ultimately chosen will be presented with ten free passes to the games this season.

The "Lifters" is the offering of Wm. R. Tetley, and it is really a very good one. The writer says: "Would suggest 'The Lifters' for the Lift Lock City, and may they lift the pennant."

Almost nine out of every ten throughout the city, when asked about a "nick-name," answer, "Call Them the Quakers." So far only one has put his name on file for that name.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

FROM W. A. B.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—"Like Begets Like," (Peterborough Examiner, March 18, 1912.) I wonder how many mental defectives lost their money in the Farmers' Bank. To determine the weak-minded, irresponsibles, and decide who can, and who cannot be united in marriage, how would a commission do? Say, Dr. Hawkes, Dr. Beattie Nesbitt and Dr. Evans, to look over the eyes.

Yours truly,

CHEESEMAKERS WERE IN SESISON

First Sale of Board to be Held May 15th.

Owing to the absence of so many of the salesmen, the annual election of the officers of the Peterborough Cheese Board was not held this morning according to the usual custom. Instead a general discussion took place amongst the cheesemakers, who were out in large numbers, and Mr. R. W. Ward, the District Instructor. The only important issue that was settled was the date of the first sale. It will be on Wednesday, May 15. On that date the election of officers will take place and other business matters disposed of.

Among the salesmen present besides President Switzer and Secretary Hawthorne, were, Messrs. J. A. McGregor, Central Smith; G. W. Mann, Trewern; W. H. Crough, Ennismore and Mr. Riddell, Bensfort.

The question of whether sales should be made every week in the warm weather was freely debated, but there was nothing definite decided. The debate will be re-opened at the meeting on May 15th, and the cheesemakers are requested to have their salesmen instructed as to how they are to vote.

Mr. Ward, the instructor, was the main speaker on the subject. His opinion was asked but he said he did not wish to come between the salesmen, cheesemakers and buyers and he would not give his view very freely on the subject. He however, pointed out some defects on both sides.

How a cut led to 4 years of suffering

Mr. J. E. Arsenault, a Justice of the Peace and station master at Wellington, on the P.E.I. Ry., says: "Four years ago I fell on a freight truck, sustaining a bad cut on the front of my leg. LECTURED ON NEWFOUNDLAND

Rev. S. H. Soper Heard Again in Charlotte Street Hall

The interesting story of the island of Newfoundland, was the subject of an able and instructive lecture last evening delivered by Rev. S. H. Soper in Charlotte street church lecture hall.

"The Island of Newfoundland," said the speaker, "was England's oldest colony. In the reign of Henry VII England's colonial expansion had its first beginning by the discovery of Newfoundland. John Cabot succeeded in influencing King Henry to send ships for the discovery of the new world and Cabot and his son made the discovery on May 24th, 1497 five years later than Columbus. For two hundred years England's navy grew largely to protect the fishing interests of the Newfoundland coast. This was the training ground for the men who later defeated Spain's "Invincible Armada.

Slides illustrative of the development of the colony to the present day, were shown and then a number on the industrial life, then the pulp mills, the mines, whale fishing ancient and modern sealing and cod fishing. The slides on cod fishing were especially interesting.

Following these came a number, showing the personal missionary work of the lecturer, Rev. Mr. Soper along the Belle Isle straits.

During the evening, Miss Brock sang very sweetly "Just for To-day" and Mr. R. F. Downey contributed a solo entitled "Daddy" in good voice

Dr. Mary Walker is ill in New York, being threatened with pneumonia.

ST. JOHN'S CHOIR ORATORIO RECITAL

A popular success was scored last evening in the St. John's choir sacred oratorio recital given in the church before an audience thoroughly representative of local lovers of high class music. With a program nicely balanced, and more pretentious in several directions than anything hitherto attempted by the choir, this splendidly trained choral organization won the approval due it, in view of the well marked finish and interpretative faculties displayed throughout. The plane of artistic ability to which the choir has advanced under the able and popular leadership of Mr. R. J. Devey was plainly demonstrated to the appreciative audience.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. R. B. Grobb, of All Saints 'church.

The months of careful preparation which was necessary to bring the choir to the efficient condition revealed last evening speaks more eloquently than words of the efforts put forth by all concerned to achieve a triumph.

The two opening choruses by the choir were technically two of the most ambitious pieces that were essayed. A more superior, or finished choral rendering of passages from the musical setting by Mendelssohn of the 95th Psalm would be hard to conceive. The chorus "Behold the Lamb of God," from Messiah, with beautiful harmony permeating it throughout, was rendered with a feeling and sympathy of expression deserving of the highest tribute. The treatment of Stainer's celebrated composition, "Who Left His Throne on High," as rendered by the choir, left nothing to be desired. In every chorus by the choir there was noticeable the dramatic quality and fervor so much sought in all oratorio concerts.

Individually the assisting artists acquitted themselves in a manner than won the most liberal and appreciative commendation possible. Mr. H. W. Morphet was afforded ample opportunity to display his splendid tenor voice with its numerous admirable qualities in the composition, "Come Let us Adore Him." He exhibited a perfect understanding of the correct meaning of the piece, and contributed it with such delicate shading and expression as to leave not the slightest detail lacking.

Miss Brock's rich, powerful and sympathetic vocalism was distinctly enjoyed. Her rendition of "He Was Despised," from the Messiah was given with flexibility and expressiveness which could not fail to awake a responsiveness in feeling in her hearers

The other artists on the program were Dr. Park, who gave a most polished and enjoyable violin number, namely, the "Adagio" from B[illegible]'s 9th concerto; Mrs. R. W. Davidson and Miss Quartermaine in delightful readings, and Mr. G. E. Chandler in a splendid tenor solo.

The oratorio was under the immediate direction of Mr. R. J. Devey, with Miss Flowers presiding at the organ.

The choir should certainly be convinced that they achieved a decided success in presenting such a meritorious concert, in view of which they had devoted such long and painstaking efforts to preparation.

The following was the program:

Hymn 387—"All People That on Earth Do Dwell"

Mendelssohn's 95th Psalm, comprising a

DO YOU USE PILLS?

If In Doubt About the Right Pills to Use Read the Following Letter Carefully:

"I am one of those persons whose system requires aid," writes Mr. Young Gledhill, from Picton, "but it is so easily affected by reason of the great sensitiveness of the bowels that ordinary drastic pills inflict great injury to the delicate coating, and excite such persistent activity as to be with difficulty checked.

"I wish in the highest terms to express the great value of Dr. Hamilton's Pills in cases like mine, and I am sure also for elderly people and the very weak there is no pill like them.

"Speaking of my own experience with Dr. Hamilton's Pills, I can say they have proved the most stimulating pills for the liver I have found. I have proved their tonic action upon digestion, and the same results have been secured by friends upon whom I have urged their use. The manufacturers are to be congratulated upon possessing so valuable a prescription, and the public should know that so valuable a remedy has been placed at their command."

No other pill for constipation, for liver, kidney, or stomach trouble, compares with Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they are mild and sure always to restore health. Refuse substitutes. Sold by all dealers, 25c per box, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston Ont.

U. S. War Vessels To Go East.

Washington, D.C., March 19.—The armored cruisers California, South Dakota, and Colorado, under command of Rear Admiral Southerland, sailed yesterday for Honolulu and the Philippines.

Notwithstanding the international significance that is attached to this sudden and considerable reinforcement of the American Asiatic fleet, the naval officials here state that the purpose of the cruise is to enable them to dock at the naval station in Olongapo, and to hold their spring target practice in Philippine waters.

It is rather naively admitted that the practice might be held off the Southern California coast, but then the cruisers would be a long way off from the seat of trouble "if anything should happen in the Far East."

HOME INSTITUTIONS SHOULD RECEIVE BETTER PATRONAGE

Business Going Outside Might be Retained at Home—What the Ad. Club Will Seek to do—Peterboro to be Advertised in "The Voice"

Peterborough is to receive a boost in a one-page advertisement in the May issue of "The Voice" of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America, in which magazine, circulating to nearly 8,000 of the leading advertising men on this continent, the local club will do its part towards inviting the advertising men to make Toronto their convention city for 1913, and incidentally to see Peterborough, while enroute at that time on a tour over the Province. This action was decided on last evening at the meeting of the Peterborough Ad Club, which was held in the chambers of the Bank of Montreal.

The special field of work for the local club as tentatively outlined by the President, Mr. Chas. C. Nixon, is to be mainly educational, and covering the following three points:

1.—Educating the club members in the theory and practice of advertising.

2. Hammering into all the business men locally, that they must religiously practice as well as preach "Home Trade."

3. Instilling into all of the people of Peterborough pride and loyalty to Peterborough Institutions.

It was pointed out that our people locally, in general, held a poor account of the home industries, and failed to patronize them as it would pay them well to do. There is lots of business going in this city of nearly 20,000, which may just as well, indeed better, be retained at home, but which at present is going elsewhere. Reference was made to Chatham, a place of about half the size of Peterborough, but where all people support home industry. The local situation was reviewed and particular cases applying to local industries were cited. In this connection the Peter Hamilton line of Farm Implements were shown to be even more commonly used in some parts of Western Ontario, not far from where the Massey-Harris implements are manufactured at Brantford, whereas other lines of implements, more than they should, displace those of local manufacture here in Peterborough. Quaker Oats products were not as generally used as they might be locally—Kellogg's, Tillson's and others often displacing products of local manufacture, which latter are quite as good and indeed often better. It was asked "why should we locally not more generally use carpets from the local factory. The Brinton Carpet Works?" This company is competing successfully for many of the largest orders placed in Canada, and when their product is selected by such decorators as Tiffany of New York, to place in hotels such as the Chateaux Laurier, this in competition with other big carpet manufacturers, surely the local product should be the very thing we want in our own homes here in Peterborough. While figures were not available it was also instanced that it was possible that the C.G.E. electrical supplies might more generally be used locally in preference to all other lines of electrical manufactures.

It was suggested that the local papers, through their reporters might do much more for local industries, by reporting particularly good deals, as pulled off by our local industries. For instance, if local citizens read through their favorite local paper, of say big shipments from the C.G.E., same from the Quaker Oats, Canadian Canoe Co., Brinton Carpet Works, etc., they would be much more interested in local industries. To substantiate this claim, reference was made to the great interest taken in the report, in the evening papers last week, of the land purchase closed recently by the C. G. E.

Amongst other things brought into review as being work that the local Ad Club can do, was the matter of advertising Peterborough. It was pointed out that practically nothing is being done at present in this connection, and that it is high time that something should be done, and that we can ill-afford to sit idly by, and "Watch Welland Grow" and see Guelph and other places get industries that we might just as well have in Peterborough.

The principal speaker as advertised for the evening, Mr. I. Brock, owing to illness was unable to be present. Mr. Jas. Hamilton, of the Peter Hamilton, Co., in an address pointed out wherein we local people should have a greater appreciation of what the farmer trade means to our local business men. Suggestions were thrown out as to how better to appeal to farmers who will trade in Peterborough and some valuable pointers were given on how better to gain the confidence of the farmers, whose trade was so worth while having.

Mr. C. F. L. Hardy, Advertising Manager for the Canadian Horticulturist, gave a brief address, taking as his subject the "Advertising Campaign now running in all of the leading daily papers throughout Canada," the copy for the same having been furnished and prepared by the members of the Toronto Ad Club. Mr. Hardy pointed out what a tremendous influence for awakening greater interest in advertising this campaign will be, and also drew attention to the fact of how much everyone interested in advertising, and in writing advertisements can learn from the copy featured in these ads., and from the manner in which they are displayed.

The meeting was not all that it might have been in the point of numbers present, several other important meetings, two church entertainments, and the opera, interfered with the attendance at the Ad Club. What the meeting lacked in numbers, was more than made up in interest, and it was clearly demonstrating that those behind the local Ad Club mean business, and will carry their organization through to the successful conclusion we may all wish for.

THEATRICAL

"JUMPING JUPITER"

There are plenty of laughs all the time in the presentation of Jumping Jupiter, and the audience at the Grand last night took keen enjoyment from the performance, which is made up of much comedy, both clean and witty. Richard Carle reappeared, and is as funny as ever, but the sucess of the piece does not entirely call upon his efforts. Mr. Chas. Edward Wright as Toby Pebbleford, gave him great assistance in the supply of the comedy, while Miss Hopper as Connie was a strong factor in the plot, which finds the elongated professor in some very hot water. The supporting company was strong, and "Jumping Jupiter" is not without a number of very catchy musical numbers, chief among them being "To the Strains of the Wedding March." "Little Girl I Love You." "I Like to have a Flock of Men Around Me."

The piece is well staged, and altogether the performance is bright, and it proved to be one of the best at the Grand this season.

To-night "Beverly of Graustark" will be presented.

DIABETES

Is one of the most cruel maladies of which mankind is subject, the many complications arising from time to time, making life seem almost unbearable. For many diseases, medical, scientific, and physiological knowledge and experience gained from years of deep research, has achieved remarkable results, but, up to now, little has been discovered of practical value in the treatment and cure of Diabetes. In fact, people have begun to look upon the disease as well-nigh incurable. Even in the medical profession can be found doctors who are of the same opinion, regarding sceptically any claim to ameliorate or improve the condition of a diabetic patient.

It can, however, be proved that SANSOL'S ANTIDIABETES lastingly cures all cases of Diabetes. Full particulars can be obtained from the Sansol Mfg. Co., Winnipeg, Man.

ANOTHER LESSON

From J. W. BROWETT Optometrist

You are a parent? Your child is in school a certain number of hours each day, using the eyes constantly. Each year the lessons become harder, books are taken home, studies are continued in the evening, the eyes are being overtaxed, the delicate muscles are strained; yet perhaps no thought is given to helping the eyes. We know that injury results from this neglect. We must realize that, if there is a cause for eye strain, there must be a remedy; the remedy most naturally would be rest for the eyes; this rest can be obtained by wearing resting Glasses. Come and let me explain to you scientifically why resting Glasses should be worn.

We believe that parents are wise in caring for their Children's eyes, the remedy is simple and the cost is slight.

HUSBAND FINDS HIS FAMILY DEAD

Four Lives Snuffed Out by Toronto Woman's Deed.

Mrs. Emily Orr, Aged 43 Years, Breaks Cap Off Gas Jet and Allows Fumes to Escape Into Room Where Her Three Children, Aged Eight, Six and Four, Lie Asleep—Blamed on Spiritualistic Mania.

Toronto, March 21.—Four lives were wiped out some time yesterday by gas, through the insane act of Mrs. James Orr of 28 Sackville place. Driven to despondency as a result, it is believed, of visiting seances, she murdered her three children, committed suicide herself by twisting the cap off a "blind" gas tube and allowing the fumes to escape. As to the exact time the tragedy happened, the police cannot determine. When James Orr, the husband returned from work at six o'clock last night, he found his wife and three children, fully attired, lying in one bed. All were lifeless and the bedroom filled with gas poison.

The dead are: Mrs. Emily Orr, aged 43 years; Mable, aged eight years; Margaret, aged six years, and Willie, aged four years. These children were the entire offspring of a couple who had been married for about ten years.

MRS. EMILY ORR.

Once before, the woman in a fit of melancholy, tried to end her life by inhaling gas, but the husband intervened in time. This was two years ago. Since then, it is said, that she had been very despondent, and spiritualism drove it from bad to worse. Living with the Orr family was an old friend, Mrs. M. E. June, who had left the house early in the morning. She was known as "Grandma" to the household, and was a devotee, so it is said, of mediums. Mrs. June and the dead woman had had a little squabble before the former left the house, in which Mrs. Orr threatened to end her existence.

When the bodies were found, a letter was also discovered addressed to Mrs. June, in Mrs. Orr's handwriting. The writing, which was hardly legible, was scrawled and looked as though she was in a frantic condition, probably owing to the approach of death.

HE WAS DISCHARGED

Belfast, March 21.—At the Belfast assizes John Diamond was indicted for making a false declaration. He informed the registrar of marriages that he was a bachelor when applying for a license. It has transpired that he had a wife in Donegal from whom the clergy are alleged to have separated him, he being a Roman Catholic and his wife a Protestant. Accordingly he believed he was not legally married. He was discharged.

THE FLAGS WERE MISSING

Orangemen at Kingston Feel Slighted at Absence of Union Jacks.

Kingston, March 21.—A big rumpus was raised at the opening of the grand lodge of Eastern Ontario yesterday afternoon, because the Union Jack was not raised over the city hall, where meetings of the order are being held. According to reports some of the members were quite hot under the collar, and at the meeting to-day the matter was again taken up and there promises to be something doing.

There are two flagstaffs on the city buildings, but they were bare yesterday, and the visiting Orangemen could not understand why the flags were not raised in their honor.

The grand lodge will remain in session until Friday morning. An official welcome was extended the visitors by Mayor Hoag.

Lt.-Col. John Hughes, grand master, and E. H. McLean of Newcastle replied.

A motion, of which notice was given, calls attention to the evidence produced by Orange lodges, showing "gross and widespread violation of school law," assertions which, it is claimed, are borne out in Dr. Merchant's report on bilingual schools.

The resolution concludes: "Therefore, we, the Right Worshipful Lodge of Ontario East, do protest in most solemn and emphatic manner, against special privileges which the French are granted by regulations of the Department of Education in the Province of Ontario, which are being used to drive English-speaking people out of Ontario, as they were driven out of eastern townships by the same agency; we respectfully request the Government of the Province of Ontario to the fact of such laws, and make such amendments to regulations of the Education Department as will make it illegal and impossible for the French language to be used in any of the public or separate schools of the Province of Ontario."

F. M. Clark, Belleville, grand secretary, submitted his report, which showed that the increase in membership has been the largest in many years. The increase will amount to 8 1-2 per cent. The report of Grand Treasurer Bro. Robert Gordon was also an encouraging one.

BALFOUR IS AGAINST BILL

Is Back and Leading the Unionists in Their Fight.

London, March 21.—The fate of the minimum wage bill seems to be trembling in the balance. A. J. Balfour will move the rejection of the bill in the House of Commons to-day.

The dramatic reappearance of Mr. Balfour in the role of leader of the Opposition comes as a great surprise, the decision being taken at a meeting of prominent Unionists, including Austin Chamberlain, Walter Hume Long and F. E. Smith, at which Andrew Bonar Law, who assumed the leadership on the retirement of Mr. Balfour last November, requested that the former leader undertake the duty of moving the bill's rejection.

Whether this development heralds the return of Mr. Balfour to the active leadership of the party remains to be seen. The Unionists lately have been greatly elated at the growing difficulty the Government has been encountering, due in part to the unpopularity of the insurance bill, the increasing labor troubles, and the greatly increased public expenditure involved in social reforms, and evidence of a change in public opinion has been given in recent bye-elections.

If, as some of the Unionists assert, the Government is riding for a fall, it may come over the minimum wage bill, but there is little doubt that the Government can carry the second reading of the bill, as the Labor party and the Nationalists have decided to give their support to that end.

Difficulties will arise in the committee stage, when the Laborites will move amendments, with the object of having inserted the schedule of minimum rates as fixed by the miners' federation. It appears, however, that the federation only carried the resolution in favor of this procedure by a majority of 12 in 160 votes. Evidently therefore a large section of the federation favor a less extreme procedure, and possibly when the committee stage arrives more reasonable counsels may prevail.

U. S. Strike Imminent.

Cleveland, O., March 21.—Wage discussions between the operators and representatives of 200,000 union miners in the bituminous coal fields of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, held in an effort to avert a prolonged suspension of business after April 1 and also to avert a possible strike, yesterday were without definite results.

The prospect that all the bituminous coal mines would be closed down after the first of the month, pending the making of a new two-year working and wage agreement, was said to be imminent. It also was said the lack of a wage scale in the central states would leave the union bituminous coal miners in other states without a basis upon which to work and they would have to close, entailing idleness for more than 350,000 miners.

GET-OFF THE ROADS BILL BELIEVED TO BE TOO DRASTIC

Would Make Automobilists Liable Unless They Could Prove Negligence on Part of Victims.

Toronto, March 21.—Drastic legislation faced the owners of motor-cars throughout the province when the "get-off-the-roads" bill, introduced by J. C. Elliott, came up for its second reading in the Legislature yesterday.

Officially designated "an act to amend the Motor Vehicles Act," one clause read as follows: "When any loss or damage is incurred or sustained by any person by reason of a motor vehicle on a highway the owner and the driver of such motor vehicle shall be jointly and severally liable for such loss or damage, unless, in the opinion of the court or jury trying the action, such loss or damage was occasioned by the negligence of the person or persons sustaining such damage, or either or any of them."

"The proposed legislation strikes me as unfair," said Mr. Hanna. The Provincial Secretary then proceeded to show that the present legislation regarding motor vehicles was as rigid as could reasonably be asked for. "The proposed bill would," he said, "lay all the responsibilty on the motorist in case of accident, no matter how careful or free from blame he was, except in case it could be demonstrated that the injured person was negligent. The highways might not have been built for motor vehicles, but the highways were for the use of the vehicles of the time."

Hon. A. G. MacKay favored the bill, on the ground that it would be a check on reckless drivers.

Allan Studholme supported the bill "from a common-sense standpoint."

C. R. McEwen, Dufferin, vigorously opposed the bill. "If the hon. member who introduced the bill wants the motorists to get off the road, why doesn't he say so," declared Mr. McEwen, "for that is practically what it means."

Geo. H. Gooderham told how, under the amendment proposed a driver of a motor-car would be liable for damages even though he had even helped the injured person and was not responsible for the accident into the bargain.

Mr. Elliott, in defence of his bill, said with reference to the remarks of some of the speakers, "that you'd think accidents happened by people running into the motor vehicle." He maintained that the man who brings a more than dangerous machine on to the highway should be responsible for accidents caused thereby.

Hon. I. B. Lucas said that while not at all favoring such drastic legislation as that which the member for West Middlesex proposed, he thought that the present law regarding motor vehicles should be better interpreted.

"At the present time we don't know where we are at, legally," said Mr. Lucas, "for the Court of Appeal often disagrees with the law as interpreted by a judge and jury."

Mr. Lucas thought that if a jury found that there was reasonable negligence in case of an accident, that the case should not be allowed to go to the Court of Appeal. Mr. Elliott's bill was lost on division.

To make arrangements for an agreement between the Federal and Provincial Ministers of Agriculture with regard to the terms upon which the Dominion subsidy to agriculture is granted, a bill was introduced by Hon. James Duff.

Mr. Rowell enquired if there was anything indicated as to what the money could be applied to.

Mr. Duff replied in the negative.

The Opposition leader also asked if Sir William Meredith's report on workmen's compensation would not be presented to the House this session.

Sir James replied that the report would in all probability be presented in a few days, and would be dealt with.

That minors under 18 years should not be permitted to frequent pool and billiard rooms without written authority from parents or guardians was the gist of Mr. Sulman's bill, which was given its second reading. The bill also gives municipalities power to cancel the licenses of establishments convicted for violation.

In an effort to abolish the 12 ounce loaf now on the market and substitute therefor a 16 ounce loaf is the purpose of the bread bill introduced by Mr. Ellis of Ottawa West, which was given its second reading and sent on to the municipal committee.

WARM WORDS IN COMMITTEE

Nesbitt and Lancaster Have Wordy Battle

Special to The Review.

Ottawa, March 12.—E. W. Nesbitt and E. A. Lancaster had a lively tilt in railway committee this morning, when the former made the objection that no Liberals were on the subcommittee appointed to consider the Grand Trunk bill. "It was a studied insult," he said. "Take that back," shouted Lancaster. "I'll take nothing back," replied Nesbitt, and he repeated his words. "Oh, go and take a dose of something," retorted Lancaster. "I'll give you a dose if you want it, by———" "I'll deal with you if you want it," was Nesbitt's reply. At this point Chairman Lennox appealed to the committee and the trouble blew over.

AMENDMENTS MUST BE ACCEPTED OR MINERS WILL REFUSE TO WORK

Special to the Review

London, March 21—The Miners' Federation to-day served an ultimatum on Liberal Government notifying the Premier that if he refused to accept the amendments to the Minimum Wage Bill calling for a definite scale of not less than five shillings for the men and two shillings for the boys per day, the miners would refuse to abide by the terms of the new law if it was passed, and would refuse to return to work next week.

HUNTER IS QUESTIONED ABOUT BANK CERTIFICATE

Toronto, March 21.—For nearly three hours yesterday Mr. H. W. Hunter was questioned by Frank Hodgins, K.C., in regard to his relations with W. R. Travers, and the trip to Ottawa to get the certificate for the Farmers' Bank, at the inquiry yesterday.

"You prepared the declaration to which Travers swore," asked Mr. Hodgins.

"Will you let me see the declaration?" Hunter was shown a copy of the declaration and said that it had been declared before him in Mr. Travers' office. He did not look at the exhibits that were marked, but presumed that they passed through his hands.

"What did you do with the list of subscribers?"

"I had nothing to do with them."

"Then what did you do?"

Witness replied that Travers had asked him to explain to Fitzgibbon the way the shareholders' notes had been dealt with. At that time he did not know that the notes were for $100,000, but thought that they were partly made up of subscribed stock, He was not aware of the true transaction and did not know how much was note and what part was specific subscription.

Mr. Hodgins read the act respecting the organizing of banks, and asked Hunter if he still interpreted the act in the same way, and the reply was in the affirmative. As far as his knowledge went into the preparation for the declaration, Mr. Hunter had believed that everything was legal.

After the making of the declaration Hunter went to Ottawa with Travers and, in case any difficulty arose in securing the certificate, he was to argue the point with the Department of Justice, to which the matter would have been referred. No trouble was encountered, however, and he left Travers in the city with the understanding that the latter was to send him a telegram should he be needed.

SIX MONTHS FOR THIS 'GETTE

London, March 21—Ellen Pitfield, the suffragette who attempted to set fire to the general post office in London on the evening of March 3, by throwing a bundle of paper, saturated with petroleum into the building, was sentenced yesterday at the Old Bailey sessions to six months' imprisonment in the second division.

This means that she will be accorded many privileges which are not granted to ordinary prisoners.

The judge explained that her sentence would have been more severe except for the fact that she was in ill-health.

Special to the Review.

Toronto March 21.—In the Private Bills Committee this morning T. W. McGarry objected strenuously to any favors being shown this society. The Bill, however, was reported favorable.

CASTIGATES HIS OWN AND EMMERSON DRAWS SMILES

Former Minister Mourns the Evil Days Upon Which the Road Has Fallen, Despite the Fact That Hon. G. P. Graham Sits Beside Him Taking It All In — Hon. Frank Cochrane Replies Briefly.

Ottawa, March 21.—The rather amusing spectacle was presented in the House of Commons yesterday of Hon. H. R. Emmerson delivering in his usual discursive style, what was in effect as severe a condemnation of the administration of the Department of Railway by his colleague in the late Government, Hon. G. P. Graham, as could have been uttered by any member on the other side of the House.

On the motion to go into supply yesterday afternoon Hon. Mr. Emmerson devoted an hour and a quarter to a discussion of the affairs of the railway, and was answered by Hon. Frank Cochrane.

Mr. Emmerson asked if the Government would take over the branch line running to the point from which the proposed car ferry to Prince Edward Island would run.

He also wanted to know what the Government's policy was in regard to running rights over the Intercolonial Railway for other lines of railway. The trouble was that the railways wanted not only through but local traffic.

He criticized the board of management, which, he said, lessened the sense of the responsibility. If the road were under the management of one man they would have decision and action. "There were miles of cars," said Mr. Emmerson, "standing on the I.C.R. within sight of the workshops at Moncton disabled, and no attempt had been made to repair them. There was no remedy for this, as long as the managing board were instructed to have a surplus.

"Not a blow had been struck in connection with the construction of locomotives in the last four years. Even if the road had rolling stock, it had not the motive power to move it.

Hon. Frank Cochrane said that he had appointed a man from Queen's University to investigate the car ferry situation.

The C.P.R. was the only company applying for running rights over the I.C.R. between St. John and Halifax, and this would receive the consideration of the Government as soon as the session was over.

As to the surplus of the I.C.R., he assured Mr. Emmerson that when the supplementary estimates were brought down he would find that most of it would be voted to go into rolling stock.

When the House went into supply the I.C.R. estimates were taken up. Hon. Geo. P. Graham urged on the Government the desirability of speedily double-tracking the line between St. John and Halifax.

J. H. Sinclair (Guysboro) criticized the proposed subsidy to the T. & N. O. Railway. Subsidies were given, he said, for the construction of railways and should not be given to a railway already constructed and a paying proposition. He insinuated that there was discrimination in favor of a province in which the political friends of the Minister of Railways were in power.

Hon. Frank Cochrane emphatically declared that the policy of the Government was to grant subsidies to railways constructed by any of the provinces regardless of their political complexion.

Hon. C. J. Doherty introduced a bill to provide for an additional judge of the Exchequer Court.

Hon. Martin Burrell's aid to agriculture bill was given its third reading and passed, after an amendment by Hon. Wm. Pugsley to refer it back to committee with instructions to add a section providing for the distribution of the money according to the population of the provinces had been declared lost on division.

INCREASED PAY FOR CARPENTERS

Toronto Master Builders Raise Wages of Men Three Cents An Hour

Toronto, March 21.—There is very little likelihood of a strike of carpenters this spring, as the master builders of the city have agreed to increase the scale of wages from 37 to 40 cents per hour. This decision was reached at a largely attended meeting of the employers at the Builders' Exchange yesterday, and will go into effect on May 1.

The combined committee of the Amalgamated Society and Brotherhood of Carpenters made a request for a minimum scale of 45 cents per hour, the rate fixed by the members of the unions at a joint meeting, but many of those attending that meeting stated they would be satisfied if they got 40 cents. The decision of the Master Builders was sent to the joint committee yesterday. It is understood that it will summon a mass meeting of the workers at an early date, when the offer will be submitted.

Catarrhozone

Cures Permanently BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, CATARRH

Throw medicine to the dogs. At best they are unpleasant, often useless. You are suffering from some disease of the throat, nose, or lungs. Doctors call it Bronchitis, Asthma, or Catarrh, or it is a slight or severe cold. Germs cause these diseases—they have a common root.

Catarrhozone destroys disease germs, but it does more, it heals disease tissue.

CATARRHOZONE is little drops of healing carried by air to the exact place where Catarrh exists. Observe, Catarrhozone not only destroys the cause, but immediately repairs the result of diseased condition.

Catarrhozone means little drops of healing carried by air and placed over the lungs, throat, and nasal passages.

Catarrhozone is endorsed by doctors, druggists, and by thousands of Canadian people who have used it.

A HARD PROBLEM

So far as can be seen the coal strike is as remote from peaceful solution as ever, and meanwhile its paralyzing effect upon Britain's industrial activity is becoming more apparent every hour. It seems to be taken for granted that Parliament will pass a law compelling the payment of a minimum wage, but at the same time penalizing the men if they break the agreement which may be entered into.

But it will be an exceedingly difficult matter to frame such a law. To provide adequate wages for the men seems easy enough in theory, but what power short of confiscation can compel the owner of a coal mine to operate his mine if he does not choose to do so? And what power can compel miners to mine coal if they do not wish it?

It seems as though the British Government had tackled the hardest problem which it has ever undertaken to solve. It is possible to pass a bill dealing with the matter, but to produce such a bill as shall be effective and at the same time acceptable to all parties is a task which presents almost insuperable difficulties, and the striking miners declare that unless the bill suits them they will not resume work.

Meanwhile the whole nation suffers, and the poor are the greatest sufferers. Such trade disputes should never arise, and never would arise if wise and Christian counsel prevailed. They result from lack of recognition of our common human brotherhood, and the well-to do are usually the chief offenders. The privileges of wealth are too often enjoyed while its obligations are forgotten. The only valid reason for the existence of wealth is that it is intended to advantage the masses.—Christian Guardian.

MARRIAGES

That no person should be allowed to marry without a license, which should be granted after a medical examination of the indivduals, and an enquiry into his or her family history is the opinion of an English physician who holds an important position with the National Association for the care of the Feeble Minded, and who was a medical expert on the feeble minded.

This, he says, would necessitate the notification of particulars of the birth, mental and physical condition presence of disease, age, causes of death, etc., of every individual to a central national record office. In this office the notification would be compelled into a personal history sheet, and the relationship of different individuals would be readily traced by a system of cross references. He is convinced that a very large amount of the wretchedness of home life resulted from hasty, ill-considered marriages, regardless of the character, the mental and physical health of the contracting parties. If greater attention were paid to these and to the general responsibility attaching to marriage they would hear very much less about the need for divorce.

NOTE AND COMMENT

For fear some absent-minded reader should fail to observe, we announce that according to the calender, this is the first day of spring. Beautiful, isn't it?

Legislation is being sought in the Ontario House to compel children to support their aged parents, wherever possible and to prevent them from becoming a burden on the city or government institutions. The enactment would compel all children working, or of age, to support or contribute to the support of their parents even when they enter a public institution.

NAMES WOULD BE CONFUSING

Ottawa, March 21.—"Whats' in a name?"

This is the question that the members of the banking and commerce committee of the House of Commons will be asking themselves until Friday morning next, as a result of the fact that an act to incorporate "the Guarantee Life Insurance Company of Canada," with headquarters at Toronto and a capital stock of $500,000 came before the committee yesterday morning.

It was discovered that the government insurance experts were against the name, because there was a branch of insurance known as guarantee insurance entirely separate from guarantee life insurance, and confusion might arise.

"As long as our insurance experts are against the name, I will not vote for it," declared Mr. J. H. Burnham, of West Peterborough.

"It's only a question of understanding a few words of the English language. Surely this committee is as good a judge on this as any expert," remarked W. B. Northrup, of East Hastings.

"Not in regard to the English used in connection with insurance," said Mr. Burnham.

Mr. A. S. Goodeve, of Kootenay, was also against the name, as confusion might arise. The matter was left over till Friday morning for consideration. Mr. Robert Pringle, of Ottawa, appeared for the company.

MONTREAL, March 20.—The foreign demand for Manitoba spring wheat was fairly good and bids in some cases from the continent were higher, while those from the United Kingdom were unchanged and a fair business could have been worked, but the new clause steamship agents now insert in the bill of lading, tends to restrict business very much. CATTLE MARKETS.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, March 20.—At the Canadian Pacific Live Stock Market the receipts of live stock for the week ending March 16 were 950 cattle, 125 sheep and lambs, 1085 hogs and 1500 calves, and the supply on the market to-day consisted of 600 cattle, 100 sheep and lambs, 1125 hogs and 1400 calves.

There was no important change in the condition of the market for cattle to-day, prices being firmly maintained at the advance noted on Monday, on account of the fact that the supply was small again and as buyers in most cases wanted some beef to carry them over for the balance of the week the demand was good and a fairly active trade was done.

There were no choice steers on the market and the top price realized for good ones was $7 and the lower grades sold from that down to $5.25 per cwt. Choice fat cows brought $5.50 and the commoner kinds from that down to $3.50 per cwt. A few good bulls sold at $5.25, but the bulk of the trading in them was done at $3.50 to $4.50 per cwt. as to quality.

A feature of the trade continues to be the very strong feeling in the market for hogs and prices are steadily tending towards a higher level, there being another advance to-day of 35c to 40c per cwt., making a net rise for the week so far of 40c to 65c, which is due to the light supplies coming forward and the keen demand for the same from packers, consequently an active trade was done with sales of selected lots at $8.40 to $8.60 per cwt., weighed off the cars.

The market for calves is weaker and prices have scored a further decline, owing to the steady increase in the receipts. At the lower prices the demand is good and sales were made at from $1.50 to $6 each, as to size and quality. There were only a few medium quality sheep offered, which sold at 4½c per lb. A firm feeling prevailed in the market for lambs under a good demand at $7 to $7.25 per cwt. A few spring lambs were brought in, which met with a ready sale at $8 each.

Half a century ago, before Confederation, they were on sale in nearly every drug or general store in the Canada of that day, and were the recognized cure in thousands of homes for Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness, Rheumatism and Kidney and Liver Troubles. To-day they are just as effective, just as reliable as ever, and nothing better has yet been devised to 43

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

"What Harborough is your friend?" inquired Mrs. Ess Kay, with interest. "The new San Francisco millionaire?"

"Don't know how new he is," said Mohunsleigh, "or even whether he's a millionaire, for it's the sort of thing one doesn't ask a chap. But if he isn't a millionaire, he can spend money like one, for I've seen him do it. A deuce of a good fellow he is; don't know a better anywhere."

"It's Jameson B. Harborough, isn't it?" asked Sally, and I was quite surprised to hear her ask the question, for she never seems to take any interest in a man just because he is a millionaire, as so many of the other people I meet do.

"Yes; those are his initials," said Mohunsleigh, looking bored.

"Then it is the millionaire, Katherine," went on Sally, quite eagerly. "Don't you think, as he's said to be such an interesting, original sort of person and such a friend of Lord Mohunsleigh's besides, that it would be nice if you gave Lord Mohunsleigh a card to send him for your party on the 22d?"

"Why, yes, that's a very good idea of yours, Sally," exclaimed Mrs. Ess Kay. "I shall be delighted. I'll give you the card now, Lord Mohunsleigh, if you don't mind."

Lord Mohunsleigh said that he would be very pleased, but he couldn't tell at all whether his friend went in for that sort of thing—had an idea he didn't and rather fought shy of society shows, though, of course, Harborough was a gentleman and all that.

"Anyhow, you send him the card and write him a line saying we should like to meet him," persisted Mrs. Ess Kay.

Accordingly, Mohunsleigh slipped the card in its crested envelope into his pocket, and we heard nothing more of it for awhile. Then, when I at least had forgotten the conversation in the wild rush for pleasure in which we lived, he said one day to Mrs. Ess Kay and Sally that his friend would be so much obliged if the invitation might be kept open. Harborough couldn't be sure until the last moment whether he could come or not, but would be delighted to do so if he might be allowed to decide at the last moment.

All Newport was soon talking about Mrs. Ess Kay's mysterious fancy dress party, which wasn't exactly a ball, but was—nobody knew what. People wondered about the maze and Aladdin's cave, and those who were asked were sure they would be something to be remembered and talked of through coming seasons, while those who were not were equally certain that the great mysteries would turn out to be stupid and childish. The pink ball, which had been the one absorbing topic of conversation till Mrs. Ess Kay's invitations appeared, became a matter of secondary interest, and Mrs. Ess Kay and Mrs. Pitchley both began thus early to be avenged.

Potter surprised me one morning with the design of a fancy dress, which he announced that he'd been inspired in the night to sketch for my benefit. According to him, I was to represent the frost sprite in glittering white garments, with a long veil like a trail of sparkling mist. I thought it rather suggestive of a diamond dusted Christmas card, but Mrs. Ess Kay was so charmed with the idea that she begged me to have it. "Potter will be broken hearted if you don't, and besides it will cost you next to nothing," she said.

It was the latter consideration rather than the first which decided me to give my gracious consent. Mrs. Ess Kay telegraphed to a costumer, who was also an artist. He came, made a few practical alterations in Potter's design and arranged costumes for Mrs. Ess Kay and Sally. Afterward when my bill came in, which it didn't do till I asked for it, it certainly was ridiculously small, a mere nothing even for me, but I couldn't help having some uncomfortable suspicions, and I have them still.

Chapter II

AND now I have come to the great affair.

It is the day after, and I have been scribbling down in a hurry all the things that happened to me in Newport meanwhile, for somehow most things have seemed to lead up to that.

I knew no more than anybody outside about the mystery of the maze and Aladdin's cave. The secret was wonderfully kept, although there was a constant undertone of excitement running through the house for days beforehand, and an army of workmen were busy in "the grounds," as every one calls them, first putting up a gigantic marquee and then working inside it. One man told Mrs. Ess Kay that he had been offered a hundred dollars by a New York newspaper to tell what was the nature of his work at the Moorings, but either the bribe wasn't enough or else he was impeccable.

All under the house runs a great cellar. I knew this from the first, because one broiling hot day soon after I came Sally took me down to get cool after I had dressed for somebody's "at home" and looked like a freshly boiled lobster. It's a series of rooms, perfectly ventilated, with rough walls and cemented floors. One of the rooms is of enormous size, and there are stone pillars dotted about here and there for supports. There is one other that is rather large, but the rest are small. One is used as if it were an icehouse. There are others for wine, and there are some storerooms. For a week before the great affair men were working down there all day and toward the last far into the night. Big boxes and bales were lugged downstairs and didn't come up again. Not a hint went around of what was going on, but I was sure that Aladdin's cave was in mysterious process of manufacture.

Clergue Gets Interests.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., March 20.—It was reported last night by John O'Boyle of the former Sault Drydock & Shipbuilding Co., that arrangements were made at a meeting between members of the company and representatives of Clergue interests whereby the charter of the company passes into the hands of Clergue and his French and Belgian associates.

So far as is known the site selected when the bylaw passed is still in view, but the Clergue interests are negotiating for a site east of that point, and there is every possibility that the dock will be constructed there.

BABY TERRIBLY SCALDED

RELIEVED BY ZAM-BUK

Doctor Agreed Zam-Buk Was "Best Possible Treatment"

Mrs. Albert Sawyer, of Midland (Ont.) says: "While living in Brantford last winter my little son spilled a vessel of boiling water over his neck. He was terribly scalded, and we immediately called in a doctor. The treatment did not seem to give the child ease or heal the terrible scalds so after a week's trial we got some Zam-Buk and applied it. It gave the child ease almost immediately, and after a few days' use the scalds seemed to be getting along finely.

"To make quite sure that all was right, however, we called in a second doctor. He said everything was going along splendidly, the scalds were healing and the little one would soon be quite recovered. Then we told him Zam-Buk was what we were using, and he said we could use nothing better. Zam-Buk worked a complete cure."

Mrs. S. Smith and Mrs. J. H. Teskle, of 73 Brock street, Brantford, who knew of the above accident, and what followed, write: "We certify that these facts are true in every detail."

Mothers should know that for burns, cuts, scalds, bruises, eczema, piles, and all skin diseases, there is nothing to equal Zam-Buk. That was the opinion of the doctor connected with the above case, and is the opinion of hundreds of other doctors the world over. Zam-Buk is obtainable from all druggists and stores 50c. box, or Zam-Buc Co., Toronto.

Fear Freshets In Kent.

Chatham, March 20.—Freshets seem imminent in many parts of Kent County. While the river ice has not yet moved out, that of its tributaries is breaking up and flooding the surrounding country. In southwest Tilbury the land in some sections is already covered with from one to three feet of water, and close to the town of Dresden, a small lake is gradually assuming larger proportions.

Dresden people look for a freshet before another day, if the thaw does not let up. The Thames at Chatham rose four feet yesterday, and is still rising with such force that it has in places shattered the two foot coating of ice covering it.

Would Cancel Franchise.

Brantford, March 20.—The City Council here has instructed the city solicitor to proceed with legal action to cancel the franchise of the street railway and Grand Valley Radial Co., as the result of default of taxes. It is not expected, however, that the local service will be discontinued, the purpose of the legal action being to have the courts define the city's right to hold the franchise until settlement of the taxes has been made in full. This, it is expected, will be done, as reorganization of the company, it is announced, is now under way.

St. Lawrence Crystal Diamonds

—The Crowning Achievement In The Science Of Sugar Refining.

The success of "Crystal Diamonds" is a distinct triumph for the St. Lawrence Sugar Refinery, Montreal. A great many people have always wanted a really fine lump sugar, — something attractive and appetizing in appearance — which they could serve on special occasions, or regularly with tea and coffee.

Such are "Crystal Diamonds". These daity squares of crystal sugar, brilliant and sparkling, are a distinct addition to any table.

In 5 pound boxes—also sold by the pound. Please remember to order by name —not "lump sugar" or "crystal sugar"—but the full name, ST. LAWRENCE CRYSTAL DIAMONDS.

No Woman Suffrage In N. Y.

Albany, N.Y., March 20.—All hopes of woman suffrage legislation at the present session were crushed by the action of both Houses of the Legislature yesterday. The Stilwell amendment, on which the various suffrage organizations have united, was killed in the Senate by a final vote of 21 to 19. Previously a rising vote had been taken and the result announced 17 for to 24 against, but Senator Stilwell challenged the accuracy of the count and secured a rollcall by the expedient of moving to dissent from the report of the committee of the whole.

In the assembly the suffragists won a technical victory as 68 votes were cast to non-concur in the adverse report of the judiciary committee, to 63 in favor. The result was to throw the matter into the hands of the rules committee, the personnel of which does not warrant hope of its emergence.

Goods Smuggled From Buffalo.

Niagara Falls, Ont., March 21.—Provincial Officer Delaney, stationed at Fort Erie, reported to Inspector Mains the recovery of $500 worth of silk stolen from Buffalo stores. Several arrests are expected to follow. How the goods were smuggled into Canada is a mystery to the customs officials.

Dropped Bombs Into Arab Camp.

Tripoli, March 21.—Two dirigible balloons, making a reconnaissance over the Zanzour oasis yesterday, were received with a brisk fusilade. They dropped twenty-two bombs into the Arab camp, apparently with great effect, as the Arabs were seen to scatter in all directions.

Not to Talk Political Union.

London, March 21.—The delegates from the West Indies reaching Ottawa this week are unlikely to discuss the political union of the Bahama and Bermuda Islands to Canada. This intricate question will have to be dealt with by the Imperial authorities.

Satisfied Policy-Holder

[COPY]

Toronto, March 1st, 1912.

W. H. HILL, ESQ.,
Manager,
Sun Life Assurance Co.,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I wish to thank the Sun Life Assurance Company, through you, for the prompt and very satisfactory settlement of my 15 year Endowment Policy, No. 64345, which matured and was paid me to-day.

I have also a 15 year Endowment maturing to-day in a leading British Company.

The contrast, in the results, in favor of your Company is so marked that I want you to know it, but I am at a loss to know how such a difference could honestly occur. When I tell you that the profits in your Company are three and one-third times the profits in the other Company referred to, and this too notwithstanding I paid the other Company $1.15 per year more per $1000 than I paid you, you will realize my inability to comprehend the cause.

This is surely a tribute to the management of the Sun Life, and I am so well pleased I have applied for further insurance with you.

Incidentally, I would like to say a word for your loan privilege. As you are aware, I borrowed some money on my policy, a little over a year ago, which enabled me to obtain a substantial interest in a town site in the Northwest, and you will be pleased to learn that it has already yielded substantial gain and gives promise to pay hundreds per cent., so that it is impossible to fully realize the value of that Policy to me.

I thought as an old Peterborough boy you would be pleased to know I am delighted with the result.

Yours truly,
(Signed) ROBERT E. DOLAN.

DINNER SERVED AT COLLEGIATE

Girls Provided Dinner Under Domestic Science Rules

Yesterday six citizens were served with a treat and learned that the proof of the pudding is in the eating.

The Domestic Science department of the Collegiate Institute is endeavoring to train the girl students in the principles of science, the preparation of and value of foods. One end of this proposition includes the cooking of viands, in good, plain, appetizing form, and it is an accomplishment not to be sneezed at. With the cost of living climbing, it is of the utmost value to know the largest amount of nutriment that can be had in and coaxed from a decent sized steak.

These six citizens, picked, we suppose, because they deserved and enjoyed a good dinner, were invited by Miss Steinhoff and her camp of assistant pupils to lunch. The sextette included Mr. D. Walker, Col. Miller, Mr. R. Fair, Mr. H. R. H. Kenner, and Rev. J. R. Webb and Rev. Jas. Rollins. It is understood that plain, general purpose citizens stood about and filed into the refrectory, or whatever the name of the place is where they serve the good 'eatins.

It is now known that the dinner was a peach, most admirably cooked and delicately served. It was a gastronomic testimonial to the skill and ability of the directress, and the aptitude and zealous service of the pupils. The company were both gratified and satisfied at viands and service. The only thing to cast a gloom over the proceedings and mar the digestion was the base and groundless rumor circulated around the table that Rev. Mr. Webb and Rev. Mr. Rollins had been invited—that is, selected from amongst their clerical fellows, on the basis that if the dinner proved fatal they could be spared better than any of the others. The rumor was, of course, a pleasantry that might be traced to a remark from Mr. Fair, who is a joker and punster of some repute. Anway, these clericals were about during the afternoon, and if anything—more active and industrious than on an average day.

The press, it may be remarked, while approving of the whole proceedings, ask why the fourth estate were not included.

THEATRICAL

"BEVERLY OF GRAUSTARK"

George Barr McCutcheon's well known composition, "Beverly of Graustark," was presented in a very acceptable manner at the Grand last night. The role of Beverly was enacted by Miss Margaret Shayne, and that of Prince Danton, the dethroned ruler of Dawsbergen, by Lawrence Evart. The leading characters were supported by a good company. The fun maker of the presentation was Miss Lillian A. Devere, as Aunt Fanny, negress servant to Beverly, who delighted the house with her very accurate rendering of the humorous parts of the play.

The play was favored with a good house, and the people, who were eager to see the dramatised popular story were well pleased with its reproduction last night.

Aviator Coffyn Badly Hurt.

New York, March 21.—Although first examinations indicated that he had been but slightly injured, physicians said last night that Frank Coffyn, the aviator, hurt yesterday in an automobile smash-up in Central Park, has sustained a possible fracture at the base of the skull. His condition is serious.

Mrs. Coffyn was permitted to see her husband for a short time late yesterday. She was told that, although her husband's condition is serious, he has a good chance for recovery, and that there is no immediate danger of the injuries resulting fatally.

Alladin and His Wonderful Lamp

To one accustomed to the phenomenal development of Western Canada, the stories of vast cities "born in a day" read like abstracts from the "Arabian Nights"; and one looks around almost expecting to see the "Genie" appearing in response to the summons of the "Magic Lamp."

Those familiar with the actual conditions, however recognize in this rapid expansion the opportunity of a lifetime, and are acting upon it, thereby ensuring to themselves immense profits in the near future.

DEATH FOLLOWED SHORT ILLNESS

The Late M. J. Stanley Seized With Cold on Saturday

The death occurred at 9 o'clock this morning of Mr. Matthew J. Stanley, at St. Joseph's Hospital. The circumstances accompanying the death of the young man who was only twenty-eight years of age are very pathetic.

Mr. Stanley's home was in Perth but he came to Peterborough two years ago. Since that time he has lived with the Misses Wesley, 310 Stewart street, and has been employed in the production department of the Canadian General Electric works. The young man was curling on Saturday night, when he is supposed to have taken a very bad cold, and was taken to St. Joseph's hospital. On Tuesday his condition was recognized to be serious and his father, Mr. M. Stanley of Perth was sent for. Mr. Stanley arrived in the city the same day and remained here with his son up to the time of his death. During the time he has been in the city, Mr. Stanley made a large number of friends, who will be sorry to learn of his death.

The remains will be taken to Perth to-night on the midnight train, for interment.

TEN HUSBANDS FOR ONE WOMAN

She Never Was Divorced and They All Are Living

Allentown, Pa., March 21. — Mrs. Jennie Schweyer, 27 years old, and good looking, the wife of an Allentown ice man, is in jail on a charge that she has married ten husbands and has not been divorced from any. Her first husband, Frank Miller, left her a widow at 18. Previous to her becoming the wife of Edward Schweyer, her present spouse, she had been married to John Gehris, of this city, but left him after a year. Her other husbands, she declares, were men of no account, and not worth mentioning. She says Schweyer's act in prosecuting her is a piece of spite work because she found it necessary some time ago to have him arrested for non-support. The seven other husbands, as far as Aldermen Bowyer and County Detective Bachman have been able to find out, were named Cowan, Meyers, Barber, Williams, Stephens, Henry Noll and Gottlieb Miller.

NEW CORSETS THAT MOULD THE FIGURE INTO PROPER LINES

Here's a Corset Display in which every woman is certain to be more than usually interested. The fashionable garments demand the graceful "straightline" figure—extremely narrow hips and a general absence of "angles." The corsetierre has anticipated these styles, and our Corsets are designed to mould any figure into the fashionable lines, without discomfort. Many new appliances make for greater comfort, hygiene and durability than Corsets have ever before possessed. Let us demonstrate how satisfactorily we can fit you in a new Corset. There's a model for every shape, and a size for every figure.

DAMAGES OF ONE CENT EACH

Stratford, March 20.—The Stratford Beacon to-day defended a joint libel action. Mr. P. Duval and Mrs. Jessie Etherington were the plaintiffs, and the libel consisted of a personal item in The Beacon on November 27, 1911, evidently sent in as a joke, to the effect that "Mr. and Mrs. Duval (nee Etherington) had returned from their wedding trip, and had taken up residence at 71 Moderwell street." Duval was a boarder at the Etherington house at the time. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiffs, but without damages. His Lordship fixed the damages at one cent for each plaintiff, costs to be paid by each party.

SOME HEN THIS

Laid Egg Containing Well Developed Chicken

Toronto, March 21.—A white leghorn hen, belonging to Percy McKenzie, a Mimico lad, is the stellar attraction of Toronto's western suburb to-day, for she has done something that no hen of either high or low degree is on record of having done before, when she presented her owner with an egg containing a fully developed chicken. The egg, when discovered in the nest, had a spherical cap over the larger end, and through the shell of this a dark point protruded. Examination proved the dark spot to be the beak of a fully developed, but lifeless chick. The freak egg is believed to be the result of the hen being egg-bound. She had not laid before, all winter, but has laid a curiously shaped and weakened shelled egg every day since.

that so many think it alright to win a game by any means, or by the most unfair conditions, on the ice, but the team that protests against this sort of thing are poor sports. The fact that Marmora won their protest is sufficient proof that they had good reason for making it.

At any rate, the hockey season is over for another year, and most of the married ladies are rejoicing. No more all-night trips for hubby. The local team have received loyal support from the citizens of the village and have well deserved it. In addition to bringing the championship to Marmora for the third year, they have acted in a most gentlemanly manner throughout the entire season.

Players who have been corralled by Manager Kane for the Brantford Canadian League Club are being ordered to report in Brantford, April 30. It is expected that twenty-four men will be given a trial behind the dyke, where grand stand accomodation is being greatly improved for the opening of the season. Practice games will be held every afternoon With the exception of a first baseman, the team is reported complete.

And the fans were actually talking of port flingers and slab artists who could also drive the pill, etc., with the usual baseball lingo. Some even suggested that the snow would all disappear in a week's time. To walk five or six blocks this morning was good for the trouble. The storm to-day would cool the mad brain of the hottest baseball fan. To think that to-day, March 21st, is the first day of spring. It would indeed pass beautifully for a January day. All that is necessary to make us believe that it is the beginning of another winter instead of the dying spasms of the old one is a little hockey talk. Just to think that there is just as good ice-boating on Toronto Bay today as at any time during the winter. There is eleven inches of ice. Wow!

Homestead Bill is Championed by Champ Clark

Tells of 100 Families Chartering Train for Alberta

Washington, March 21. — Champ Clark, the Speaker of the House, and contender for the Democratic Presidental nomination, who was severely criticized last Summer over his Canadian annexation utterances, relinquished his gavel long enough yesterday to take the floor in support of a Homestead Bill, intended to put a stop to the constantly increasing emigration from the United States to Canada.

The bill proposes to reduce the period a homesteader must live on his land from five to three years, and to allow him to absent himself from his holding for five months for each of the three years.

Speaker Clark went on to say that out of his county alone nearly 100 families chartered a train and pulled out for Alberta. There was not a man amongst them who was not fairly well-to-do. "Another man in my district sold his farm for $26,000, and his stock and other valuable assets ran the sum up to about $40,800. He moved to Manitoba, and entered, or purchased, 10,000 acres of that land up there. He gave to each of his eight children one thousand acres, keeping two thousand acres for himself. That is the kind of American citizens who are leaving this country and going to the British North-West. I am in favor of fixing it so that no American citizen will want to depart from the United States to secure a home in a foreign land."

Mr. Clark was warmly applauded. It is pretty certain that the bill will pass next week.

They're Busy at Home.

Paris, March 21.—Alluding to what it calls the nervousness of Germany over the speech on the British naval budget, delivered by Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, Le Temps declares that the great powers at the present moment are passing through a feverish stage and their internal difficulties are such that they have a common interest not to create fresh difficulties of an international character.

The newspaper expresses the opinion that Mr. Churchill said nothing which Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, had not already said three years ago, although Mr. Churchill adopted a sharp tone in saying it, which was very disagreeable to Germany.

Montreal Gets Jolt.

Quebec, March 21.—With scarcely any discussion the private bills committee of the legislative council yesterday morning ignored the 9,000 majority of Montreal citizens who expressed themselves in favor of the abolition of the property qualification of mayor and aldermen and struck out of the Montreal bill the clause providing for this.

Another clause struck out by the councillors, this being likewise one which had passed unanimously by the City Council of Montreal, was the provision to abolish the clause disfranchising electors for non-payment of water tax.

No Woman Suffrage In Massachusetts

Boston, March 21.—Woman suffrage and the election of U. S. Senators by direct vote were defeated in the Senate yesterday by close votes.

The Senate went on record against woman suffrage by a vote of 17 to 14, after a spirited debate. The galleries were crowded with women.

The resolution urging a Senatorial direct vote amendment was lost by a vote of 19 to 14.

Long Term For Bold Robber.

New York, March 21.—Geno Montani, the chauffeur who drove the taxicab in which two bank messengers were blackjacked and robbed of $20,000 in cash, and who was recently found guilty of highway robbery, was yesterday sentenced from ten years to eighteen years and two months in state's prison by Justice Seabury, in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court.

Vernon, B.C., March 21.—Several posses in the vicinity of Peachland are scouring the country for two desperadoes, who, after holding up a store at Bellevue, South Kelowana, were captured by Provincial Constable Ashton and shot the latter aboard the steamer Okanagan while being returned to face their crime.

In the state room, after overpowering their captor, the desperadoes muffled him in blankets and then shot him in the head. The desperadoes disembarked at Peachland.

Constable Ashton was taken to the Kelowana Hospital, where it is said he has no chance for recovery.

JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP CUP MUST BE SHIPPED TO LAKEFIELD

St. John's Seven Had One Goal Victory Over the Midgets.

St. John's of Lakefield, defeated Jack Thirnbeck's Midgets in the final game for the City Junior Championship last night at the Brock street rink and the Clarke-Graham trophy will journey to Cementville. The half time figures read 1—1, and at full time 3—2. The winning goal was scored just fifteen seconds before full time, by Pimmett on a lift from a scrimmage.

The game did not equal either of the Tuesday night contests. It was slow at all stages. The visitors had the weight on the Midgets and they used it to advantage. The ice was better than for the Tuesday night games but it did not seem to make the hockey any faster. There was very little combination on either side and as there are no individual phenoms wearing either co.o.s there was nothing sensational handed out.

The first goal was scored on the nicest piece of work of the night. It was on a Barrie-Callaghan-Carew combination stunt and Hill did not have much chance. Sabitino evened up soon after when he beat Dwyer on a shot from away out. There was nothing more doing in the scoring line until the next half.

Barrie turned the trick first in the second half and put the Midgets one goal to the good. It looked like the Midgets for the winners at this stage but the play was gradually forced into their territory again and Blewitt beat Dwyer for the easiest goal of the night and Pimmett got the last just before full time.

The line-ups were as follows;—

	MIDGETS.
	Dwyer
	Davidson
	Callaghan
	Halpin
Rose	Carew	Barrie
	O
Labelle	Pimmett	Blewitt
	Sabitino
	Cullen
	Nolan
	Hill

SPORTS AT Y. M. C. A.

In the Y.M.C.A. Gymnasium last night the annual senior athletic contest was run off, and as was the case in the Junior contest, records were hung up that will likely stand for some time to come. The most notable of which was Harold Hill running the 60 yard potato race in 14 4-5 seconds which equals the Canadian record for this event, and "Sandy" Hall's fence vault of 6ft2. Following are the results—

60 yard Potato race, H. Hill, 14 4-5 E. Hanwell, 15 2-5; W. Irvine, 16 sec Hill's time clips 3-5 of a second off last year's time.

High jump, S. Canniff tacked on 4" to the high jump record of last year winning the event with a jump of 5 feet. H. Hill was second with 4ft 9". S Hall, third, 4ft 8".

The standing Broad jump went to M. McCarrell with a jump of 9ft2 3-4 which is 8 1-4 inches better than last year's mark. S. Canniff was second with 8ft8". S. Hall and W. Irvine tied with 8ft 4 1-2.

The 12lb. shot put fell to H. Hill who boosted the pill 32ft11 1-2" adding 9 1-2 inches to his mark of last year. S Canniff with 32ft 9 1-2 was second, M. McCarrell third with 32ft 4".

Fence vault. Every competitor in the fence vault did as well or better than the mark of 5ft6" set last year, but "Sandy" Hall raised the record to where it will very likely remain for some little time, when he cleared the bar at 6ft2" M. McCarrell was second with 5ft10" H. Hill third, with 5ft 8"

The 220 yard potato race was a new event on the program this year taking the place of the old 440 yard run. This event fell to H. Hill who covered the distance in 1.02 4-5. S. Hall second, 1.05 4-5. W. Irvine third in 1.10.

H. Hill, 381 1-2; S. Hall, 348; M. McCarrell, 272; W. Irvine, 271; S Canniff, 270.

There should be a good crowd present on Saturday night to see what promises to be the best basketball game of the season on the "Y" floor when the fast Trinity College school team of the Big Four League meet the "Y" team. In the last game which was played at Port Hope, the local boys just managed to win out in the last minute of play, and the Port Hopers are coming up determined to win right here in Peterborough. The "Y" team will be — A. Hall and H. Hill, forwards; H. Wallis, centre; Hanwell and Throop defence. The game will be called at 7.45 sharp. The second game will be between two picked teams.

SPORT TALK

Marmora Herald—Judging by the report of the game in the Peterboro Review the reporter for that paper must either have lost fifteen cents on the game or been trying to gain favor with the Lakefield people by knocking Marmora.

Although the Lakefield people had only nine miles to come, there were only 25 or 30 of them present, but these did enough squealing after the game to make up for lack of numbers. They sneered about Marmora winning their games by protest, although Marmora have won more games on the ice than any other team in the league. It seems funny

"YOU WILL ALL BE GLAD"

Prefacing the letter was the glaring back inscription, saying: "You will all be glad." The writing, which rambled all over the paper, said in part: "Well Grandma — You think you are smart, but you have come to your tether's end. I curse the hour that you came into my house. You led me into debt for your carpet, $25 on your bedroom floor. You thought that you were a fine lady, but a miserable creature you are. You lied to me time after time with your slippery tongue, like your daughter and your granddaughter. I would not believe either you or her on your oath."

The illiterate scrawl at this point was almost undecipherable, but it seemed to infer that the woman had a grievance about the choice of a dress by "Grandma" which she did not appreciate. "When I want anything I want it by my own choice and not by yours" it went on. Then some very delicate domestic matters were touched upon. It continued; "When you read this you will recall that I have some feeling as well as you. I hope I shall be cold in death where you have all wished me many times

"All I ask is, never to let anybody look on my corpse. I will hound you by day and night, so that you had better be careful what you do and say. I mean every word I say and I will do it.

"I think ever since you came back from Lilydale you were not the same person. And if there is such a thing as God, let God's curse rest upon you in the hottest place in helt when you die. This is all." The letter was signed "Emily."

KEENE NEWS

Special Correspondence.

Keene, March 19.—Mr. Wallace Wood, of Toronto, is the guest of Mr. Wm. Campbell.

Miss Rose Doris, of Rochester, and Miss Katie, of Peterborough, are the guests of their father, Mr. Edward Doris.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wigmore and family, of Oxbow, have returned to their home after spending the winter with Mrs. Wigmore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Campbell.

Mr. Maynard Coward is wearing a broad smile. It is a five large boy.

Our village was thrown into a state of great excitement the other evening. It appears that about 11 p.m., a certain lady discovered that her adopted son was not in bed. She immediately notified Chief of Detectives "Pony" who started out to search for the missing boy. In the meantime, becoming excited, she obtained the services of a maiden lady and telling her of her troubles, they started out to search by the aid of a lantern. After deciding he was either drowned or else a victim to a cigarette, they were notified by the detective that he had been found peacefully enjoying a feast of sardines and crackers with some other boys. He was safely placed in bed and peace reigned once more.

ADDRESSES TO CHEESE AND BUTTER MAKERS

Annual Convention Held at City Council Chamber

Mr. J. R. Flood, of Ennismore, was re-elected President of the Cheese and Buttermakers of Peterborough County, when they met in convention in the Council Chamber yesterday afternoon. The other officers elected were:—Vice-Pres., Mr. J. J. Hogan, Jermyn; Sec.-Treas., Mr. Geo. E. Wilson, Douro; Ass't. Sec., Mr. Geo. W. Lane, Villiers.

Instructive addresses were given by Messrs. E. S. Hopkins, district representative from the Department of Agriculture, located at Norwood; G. A. Gillespie; R. W. Ward, District Dairy Instructor; G. G. Publow, Provincial Dairy Instructor and F. C. Ellis, of the Farm and Dairy.

There were a number of the cheese makers absent but those present added in enthusiasm what was lacking in numbers.

MR. R. W. WARD.

Mr. Ward, the first speaker, reviewed the experiences of the past season, which was a bad one from a maker's standpoint. He said that experience was a good teacher but sometimes it was very expensive. The loss in this section last season was great but it was because a number of the makers did not have a proper place to keep their cheese. The first thing to consider at the opening of the season's work, was whether the factories were clean and sanitary. If not, they should be overhauled at the beginning.

Mr. Ward said that if he were on this section another year he would co-operate with the milk producers for the purpose of improving the standard of the milk. There were certain fine lines to adhere to in connection with making cheese and handling milk.

RELATED TO AGRICULTURE

Mr. E. S. Hopkins gave a brief talk on the branches of agriculture in which he was interested. He spoke on the importance of tile drainage and its relation with the other branches of agricultural improvements to the interests of the dairymen.

The speaker also referred to exhibition orchards. Being in charge of a branch office of the Department of Agriculture at Norwood, he wished to place his work before the farmers.

In addition to these subjects the matter of reforestry was discussed by the speaker as well as to the short courses in regard to stock judging. The Field Crop Competition was under the auspices of the Department of Agriculture.

MR. GILLESPIE

Mr. G. A. Gillespie also referred to the off season of 1911. He saw most of the Peterboro cheese and most of the cuts last season. The loss in the cuts would have gone a long way towards building cool curing rooms.

The makers did their part well though there was hardly the enthusiasm towards the end of the season that there was the year before. He believed there was a necessity for more enthusiasm amongst the patrons and the cheesemakers were the men to stir it up.

Mr. Ellis of the Farm & Dairy said he had written twelve cheese firms in England regarding Ontario cheese. They all said "the make is good, but you need more curing rooms." Mr. Ellis said we had not curing rooms everywhere in Peterboro county but we were better off than in many other places.

CHIEF INSTRUCTOR

Mr. G. G. Publow, Chief Dairy Instructor for Ontario, was the principal speaker of the afternoon. He was sorry to hear about the slump last season. He had visited the Old Country last season to study the cheese question. He was pleased to say that the department had been working along the proper lines and it was up to the people to continue the good work.

Mr. Publow had seen cheese from all over Ontario. Many of those from Peterboro district were open in texture and in several instances the fat was running out of the boxes. The responsibility of that condition could not be placed upon the makers but he thought that many of the makers, realizing what they were up against, made the cheese accordingly and they were too lean and dry.

The average number of pounds of milk necessary to make a pound of cheese in the Peterboro group last year was higher than that of any of the twenty-four groups. The heavy salting of the curds made the cost of production greater also.

Mr. Publow emphasized the importance of tendence. The best cheese brought the highest price.

There must be sanitary conditions on the farmer's side also. The milk should be kept cool.

The cheesemakers could interest and instruct the patrons in cooling by having a cooling apparatus on exhibition at the factory.

HEART DISEASE CURED

Kingston Girl Saved by "Fruit-a-tives"

Heart Weakness and Heart Irritation are the common outgrowth of Indigestion. Gas is formed in the stomach and this accumulation of gas bulges out the walls of the stomach and presses against the heart. Palpitation, pain over the heart, and sometimes a feeling of smothering and dizziness, all are caused by the stomach and not because of any organic heart disease.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure this weak, irritated condition of the heart by curing the stomach.

91 CLERGY ST., KINGSTON, ONT.

"I suffered for some years with a dangerous form of Heart Trouble. My heart beat violently, and I had pain over the heart and down the arms. I also suffered with Constipation and Indigestion. I was treated by physicians and took many remedies, but nothing did me any good. Then I began taking "Fruit-a-tives", and this medicine completely cured me of all the heart trouble, constipation and indigestion, and gave me back perfect health." (Miss) MABLE TODD.

RUSSIAN COURT SENDS CATHOLIC BISHOP TO PRISON

Had Nullified Marriage of Peasant Minors Performed by Excommunicated Priest

Warsaw, Poland, March 20.—Russia's present attitude to the Church of Rome reached a climax recently when Casimir Ruszkiewicz, Bishop of Warsaw, President of the Consistory Court, and Father Anthony Ciepinski, member of the same court were sentenced to one year and four months imprisonment. This is the first time that the Russian government has tried servants of the Pope in a common criminal court, though many Polish Bishops have been exiled and imprisoned by "administrative means" for political reasons. The case of Bishop Ruszkiewicz is very complicated and characteristic. Here are the bare facts—

Some years ago there arose in Poland a sect of persons called Maryawites, with a clairvoyant woman named Kozloska, at their head. The Pope excommunicated them, and the Russian government being antagonistic to Rome, took them under its protection, imprisoning and fining all Roman priests who criticized their actions or tried to persuade their flocks that they were going against Rome's teachings.

In 1903 a peasant, Joseph Senkaiski, fell in love with his cousin, Salome Kendierska. Both were minors. Salome's parents were against the match, and their relationship demanded a special dispensation from Rome in any case. Their parish priest therefore refused to marry them. So Joseph eloped with Salome, shut her up in a cottage far from her parents and asked a Maryawite minister to marry them. He did so after writing out a dispensation for them. The "marriage" was performed by him at two o'clock in the morning at a Maryawhite chapel, behind locked doors and with only the caretaker as witness. No certificate or registration was made out.

The girl's parents eventually managed to get her home again, and, looking on this marriage performed by an excommunicated priest as a Gretna Green affair, put it before Bishop Ruszkiewicz and the consistory. The Consistory declared that since both principals were Catholic, and therefore subject to the authority of Rome, their marriage, performed by an excommunicated priest when they were minors, without parents' consent and without Papal dispensation, was null. The brief setting forth of the whole case was, according to custom, drawn up in Polish. Joseph finding himself free married another girl. Salome wedded a rich peasant.

The Maryawites denounced the Bishop to the Russian authorities, who brought him and Father Anthony up for trial. The Bishop pleaded that he was but doing his duty in declaring such a marriage, performed under such circumstances, as null and void, and that the briefs of the Consistory Court had been written in Polish instead of Latin, since the Pope had allowed it by a Bull. The Russian court refused to allow the defence, declaring that a Bishop of Rome had no right to try such a marriage case, and no right to use any but the Russian language. The Bishop who is seventy-two and ill, was allowed to return home, pending appeal, after signing a declaration that he will not leave Warsaw. Father Anthony was allowed bail of 1,000 roubles.

Salome and Joseph are in an awkward position. Though they do not want each other, the Russian Court declares them still married. They cannot find out if they are bigamists or not, nor whether their children are legalized or not.

THEIR WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

60th Anniversary Celebration By Mr. and Mrs. Jason Williamson

It is quite an unusual thing for husband and wife to see the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding day. But this very special and interesting circumstance is just what occurred in Pontypool on the 11th inst., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jason O. Williamson. In the enjoyment of singular health and vigor, surrounded by children and grand-children and friends, the venerable couple recalled the marriage occasion of sixty years ago. Although residents of Pontypool for a number of years, both Mr. and Mrs. Williamson are natives of the township of Cavan, Durham county. Mr. Williamson was born near Millbrook, on the sixth concession of Cavan, in April, 1829. And Mrs. Williamson, whose maiden name was Mary Ann Syer, was born on the eighth concession of the same municipality, in May, 1832. Their marriage was solemnized in Peterborough in 1852, the clergyman officiating being the Rev. I. B. Howard. The then youthful couple at one entered upon the calling of the farm. The husband knew well what it meant to chop in the forest, and reap with the sickle, and swing the cradle, in those early days when the best threshing machine was the flail. While all the duties and cares of mothering a large family of sons and daughters, with all the labors incidental to the domestic life of these early times, were borne with maternal care and tenderness by Mrs. Williamson.

The battle of life has resulted in many triumphs. After years of patient industry and toil, the venerable couple were enabled to retire from active business, and to enjoy, as they do at present, the reward of their provident and untiring industry. Their immediate family consisted of four sons and six daughters, all but one reaching the years of adulthood. As a further result there are now living twenty-five grandchildren and great-grandchildren, all bidding fair to take their place and do their share of this worlds' duties.

All these generations were represented on the present occasion, the nearest relatives being: Mr. E. Williamson, son, and grandson, Francis, of Lindsay; Mr. George E. and Mrs. Williamson and Lloyd, son and grandson, of Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Carrol and Marwood, of Smith, daughter and grandson; Mr. Jane, Mrs. McKiver, of Smith, and grandsons, Harold, Wilson and Ross; Mr. Thos. Cully, son-in-law, of Lindsay, and Mr. Wilbert Cully, grandson and wife, and Eveline, great-grand-daughter, of Bailieboro, Cavan. The circle of grand and great grand-children is as yet unbroken by death. All the friends were assembled at high noon, and after tendering their congratulations to the bride and groom of sixty years ago, sat down to a sumptuous dinner. This was followed by the reading of many letters and messages of congratulation from members of the family and friends too far away to be personally present. A brief address then followed by the Rev. Matthew E. Wilson, M.A., expressing congratulations on behalf of the congregation of which Mr. and Mrs. Williamson are members, Mr. McCarrol representing the family, also made an address. The venerable couple were then photographed by Mr. E. Williamson, of Lindsay, and afterward the company present. All were greatly interested and entertained in listening to the striking incidents of Cavan-blazer days and early pioneer life, so vividly remembered and well related by the aged and venerable father Williamson. The most enjoyable and memorable occasion was concluded around the tea table, after which the company dispersed, all rejoicing with the old folk, who seem to be so cheerful and happy in the golden sunset of their days.

Contracts Will be Forwarded to Eastern Municipalities

Hon. Adam Beck Announces Plans of Hydro-Electric

Toronto, March 21.—Final arrangements are to be completed between the federal government and the hydro-electric commission with regard to the water powers to be leased in the eastern part of the province. The organization is now completed to such an extent that Hon. Adam Beck expects to go to Ottawa next week and put on the finishing touches.

"We are now in a position to say," stated Mr. Beck last night, "that contracts will be forwarded to Kington and Prescott next week, while a preliminary contract will be bubmitted to the town of Brockville, with the view of enabling the municipality to vote on a by-law authorizing the bouncil to make a contract with the commission. If these contracts are executed without delay, the commission will be able to begin construction of the line from Morrisburg to Kingston and from Morrisburg to Brockville, the latter as soon as Cornwall comes to a conclusion regarding a contract with the commission. Negotiations are now pending with that end in view. If this is done we expect by the autumn to be able to supply these municipalities with power."

The situation with regard to Chat's Falls, Mr. Beck explained, was that after the plans and specifications had been filed in Carleton County, the commission had decided to serve notice on the owners of the property, advising them of expropriation proceedings and giving a description of the property required. It was then up to the owners to go on with the arbitration if they wanted it.

The commission expects to have another order for a large block of power in western Ontario. Mr. Beck stated that contracts would be closed in a few days for the sale of 1600 h.p. for consumers not far from Niagara district.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Review does not hold itself responsible for opinions expressed by its correspondents

To The Editor of The Review.

Sir—Would you be so kind as to allow me a small space in your valuable paper, to say that I for myself have been very badly disappointed at Mr. Miller's resignation as Indian Agent of the two reserves Chemong and Rice Lake. It was so convenient for both reserves as we could see him at most any time, when we are in the city, but to have the agent at Keene, we only see him once in every six months.

And another thing, that was so very satisfactory to have the agent in Peterboro, that we could take our letters to him and he would forward them at once without delay, and in a few days we would get an answer. Now, if we mailed our letters here, Curve Lake, they would have to go through Selwyn, Lakefield, and Peterboro before they reached Keene.

You know that we have to write our letters through the agent, and if he approves of the letter, he signs it and fowards it on to the Indian Department at Ottawa, and it would take nearly two weeks before we get our answer, etc., etc.

Yours truly,

New Bridges

Good progress is being made by the Grand Trunk with its bridge crossing the Lachine canal at Wellington street, Montreal, which, while of the same type as the present structure, will be much stronger and of better finish.

Two other bridges of considerable size now in the course of construction by the Grand Trunk are situated at Portland, Me., and at Bay City, Mich., respectively. The first crosses the entrance to the harbor of the company's Atlantic terminals and will replace the present structure. It is a 225 foot draw-bridge with concrete piers. The contracts have just been let for extending the G.T.R. tracks from the west to the east side of the river at Bay City, which is a busy little Lake Huron port. Hitherto the railway has not been in the most strategic position there and this new extension into the business heart of the town will enable it to tap very largely increased sources of freight and passenger traffic there. The plans call for two draw spans of 250 feet each and five fixed spans of 150 feet each, with concrete piers.

WOUNDED WOMAN REFUSES TO TELL WHO SHOT HER

Is Accused of Shooting in Fit of Jealousy

Montreal, March 21.—Refusing to tell who had shot her, and pleading that no one should be punished for the deed now that it was done, Marie Tremblay Yacaloff, propped up in her cot at the Notre Dame Hospital yesterday morning, with a bullet in her groin, stoically refused to tell the court assembled there who was responsible for the attempt which may end her life.

Silvio Yacaloff, a debonair Russian youth, who sat through the hearing in his shirt sleeves, a cigarette balanced behind his left ear, is held by the police on a charge of attempted murder, following the shooting, which is believed to have arisen through jealousy. He pleaded not guilty and enquete is fixed for March 26.

Accompanied by court stenographer Joseph Royer, Judge Lanctot this morning went to the hospital ward, where the wounded woman was hurried last night, and the young woman, propped up to better hear the questions put up to her, answered without effort of pain.

IDENTIFIED YACALOFF.

"Do you know this man?" asked Judge Lanctot, pointing to Yacaloff.

"Yes. He is my brother-in-law."

"Some one has shot you. Can you name the person?"

"I should be able to," replied the woman, "but I don't want to."

"What reason have you for saying that?"

"It is not necessary that any person should be punished for nothing, now that the deed is done," replied the woman.

"I know nothing," she maintained admitting, however, that the man held by the police had been in the house with her yesterday afternoon. She told of hearing a revolver shot, and felt the wound. There had been no serious quarrel in the house, just a little misunderstanding.

"I did not see the person who wounded me," she declared. "When Silvio came over to me there was nothing in his hands. He had no revolver."

She stated that a priest had visited her yesterday and she was telling the truth.

SHOOTING IN SHACK.

The injured woman was taken to the hospital last evening from the house where she and some of her husband's relations lived, a little shack numbered 190 City Hall Ave., but which is really on a back lane off City Hall Ave., just below Dorchester. Yacaloff and the injured woman were in a room together at the time, with no third party present. There were sounds of voices raised in altercation, and the shot quickly followed. Bursting into the room, a young man named Gadbout, apparently the only person in the house who did not loose his nerve, found Yacaloff and the woman on the sofa. The woman was shrieking with pain and the young Russian held a smoking revolver in his hands, so Gadbout says. He grappled with Yacaloff and succeeded only after a desperate struggle in getting the revolver away from him.

Yacaloff is well known to the police, having served a reformatory term in his younger days and recently a term for burglary at St. Vincent de Paul. He is only twenty-three years of age, and since he was released from penitentiary, three months ago, appears to have made an endeavor to keep straight, having been working steadily with his brother.

It is understood that Yacaloff and his sister-in-law had been living together of late, and that the quarrel which terminated in the tragedy yesterday, orginated in jealousy over a third man.

Bloodstains found on the sleeve and chest of the coat Yacaloff was wearing at the time of his arrest are believed by the police to have a connection with the tragedy. Yacaloff, however, states that they are the result of a bleeding nose.

LESSON No. 3 | From J. W. BROWETT Optometrist

My talk to you this week is very important. if you are a sufferer from headaches caused by straining the eyes. It is very important to you, of course, that you should use your eyes, but nature never intended that you should abuse them. We know that headaches come from straining the normal eye or from using imperfect eyes or, in other words, eyes which do not focus. My experience leads me to believe that all strained eyes can be relieved by properly fitted glasses. When this strain is relieved the headaches disappear. Now reason a little: If you are a sufferer from headaches and you suspect that the cause is strained vision then my argument must appeal to your case. My experience, gained during the past twenty years is valuable to you. Try the remedy of glasses as we fit them, and you will not be disappointed

MOVEMENT FOR REJECTION OF MINIMUM WAGE BILL DEFEATED BY LARGE MAJORITY

Rt. Hon. A. J. Balfour Moves Rejection of the Relief Measure and Indicates That Tories Only Wish to Wash Their Hands of Responsibility For the Serious Step That Is Being Taken.

London March 22.—Arthur J. Balfour's motion for the rejection of the minimum wage bill was defeated, and the Government bill passed its second reading in the House of Commons last night by a majority of 123—a larger majority than the Ministerialists themselves had hoped for. The vote stood 348 to 225. The Laborites and Nationalists voted with the Government.

The Prime Minister formally moved the second reading of the bill and then immediately yielded the floor to Mr. Balfour, who, in moving its rejection, temporarily assumed the leadership of the Opposition. The debate on the bill was interesting in character and served to dissipate much alarm which was created by the announcement Wednesday night that the Unionists intended to oppose the passage of the measure. It is now evident that the Conservative leaders had no idea of upsetting the Government, but that they merely desired to wash their hands of responsibility for the bill, and had no wish to assume office themselves.

Mr. Balfour pointed out the gravity of the crisis, which had been brought about "by a single organization, acting within its legal powers, threatening to paralyze the whole trade of the country." He declared that the Government, in endeavoring to pass this bill was deceiving both itself and the House of Commons.

He complained that the Government had sanctioned the tearing up of existing agreements without a word of protest, and declared that there was no justification for attempting to force "this colossal revolution" through the House of Commons in less than a week.

Mr. Balfour concluded by saying that even assuming that the Government were defeated there could not be a dissolution, as it was impossible to add the confusion of a general election to the horror of the strike.

He intimated that although the Unionists intended to test the opinion of the House regarding the methods of the Government, they would after that do their best to see that the policy of the Government had its chance.

Premier Asquith, who followed Mr. Balfour, claimed that the Government held an absolutely even balance between the disputants. The Government had tried by every form of persuasion and argument to negotiate to bring the parties to an agreement, but had failed, and it could not allow the population and industries of the country to starve.

The Government, the Prime Minister said, believed that the bill was a necessary preliminary to any further steps "which, God forbid, should be necessary."

The debate showed that the Labor leaders were in a more reasonable mood. Although they tabled a number of amendments, one, for the inclusion of their schedule of minimum wages, it is believed that they now will be satisfied with, and that the Government will be willing to concede, the inclusion of the five shilling and two shilling minimum. Altogether the tension has been greatly relaxed and although the debate may be carried into next week, it would not be surprising if the Government's original program was carried out and the bill become a law by Saturday. The Conservatives are not likely to take any official action in the committee stage, which will be concerned for the most part with the Labor amendments.

During the course of yesterday's debate Austen Chamberlain confessed that the Opposition was not anxious to take office, but that it would not shirk the responsibiliy if called to office. The bill, he said, stood for a policy of surrender and would engender similar demands from other trades.

Toronto, March 22—Last night, at one of the biggest meetings the Amalgamated Carpenters' Union was held, it was unanimously decided that the union should "stick" for a minimum wage of forty cents an hour or strike.

LAST BUT ONE OF FATHERS OF CONFEDERATION IS GONE

Senator Macdonald Passes Away After Short Illness—Tupper Alone Remains.

Ottawa, March 22.—Hon. Andrew A. Macdonald, Conservative Senator from Prince Edward Island, died here yesterday at the age of 83 years. He was ill only about a week and very few knew of his condition.

Born at Three Rivers, P.E.I., in 1829, he entered politics in 1853, in the Provincial Legislature, and Lieutenant-Governor of the province from 1884 to 1891, when he was elevated to the Senate.

The death of Senator Macdonald leaves Sir Charles Tupper the sole survivor of the fathers of Confederation. He was the one man in Canada who sat at the memorable conference at Quebec in 1867 and at the Charlottetown conference two months later. He took the only notes of the latter conference that were taken.

Until the last he was possessed of a wonderful memory and could clearly recall the events leading up to Confederation. He was an "Islander" born, was a storekeeper in the dim and distant past, and built many of the trading ships that did business along the eastern coasts in the days gone by. Away back in 1853 he was making laws for Prince Edward Island in the Island Assembly, and was at one time Postmaster-General of Prince Edward Island.

Senator Macdonald remembered well the commercial struggles of the little Province of Prince Edward Island prior to Confederation, and no man knew better than he how great at one time was the danger of secession. As a business man he appreciated the powerful commercial influences which were being exerted in the direction of annexation.

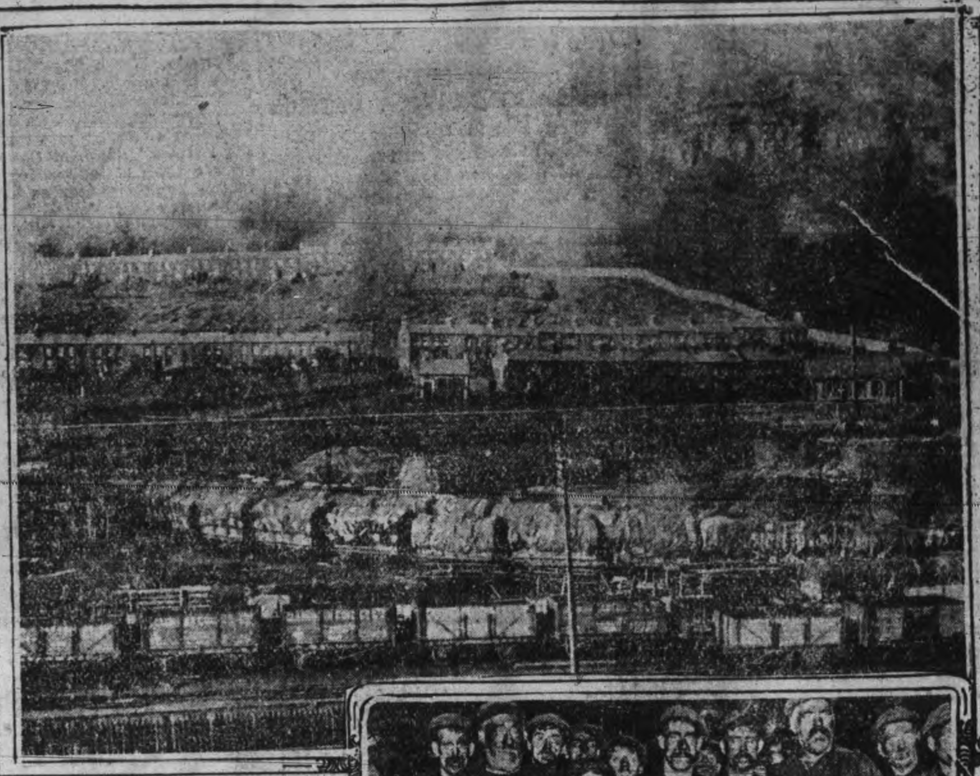
BRITISH COAL STRIKE CAUSES DISTRESS AMONG THE POOR PEOPLE



TYPICAL COLLIERS COTTAGES NEAR CAMBRIAN MINES, SOUTH WALES.

MEN AT BOTTOM OF ENGLISH COAL MINE WAITING TO ASCEND.

The coal strike in the British Isles has caused keen distress among the poor people. Prices of food have gone up so high that hundreds are starving. Besides the miners, thousands of men and women have been thrown out of work as a result of the strike.

The trouble of the miners is spreading throughout Europe. In Germany 250,000 men have quit work, while in France 100,000 men are now out on strike. The British government has been trying to bring the miners and the coal owners together, but has not yet succeeded. It is thought probable that a minimum wage bill of miners will have to be introduced in the House of Commons.

ASQUITH CLOSES DOOR TO SETTLEMENT

Special to the Review

London, March 22—Premier Asquith in the house this afternoon refused to accept the miners' amendment to the Minimum Wage Bill providing a minimum of five and two shillings as the daily wage for men and boys respectively. Enoch Edwards, M.P. and President of the Miners' Federation, immediately announced that the Premier's rejection of the miners' amendment closed the door to the immediate settlement of the strike.

FIVE MILES ADDED TO SPEED LIMIT OF AUTOMOBILES

Fifteen Miles an Hour In the City and Twenty In the Country Is the New Rule According to Amendment In the Legislature—Must Not Pass Cars Taking Passengers — Health Act Meets Little Criticism.

Toronto, March 22.—By an amendment to the Motor Vehicle Act in the Legislature yesterday, motorists may now travel a maximum rate of fifteen miles an hour on city streets, and twenty miles in the country. The old speed regulations, which have caused an outburst of indignation among motor car owners, called for a maximum rate of ten miles in the city and fifteen in the country. Hon. W. J. Hanna, Provincial Secretary, was the mover of the amendment to the bill, which received its second reading.

Clearly indicating that foot passengers had the right of way in the matter of boarding and alighting from street cars, another amendment to the bill was given smooth passage cancelling the old law that motorists may travel four miles a hour past a stationary street car and substituting therefor, that motor car must come to a complete standstill and wait until all passengers have boarded a street car and all those alighting have reached the curb.

George H. Gooderham, being an authority on the subject, spoke often on the proposed legislation. He wanted the sounding of horns during the night hours prohibited, but Mr. Hanna said that this was covered by the public nuisance legislation. Owing to the objections of the South Toronto member, hereafter it will be unnecessary for motorists to paint numbers on the front lamps. It was considered that numbers in such a position served no good purpose and a clearly decipherable number in the rear was all that was essential in the eyes of the law.

Mr. Hanna declared that the former speed regulations were not satisfactory and there was no reason why motorists should not be allowed a little more freedom. In desiring to have a machine travel at a maximum of ten miles in a city, it meant many violations of the law. The fifteen-mile rate would enable motorists to obey the law. "Let us have a law that is practicable," said the Provincial Secretary.

Mr. Gooderham succeeded in having the minimum age of drivers changed from 17 to 18 years.

The Speaker's decision on the point raised by Mr. Rowell on Wednesday in the Liberal leader's tiff with the Premier as to whether private bills should be given preference over Government orders on members' day, was to the effect that Mr. Rowell was right in his contention. However, so was the Premier, who opposed the leader of the Opposition. Said the Speaker when the Legislature opened:

"The Government through the leader of the House has the right to control the order in which Government business shall be taken up, and in practice, since I have been in the Legislature, and as I am informed for many years previous to my entering upon public life, the leader of the House has been practically allowed to control the other business to the extent at least of suggesting when other business should be taken up."

So carefully prepared was Hon. Mr. Hanna's bill respecting the public health that very little criticism was made of it. Both sides of the House seemed to appreciate that the legislation proposed by the Provincial Secretary was too progressive to be even modified. The bill, among other things, makes provision for the division of the province into a number of districts to be under the jurisdiction of district inspectors acting under the Provincial Board of Health.

Hon. Dr. Pyne, Minister of Education, introduced a bill to create an Ontario College of Art. His bill provides for the organization of a board which will have control of the college, with power to hold real estate, appoint teachers, and outline courses of study in fine and applied arts. The board will be made up of representatives of the Ontario Art Museum, the Ontario Society of Artists, the Canadian Art Club, the University Senate, the Graphic Arts Club, Toronto Architects Society, the Ontario Society of Artists, the Applied Arts Society, the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, Trades and Labor Council, and the City Council.

CITY WOULD EXPROPRIATE PLANT OF LOCAL POWER CO.

The committee composed of Mayor Bradburn and Aldermen Anderson, Brown, Duncan, Duffus and Gordon returned last evening from Toronto, where they presented the city's power proposition to the Power committee of the Ontario Legislature. The visit of the committee was fairly satisfactory, but the matter was left to stand until Tuesday, March 26th.

After the reading of the city's bill by E. A. Peck, M.P.P., Mayor Bradburn acted as spokesman for the local deputation, and after briefly reviewing what the city had done in the past to secure more power, requested permission from the Committee to go ahead with the proposal to expropriate the power of the Peterborough Light and Power Company. Before this is done it will be necessary, of course, to take a vote of the property owners of the city. Some of the members of the Committee at first seemed disposed to look upon the city's request as a little exorbitant, but on the whole the deputation were given to understand that their wishes would be acceded to and they would be given what they asked.

This proposition is apart from the question of Hydro-Electric power for Peterborough as regarding the vote favoring the by-law.

The big say in the matter after next Tuesday will rest with the people.

GRAHAM RUSHES TO DEFEND HIS G. T. P. OPERATIONS

Road Will Not Cost Over $106,000 a Mile and Will Be the Best on the Continent, He Declares, But Hon. Mr. Cochrane Tells Him That Increased Estimate Is From His Own Engineers—Senate Amends Bill.

Ottawa, March 22.—The National transcontinental railways evidently sits heavy on the conscience of Hon. Geo. P. Graham. Last evening he again thought it necessary, when the item of $25,000,000 for surveys and construction was up in committe of supply, to rush to the defence of his late department, casting his remarks into the form of an attack on the figures of Hon. Frank Cochrane in connection with the road, which, he asserted, would not cost over $106,000 a mile, and would be the best on the continent.

Hon. Frank Cochrane showed that his figures had been based on the reports of officials of the road, appointed by the late Government.

On the motion to go into supply, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux complained to the Minister of Trade and Commerce that the time was not propitious for the abolition of the Canadian commercial agency in Paris, as he had gathered from the remarks of the Minister some days ago would be done.

Hon. George E. Foster assured Mr. Lemieux that there was no intention of abolishing the commercial agency in Paris, but only of making it more efficient.

When the House went into supply, Hon. George P. Graham protested against the recent statement of the Minister of Railways as to the cost of the National Transcontinental which he characterized as misleading. There was no justification, he argued, for the insertion of an item of over $7,000,000 for betterments. As the lease of the road had fifty years to run, the Government would be as much justified in adding the cost of betterments and improvements required because of increased traffic during that whole period as to charge up improvements for the seven years.

With interest added, he said, that item amounted to $46,000,000, which should not be charged to the cost of the road, which, he declared, would not cost over $106,000 a mile as against $130,000 to $143,000, the contention of the Minister of Railways.

The N.T.R. he said, would be the cheapest road on the continent, even if it cost $100,000 a mile, because of the superior methods of construction. The low grades obtained would materially reduce operating expenses, and as a result of this, freight charges. Both Maj. Leonard and Mr. MacPherson had stated that an engine could haul double the load over any other road. This would mean reducing carrying charges one-third.

In reply, Hon. Frank Cochrane said that his statement presented to the House, to which Mr. Graham took exception, had been prepared by engineers appointed by the late Government. These figures showed conclusively that the construction had been no better than was estimated for by the late administration when they figured the cost at $53,000,000.

HYPNOTISM AS AID TO SURGERY

Patient Made to Sing Song During His Operation

Canton, Ohio, March 22.—Probably for the first time in the history of surgery, a man was operated on here while under the influence of a hypnotist The patient was John Lyons, forty-five years old, and he was operated on for an abdominal complaint at the Engleside Hospital by Drs. F. D. and A. C. Brant and T. C. Siffert. Mr. Lyons was put under the influence of hypnotism by F. Q. Loutzenheiser, who recently hypnotized several persons by telephone while he was in Cleveland, and his subjects were in Canton.

Mr. Lyons was under his influence about forty minutes and the operation took about twenty minutes. While being operated on the patient was made to sing a song. Mr. Loutzenheiser was so overcome by his work that he fainted.

UNION LABEL

HAS STOOD THE TEST

Probably no other Premier of Canada has taken that proud position at Ottawa, and made good in such short time as has the Right Honorable Robert Laird Borden. This must be admitted now that big questions have arisen and have been manfully faced and brought to an issue in the Commons. (The Hamilton Herald (Independent) gives Premier Borden the credit of being a leader with backbone, and has the following to say:

This session the premiers' courage and will-power have been severely tested by two ordeals, and have not been found wanting. It was freely predicted that the Borden Government would soon prove to be the servant of the Quebec Nationalists—that Henri Bourassa would be the real master of the administration and would dictate its policies in more than one important question. Well, the Nationalist leader and his lieutenants worked hard to induce or force the government into the policy of compelling Manitoba to establish a Separate school system in the territory about to be added to that province; but the premier set his face steadfastly against that policy; he insisted that Manitoba shall be free to manage its educational affairs in its own way; and he carried not only the majority of the Nationalists with him, but a majority of the Liberals also. Mr. Bourassa is now turning his guns on the premier and proposes to enter parliament as an opponent of the government.

It was confidently predicted that the Borden Government would prove to be meekly subservient to the "Big Interests." Well, the test was applied in the matter of the renewal of the iron and steel bounties. One of the biggest of the big interests pressed strenuously for this favor. The official heads of all the iron and steel concerns in the country assembled at Ottawa and camped on the trail of the premier and organized a powerful lobby to influence the opinions of government supporters. It was believed that they had won their case; announcements to that effect were published. But finally the premier's opinion prevailed. He was opposed to the renewal of the bounties before any official investigation had been made of the iron and steel industry, and therefore before it could be officially known that the industry is in need of the favor. The bounties are not to be renewed at this session.

The evidence is that behind Mr. Borden's suavity and affability there is a will-power which can assert itself upon occasion, and there is a moral courage which does not falter when it is advisable to take decisive action at a critical period.

MILITARY SERVICE CRITICS

There was in the House of Commons on Tuesday a rather more animated discussion than is usual when the militia service estimates are to the front. It has been the custom of the members to take what is put before them in this connection with little or no criticism, some because they did not know anything about the force, and some because they were personally interested in it. As a consequence the steady increase in the cost has been accepted with little protest or explanation. From an outlay of from two to three millions a year, there has been growth till now between eight and nine millions a year are called for, the figure for 1912-13, without supplementaries, being $8,334,000. There are various causes for such a state of affairs. The government, for one thing, has taken over the charge of maintaining a garrison at Halifax which adds largely to the outlay and brings the cost of the permanent force up to $2,000,000 a year, nearly one-fourth of the whole. Then arms and amunitions are most expensive as well as more complicated than in the days of the Enfield and Snider, and muzzle-loading field guns. It has also been learned that an efficient military force needs many departments, beside horse, foot and artillery; and they all cost money. There could be an interesting and profitable hour's discussion on the topics thus suggested that would be useful to the service and to the country. It will, however, hardly be brought about by the present parliamentary critics. Men who, in discussing the sixth most costly department of the administration worry over the dismissal of a political drill shed caretaker or the conduct of the manufacturer of an automobile bought for the department, might as well hold their peace, so far as the country is concerned, while for themselves they only show they do not understand their duty as parliamentarians. —Montreal Gazette.

Forty Miners Killed.

Fort Smith, Ark., March 21.—Forty miners are known to have been killed as the result of an explosion in mine No. 2 of the San Bois Coal Co. at McCurtain, Okla., thirty-seven miles west of here, yesterday and hope that forty-seven others entombed in the mine are alive has been practically abandoned. Thirteen of the miners escaped shortly after the explosion occurred. Several of these, however, are so badly injured that it is believed they will die.

Whether gas or coal dust caused the explosion has not been determined.

Government experts expressed the opinion last night that all of the men imprisoned are dead, and seventy-five coffins were ordered.

EX-BANKER MAY CONSULT LAWYER

Before Being Called to Give His Evidence

Toronto, March 22.—"Why do you wish to see Mr. Dewart before you give your evidence, Mr. Travers?" This question, asked by a reporter at yesterday's enquiry into the affairs of the Farmers' Bank, at Osgoode Hall, drew a flash of indignation from the former bank manager as he arose to put on his coat. "Is it fair to jump me into this hearing without hardly knowing what it is about?" he demanded. "I have not had a scrap of paper to read since I went to prison; I have not been told a thing about how the case had been settled, and I never even knew that a royal commission had been appointed. I have not been given a chance to consult my solicitors. I would like to have told the commissioner why I did not want to testify, and I am sure he would have understood. I only succeeded in seeing Mr. Dewart for ten minutes and he told me that he wanted to have a two-hour talk before I went on the stand."

When Chief Justice Meredith heard that Travers did not want to testify until he had consulted Mr. Dewart, he said: "If Mr. Travers does not want to testify I don't want to press him."

After several minutes' consultation with Commissioner Sir William Meredith, Frank Hodgins, K.C., informed the bank manager that he would not be called until next Wednesday, and in the meantime the crown counsel will prepare for the taking of Travers' evidence.

CANNOT GET HEARING.

Eaton Cloak-Makers Give Up All Hope of Arbitration.

Toronto, March 22.—At a mass meeting called by the auxiliary of seven Toronto trades unions last night in St. Leger's Hall, Miss Gertrude Barnum declared that she had given up all hope of bringing about a conference between the T. Eaton Co. and their locked-out cloak makers. She urged her hearers to transfer their patronage until the firm should agree to arbitrate the dispute and also to organize the different neighborhoods in which they lived so that all the consumers would boycott the Eaton company.

It was not surprising, said she, that after all these weeks of fruitless efforts to get a conciliatory conference, acts of violence have and should break out. To her mind the employers and the public are responsible for the violence.

Thirty-seven days had passed while the well-disciplined body of a thousand faithful employes have waited without disorder. "I am sure," she continued, "that anyone should feel, as I feel, how shameful it is that the first breach of order, on the part of some hot-headed sympathizers of the strike, should be head-lined on the front page of a newspaper, when the press of the entire city has failed to head-line the company's refusal to grant a peaceful method of settling the issue.

"The slugging of 1,000 helpless working people by cold and hunger for five weeks with no comment from the press, pulpit or platform, yet the impatient act of some hot-heads will bring instant unsavory notoriety to innocent sufferers. No wonder the workers become class conscious, and condemn the 'capitalist press,' the clergy, the women's club and turning to their own class, cry out: 'Workers of the world, arise.'"

A resolution was passed by the meeting pledging those present to patronize other department stores until the Eaton company agrees to arbitrate.

DEMANDS REFUSED.

U. S. Coal Operators Vote Down Proposals of the Miners.

Cleveland March 22.—All the demands of the 200,000 miners in the bituminous coal fields of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois for a ten per cent. increase in pay and shorter working hours were voted down by the operators yesterday.

As a final effort to prevent a prolonged shut down of the mines after April 1, and possibly a strike, the whole dispute was then referred to a sub-committee. This sub-committee, composed of eight miners' delegates and eight operators, will convene today to consider the possibility of a compromise to be recommended to the general conference.

Both operators and miners declared after the demands had been refused, that the coal situation throughout the country was grave. Intimations were made by John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, that the negotiations here last night continue until next Monday, when the union's policy committee will convene.

Besides the 200,000 miners in the four states drectly concerned, 150,000 bituminous coal miners in other states are dependent upon the present deliberations for a basis of making their wage scale, and about 170,000 anthracite miners. It was pointed out by Mr. White that the wages of more than 500,000 union miners after April 1 were in dispute and that the coal output of the country, other than that mined by non-union men was involved.

News from New York that the anthracite operators and miners might reconsider their differences however, had the effect of arousing confidence among union officials that the anthracite situation might be eliminated.

There seemed quite a pressure on the atmosphere for days at the Moorings, except in Sally Woodburn's rooms, for I've noticed that she is never excited by social events. They seem of little real importance to her, I suppose, compared with the past, which she has always in her thoughts. When I was with her I felt calmer, but with others or when I was alone (which seldom happened for more than ten minutes at a stretch) I was as much excited as anybody. Partly it may have been the effect of climate, for the air in America certainly does make you feel always as if something wonderful was going to happen to you around the next corner, and partly it was the effect of Potter.

Potter was most disturbing—and is still, for that matter. He has the air of feeling that he, and he alone, has a right to me, and it's quite a lesson in tact keeping the peace between him and other men who feel it their Christian duty to be a little nice to a young foreigner.

But I am thinking now of the time before the great affair. It really was a strain wondering what it would be like and whether it would be a grand success or whether it would fall short of all the brilliant expectations when the mystery would be revealed.

At last the night came. The invitations were for 10 o'clock, and people could not resist the temptation to come soon after the hour and begin. Mrs. Ess Kay stood in the early English drawing room (that's the style it's furnished in, or she believes it is) receiving without a mask and dressed to represent Queen Margaret of Navarre, from whom she says that she is descended. She had another dress to put on afterward, so that none of the guests would recognize her and she could have fun with the rest, but no one knew about that except Sally and Potter and me.

We others didn't appear at first, because we had no costumes to change with, but by and by, when a lot of people had arrived, we mingled with them.

As soon as any one came in Mrs. Ess Kay would say, "How do you do, my Lord of Leicester, or my noble George Washington," or whatever the person might be trying to be. "So glad to see you. You must go and have a look at the maze. Do you know how to find it? Just through that curtain. You can't miss the way."

Then the gorgeous masker would cross the hall and disappear behind a great curtain of tapestry that covered an open doorway leading to the garden. But he hadn't to go out of doors. A canvas covered, winding passage took him to the vast marquee, which was, of course, the maze. But why it was the maze and what happened to you in the maze after you had got in I didn't know any more than the outsiders. That was the fun of it for me, of course, and it really was fun.

Sally had only taken enough pains about her dress to save annoying Mrs. Ess Kay. She was a White Carmelite, with a veil over her face instead of a mask. But Potter had made a tremendous fuss about himself. He was Flame, which he said was appropriate in the circumstances, as he had got so used to playing Fire to my Frost he felt quite at home in the character. And he was very magnificent. He had designed the costume himself, for he fancies himself at that sort of thing, and my white sparkling robes and his scarlet satin and carbuncle embroidery and copper and gold fringes did look rather effective side by side.

He made that an excuse for insisting that I should go with him into the maze, although a tall Hamlet and a Henry V. of England both wanted to take me.

Potter whisked me away from them somehow, and we passed under the tapestry curtains while one of the two Hungarian bands Mrs. Ess Kay had hired played a waltz which made me long to dance.

"This way to the maze; this way to the maze," a man dressed like a beefeater was continually saying. He stood just outside the door, in a kind of canvas vestibule lined with greenery, so that it looked like the entrance to a bower.

The passage to the marquee had been made so beautiful that I couldn't help crying out to Potter with admiration. Not an inch of the canvas showed, for we walked through a sort of tunnel of roses all lit up with invisible electric lights. It was like the way to fairyland, and the floor was covered with a mat of artificial grass, like they have for stage lawns, Potter said.

I thought when we came to the end of the rose tunnel we should find ourselves in a big open space in the marquee, but when the tunnel stopped we were in a narrow alley between tall green bushes, set so thickly and so close together that we couldn't see what was on the other side. Above us, instead of the canvas roof of the marquee (which must have been over all), a violet mist seemed to float, with a very faint, soft light filtering through it, like blue moonlight. I suppose it must have been ever and ever so many thicknesses of blue gauze, with shaded lights hanging above, but the effect was mysterious and alluring.

We had only gone a little way when we arrived at a tiny house built apparently of red flowers, and there was a red light coming out of the one little window. "The Witch of the Woods Lives Here," said a card on the door.

We pushed, and inside was a room with a young woman in white, crystal gazing as hard as she could. She had also a velvet cushion on which you laid your hand, and she told your character and your fortune. Some people in historical dress were ready to come out just as we were going in, and one of them said: "It's Mme. Cortelyn. Mrs. Stuyvesant-Knox must have given her at least $500 or she wouldn't have come a step."

We had our hands done, and the Witch of the Woods told me that I had come from "across the water," but that I would marry a man on this side, and then she saw some one in the crystal who looked so exactly like Potter Parker that I wished I had stopped outside her red house.

SIX YEARS FOR SHOOTING

John Ross Killed Man After a Quarrel Over Cards

Judge Believed the Act Was Not Premeditated.

Montreal, March 22.—Six years in the penitentiary was the sentence meted out yesterday to John C. Ross, by Mr. Justice Lavergne, as punishment for the shooting of Robert Fitzsimmons, following a quarrel over a game of cards in the cloakroom of the Orpheum Theatre.

Preceding the sentence Ross accepted the invitation of the Judge to speak, and for the first time the story of the affair was heard in public from the prisoner.

Judge Lavergne appeared to be much impressed by the statements made by the accused, and the general opinion was that his story had the effect of securing for him a less severe sentence.

When asked if he desired to say anything before sentence was passed, Ross answered that he would take advantage of the opportunity. "I have not been heard before because my lawyers counselled against my appearing in the witness box. Perhaps they were right, but I don't think so."

In nervous voice, which was distinctly heard throughout the large Court of King's Bench, Ross proceeded with his narrative. His speech was faltering and occasionally he halted.

NO INTENTION OF KILLING.

"I realize I killed the man," he said, "but God knows that I never intended to kill." Then he repeated the story of missing his train for Ottawa and going to the Orpheum while waiting for another train, after having, by mere chance, taken with him a revolver he had found in his room after packing his bag. He told how he was invited into a card game and of the quarrel with Fitzsimmons. "I did not know," he continued, "that the revolver was actually loaded, when he came down on me and took my money, because it was my money that he took from in front of me. I do not justify myself, I only call for leniency owing to extenuating circumstances. I pray Your Lordship to remember that my mother died of sorrow a few days ago, that my old father is still living, that I have a daughter and a wife."

Having concluded, Ross folded his arms on the railing of the dock, and waited silently, with moisten eyes.

JUDGE LAVERGNE'S REMARKS.

"You have been found guilty of manslaughter," said Judge Lavergne, "and it is a most serious offence, punishable by a life sentence. Of all the facts recorded in the evidence for or against you, there is one I am sure of and that is in your favor. I am sure that you intended to go to Ottawa on the evening of your crime, and that the killing of your victim was never premeditated. The intention came up suddenly, on provocation, though you had time enough to think of what you were doing, as you hesitated. You insulted the man, and it is only after holding your revolver for a time, after being struck, that you fired. Men that have not killed have received very severe sentences and that you regret your fault is not a reason for leniency. What happens after your victim is dead is of small importance. What happened before is. Your victim was entitled to life, whatever his character may have been.

"I am willing to take in consideration your antecedents and the recommendation of a great number of respectable citizens, though their signatures on the petition presented to me were given largely to please the one who solicited them. The court is not deceived on that point.

REPUTATION IS GOOD.

"Your reputation and your antecedents were always good, and therefore your sentence will be light, and if you behave well, as I have no doubt you will, it may be shortened.

"Men who have killed must have a long sentence; the man I have just sentenced to 15 years had not killed; he had only attempted to. But you are not so wicked a man, and on account of your antecedents, your sentence will be limited to six years in the penitentiary.

Sentences imposed to-day by Judge Lavergne reached a total of seventy years and one month. During the course of his remarks, Judge Lavergne made severe comments on the use of weapons by people of the foreign population, saying that they must be taught that the practice of carrying such weapons is against the law of this country.

The British Government has issued a circular to all local Boards of Guardians suggesting co-operation with all authorities and agencies able to assist in the present exceptional distress.

Many study entirely at home and others study part at home and finish at the business college. This chain of colleges and its Home Study Department train over two thousand young Canadians annually. Any young person who is desirous of bettering their condition should write to-day to the nearest Spotton Business College. The "Brewster's Millions" company arrived in the city at noon to-day from Guelph, to fill their engagement at the Grand to-night.

A REAL SCOTCH PLAY

It is more thoroughly Scotch than any of Barries' plays, and bears the title of "Bunty Pulls the Strings," and will be seen at the Grand next Wednesday, March 27.

It's fun, like Barrie's, lies in its dissection of Scotch canniness and Scotch closeness.

The canniest of all it's Scottish folk is Bunty Biggar, who pulls the strings that control the actions of all the rest. She's a young and pretty lass, who runs her fathers' household, conducts her own and other people's love affairs, and is the general butter-in usually to the advantage of everyone concerned.

Scotch writers have been so frank about the characteristics of their own people that even an American audience appreciates the delineation on the stage. The types shown in Bunty and portrayed with admirable humor by the different imported companies ,could have been no more quickly recognized in Edinburgh or London, and not a point in the comedy is missed.

The fun of "Bunty Pulls the Strings," lies not so much in plot or situation as in the transparent workings of the minds of its characters. Everyone of them is, or has been, or wants to be a grasper of something, and everyone of them, except "Bunty," is more self-deceiving than dangerous, because everyone is "on to" everyone else. Even the old lady, who, with the Scotch regard for proprieties of the kirk, could find no other way of satisfying her curiosity as to why the policeman was called out during service than by fainting and being carried out where she could see what was going on, deceived not a single one of the congregation.

All the people in the large cast were imported from London and Edinburgh theatres. Most of the characters in the play, with the exception of Bunty, are what is known as character parts, the most pronounced of which is a vinegar-faced Spinster with matrimonial intentions, that she is not afraid to put in evidence—coyly at first, and then without pretence.

Another remarkable character sketch is that of "Weelum Sprunt," the youthful Elder of the Kirk, and Bunty's "young mon." There are the young and old all breathing the fragrant breath of the heather and thistle, bringing all back to the simple life in the Highlands of Auld Scotland

BEN HOBSON WENT FROM BAD TO WORSE

Six Months Term Was Accorded Him at Lindsay

It is quite evident from the following clipping from the Lindsay Post, that Benjamin Hobson, who appeared before Magistrate Dumble a few days ago, did not take His Worship's advice. The Magistrate let him off upon his promise to go to his home in Madoc. His Worship believed that the city would be well rid of Benjamin in the event of his leaving, and gave him a chance. He went to Lindsay instead and apparently it was not his first visit to that burg. The following from the Post goes to show that old offenders are remembered even in Lindsay:

"This morning Benjamin Hobson, Madoc, who was charged with escaping from the custody of an officer in town in November, 1910, when on his way to the goal, to serve six months for vagrancy, appeared in court Magistrate Jackson imposed a sentence of six months in all, time to commence from time of sentence."

Hobson is evidently a tricky customer as he put over a similar trick here last spring. He made his escape from the local jail and remained at liberty for a few months. He was caught near Madoc and brought back to serve the remainder of the six months which had been handed out to him. He has only been free for a short time and now he will view the world from inside the four walls of the Victoria County Jail.

There are times when a good bluff is as effective as great riches.

A professional politician is a man who has no candid opinions.

It's his running expenses that keep many a man behind.

SPORTS AT Y. M. C. A.

Before a large crowd at the Y.M.A.A. gymnasium last night the veteran Eko Club just managed to dispose of the Brownies, in by far the fastest game that has been played on the local floor for many a long day. The (Youngsters) Brownies, started out with a rush, and at the breathing spell had the score doubled; but after the rest the Eko men woke up and caged the ball several times in success, tieing the score, and from here on it was anybody's game, and when time was called the Eko Club were leading. Score—Eko's 27, Brownies 26. Teams—Eko's—A. Hall and Elliott, forwards; Canniff, captain, centre; Fleming and F. Turner, defence. Brownies—Hanwell, , captain, and Nicholls, forwards; Downing, centre; Stewart and Irvine, defence. Referee, C. E. Sisson. Umpire, J. J. Thompson.

The next game of interest in the city basketball championship series will be the Hustlers-Eko game, which is scheduled for next Tuesday night at 8.30.

Everything is ready for the T.C.S. vs. Y.M.C.A. game on Saturday night. The class of the local team is quite evident when you look at the men who have been chosen to defend Peterborough's laurels: Forwards—H. Hill, of the Nemos, and Art Hall, of the Eko Club; centre, Hugh Wallis, of the Hustlers; defence, "General" Throop, of the Nemos, and "Teddy" Hanwell, of the Brownies. Game will be called at 7.45 sharp so that the visitors will be given time to catch the 9 p.m. train for Port Hope.

MANAGER TEMPLIN SECURES MORE MATERIAL FOR HIS TEAM

Manager Templin is busy rounding out his string. Secretary Davidson received another bunch of contracts this morning and a little dope about the third sacker whose contract arrived yesterday. Old Folks has signed so far two pitchers, two infielders, a third baseman, a catcher, and two outfielders and with another pitcher and first baseman his team will be about complete.

The manager is enthusiastic over his third sacker. Several minor league magnates were after him and "Old Folks" had a job to effect his capture. His name is Hartman. "He is 6 ft. tall and a man of good habits," writes the Peterborough manager. "He has given up a good position as stenographer to play ball for us at a salary very little higher than what he was making at the desk. He is a hard hitter and fast on bases. He has played basketball all season and is in good shape right now."

Among the contracts which arrived this morning was one from a pitcher from a Tri-State League team. He stands 5 ft. 9 in., and weighs 160 lbs., and glories in the name of Harry Scull. He is a right hander and Manager Templin is depending on him to deliver the goods. He has been doing some pitching in Scranton, Pa. The two infielders secured are also from the Tri-State League.

There is a deal pending between Templin and a Columbia State Club for another pitcher. He is a good man, according to the local manager and would fit here fine.

Templin is hustling around down South. He will return to Peterborough in about three weeks and he realizes that he has not much time to lose.

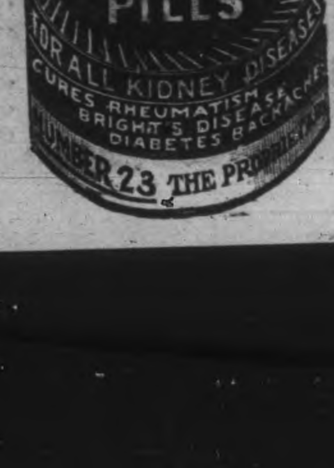
SPORT TALK

Bill Bradley will pilot the Toronto Leafs in the International League this season. He has been appointed captain, and he made a good start yesterday at Macon, Ga., when he led his regulars to an 11—5 victory over Kelley's Yannigans.

The American League has claimed sixteen International Leaguers this season. They would make a team which many big league clubs would find it hard to beat. The sixteen are composed of four pitchers, four catchers, five infielders and three outfielders. Rochester and Jersey City clubs contributed five and four players respectively, while the remainder came from Providence, Baltimore, Newark, Toronto and Montreal.

Sammy Smith, the erratic youth who hurled for London in the Canadian League last year, and who created more trouble than a baby of three years, is at present warbling in a five and ten cent house across the line. Sammy is extending his thorax muscles for the amusement of the townsfolk, or perhaps for his own amusement and their money—

Leo Derocher returned last night from Syracuse, N.Y. After playing three games with the all-star Canadian team in Syracuse and Cleveland, he spent a few days visiting relatives in Rochester and vicinity.



PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT COMPETITION

Skips Are Asked to Make up Their Rinks for Games

The cold weather certainly sprang a surprise on the local curlers, but it was a pleasant one and they immediately put their heads together to take advantage of it.

The result is that the annual games between the President and Vice-President of the Peterborough Curling Club will be played to-night and to-morrow night.

The games will involve twenty-eight rinks, fourteen for the President and fourteen Vice-President quartettes. Seven of the President's rinks will meet the same number of opponents to-night, and to-morrow night the seven sheets of ice at the curling rink will be occupied by the other fourteen rinks. Each skip whose name appears on the appended list, will chose his own players and is requested to put in an appearance at the rink whichever night his game is called for as shown in the following list:

TO-NIGHT'S GAMES.

President.		Vice-President.
J H Connal	vs.	R Hicks.
W H Taylor	vs.	A Moore.
J E A Fitzgerald	vs.	G H Giroux.
Adam Hall	vs.	J W McDermid.
W D Campbell	vs.	S T Medd.
W G Read	vs.	H F Foote.
Dr. Wightman	vs.	R Neill.

TO-MORROW'S GAMES.

President.		Vice-President.
G D Maitland	vs.	D Davidson.
R Harstone	vs.	G B Stevenson.
W M Laing	vs.	W J Thompson.
T E B Yeats	vs.	J H Ferguson.
J S Knapman	vs.	T Brightman.
T F Matthews	vs.	R M Waddell.
W G Morrow	vs.	R G Sturgeon.

The totals will be taken of the scores of all the rinks on each of the two teams, and the side whose fourteen scores add up to a larger number than their opponents will win the competition.

WANTS FIGHT WITH JOHNSON

Tommy Burus Comes Back and Says He is Serious

Calgary, Alta., March 22.—Looking fit as a fiddle and apparently in condition to engage in a strenuous battle of several rounds, Tommy Burns, the former champion, who is eager for a chance to snatch the laurels from the ebony brow of Jack Johnson, arrived in the city on Saturday after an extended visit to Australia and the Pacific Coast. Burns claims he is in deadly earnest when he says he wants to meet Jack Johnson, and certain that he can defeat the black champion in a bout scheduled for any number of rounds. He is not particular where the bout is staged either, as long as he has the opportunity of getting another crack at the champion.

Tommy is pretty much disappointed over the attitude of the commissioners with regard to his proposition that he be allowed to fight Johnson here. He thinks that such a contest would give Calgary a wide and desirable publicity. He feels that his scheme to use the proceeds of the fight for the establishment of an athletic club here is one that must appeal to all the sport followers in Calgary. He realizes, however, that the fates are against him and he will not therefore press his request. While his idea has been turned down, the former champion takes considerable satisfaction out of the fact that even the civic officials who are strongly opposed to the suggested bout, have a good word to speak of him as a sportsman and a gentleman.

TO KEEP IN TRAINING.

He didn't say so in so many words, but from his conversation it was an easy matter to conclude that he felt much satisfaction in the fact that he had the respect of the citizens of Calgary. Tommy intends to keep in active training for the proposed Johnson bout. He feels confident that he will have the opportunity of again meeting his conqueror, and thinks that this time there will be a different story to tell when time is called. He does not think, so far as he is concerned, that it will be a case of his having to "come back" while he has been taking things pretty easy lately and believes that a course of training will put him in as good condition as he ever was during his active ring career. Burns' training program will include plenty of road work and brisk indoor work also. He is in good shape now; that figures it won't take him long to get into real fighting trim.

BASEBALL

Mobile, Ala., March 22.—Harry Davis is one of those individuals who doesn't believe that a ball player's career is ended when his arm goes out of commission and his legs lose their speed, says the Cleveland Leader's correspondent.

"Ballplayers, too often, devote most of their energy, looking after their salary," he declared with emphasis to-day. "They argue that at the best they have only a few years to stay in the game. They believe that during that time they must collect enough coin to last the remainder of their lives. They see visions of going back to hard labor, of losing all the comforts of life which they enjoyed while drawing a large salary as a member of a major league.

"That's wrong, it's entirely wrong. They don't appreciate the hugeness of this game. Baseball is an immense proposition. There's not the slightest reason in the world, why a man shouldn't make it his lifework just as a man makes the study of the auto business his life work when he enters the office of an auto concern.

"Just think over the list of men who have retired or who have been forced to retire as baseball players in recent years. Think for a moment what a vast number of them are still directly connected with the sport.

"The game is just like a business. The man who studies it, who is attentive, who is ambitious, who does what's right, who gives the club all that he possesses, who takes care of himself, is the man who will stick to the game, and who will find that it will pay him dividends as long as any other line of work would.

"Just consider for a moment how many minor league clubs in this country are more than anxious to get a man of intelligence at a good salary to manage their clubs. Think of the number of scouts employed by major league clubs. There's room for every man who is willing to try to advance his profession.

"I don't intend to sermonize, but that's a plain statement of fact, and conditions support my argument.

"Don't think for a minute that I believe a ball player isn't entitled to a healthy salary. On the contrary I believe he is, and earns it. What I mean to convey is the idea that the ball player should work for the future just as the young fellow does in other lines of work."

GRAHAM RUSHES TO DEFEND HIS

The management of this construction, he said, deserved the severest criticism. As good a road he was sure could have been constructed at a much lower figure.

Hon. T. W. Crothers declared that the late Government had either deceived the people of Canada as to what the cost of the road would be, or they knew nothing about the matter. They had said it could be built up to the standard of the Intercolonial for $51,000,000 or to the highest standard for $53,000,000. They now acknowledge that the cost would be $150,000,000, or three times as much as they had told the people.

Hon. Frank Cochrane's estimates were all passed.

Hon. Geo. P. Graham brought up the question of dividing the board of railway commissioners into two sections, east and west. Hon. Frank Cochrane stated that it was not the intention of the Government to do so. They might well keep two members of the board in the west, and there would be plenty of work for them to do, but it would be one board.

The Liberals in the Senate yesterday for the first time turned down the Government.

An amendment to the tariff bill which Hon. Mr. Lougheed objected to was carried. It was moved by Sir Richard Cartwright and provided that the tariff commissioner should not be appointed for a term of five years, but should serve only during the pleasure of the Government.

In committee on the bill to create a tariff board, Hon. Mr. Lougheed gave the Government's view of amendments suggested last week by Sir Richard Cartwright. The first provided that the commissioners should be appointed to serve during the pleasure of the Government instead of for five years as the Government bill proposed. He was afraid good men could not be obtained under Sir Richard's amendment.

Sir Richard said that he could not see it that way, as practically all the employes of the Government were appointed during pleasure.

Sir Richard's amendment was declared carried.

Home Rule Bill Not Drafted.

London, March 22.—That the home rule bill has not been yet finally drafted is evident from the fact that the Irish leaders were called into consultation yesterday with the Cabinet committee, concerning the details of the measure.

The meeting was shrouded in the utmost secrecy. It leaked out only yesterday afternoon that John Redmond and T. P. O'Connor had spent two and a half hours in Premier Asquith's official residence at Downing street, wrestling with the Premier, Augustine Birrell, the Irish Secretary, and other members of the Cabinet over the financial provisions of the proposed bill. The difficulties in this respect are understood still to be unsolved.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETS MONDAY

May Have Representative Join Party for England

On Monday evening, March 25th, the local Board of Trade will consider the advisability of sending a delegate to England with representatives from the various Boards of Trade in Ontario, to meet the National Chamber of Commerce. President Gage of the Ontario Associated Boards of Trade, has been making arrangements for a trip of this kind which would cost each delegate $100 for first-class steamship accommodation. Mr. Vincent Eastwood, president of the local Board of Trade, received the following lettergram from Mr. F. G. Morley, Secretary-Treasurer of the Ontario Associated Boards of Trade this morning:

Mr. V. Eastwood, President Peterborough Board of Trade,—

Pursuant to the resolution of the Ontario Associated Boards of Trade, you are requested to nominate accredited delegates for proposed British trip, leaving Montreal, May 15. Special arrangements proposed by Royal Line for first-class steamship accommodation, return at $100. Committee will decide if trip is feasible upon receiving definite replies on or before 27th inst.

F. G. MORLEY,
Sec.-Treas.

The subject, "Immigration into Canada," which should be of particular interest to this city, will also be discussed at the meeting on Monday night.

Mr. Harrison was one of the most conspicuous figures around the Windsor Hotel. He changed his clothes four times a day, and was always dressed to the minute. He left a great many messages with the telephone operators and the clerks that if he were wanted he was "dining with Mr. ——— at the St. James' Club,"—naming one of the most prominent men in town.

He was intimate with a number of young society men round town, and was a frequent guest at the Hunt and went riding almost daily.

That Harrison is not the real name of the man is generally believed in certain quarters. Some of his friends however, insist that Harrison will come back and straighten out everything within a short time.

COMPARISON IN BUILDING PERMITS

Usual Spring Business Being Held Back by Weather Conditions

A comparison of the figures in building permits for the first three months of 1911 and 1912, shows that last year's amount, exceeds that of this year by $7,265.00. It will be remembered however, that the number of permits issued is never large at this season of the year. The largest contract that the city will have this year as far as known will be the erection of the new Canadian General Electric building. Permits have been issued for the building of houses and for repairs, alterations, improvements, etc. Sixteen permits in all have been issued so far this year amounting to $4905.00. Two of these, one for $2000 and another for $1000 leaves but $1905, which represents what will be done in repairs, alterations, etc. No doubt as soon as the real fine weather arrives there will be the usual spring rush.

The latest permits filed are—

William Shearer, 532 Charlotte st, stable, $1000.

Alex Chouniard, repair to dwelling Princess street, $400.

Daniel Coughlin, veneering dwelling, 225 Carlisle street, $60.

Walter Evans, verandah, 302 Pearl Ave, $75.

R. DeCarlonis, putting glass front in store, 203 Charlotte street, $100 Contractor, W. J. Johnston.

ONTARIO LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

The twelfth annual meeting of the Ontario Library Association will be held in Toronto on Easter Monday and Tuesday, April 8 and 9. Special attention will be paid to the work of the librarian.

The interest in Public Library work in Ontario is steadily growing in both the larger and smaller libraries and a large attendance at the annual meeting is expected.

Every Library Board is requested to send delegates. Programs may be had on application to Secretary G. A. Hardy, 81 Conlier street, Toronto.

PRAYER WAS THE SUBJECT OF THE FIRST MEETING

Two Addresses To-night at Bethany Tabernacle

The convention in Bethany Tabernacle was opened last evening with an address on "Prayer," by the Rev. W. H. Chandler. The remarks were based on the text, "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much," and one could not but feel that the lack of victory and blessing in so many lives is due largely to the neglect of the privilege of prayer. This evening at eight o'clock the Rev. f. Kuykendall will speak on missionary life and labor in China, and Mr. Chandler will speak at half-past eight. To-morrow at 3 p.m there will be a meeting for adults, and at 4.15 there will be another meeting for children.

GIRL FROM RECTOR'S NOT ALLOWED TO ENTER CANADA

New Westminster, B.C., March 22.—Acting on instructions from headquarters at Ottawa, the Immigration officials stopped the "Girl from Rector's" Theatrical Company, at the border, refusing to allow them to enter Canadian territory.

"The Girl from Rector's" has caused more sensation of a notorious character than any other so-called musical play on the boards. It has been driven off the stage in several American cities, and on the occasion of its last visit to this country, it had to be severely pruned before its production was allowed. Even in its emasculated form, it was little short of a prurient appeal.

No. 6 to Meet

All the members of No. 6 Company, 57th Regiment, are requested to be at the armories on Saturday evening, at eight o'clock. Any others wishing to associate themselves with the company are asked to be on hand.

Canada's Parliament will soon adjourn ditto Canada's winter.

BOARDERS FOR CASTLE NESBITT

D. and D's. Forgot to Save Enough for the Aftermath

Three drunks and a vagrant faced Magistrate Dumble in Police Court this morning. John Moore and Walter Brooks had disorderly as well as drunk attached to their tickets and they were assessed $5 each, to be paid forthwith, with an alternative of 15 days hard labor under Gaoler Nesbitt. They did not have the necessary greenbacks, and unless some kind friend comes to the rescue they will assist in cleaning the walks around a certain mansion at Victoria Park hill.

LIKED THE IDEA.

Bruce Reddy seemed to welcome a chance to wield an axe and shovel for the county. He pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy. Five dollars was the price of his liberty, but fifteen days where he would be sure of three meals a day was very alluring to Bruce, and he took a meal ticket to Nesbitt's Hotel.

LONG DRY SPELL.

John McKee was drunk. He had not been in that condition for over a year. At least if he had indulged he was fortunate enough to keep away from the officers. He could not pay his $2 fine this morning and since he has a wife and family depending upon his wages, he was allowed ten days in which to pay it. If he fails to "come over" with the greenbacks it will be fifteen days on the "hill" for his.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

A despatch received yesterday at the headquarters of the Grand Trunk System in Montreal from Mr. W. P. Hinton, General Passenger Agent of the G.T.P., states that steel construction on the Fort Garry hotel in Winnipeg commenced on Monday. The work of excavation on the foundation has been continuous all winter and is now practically complete.

It is stated that the Grand Trunk is seeking to acquire water front lots in Burlington Bay at Hamilton, for the erection of a grain elevator, which will be completed in the near future.

A combined practice of St. John's and All Saints' Church choirs was held in All Saints' Church last night for the "Crucifixion" music to be presented in both churches by a chorus of 70 voices. The next rehearsal will be on Sunday evening in St. John's, after Evensong. Mr. Chandler, choirmaster of All Saints' extended a cordial welcome to St. Johns' choir, in response to which Mr. R. J. Devey stated the pleasure felt by St. John's singers in combining in this important part of church work.

The vocal recital given by Miss Howell, of Peterboro, in St. Andrew's church, Burnbrae, was exceptionally good, although the attendance was not what might be desired. The proceeds which amounted to $28 will be devoted to the work of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society.—Campbellford Herald.

Lindsay Post:—Mr. Fred. Edmonds, proprietor of Wonderland, is another Fenian Raid veteran. Both he and his brother, E. B. Edmonds, were members of the 57th Regiment, Peterborough, at the time of the trouble, in fact he was the youngest member of the volunteer company drafted to expel the invaders. The late Colonel Kennedy, who afterwards was with Lord Wolsely, in the first Reil rebellion in 1870, was in command of the company.

A wife should act like one possessed.

"JACK" THIRNBECK HANDED A PIPE

Young Lady Hockeyists Make the Presentation

An exceedingly interesting though very formal and decorous presentation took place yesterday afternoon shortly after four o'clock when Miss Mabel Patterson and Miss Florence Scott, on behalf of the Girls' Athletic Society of the P.C.I., presented Mr. "Jack" Thirnbeck with a beautiful and costly amber-stem pipe and a quantity of first quality tobacco.

The girls felt very grateful to "Jack" for the many little kindnesses he has shown them this winter while they were using the rink for their hockey matches, and took this means of expressing their appreciation of the numerous favors they had received from him.

He was thoroughly surprised to receive the thoughtful present and expressed his astonishment at, and pleasure in receiving the gift in a few neat words.

The pipe is a beauty and a fit token to show the gratitude of the young lady hockey players, and though Mr. Thirnbeck rightly is proud of the fine ice surface he has managed to keep at the rink this year, he is even more pleased with the useful gift.

IMITATIONS OF ZAM-BUK

Would you accept a counterfeit half-dollar? Then why accept fifty cents' worth of counterfeit merchandise? When any preparation is put up to you as "just as good" as Zam-Buk, leave it severely alone! Don't be cheated. There is no salve as good as Zam-Buk, although several preparations cost much less to produce, and can, therefore, be sold at greater profit to the dealer. Depend upon it, if Zam-Buk were not the best it would not be imitated. People only imitate the real diamond. They don't imitate paste. Get the real thing.

In the game of hearts, when a man is in doubt he should lead diamonds.

NEW METHODIST HYMN BOOK

Toronto March 22.—That the Canadian Methodists are certainly not counting on union of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches is quite evident by the fact that the committee appointed to compile a new general Methodist hymn book continues to do its duty.

At a meeting of the members in the Wesley Building board room the work was gone on with, and it will not be long before a report will be ready for submission.

Many hymns are being revised, new tunes selected and many new hymns will be added.

Cornwall Lineman Electrocuted.

Cornwall, March 20.—Robert Anderson, a lineman employed with the Bell Telephone crew making alterations to the system here, was electrocuted last evening while on a pole about 35 feet from the ground.

He went up to unfasten a rope and his hand came in contact with a live wire of the Stormont Electric Light Co. He fell to the ground dead. Anderson was 27 years of age. His home is in Almonte, Ont.

Does a thin woman worry because she has such a narrow outlook?

LESSON No. 3 | From J. W. BROWETT Optometrist

My talk to you this week is very important. if you are a sufferer from headaches caused by straining the eyes. It is very important to you. of course, that you should use your eyes. but nature never intended that you should abuse them. We know that headaches come from straining the normal eye or from using imperfect eyes or, in other words, eyes which do not focus. My experience leads me to believe that all strained eyes can be relieved by properly fitted glasses. When this strain is relieved the headaches disappear. Now reason a little: If you are a sufferer from headaches and you suspect that the cause is strained vision then my argument must appeal to your case. My experience, gained during the past twenty years is valuable to you. Try the remedy of glasses as we fit them, and you will not be disappointed

YOUNG GIRL WAS IN DESPERATE MENTAL STATE

Doctor Gives Explanatory Evidence at Inquest at Port Hope

Port hope, March 22—The jury empannelled to enquire into the cause of the death of the late Myrtle Little, whose body was found in the Ganeraska river on Wednesday morning, viewed the remains at Walker's undertaking rooms yesterday morning, after which an adjournment was made until 8 o'clock.

At the evening session Coroner McKinley was present, and Crown Attorney Kerr, conducted the examination.

William Cook, who found the body told of seeing the deceased ploughing through the snow and Water on Tuesday evening and he also related the story of the search the next morning.

Dr. G. A. Dickinson, who conducted the post mortem examination, stated that the deceased was, up to the time of her death in apparently good health. There was no marks of violence on the body and only a few scratches on one of her knees. No bones were broken. Further the doctor stated that the young girl was soon to become a mother.

Earnest Peters, porter at the Queen's Hotel, at which place the deceased was employed for a time stated that she kept company with a young man named William Davis.

He drove in from the country several times a week to see her, and she also kept company with other young men.

Chief Bond said that the Davis referred to by the previous witness was now in the west. The deceased had complained to him that Davis now in jail for forgery, had called her names.

Mrs. Little, mother of the deceased, stated that her daughter had been living at home since Christmas. She had worked at the Queen's Hotel, Royal Hotel and the File Factory. She had always been kindly treated at home and there was never an angry word. She was suspicious about the condition of her daughter and on Tuesday afternoon questioned her about it. The daughter made the admission and nothing more was said. The deceased had been sad and melancholy for some time, but when she left the house on Tuesday afternoon, the mother had no idea that it was with the intention of committing suicide. Mrs. Little gave the name of a young man of this town who had visited her daughter on different occasions and took her out driving. She had always been in better spirits after his visits, but he had not been to see her for nearly four weeks

Thomas Little, the father, stated that he and his wife were away on Tuesday and returned home about three o'clock in the afternoon. His daughter complained about being ill and he wanted to take her to the doctor, but she refused to go. He was suspicious as to her condition but he did not mention it as he did not wish to hurt her feelings.

This concluded the evidence and after being absent a short time the jury returned the following verdict.

"That Myrtle Little came to her death by drowning in the waters of the Ganeraska while in a desperate mental condition.

LLOYD GEORGE OFFERS TO SEND TWO EXPERTS

Principles and Operation of British Old Age Pensions.

Special to the Review.

Ottawa, March 22.—Old Pension Committee held its last sitting for the present session this morning, with J. H. Burnham, chairman. A number of witnesses from a distance were sworn and examined. All agreed that the only way to head off the rapid increase of poor houses and institutionalism and separation of man and wife in their old age was by pensions. A large amount of valuable evidence was given.

Ottawa, March 22.—Mr. J. H. Burnham, chairman of the Commons committee on old age pensions, has received a letter from David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the British Exchequer, offering to send two experts to Canada to explain the old age pension plan.

The experts will not come till next session, when consideration of the proposal will be continued by the special committee of the Commons.

The Annuities Act, as Canada's old age pension legislation is called, was introduced and put through Parliament by Sir Richard Cartwright, but the present government took away the administration of the Act from the Department of Trade and Commerce and placed it under the Postmaster-General, a move calculated to reduce the cost of administration. Mr. S. T. Bastedo, however, remains at the head of the branch.

The Canadian legislation is quite different from the British, the former being designed to encourage thrift rather than to provide a pension. The annuity is purchased on annual payments and at a certain age the beneficiary becomes entiled to a certain sum for the remainder of life.

The Burnham committee is of opinion that the system can be improved and the offer of Mr. Lloyd George will be welcomed as a long step towards enlightenment.

Class is Cancelled

Miss Coventry's Social Evening Class at the Conservatory of Music has been cancelled for to-night.

WILL FIGURE IN BREEN DIVORCE CASE IN NEW YORK

Another Canadian Woman Said to be Implicated

New York, March 22nd—Mrs. Ethel Croker Breen, daughter of Richard Croker, whose suit for divorce from John Breen, resulted in a disagreement two weeks ago, got permission from Supreme Court Justice Platzek to-day to amend her complaint to include the name of another Canadian woman in her charges against her husband. The new trial was set for the first Monday in April.

In her complaint Mrs. Breen charged misconduct with three women in Canada last summer, but named only one of them, Miss Maude Diehl, a Toronto telephone operator. No testimony was offfered concerning any of the other women. Miss Diehl came here and denied the charges against her.

STUDHOLME FIGHTS HARD FOR HIS EIGHT HOUR BILL

Labor Member Assails Hearst For His Proposal to Lay Over the Bill Securing an Eight-Hour Day for Mine Workers In Ontario—Rowell's Judicature Bill Is Defeated by the Government.

Toronto, March 23.—Allan Studholme fought labor's fight in the Legislature yesterday afternoon when he rose to champion the bill to provide an eight-hour day for miners. The member for East Hamilton demonstrated beyond all doubt that he is quite capable of defending the rights of the people he represents, no matter how much the odds are against him in point of numbers. With both feet, hands, head and everything else, Mr. Studholme jumped on Hon. W. H. Hearst, when the Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines pleaded for a delay in passing the bill until the whole circumstances had been investigated and arrangements made as to details.

"If the hon. the Minister had held a brief for the mine owners he couldn't have done it better," declared Mr. Studholme, after Hon. Mr. Hearst had spoken. "With his legal mind he put every little objection possible in the way, in order to defeat the bill."

Directing his remarks to Mr. Hearst, the member for East Hamilton made some very pointed statements.

"You say you are in favor of the miners," said Mr. Studholme, "but your mind has been trained in the legal school. You know nothing about miners. Your evidence, sir, has been gathered from the men who owns the mine and not from the men who work in the mine."

Commenting on the support several of the members from New Ontario gave to Mr. Hearst in asking for a delay in passing the bill, Mr. Studholme made some very emphatic statements.

"In view of the remarks of some of the Conservative members from the north," he declared, "I wish an election was pending instead of being just passed. The results in those ridings might be different."

The discussion arose over Mr. Rowell's explanation of his bill to regulate the hours of employment in underground work. A similar bill was introduced by Sir James Whitney, and Mr. Rowell asked that the House adopt the principles of the bills and leave the details for further consideration next session. Sir James stated that he was entirely in favor of the eight-hour day, but he thought the bills should not receive their second reading this session till an investigation was held. In that way there would be no fear of the results of the investigation being different to what had already been recommended. Mr. Rowell, however, said he felt justified in not letting his bill drop, so he proceeded to explain the features of it.

A six months' hoist was then moved. The motion reads:

"In the opinion of this House the regulation of the hours of employment in underground work is a matter in which undue haste should be avoided, and should be the subject of careful investigation; that such investigation can be made during the recess and in time for the results of it to be laid before this House at its next session, and that therefore the said bill be not now read a second time, but be read a second time this day six months."

"I'll ask my hon. friend if it wouldn't be the height of absurdity to pass this bill," said Sir James Whitney, when the bill introduced by N. W. Rowell to amend the Judicature Act was up for its second reading. A unanimous request was made by the high court judges for provision for an increase in their members, Sir James explained, and nothing to the contrary had been received by the Government since then.

"Does the hon. gentleman think that the high court judges are keeping this Government in the dark as to what they want or don't want," enquired Sir James. "They either want additional judges still, or else they are wishing the Government to do something they don't think is right." The Premier said he had great respect and even admiration for Sir Alan Aylesworth, but the latter had been handicapped by his political friends. With regard to Sir William Meredith conducting investigations, the Premier said that for eighteen years Sir William hadn't an hour's leave of absence from the service of the province.

After a thorough discussion in which both the Prime Minister and the Attorney-General crossed swords with the leader of the Opposition and Hon. A. G. MacKay, the bill was defeated.

MUNICIPALITIES SHOULD ASSIST

Col. Sam Hughes Thinks They Should Help Militia.

Ridicules Idea That it is Burden on the Country.

Toronto, March 23.—Hon. Sam Hughes and Sir Frederick Borden, sat side by side at the dinner tendered to the new Minister of Militia by the officers of the Toronto Garrison in the National Club last night. Col. Hughes gave reasons for his seemingly advanced views on the necessity of a more adequate system of defence, and Sir Frederick Borden endorsed his successor and hoped that he would accomplish everything in his progressive program, which would be to the benefit of the people of the Dominion. Brig.-Gen. Cotton presided and told the Minister what Toronto wanted, with the result that all the city's needs will be "seriously considered," in the words of the guest of honor himself.

Col. Hughes ridiculed the idea that the militia was a burden on the country. Switzerland spends many times more on her militia than Canada does. Each municipality paid the cost of maintenance, instead of it being entirely borne by the Federal Government, as in Canada.

Col. Hughes thought that the cost of the militia should be borne by each municipality. In that case it would be hardly felt. At present it was said that it is a burden on the Federal Government because of it being all in one lump sum. When the people saw the terrible amount, they said: "My, see how the farmers are taxed." It was the way so-called politicians had to sway sentiment in this matter, but he considered the farmers intelligent, and they knew the benefits of an adequate system of defence.

He advocated drilling in the schools for the betterment and development of children. People said there was little use spending money on the militia, but advocated more railways, etc. All through the west, in every small town, were custom houses which were needless. He thought that the Government should build drill sheds, they were more important. The boy scouts and school children could in these places put on entertainments, and altogether they would be greatly of service to the country. "I am going to boom these things for all they are worth, too," he declared.

Sir Frederick Borden said it augured well for the future of the militia when it was possible to have the Minister, who presided for fifteen years, and the Minister who now presided, and whose length of office he couldn't at the time determine, in attendance. He said Col. Hughes had his entire endorsation as Minister of Militia.

"I do not believe in throwing away money but I do believe that Col. Sam Hughes should be given all the money necessary to perfect the military system," he said. "My friend, the new Minister, need not hesitate to ask, but to demand, a fair share for his undertaking. I did something in my time, but there is much more to be done. When I went into office the military force was practically an unorganized mob; when I went out it was a pretty good system."

MANY VICTIMS IN THIS WRECK

Two Crowded Cars Collided on Straight Track.

Fortville, Ind., March 23.—Two persons were killed and more than thirty injured, many seriously, last night, when two crowded cars on the Indiana Union Traction Co.'s lines collided just west of this place.

The cars were running only about twenty miles an hour, but the vestibules of both were jammed, crushing the life out of both motormen. Short circuits of heavily charged wires and overturned heaters set fire to the wreckage. The least injured turned rescuers and carried from the burning cars those who were unable to help themselves.

While some gave attention to the safety of the injured men and women, others, stifled with the odor of seared flesh, attempted to reach the bodies. It was almost impossible to search the smoking compartments and some fear is held that other persons may have been burned to death.

Officials of the traction line say they cannot account for the accident.

HETTY IS BACK AT HOBOKEN

Richest Woman in the World Found Metropolis Dull

New York, March 23.—After giving New York what she considered a fair trial Mrs. Hetty Green has found the metropolis too "dull," and she has moved back to a flat in Hoboken, N. J.

The richest woman in the world, whose self-accumulated fortune is generally estimated at $75,000,000, made her home for years in Hoboken in a flat costing her $19 a month. She made friendship with a large number of neighbors, whom she missed greatly after coming to New York to live in a big town house near Central Park. She has now left the city house to her son, Col. Edward Green, and moved to a $40 flat in Hoboken, which she has fitted up simply but inexpensively.

MEASURE MAY BE WITHDRAWN

Prime Minister Asquith's Minimum Wage Bill Passes Committee Stage, But a Conference Is Now In Sight and It May Be Withdrawn—Men Are Anxious to Return to Work—Asquith Would Not Yield.

London, March 23.—The Government's minimum wage bill, introduced by Premier Asquith, in an endeavor to bring about a settlement of the coal strike, passed through the committee stage in the House of Commons at 1.30 o'clock yesterday morning, practically in the original form. Nearly all the amendments submitted had been withdrawn or defeated.

Whether the bill ever will reach the statute books is questionable, for it is not unlikely that a conference of the mine owners and miners called by Premier Asquith for Monday will result in an independent agreement between them, rendering the bill unnecessary. In this case the measure might be withdrawn.

It is believed that the labor leaders, having failed to induce the Government to define in the bill the minimum rates to be paid underground workers, would prefer a settlement of the controversy without legislation.

It is clear that the strike movement is weakening, and that the men are anxious to return to work. The attitude of the leaders yesterday was in strong contrast to the spirit of defiance they previously had shown. They appeared to have realized the uselessness of fighting both the coal mine owners and the Government, while dependent upon their rapidly exhausting union treasuries, and the present indications are that work in the mines will be resumed in a few days. The situation, however, changes so rapidly that nothing concerning the strike can be predicted. It was considered significant that yesterday Lloyds was ready to accept low rates of insurance against the strike continuing beyond March 31.

In yesterday's debate in the House of Commons the miners' representatives plainly intimated that if the Government's bill was amended in the committee stage by providing for a daily minimum of $1.25 for adults and 50c. for boys working underground the miners would not insist on the inclusion in the bill of their entire schedule and the way would be cleared for the speedy passage of the bill and the settlement of the strike. It was the general impression that the Government would accept the compromise and make this concession to the miners, but Premier Asquith's flat refusal yesterday to accept a labor amendment inserting a clause covering the $1.25 and 50c. minimum or to put any fixed rates in the bill, changed the whole situation.

HON. MR. DOHERTY'S RACE TRACKS BILL CRITICIZED

London and Thorncliffe Associations Come In For Sharp Discussion In Committee at Ottawa—Hon. W. T. White Gives a Hint of New Bank Act—Senate Again Uses Its Liberal Majority.

Ottawa, March 23.—When Hon. Mr. Doherty's race track bill was before Parliament yesterday, the Minister came in for some pretty sharp criticism from members of the Opposition over the recent granting of charters by order-in-council to two racing associations at London and Thorncliffe.

Hon. W. T. White stated to the House that, in calling for tenders for the printing of Government notes, etc., the Government was saving $60,000 a year, or $300,000 on a five years' contract. The contract went to the American Bank Note Co., which had done the work for the past fifteen years. A condition of the contract was that all the work should be done in the city of Ottawa.

Hon. Mr. White gave a hint of a few of the reforms he hoped to accomplish when he revises the Bank Act next session. Something could be done, he thought, in connection with the organization of banks to safeguard the interests of shareholders and depositors from promoters, thus preventing such a state of affairs as had been disclosed in connection with the Farmers' Bank. Something could also be done in connection with the administration of banks in inspection, whether by Government inspectors or otherwise, to prevent malfeasance. He also thought penalties could be imposed for negligence.

This bill and the bill to amend the Quebec Savings Bank Act were read a third time and passed.

Hon. W. T. White introduced a bill providing for an additional annual subsidy of $100,000 to Prince Edward Island. That province, he said, had been badly treated from the date of Confederation. He hoped a new era would dawn for P. E. I., with the increased subsidy.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier thought that this action formed a serious departure from established precedent.

Hon. Mr. Doherty's race track bill came up in committee at the afternoon session. He explained that, under the present law, letters patent had to be granted to associations conforming to the technical requirements. This amendment would require them to come to Parliament for incorporation.

Another consideration that he pointed out was that, by the Miller bill, associations were limited to two meetings of seven days each year. The ef-

VICTORIA COLLEGE

Toronto, March 23.—Out of 284 votes cast on the church union proposal by students attending Victoria College 274 were in favor. One hundred and seventy-nine of the students had not voted in committee, with any church, and of these only eight were against the union.

The vote was taken by the Probationers Association and is of the same force as that of a congregation.

KELSO FAVORS OLD AGE PENSIONS

Would Discourage Slums and Improve Social Conditions

Ottawa, March 23—The special committee on old-age pensions met yesterday and heard a number of witnesses, all favoring the adoption of such a scheme. J. J. Joy of the Longshoremen's Union, Halifax, and J. J. Kelso, superintendent of neglected children in Ontario, believed it would tend to discourage slums and do away with poor houses, while improving social conditions in many ways. W. A. Sherwood of Toronto explained the system prevailing in New Zealand. W. McConachie of Kingston and John Keane, superintendent of charities of Ottawa gave evidence on a similar line.

No Conference Yet.

Montreal, March 23.—The delegates of the Grand Trunk conductors and trainmen are still in the city discussing the revised rates of pay which are to go into effect on April 1 for branch lines men. So far, no conference has been held with the management of the company, and the lengthy discussions which are taking place among the delegates would indicate that there is considerable difference of opinion among them as to what course to adopt now that it has been intimated to them that the Labor Department will not appoint a conciliation board to enquire into the proposed reductions.

SUFFERED FROM VIOLENT CATHARTICS

The Warning of Mr. Geo. C. Fox Is One That Should Be Heeded by All.

Few men on the road are better known than genial George Fox, whose friends throughout the West are legion. In the following letter he expresses gratitude for signal services rendered by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. He goes on to say: "Until I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills and experienced their wonderful mildness and curative power, I estimated the value of every pill by its activity. Talking about this to a well-known physician I met on the train the other day, he explained there are different kinds of drugs that act upon the bowels, the most active being known as drastic. Except in extreme cases where the life of the patient depends upon speedy evacuation of the bowels, pills should never be drastic. Purgatives cause catarrh of the bowels and inflammation; their dose must be increased, causing even more harm. With such a clear explanation I could see why Dr. Hamilton's Pills are curative and not irritating, why they are mild, yet most searching.

"From my experience I recommend everyone that takes pills to give up the old-fashioned harsh, purging pill, and, instead, to use Dr. Hamilton's. They cure headache, biliousness, constipation, bad stomach, and keep the system in perfect condition."

UNION LABEL

THE LIBERAL PLATFORM

Driven to take some sort of stand on the temperance question, the Liberal party in the Legislature has announced its platform in this regard. To wipe out every bar in Ontario while retaining shop licenses is understood, on the best authority, to have been the decision of the caucus of Liberal members in the Legislature on Thursdy.

This is Mr. Rowell's definition of a temperance platform, and was only accepted after a long discussion among the friends. It is surprising how such a hair-splitting policy—if it be a policy—could commend itself to consideration.

ATTEMPTS TO BLOCK THE PROBE

About a week ago, in the course of proceedings before a court of justice in Montreal, the president of the Diamond Light and Gas Co. swore that in the last four years his company had got $109,000 of business from the Dominion Government, and had been obliged to pay $41,000 to secure this business to agents whom he refused to name. Friday morning at a meeting of the Public Accounts Committee it was proposed to investigate this matter, the necessary motion being the referring to the committee of the House of the Auditor General's reports for five years back. Mr. Middlebro made the motion as soon as the House met.

Mr. Couch at once rose to try and block the proposed investigation. He was ably seconded by Reform friends who on any possible subterfuge would have the matter smothered. It was threatened that Parliament would be held up and prorogation delayed if the enquiry went on.

This brought, as it should, the reply from Mr. Borden that they would stay in Ottawa as long as it was necessary to transact the public business, and would not be deterred from so doing by public threats.

Presently we should learn where the money came from to support the reciprocity campaign.

AUTO SPEED LIMITS

The Legislature has passed a measure whereby the speed limit of automobiles is increased from ten to fifteen miles in the city and from fifteen to twenty miles in the country. The law will be received with delight by the owners of the cars, but not so by those whose bank account will not allow of such a costly expenditure.

The introduction of the automobile has increased the number of accidents many of which have proved fatalities. In the majority of cases the accident was due to the carelessness of the drivers and it is not to be supposed that the accident list will grow smaller now that the cars travel at a higher rate of speed. The trouble is that the drivers are not content to keep within the law, and anyone who has ridden in a car, can readily understand the reason why. As one becomes accustomed to this mode of travelling, the desire is for greater speed, and so long as the engine will respond, that desire is apt to be gratified.

What is necessary is for the law authorities to do their duty, and do it in all cases. There has been a laxity in the past and this fact, together with the wilful neglect on the part of the drivers to abide by the law, has been the means of increasing the business at the monumental establishments.

NEW HEALTH ACT

Much good will be accomplished by the new Public Health Act by which the Province is divided into ten districts, each being under the charge of a medical man. Provincial Secretary Hanna expects to secure young medical graduates and has already received over two hundred applications. Each officer will receive a salary of $2,500 a year and will be reimbursed for the expenses incurred by him in carrying out the duties.

The local medical health officer will be practically supreme as to what is necessary for the preservation of health, and with him the municipality will make an agreement for remuneration to him for medical attention upon those not cared for in a public or private hospital.

The feeding of decomposed food to hogs, under section 100, can be prevented by the health officer, who, at his discretion, may seize and carry away the hogs so as to prevent their removal. Any butcher selling meat shall be required to produce an affidavit that the place at which such meat is slaughtered is open to inspection, and in the case of slink veal the burden of proof is on the person charged. The M.H.O. may refuse a local license in case he is not satisfied with the information given or with the origin of the meat supply.

When a communicable disease exists in any boarding school or institution that receives pupils the patient must at once be isolated and notification sent to the medical health officer within twelve hours, and the person so suffering shall be isolated.

"Any condition existing in any locality which is or may become injurious or dangerous to health or prevent or hinder in any manner the suppression of disease shall be deemed a nuisance within the meaning of this act. The foregoing is the cleverly-worded definition by which it is hoped to gather all public nuisances out of the way, and in the following section the act particularizes many acknowledged nuisances.

Clause 87 is ample in its provisions. It declares that where, in the opinion of the health officer, premises are so situated, constructed or improperly lighted, or of such a character or condition as to be unfit for human habitation or dangerous to health, "he may cause such premises to be closed, and may affix a notice thereon in a prominent place setting forth the reason for such closing . . . and no person shall pull down or deface such notice or use the premises closed as a dwelling."

The bill also provides for local boards of health, of reduced numbers from those now prevailing. In future these are to comprise three resident ratepayers, to be appointed annually by the council, who will act with the mayor and health officer. Remuneration is also provided for these, every member being entitled to $2 for every attendance, and travelling expenses.

It can thus be seen that the machinery provided for preserving the public health is very extensive and ought to prove adequate for its purpose. The responsibility cast upon the Medical Officer is very great, and wide are his powers.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Calgary is to have a new police station, which will cost about $125,000, and accommodate 100 prisoners. This note is not intended to recall any forgotten dreams to Chief Thompson.

More than four-fifths of the inhabitants of New York City are of foreign birth or parentage, according to figures just given by the population research bureau of the Federation of Churches.

White haired and decrepit, an eighty year old forger and swindler received a sentence the other day after he had begged the judge to send him to jail for a long term that he might die in prison. That it didn't pay to be a crook was one of his last remarks in court, and he ought to know, having as he has had, fifty years' experience with the police and the underworld.

Six women recently ignored the pastor's request to remove their hats in church. One cited the admonition of the Apostle Paul that women should not appear in church with uncovered heads, but the chances are that in her case she couldn't have removed the millinery is she wanted to.

According to Dr. Wilson, of New York City, it is the mothers who are responsible for farm failure and the desertion of the farm by the young people. He claims that the farm wife lives such a hard and unlovely life that her husband becomes discouraged, and the children leave the farm to escape the awful drudgery that mother endures.

The Ontario Educational Association, which holds its fifty-first meeting in Toronto during Easter week (April 8th to 11th) is making this year an interesting departure from its usual procedure. For many years past it has had as the chief speakers at its evening meetings distinguished educators from abroad. While these visitors have been cordially welcomed, and while their remarks have been much appreciated, the Association had decided to give this year the places of honor on its program to Canadians.

Coal Strike Checks Immigration.

Montreal, March 23.—One phase of the British coal strike and of the general labor troubles in Great Britain is the effect which they will have upon the immigration to Canada.

Mr. Southhall of the Canadian Northern's immigration department, is of the opinion that the result will be a decrease rather than an increase of the normal amount of immigration from the old country.

Mr. Southhall has just returned from a trip to the old country. He says that conditions in the provincial towns of England at present are appalling. "The coal strike was just starting when I sailed, but there were hundreds of thousands of people starving before that. What things are now is unimaginable," said he.

"This discontent, it might be at first supposed, would cause many to leave the country, but, as a matter of fact it will have rather an opposite effect.

"The people have not the means of getting away from the misery which surrounds them. The middle classes are in sympathy with the strikers, but the aristocrats are adamant against demands for a living wage."

Vickert Case Finished.

Woodstock, March 23.—After a three-day session in which sixteen witnesses were heard, the enquiry into the charge of offensive partisanship on the part of Fred. Vickert, postmaster at the village of Princeton, came to a close last night, and in the course of a few days Commissioner McDonald will report to the Postmaster-General.

James G. Wallace, K.C., of Woodstock, and Mr. Fred. Vickert were the only witnesses called yesterday. Mr. Wallace, who was the Conservative candidate in the last federal election, was brought down to dispute the statement made by Mr. Vickert in the local press that he (Wallace) had invited the postmaster to speak at the Conservative meeting held in the village of Princeton. Mr. Wallace denied this most emphatically.

Mr. Wallace admitted that he had laid the charge of offensive partisonship against Mr. Vickert.

Mr. Vickert repeated that on the afternoon of the day of the Wallace meeting in Princeton Mr. Wallace asked him to speak at the meeting.

Cars Went Down Bank.

Fort William, Ont., March 23.—Five coaches of the second section of the Vancouver express left the rails at Jackfish, on the north shore of Lake Superior, and rolled down an embankment. Fourteen passengers were hurt and are now in hospitals at Port Arthur. The train was running slowly and coming to a broken rail, the front part passed over without difficulty. Five coaches in the middle broke loose and rolled over. The injured are: M. B. Cooey, Proton Station, Ont.; H. Lemon, Owen Sound, Ont.; H. D. Hollinger, Granville, Ohio; Alex. Quinn, Frankville, Ont.; Harry Smith, Lake Francis, Ont.; Charles Taylor, Ripley, Ont.; C. J. Murphy, Toronto; Mr. Watt, Port Hope, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Week, Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson, Brantford, Ont.; Mr. K. Webber, Ayton, Ont.

Now It's the Sugar Trust.

New York, March 23.—After ten days of testimony, the Government rested its case yesterday in the trial of John E. Parsons, Washington B. Thomas and other directors of the American Sugar Refining Co. for criminal violation of the Sherman law. This will allow the defence to begin its testimony on Monday, though it was announced by the defendants' attorneys that their first move would be to ask for a dismissal of the indictments.

Wellington, N.Z., March 23.—The Japanese Antarctic expedition returned here to-day. They report having seen nothing of the British polar expedition of Capt. R. F. Scott.

The Japanese reported all on board well. They were engaged chiefly in coastal exploration on King Edward Land.

Lady Betty Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

After this we kept losing ourselves in different green walled paths and suddenly coming on booths where variety entertainments were going on or funny cardboard pagodas, where celebrated Japanese artists did your portrait in five minutes on rice paper, or silk tents with conjuring shows. And there was a place where you fished in a small, round pond with magnets and caught little metal frogs with jewels in their heads, which you picked out. Farther on was a miniature eastern bazaar, where girls in gauze danced while you drank Turkish coffee and pushed spoonfuls of sherbet under the lace on your mask. And there was a cinematograph entertainment of a bull-fight, which I wouldn't look at, and some martyrs being reluctantly eaten by lions, and Otero dancing.

Celebrated Japanese artists did your portrait in five minutes.

All the masked people we met were enjoying themselves very much and saying this was the best thing for years. And it really was fun. But at last I thought we must have seen it all, and I wanted to go out. Besides, I was tired of being with Potter, who would be sentimental, though I begged him not.

"How do you propose to escape?" he asked. "This is a maze. The proper dodge in a maze is to be lost, and I am lost. So are you. We're lost together."

"But I want to be found now," said I. "We've been lost long enough. There are lots of other things to do."

"And there's all night to do them in," said Potter. "I dare say we shall be lost for an hour or so yet. We've been wandering around from one path to another, and we've never seen the same thing twice, so perhaps there's a lot more to explore."

"You must know," I said. "It wasn't kept a secret from you as it was from me. You must have been through this maze heaps of times, and of course you know the way out."

"If I did I've forgotten it," Potter coolly remarked. Then he changed his tone. "You make me forget everything, Betty—everything but yourself."

"You're not to call me Betty!" I said crossly, for I was tired of having conversations like that. And I thought that I would be having much more fun with some one else, for what is the good of wearing a mask if you are only to talk with people you know?

"There's something else I'd a great deal sooner call you," he half whispered. "Come into this little dell where the fountain is and the orange trees, and let me tell you."

"I don't want to know," I said.

"Yes, you do. Come along, anyhow, and I'll pick you an orange. Perhaps there'll be something nice inside it, like there was in the toad's head."

I wasn't to be bribed in that way, but he took hold of my hand and pulled, so that I had to go with him unless I wished to resist and be silly. Several people were coming toward us around the twist of the path, and one tall man ahead of the others, dressed very plainly like a Puritan, was looking hard at us. Rather than make a scene I went quietly with Potter, but as soon as he had whisked me into the little dell with the orange trees and the fountain, he pushed one of the trees and it moved forward in a groove, so as to block up the entrance and hide the dell from any one who walked along the path.

"That's not a bad trick, is it?" said he. "I had that arranged on purpose."

"On purpose for what?" I was silly enough to ask.

"To bring you here and get you to myself. This is Betty's bower, but nobody knows it except you and me."

With that he pulled off his mask and made as if he would help me to do the same with mine, but I stepped back and almost tumbled over into the fountain. Perhaps I would if he hadn't caught me round the waist, but instead of letting go when he had steadied me on my feet he drew me closer to him. I gave a twist and a little angry cry, and just then, to my joy, some one from outside pushed the orange tree back in its groove so as to leave an opening again.

I darted out and caught a glimpse of the tall Puritan man, who was apparently engaged in pulling the tree forward so as to close the gap and shut Potter in.

It was so quick that I hardly had time to understand whether it was being done for my sake or not, but I didn't stop to think; I simply ran. I met harlequins and queens, kings and columbines hunting in couples (the green alleys were only broad enough for two), but I pushed by them and went flitting down path after path, though voices called after me and people pretended to shiver with cold as Frost passed.

Then, suddenly, "I think this is a way out," said a voice I knew, speaking just behind me. It was the voice of my brown man. I could have recognized it among thousands. But when I looked it was the tall figure of the gray Puritan who had helped me to get away from Potter Parker.

I didn't answer a word, not even to say "Thank you" or "Is this really you, Mr. Brett?" I just went in the direction he said, and in another minute I was out under the Italian pergola, draped with roses and wistaria, that runs for a long way overlooking the sea. Then I glanced over my shoulder, and he was there, but hesitating as if he hadn't decided whether to come with us or go back.

When I saw this I did stop and mumble in a low voice, "It is you, isn't it, Mr. Brett?"

"Yes," he answered. "I hope you forgive me."

"Oh, I thank you," said I. "I—wanted to come away. But how did you know that—and how did you know me?"

EVIDENCE CROPS UP EVERY DAY

That Dodd's Kidney Pills Always Cure Kidney Disease

Quebec Man Who Suffered From Headaches, Rundown System and Kidney Disease Finds Quick Relief and Permanent Cure.

COIN ROUND SUR RICHELIEU, Vercheres Co., Que., March 22—Special—More evidence crops up in this vicinity every day to prove that for run-down people there is no remedy to equal Dodd's Kidney Pills. Among the many who have come forward with statements is Octave Chicoine, a well-known resident, whose testimony can easily be corroborated.

"Before using Dodd's Kidney Pills I suffered always from headaches," Mr. Chicoine states, "in fact my whole system was out of order. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me, and I have had no return of any of my old troubles."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are popular all over this country, because they not only cure the pains and aches of the different diseases springing from disordered kidneys, but also give new life and energy all over the body. They do this naturally. They cure the kidneys. Cured kidneys strain all the impurities out of the blood and the pure blood carries nutriment instead of poison to all the nerves and muscles. You have never heard of a person Dodd's Kidney Pills harmed. You hear of thousands who have been benefitted by them.

HAS MADE GOOD.

G. T. Somers Is Youngest Head of Toronto Board of Trade.

The election of G. T. Somers by acclamation, president of the Toronto Board of Trade, is but another instance of the boy born in the country making good in the city.

G. T. Somers, whose first name is Gabriel, is the youngest man to hold this important position. He is not yet 45 and has been residing in Toronto only eight years. While a member of the Board for several years, yet it is only during the past three years that he has been vitally active in its deliberations. So dynamic is he, however, that much of its recognized and growing influence has been due to his energetic suggestion.

President Somers is among the big men of that city. He is prominently identified with the Sterling Bank of Canada, the Crown Life Insurance Company, the Canada Grain Company, and the Ontario Securities Co. He is a member of the Toronto Club, the National Club and the Reform Club of Toronto, and of the Manitoba Club, Winnipeg. In religion he is a Methodist. In politics, though a life-long Liberal, he was one of the eighteen signatories of the memorial against reciprocity. He is happily married these sixteen years.

He was born in Barrie, one of a family of eleven, ten of whom were boys, all living but one. His mother and father still live there. On his mother's side he springs from the north of Ireland, where his grandfather held high office among the Orangemen. On his father's side his forebears lived in Somersetshire, England. Both his parents were born in Canada.

As a lad he spent a year in the law office of D'Alton McCarthy in Barrie, and did not escape the inspiration of that great Canadian. When sixteen he was in business as merchant for himself in Beeton and Cooksville. For ten years he sat in the County Council of Simcoe as reeve of Beeton village. He pioneered for municipal ownership in Beeton and saw waterworks and an electric light plant installed. They tell yet in Beeton of how he obtained the House of Refuge for Beeton when Barrie wanted it. It was a bit of county council statesmanship.

He left merchandizing to set up as a private banker and grain merchant. He also owned and edited the Beeton World, the Ontario Bee Journal, and a dairy paper. His lines broadened out and he was in frequent touch with the larger life of Toronto. His transition from Beeton to Toronto was natural and easy.

Since going to Toronto he has taken a prominent part in the life of the city, identifying himself with the numerous organizations, working for its progressive development. All his business enterprises he has thoroughly organized and being an executive of more than ordinary capacity finds time to devote to public service.

He was among the first to appreciate the great possibilities in the development of New Ontario. He has spoken frequently on this topic and was instrumental in organizing the Associated Boards of Trade of Ontario looking toward the constructive development of New Ontario. He believes a National Board of Trade, composed of delegates from the Associated Boards of Trade of the various provinces, might meet with profit once a year and discuss matters of national moment. Such a board would help to bring the East and the West together and obliterate misinformation one section of Canada has of the other. He believes no true Canadian can know too much of his own country. To Canadians who have leisure to travel he says, "See Canada first."

Mr. Somers comes to his presidency, a man of large vision, schooled in the management of important enterprises. He is a thorough Canadian, an ardent Imperialist and a man of action. He is an excellent speaker, preparing his addresses with care and knowledge and ever pitching his note high and national. He is one of the coming young men of the country.

WHEN MOTHER WAS A GIRL.

They wore no extra wads of hair
When mother was a little girl.
There was no hobble skirt affair
When mother was a little girl.
The waist line didn't change a bit,
They never wore peach basket hats,
The sheath gown hadn't made a hit,
No one had ever heard of janes and rats,
When mother was a little girl.

The women smoked no cigarettes
When mother was a little girl.
Nobody'd heard of suffragettes
When mother was a little girl.
The maidens chewed no wads of gum
In public, as they do today;
The bridge whist fever hadn't come,
The girlies didn't get so gay,
When mother was a little girl.

The maidens did the washing, too,
When mother was a little girl.
And swept and brushed the house all through,
When mother was a little girl.
They had to wash the windows clean,
They didn't go to matinees;
They spent their time in other ways
When mother was a little girl.

They didn't wear these high heel shoes
When mother was a little girl.
Nor Laura Jean's love tales peruse,
When mother was a little girl.
The maidens were quite circumspect;
They didn't sit up half the night.
Their sweethearts left, you recollect,
Before the gray of morning light
When mother was a little girl.

We are selling Experience--not Experiment--in MITCHELL Cars

IT is now seventy-seven years since the MITCHELL Manufacturing Interests first engaged in the building of high-grade vehicles. It is thirteen years since they commenced building Automobiles. Thus the accumulated experience of three-quarters of a century, and the special facilities and methods that have been developed during more than a decade, constitutes the basis upon which they have founded a business and engineering success that ranks second to none in the Automobile Industry. ¶ The New 1912 Models are the latest and most improved examples of their respective types—designed and manufactured by an organization that for years has been committed to a consistent policy of creating the highest value for the lowest cost. ¶ If you are in the market for a car, you owe it to yourself to supplement this introduction with a more extended acquaintance. CANON DAVIDSON AT BUFFALO N. Y.

The Buffalo Sunday Times of March 17, had the following reference to Rev. Canon Davidson:

Rev. Canon John Cheyne Davidson, M.A., rector of the old parish church of St. John's at Peterborough, Ont., will be the speaker this week at the noon-day meetings in St. Paul's church. Canon Davidson, who is distinguished as a pulpit orator and for his interest in movements for Christian unity, is a graduate of Trinity University, of Toronto, and was canon of St. Alban's Cathedral in that city.

He is chaplain and honorary major of the 57th Regiment in Peterborough and an active figure in social service in that progressive little city of Central Ontario, familiar to many Buffalo people, on account of its proximity to the Kawartha Lakes. He was a delegate to the Pan Anglican Congress in London, England, in 1908, and is president of the Peterborough Ministerial Association.

Canon Davidsons' general subject for the meeting this week is "The Way to God." The topic, from Monday to Friday, inclusive are: "God is Light," "The Way of Light," "The Way of Fellowship," "The Way of Penance," "The Way of Praise." The sermons, each day, begin at 12 and are concluded at 12.30, taking only 30 minutes from the luncheon hour and an increasing number of men are hearing them each day. They are held under the direction of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

REAL SCOTCH COMEDY HERE WEDNESDAY NEXT

The Famous Play "Bunty Pulls the Strings" at the Grand Next Week.

The following write-up of the performance of "Bunty Pulls the Strings" at the Royal Alexandra, Toronto, appears in the Star:—

"Bunty" is pulling the strings—and also the crowds—at the Royal Alexandra Theatre this week. Last night every seat in the house was sold and it is estimated that six hundred were turned away. And why? Because Graham Moffat's "Bunty Pulls the Strings" is just a quiet, quaint, Scotch comedy, human, humorous—a sort of Scotch "Pomander Walk." It is so refreshingly out of the rut of ordinary theatricalism, so full of homely Scotch philosophy, that there can be no question of its popular appeal.

The Royal Alexandra seemed saturated with Scotch atmosphere last night. Even the paper on the parlor wall in "Bunty" Biggar's house was essentially Scotch. The rolling r's of the players are strictly Scotch, and as the audience was largely Scotch, all was in harmony.

The play gets its title from the managing nature of pretty little Bunty, the daughter of Tammas Biggar. The latter is the elder of the kirk, a highly respected man in the community, and a stern father, believing in the "spare the rod and spoil the child" proverb to such excess that one son has run away from him and the other wants to go. The play opens on a Sunday morning, and the parlor blinds are down, keeping out the sunshine. "It wadna do to be too happy," says Bunty, in explanation.

It is hardly fair to the play to attempt to epitomize its plot. The charm of the piece does not lie in the plot. Suffice it that Tammas Biggar gets in heaps of trouble. Bunty's fiance, Weelum Sprunt, also has his troubles. Bunty's brother Rab tries to run away, and various other complications set in—all of which are charmingly set right by the managing Bunty, who pulls the strings so quietly that nobody seems to know how it's done.

The play abounds in bright lines and some of the situations are good enough for hearty laughs in themselves. In almost every line there's Scotch character.

"I hope, father, you'll no try to thrash me," says Rab to his angry dad, who has caught the boy whistling on the Sabbath.

"If I did, I wad wait till the morrow," says Tammas Biggar.

Bunty — "Weelum, how did your auntie get all her money?"

Weelum—"She was awful fortunate in people dying."

Rab is told to learn the catechism.

"But faither, I don't understand it," he argues.

"Wha's expecting you to understand it?" replies the stern father. "Learn it."

Some of Bunty's epigrams are worth storing away in the mind:

"An angry wumman turns out a clean washin."

"Most of the contented wummin are plain."

"Some wumman has to manage nearly every man in the world, and it's a most unfortunate man who will nae be managed."

Finally, when Weelum Sprunt is told that when he weds Bunty he will be the most hen-pecked man in all Scotland, he replies, "Weel, I'll just glory in ma shame."

The company is superbly Scotch, and the acting is little short of life. Bunty, as played by Mollie McIntyre, is a most engaging young lady, pretty as a picture, and with good acting ability, though her tongue is not so aggressively Scotch as in the case of the rest of the company.

Ethelbert Hales, as Tammas Biggar, gives a splendid impersonation of the stern Scotch father, and Neil McNeil, as Rab, could not be bettered.

William Lennox's make-up as Weelum Sprunt is most realistic, and his droll methods and voice are really clever. Mabel Stanton, as Eelen, "the perpetual bride," and Jean Burnett, as the old maid, are capital. All the other roles are well handled.

The production is well staged, the scene in the kirk yard being particularly fine.

SPOKE ON THE IDEAL CITIZEN

Splendid Address by Prof. Hutton of University College, Toronto

That the banquet and address was one of the best in the history of the organization, was the verdict of those who attended the Canadian Club gathering last night in the Oriental Hotel.

A general feeling of enthusiasm seemed to prevail, largely due to the presence of the distinguished educationalist, Principal Hutton, of University College, Toronto, who delivered the address of the evening. The attendance was also large, and the spread of the usual excellent and acceptable nature.

THE IDEAL CITIZEN.

Principal Huttons' address was calculated to create a righteous pride in Canadian citizenship. After a few appropriate and timely opening remarks, he launched into the subject he had chosen to speak on, namely, "The Ideal Citizen." He traced in patriotic and inspiring language the evolution of the present day splendid type of Canadian, showing the qualities he possessed which enabled him to merit the position he had assumed among the nations.

The great bulk of Canadians sprung from either French ancestry, United Empire Loyalists stock, or the hardy Briton. The sterling characteristics which to-day caused Canada to occupy the high place which she does had their origin in the best traits of these three mentioned classes. From the French people were extracted the best in art and literature. From the United Empire Loyalists royalty was obtained, and from the Briton, hardihood and progressiveness. The combination of these three qualities were responsible for the splendid examples of Canadianism that prevail to-day.

At the conclusion of the address a hearty motion of thanks was tendered to Principal Hutton.

MR. J. L. HUGHES TO SPEAK HERE

Educational Anniversary of the George Street Church To-morrow

To-morrow will be educational anniversary at George street Methodist church. Mr. J. L. Hughes, Chief Inspector of schools in Toronto will be present and he will deliver two addresses at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. respectively in the interests of higher education and on behalf of the educational institutions.

Mr. Hughes is such an eloquent and convincing speaker, many will want to hear him. All are welcome.

THEATRICAL

"BREWSTER'S MILLIONS"

"Brewster's Millions," Frederic Thompson's big scenic production as presented to a well-filled house at the Grand last night, with Louis Kimball in the title role, made a big hit. The play was certainly up to advance notices and the local theatre-goers showed their appreciation in no uncertain manner.

The story depicted by the production appeals to everyone. It was that of a young man always poor before, who had fallen heir to a million dollars left to him by his mother's father. His uncle died about the same time and left the young millionaire seven millions with the proviso that he would dissipate the fortune left to him by his grandfather, in one year. Pressure was brought to bear upon the young man and he started out to win the seven millions.

Those who thought that spending one million dollars in one year without the aid of a friend, and show receipts for it, lost that delusion during last night's performance.

The scene where Brewster and party were supposed to be on board the Auxiliary Yacht Flitter in the Mediterranean Sea during a storm, received call after call. It was one of the best storm scenes that has ever been offered in the city.

"Bunty Pulls the Strings" on Wednesday March 27, will appear at the Grand.

Cause and Cure of Headache

The cause of headache as you know, is the stoppage of the circulation resulting in pressure on the delicate nerves of the head. In time nature will start the blood going again, but meanwhile we suffer and are unfit for duty.

Assisted by two ZUTOO Tablets, which by the way are as harmless as the soda they contain, nature will remove the pressure and stop the headache in twenty minutes. Why continue to suffer? Why be unfit?

It is really remarkable how many people now use ZUTOO to cure their headaches. Do you? If not, why not?

COAL SCARE

Twenty Carloads Arrived To-day for Local Dealer.

Many of the Reports on the Situation Without Foundation.

In reply to inquiries of a Review representative to-day, regarding the outlook for a let-up in the coal scarcity, Mr. J. E. A. Fitzgerald stated that there was no need for alarm. He said that they could supply all orders received, without trouble, and intimated that much of the alarmist talk that is exchanged by the people is foundationless. When asked if other dealers were able to supply orders in full, he said that as far as he knew they were. In regard to the tie-up along the railways, Mr. Fitzgerald stated that their coal was coming in regularly, and that no difficulty in procuring it, had been experienced, since the last big snow-storm.

Messrs. Weir and O'Brien, the East City coal dealers, on being asked how they were situated, said that they had experienced a shortage in some lines of coal, particularly in soft coal. Up till a week ago they had enough stored to supply orders in all lines.

"Will there be a coal famine?" queried the Review.

"No, I don't think so," was the reply. "We have had a lot of coal tied up and we are expecting it along any time. We can supply all orders even as we are, except, perhaps, a few in certain sizes of coal.

An even more optimistic reply was received from Mr. William Buller, of the Peterboro Fuel and Cartage Co. when he was asked, what truth there was in the coal stringency rumor.

"You may say," he remarked, "that there is no danger of a coal famine now" as far as we are concerned. The situation was relieved to-day by the arrival of twenty cars of the best quality coal, which is fully adequate to supply the whole city up till July 1st, at the least.

"There was a considerable scarcity before then," asked the Review.

Yes, we were down and out to a certain extent," said Mr. Buller, but there is no further danger now."

"What was the reason," he was asked.

"Chiefly owing to a hold up of cars at Black Rock, for forty days," said Mr. Buller.

The good news will allay all the fears of householders who have been worrying, lest they should suffer from the reported coal-famine, and who in consequence, have been considerably troubled for some time past.

There have been persistent rumors that the prices of coal would advance.

MR. G. N. GORDON SPOKE TO BOYS OF COLLEGIATE

Mr. Benton Throop, president of the club occupied the chair.

This club, supported entirely by the boys, is certainly a good opportunity for its members and the executive are securing the best men available to lecture on the most suitable subjects. Yesterday was the second meeting of the club and was as successful as indications promised. The club is for boys of from fifteen to eighteen years of age, and its success will be welcomed by all who are interested in the welfare of the boys of Peterboro.

ACCEPTS CALL TO PORT HOPE CHURCH

Rev. Mr. Mc Cullough Will be Missed at Harrison

Harriston, March 22.—At a special meeting of the Presbytery of Saugeen held here to-day a call from St. Paul's congregation, Port Hope, was presented to the Rev. T. D. McCullough, pastor for thirteen years of Guthrie Church, Harriston. The call was supported by the Rev. R. Pogue, of Peterborough, Moderator pro tem. of St. Paul's Session. The representatives from St. Paul's congregation unfortunately were prevented from being present by an accident while en route to Harriston. Representatives from the Session; Board of Managers, Young Peoples' Society, and congregation of Guthrie church addressed the Presbytery, and all spoke of the perfect harmony and good feeling that existed between the congregation and their esteemed pastor. The call was formally presented to Mr. McCullough signed by 232 members and twenty adherents. Mr. McCullough in feeling terms accepted the call, which was sustained by the Presbytery and the translation of Mr. McCullough to the Presbytery of Peterborough was agreed upon. Rev. Wm. Cooper of Mount Forest was appointed Moderator pro tem. of Guthrie Session, and will preach and declare the pulpit vacant on the first Sunday in April.

The Northwestern Elevated Railway, Chicago, has built a car with a line of enamelled posts on either side the aisle between which passengers may stand and avoid being crowded by other passengers.

LAKEHURST MAN ON WRECKED TRAIN

Harry Smith Reported as One of Those Injured

As far as can be ascertained there were no Peterborough people on the C.P.R. Settlers' train which was derailed at Jackfish, near Port Arthur on Thursday, causing injuries to a number of the passengers.

Five cars left the rails and plunged down a thirty-foot embankment. All the cars were loaded to capacity.

It was stated at the local C.P.R. ticket office that the arrangements made by local people would not bring about their travelling on the ill-fated train.

OMEMEEITE HURT.

One passenger, Edward Shore, of Omemee, is reported as having sustained an injury about the head, while Harry Smith, of Lakehurst, is reported as having one hand badly bruised.

Another victim mentioned in the despatches is David Watt, of Port Hope, who is well known in Peterborough. About two years ago he worked at the C.G.E. He was for a number of years a successful farmer in the vicinity of Port Hope, and also was interested in the grain business. His injuries, which are internal, are said to be serious. He was on his way to Vancouver.

MORE NAMES FOR THE BALL TEAM

Millionaires, Younkers and Generators are the Latest

Names for the Peterborough baseball team continue to come in. If you have any suggestion send it along at once, as someone might think of the same name and get in ahead. If there should be more than one hit on the name eventually chosen, the person who has sent it in first will be presented with the ten passes to the games.

The latest three on file are "Younkers," "Millionaires" and "Generators." The fan or fanette who sent in the former two neglected to sign any name. It will be impossible to credit the one who suggested these names if he or she does not allow their name to be known.

It might be stated here that it is useless to send along a name that is already on file.

SPORT TALK

That long talked of benefit match for Bruce Ridpath at the Ottawa Arena will take place to-night. The teams to play will be the New Edinburghs and an All Star seven. The New Edinburghs are champions of the Interprovincial and the All Stars will be chosen from the other interprovincial teams. There will be a curtain raiser between Hopewell's champions of the Ketchum League and Cedars, champions of the Ottawa Intermediate City League. The tickets were put on sale at noon yesterday and Ottawa citizens were coming across liberally.

At Macon, Ga., yesterday, Kelly's Yannigans defeated the regulars 7 to 5. Johnny Lush chased two runs in ahead of him with a long larrup to the right field fence. Speer, the former Guelph Canadian Leaguer, got a chance with the Yannigans when Harry Furssedon the Toronto "kid" was hit with the ball and had to retire in the second. Speer not only rapped out a good two-bagger but startled the veterans with his speed on the paths.

HON. MR. DOHERTY'S RACE TRACKS BILL

fect of this limit, however, was nullified by several associations using the same track. By the extension of this practice, continuous racing might be possible. By the present bill, this was corrected by providing that only two meetings a year could be held on the same track, and these should have an interval between them.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux approved of the general principle of the proposed legislation, but criticized the Government for granting recent applications for charters. There was a widespread public opinion against any increase in the number of race tracks, and he thought in view of this that these two applicants should have been required to come to Parliament for their charter. They had probably been aware that this legislation was in contemplation when they made application.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley argued that the Secretary of State had discretion under the law to grant or withhold charters. These two associations had only got their charters five days ago and had no vested rights. Why, therefore, should not they come under the criminal law?

Hon. Geo. P. Graham declared that no harm could have come from delaying the granting of these charters a few days longer, till this legislation had been passed. The public would argue, rightly or wrongly, that these charters had been granted when they were because their promoters were afraid that Parliament would not grant them, especially as the former Secretary of State had delayed them for two years.

The bill was reported and stands for third reading.

The Liberal majority in the Senate again overruled the Government yesterday by adopting an amendment to the highway aid bill to which the Government objected and which had been defeated in the Commons.

In committee on the Government Highways Aid Act, Hon. Mr. Lougheed said he still held the view that Senator Power's amendment would render the bill inoperative. There was no need for it, as the Government would this session bring down an estimate providing a sum which would be divided among all the provinces, according to their population, or at least all provinces who qualified to the terms proposed.

Senator Power's amendment was carried by 35 to 11.

On the motion of Senator Power, the clause authorizing the Minister of Railways to undertake the work of improving a highway upon obtaining consent of the Provincial Legislature was struck out of the bill.

The Change.

"In former times men sold their daughters for a good round sum. It wasn't so easy for an enterprising young man to go out and pick up a wife at a bargain."

"Is it different now?"

"They don't sell them any more."

"No; they are often glad to give them away."

When He Got Around to It.

"This hubbub on New Year's ought to be stopped. It is a disgrace to our civilization."

"Why don't you stop it?"

"I am going to after I finish a little job I have of making the earth turn from west to east for awhile."

Semi-ready Spring Styles for Men

The same price everywhere!

What does it mean?

Exactly what you would understand. Every merchant sells the same pattern of Semi-ready Suit or Overcoat at the same price you would pay for the same pattern and garment anywhere else in Canada.

The makers guarantee the worth value. They put on it in plain figures the cash value of the garment, and it is sold at that price—no more, no less.

From Halifax to Victoria, from ocean to ocean—that standard price rules. There is no "shenanigan" about a Semi-ready Suit—you can bank on it!

Femininity at the Bar.

It must have required some courage to become the first woman student of law in the whole province of Quebec and to break the rule which excluded women from this profession. That is just what has been done, however. Mrs. A. Langstaff, a native of Prescott, who for five years has been gaining an insight into the profession in the office of Jacobs, Hall and Garneau, in Montreal, has now taken her seat among the law students at McGill University.

In Quebec there never has been a woman lawyer. At the Bar of other provinces women have pleaded cases. Th Ontario Bar has a rather prominent member in the person of Miss Clara Martin, a lady who has enjoyed political distinction on the Toronto Board of Education.

Faddist this courageous lady is not. She is not studying law for her health. But though not a woman's rights champion, Mrs. Langstaff's legal ambitions may gain her a place upon the scroll of fame; for, after she graduates from McGill, Mrs. Langstaff's first professional problem will be to reverse the ancient legislation in Quebec, which excludes woman from the avenue of law as a road to a livelihood.

Edmonton Park Commission.

Edmonton has just appointed a Parks Commission. The fur port town has needed one. In prairie municipalities, where rapid growth shifts real estate value so quickly, the park question is likely to be shelved unless there is somebody responsible for keeping aside part of the city site for parks. Edmonton has got to the stage when parks are just as necessary as they are in the larger centres of Canada. Because Edmonton has hitherto had no one to size up possible park sites, she has continually run the risk of being either bereft of parks or paying exorbitant prices for park land, which a park commission might have grabbed at the psychological moment. The new commission will fill a gap in Edmonton municipal organization.

Price to Oppose Local Option.

Annapolis, Md., March 23.—That the charge that State Auditor-elect John F. O'Malley offered delegate Wm. R. Smallwood of Prince George County $2,500 to vote against the state wide local option bid in the House of Delegates, has been substantiated to such an extent as to call for action by the grand jury of Anne Arundel County, was the substance of a unanimous report to the House last night by the committee appointed to investigate the charges.

Three members of the committee are opposed to the local option bill and two favor it.

CHANGE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Made Safe by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Graniteville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—MRS. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing woman's ills such as inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

Alladin and His Wonderful Lamp

To one accustomed to the phenomenal development of Western Canada, the stories of vast cities "born in a day" read like abstracts from the "Arabian Nights"; and one looks around almost expecting to see the "Genie" appearing in response to the summons of the "Magic Lamp."

Those familiar with the actual conditions however recognize in this rapid expansion the opportunity of a lifetime, and are acting upon it, thereby ensuring to themselves immense profits in the near future.

RUBES' CARNIVAL CAUSED MANY HEARTY LAUGHS

Entertainment by Y.M.C.A. Boys Met With Big Success

Presentation of Trophies to the Athletic Champions

The Rubes Carnival, given in the gymnasium of the Y.M.C.A. last night was a grand success. The attendance was as large as it could possibly have been, the gallery being crowded and all the space on the floor that was not needed by the Rubes in their performances was used by eager spectators.

A large number of the Y.M.C.A. athletes were dressed in grotesque "hay-seed" costumes, there being short, frock and swallow-tailed coats, and trousers of every conceivable variety, most of them decorated with elaborate and extensive areas of bright colored patches. These were the Rubes that, under the direction of Mr. J. J. Thompson, physical director of the Y.M.C.A., gave the carnival last night, and be it said to their credit that they left nothing undone, either in the fun-making antics of Rubes or in their difficult gymnasium feats.

During the intervals in the program the "Rubes Band" furnished a relay of the most up-to-date musical numbers, including "Yankee Doodle" the "Suwanee River," "Casey Jones" and the brightest selection of all, the "Maid in the Moon." The band was exceedingly entertaining and its music was thoroughly enjoyed, and its members, even those with the tin cornets and gas-pipe trombones, contributed largely to the success of the carnival.

The pranks of Mutt and Jeff, impersonated by Frank Pigeon and Lorne Conway, were certainly amusing, and their part in the performance, particularly their dance, created a great deal of merriment.

During the evening wand drills, exhibitions on the vaulting horse, parallel bar work and gymnasium games were given, and the boys in these items of the program belied their costumes and performed their various exercises and gymnastic feats with the greatest skill and accuracy. Their work on the bars, particularly, showed the result of their training in the gym. during the winter.

In their drills the rubes used vegetables for dumb bells, rakes, forks, etc., for wands, and pumpkins for basketballs.

In a most acceptable manner Mr. J. J. Turner, Jr., discharged the duties of chairman.

The best hay-seed on the floor would be hard to pick out. The band master was certainly a good rube as far as his actions were concerned, but in dress "Lankey" Smith was the best one on the floor. Alex. Darling's actions were the source of a good many peals of laughter.

An interesting part of the program was the presentation by the chairman of the trophies for the championships of the sports held last summer at Riverside Park. A medal was given by the donor of each cup, to the winners of the pieces of silverware. The following cups were presented:—

The Howden Cup, and medal, donated by Mr. J. J. Howden, for the all round championship of the city—won by Stanley Canniff.

The Eastwood Cup, and medal, donated by Mr. V. Eastwood, for champion under 18 years of age—won by J. B. Mann.

The Huycke Cup, and medal, donated by His Honor Judge Huycke, to champion under 16 years of age—won by Ormond Cavanah.

The Peck Cup, and medal, donated by Mr. E. A. Peck, M. P. P., to champion under 14 years of age—won by German Phillips.

The Stratton Cup, presented by the Hon. J. R. Stratton, for all-round outdoor championship of the Y.M.C.A.—won by Stanley Canniff.

Mr. Thompson and the "Y" boys deserve a great deal of praise for their exhibition which showed careful training and was in merit worth far more than the small admission fee.

One hundred and five miners lost their lives in the gas explosion at Mt. Curtain, Oklahoma.

SECOND COMING OF CHRIST ONE OF THE SUBJECTS

Yesterday afternoon in Bethany Tabernacle, at 3 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Hamilton spoke about the people of India being by nature, just like the people of our own land, and the differences which we now see, being due to the Gospel.

At 3.30, Mr. Chandler spoke of Jesus taking His Disciples apart for prayer, and how He led them up to the mountain top experience so that while they waited and prayed Jesus filled their vision.

At 4.15, Mr. Chandler addressed the school children who gathered on that which is most important, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God."

At 8, p.m., Mr. Kuykendall spoke of his work in China and of the distressing conditions of revolution, pillage, famine and spiritual darkness of the land.

This afternoon Mr. Kuykendall spoke again on China, and Mr. Chandler spoke on "Does Jesus heal to-day?" and later spoke to the children.

This evening Mr. Hamilton will speak at 8 o'clock on India, and at 8.30 Mr. Chandler will speak on the "Second Coming of Christ."

On Sunday morning Mr. Chandler will give a Missionary address and a missionary offering will be taken.

At 3 p.m. Mr. Kuykendall and Mr. Hamilton will give missionary addresses.

At 6.45 there will be a song service, and at 7, Mr. Kuykendall will speak, and at 7.30 Mr. Chandler will speak on the Second Coming of Christ.

Federal Square For Toronto.

Ottawa, March 23.—It is understood that a recommendation has been forwarded to council for a large appropriation in the supplementary estimates for beginning work this year on the scheme for the proposed federal square in Toronto, west of the City Hall, as urged upon the Government some days ago by Mayor Geary and the Toronto members.

The Minister of Public Works is personally very much in favor of the proposal for a comprehensive scheme of new federal buildings in Toronto to meet the needs of the second largest city in Canada. Tentative plans for the proposed block are now under consideration, and a total expenditure of about two and a half millions is contemplated.

In view of the Toronto representation in the Cabinet and in the Commons it is practically certain that the Government will treat the "Queen City" generously, and it is expected that the proposal for the federal square will be endorsed by the Cabinet and the recommendation of the Minister of Public Works concurred in.

Civil Service Reform.

Toronto, March 23.—N. W. Rowell is carrying out another of his pre-election pledges in a notice that he will move on Wednesday next: "That in the judgment of this House the spoils and patronage systems are inimical to the highest efficiency of the public service, and to the best interests of the country; that the public interests demand the immediate creation of a non-partisan civil service commission with ample powers, and that all appointments and promotions in the public service shall be by merit after competitive examination except in those cases where the conditions of the public service render this impracticable."

NO SLEIGHING AT THIS DATE LAST SPRING

But Weather Was Quite Sharp—Four Below This a. m.

To-day is the 23rd day of March, but by the record of the thermometer this morning 4 degrees below zero, and the appearance of the huge drifts of snow to be seen in the outskirts of the city and in the country, winter is still in full swing. As we have not had a genuine thaw during the winter, practically all the snow that has fallen is still with us

At this date last year the weather was quite sharp; sleighing was gone, but there was still three or four inches of snow in places. A snowstorm on April 2nd brought out the plows again, but by April 11th the last remains of winter had gone.

The spring of 1910 was much earlier. All snow, except some drifts in secluded places, was gone on March 19. Robins and other birds were plentiful at this date. Some roads were dusty. Temperatures of 70 degrees in he shade were being recorded. April was fine and warm. May, however, was unusually cool, and growth was retarded.

Quite a snowstorm occurred March 24, 1919; the snow did not stay long, however, and was completely gone by April 8th. Sleighing had been poor all March.

In 1908 at this date there was a foot of snow still on the ground, and I degree below zero was recorded March 24. Spring-like conditions came by April 1st.

On March 23, 1907, there was a thunderstorm. Spring was here in all its glory and lasted for several weeks, but snow came again—about the middle of April.

The spring of 1906 was out of the ordinary. Snow had disappeared by Feb. 15. Spring-like conditions prevailed until March 23rd. when the thermometer took a tumble to 12 below zero, (considerably worse than this morning) Cold weather continued for several days. Fine weather began April 1st.

Over two feet of snow remained on the ground at this date in 1905 By the 1st of April it had disappeared.

Much the same conditions existed in 1904. The winter of that year was an exceptionally severe one.

March of 1903 was much like May usually is. Blackbirds, robins and bluebirds were plentiful after the 15th, and the watering carts were on their rounds.

Spring set in early in 1902, in fact it was the earliest spring since 1879. Cool conditions prevailed during May and June when warm weather was needed

In 1901 the snow was gone by the last week of March. Several minor falls occurred during the following month.

In 1900, as well as the three previous years, four to six inches of snow was on the ground at this date

In none of these years, however, was there the depth of the beautiful so late as there is this "spring" As the season is now getting late it will probably go off with a rush when it does begin to move. Another ten days should see a marked deminution of winter's white matle.—W. P.

LESSON No. 3

From J. W. BROWETT Optometrist

My talk to you this week is very important. if you are a sufferer from headaches caused by straining the eyes. It is very important to you. of course, that you should use your eyes. but nature never intended that you should abuse them We know that headaches come from straining the normal eye or from using imperfect eyes or, in other words, eyes which do not focus. My experience leads me to believe that all strained eyes can be relieved by properly fitted glasses. When this strain is relieved the headaches disappear. Now reason a little: If you are a sufferer from headaches, and you suspect that the cause is strained vision then my argument must appeal to your case My experience, gained during the past twenty years is valuable to you. Try the remedy of glasses as we fit them. and you will not be disappointed

POLICE GET THEIR MAN IN TOLEDO

Is Wanted in Connection With Real Estate Deal

An item that appeared in the Toronto papers to-day, tells of the arrest of a young man named Leonard J. Williams in Toledo, Ohio. The young man is charged with jumping his bail, $1,200 in Toronto, where he was under arrest for the theft of $534 from a party named John McNair, in a property deal in Peterborborough.

Inquiries at the police station here elicited no information as to knowledge of the transaction or the case in question. Several real estate men also professed no knowledge of the deal.

The alleged case of theft is said to have occurred in January. A search of the Directory does not show the name of McNair residing in Peterborough.

"TRAGEDY OF BIRD ROCK"

The Second Lighthouse Keeper to Meet Violent Death

Widow Was Left Without Means of Communicating

Ottawa, March 22—Details of last week's tragedy of the Bird Rock Lighthouse, one of the Magdalen Islands, with all the grim setting of rough seas and a lonely widow brooding by the dead body of her husband, has just been revealed by a laconic Marconigram received to-day by the department of marine and fisheries. The message received tells its own story and runs thus: "Information obtained from Captain Farquhar, sealing ship "Seal," last Sunday evening Bourque went shooting with a dog. He shot one bird and his wife thought he was returning. On search a short time after the body was seen floating in the water. He had fallen over the barricade. The Seal landed the body on Grosse Isle, one of the Magdalene group, at 5 p.m., on the 16th inst. A letter from the lightkeeper's father following to-day."

This is the first news of any detail which has flittered to the outside world through the lonely distance which separates Bird Rock Lighthouse from the other parts of the Magdalene group. Behind it there lies the story of a grim tragedy, which is not the first to have occurred in the same spot.

Bird Rock is washed by the Atlantic and is the sphere of a leaning tower. There is no vegetation and during winter time the sea is covered with enormous blocking of floating ice. Thousands of sea birds wail their weird cries, while seals make their habitation on the floating ice. The lighthouse keeper has only one form of sport—to shoot the gulls and seals in the vicinity, and this has great danger attached to it. There is only one spot at the base of the rock into which a small boat can glide. The sportsman gets on the blocks of ice to reach the game better, and oftentimes, unless great care is taken, the ice will give way, and he may be carried far out to sea. In the case of Wilfred Bourque, who lived on the lighthouse since his father was superannuated in 1907, death overtook him through the treachery of the ice. He was standing on a barricade of ice, which gave way, and he was drowned.

The top of the lighthouse can only be reached by means of a hoist to which a basket is attached, into which one passenger at a time can go. Bourque's wife was unable when her husband was drowned to go down herself. Though the flashlight does not beam from the top-tower until navigation begins, it was the only means left to her to attract attention. The only Marconi station in the Magdalene Islands is situated on Grindstone and so communication with that quarter was cut off. So the darkness of last Friday night was illuminated by the rays of the revolving light. Captain Farquhar on his sealing ship saw the unwonted rays, was attracted, and proceeded with great caution to the rock through the shifting ice blocks. He recovered the body, and hastened with it to Grosse Isle, a distance of fifteen miles, and one of the Magdalene group. There the message was sent to the department at Ottawa. The brave wife of the dead lighthouse-keeper remains alone, mourning in the watch-tower.

The Hon. J. D. Hazen, minister of marine and fisheriers, has sent a marconigram of sympathy to the sorrowing widow, with a request that she keep charge of the lighthouse and get the salary of her husband until further arrangements can be made. The money allotted for the post is $1,300 a year. For six months of the year communication with the outside world is entirely cut off, and the light only shines during the period of navigation. The Marconi message which has been sent by the department here may only reach Mrs. Bourque, after several days waiting. The government steamer Stanley, which would carry the message, is tied up at the mouth of Sydney harbor, in the ice, and she will not be aware of the attention which the tragedy has aroused in the outside world until she gets the details from the captain of the Stanley.

In the meantime it is remembered that fourteen years ago a tragedy with more horrible consequences occurred at the same lighthouse. The lighthouse keeper of that day, with his two nephews and his wife, lived there. With his two nephews he went out seal shooting, and the sheet of ice upon which they were resting split in three pieces. The nephews were drowned, while the lighthouse keeper, was carried a distance of twenty miles after spending a day and a night on the ocean.

When we reached Amherst Island the simple Acadian fisher folk were horrified. He was covered with the blood of the dead seal he had eaten and which was in the ice with him, and his legs and hands were frozen. Before he died he communicated a message to Grindstone and they sent a steamer to the widow, who had witnessed the accident, and who had gone insane.

The father of the Bourque who has just been drowned succeeded to the position, and the sea has claimed his son as one of its victims. The shores of the Magdalene Islands are lined with wrecks and the horrors of those lonely fishing spots have been depicted by Tom Moore in his famous lines. "To Dead Man's Isle."

Bourque's father has communicated also with Ottawa. After leaving his post as lighthouse keeper on Bird Rock he went to live in the Acadian settlement, near Rimouski. He wishes that his son may be buried in the rock where he met his death, for already there is one lighthouse keeper buried there. The latter met his death while firing off a minute gun during the fog. The wooden cross guarding the grave of the earlier keeper, which catches the spray of the Atlantic, will now keep its holy vigil over two dead sea warriors if the department complies with the father's wish.

Packers Case Before Jury.

Chicago, March 22.—The case of the ten Chicago meat packers who have been on trial since December 6 before U. S. District Judge George A. Carpenter charged with criminal violation of the Sherman law, is scheduled to go to the jury this afternoon.

In closing the defendants' case, Attorney J. B. Payne said: "Cabinets in Europe await your verdict to decide whether fresh meat from the U. S. shall in the future be excluded from certain foreign countries. Do not send out word to the world that there is a dishonored cattle market in Chicago. The Government is asking a prison term for these defendants if a verdict of guilty is returned. If men are to be deprived of their liberty on such evidence as this, then, indeed, our institutions are on trial.

"Not a witness has testified that the price of fresh meat has been raised or the price of cattle lowered."

POLICE LOOK FOR REALTY OPERATOR WHO IS MISSING

Was Interested in Purchase of Grey Nuns' Property

Now Its Unpaid Board Bill and Dishonored Cheques

Montreal, March 22—With a sheaf of unpaid cheques behind him, several real estate deals involving over a million dollars fallen through and a hotel management wondering to whom it is to look for a board bill Geo F. Harrison is missing from the scene of his usual activity to-day.

Harrison represented himself as the emissary and representative of a Boston syndicate which was believed to be attracted to Montreal by the unusual real estate possibilities here. He cut a wide swath for several weeks around the Windsor Hotel rotunda and entertained on a lavish scale a number of those with whom he was dealing.

Some indication of the impression made by Harrison may be had from the fact that he closed a deal whereby the St. Catharine street frontage of the Grey Nuns' property, between Guy and St. Matthew streets, changed hands for the time being, at any rate, for the sum of $1,224,000. A deposit of $10,000 was made by him at the time to close the deal, that is to say, a cheque for that amount was made out by him.

Large properties were Harrison's specialty. Small deals had little attraction for him. The Dominion Square Methodist Church site looked good from the windows of the Windsor Hotel, where he was staying and he determined to add that to his Montreal holdings. He accordingly went to the owner of the property and opened negotiations with him. His Boston principals, of course had to be consulted and would look into the matter, but to hold the option of the valuable site, Harrison made out a cheque for $300, at the rate of $50 a day, for the privilege of buying the church site for six days.

This was on the 13th of this month The owner of the property has the cheque still, as the bank on which it was drawn, returned it with the notation: "N.S.F." which to the knowing stands tritely for "not sufficient funds."

His days were busy ones and he was ever on the alert for attractive propositions. Other minor deals were "closed" and cheques given with the usual ending. His nights were spent clad in evening clothes and tilted-back hat. Bell boys, porters, cabbies, and others around the rotunda, were despatched on various missions throughout the hotel or engaged to otherwise make the guest's life an easy one.

Prominent financial men called upon him and discussed important deals, and Harrison was regarded by many as something par excellence in the real estate world. There were some, however, who did not so regard him and steered a wide course from the one he followed.

Yesterday returned cheques, insistent demands that hotel and other bills be settled, and general distress of mind must have become unbearable under existing conditions, for Harrison disappeared and has not been seen since.

The hotel management admitted that its erstwhile guest had left and that his account had not been settled. Further than this it declined to say.

A complaint was laid by the Windsor Hotel with the police and Detective McLaughlin is looking for Mr. Harrison. The claim of the Windsor Hotel if $185.

Mr. Harrison was one of the most conspicuous figures around the Windsor Hotel. He changed his clothes four times a day, and was always dressed to the minute. He left a great many messages with the telephone operators and the clerks that if he were wanted he was "dining with Mr. ——— at the St. James' Club,"—naming one of the most prominent men in town.

He was intimate with a number of young society men round town, and was a frequent guest at the Hum and went riding almost daily.

That Harrison is not the real name of the man is generally believed in certain quarters. Some of his friends however, insist that Harrison will come back and straighten out everything within a short time.

PRISON LIFE CHANGES TRAVERS

Looks Ten Years Older Says an Acquaintance.

Heavily marked under the eyes, his hair greyer, and looking at least ten years older, Travers sits, apparently enjoying his limited freedom. Beside him sit two young men, dressed neatly, with overcoats over their arms and scarcely paying any attention to him. They have their eyes on him, though, all the time, for they are his escorts, two reminders of the grim stone walls of the penitentiary.

LOOKS TEN YEARS OLDER

Travers is not shaved, and his hair has not been cropped close to his head. With all his old-time manner he greets several people who enter the room. Many of those who are interested spectators of the enquiry went up to him and shook hands with him.

"He is looking fairly well, but at least ten years older than he did when I last saw him in the Police Court,' said one old acquaintance in the room.

SPENDS EASY DAY

Travers' day begins early, but he has nothing to do but sit around in the jail corridor until his guards take him to Osgoode Hall. He is allowed to read the papers, and also can smoke, this being a privilege that is allowed all prisoners at the jail, if their conduct is good.

His meals are no worse than he got at Kingston, and if anything, slightly better. He has to take his meals with the other prisoners at the jail, and partakes of the same food as they do.

But it is a change to be back here after spending some months in Kingston, and it will make his sentence seem all the lighter.

HAS MADE SEVERAL TRIPS

Since William R. Travers was sentenced to serve five years in Kingston penitentiary he has had several little jaunts to this city.

For several months he was kept in Toronto jail, while the cases against the other defendants were being tried. Then suddenly he was switched off to Kingston without the knowledge of the police. He was there for a few hours, when the police went after him, and he was brought back to Toronto on a judge's order.

WAS HUSTLED TO KINGSTON

While in Toronto he had a regular holiday, being allowed to read newspapers, have lunch with a detective in a down-town hotel and then return to the jail to sleep. When he wasn't in court he could amuse himself as he saw fit—except that he hadn't his liberty.

When all the cases were disposed of he was taken back to Kinston, where he was given an easy job as bookkeeper in the blacksmith department.

Now he has arrived in Toronto again, and will be able to spend his Easter holidays here. While still in custody, he will have an easier time than at the penitentiary. And every day passed brings his day of release nearer.

SPRING IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

A Tonic Medicine is a Necessity At This Season

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, are an all year round tonic, blood-builder and nerve-restorer. But they are especially valuable in the Spring, when the system is loaded with impurities as a result of the indoor life of the Winter months There is no other season when the blood is so much in need of purifying and enriching, and every dose of these pills helps to make new, rich, red blood. In the Spring one feels weak and tired—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills develop the appetite, tone the stomach and aid weak digestion. It is in the Spring that poisons in the blood find an outlet in disfiguring pimples, eruptions and boils — Dr. Williams' Pink Pills speedily clear the skin because they go to the root of the trouble in the blood. In the Spring anaemia, rheumatism, indigestion, neuralgia, erysipelas and many other troubles are most persistent, because of poor weak blood, and it is at this time when all nature takes on new life that the blood most seriously needs attention. Some people dose themselves with purgatives at this season, but these only further weaken themselves. A purgative merely gallops through the system emptying the bowels, but it does not cure anything. On the other hand Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood which reaches every nerve and organ in the body, bringing new strength, new health, and vigor to weak, easily tired men, women and children. Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills this Spring— They will not disappoint you.

Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"LELIA'S GHOST" SEEN AGAIN IN DUBLIN SUBURB

Revives Mystery of Disappearance of Niece of Earl of Belvedere

London, March 26.—The ghost of Leila Rochfort, the long-vanished niece of the Earl of Belvedere, whose title lapsed with his death, in 1814, is reported to have reappeared at Chapelizod, an ancient suburb of Dublin.

Several persons recently have affirmed that they have seen the apparition, and the people in the neighbornood of the great Kilmainham preceptory of the Knights of St. John are much wrought up over it.

According to one alleged eye-witness the ghost visited on one night the site of the celebrated Castle of Kilmainham, not one vestige of whose walls now remain.

The mystery of the disappearance of Leila Rochfort has puzzled the secret police of Great Britain and the Continent for more than a century. By the accounts handed down she was a beautiful young woman, with dark blue eyes and raven hair, who fell in love with Thady Quin, a junior officer of the Royal Irish Artillery, said to have been distantly related to the then Viceroy of Ireland. One night at a ball at the summer residence of the Viceroy at Chapelizod Leila Rochfort and the young officer vanished.

For more than ten years despite the most minute and systematic search by the detectives, not the slightest trace of the couple was obtained, though even the secret police of Paris, Belgium and Holland were called into service. Then, one day, so it is chronicled, a record was found in the revolutionary archives at the French capital indicating that Quin and the Earl of Belvederes' niece had made their way to Paris, where the officer had become, under the name of Rogemont, one of the leaders in the revolution, and that his girl companion abandoned him to marry a French viscount, and she was one of the noblemens' wives who were guillotined in the Reign of Terror. Such is the story.

The tragic fate of Leila Rochfort was still unknown in Ireland when, in 1820, an apparition, said to be her ghost, first appeared at the old mill at the end of the steep bridge spanning the river Liffey. The village, which lay in the rich and wooded valley of the Luffey, overlooked by the high grounds of Phoenix Park on one side and by the bridge of the Palmerstown Hills on the other, was in a state of excitement from the repeated visitations of "Leila's ghost." What troubled the visitors most was that the ghost moved over the river attended by a column of foot soldiers marching with perfect regularity high up in the air, and headed by an officer on horseback. One night a spectral guillotine was seen beside the vision of Leila, low over a wood. Then came a flash of lightning and a clap of thunder and the ghost vanished for forty years.

In the latter part of the last century the ghosts of Quin and Leila were reported seen in company hovering over the Liffey.

One of the stories believed by many is that the ghost of Leila is trying to communicate with human beings in order to reveal the name and whereabouts of a boy born to her and Quin, who if he could prove his identity, might have a fighting chance to recover the titles and fortunes of the house of Belvedere. Others surmise that Quin left no child, but that the niece of the Earl is attempting to communicate as to the offspring of her and the French viscount, so that the heir may claim large estates in Normandy.

Rich Potash Find In United States.

Washington, March 22—Enough potash to supply the United States probably for the next thirty years has been discovered by Government scientists in Searles Lake, San Bernardino County, Cal. The estimate of the geological survey and the bureaus of soils is that the deposit may amount to 4,000,000 tons, but the authorities here, from data in their possession, consider that estimate conservative and believe that more than 10,000,000 tons of potash is available there.

Embargo on Grain Shipments.

Winnipeg, March 22.—Representatives of all Canadian railways are at Saskatoon, where the Railway Commission is in session, trying to secure an order to put an embargo on grain to Duluth.

Five weeks ago an arrangement was made by which Canadian railways could take Canadian grain into Duluth at a reduced rate. As a result, 6,300 cars of grain have been taken from Western Canada into Duluth, and 4,000 more cars are listed for that point. At the present time the available elevator capacity unused in Duluth amounts to about 4,500,000 bushels, and it is estimated that consignments on the tracks of different American and Canadian railways will about fill up the Duluth elevators.

The C.N.R. still has an embargo on grain going to Port Arthur, and should the embargo be put on at Duluth no western Canadian grain can be moved for months.

Still Hope to Save Richeson.

Boston, March 22.—Efforts to save Clarence V. T. Richeson, the confessed murder of Avis Linnell, from death in the electric chair, began yesterday when his counsel, W. A. Morse, conferred with Governor Foss. The date set for the former clergyman's execution is in the week of May 19.

Mr. Morse said that no petition for commutation would be sent to the governor for two weeks at least, and he further intimated that the matter would not be pressed until the date of the execution was less than a month away.

Richeson's friends hope to obtain a life sentence for him.

Gas Distended His Stomach

"My last wish will be," writes Harry P. Pollard, a well-known boot and shoe traveler of Hartford, "that everyone with a bad stomach may learn as I did, before it's too late, that Nerviline is the one remedy to cure. Why, I was in mighty bad shape, my digestion was all wrong, and every night I would waken with a start and find my heart jumping like a threshing machine. This was caused by gas on my stomach pressing against my heart. When I started to use Nerviline I got better mighty fast. It is certainly a grand remedy for the traveling man, keeps your stomach in order, cures cramps, prevents lumbago or rheumatism, breaks up chest colds and sore throat—in fact there hasn't been an ache or pain inside or outside for the past two years that I haven't cured with Nerviline. Do you wonder I recommend it?"

For general household use Nerviline has no equal; it will cure the aches and ailments of the entire family—refuse anything but Nerviline, 50c per bottle, trial size 25c, all dealers or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

SHE CLAIMS OVER ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF LIFE

Mrs. Susannah Maxwell Celebrated Her 107th Birthday

Toronto Telegram.

What does it mean to look back upon more than a hundred years of life?

There is at least one person within an hour's journey of Toronto who can tell. She is Mrs. Susannah Maxwell, who on Sunday, March 10th celebrated her 107th birthday in her quiet home at Richmond Hill — in which place and in the vicinity of which she has been known and respected for more than half a century.

It isn't from taking life easily that Mrs. Maxwell has had little to do with doctors, and has kept at bay the King of Terrors for a long century.

"I learned to work when I was a little girl and I've worked hard all my life, and I could work now just as well as ever if the doctor hadn't said I must have rest," she said in her deep voice, which has but a hint of the quaver of age in its tones. She feels the cold and sits close to her warm fire, a stout woman with a broad, kindly face, iron-grey hair partly covered by a black lace cap, neat dress and checked shawl pinned across her bosom.

HAD TO STUDY.

Though Mrs. Maxwell is colored and though she lived across the border at the time bodies and souls of blacks were being thrown into the caldron that finally bubbled over as the Civil War, she has never been a slave.

Freeborn in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, she lost both her parents when almost a baby and was taken to bring up by a Mrs. Harpen, in a country home.

"I can remember when I wasn't any higher than that—" Mrs. Maxwell's hand measured a little above her knee—"how I would be called up to learn my letters. No I wasn't any higher than that. I stood beside Mrs. Harpen and she would make me say my letters. It was out of the old New York primer I learned them. Then when I was a little bigger it was the New York Reader I had. No, I guess you never had those books in Canada.

REMEMBERS WHEN SIX.

"I was only six years old then, and she would give me some knitting—I learned to knit, too—and tell me I must do six rounds in an hour and then I could go out to play. Pretty soon I could do it so fast I would get five minutes ahead of time, and then more and more until I could knit as fast as anyone.

"I used to sit out under the flowering trees—catawba trees — something like them flowers that grow here in Canada—what are they? "the—the—the—" there was a moment's groping in the memory, then the venerable face grew brighter—"the laylocks, that is it—and knit and look at the flowers. They would come out in great bunches and so sweet. I was brought up right with Mrs. Harpen's children and they learned just the same as I did.

"I was eighteen when I left Mrs. Harpen. She had kept me as long as she could, and then I went to work out. I could do any kind of work."

REMEMBERS LITTLE OF JOURNEY

It was harder for Mrs. Maxwell to remember the middle portion of her life. After her marriage she and her husband, with one or two little children, came to Canada, first reaching Toronto "I came by boat," she said, "but I don't remember all the journey. We had just been working out way north for some time. I remember we stopped a while in Philadelphia."

FLED TO CANADA.

A well-known resident of Richmond Hill, Mr. William Harrison, who has known Mrs. Maxwell for more than fifty years, has published a short but interesting sketch of her life.

He tells how the colored people in the vicinity of Mrs. Maxwell's home, which was probably in Pennsylvania at that time, grew frightened at rumors that kidnappers were on their track.

It was lucky that preparations for defence were made, as the rumor proved true. In a raid one night a white man and a colored woman were killed.

Feeling that their lives were in danger, many of the colored people decided to flee to Canada as a refuge from the storm, and among them were Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell. They therefore escaped the Civil War, which began in 1861.

For a short time they remained in Toronto, then, hearing of work at Richmond Hill, moved thither. Mr. Maxwell did not live many years, and the wife had a long, hard struggle. Four of her little children died one after the other, and the remaining daughter, Tillie, was taken by a well-known Toronto family when ten years old. In late years the daughter left a good position to care for her mother, and her untiring industry has made both comfortable.

Mrs Maxwell tells of her work for different families in Richmond Hill, and how she has seen the older members die and the younger ones take their place, and also grow old.

"It's like living in three generations," said the daughter.

Asked about Lincoln and his work, Mrs. Maxwell said she had often heard of the great president, but had never seen him.

LIVED IN SIX REIGNS

She is a Canadian at heart and is proud of the fact that she has lived in six reigns—George III, William IV, George IV., Queen Victoria, Edward VII, and our present King, George V.

Mrs. Maxwell has not always lived in the village of Richmond Hill. Many years she tramped to her work here through the cold and storm from concessions five miles away, and then home at night to care for her children.

During one of these walks she had a thrilling experience, narrowly escaping an attack by a lynx.

BEAST FOLLOWED MILE

"I walked about a mile with the great beast sinking along the edge of the bush, beside the road following me," she said. "I could see its eyes shining like balls of fire in the dark, and every now and then its cry would chill my blood. People who heard it afterwards said they wondered I was not killed. I had nothing to protect myself with, no stick, nothing but my bare hands. But I prayed—" here the deep and impressive voice grew more expressive with the fervid eloquence of a religious race —"I prayed to God like Daniel in the lion's den, and He heard my prayer, and I was left unharmed."

NEARLY FROZEN ONCE

"Oh my mother has had many hardships," said Miss Maxwell, standing near. "It is a miracle that she has lived to this age, and is so well. She was left with her five little children after my father died. She went out in the cold and storm to work for them, but she saw four of them die, one after the other. People think it's because she's had an easy life and taken care of herself that my mother has lived to this age—but she has had trouble, and hardship, and has worked hard, so hard. Once in a snow-storm she was overcome by the cold and was unconscious when found, and it was hard to bring her to."

INCLINE ONE TO BELIEVE

Though Mrs. Maxwell has no documents to prove the truth of her assertion that she was born in 1805, her rememberance of having lived in the reign of George Third, subsequent events of her life, the concurrence in her story of some of the oldest inhabitants of Richmond Hill, and last but not least, her intelligence and trustworthy character incline one to the belief that her claim is correct. On the occasion of her 100th birthday, Mrs. Maxwell was honored by the people of Richmond Hill, who gave her a reception in the Presbyterian church, an address and a purse of money, contributed to not only by Richmond Hillites but by some of the best people of Toronto.

FAITHFUL PRESBYTERIAN

Mrs Maxwell is a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church which is just across the street from her home. She is looking forward forward hopefully to attending again in the spring, when her "lameness gets better."

She has no fads about fresh air and food, and abjures spectacles and false teeth; and aside from the handicap of serious lameness, might easily be taken for a woman twenty-five years younger. Her hearing is almost perfect.

Bidding her good-bye in her bright room with its plants and pictures and neat furnishings, one marvels at her vigor.

The warm handclasp speaks of a nature that even a century of age loves light and laughter and the sympathy of humankind.

And her last words are—

"It's just by hard work and prayer to God that I've lived."

THOUGHT IT WAS CANCER

"Fruit-a-tives" completely restored me

SYDNEY MINES, N.S., Jan. 25th. 1910.

"For many years, I suffered tortures from Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Two years ago, I was so bad that I vomited my food constantly. I also suffered with Constipation. I consulted physicians, as I was afraid the disease was cancer, but medicine gave only temporary relief.

I read in the 'Maritime Baptist' about 'Fruit-a-tives' and the cures this medicine was making and I decided to try it. After taking three boxes, I found a great change for the better and now I can say 'Fruit-a-tives' has entirely cured me when every other treatment failed, and I reverently say "Thank God for 'Fruit-a-tives'."

Found a Loophole.

An attorney for a western railroad was arguing before the interstate commerce commission for postponement of the enforcement of the safety device regulations so far as they applied to his road.

He said the road was in the hands of receivers and the court that appointed the receivers would not sanction the issue of certificates for the purpose of buying automatic couplers.

"So you see, your honor," he declaimed, "we are between—between"— He hesitated and concluded lamely, "the upper and the nether millstone."

"Why didn't you say what you started to say?" asked Chairman Knapp.

"Very well, your honor," replied the attorney blandly; "we shall in that case consider your august body the deep blue sea."—Saturday Evening Post.

States That Parisian Sage is Best Hair Tonic

"I had a bad case of dandruff. My sclap was full of dandruff and it came out thick and scaly. My hair came out badly; often I nearly cried on account of losing my pretty head of of hair.

I heard of PARISIAN SAGE and only had to use two bottles, before the hair stopped coming out, the scalp became clean, and all the dandruff disappeared. The hair became silky and one big reason that I liked PARISIAN SAGE was that it kept the hair smooth, silky, and clean with no traces of stickiness.

I believe this tonic to be the best on the market as there has been no return of dandruff, or hair falling out whatever. I am glad to publicly endorse the use of PARISIAN SAGE. I have often endorsed its use and am glad to do it." 33 E. Bond Street, Corry, Pa.

PARISIAN SAGE, the delightful hair dressing and beautifier sold by Wm. Madill and druggists everywhere. Guaranteed for falling hair, dandruff and scalp itch. Large bottle 50 censt.

CANADIAN TRAILS

They Are the Most [illegible] Roads In the Dominion

Canada is a land of trails—trails over hills and mountains, over prairies and through forests, by the banks of rivers and across country, says Frank Yeigh in an interesting article in The Saturday Globe.

Wayward, erratic courses they often are, violating all the laws of more dignified highways, and each a law unto itself, but all the more attractive because of their vagaries of direction and their defiance of the compass.

The trail traveler feels a charm in the very atmosphere of the way, for the chances are it was once an Indian way, made by the good roads commissioners of the primitive days. The imagination easily repeoples the sinuous path with the fleet and quiet-footed wanderers flitting from hunting lodge to wigwam, from council-house to the wilderness where the big game roamed, or, fired with the blood lust, turning the forest path into a warpath and staining the borders with the blood of their victims.

Out on the western plains the trail is often the forerunner of the highway, and more often the only way for many a long league. Little it matters if it is honeycombed with gopher holes that are so many danger holes for the horses' feet, for the winding trail of the Manitoba or Saskatchewan country is a course of delight for the city tenderfoot. Astraddle a well-intentioned pony, who has a sense of honor as to his responsibilities, and with a saddle not too much of a misfit; or seated in a spacious buckboard behind a span of speedy horses, the hitting of a prairie trail is a rare experience. Rounding off the miles in a land where distances seem to be endless and miles easily run into leagues will yield higher dividends of health and pleasure than aught else one can suggest.

But let us hasten westward to the foothills and the mountains, where the real trails are found.

Where are these trails of the hills? Thanks to the enterprise of the Dominion Government and the Canadian Pacific Railway, there are miles and miles penetrating the heart of both Rockies and Selkirks; thanks, too, to the pioneer redman or the railway surveyor who laid out the earlier trails that are still in use.

Take for example the Yoho trail of to-day. One doubts if there is such another scenic paradise in any mountain country. For two days the path leads the lucky traveler through an Alpine world of rarest beauty and sublimity. Starting from Field, where the little homes of men cluster, like toy houses, around the base of great Mount Stephen, the trail begins by an eight-mile turn to Emerald Lake, through a forest aisle of rare charm, at each end of which entrancing glimpses are had of snow-encased mountain giants.

No less wonderful is the trail from Lake Louise to the twin wonder valleys of Paradise and the Ten Peaks, with towering peaks bearing on their crests dazzling sheaths of snow and shedding from their awful cliffs the avalanches whose echoes form one of the most impressive sounds nature can produce. This is also a wonder trail, with such revelations of scenic glory as the eye has never seen or the mind attempted to comprehend.

And finally there are the trails of the farther north, the lonely pathways in the Canadian Arctic circle, the rough-hewn ways of the Yukon and the Mackenzie. Alas! they have at times been death ways, and the thought turns to the brave Mounted Policeman, Fitzgerald, who, with his three faithful companions, recently gave up their lives in the discharge of duty. The trail sometimes exacts its human toll; it has its tragedies.

All the way across the broad Dominion is found the trail, in the hill country of Cape Breton and the Laurentian land of Quebec, through the empire areas of Ontario and across the plains of the West, between Hudson Bay and the Saskatchewan and amid the mountains of British Columbia.

Canada is a land of the trail.

Why Export Raw Gypsum?

The gypsum production countries are Canada, the United States, France and Great Britain. Until 1905 France led, but for a few years previous to that France had been decreasing her production, and in that year the United States went ahead and has kept the lead since. Canada, in the last nine years, has increased her production 169 per cent., whereas the United States had in the same time increased 250 per cent.; yet the Canadian deposits are so extensive that that country might supply almost unlimited quantities. The gypsum exported from Canada is usually in the crude state, and is largely sent to the United States. It is somewhat curious that Canadians should export the raw product, for there are great coal deposits in proximity to some of the gypsum deposits, which would seem to make it feasible to refine the gypsum on the ground. It is a fact, however, that our import of gypsum increased from $7,519 in 1900 to $105,882 in 1909, and the importation was chiefly in the form of plaster of Paris, from the United States. The amount of crude product mined in the States was, in 1880, 90,000 short tons; in 1908, 1,721,829 short tons.—Montreal Standard.

A Statue to Lord Selkirk.

Lieut.-Governor Cameron, Sir William Whyte, and others of the most prominent men in Manitoba held a luncheon party the other day in Winnipeg, to discuss a memorial for Lord Selkirk. They decided to erect a monument. It will cost $75,000, and will be located in all probability at that well-known Winnipeg corner, where Portage avenue and Main street meet.

During the discussion of the matter, Mr. J. A. M. Aikins, K.C., M.P., said a poignant thing, when he urged the ordering of a statue on the ground, that what it would personify, would be a patriotic example to the thousands of foreigners in Winnipeg. He called attention to the fact, that whereas in Eastern Canada every big city has its statues to great Canadians, Western Canadian cities are conspicuous by the absence of such statues.

Satisfied Policy-Holder

[COPY]

Toronto, March 1st, 1912.

W. H. HILL, ESQ.,
Manager,
Sun Life Assurance Co.,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I wish to thank the Sun Life Assurance Company, through you, for the prompt and very satisfactory settlement of my 15 year Endowment Policy, No. 64345, which matured and was paid me to-day.

I have also a 15 year Endowment maturing to-day in a leading British Company.

The contrast, in the results, in favor of your Company is so marked that I want you to know it, but I am at a loss to know how such a difference could honestly occur. When I tell you that the profits in your Company are three and one-third times the profits in the other Company referred to, and this too notwithstanding I paid the other Company $1.15 per year more per $1000 than I paid you, you will realize my inability to comprehend the cause.

This is surely a tribute to the management of the Sun Life, and I am so well pleased I have applied for further insurance with you.

Incidentally, I would like to say a word for your loan privilege. As you are aware, I borrowed some money on my policy, a little over a year ago, which enabled me to obtain a substantial interest in a town site in the Northwest, and you will be pleased to learn that it has already yielded substantial gain and gives promise to pay hundreds per cent., so that it is impossible to fully realize the value of that Policy to me.

I thought as an old Peterborough boy you would be pleased to know I am delighted with the result.

Yours truly,
(Signed) ROBERT E. DOLAN.

Catarrhal Bad Breath

Corrected Quickly by the Use of

Catarrhozone

Catarrh is an inflammation. Where there is inflammation there is always more or less offensive secretion. Inflammation may be of the very active sort, but it is often of the slow kind, and this is the particular form in which the breath is rendered offensive and the presence of the sufferer becomes an offence to every person of delicate sensibility.

Bad breath is in itself sufficient to urge you to correct it, because one dislikes to be unpleasant to their friends but this form of catarrh is dangerous because it supplies a hotbed for the development of Consumption or of other diseases of the throat and lungs.

Bad breath is an evidence that the microbes have found a good resting place and are carrying on their evil inroads into the health of the body.

Catarrhozone acts at once and destroys these minute organisms but it does more—it heals the inflamed surfaces in which they found a nesting place and consequently removes both cause and effects of their action.

If we only highly estimated the value of prevention and used Catarrhozone at the beginning of a cold or just before it becomes well seated, the deadly ravages of Consumption would be stayed and the terrible agonies of sufferers of Asthma or Bronchitis completely abolished.

There is no remedy as effective for bad breath, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, etc., as Catarrhozone. Besides being healing and soothing it is germ destroying. Nothing ever offered to the public can compare with it in its promptness, efficiency, and permanency of action, and you can buy it from any dealer in medicine throughout the Dominion of Canada, 25c, 50c, and $1.00 sizes. By mail from The Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Ont.

500 Talesmen For Canadian's Trial.

New York, March 23.—A panel of 500 talesmen — the largest ever summoned for a trial here—has been called for the trial of Charles Hazen Hyde, a native of Truro, N.S., former city chamberlain, who is accused of taking bribes and favoring certain banks in making city deposits. In the Molineux and Thaw murder cases only about half that number were needed.

The trial is set for April 1. District Attorney Whitman yesterday asked Justice Seabury to call this extraordinary large panel. Hyde's attorneys made no objection.

YOU CAN BE ABSOLUTELY SURE OF VALUES

If you carefully read the store advertisements and follow them in your buying.

Merchants advertise certain lines because they know these lines will advertise their stores. Because there is something about certain goods, they are put in conspicuous places and the people are told about them. It may be the exclusiveness or newness of design, it may be an unusual quality, it may be an attractive price.

But there is at least one definite, sure reason why a merchant advertises an article and is willing to stake the reputation of his store upon it.

Therefore, when you see an article advertised in THE REVIEW, depend upon it, that article is good value, as good value as can be obtained in that particular store.

FELL FROM A HAY LOFT

Suffered Tortures With His Kidneys Until He Tried Gin Pills

You might think that Mr. Baker needed a surgeon more than GIN PILLS. But there were no bones broken. His back was strained, which was harder to cure because nothing seemed to do any good. It is the same with a sprained ankle and broken leg. You can set the fracture and it will be well in six weeks—but the sprain may take months to get well.

However, Mr. Baker found the quick way to get relief from the pain—here are his own words.

AULTSVILLE, ONT.

"I have been a great sufferer from Kidney Trouble from an injury to my back caused by falling from a hay loft about six years ago. This left my kidneys weak, so that every cold I got would settle in my kidneys and cause intense suffering. I was advised to try GIN PILLS. I found, to my surprise, after taking two boxes, that the pains were relieved and I began to feel better. I am still taking GIN PILLS and feel sure I will be completely cured. I recommend GIN PILLS to all who suffer from any Kidney Trouble". C. BAKER.

A BAD FALL

You see, the fall had strained the kidneys and they were affected by the slightest chill. GIN PILLS immediately strengthened the kidneys—soothed any irritation and thus enabled the kidneys to overcome the effects of the fall.

If you are having pain in the back—or trouble with kidneys or bladder through accident or overwork—do just as Mr. Baker did—take GIN PILLS. They will help you—cure you—or we will promptly refund your money. Buy six boxes at your dealer's. If, after taking them, you feel that Gin Pills have not helped you, return the empty boxes and get your money. We will take your word for it. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50. Sample box sent free if you write National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Dept. B Toronto.

NATIONAL LAZY LIVER PILLS regulate the bowels and cure Constipation, Biliousness and Indigestion. 25c. a box. 111

HANDLING IMMIGRANTS.

How Canada Deals With Incoming Citizens.

The Dominion Government has divided its immigration into three classes—British, foreign European and American. The Government bureau dealing with the work makes no difference between the three classes, unless they enter under different conditions.

In western Canada about 200,000 homesteads are available. Each homestead is of 160 acres and in some sections of the country a man may pre-empt an additional 160 acres by paying the Government $3 per acre for it, with the payments spread over ten years. In return for this homestead or homestead and pre-emption the settler pays $10 entry fee and undertakes to perform certain homestead duties, notably to reside on the homestead six months every year for three years, and cultivate the homestead to the extent of 15 acres every year for three years, and build upon the homestead a habitable house.

In the case of a man coming in who is not prepared to take up land, the immigration department finds him employment at agricultural work in almost any part of the country. With a one cent a mile rate and a card of introduction he is sent to the agent of the Government in the district in which he proposes to work, and by that agent is taken to the employer or employment to which he has been specifically sent.

If upon his arrival in the country an immigrant doesn't care to take up his quarters in a hotel—and, it goes without saying, there are plenty of them who do not—there are in Winnipeg and west of Winnipeg about 40 Government immigration buildings. In these halls he is at liberty to make his home during the period in which he is deciding as to his destination or arranging for employment. Here are provided heat, light, bedrooms and bedding, and each man is entitled to two weeks' residence without cost; and if it is found that settlement has not been decided upon at the end of that time, and that the delay is in no way due to the settler himself, a further and indefinite period of residence in the hall is permitted.

In case of sickness and, on that account, inability on the part of the new settler to perform the required duties, his homestead is protected—that is to say, an extention period is granted him by the Department of the Interior, so that, instead of performing all his duties in three years, he may be permitted four or five, as the case may be. In any event no advantage is taken of his sickness to deprive him of the homestead upon which he has placed his labor and perhaps his capital.

In case of sickness in his family and consequent destitution, due either to insufficient capital or to extra expenditure for medicines and medical help, the new homesteader has the right to appeal to the immigration department of the interior. Inquiry is made into the situation and if it is found that the settler through no fault of his own is lacking in food, fuel or clothing, that is provided by the department and a lien taken upon the homestead for the amount advanced to the homesteader, with six per cent. interest added, the homesteader understanding that he cannot become possessed of his final title until he has met and liquidated all the advances of the Government.

There are cases, luck not being with any of us all the time, where the homesteader suffers through hail, fire or other untoward circumstances the partial or total failure of his crop and where he is still upon the land for which he has not received his patent. What happens to him? Is he turned down cold, so to speak, and told to go on his way—that the Government has done all it could for him? No, indeed. Nothing like that in Canada's immigrant code. Immediately the department of the interior advances him a reasonable quantity of seed wheat and seed oats and he is enabled to get upon his feet again and proceed with his spring sowing. The amount of this grain, the actual cost of the grain itself plus transportation only, is made a charge upon the homesteader.

No charge is made by the department of the interior for service of any kind rendered to the immigrant. Where persons from another country have become destitute through sickness or lack of employment in the cities within a year after their arrival, the department of the interior either finds sufficient employment, or in the case of sickness food and medical comforts for the destitute newcomer. The same conditions prevail in the country districts, except that there the period during which the immigrant is a charge upon the department of the interior is three years, as against one year in the city and urban centres.

Where Do You Shop?

Do you shop in a brisk, active store, or in a dull store?

Advertising makes bright stores. Failure to advertise goes hand in hand with dullness and stagnation.

Advertising brushes away cobwebs and dust, smartens shop windows, quickens the intelligence of salesmen, and lets in the sunlight.

Advertising makes the merchant think of you—of your wants and needs; makes him anxious to serve you to your liking and advantage.

Advertising keeps stock from having birthdays.

Advertising acquaints you with new things, and so brightens your home, your life, your person.

Advertising keeps a business from growing lazy and stupid. Advertising injects good red blood into the arteries of a business, and keeps it healthful and active.

Shop where your wants and needs are uppermost in the mind of the merchant. Shop in the store which reflects you, which you dominate. Shop where your money returns to you in better goods, better values, better service.

Shun the shop that is dumb and dark and dreary; keep away from the shop that never speaks to you, never smiles at you, never bothers about you.

Reward by your custom the merchant who lives to serve you, and who is doing his utmost to build up this community; who takes you into his confidence by means of advertisements in your local newspapers.

Smile back at the shop which smiles at you. Shake hands with it—keep company with it—your favor will be returned to you tenfold.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

IS A TURBULENT CHIEF

JOE KENNETOSSE GABRIEL IS ALWAYS IN TROUBLE.

Indian at Oka Who Has Been Recently In the Public Eye Has Been Doing This Sort of Thing For Many Years, and Several Expeditions Have Been Sent In Vain to Oka to Carry Him Off to Jail.

The latest exploit of Chief Joe Kennetosse Gabriel, of the Indian Reservation of the Two Mountains at Oka, has once more brought that gentleman prominently in the public eye. His recontre with the surveyors of the Canada Central Railway is only a picturesque continuance of a most picturesque career, and justifies a review of Mr. Kennetosse's turbulent life. For it is just about seven years ago that the first expedition sent out by the Department of Justice of the Province of Quebec left Montreal to try and capture him.

As was reported in the daily papers Kennetosse at the head of twenty or more of his followers armed with pitchforks and guns prevented the survey of the Central Canada Railway, which is to be part of the Canadian Northern, and which is to connect St. Andrew's and St. Eustache, from being completed, because part of the line was to run for a distance of some forty yards over land claimed to belong to the actual Indian Reserve. Kennetosse comes of one of the Indian families who have for generations stood out uncompromisingly for the old, and one might almost say, feudal rights of the Indians as opposed to the conventions imposed upon the Indian Department of the Dominion of Canada, well as they are meant for the Indians' benefit.

There may be, and there are no doubt many other cases like this but there are few if any in this middle Eastern part of the country which in the last few years have made such a stir.

Religious difference, which years ago made Oka the scene of incendiarism, rapine and bloodshed, however, have created another difficulty here and a case is even now pending in the higher courts as to the respective rights of the Indians, a number of whom are Protestant, and the gentlemen of the Seminary in regard to the lands around Oka.

Kennetosse Gabriel has always been the man who started the agitation during the last ten years, the same as he did a few weeks ago, and Kennetosse, regardless of the elective laws of the Dominion has had himself and two others, Louis Rivere and Mitchell Martin, elected chiefs according to the old tribal customs.

He and his relatives, friends and supporters have all come in contact with the law on account of boldly ignoring the white man's restrictions, but he personally has been the particularly shining light in that respect.

Some eight years ago, he, like many of his friends since then, cut wood on land claimed by the gentlemen of the Seminary as exclusively theirs.

Unlike the other Indians, however, when summoned to St. Scholastique, the court's seat, to show cause why he should not pay for this wood, he resisted legal action in a dramatic and flamboyant manner, threatened the bailiffs who were sent after him and compelled the Provincial Government as a mere means of upholding its authority to send more important men in search of him.

So seven years ago on a Saturday between Christmas and New Year's K. C. McCaskill of the provincial detective force set out from Montreal with two or three men to get him, and after a trip full of hardships they had to come back empty handed, because Kennetosse had flown.

It was reported that he had gone to the United States, but after a while he came back, and while for some time he lived a quiet and peaceful life at the rear of the plateau where most of his friends also live, he soon began to be heard again through letters to the newspapers and otherwise.

At the time he expressed his undying intention to see that the old tribal rights of his people were respected.

After that there was more woodcutting, more ferment, more public defiance of the white man's laws.

Amongst his own friends he was still the hero of yore, the same as he seems to be at present and they contributed money to send him and his wife to England where they went to lay the tribal grievances before the King of England. Whether he ever had the ear of the King or even of a real court official is doubtful.

Two more expeditions were sent out after him in vain. Each time he fled. Then there was a lull till two years ago, when the chief became involved in domestic troubles, and beat his wife, after which he again disappeared, and now he is once more in the limelight.

Kennetosse is a large, loosely-jointed well built man of about thirty-five or forty years of age, of very light complexion for an Indian, but with a determined face, which when he is aroused, looks, to say the least, warlike.

His wife is a white lady from New England, their marriage having been rather romantic. He also has several children.

Up till now his legal difficulties have always been with the Quebec Government, although the Dominion Indian Department has had representatives at Oka upon most of the previous occasions of trouble, more, however, as a matter of watchfulness over its Indian children, "the wards of the nation," than otherwise.

A Customs Record.

During the month of December the receipts from customs' duties were $7,333,349.61, as against $5,727,576.65 in December, 1910, an increase of $1,605,772.96, or 28 per cent. For the nine months of the fiscal year ending on December 31 the revenue from customs was $63,670,058.24, as against $53,124,485.23 in the same period of 1910, an increase of $10,545,573.01, or nearly 20 per cent.

BABY THIN—HAD NO APPETITE

Mrs. Ulderic St. Georges, St Mathias, Que., writes—"I am writing to say I am well satisfied with Baby's Own Tablets. My baby was ill and I tried several remedies, but the result was discouraging. He became very thin, had no appetite, hardly slept at all and was extremely weak. I got Baby's Own Tablets and they soon set him right again, till at the age of eleven months he was able to walk and was a strong healthy child. I do not think there is anything to equal Baby's Own Tablets for little ones" The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES

Prof. Dorenwend, of Toronto, begs to announce that he will be at the Oriental Hotel on Wednesday, April 3rd, with a complete display of the newest London, Paris and New York creations. You are invited to call and inspect his goods.

Postmaster on Carpet.

Woodstock, March 21.—Eleven witnesses were heard at yesterday afternoon's session of the investigation which opened at the village of Princeton yesterday, before Peter McDonald of this city, into the charges of offensive partisanship against F. Vickert, postmaster at that place, but the evidence is not nearly all in, and it is probable that it will require all day to-day to finish up.

Most of the evidence taken corroborated the statement made at the morning session that Postmaster Vickert had attended a Conservative meeting during the last federal campaign and had spoken in favor of the reciprocity agreement and had upheld the sending of Messrs. Fielding and Paterson to Washington, and their finding.

Mr. Vickert had also occupied the chair at a Liberal meeting.

A Historic Spot.

The blast of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway contractors is echoing against the rocky walls of Tete Jaune Cache to make way for civilization and the shrill echoes of the locomotive whistle later on.

Going westward from Edmonton along the Grand Trunk Pacific route the traveler sees the progress already strongly marked. At present the Grand Trunk Pacific steel is beyond the great divide, and over the summit of the Yellowhead Pass.

Historically, Tete Jaune is a centre of interest in Western Canada, as this point was the site of one of the Hudson Bay posts one hundred years ago, when the route from the Pine, the Peace and the Fraser Rivers brought the furs and merchandise through this gateway. At the present time there is only a band of Shuswap Indians camped on the south side of the Fraser, and, as soon as the steel reaches this locality and civilization with its kodaks and pocket books will effect the establishment of a permanent order of things.

St. John, the Exporter.

St. John is becoming the big exporter. Half a million dollars worth of goods more than went out of the New Brunswick port last year, have been shipped this year. Fully half the shipments from St. John are American goods, dumped into the Canadian city for transportation across the Atlantic.

A Record In St. Boniface.

St. Boniface, Man., which is a large suburb of Winnipeg, made history the other day. St. Boniface, predominantly French in population, elected an English mayor. No Englishman ever was mayor of St. Boniface before. The man who did the trick is Alderman—now Mayor Thomas Berry—an Englishman from Manchester, who has prospered in Canada. Mayor Berry mixed in St. Boniface politics first in 1903.

Positively Brutal.

Grace—Just see how much your little wifie loves you. She made this cake for you all by herself. Arthur—Yes, my darling. And now if you will eat it all by yourself I shall possess indisputable proof of your devotion.—Pittsburgh Press.

Heartless.

Gritty Pikes—It's a heartless world, pard. Think what a woman done when I asked her to give me something to keep body and soul together! Muddy Lanes—Can't imagine. Gritty Pikes—She gimme a safety pin.—Chicago News.

No Protection for Bonar Law.

London, March 22.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—In the House of Commons yesterday, Augustine Birrell, Secretary for Ireland, replying to a question, said it was not proposed to move extra police to Belfast when Bonar Law spoke. He, Birrell, had sufficient confidence in the Belfast Nationalists not interfering with free speech.

Succeeds Father In Parliament.

London, March 22.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—Henry Keswick, son of the late member, was yesterday returned to Parliament unopposed for the Epsom division.

His View of the Matter.

"Joseph," said his mother reprovingly, "I should think you'd be ashamed to be in the same class with boys so much smaller than yourself."

"Well, mother," replied Joe. "I look upon the matter in a different way altogether. It makes me feel fine to see how proud the small boys are to be in the class with a big boy like me."—Delineator.

Why Papa Stayed at Home.

"Mamma," asks the little boy, "who are the Highwaters?"

"Highwaters?" answers the mother. "I don't know any such family. Why do you ask?"

"Well, I heard Mr. Perkins ask papa if he'd be over to the little game tonight, and papa said he'd be there in spite of Helen Highwater."—Chicago Post.

Canada's Parliament will soon adjourn ditto Canada's winter.

The Way He Felt.

A distinguished theologian was invited to make an address before a Sunday school. The divine spoke for over an hour and his remarks were of too deep a character for the average juvenile mind to comprehend. At the conclusion the superintendent, according to custom, requested an appropriate hymn to be sung.

"Sing 'Revive Us Again'," shouted a boy in the rear of the room.

Easily Explained.

"He appeared to me to be a man of high moral principle with a keen anxiety over the future life."

"Er! Why, he's nothing of the sort."

"Well, well! Come to think of it, I believe he was under the impression at that time that he was suffering from an incurable organic disease and had but a few months to live."

In the game of hearts, when a man is in doubt he should lead diamonds.

DIABETES

Is one of the most cruel maladies of which mankind is subject, the many complications arising from time to time, making life seem almost unbearable. For many diseases, medical, scientific, and physiological knowledge and experience gained from years of deep research, has achieved remarkable results, but, up to now, little has been discovered of practical value in the treatment and cure of Diabetes. In fact, people have begun to look upon the disease as well-nigh incurable. Even in the medical profession can be found doctors who are of the same opinion, regarding sceptically any claim to ameliorate or improve the condition of a diabetic patient.

It can, however, be proved that SANSOL'S ANTIDIABETES lastingly cures all cases of Diabetes. Full particulars can be obtained from the Sansol Mfg. Co., Winnipeg, Man.

NO AGREEMENT REACHED IN CONFERENCE TO-DAY

One Thousand Miners in Scotland Return to Their Work—Sunday Meetings Were Hopeful.

SPECIAL TO THE REVIEW,

London, March 25.—Triangular conference between the Premier, coal owners and the miners was adjourned to-day after a brief session. "No agreement was reached," was the only announcement made.

One thousand miners in Lanarkshire, Scotland, resumed work to-day.

London, March 25.—A hopeful feeling prevails that the conference to-day between the coal owners and the miners will prove successful and bring to an end the strike which is affecting millions of people of the United Kingdom.

Several of the miners' leaders, addressing meetings yesterday, spoke more encouragingly than for a long time. At Gateshead, Joseph English, president of the Northumberland miners, said he believed that some understanding would be arrived at between the miners and coal owners with regard to the minimum wage.

Albert Stanley, M.P. for Staffordshire, secretary of the Midland Miners' Federation, and a member of the joint conciliation board of coal owners and miners, speaking at Stoke, thought that the end of the struggle was near.

James Haslam, M.P., agent of the Derbyshire Miners' Association, in an interview, also spoke hopefully, but said that it would be imperative to have a ballot of the men on any agreement, and that the miners could hardly resume work under another week.

The South Wales owners and miners are still skeptical. They believe that nothing will come of the conference. In North Wales the strike seems to be collapsing. Three hundred men, mostly members of unions, have returned to work in the colliery at Chirk. A similar disposition is apparent at other collieries.

The feature of the week-end has been the wild cry of protest against the arrest of Tom Mann, the labor leader, who is charged with having incited the King's forces "to commit traitorous and mutinous practices" by articles published in a Salford paper called The Syndicalist. At Glasgow, Liverpool, Huddersfield and elsewhere big demonstrations have been held in protest, and fiery speeches have been made denouncing the Government for invoking an obsolete seventeenth century law to suppress syndicalistism.

Austrian Miners to Strike.

Prague, Austria, March 25.—The miners in the Aussing district have resolved to call a general strike on Tuesday. Thirty-six thousand men will be affected.

NUMBER TWO BOMB FOR JUDGE

Second Attempt on Life of Judge Rosalsky.

New York, March 25—Notwithstanding it has become known that the police are in possession of a second bomb mailed to Judge Otto A. Rosalsky of the Court of General Sessions, the trial judge in the Brandt case, detectives would not disclose on what clews they are working to solve the two mysterious attempts upon the life of the jurist.

The new bomb, which fortunately was detected in the mails and kept intact, coupled with threatening letters sent to De Lancey Nocoll, attorney for Mortimer L. Schiff, in the case of Folke E. Brandt, Mr. Schiff's former valet, are believed to have encouraged the police to renewed efforts in running down the sender. The latest bomb is said to be identical with that which exploded a week ago in Judge Rosalsky's library while being examined by an officer.

A list of bomb and dynamite outrages in New York from July, 1908, to date shows a steady increase each year with a grand total of no less than 102 attempts to take life or destroy property by such means.

DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED

The Explanation of Boy Who Killed Companion.

New York, March 25.—"I didn't know it was loaded" was the explanation which the police say 12-year-old Julius Maitland gave yesterday for shooting and killing Henry Lockhardt, nine years old, Saturday, during a "battle" in a vacant lot in the Bronx. The Maitland boy was arrested early yesterday morning while asleep at his home and locked up on a technical charge of juvenile delinquency.

Arthur Hawkes To Report.

Ottawa, March 25.—Arthur Hawkes, special commissioner of immigration, who returned a few days ago from his trip to England, has put in a report to Hon. Robert Rogers, Minister of the Interior, on the co-ordination of the immigration policies of the Dominion and the provinces.

Another U. S. Road to Tap Alberta.

Minneapolis, March 25.—Following the recent announcement that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad purposed to spend $5,000,000 in improvements on its lines in the northwest, and especially in Iowa and Minnesota, it was announced here Saturday that the road practically had arranged to build a new line from Butte, Mont., into Canada. It is said that part of the proposed route has been surveyed, and that it will pass through the Flathead Valley and into Alberta.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER DIE

Asphyziation the Cause of Two More Deaths

Open Gas Jet Allowed Fumes to Escape

Toronto, March 25.—Mother and daughter, Mrs. Amelia Leaden and Lillian Leaden, were asphyxiated by gas in their bedroom at 117 Borden street, on Sunday morning. Alarmed because they failed to come downstairs for breakfast, about 11 o'clock, the other members of the household entered the room, which was filled with gas fumes, and found the two women dead in bed.

Dr. J. A. Tuck of Ulster and Bathurst streets was summoned, but he found that life in both cases had been extinct for several hours. Chief Coroner, Dr A. L. Johnson was notified and instructed Coroner Dr. W. A. Graham to investigate. He decided that an investigation was unnecessary, as death was purely accidental.

A gas heater, with the jet thrown wide open, allowing the fumes to escape, was the cause of the tragedy.

Albert J. Leaden, a son, returned from work at the Majestic Theatre, where he is employed as an electrician, at midnight. At that time Mrs. Leaden was just going to bed. She went downstairs to give her son supper, and a short time later returned to her room, where her daughter Lillian had retired a couple of hours before. It is thought that she turned the jet of the heater off, as the room was warm, and then, by mistake, turned it on, and then retired. Mrs. Leaden was 71 years of age, and her daughter Lillian about 35 years.

Lillian Leaden had been employed in the office of the Gutta Percha Rubber Co. for some time. Mrs. Leaden was the wife of Michael J. Leaden, collector for the Bell Ewart Ice Co. Two sons and two daughters, Mrs. Goodfellow and Mrs. Rolph, wife of the senior partner of the firm of Rolph & Clark, also survive.

WARDEN DENIES THE CONFESSION

Convict Did Not Admit Robbing Woodstock Station

Negro Served Five Years for the Crime.

Special To The Review.

Kingston, March 52.—Dr. Platt, warden of the penitentiary, stated emphatically to-day that the convict, Schaffer has not confessed to robbing the Woodstock station, for which Alexander Green, a Woodstock mulatto served five years. The opinion prevailed among the prisoners, Platt said, that Schaffer committed the robbery, but his confession would have no weight unless he made it before a commission appointed for that purpose.

Crothers Is Firm.

Ottawa, March 25.—The ultimatum which Hon. T. W. Crothers, Minister of Labor, has laid down to the Grand Trunk Railway that he would oppose any further legislation for the road until it lived up to the agreement it made with its men is already producing fruit. Mr. Crothers has received word that Supt. Kelley of the Grand Trunk operating department will be in Ottawa to-day to take up the matter with him.

Two things Mr. Crothers is insisting upon: That the 138 men who were never reinstated by the company after the last strike be given an opportunity to return to work and that the recent announcement of a cut in wages be withdrawn.

Mr. Crothers stated last night that if the company does not come to time he will fight the present financial bill of the Grand Trunk when it comes before the House tooth and nail. It is, of course, a private bill, and not a Government measure, but Mr. Crothers is confident the majority of the members will support him in his stand.

Did Not Help Him.

Montreal, March 25.—One of the most curious pleas ever heard in a local law court was made Saturday by J. H. Paquin, who was sued by an insurance company. Paquin admitted signing for some shares of stock, but declared that at the time when this occurred he was a candidate for alderman. The agent of the company had called just before election and had solicited him to buy shares, declaring that this would help him in being elected. However, he was very badly beaten at the polls, and in consequence he did not think he should be called upon to pay up. The judge saw otherwise, however.

ROOSEVELT ON THE STUMP

Criticizes President Taft's Position.

Portland, Maine, March 25.—The most direct criticism yet levelled at President Taft by his predecessor in office was contained in a speech delivered here Saturday night by Col. Roosevelt. The colonel spent twelve hours in Portland and received a cordial welcome. He was the chief guest at a luncheon and a dinner, shook hands steadily for two hours in the afternoon, attended a conference of Maine politicians, and spoke in the evening for an hour before a crowd which filled the armory auditorium.

Col. Roosevelt repeated the statement which he made in his New York speech on Wednesday night that President Taft had declared in favor of government "by a representative part of the people."

"In its actual workings," he said, "the President's scheme would be a government of the people for the people by the bosses."

The collapse of the speakers' platform in the auditorium created some excitement, although Col. Roosevelt was uninjured. The platform, which was elevated about three feet from the floor, was crowded with about 30 persons. As Col. Roosevelt ascended the platform on entering the hall, it gave way with a crash. The middle portion sank to the floor. Col. Roosevelt stepped quickly to the front of the structure, which did not give way, and waved his hand at the crowd to show that he was uninjured.

As Col. Roosevelt entered the hall the people rose to their feet with a cheer. For two minutes the applause continued. When Walter E. Brown, president of the Roosevelt committee of Maine, introduced the colonel, there was another outburst of hand-clapping. Frequently during the speech he was interrupted by applause.

Col. Roosevelt named Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, Senator Galling of New Hampshire, Wm. Barnes, jr., of New York, Congressman McKinley, of the President's campaign management, and Congressman Tawney of Minnesota, representing the chief present adherents of the President, and said that they were "precisely the men who under the President's theory, would be, as they to a certain degree already were, the 'representative part of the party of the people, which governs the rest of the people, and which does not really represent them at all, but misrepresents them'."

The speaker added that the difference between what he termed President Taft's theory of government and Lincoln's theory, "explains why in so many matters the progressives do not feel that the President, however good his intentions can properly represent them or pay to progressive ideas the kind of loyalty which results in the translation of words into actions."

Both Sides Claim Indiana.

Washington, March 25.—Conflicting claims of the results of the Republican primaries on Saturday are made by the National Taft Bureau and the Roosevelt executive committee here.

Director McKinley of the Taft bureau last night issued this statement: "The latest advices from Indiana indicate beyond doubt that the Taft people control the state convention by a majority of at least 250 and will send four delegates at large instructed for President Taft on Tuesday, March 26. It is settled beyond any question that Taft will have 22 out of the 30 in the state.

HOPE TO FINISH THE SESSION

Business Before Commons Being Rushed Through.

Ottawa, March 25.—Parliament is now on the home stretch and there will be a race against time this week to try to complete the session by Saturday. Both sides are anxious to wind up work, although the whips are none too hopeful of being able to clean off the order paper until possibly April 3 or 4.

At an all day session of the Cabinet on Saturday, the supplementary estimates were completed and will be presented to the House by Hon. W. T. White either to-day or to-morrow. There has been no hint as to the amount of the estimates, but it is believed they will be heavy. Among some of the more important items will be one for a liberal sum to start work on the new Welland Canal and for preliminary work on the Georgian Bay Canal.

The Government is also determined to push forward the Hudson Bay road. Two millions has already been voted for construction work and a large amount, it is understood, will be placed in the estimates to start work on the terminals so that by the time the road is completed, the harbors will be ready for a line of steamers running to England.

It is the intention of the Government to push work on the new Welland Canal. Supt. Weller, who has been placed in charge of the work on the new canal, is in Ottawa conferring with Hon. Frank Cochrane and a definite announcement as to the route which has been adopted will be made in a few days. Mr. Weller favors what is known as the Ten-Mile Creek route, and his recommendation will likely be followed. Work will start this spring.

It is the intention to build a canal which will be ultimately thirty feet deep and will be able to accommodate the largest boats on the great lakes. The construction of the canal will, it is believed, do away with the necessity of the present wheat going via the Erie Canal to New York; and will mean a saving to western farmers of two to four cents a bushel.

FIRST PICTURE OF VIRGINIA OUTLAW TAKEN AFTER HIS CAPTURE

© BY C V BUCK FROM UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD

Herein is shown the first picture taken of Floyd Allen, the Virginia outlaw, as he lay wounded on a cot in the Hicksville jail after his capture following the tragedy in the Carroll County Court House, wherein his band murdered Judge Massie, together with the prosecuting attorney and Sheriff, just as Judge Massie had pronounced sentence on Allen for lawlessness. Detectives Baldwin and Feltz, who are leading the posse in the chase after Allen's gang, are shown heavily armed guarding their prisoner.

COAL CRISIS THIS WEEK

United States Situation Becomes More Ominous

Cleveland, March 25.—A crisis in the coal situation determining whether more than 450,000 miners in the bituminous and anthracite fields shall strike on April 1 or suspend until new wage agreements can be effected, is expected this week.

Members of the executive board and policy committee of the United Mine Workers of America began to arrive here yesterday to prepare to draw up recommendations for a referendum vote by the union. They will not act, however, until after the operators and miners of the bituminous fields of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois at their session here Tuesday have decided whether they can agree on a two-year wage scale.

John P. White, president of the union, and the district presidents yesterday considered a proposal that the bituminous miners drop all their demands except that for an increase in pay, and that they ask for five per cent. instead of ten. The compromise was not definitely agreed upon, but it was considered as a probability in view of the stand taken by the operators that they were not inclined to yield.

It was proposed that the single suggestion for a five per cent. increase be considered by both sides before it was taken into conference. Even if this plan was agreed upon, it was declared, it still would have to be adopted by the policy committee and then supported by a referendum vote.

The union officials are in doubt whether such a compromise would be approved at the referendum vote, since the full convention at Indianapolis several months ago expressly stood, not only for a ten cent. increase, but for many changes in conditions such as a reduction of eight hours a week in the working time.

The union officials say an agreeable adjustment of the bituminous dispute would have much influence in securing for the 175,000 anthracite miners a settlement of their differences.

BOURASSA FOR THE COMMONS?

Nationalist Organ Make Announcement of His Plans.

Montreal, March 25.—Henri Bourassa has thrown up the sponge and will not seek re-election to the Provincial Legislature.

Le Devoir announces that Mr. Bourassa will leave for Europe in the second week of April for the purpose of recreation and study having planned the trip for some months past. The Nationalist organ also says that Mr. Bourassa will be absent for about ten weeks, so this settles the question of Mr. Bourassa's participation in the provincial campaign, as the election for the local Legislature will take place the last of May.

It is also announced that Mr. Guimont, the Conservative Federal candidate in St. Hyacinthe, will be the party standard bearer in place of Mr. Bourassa.

It is believed, however, that Armand Lavergne, M.P.P., will contest his seat again for the Provincial Legislature. Hon. Charles Devlin will seek election in the new County of Labelle rather than in Nicolet, and Hon. Jean Prevost will oppose the Minister, besides running in his own County of Terrebonne.

PROBABILITIES

Northerly winds, fine to-day. Tuesday, unsettled not much change in temperature.

THREE LIVES LOST IN TRAIN WRECK

Settlers' Train and Freight Collide Through Misinterpretation of Orders---Peterborough Trainman Among the Injured.

Toronto, March 25.—Three men were killed and three or more were seriously injured in a head-on collision which occurred between a freight and a settlers train on the C.P.R. line, Lake Superior division, near Amyot Station, 362 miles west of North Bay, on Saturday morning.

Jas. Smith, an engineer of Chapleau, and John Loist, a trainman of Peterboro, on the settlers' train, were sent to the General Hospital, Toronto, where they arrived early yesterday morning. Smith was so terribly scalded that he died at seven o'clock last night. Loist was in an unconscious condition and badly scalded when he was admitted to the hospital, but at an early hour this morning there were hopes for his recovery.

Dead.

James Smith, engineer, Chapleau, died in Toronto General Hospital last night.

—— Jamieson, passenger, Owen Sound.

—— Nyal, fireman, buried in wreckage.

Injured.

Engineer Looner.

Trainman Loist, Peterboro, in serious condition in Toronto General Hospital.

——Conley, a farmer, may not recover.

Misinterpretation of the train order was the cause of the wreck, the second which happened within three days on the division. Both trains had orders to meet and pass at Birch Station, six miles west of Amyot. Instead of waiting the westbound settlers' train passed Birch Station, resulting in a frightful impact a few miles west. A number of cars were demolished, the tracks were torn up for a considerable distance, the engines were both battered into shapeless masses of steel and hurled clear from the tracks. Both trains were running at a rate of about 25 miles an hour. Shortly after the Winnipeg train, No. 4, due in Toronto at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, was delayed over eight hours. It arrived at about midnight last night.

Smith and Loister were brought to Toronto, and the former was also accompanied by his wife, who stayed in the hospital until his death.

A fireman named Nyal on the eastbound freight train could not be located and it is believed that he was buried in the wreckage. Those who received minor injuries were attended to at Chapleau. Fortunately there were just a few settlers going west.

Seven cars of settlers' effects were destroyed and many horses and cattle were killed. The scene of the catastrophe is just 100 miles east of the Jackfish disaster which happened three days ago.

"PHANTOM BANDITS" KILL AND ROB AGAIN

Shot Chaffeur and Rode Car to Bank Where They Killed Bank Watchmen and Robbed the Vaults.

Special to The Review.

Paris, March 25—Three men early to-day held up an automobile on the outskirts of the city and shot the chauffeur dead and wounded the owner. They then drove the car to Chantilly, where they murdered two watchmen at a bank and looted the vaults. The men are believed to be the same who have earned the name "Phantom Bandits" and have committed a dozen murders and a score of bold robberies during the past months.

Kaiser at Venice.

Venice, March 25.—Emperor William of Germany, accompanied by Princess Victoria Louise and Prince and Princess August William, arrived here yesterday and was received at the station by the mayor, the prefect and other authorities, the German ambassador and many members of the German colony. A great crowd that gathered at the station gave the Emperor an ovation and the applause and cheering continued all along the route to the Hohenzollern. Italian "vivas" intermingled with the "hochs" of the Germans.

The Emperor, who came here from Vienna, where he spent Saturday with the Emperor Francis Joseph at Schonbrunn Castle, will meet King Victor Emmanuel, who is now on his way to Venice. Shortly after his arrival, the Emperor, the prince and princesses went sightseeing in a gondola and paid several visits. The whole town was illuminated last evening and put on a truly gala appearance.

Tried to Bunco Brantfordite.

Brantford, March 25.—The old Spanish prisoner game, in which an appeal is made for funds by an alleged Russian banker being held in jail and awaiting extradition, on the promise that, if financial aid is forthcoming, the benefactor will share an immense fortune, has been attempted on John McGraw, contractor, in this city. The game has been frequently exposed.

It is believed the game is being extensively worked throughout Ontario. Needless to say, McGraw declines to render assistance.

Father of Midget Drop Dead.

Stratford, March 25.—One day over 70 years, Christopher Dennington, suddenly seized with heart failure while uptown on Saturday afternoon with his two sons, William and Samuel, dropped dead. Samuel is now 40 years of age, and is claimed to be the smallest Canadian-born living in the Dominion being only 3 feet 9 inches tall.

Horse Distemper

Prince Edward Farmer Solemnly Declares "Nerviline" Is a Specific.

"After fifty years' experience in raising horses I can safely testify that no remedy gives such good results for an all-round stable liniment as Nerviline." Thus opens the very earnest letter of J. J. Evanston, who lives near Wellington, P. E. "I had a very valuable horse that took distemper a month ago, and was afraid I was going to lose him. His throat swelled and hard lumps developed. His nostrils ran and he had a terrible cough. I tried different remedies, but was unable to relieve my horse of his pain and suffering till I started to use Nerviline. I mixed a bottle of Nerviline and sweet oil and rubbed the mixture on the throat and chest three times a day and you would scarcely believe the way that horse picked up. Nerviline cured him. I also have used Nerviline for colic in horses and cows, and earnestly recommend it to every man that is raising stock."

Nerviline CURES QUICKLY

For strains, sprains, swellings, colic, distemper, coughs, and colds, no liniment will prove so efficacious in the stable as "Nerviline"—it's good for man or beast, for internal or external use. Wherever there is pain, Nerviline will cure it. Refuse substitutes. Large bottles 50c, trial size 25c, at all dealers, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

WAR LOSSES

The London Sphere states that up to January 1st the Italian losses in killed, wounded and from disease in the Tripoli campaign amounted to no less than 6,000 men. In addition about 3,000 officers and men have been invalided home. The total number of troops sent to Africa was 130,000. The first landing of the Italian troops in Tripoli was on October 12. This loss of 9,000 men, therefore, was incurred in about two and a half months. At that rate, the prolongation of the war for a year would mean an appalling human sacrifice, and the kind of war which the Turks and Arabs are waging might easily be kept up for ten years.

On the financial side. The Sphere says that the cost up to January 1 was $50,000,000. Italy at the beginning had about $150,000,000 in her war chest. If the rate of expenditure since January 1st has been as great as it was before that date, two thirds of this reserve sum must now be exhausted and a couple of months more will put Italy under the necessity of raising a war loan. The Italian debt already is about $100,000,000. That would be a small sum for Great Britain, but Italy's available revenues would not justify a very large increase in the amount.

THE EAST WARD SCHOOL

At the meeting on Saturday evening the Board of Education decided to build the new school for the East Ward on what is known as the Armour property, corner Hunter and Concession streets.

The Board of Education is well advised in so doing. It has carefully considered the proposition from all points of view, and the conclusion reached is sound and tenable. There will be ample ground for the future, and full accommodation, both very vital to the success and usefulness of the school.

The wisdom of providing for the future is evidenced in the case of the King Edward school. The situation was opposed, as being on the outskirts. It was averred that a smaller school would answer. The result is that the building is now well placed, that nine rooms have all been filled inside of five years, and that there is demand for additional rooms.

The Queen Alexandra school is placed on a small plot of ground. The whole block was offered to the Board sixteen years ago for $1,000.00 and the offer refused. Now 150 boys play in a back yard, and 150 little girls play on the street. This must not occur again.

The proposed East Ward school will be ample in grounds and accommodation for the future. A twelve room building will be none too generous. Then the pupil can begin at the kindergarten and go through to the finish of the entrance examinations. There will not be the transferrance of pupils to the Central school for the last two classes between, as at present.

A large building can be cared for, at less cost than two smaller ones. The fuel, janitor and supply account, will be less. The teaching staff will not be so expensive. Authority will not be divided. Results will be gained easier, more quickly and more thoroughly.

The Board should close the matter up at once and get to work.

BRITISH UNIONS

It is shown by a government report issued on the trade unions in the United Kingdom that for the year ending December 31, 1910, there are 669 registered unions. For 638 of these complete returns show the membership to be 2,017,656, and an income of $15,511,555 for the year. The expenditure is $15,266,624. Of this number England and Wales have 553 unions, with 1,941,775 members; 60,048 members constitute 36 unions in Scotland, while Ireland has a membership of 19,863 for 49 unions. Statistics showing growth are from 156 unions with 211,091 members in 1880 to 235 unions with 645,401 members ten years later; 661 unions with 1,572,861 in the next ten years and 638 unions with a membership of 1,957,904 in 1909 and the increase to the numbers given above. In 1910 twenty-eight new unions were registered and twenty-five resolved or gave notice to take this step.

Is He an Alien?

The large Canadian colony in Boston, Mass., is vastly excited. The cause of the furore is a row between an ex-New Brunswicker and Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston.

Mr. Horace L. Britain, son of Prof. John Britain, of Macdonald College, took his M.A. from the University of New Brunswick some years ago, and is now a teacher of note — a big enough pedagogue to be superintendent of schools in Hyde Park, Boston. Recently, Mr. Britain went to collect his salary for looking after infant culture in Boston, and the mayor vetoed it. His worship claimed that Mr. Britain, Canadian born, was an alien. The superintendent of schools replied that he had become a citizen of the United States. The Intercolonial Club and other Canadian organizations in Boston got hold of the news of the fracas between the mayor and their fellow-Canadian; they raised a howl.

The Intercolonial issued a statement drawing attention to the significance of the Britain-Fitzgerald incident: "The fact that Mr. Britain is of Canadian birth is of interest only in so far as it indicates a belief that an unjust discrimination may be made against a Canadian which would be regarded as impolitic and unsafe to make against a man of another nationality."

Slain While Exploring.

Ichang, Province of Hupeh, China, March 25.—A telegram received here from Wushan, Province of Szechwan, says that three Americans—Messrs. Hicks, Hoffman and Sheldon—who are presumed to be missionaries, were attacked while exploring the gorges in the Yangtse River in a boat and all three were robbed and wounded.

Soldiers and a doctor have been despatched to Wushan from this city. Wushan is about 75 miles to the westward on the Yangtse.

Pekin, March 25.—The American legation here received a telegram yesterday from T. Baker, consul at Changking, saying that the Americans attacked at Wushan are teachers. The consul says Mr. Hicks, whose home was Oshkosk, Wis., was killed and that his companions, though wounded, are taking his body to Ichang. The consul adds that the attack was made by pirates and was not due to anti-foreign hatred. Chinese gendarmes are pursuing the pirates.

An Ottawa Hostess.

Madame Rodolphe Lemieux holds a very prominent place in the social life of Ottawa. As the wife of one of the few Ministers who retained their seats at the last election, she will probably take the lead to a great extent this coming winter, especially among those of her husband's side of politics.

Bright, pretty and always exquisitely gowned, Madame Lemieux is well fitted to be the wife of a man in public life, as she is the daughter of one; her father, Sir Louis Jette, formerly Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, having been always a very prominent figure. She entertains extensively at her handsome house on O'Connor street, and makes a delightful hostess, being both original and independent and possessed of that charming manner that seems the special heritage of the French. The three children of Hon. Rodolphe and Madame Lemieux are still at school.—Canadian Courier.

Acute Dyspepsia

Restoration of Stomach Power Comes Quickly With the Right Medicine.

"My food seemed to decompose in my stomach," writes Mr. Ralph Clemmons, of Newbridge, P.O. "I had a stomach that failed in some way to perform its work. Digestion seemed more or less arrested and I grew thin, yellow, nervous. The stomach became distended and impeded apparently the action of the heart, for often at night it would do great stunts. At times I would vomit a mucous mass, and at these times my head ached most terribly. A friend, who had been cured of a similar condition, advised me to take Dr. Hamilton's Pills regularly, which I did. The result in my case was simply marvelous. Dr. Hamilton's Pills removed the cause, strengthened the stomach, excited the liver to normal action, the kidneys were released of excessive work. Health soon glowed within me. I can now eat, sleep, and live like a live man."

Be advised—Use Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they are sure to do you good. 25c per box, at all dealers, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

Lady Betty Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

"I couldn't help seeing that you were being pretty well forced to do something you didn't want to do," he replied, coming a few steps nearer, and there seemed to be nobody under the pergola except just us two. "I don't suppose I had any right to be angry at seeing that happen, but I was. So I did what I did on the spur of the moment. As for recognizing you—I—well, you're rather tall, you know, and have a way of holding your head that—that isn't easily forgotten."

"I'm sorry I'm so badly disguised," I said, laughing. "But I'm glad you knew me. I'm so glad, too, that I'm out here. I began to have—quite a stifled feeling. How lovely it is in this pergola, isn't it? Do you think we might walk for a few minutes—and get cool?"

"May I walk with you?" he asked in a humble sort of way that gave me a funny little pain in my heart.

"Please do," I said quickly, and as cordially as I could—far more cordially than I would have spoken to any man in Mrs. Ess Kay's set. "It's nice to see you here tonight."

"You must be very much surprised."

I had said "Yes" before I stopped to think, and then I was sorry because it showed that I was thinking he did not belong in such a scene as this. But it was too late to go back, so I went on instead. "It's a good surprise."

"It's more than kind of you not quite to have forgotten a waif like me," he said.

"I shall never forget you," said I. "Why, of course, I couldn't." And I noticed that my voice sounded quite earnest, just as I felt, but I wasn't sure that I ought to let him know—even if he was poor and unlucky—that I did feel so sincerely about it. "There's Vivace, you know, for one reason."

"What about Vivace?"

"Oh, you needn't pretend, because I was sure you gave him to me, and I wanted so much to write to that club and thank you, only I thought as you had put no name, perhaps I'd better not. I must tell you now, though, I can't think how you came to be so kind."

"It was one of the greatest pleasures I have ever had. You were kind not to be offended with me. I didn't mean to take a liberty. I thought you would like the little chap."

"I love him dearly. Often I should have been dreadfully homesick if it hadn't been for him. He always seems to understand if I feel gloomy, and he does his dear little brindled best to cheer me up."

"Vivace is a lucky and happy dog."

"But don't you miss him?"

"No. For I like to think that you have him. You see, you were very kind to me when I was in a hard position and a good deal down on my luck. There was nothing I could do to show how I appreciated it—until I thought of Vivace. It was our little talk on the dock about 'finding a lost dog' that put the idea into my head."

"I guessed as much," said I, laughing. "It was that made me sure at once who it was I had to thank for Vivace. And—I was glad he had been yours. After what I'd seen you do on board ship, you know, I—I honored you. And I feel proud to think that—we are friends."

"Come into this little dell where the fountain is."

"You think of me as your friend?" he asked in a voice that showed he was glad or excited or something that wasn't quite calm.

"Indeed, I do think of you so," I assured him. "And you've proved your friendship for me three times—once on the dock, once by giving up dear Vivace for me and now again tonight when you came to my rescue. I was—really bored in there, you know.

And people seem to give themselves so much liberty in—in their jokes when they're masked."

"I have to thank the masks for being at Mrs. Stuyvesant-Knox's house tonight," said Jim Brett. "You must be wondering how they let me in, considering that, on account of the masks, everybody had to show their invitation cards at the gates. I had mine all right. But—there are such things as newspaper reporters, as you know to your sorrow. I don't say I am here in that capacity, but I leave you to draw your own conclusions."

"What fun!" I exclaimed.

"It is fun now. I had no right to dare, but I did dare to hope that I might have a glimpse of you. I was sure that I should recognize you."

"If I'd dreamed of your being here, I should have recognized you," I said. "You're taller than any other man here, I think."

"Men grow tall in the west, where I come from."

"And strong."

"Yes, and strong, too—thank God."

"And brave."

"Men are brave all the world over."

"I should think there are none braver than you, Mr. Brett," I said.

"It's glorious for a man like me to hear such kind words from a girl like you, though I don't deserve them," he answered. "But I shall try to deserve them. All my life I shall be better for having heard them from your lips. You can hardly guess what it is to me. Perhaps the thing that comes nearest to it would be if a prisoner for life in some dark pit heard a voice of sympathy speaking to him—actually to him—from a high white star."

"Oh, don't speak of yourself as a prisoner in the dark!" I cried.

"What else am I, when I stop to reflect how hopelessly I must be removed by circumstances from glorious heights—where stars shine."

"But there can be nothing in your circumstances, Mr. Brett," I insisted eagerly, "which need remove you from any heights. I wonder you—so brave and strong, and an American, too—can say that of yourself. Why, you can reach anything, do anything you really wish, if you just want it enough."

"Do you, an English girl, a daughter of the aristocracy, tell me that?" he asked.

"I do. As if that makes any difference—any real, true difference, I mean, when it comes to the heart of things. Oh, I've been thinking of such matters a great deal lately—I suppose because I'm among Americans. It must be that which has put the subject so much in my head."

Some one pushed the orange tree back.

"Tell me what you have been thinking."

"Oh, I can hardly tell. But for one thing, I've begun to see that a man—a man like you, for instance, Mr. Brett—oughtn't to call himself unlucky because he's poor, and has perhaps not been able to have as many advantages as richer men. He ought simply to feel that he has it in him to make himself equal in every way with the highest."

"You mean, he can 'hustle,' as the saying is with us, and get rich, so as to stand on an equality with millionaires?"

"No; it wasn't money I was thinking about. I've met a good many millionaires since I've been here, but I've seen none whom you need look upon as your superior. What I mean is that you've only to be ambitious enough, and not feel that you're handicapped by your start, to attain to what you want in life—yes, whatever it may be."

"You mean all this, Lady Betty?" he asked quickly. "You have as much faith as that in me?"

To be continued

BE KIND.

Be kind to newsboys on the street.
Their pleasures are but few.
Besides, if you should give them lip
Some one of them is like to slip
Some phony change to you.

Speak gently to the homeless dog.
Don't hurl a brick at him.
Don't frown upon him angrily,
For if you're rude to him maybe
He'll bite you on the limb.

Be patient with the restive mule.
His life has little mirth.
A gentle word will cause him glee.
Besides, if he gets angry he
May kick you off the earth.

Speak sweetly to the lordly cop.
He may have kids at home.
It grieves him to be called a dub.
Besides, he has a hefty club,
And he may wreck your dome.

Help out the poor old janitor.
A coin will make him beam.
His monthly wages may be slim.
Besides, if you get fresh with him
You won't get any steam.

Be pleasant to the waitress fair.
She leads a hard, hard life.
A little wink may cause her joy
And make her say, "You dear old boy!"
But do not tell your wife.
—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Boston's Winter and Summer.

Nearly all visitors to Boston, if they do not see it, are told of the place where one may "step from Winter into Summer or from Summer into Winter at any time of the year without giving a thought to his clothing." This may be done at the point where Washington street intersects the street which is "Winter" on one side and "Summer" on the other. A guide was enlarging on this bit of humor to a visitor from New York a few days ago, but was not rewarded by the smile which the Winter and Summer joke usually calls forth. "That's nothing," said the New Yorker, "but what is really funny here is to see the entrance to the underground railway marked 'The Elevator.'"—New York Tribune.

Found a Loophole.

An attorney for a western railroad was arguing before the interstate commerce commission for postponement of the enforcement of the safety device regulations so far as they applied to his road.

He said the road was in the hands of receivers and the court that appointed the receivers would not sanction the issue of certificates for the purpose of buying automatic couplers.

"So you see, your honor," he declaimed, "we are between—between"—He hesitated and concluded lamely, "the upper and the nether millstone."

"Why didn't you say what you started to say?" asked Chairman Knapp.

"Very well, your honor," replied the attorney blandly: "we shall in that case consider your august body the—deep blue sea."—Saturday Evening Post.

How Watches Vary.

Theoretically, says a jeweler, the best watches of today are perfect, but actually they both gain and lose time every day. Even if the good watch does not vary one second at the end of the twenty-four hours, the expert insists, it has both gained and lost in that time. If it is wound in the morning it runs fast and toward the next morning runs slow, thus equalizing the time. He says the best watches should be wound twice a day and then at only two-thirds of the capacity of the mainspring, thus preventing either binding or extremes of strong or weakened spring. The balance wheel was expected to equalize differences of mainspring tension, but really this is not the case to what is called perfection.—New York Press.

Satisfied Policy-Holder

[COPY]

Toronto, March 1st, 1912.

W. H. HILL, ESQ.,
Manager,
Sun Life Assurance Co.,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I wish to thank the Sun Life Assurance Company, through you, for the prompt and very satisfactory settlement of my 15 year Endowment Policy, No. 64345, which matured and was paid me to-day.

I have also a 15 year Endowment maturing to-day in a leading British Company.

The contrast, in the results, in favor of your Company is so marked that I want you to know it, but I am at a loss to know how such a difference could honestly occur. When I tell you that the profits in your Company are three and one-third times the profits in the other Company referred to, and this too notwithstanding I paid the other Company $1.15 per year more per $1000 than I paid you, you will realize my inability to comprehend the cause.

This is surely a tribute to the management of the Sun Life, and I am so well pleased I have applied for further insurance with you.

Incidentally, I would like to say a word for your loan privilege. As you are aware, I borrowed some money on my policy, a little over a year ago, which enabled me to obtain a substantial interest in a town site in the Northwest, and you will be pleased to learn that it has already yielded substantial gain and gives promise to pay hundreds per cent., so that it is impossible to fully realize the value of that Policy to me.

I thought as an old Peterborough boy you would be pleased to know I am delighted with the result.

Yours truly,
(Signed) ROBERT E. DOLAN.

EAST CITY SCHOOL

Board of Education Vote and Decide to Erect New School on the Armour Property—Deputation Was Heard.

The Board of Education held a special meeting Saturday night to consider the report of the special Building Committee in regard to the new East Ward school. There were present chairman John Crane and Messrs. W. H. Hill, B. F. Ackerman, Dr. Morrison, T. H. Adams, J. M. Hayes, V. Eastwood and R. Fair.

A deputation of East City ratepayers composed of Ald. Morgan, and Messrs. Samuel Taylor, J. McDonald and Wm. Mein, waited on the board, to oppose the building of the new school on the proposed site at the corner of Concession and Hunter streets.

Alderman Morgan explained that the deputation was not a regular one but had been chosen hurriedly to meet the Board at its special session, otherwise, it would have been much larger. He stated that he had only found three east ward citizens in favor of building the new school on the proposed site. The temperature on Armour's Hill, is too cool even in summer, for children to remain long on the hill, and he contended it would be almost impossible for them to live there in a severe winter. The present site he thought is ideal, plenty high enough, and with the addition of the two adjacent lots, there would be ample room for play grounds for all time to come. He averred that it would be possible to get 90 per cent of the ratepayers concerned to sign a petition in favor of the old site. The new property is exposed in position, difficult of access and dangerously close to the canal.

Mr. Taylor said that the school would be exposed to the icy, piercing east wind, and that sometimes in winter the hill became so ice covered that it could only be climbed with the greatest difficulty. He admitted that if a new school were built on the enlarged old site, that the children might have to discontinue their studies for a year, but he thought that they could be accommodated in the old town hall. Most of the ratepayers in the east ward were in favor of the old site, but he was not prepared to give the percentage of people for or against it. He had found some in favor of the new plans.

Mr. Morrison, chairman of the Building Committee, then explained the matter as seen by the committee which had been working on the matter for over six months, and had had plans prepared for a large modern twelve room school on the six acre lot at the corner of Hunter and Concession streets. Dr. Morrison explained that the present school site could be enlarged by the acquisition of the two adjacent lots, the addition of which would give the whole site an area of two acres, at the cost of $6,350. This would only be large enough to accommodate a six-room school, while the east ward's present needs, demanded an eight-room school. The committee have had plans drawn for a twelve room school, because the Board expected the east to grow. While the old site could be a good location at present, in five, ten or fifteen years it would not be a central position because if the east ward grew, as it was expected to, it was bound to grow northward.

The committee has looked into every possible opportunity of securing a six acre site in a central position and had come to the conclusion that the one at the corner of Concession and Hunter streets was the only available one. The Board had secured a six acre lot for the King Edward school, which had enlarged it to 9 acres and now, would be glad if they had the funds to purchase an additional three acres. The South Central school grounds were far too small, and at the Queen Alexandra school, the pupils have not room to play on their grounds, but the girls are forced out into the street. The large playgrounds are an aid to discipline as shown in the King Edward school.

The committee had looked at every available site with an area of six acres, and this was the only suitable one. Nobody considered it too high. If the people must have the new school on the old site then he would recommend to build a small six-room school, and then another one farther north when it was needed. To attempt to put 400 to 450 pupils on 2 1-2 acres of land would be doing exactly what we condemned our forefathers for.

Mr. Eastwood thought that a public meeting should be held where the ratepayers could give expression to their opinion.

Mr. Crane thought that a petition would be preferable.

Mr. Hill explained that when the old site was divided into lots it could be sold for more than the price they were paying for the six acres of the Armour property, which would cost $3,300. Mr. Hill also stated that in his opinion the twelve-room school would be cheaper to support than two small ones, owing to having to secure principals janitors, etc. A fully graded school needs eleven rooms.

Messrs. T. H. Adams and Robt. Fair both stated that they had at first favored the erection of the new building on the old site, but after considering the matter as shown in Dr. Morrison's report, they now agreed that the Armour property was the better site for the new school.

Mr. Hill said that the Board should do what they thought right, regardless of the wishes of any deputation. They had a duty to discharge and it would be a mistake to take a course of action which they considered wrong, to please those who might sign a petition or make up a deputation.

Finally Mr. Eastwood moved, seconded by Mr. B. F. Ackerman, "that a meeting of the fifth ward ratepayers be called for Tuesday night of this week to discuss the question, and that the Board meet on the following night and settle it."

It was moved in amendment by Dr. Morrison, seconded by W. H. Hill, "that the Board convene in Committee of the Whole at once, and definitely settle the matter." This course was taken.

The vote was a tie and Chairman John Crane voted in favor of the amendment.

The Board then discussed the matter in Committee of the Whole, and in a short time resumed their special session.

After a brief discussion the matter was finally settled by the following motion:—

Moved by Dr. Morrison, seconded by T. H. Adams,—"That after further consideration of the matter, of the offer of $400.00 per acre made to the Armour Estate for that part of Block V., East of Concession St., on Registered Plan No. 1A for the City of Peterborough, situate at the North East Corner of Concession and Hunter streets and having a frontage of 510 feet on Concession street and 510 feet on Hunter street, that the Board increase the amount to $3,300.00 for the said parcel, without prejudice, providing a proper title is delivered forthwith and that the treasurer be authorized to issue cheque therefore, when a certificate of title is furnished by the Board's solicitors."—Carried unanimously.

YOUTH WITH HORSE WAS TOO RECKLESS

Magistrate Dumble Imposed Fine of $5 and Costs.

In imposing a fine of $5 and costs, $8.50 in all, upon Harry Peters, at police court this morning for reckless driving, Magistrate Dumble said, "The citizens cannot afford to have their lives endangered by the recklessness of boys."

Peters had a livery horse on Saturday evening. P.C. Kidd saw him driving in a reckless manner and arrested him as it was evident that he was not capable of handling a horse.

When the officer was giving evidence this morning, Peters having pleaded "not guilty," the defendant explained for the benefit of the court that he was a capable and efficient driver. A bottle of liquor was found on his person when he was arrested.

Chief Thompson saw Peters shortly after he was arrested, and the Chief said that the defendant was not in very good shape to drive a horse. He was intoxicated.

To Peters' statement that he had control of his horse, His Worship said; "A drunken man is a very poor judge of his own conduct."

SAME OLD STORY.

A blacklister said he got liquor from some shantymen. He appeared before Magistrate Dumble this morning on a charge of being under the influence while on the blacklist, and was fined $10, to be paid in ten days. He had just finished paying a $10 fine, which was imposed a couple of weeks ago on a similar charge

SURVEY FOR ANOTHER LOCK

The Review inquired to-day of Trent Valley officials, for further information regarding the reported construction of a lift lock on the Severn River adjacent to Orillia. An Orillia report says that the Trent Valley engineers have been surveying there this winter and that a sixty-foot lift lock will be built near the Big Chute power plant.

According to the local officials this report is a little previous. They admitted that a survey had taken place for the purpose of collecting the usual mass of information always necessary, before any decisive action is taken. This matter would then have to be laid before the Department at Ottawa.

THE VALUE OF GOOD READING

Special Sermon to Young Women by Rev. G. W. Henderson

Urging the necessity of proper discrimination in the choice of their reading matter, Rev. G. W. Henderson preached a special sermon to young women on Sunday morning, chiefly emphasizing the vital part good reading occupies in the guidance of their lives.

While illustrating this point he referred at some length to the vast amount of literature, both good and bad, that is being regularly turned out by the press. In this large annual output, works of fiction occupied by far the most space. The pastor considered that we were living in a period that was pre-eminently a novel reading age. By this he did not mean to assert that all novels were bad. It was true that a great number of them gave false pictures of life and erroneous standards of right and wrong. They were in too many instances also responsible for a deadening and blunting of the moral sense. On the other hand there were scores upon scores that could be unhesitatingly recommended. The works of the great Charles Dickens, Thackeray, Ruskin, George Eliot and Harriet Beecher Stowe were splendid examples of the latter class.

The pastor stated that if he were to be supplied with a list of the titles of books on any young lady's book shelves he would venture a fairly accurate opinion of that young lady's character. He condoned the craving after sensational reading that marks the present day reader. This class of reading was very prevalent in New York where there were twenty-five daily papers which catered to the demand.

THE LADIES' CHOIR.

The innovation of having a ladies' choir, proved so acceptable a week ago Sunday, that the idea was repeated again at the morning service yesterday, and proved to be extremely popular and of as much service as previously.

Solos were rendered by Miss Pringle and Miss Brock. The latter, by special request, sang "The Bird With the Broken Pinion," a selection that is ideally suited to bring out the rare, sympathetic qualities of her vocalism. Who could fail to be impressed as Miss Brock's rich, expressive voice sang the two lines—

"But the life that sin has stricken,
Never soars so high again."

The choir and congregation as far as known are unanimously enthusiastic in praise of the singing of Miss Brock, and Peterborough musical circles have been decidedly strengthened by the acquisition of the services of this talented soloist.

The pulpit in the evening was taken by Rev. Dr. Marsh, of Springville Presbyterian church. The congregation was large. A very effective duet number was rendered by Miss Pringle and Mr. Harold Lee, the voices blending sweetly and in harmony.

WE SHOULD BE DOERS AND NOT HEARERS ONLY

The George Street Congregation Heard Mr. J. L. Hughes

Those who had heard Mr. J. L. Hughes, the retiring Chief Inspector of the Toronto schools, and were amongst the congregations at George street church, yesterday, were not disappointed at the quality of his messages, and those who heard him for the first time, will want to form part of his audience should Mr. Hughes find it convenient to again visit Peterboro.

It was the educational anniversary of the church and the very large congregation at the evening service was undoubtedly encouraged by the glowing reports from those who heard the visitor in the morning.

Mr. Hughes enjoys the distinction of being the school inspector of longest service on the continent. He was appointed in 1874, when there were but 68 teachers under his charge. He was born on a farm near Bowmanville, and lived there until 18 years attending his father's private school near the town. From there he went straight to the Normal school at Toronto. Graduating, he taught for one and a half years in Frankfort village. Then he returned to Toronto, and taught seven years. At the end of that time he was made inspector. He is 66 years old.

He is well known as an author. Some of the books he has published are "Froebel's Educational Laws," "Dickens as an Educator," "Mistakes in Teaching," "How to secure and retain attention," "How to teach reading," and "The old training and the new."

Like his brother, the Hon. Sam Hughes Minister of Militia, he has an admirable physical appearance; he looks the part of a leader, and as he commences to speak, commands instant attention. At midsummer he will vacate his present position at Toronto.

The pastor, Rev. Isaac Couch, in a few general remarks, as he introduced Mr. Hughes at the morning service, made an appeal for greater effort along educational assistance. He referred to the vast immigration into Canada, and of the vast amount of money being expended throughout the Dominion by the Methodist Church. He mentioned the splendid response made by the wealthy laymen of the church, and pointed out that it was up to the individual members to do their part. One remark Mr. Couch made must have been highly satisfactory to the congregation it being that last year, the number of divinity students at Victoria College, Toronto placed that institution at the top position in Canada.

Mr. Hughes used as his text James 1. 22, "But be ye doers of the word and not hearers only."

As an apt illustration of the point he wished to bring out first, that we might be partners of God, that his wishes might be brought about he told of the planting of the seed and the eventual growth and bloom of the flower. We did not make that flower grow. Incidentally, he remarked that the pupils of the Toronto schools, secured through him last year 50,000 packages of seeds, for flower gardens at their homes.

Going back to the county of his birth and early life, he dealt for some time on two classes of Christians then known, the emotional Christian and the intellectual Christian, both alright in their place but lacking the doing principle of Christianity. They did not, as Christ, who went about doing good. That was the point he wished to bring out.

It was not saved from sin, but saved for service. Partnership with God to represent him, he said, was the idea. The supreme duty was to develop the power he had given us, to be used for the Divine. With the acceptance of that responsibility and action came a tendency to go on further, and do greater things. We received more power, and in taking more responsibility, more joy. Our faith to do the work became greater and then came a newer vision, whereby we stepped to things higher and things became more clear to us.

HOODLUMS RESPONSIBLE FOR MUCH DAMAGE

Broke Into Boathouses Along the Riverfront.

Five boathouses on the Otonabee river were broken into one night last week, and a considerable amount of damage inflicted upon their contents. One of the sufferers through the affair said to-day, that as far as he could find out, the damage was committed last Wednesday evening. From appearances the work looks like deliberate and wilful attempts on the part of several boys or young men, and they succeeded very well. The object of their entry into the buildings was certainly not to steal, but rather to see how much damage could be done to the contents.

Mr. Charles J. Dummitt and Percy Dunsford were the heaviest losers in the affair. Their boathouse contained a gasoline launch, which sustained damage to perhaps the extent of twenty-five dollars, and probably more when a further examination is made. A hammer was used deliberately to destroy the mechanical part, the engine being very badly smashed. In the other boathouses camp stools, fishing tackle, and cushions were thrown about, but very little seemed to be missing.

The owners of the buildings are Messrs. Thomas Emmerson, Thomas Sabine, Charles Dummitt, Percy Dunsford, and Messrs. McCall and Hatcher. The police have the matter in hand, and it is hoped that the offenders will be speedily brought to justice.

MORE PLAYERS ARE SIGNED BY MANAGER TEMPLIN

Manager "Old Folks" Templin will have a complete team signed by the first week in April. This augurs well for the sucess of the blue and white aggregation in the Canadian League race, which will open about May 14.

The following dope about some of the players already signed will give the local fans a line on the men who are going to represent Peterborough this season.

Charles Turley—Shortstop, aged 22 years; height, 6 feet 1-2 inch; weight, 175 pounds. Played semi-pro ball with Shoemakersville, one of the fastest ball teams in Eastern Pennsylvania. He is a right hand thrower and a left hand batter. Manager Templin says, "Look for him to go up higher."

Irwin Trout—Catcher; aged 19 years, 5 feet 9 inches tall; weighs 165 pounds; is a right hand batter and thrower. He played on the same team with Turley and last year joined the Coaply team. He was picked up at the end of the season by the Reading Tri-State pennant winners as a possibility for this season, but Manager Templin was lucky enough to land him first. "Old Folks" says of this youngster: "I look for him to go up higher, as he is a good man."

Carl Hartman was the year before last a High School boy. He and a catcher, Snell by name, were looked upon by Connie Mack as the two best youngsters he has seen in a long while. Since that Snell has gone to Harrisburg in the Tri-State League, but belongs to Mack. Hartman is a fast infielder and a fair hitter, and will be a very valuable man to the Peterborough club. He is 19 years of age; 5 feet 11 inches in height, and weighs 160 pounds. He has been playing basketball in the Eastern League with a team from Reading, Pa is a right hand thrower and hitter. None of these boys drink, chew, or smoke.

William Swartx—Outfielder, is very fast. He is 5 feet 8 inches in height, 23 years of age, and has played professional ball for several years. In 1910 he was in the Blue Grass League with Frankfort, and in 1911 with Jonsonville in the Georgia League. He is a right hand thrower and batter. He is nicknamed "Peg" on account of his good throwing. He hit over the 300 mark and led in the home runs until the club disbanded on account of financial troubles. He is of good habits, stockily built, and in the game from start to finish.

James Beard is 27 years of age, and saw service in the New England League with Nashua, in 1905, and Laurence in 1907. He has been in the Blue Grass League and in the Caroline League. He is a good ball player. "Old Folks" will play him in the outfield, but he is a good utility man as he can also pitch some. He weighs 155 pounds.

Other players signed are first baseman Levi Lothenberger, Boyerton, Pa.; Catcher Frank Brode, Shenandoah; Pitcher Edward Bartlett, of the Kodak Park team, Rochester, N.Y.; also Harry Scull, Scranton.

THIS FAN ASKS THAT BALL GAME PASSES BE SENT HIS WAY

Suggestions for nicknames for the Peterborough baseball team are coming in fast. The following letter brings the latest:

Sporting Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I suggest the undermentioned names for the baseball team:

According to the Review and other papers, Peterborough is known as the "Electric City," therefore why do you want to go any further for a name for the city teams. Why not call them the "Electric City" or "Electric C." team, or the "Magnetic C." or "Magnetic City Team. Earl Grey found we had a magnetic clutch at the C.G.E., why not use it for an advertisement?

Either would be called for shortness, the "Electrics" or "Magnetics" (from Peterborough it playing elsewhere.)

And should you desire another name, why not call them the "Otonabees." We live on its banks and presume we can claim its name.

As regards "Lifters" this is so often used to denote sly thieves, who pilfer everything behind one's back, that I really do not think it would be an agreeable name for the players, themselves, to approve of. Everything is in a name, therefore give them one that sounds grand, even if they do not come up to expectations, a good name supports them to a great extent. I remain,

Yours truly,

"H. M. S. Thunderbolt"

P. S.—I have promised to take 9 others to the first game, so please send those ten tickets to me on the 1st April.

Another fan suggests "Panthers" as a suitable name.

However, he has delivered the goods, as his records show.

Edmunds gave to the Review a call this morning, and altogether exhibited something which the advance agent for Tuesday night's bill failed to come over with.

THE TURF

New York, March 25—The lifelong ambition of C. K. G. Billings, the millionaire horseman, was realized the other day when he became owner of "The Harvester" the record holding stallion trotter. The purchase was made from August Uihleen, the millionaire Milwaukee brewer. The price was $50,000. With this acquisition to his stable Mr. Billings hopes to make another clean sweep this summer in Russia, where he will take his famous horses to give exhibitions. He expects to sail April 15th. The Harvester first attracted attention during the early summer of 1910, when, driven by Ed Geers, he neared the world's mark for his class. In almost every subsequent race he came nearer to the mark set by Cresceus in 1902, until on Sept. 22, 1910, at Columbus, he hung up a record at 2.01, a second and a quarter better than Cresceus' record. The Harvester is also the holder of the two-mile record, which he set Oct. 13, 1910, at Lexington at 4.15 1-4. The other horses which have hung up unapproachable records of their classes for Mr. Billings are Lou Dillon, the mare and holder of the world's record of 1.58-1-2 and Uhlan, who holds the gelding record of 1.58 3-4.

SPORTS AT Y. M. C. A.

There was a very fair crowd present at the basketball game on Saturday night, when the local "Y" team defeated the T. C. S. team of Port Hope, in a very well played game. The game from a spectators point of view was a very good one indeed, lots of combination and good shooting, both of which go to make a good game out of basketball. The Port Hopers were a pretty fair aggregation, and played a good steady game, but lacked in shooting as compared with the local boys, who played a very fine game all through, the final score ending, Peterborough 29, Port Hope 24. Teams—Port Hope Grylls and Bradfield, forwards; Bartlett, centre; Greer and Denniston, defence. Peterborough — Hall and Hill, forwards; Throop, centre; Ellis and Hanwell defence. Referee Physical Instructor Sterling, Port Hope, Umpire, J. J. Thompson.

BARN IN SMITH LOST

Six Calves, Machinery and Feed Burned at Noon

A large frame barn, the property of Mr George Allen, of the middle line of Smith was destroyed by fire at noon to-day and six calves together with considerable farm machinery and feed were also lost. Some horses and cattle in the barn at the time were rescued.

It is not known how the fire originated. Mr. Allen carried some insurance.

SMALL FIRE

A slight fire broke out this afternoon in a house at the corner of Murray and Stewart streets. The roof was ignited by a stray spark from the chimney and the flames burnt a hole through the roof. The fire brigade responded with their usual promptness and extinguished the blaze. The damage is about $50.00.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

A MAN may be perfectly contented with his lot, but don't offer him a million dollars unless you have a million that is troubling you.

It is easier to give people credit for the good they do than it is to give them credit for coal.

No house looks like home to a man until it has a few articles misplaced.

The man who makes two housemaids flourish where one flourished before must needs have a raise in salary.

A man may have run for office, yet the neighbors will never know what a scoundrel he is until he gets into the divorce court.

One puppy can cause more trouble in a neighborhood than four men can smooth over.

It won't do to tell the truth too often. People may get in the way of expecting it from you.

A man shouldn't be blamed for his parents, but he does have some say in picking his wife's relations.

These are the days when a man vows to put it in the marriage ceremony that his subsequent wives shall take care of the furnace.

If it were not for housecleanings a woman would never know that she needed new furnishings.

A Bluff.

By the way his brow is bulging
When in thought he is indulging
You would think he was a wonder.
But that thought would be a blunder,
For he only thinks about
How the races will come out
Or the way to cut his hair,
Rounding in the back or square.

A beholder would be guessing
That some mighty thoughts were pressing—
Mighty thoughts perhaps concerning
Problems in the higher learning—
But that guess would miss the mark.
As a wanderer in the dark
He is only wondering when
He will see a show again.

Just to see him proudly posing
You'd be pardoned for supposing
That his mighty brain in throbbing
Was of nature secrets robbing.
You might see it in his face,
But that wouldn't be the case.
For his thoughts would only rest
On the pattern of his vest.

That's the way a man comes bluffing
When his brains are merely stuffing.
If he only looks imposing
He can keep his friends supposing
That he has so much gray matter
That his headpiece stuns the hatter.
Call him once and you will find
Less than nothing on his mind.

Her Opinion of It.

"Do you want to vote, Mrs. Brown?"

"My land! No."

"But why not? Don't you think women ought to vote?"

"I don't know whether they ought to or not, but I think I have to do enough of John's chores now without giving him the chance of telling me to drop by and vote for him."

Keeping It Dark.

"He didn't dance until after he was forty."

"And now he dances as gracefully as an elephant."

"Did you tell him so?"

"No; I like to smoke his cigars too well."

Defined.

"What's an ideal wife?"

"Oh, the other fellow's, I suppose."

Liberal.

"She has a hard time supporting her family."

"Yes, and her philanthropy is expensive too."

"In what line?"

"She is supporting three fortune tellers."

The Pessimist.

"What are women for, anyway?"

"They are the reason of things."

"The reason of things?"

"Yes. The reason men assign when they are asked why anything goes wrong."

Artistic Tastes.

"So he picked up a wife in the city?"

"Yes. He married a lady barber."

"Got stuck on her work?"

"Well, he was tired of having his mother cut his hair."

Talking to the Future.

That our children's sons may listen
To the wisdom you disperse
And may profit in the hearing
In a phonograph converse,
That the centuries may hear them,
Have your voices neatly canned
If you think for the performance
That the centuries will stand.

WAS DELEGATE TO GRAND LODGE

Mr. J. J. Turner sr. Attended C.O.U.W.

Mr. J. J. Turner, sr., Past Deputy District Grand Master, and present Master of the local lodge, No. 135, of the Canadian Order of United Workmen, attended the Grand Lodge meeting in Toronto on Wednesday and Thursday of last week, as representative of the local lodge.

Mr. Turner reports that the meeting was in every way a success, and that it showed that the order was in first class financial condition. The United Workmen have at present $1,600,000 worth of government bonds to their credit.

The election of officers resulted in the reinstating of all the officials, with the exception of Bro. McEwen, who was elected Grand Master, in place of the retiring officer, Mr. J. J. Craig.

One purpose of the meeting was to consider the advisability of raising the age at which a young man became eligible to enter the order.

Another was to readjust the amount of dues paid by the members of the order.

In neither case was any definite action taken, but an expert actuary was engaged to look into the latter matter and report at a special meeting, which will likely be called by the Grand Master in the course of a month or two.

Knox in Venezuela.

Caracas, March 25.—A whirlwind finish marked the last day of the visit of the American Secretary of State, Mr. Knox, and his party to the Venezuelan capital. He leaves to-day for Puerto Cabello. The Secretary drove yesterday morning to the residence of the Foreign Minister, Gen. Manuel Matos, where he was entertained. He had luncheon with the American mission, Elliott Northcott, at the legation. There were special races at the hippodrome, and later a reception and ball given by President Gomez at the Miraflores palace.

Foreign Minister Matos, in welcoming Secretary Knox, said that his visit meant closer ties of friendship and the development of commerce. The Secretary, in responding, said: "The volume of incoming and outgoing commerce between Venezuela and the United States is relatively larger than between Venezuela and any other country. Good will and mutual confidence will make it actually larger. Thus interest in Venezuela should increase.

AID TO THE THOROUGHBRED STALLIONS

The policy initiated in 1911 by the Department of Agriculture with reference to the granting of aid, under certain conditions, to the owners of thoroughbred stallions is generally meeting with approval and is accomplishing, in part at least, the objects sought when the policy was undertaken. Amongst other things, owing to the rigid conditions imposed, it is encouraging those maintaining really high class horses and is serving to organize the system of breeding followed in the different communities where thoroughbred stallions are located. The stimulus given, in this manner, to the use of thoroughbred blood will, it is believed, lead to an improvement in the light horse stock of the country. Thoroughbred stallions, if really good individuals, may be expected to exert such an influence, in the development of Canadian horses for saddle and harness use, as is greatly needed and greatly to be desired. The premium placed upon quality, soundness and prepotency, through the grants awarded by the Department is serving to check the use of unsuitable sires and is tending to conserve a type of thoroughbred the utility of which is beyond question.

While, as perhaps should be stated, it is not the intention of the Department to encourage the breeding of thoroughbred horses or to develop a type in light horses approximating closely to that of the thoroughbred, there is no question but that a strong infusion of thoroughbred blood in the light legged mares of the country will be of inestimable value in improving the quality of the stock got from them by stallions of the various light harness breeds.

Believing himself to be justified, therefore, in further prosecuting the policy begun last year, the Honorable Martin Burrell, Minister of Agriculture, has authorized the continuance of the grant to be available for all thoroughbred stallions, standing for public service during the season of 1912, which comply with the conditions imposed by the Department.

The conditions under which assistance will be given are as follows:

1. All horses on account of which aid is given by the Department must be registered in the Thoroughbred Stud Book of the Canadian National Live Stock Records.

2. Horses shall be of good size, quality and conformation and shall be free from all hereditary unsoundness; these conditions to be ensured by submission annually to a thorough, careful examination either at the hands of the Veterinary Director General or such other members of the veterinary staff of the Department, or other persons as the Minister may from time to time appoint for this purpose.

3. Horses so approved shall be duly and properly advertised to stand for service of mares, under the ordinary and general conditions usual in the districts in which they are to be kept, at an annual service fee (except in the case of thoroughbred mares) of not more than $10 to insure, such service fee to become due and payable only when mares prove to be in foal.

Any person, firm or corporation owning or controlling any thoroughbred stallion in regard to which all of the conditions above set forth shall have been duly and properly fulfilled, shall, on production of satisfactory evidence thereof and of the fact that a reasonable number of mares, other than thoroughbred mares, have been served during the season, be entitled to receive at the close of each such season the sum of $250, from the funds of the Live Stock Branch. If, in the event of a horse dying or becoming incapacitated for service during the season, an approved substitute is immediately placed in the same district, the Minister may, after due consideration of the circumstances, authorize the payment of the subsidy above mentioned.

The necessary forms will be furnished on application to the Veterinary Director General and Live Stock Commissioner, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

TO FORM AN ASSOCIATION

Auto Owners of the City to Organize Friday Evening.

The automobile owners of this city are endeavoring to form an Automobile Owners' Association, along the lines of the London and other city associations. There will be a meeting in the Bank of Montreal Chambers on Friday evening, March 29 at eight o'clock sharp, for this purpose and Peterboro automobile owners and propective owners are requested to attend and have something to say in the organization. Officers will be elected and it is expected that the Association will get away to a good start at Friday's meeting.

It is believed that there will be about one hundred automobiles in the city this season, owned by Peterboro citizens, and one purpose of the new association is to create a brotherly feeling amongst the local owners. Another purpose is to show the farmers and citizens, that the owners of Peterboro intend living up to the rules and to make the farmers feel that autoists wish to be friends and not enemies.

Among those behind the movement are such prominent citizens as Messrs. Vincent Eastwood, Chas. Ackerman.

PROSPEROUS SWITZERLAND.

Lessons In Thrift We May Learn From the Alpine Republic.

The world owes the principles of the initiative and referendum to the little republic of Switzerland and would now be wise in taking a lesson from her in industry and thrift. It has been the commonest of expressions that the little Alpine country would starve to death were it not for the tourists, yet it takes care of all that want to come, and then sells abroad just about three times as much goods, man for man, woman for woman and child for child, as the United States does. All the articles produced, whether grown or manufactured, are individually of small value, still, even without the locomotives and expensive machinery which swell the totals of our home productions to such tremendous figures, the Swiss trade amounts to one-seventh of the U. S., although her population is less than a twenty-fifth. Italy with ten times her population has less than twice her foreign trade; Austria-Hungary can only double the republic's figures, with 13 times her population; Japan, out-numbering her fifteen fold, can only come within four-fifths of the foreign trade of the little mountain republic; with all her tremendous territory Canada's foreign trade is less than that of Switzerland.

The reason for this noteworthy pre-eminence in trade is to be found in the industrious and economical character of the people and in the general establishment of home industries. The country people and residents of villages who are engaged in farm work or other occupation during the spring, summer and autumn spend the winter months in the production of various articles, the material for which is furnished by the manufacturers, who receive and pay for the finished products at a stipulated price. Textile manufactures, the production of watches, the making of straw braids and wood-carving form the bulk of the home industries which serve to swell appreciably the staple trade of the country. The Swiss are merely utilizing time which the American farmer is content to waste and for that reason can afford to work for less than the laborers of other countries who depend on manufactures for their entire incomes. They waste nothing on show and stick close to home.

The extent of the nation's prosperity has been hardly suspected by the rest of the world, who pay more attention to the mountains than to the people. The tourist trade, of course ,is considerable. Lausanne had nearly half a million visitors last year; Geneva, 150,000. But the moment Switzerland's foreign millions have turned their backs and gone home the peasants return to the ways of their fathers and the famous Alpine guides go back to the sheep-tending, the cattle herding and the woodcarving that occupied their ancestors for generations. The women of the country are not averse to doing their share of the agricultural labor. Dressed almost like men, they take care of the cattle and do nearly everything that is required in the fields.

Nothing goes to waste among this happy, home-loving people—not even time. Their important agricultural industry fits in with their manufacturing activities and the work at home supplements both.

Her Sunday Jag.

When he tossed her $50 at the breakfast table one Sunday morning and asked how long it would hold her, she simply shrugged her shoulders and smiled and continued her Sabbath-morn debauch with the third, sixth and fourteenth sections of a Sunday newspaper.

"Swagger fall coats of the snappy new style, with coronation collar, round-neck model, high waist-line, deep revers, kimono sleeves, wide wales, mulberrybrown buttons and fascinating shadowings. Exceedingly dressy, with soft, shimmering meteor effect. Charming creations, lustrous mesalines, gold-beaded tunics, poplin de chine and canard-velour hoods. Filet of Venise insection, with catawba flouncings to match. Alice-blue lumeaux and heliotrope shadow edging. Dashing reversible plaids, with macrame kid mousquetaires and prunelia facings."

With these intoxicating words she was gradually yet surely taking on a jag that would soon dissipate the $50 and keep poor hubby in a pickle.

The Common People In Spain.

Spain is one of the most illiterate countries of the civilized world, yet also one of the best educated, unless education be merely that mass of undigested and commonly misapplied information absorbed within four walls, says Henry A. Frank in "Four Months Afoot In Spain." Few men have a more exact knowledge, a more solid footing on the every-day earth, than the peasant, the laborer, the muleteer of Spain. One does not marvel merely at the fluent, powerful, entirely grammatical language of these unlettered fellows, but at the sound basic wisdom that stands forth in their every sentence.

Beans Make Rubber.

It has taken the Germans to use beans for making rubber. The process has just been patented. It consists in extracting a thick oil from the soya bean, treating this with nitric acid, and then heating the material to a given temperature, whereupon it becomes viscid and tough like crude rubber. It can then be vulcanized by the addition of sulphur the same as vegetable rubber, and used for the same purposes.

Irish Capital's Progress Held Back by Party Politics.

"Greater Dublin" is the war cry of a new organization which has been formed recently in the Irish capital for the purpose of bringing about the consolidation of the outlying residential suburbs with the city proper. It has the support of many influential citizens and its only opponents are those whose financial or political interests would be affected by the change.

It is an old complaint that Dublin is one of the dirtiest and most squalid cities in the world. An Irish American who visited the city recently full of enthusiasm for the land of his fathers went away disgusted. He declared that he had never seen more hopeless, dirty, and degraded poverty even in Naples. He was disposed to blame the Dublin corporation for the condition of affairs which shocked him so, but while the corporation is to blame to a certain extent it is not responsible in the sense that he was disposed to hold it.

The trouble is that with the best will in the world the Dublin corporation has no money for civic improvements, and especially for providing better housing for the very poor, and it won't have any until the inhabitants of the prosperous suburbs are made to pay their share. The tax rate is now far too high and, to make it any higher would be simply to invite disaster.

Dublin proper is suffering in two ways. Years ago her aristocracy left her for London, and the fine old houses in the squares which still bear the names of the great Irish families which occupied them once have been cut up into tenements for slum dwellers. The prosperous commercial class have also left the city. They have been attracted by fresh new houses, cheaper rents, and lower taxes in suburbs like Rathmines, Pembroke and Blackrock, and the houses that they once occupied have also fallen on evil days. Even the better class artisans are leaving the city for the new suburbs. Both of the latter classes, however, belong to Dublin.

They come into the city every morning to earn their living and they leave it at night. There is no physical division between the suburbs and the city and the suburban dwellers really are escaping their responsibility for the sanitation of the city, out of which they make their living, and for the housing of the workers without whom their prosperity would not exist.

Perhaps it is natural that these suburbanites should resist the annexation of the suburbs by the city and try to keep their low taxes as long as possible, but they would hardly prevail if the political element did not enter into the calculation, and curiously enough, both Nationalists and Unionists are united on this one issue. The suburbs are largely Unionist in politics and the city is Nationalist. The Dublin corporation elected as it is by the old city area, is overwhelmingly Nationalist, and it has the control of a good deal of patronage. Its members are afraid that if Greater Dublin became a fact they would be swamped by the Unionist vote of the suburbs. The Unionist suburbanites are not so sure of this and they fear that if they allowed themselves to be absorbed by the city they would lose their control of their little independent Unionist townships. Both parties are united in the desire to hold on to what they have as, in this case, it is hard for patriotic men who desire only the good of Dublin as a whole to make headway.

A Perpetual Pension.

An interesting fact has come to light in connection with Mr. Smith, a groom who has lately taken up his residence at Peterborough, viz., that his family have been drawing a pension from the British Government for the space of 276 years.

Mr. Smith, who draws thirty shillings a week, explained in an interview the history of the pension. It appears that after the battle of Worcester an ancestor of Smith assisted Prince Charles to escape, and was one of those who helped to hide him in the famous oak tree. Years passed, and it was not till 1675 that King Charles II. was informed of the incident. Parliament, on the advice of the King, was not slow at rewarding those who had rendered services, however slight to the sovereign. The consequence was that Mr Smith's ancestor was placed on the perpetual pension list at the rate of thirty shillings a week, with the result that the family have received (in round figures) something like $107,500 since the pension was granted.

Mr. Smith's father, it appears, parted with the pension to another person while he lived, but on his death it reverted again to his eldest son, and in turn it will descend to the present pensioner's eldest child, and so on. It is stated this perpetual pension is the only one of its kind in existence.—London Daily News.

Peculiar Table Customs.

In a book entitled "Domestic Manners of the Middle Ages" we are told that in those days dinner tables were covered by a "nappe," or tablecloth. Upon it were placed a large saltcellar, bread and cups for wine, but no knives or plates. The reason for the absence of the knives arose from the common practice in vogue of people carrying their own knives in a sheath attached to their girdle. In an early work, written by Lydgate—"Rules For Behavior at Table"—the guests are told to bring no knives unscoured to the table, which can only mean that each one was to keep his own knife—that is, the one he carried with him—clean.

Irish Women.

A cosmopolitan critic, lately deceased, after surveying woman kind from China to Peru, gave the palm for attractiveness to the women of Ireland. He dwelt rapturously on their beauty and their naivete, averring as a final compliment that they are pre-eminently the femmes dangereuses. That they have infinite charm none can deny, even the cockney whose profound knowledge comes of a galloping holiday trip to Killarney, Wicklow or the Giant's Causeway—London Chronicle.

CONFIRMATION BY HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP SWEENEY

Sacred Rite Administered at St. John's, St. Luke's and St. Mark's

The ancient and apostolic rite of confirmation was administered by His Lordship, Bishop Sweeney, of Toronto, at St. John's, St. Luke's and St. Mark's, Otonabee, yesterday, and the occasion was of more than usual interest on account of the visit of His Lordship, and the large number of candidates for confirmation.

At St. Luke's the confirmation class numbered fifty-one. Bishop Sweeney, administered the rites of confirmation at St. John's in the morning, at St. Mark's in the afternoon and at St. Luke's at evensong, and at the latter church, so large was the congregation that chairs had to be used in the aisles. Before proceeding with his address, Bishop Sweeney congratulated the rector and the congregation on the large class.

The subject used by His Lordship was "What is the Will of God concerning you? After pointing out clearly that this was the most important among all other things. His Lordship went on to explain how God's will was revealed. It was revealed in the world of nature by the relationship between God and us, and it was revealed by the living word of God himself, and His will was that we should always maintain a thankful spirit for his superabundant mercies towards us, and also this will called for our sanctification. Addressing himself particularly to the members of the confirmation class, the preacher said that each should be and continue to be His child in time and eternity: to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ: to be a worker together with Him; to be saved from the wrath and brought into that inheritance, reserved for us through Jesus Christ.

The address of His Lordship was one of great helpfulness to his hearers, and was one which should and will no doubt, strengthen them in the battle before them.

THE EYE LIKE A CAMERA

The eye is constructed so wonderfully and ingeniously that the handicraft of man has not as yet been able to construct as delicate an instrument. It is like a camera—the lens to focus, the lid as a shutter, the iris or color as the diaphram, the thick coatings of the eye-ball as the dark room, the nerve as the sensitive plate, and strange as it may seem, the images are bottom side up exactly as the image in the camera. Now so delicate and sensitive an instrument as the eye should have good care. Let us explain more fully to you how to care for the eyes.

MARKET BUILDING

THE BOARD OF TRADE TO DISCUSS PROJECT

At the meeting of the Board of Trade to be held this evening a proposition that has had the attention of several citizens, and suggested by the members of the firm of Turner & Sons, who are Englishmen, as well as Canadians, will be discussed.

The proposition is one growing out of what has been done in several places, and practically means that of an assisted passage to Englishmen desiring to come to Canada or to bring wives or families.

The facts as offered to the Board for consideration are as follows, and are offered by Mr. John Turner:

"In the city at the present time are 42 Old Country men who are supporting families in the Old Land, chiefly, for the reason that they were unable to bring their families with them when they emigrated, on account of lack of funds. These men are contributing on an average of $5.00 per week each for the support of their families at home, which means that $120.00 is going out of Peterborough every week which ought to be spent here where the money is being earned.

There is a plan which has been adopted in Winnipeg with a great deal of success, and is at the present time being used in Toronto, as a result of an address delivered by Mr. Bulman, Chairman of the Organization known as The Imperial Home Reunion Association of Winnipeg. To overcome sending of money out of the country, a number of men associated themselves together, and guaranteed a certain amount according to the needs of the situation. We think if $100.00 each was guaranteed by 50 men, it would create a fund large enough to advance money to assist these men in bringing their families to them. The fund could be administered through the City Clerk as trustee, or some other gentleman appointed to the position, who would receive applications for a loan from the men who desired to be assisted. This trustee would work in conjunction with an advisory board, selected from the guarantors.

The plan, as we understand it, is that applicants for assistance are submitted to the trustee, who confers with the advisory board, and if, after investigation, the case is approved by them, the applicant deposits one-fifth of the cost of transportation with the trustee, together with a signed agreement protecting the guarantors. The trustee is then authorized by the advisory board to forward the necessary railway and steamship tickets to bring out the members of the family, of whom full particulars are in the hands of the advisory board.

Experience in other cities shows that the loss to the guarantors is practically nil, while the gain to the various cities taking up such a scheme is great, the moral standpoint is one reason for the existence of such an association in this city; also the business side presents itself, and we must not forget the city's interest in the encouragement of home builders in our midst.

We feel that the matter is one of the utmost importance, and should be dealt with by the Retail Merchants' Association, Board of Trade, and City Council, so that the matter can be fully discussed, and the plan adopted to be put into working order as soon as possible, in event of receiving favorable consideration.

The address proved to be of much helpfulness to the entire class.

FAVORS THE PLAY GROUNDS

Toronto's Chief School Inspector Also Spoke on the Penny Bank System.

Mr. James L. Hughes, the Chief Inspector of Public Schools in Toronto, who will retire at midsummer, was introduced to the members of the Board of Education by the Rev. Isaac Couch, at a meeting Saturday night.

Mr. Hughes was very enthusiastically in favor of large play grounds for the children. Play, he thought, was absolutely the greatest agency in developing power in the children.

The Toronto people, Mr. Hughes said, were absolutely convinced that extensive play grounds are necessary and are even tearing down expensive buildings to make room for play grounds.

Mr. Hughes advised that in Peterborough large play grounds should be bought now while land is comparatively cheap. Mr. Hughes thought that for a twelve-room school six acres of ground was very suitable, and also recommended that part of it be used for gardens which would be kept by the pupils themselves. When asked if he thought that the new school would be too high, he replied, "The higher the building is situated, the better."

This shows that in Mr. Hughes' opinion the Board's action regarding the new school site for East City is wise.

Mr. Hughes went on to say that the development of power in children could be accomplished better on the play grounds than any other place. Seventy-five per cent. of the leading men of Canada were brought up on a farm, where they had plenty of room to play—when they were not working. Play is the child's work.

In Toronto the large school grounds were opened to different clubs, after school hours. These clubs obtained the permission to use the grounds, and after they had used them the grounds were locked up to keep out marauders who might damage the property.

PENNY BANK SYSTEM.

Mr. Hughes spoke also of the penny bank system, which is in operation in Toronto. At present $210,000 are deposited in the bank. The value of the plan is that it gives the pupils the proper consciousness of money, teaches them the saving habit, and encourages them to earn money while attending school.

The Toronto pupils earn as much as they can and deposit it in the penny bank. Some earn as much as $9 a week. As one depositor can have only $300 in the bank, when a boy reaches this limit he removes it to one of the other banks. The large banks are in sympathy with the penny bank.

The habit of mothers giving the child so much money to spend was not advisable because it gives him a wrong consciousness of money, and gets him into the habit of wanting to gratify his own appetite.

Mr. Hughes explained the simplicity of the bank's workings, and that none of the directors made a dollar out of it.

Mr. Hughed invited a deputation from the local Board to visit Toronto and see the simplicity of the scheme in operation.

There will be a meeting of the Automobile Owners and Prospective Automobile Owners of Peterborough on Friday evening, March 29th, at 8 p.m. sharp, in the Bank of Montreal Chambers, for the purpose of organizing a Peterboro' Automobile Association. All interested are requested to attend.

Bank Promotion

The Toronto Mail and Empire says: J. K. Ball, who has been manager of the Bank of Toronto since its establishment in Berlin six years ago, leaves this week for Vancouver, where he will assume the management of a branch in that city, and also superintend branches of British Columbia. He will be succeeded here by E. W. Lamprey, recently of Montreal.

Mr. Lamprey was formerly connected with the local branch of the Bank of Toronto here as accountant. His many friends in the city will be pleased to hear of his promotion.

Not Known Here

Mr. W. S. Dodd, C.P.R. station agent stated to the Review, that he had no knowledge of any trainman by the name of Loist, who resided in Peterborough. The operator at the station and the yardmen were also unacquainted with any one by that name in the service of the company.

REFERENCES TO LATE DR. BOUCHER

Made by Bishop Sweeney and Canon Davidson

At St. John's church yesterday morning, His Lordship Bishop Sweeney referred to the loss the parish had sustained in the passing of the late Dr. Boucher, whom he knew to be a tower of strength to the parish. The late Dr. Boucher had since boyhood, been associated with St. John's and he had filled many important official posts. He was a most valued member.

At the evening service Rev. Canon Davidson made special personal reference to the death of Dr. Boucher who had been a regular attendant. While always glad to see those who came occasionally, it was those regular participants in the life and work of the church, who were the most valuable.

The late Dr. Boucher was a warm and loyal friend of the clergy of the parish.

Rev. Canon Davidson referred also to his brief visit to Buffalo, where he met with the most cordial reception. The splendid attendances of the business men and women at the noon-day services at the large central churches in Buffalo and their evident interest was most inspiring. Canon Davidson met a large number of old Peterboro residents. He was a guest of honor at a large district meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and had cordial attention on all sides.

CALL WAS VERY SUDDEN

Mr. John Carscallen Was Stricken While at Work

Mr. John Edward Carscallen, an employee of the Peter Hamilton Company, was stricken with heart disease while at work Saturday afternoon about four o'clock, and succumbed to the attack about twenty minnutes later.

Mr. Carscallen returned to his work in the moulding department of the Peter Hamilton Company's Works, as usual, on Saturday afternoon and appeared to be in his usual good health. About 3.30 o'clock he complained to a fellow workman of a pain in the small of his back. He went on with his work however, until about 4 o'clock when the foreman of the department called Carscallen to help him in lifting a heavy mould. The man replied faintly that he was unable to go, then fell forward in a faint. Drs. Mann and McPherson were summoned and arrived almost immediately but their efforts to save the unfortunate man were futile, and he died without recovering consciousness about 4.30 o'clock.

The remains were taken to Comstock's undertaking establishment, and yesterday removed to the late residence of the deceased, 512 Parnell street. Coroner Dr. Greer was informed of the sudden demise but considered an inquest unnecessary.

The late John Carscallen was sixty-four years of age, and a member of St. James' Methodist Church. He had been employed in the Peter Hamilton Co's. Works for over three years, before which time he was employed in B. F. Ackerman's harness factory.

The deceased is survived by a wife and two children. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed but will be announced later.

JEWESS IS DEAD; SLAYER AT LARGE

Woman Was Shot Down by Unknown Man at the Door of Her Lodging in the Ward After Refusing to Accompany Him.

Victim Was Shot Through the Mouth—Two People Were Detained.

Toronto, March 26.—Rebecca Cooper, 32 years of age, an Austrian Jewess, rooming at 60 Chestnut street, was shot and instantly killed by a man whose identity is as yet unknown, at eight o'clock last night. The Cooper woman came to Toronto ten days ago from Montreal, and went to live at the Chestnut street address with Mrs. Sarah Cohen. Last night she went out to a nearby store and had just returned with a small parcel of eggs, when she went out again to the door and was heard there talking to a man. The man proposed that they go out and spend the evening. She refused his invitation, her answer showing considerable resentment. The man was heard to say that if she would not go with him he would shoot her. She persisted in her refusal, anl a moment later a shot was heard.

Patrol Sergt. Lutton and Policeman McLeod were in Elm street station when they heard a scream and saw people running. Hurrying to the doorway of the Chestnut street house, they found Mrs. Cohen with the dying girl supported in her arms. Dr. Johnston of Elm street was called, but the girl was dead before he arrived.

While the police were in the house, Albert Berger, 34 years old, an Austrian Jew, crowded into the room where the body lay. He declared that he was the girl's brother, and that they had come to Toronto together from Montreal. He said he was a jeweler. He was taken to the Agnes street station upon a charge of vagrancy, and when searched a revolver was found upon him. It was empty, and showed no signs of having been discharged recently. It was a very small weapon. Later he was taken to the detective office and subjected to a diligent questioning, after which he was taken back to the Agnes street station and held in custody.

From some boys about the house it was learned that the man, after firing his weapon point blank in the woman's face, ran north and turned into a lane which runs west to Centre avenue. No further clues have yet been found, although a number of detectives are at work.

The girl was shot through the mouth, the bullet coming out at the back of the head. The body was removed to the morgue, and the chief coroner was notified and will hold an inquest to-day.

Later the man who had given his name as Berger admitted to the police that his name was Cohen, and that the dead woman was not his sister, but that they had been living together.

Mrs. Cohen, keeper of the house, was also held on a vagrancy charge.

LIBERAL SUMS TO BE SPENT

For Improvements to Harbors and Waterways of Dominion.

Ottawa, March 26.—When the supplementary estimates are brought down to-day by Hon. W. T. White, Finance Minister, it will be found that the Government is preparing to spend liberal sums on an elaborate and comprehensive policy for the improvement of Canada's harbors and waterways, all with the idea of developing inter-provincial trade and improving and cheapening the outlets for western wheat and produce to the Atlantic seaboard.

One of the largest amounts in the supplementary estimate will, it is understood, be to complete the improvements to the Montreal harbor, which will make it one of the finest, if not the finest harbor on the continent. There will also, it is understood, be an item of slightly over a million and a half for the deepening of the St. Lawrence channel from Montreal to the sea to 35 feet and for improvements.

It is understood that a generous amount has been placed in the estimates to start the work of constructing a new Welland canal. The ultimate cost will be in the neighborhood of $45,000,000.

There will also, it is stated, be an item in the estimates of a quarter of a million dollars for the improvements of Goderich harbor, which is now the third largest grain shipping harbor on the great lakes.

ANOTHER ROBBER IS SENTENCED

New York, March 26.—Eugene Splaine, one of the leaders in the recent $25,000 taxicab robbery was sentenced yesterday to serve not less than seven years and six months, nor more than fourteen years and six months, in a state's prison. He had pleaded guilty and confessed that he had blackjacked the messengers inside the taxicab.

MUST HAVE CERTIFICATES

No Marriages Without Health Sanction From Physician.

Chicago, March 26.—Dean Summer of the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul, Sunday delivered a sermon upon the "sacrament of marriage" during which he made the following announcement:

"After consultation with the Right Rev. C. P. Anderson, Bishop of Chicago, and with his approval, Dean Summer and his co-workers of the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul have agreed upon an advanced policy with regard to the administration of marriage in the cathedral

"Beginning with Easter, no persons will be married at the cathedral unless they present a certificate of health from a reputable physician to the effect that they are normal, physically and mentally and have neither an incurable or communicable disease.

"This step is taken only after months of study of the situation and deliberation as to its advisability. It is believed that this stand will meet with the immediate sympathy of the clergy in the church at large, all of whom have long felt the undesirability of being party to the marriage of persons who, because of their physical condition, should never be allowed to enter into the marriage state."

SITUATION HOPELESS

No Progress Made at Conference Held To-day.

Demand of Miners not Accepted by Government.

SITUATION HOPELESS

Special to The Review.

London, March 26.—A Union committee and representatives of the owners held another futile conference to-day and the hopelessness of the situation was further emphasized in the House when the Premier announced that the Government would not insert in the bill the five and two shilling minimum demanded by the miners.

London, March 26.—The 25th day of the national coal strike ends with nearly 3,000,000 workers idle, many thousands dependent upon charity to keep them from starvation, every manufacturing industry in the land undergoing a throttling, and a settlement apparently as remote as ever.

The sanguine expectations at the beginning of the day that the joint conference of coal owners and miners, dramatically summoned by the Premier, would reach an agreement that would end the struggle were replaced by the gloomiest forebodings, when it was learned that no joint conference had been held. For two and a half hours the Prime Minister and his colleagues labored with the committee representing the coal owners, and for four hours and a half with the miners' executive, but they failed so completely to secure concessions from either which would afford a basis for agreement between them, that it was found inadvisable to bring the disputants together again.

As in previous crises in the situation, the Government resorts to mystifying secrecy, the only information vouchsafed in the official statement issued last evening being: "The conference adjourned until to-morrow."

Much significance is attached to the speech of Viscount Haldane, the War Secretary, at the dinner of the Fishmongers, when, having said that it was the duty of the state to preserve law and order, he added: "We have no right, we have no power to make 850,000 miners go to work—it is for them to choose. On the other hand if there are those among them who desire to work, it is our duty to secure to them the liberty to do so."

Back to Scottish Mines.

Glasgow, March 26.—A general breakway of the miners from the strike movement seems probable in Scotland, where 1,000 men resumed work in the pits of Bellshill, Lanarkshire, yesterday morning.

In other pits also there was a considerable resumption of work.

An optimist is a man who knows that his troubles might be worse.

PUGSLEY'S AMENDMENT WAS LOST AND RACING BILL PASSES

His Amendment to Hon. Mr. Doherty's Measure, by Which He Would Throw Out Thorncliffe and London Licenses, Is Defeated — Charges Government With Delay of Five Months.

Ottawa, March 26.—Hon. C. J. Doherty's race track bill was given its third reading at yesterday's session of the House of Commons and passed, after an amendment by Hon. Wm. Pugsley to make its provisions retroactive from March 1, 1912, had been declared lost on division.

The bill provides that, hereafter, applications for charters for racing associations shall be dealt with by the House of Commons as private bill charters instead of being granted by letters patent, under the Companies Act by the Secretary of State.

When the issue was raised some time ago by the introduction of a bill by the Minister of Justice to that effect, it was opposed by Hon. William Pugsley, and other members of the Opposition on the ground that it legalized two charters which were granted on March 18, by the present Government under the Companies Act, which charters, it was claimed, had been "refused" by the former Secretary of State. When the bill was called in the House for the third reading, Hon. Dr. Pugsley moved again his amendment to the effect that the new law should come into force on March 1 instead of March 20. The two charters in question were granted on March 18.

In support of his amendment Dr. Pugsley stated that he had been informed that by a decision of the high court of justice of Ontario no writ of mandamus could issue to compel the local authority to incorporate a racing association. These two charters, which had been granted on the 18th of March, under the Companies' Act, had been applied for two years ago, but were really so broad in their character that the Secretary of State considered that they ought not to have been granted. The bill, by the terms of its date of coming into force, legalized these charters and prevented

GRAND TRUNK BILL STANDS

Ottawa, March 26.—The Grand Trunk bill came up again yesterday. Maj. Currie asked that it stand till Wednesday. He added: "The Grand Trunk solicitor instructed me that Mr. Kelley, master of transportation was to be here this morning. He has not turned up. I will not proceed till he does come and see the Minister of Labor."

The same attitude was taken by Maj. Currie with regard to the Grand Trunk bill to ratify the agreement between it and the Ontario Government for the use of the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway from North Bay to the Transcontinental at Cochrane, for which Ontario will be paid $300,000 a year.

London, March 26.—Judge Martin, of the British Columbia Supreme Court, who intended traveling on the Mauretania from Queenstown, was prevented owing to the inability of the vessel through storm to call. He is said to have protested strongly, and several passengers have announced their intention of proceeding to Liverpool to lay a prompt protest with the Cunard Company.

MILLION LOST IN BAD FIRE

Whole Block Swept in Toronto Conflagration.

Toronto, March 26.—Close to a million dollars' damage was caused by a fire which broke out at three o'clock yesterday afternoon in the rear section of the King street car barns and spread to eight buildings to the south of it. The flames took out the centre third of the block bounded by King street, St. Lawrence street, Eastern avenue, and the Don Esplanade.

The Street Car Co.'s loss was the total destruction of their south or storage barn, where cars not in general use were kept. The nearest estimate of the cars destroyed is 70 motors a 1 150 open and other trailers. All of these were completely destroyed. The total damage to the company is placed at $750,000. The loss to the eleven other firms affected brings the total to $914,300. With the exception of the Street Car Co. nearly every loser is full insured.

The fire was discovered by one of the workmen at the barns. It is said by some that the cause of the fire was the explosion of chemicals in a paint shop used by workmen, who were painting some of the open trailers in the old barn where the fire occurred. Others believe that the fire following that in the vacated warehouse of the Atlantic Soap and Oils Co., which occurred in the morning, and was believed to be of incendiary origin, was due to the same cause.

U.S. HAS FAST DREADNOUGHT

Made Faster Time Than the British Battleship.

Rockland, Me., March 26.—The fastest Dreadnought in the American navy, and probably in the world, is the title claimed for the Government built battleship Florida, which made 22.54 knots on her standardization trial over the Rockland course yesterday. The British Dreadnought Vanguard, with a record of 22.50, has been considered previously the fastest battleship of the world, and the Florida's sister ship, the Utah, built at a private yard, made a record of 21.637 on her fastest trial run.

Body of Infant Found.

Barrie, March 26.—The body of an infant was found beside the C.P.R. near the village of Midhurst. The frozen corpse was in a small box about 14 by 10 inches, and had apparently been pitched from the window of a passing train. There was nothing in the box by which identification could be made. A coroner's jury is investigating.

NO PARTICULAR DEMAND FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Ontario Prime Minister and Leader of Opposition Discuss McDonald's Bill Apart From Party Lines and Sir James While Not Opposed to Idea, Thinks There Is No Particular Demand Just Now.

Toronto, March 26.—Party allegiance was laid aside for an hour or so in the Legislature yesterday afternoon when the bill to extend the political franchise to married women and spinsters with property qualifications was under discussion. At the present time these two classes of women can vote in municipal elections, and W. McDonald, Liberal member for Centre Bruce, introduced the bill to amend the Ontario Election Act merely to extend the provincial franchise to them also.

Mr. McDonald deplored the fact that male foreigners with only one year's residence in the country can vote and yet women, no matter how much property they own, cannot exercise the provincial franchise.

"I have nothing to say in favor of manhood suffrage," said Mr. McDonald. "I'm not blaming the Government, for I know it was first introduced by Sir Oliver Mowat. But I don't care from whom it originated. It has been a source of corruption ever since, and in seaport towns especially many men not long resident in the country can be bought at election time for a mere song."

"It is to offset this transient vote that we propose to extend the vote to married women and spinsters with property qualifications," he added.

"Hear, hear," said Capt. Machin, the Conservative member for Kenora, "I endorse the bill heartily, for it is just extending the provincial vote to the same women who can now vote in municipal elections."

On this subject N. W. Rowell threw aside for the moment his official position as leader of the Opposition and spoke as a plain, ordinary member.

"I support this bill, as member for North Oxford," he said. "Unmarried women and spinsters can now vote on municipal affairs, which include a wide range of subjects over which this House has jurisdiction. The granting of the political franchise as this bill provides for, would be elevating and give added intelligence to the directorate."

Sir James Whitney was not silent either. "One question I am not disposed to quarrel about is whether woman is or is not the equal of man," said Sir James, "but I maintain that if we are ever going to get around this question—if its going to be settled at all, it will be by opening the flood gates and letting all the sisters in. (Laughter.)

"But isn't this little bite of a cherry just the entering wedge of the whole subject? And the question of woman suffrage all through the last campaign. And some of the deputations of women who came here to the Parliament Buildings said openly that the reason they wanted the franchise was because they were agreed that government by men had failed. Sir James added that Mr. McDonald, no doubt had introduced his bill as the result of persuasion by little groups of women who agitate these matters in practically every constituency in the province.

Provincial Secretary Hanna said that a suffrage bill had never been presented to the House in this form before. The people had not discussed it, neither had the press. It wasn't even mentioned at the last election. Therefore he moved an amendment to Mr. McDonald's bill, giving it a six months' hoist.

Allan Studholme said he would support the bill. It didn't convey as much as he wished, for he wanted to see women side by side with men. However, it was a step in the right direction.

Sam Clarke, West Northumberland, had practically the same view of the matter as Sir James Whitney.

A "hybrid" was the way A. H. Musgrove, North Huron, regarded the bill introduced by Mr. McDonald. Mr. Musgrove didn't think that women without property qualifications should be denied the franchise, if women with property qualifications got it.

The bill was lost on division.

Dr. McQueen, North Wentworth, urged the second reading of his bill to prevent the spread of pulmonary and other forms of tuberculosis.

Provincial Secretary Hanna also complimented Dr. McQueen for his able and interesting address. "I endorse every word the hon. gentleman says," added Mr. Hanna, "but I am glad to say that the recommendations he makes are already embodied in the new Public Health Act, which is about to come up for its third reading."

The bill was withdrawn.

The vote on the eight-hour bill will be taken to-day. The Liberals and Mr. Studholme oppose postponement.

TRAVELLING IN WINTER

Do we travel too fast in winter, asks the Chicago Record Herald.

The public generally demands speed and the carriers do their utmost to provide it, but there is such a thing as excessive and dangerous speed under certain weather conditions. Should not the winter schedules of the fast trains be modified in view of the recent serious accidents? Should not the public give up a degree or two of speed for the sake of increasing safety?

In the case of the eighteen-hour trains from Chicago to New York, for example, business men would suffer no inconvenience if they left Chicago at 1 instead of 2.30 or 2.45. The overnight train would remain an overnight train; the traveler would lunch on the train—that's all. An hour and a half added to the schedule would make greatly for safety. Would not the public cheerfully accept such a change—at least for a season?

Other than the fastest trains travel at terrific speed when they make up lost time. The rate of seventy miles an hour is not exceptional these days, owing to unavoidable delays.

Has not the time come to reconsider winter schedules and pay more attention to physical factors than we are in the habit of doing?

"SCORES" FOR DEMOCRACY

Montreal Star.

Critics of pure and undiluted democracy might notice one or two things which stand out with sufficient clearness on the surface of the present world-situation. The first is the undeniable fact that if Germany were a true Democracy to-day, there would be a strong peace Government in power at Berlin, and the joint propositions of Viscount Haldane and Mr. Churchill might be listened to with effective sympathy. The late German elections—while it may be true that the war issue was not predominant—were carried by the advocates of a reduced naval expenditure; and if they had been called upon to form a Government, that Government could hardly have begun business by augmenting the battle-ship-building program which had just been condemned as too large already.

Of course, we will admit at once that if the Kaiser's Government succeeds in presenting a national issue squarely to the voters of the Fatherland, they will very probably support the "advanced" naval program. All we say is that, if pure democracy obtained in Germany, the late elections would have put that great Power at a psychological moment in a mood to consider a reduction in armaments. And who can tell what effect this might have had on the future peace of the world?

Another "score" for democracy of a different character is the admitted efficiency to-day of the French army. It was the rotten conditions of that army under the Empire which brought the disaster of 1870. Even a Napoleonic Empire was unable to keep bright the sword. But now a democracy, which has been almost radical during the last few years, has succeeded in giving France an effective army—if the testimony of all competent judges is to be accepted. Not a little of the confidence felt by France and Britain during the late Agadir crisis, was due to their belief that the defences of the Republic were practically impregnable.

In the British Islands, we have a somewhat similar spectacle. The more democratic of the two parties is in office; and yet it is safe to say that the foreign policy of the Empire and the power of the Navy are at least as satisfactory to the informed section of the British people as they were during the last days of the Balfour regime. Democracy has once more shown that it can—when it will—keep up the fighting ability of the nation and protect its prestige abroad. This is all the more encouraging for us overseas, for it is plain enough that—whether we like democracy or not—the future of the British Empire will inevitably be in its hands. The Unionist party hopes success to-day through its appeals to the plain people—in a word, through 'Tory Democracy,' to use a phrase coined by the most brilliant of Tory Democrats, the late Lord Randolph Churchill.

The power of the people to respond to a patriotic appeal has been too lately demonstrated in Canada to need any proof on this side of the water. Any apparent departure from this principle is practically always the work of the mis-leaders of democracy—and not of democracy itself. In fact, this is the very characteristic of the people which is so often used by the critics of democratic rule to discredit that system. They say that purely democratic Governments break down in foreign affairs and are for that reason rejected by the people themselves. Exactly. The leaders go wrong; but the people do not. Their sure vision and keen insight and commendable freedom from party sway, enable them to see that their leaders are wrong, and to hurl them from power for that very reason.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Considerable time must be spent in perfecting the plans as proposed in the new Health Act, and the provisions will not come into effect this year. The compulsory vaccination clause is strongly opposed by some members of the Legislature, who hold that the vaccine to be used should not only be manufactured by the province but also guaranteed.

With the booming of minute guns and the tramp of soldierry, the bones of the Maine heroes were laid side by side of the bodies of those who were brought home after the war with Spain, and laid away. The solemn ceremony took place last week at Washington, and the final act is done. It cost the people of the United States a large amount of money to resurrect the remains of the battleship Maine, with the ultimate purpose of paying the nation's respect to her representatives, who went down with the battleship.

Rochester Herald—Almost everything that we do nowadays is dangerous, according to some authority or other. It is to be known that it is dangerous for a man to kiss another man's wife, but scientists tell us that it is equally dangerous for a man to kiss his own wife. The rosebud maiden is equally dangerous, and so is the widow. It is dangerous for a man to take a drink, or to smoke tobacco or to eat food. It is dangerous for him to sit down in his own house, or to go into the open air. It is dangerous to live on a plain, and dangerous to climb mountains. It is dangerous to wear clothes and dangerous to go naked! It is dangerous to scrape your face with a razor, and dangerous to wear whiskers. It is dangerous to be idle, and it is dangerous to work. It is dangerous to talk, and it is dangerous to keep silent. It is dangerous to be a sinner, but it is equally dangerous to be a saint. And if you shake hands, you get—oh, horror of horrors!—3,000,000,000 germs upon your palms.

THE MARKET

Latest Quotations in Grain Dairy Products, Live Stock Etc.

CHICAGO, March 25.—Persistent, the limited selling to realize profits more than wiped out an advance to-day in wheat. The July feature suffered besides from a steady peppering by leaders on the bear side. Closing prices were easy and 3-8c to 7-8c under Saturday night. Corn finished 1-8c to 1-4c higher, oats varied from a shade off to a like amount up, and hog products ended at an advance of 5c to 12 1-2c.

Liverpool wheat closed ½d to ¾d higher than Saturday, and corn ¼d to ¾d higher. Paris wheat closed ⅜c to 1c higher, Antwerp unchanged and Berlin ⅝c higher.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, March 25.—Cables on Manitoba spring wheat came stronger at an advance of 1½d per quarter. The demand was good for both nearby and May-June shipment, and, as the prices bid were in many cases in line, much business could have been done if ocean room was obtainable, consequently only a few loads were worked for July-August. The market for corn was stronger at an advance of 1c, but the demand is very limited. A fair trade was done in oats for local and outside account. Demand for flour continues good and business is fairly active. Millfeed situation is unchanged. Butter strong under fair demand and small supplies. Dressed hogs strong at an advance of 25c, with a good demand. Eggs active and steady.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Union Stock Yards.

TORONTO, March 25.—Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards were 124 carloads, comprising 2490 cattle, 454 hogs, 31 sheep, 60 calves and 54 horses.

Exporters.

Geo. B. Campbell bought for Morris & Co. 200 Liverpool steers, 1200 to 1300 lbs. each, at a range of $6.75 to $7.20 in prices, or an average of $6.96.

Butchers.

Easter quality butchers' cattle sold at from $7.25 to $8.55, but only two brought the latter figure; in fact, only four cattle were reported as selling over $8. Best quality steers, 1100 to 1200 lbs. each, $6.75 to $7; prime butchers, 1000 to 1100 lbs. each, at $6.50 to $6.75; good, $6 to $6.25; medium, $5.60 to $5.90; common, $5 to $5.50; inferior, $4.50 to $4.90; cows, $3.75 to $5.50; canners, $1.75 to $2.75; bulls, $4 to $5.50.

Milkers and Springers.

Milkers and springers were quoted at $30 to $50 each.

Veal Calves.

About 60 veal calves were sold at $4 to $8.50.

Sheep and Lambs.

Sheep, ewes, sold at $4.50 to $5.50, and two or three handy weight ewes at $6; rams, $4 to $4.50; yearling lambs at $7 to $8 per cwt.; one spring lamb sold for $5.50.

Hogs.

There were 248 hogs on sale, which sold at $7.90 for selects, fed and watered, and $7.55.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, March 25.—At the Montreal Stock Yards west end market the receipts of live stock for the week ending March 23 were 1100 cattle, 75 sheep and lambs, 1170 hogs and 1450 calves. The offerings on the market this morning amounted to 700 cattle, 50 sheep and lambs, 900 hogs and 400 calves.

The gathering of buyers on the market was large, and, as they were all pretty well cleaned out of beef, the demand was good and a fairly active trade was done. On account of the short run and the limited supply of good steers, some of the packers were obliged to go to Toronto at the latter end of last week and buy several carloads, for which they paid from $6.15 to $6.90 per 100 pounds, f.o.b. In consequence, the demand from them to-day was limited, owing to the high prices demanded for the quality of the stock offered.

Several full loads of steers, weighing from 1050 to 1100 pounds, changed hands at $7 per 100 pounds, and few odd picked lots of the same quality sold as high as $7.15, while top quality cows and bulls brought $6, but if choice steers, weighing 1250 to 1300 pounds, had been obtainable, $7.25 to $7.35 could have been made for them.

The undertone to the market for hogs continues very strong and prices have scored another advance of 15c to 20c per 100 pounds since last Wednesday, making a net rise since this day week of 50c to 75c, and the prospects are that they will go still higher in the future, as supplies thruout the country are, no doubt, scarce when these high figures fail to bring them out. The offerings on spot this morning were small, for which the demand was good, and an active trade was done, with sales of selected lots at $8.60 to $8.75 per 100 pounds, weighed off cars. The tone of the market for lambs was strong, and prices scored a further advance of 25c per 100 pounds.

Butchers' cattle, choice, $7.25 to $7.35; do., medium, $5.50 to $6.50; do., common, $4 to $5; do., choice cows, $5.50 to $6; do., medium, $4 to $5; do., bulls, $4 to $6; milkers, choice, each, $65 to $70; do., common and medium, each, $50 to $60; springers, $30 to $40.

Sheep, ewes, $5 to $5.25; bucks and culls, $4.50 to $4.75; lambs, $7.25 to $7.50.

Hogs, f.o.b., $8.60 to $8.75.

Calves, $1.50 to $8.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

EAST BUFFALO, March 25.—Cattle—Receipts, 3900; fairly active and steady; prime steers, $7.75 to $8; shipping, $6.50 to $7.50; butchers, $5.50 to $7.25; heifers, $4.50 to $6.50; cows, $2.50 to $6; bulls, $4 to $6; stockers and feeders, $3.75 to $5.25; stock heifers, $3.75 to $4.30; fresh cows and springers, steady, $25 to $62.

Hogs—Receipts, 13,000; active and steady; heavy and mixed, $7.80 to $7.85; yorkers, $7.25 to $7.85; pigs, $6.75 to $7; roughs, $6.75 to $6.90; stags, $5 to $5.75; dairies, $7.25 to $7.75.

Lady Betty Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

"Yes," I answered, and the stars and sea seemed to sing with my thoughts. I felt uplifted, somehow. It was a wonderful sensation, which it would be impossible to describe. But I had an exciting impression that Jim Brett shared it. The music of the Hungarian band flowed out from the house and beat in my blood. His voice sounded as if it beat in his too.

"You can't dream what my ambitions are or maybe you wouldn't say that."

"I am sure they would only be noble ones."

"It's true, they are noble. Yet you might not approve. But they're part of my life. I couldn't give them up now and live."

"I should like to hear about them," I said, almost more to myself than to him.

"Some day, if we meet again—and I mean we shall, since you have called me friend—perhaps you will let me tell you about them. I shall ask you to listen—but not now; I daren't now. The time hasn't come. Only promise this, Lady Betty, that you won't forget me, that you'll think of me kindly sometimes."

"I do think of you very often," I said, "and talk about you to Vivace. Poor little Vivace. He doesn't forget. How he did whimper when I had to drag him away from you that day in the wistaria arbor at Central park. This isn't unlike that arbor, is it? There's wistaria here too. I believe I shall always think of that day when I see wistaria. It is odd we should meet again next time in a place so much the same—and just as unexpectedly."

"Just as unexpectedly," echoed Mr. Brett in an odd, thoughtful tone. "It's wonderful that we should meet at all —considering everything." Then he laughed, rather bitterly, I thought. "Aren't you afraid of me, Lady Betty, after your experience of journalists—since I've half hinted to you I may be acting in that capacity tonight?"

"Afraid of you?" I repeated, laughing. "As if I could be. I would trust you in everything."

As I said that a lot of people came out of the maze in the marquee by the exit Mr. Brett had found for me. They streamed into the dimly lighted pergola in their fantastic costumes, laughing and talking, and the beautiful peace of the blue night—broken only by the throb of distant music—was gone completely.

I had thought of taking off my mask, but I was glad now that I'd kept it on.

They came toward us, all in great spirits, having a game of "follow my leader," and their leader, a Chinese mandarin, was offering to guide them to the Cave of Aladdin. I was glad that the Flame wasn't in the gay procession. Evidently he had missed me and gone some other way, or else he was too angry to wish to find me again.

The crowd stopped to speak to us, making jokes in disguised voices. Some of the things they said made me feel that it would be uncomfortable to linger behind with the Puritan when they had passed on.

"Let's join them, shall we?" I asked. "They're going to Aladdin's cave. Wouldn't you like to see it?"

"Yes," he said. And we followed the wild party at a discreet distance.

We went into the house again by a roundabout way, and it wasn't until

We followed the wild party.

we were in the big hall that we learned just how Aladdin's cave was to be found. On a background of dark red flowers made into a great shield and hung over a door glittered and scintillated three words in electric light, "To Aladdin's Cave." The letters had been lighted up only since I had been gone, for I suppose the idea was to make everyone go into the maze first.

We had to pass through several rooms and corridors, all of which had been emptied of furniture and lined with canvas scenery cleverly painted to illustrate events in the story of Aladdin. Everything was shown up to the time that Aladdin went down into the cave at the bidding of the magician disguised as his uncle, and then came the entrance of the cave itself, which was done in imitation rock work. But I knew that it was the way down to the cellar. Either the stairs had been removed or else covered up with a theatrical kind of embankment that made a winding path twisting back and forth under a roof of the imitation rock, and sloping always downward. At the bottom was a screen of spun glass made to look like a falling cataract of bright water, and until you had passed out from behind it you saw nothing except a glow of rosy light filtering through the transparent glass. But when you did come out, unless you were a stick or a stone, you couldn't resist giving an "Oh!" of surprised admiration.

The whole cellar—at least all of it that was left visible—had been turned into a fairy cave of jewels. The walls and ceiling looked like rocks studded with blazing rubies and flashing diamonds. The rough pillars which supported the floor of the house above were great sparkling stalactites and stalagmites. The cemented floor was covered with sand that glittered like diamond dust, and there were fruit trees and rosebushes, rows of tall hollyhocks and buds of tulips, all apparently made of illuminated jewels, something like the transformation scene in a pantomime they once took me to see, only a hundred times prettier.

At the far end of the cave a bright red light kept coming and going, but I couldn't see by what it was made, because of the laughing crowd collected around it. We went nearer, and as others moved away we took their places, so that at last we saw what caused the light and made the great attraction for the people.

It was a giant lamp of a strange shape, standing up to the height of four or five feet from the floor on a pedestal, and behind it stood the genie, a fearful and wonderful apparition who said things in a deep bass voice which made everybody shout with laughter. "It's Fred Kane, the great funny man," said somebody.

The genie's witticisms came whenever any one rubbed the lamp, which each person was requested to do as he or she approached. While it was being rubbed the magic lamp flared up and gave out the bright red light we'd seen at a distance, and simultaneously the genie took something from a huge sequin covered bag he had looped over one of his arms. If the person who rubbed the lamp was a man, he dipped into the left hand bag, if a woman he dived into the right hand one. Each time a beautiful trinket came out and was presented with a low bow and an excruciatingly funny speech, suitable to the character which the person had undertaken for the evening. His wit never failed.

The genie who said things.

A Modern Force in Business

ADVERTISING has established a new order of things in commerce. It has become a mighty power in business progress; a complex yet comprehensible transmitter of many parts for the distribution and selling of merchandise and service.

Its function is fivefold:

To enlighten or educate—to create new wants or to satisfy old ones—to protect and foster legitimate enterprise—to establish a medium of understanding between buyer and seller as a basis for mutual profit and advantage—to prescribe an economical price and the maintenance of a fixed standard of quality.

None know better than the buying public how well these functions have been fulfilled.

Modern advertising has given us an insight into various manufacturing processes. The producer has taken us, the consumers, into his confidence and told us just how his mince meat, his flour, his clothing, etc., is made. We know why certain things should or should not be. Advertising has told us—broadened our understanding and guided our judgment.

Modern advertising has enabled us to unlock the treasure house of the world's divinest melodies through the medium of the player-piano. The motor car has lengthened the business day and brought the fragrant countryside to our door. Men shave in comfort in ten minutes where they used to take twenty. A magic bottle provides us with cold drinks with the weather at 90 degrees or gives us a warm beverage when Jack Frost dips at 40 below.

Modern advertising has elevated the standard of business ethics. It protects the manufacturer from unscrupulous competition and the consumer from base imitation. It conserves trade—extends business—creates good will. It enables the corporation, the manufacturer or private individual on trial to take his case directly to the public, and to secure the public's judgment on his policy or character based purely upon their respective merits.

Modern advertising has opened up new opportunities to the oppressed and poor of far-off lands. It has turned an unceasing tide of immigration to new countries. It has developed nations, and made the name of the New World a promise of better things among the people of the Old.

All this advertising has done and will continue to do. It is the ever-increasing influence for the advancement of mankind—the most potent, indeed, of the many forces influencing human action.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.

Toronto, March 1st, 1912.

W. H. HILL, ESQ.,
Manager,
Sun Life Assurance Co.,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I wish to thank the Sun Life Assurance Company, through you, for the prompt and very satisfactory settlement of my 15 year Endowment Policy, No. 64345, which matured and was paid me to-day.

I have also a 15 year Endowment maturing to-day in a leading British Company.

The contrast, in the results, in favor of your Company is so marked that I want you to know it, but I am at a loss to know how such a difference could honestly occur. When I tell you that the profits in your Company are three and one-third times the profits in the other Company referred to, and this too notwithstanding I paid the other Company $1.15 per year more per $1000 than I paid you, you will realize my inability to comprehend the cause.

This is surely a tribute to the management of the Sun Life, and I am so well pleased I have applied for further insurance with you.

Incidentally, I would like to say a word for your loan privilege. As you are aware, I borrowed some money on my policy, a little over a year ago, which enabled me to obtain a substantial interest in a town site in the Northwest, and you will be pleased to learn that it has already yielded substantial gain and gives promise to pay hundreds per cent., so that it is impossible to fully realize the value of that Policy to me.

I thought as an old Peterborough boy you would be pleased to know I am delighted with the result.

Yours truly,
(Signed) ROBERT E. DOLAN.

MOVING PICTURE THEATRE PROPRIETORS EACH FINED $50

Approach to Aisles Were Blocked by Patrons, Saturday Night.

The profits accrued in the three local moving picture theatres on Saturday evening last were drawn upon in police court this morning, when Magistrate Dumble imposed a fine upon each of the three proprietors, Messrs. Herbert Clayton, Red Mill; E. J. King, Princess Theatre, and Gust Poukydis, Royal Theatre, of $50, to be paid in ten days, for allowing the approaches to the aisles to become crowded with people.

Chief Thompson made a tour of inspection on Saturday evening, and incidentally called at the moving picture theatres. His first call was at the Red Mill. His attention was drawn by the lobby being filled. He went in the north door and saw that the entrance to the aisles was filled with people.

His next visit was to the Princess Theatre, which he found in about the same condition. He then went to the Royal, and though the congestion did not appear to be so serious as at the Red Mill, it was sufficient to be dangerous.

At police court this morning the theatre people were out in force. They all acknowledged having a large crowd on Saturday evening. The Royal people did not have any counsel, but the Princess and Red Mill were represented by Mr. G. N. Gordon and Mr. O. LaPlante, respectively. The Royal and Princess cases did not take long, but the Red Mill people tried to prove that there was no congestion. They failed, however, after the proprietor and three employes had given evidence.

Mr. Gordon, in summing up his case, asked that no conviction be made, as it would be a serious matter for the man to lose his license, which was almost inevitable with a conviction.

His Worship said that the object of the regulations was to provide that the structure of the theatre should give free exit in case of panic. The people in the passageways are obstructions. It is in these places that understand that in some of these little theatres, which were originally shops of some kind, there is not enough lobby provided.

"On Saturday night the law was violated, and I find it so. I impose on each proprietor a fine of $50. I cannot help the forfeiture of the license."

Mr. Gordon asked for a suspended sentence.

"Magistrate Dumble said: 'I wish my judgment could put them all out of business."

COMMITTEE DECIDES ON SUPPLIES FOR FIRE DEPARTMENT

Rubber Coats and Boots for the Men Brings About Discussion.

The Fire, Water and Light Committee will purchase a hose tester for $185. This was the decision of the Committee last night.

There were present Ald Johnston, chairman; Brown, Anderson, Morgan, Mayor Bradburn and Fire Chief Howard.

After the matter of the purchasing of a hose tester was disposed of by the motion of Ald. Morgan and Brown, which provided that one should be purchased by the City Clerk, for $185, through a local firm if possible, the matter of further supplies for the firemen came up.

FIREMEN TO BE RUBBERED.

Chief Howard wanted twelve rubber coats and eight pairs of rubber boots. There was considerable discussion as to whether the new coats should be long or short.

Ald. Morgan—The firemen in Toronto use the short coats and long boots. They are easier for climbing.

Chief Howard—The long boots are too slow to get into. I never had any trouble on the ladder with long coats.

Ald. Morgan—The men all say the coats are too long.

Ald. Anderson—How long are they?

Ald. Morgan—They are just long enough to run the water into the tops of the short rubber boots. The Chief may think that they are alright, as he is on the outside of a fire looking in, but the firemen who have to climb and go into the fire say they are too long.

Chief Howard—I recommend the short boots for the quick hitch. Of course if you wish to cripple the brigade by all means follow Ald. Morgan's suggection and get the long boots.

His Worship Mayor Bradburn said that there was no need to mention wishing to cripple the brigade. The committee wished to get the best outfits.

Moved by Ald. Morgan, seconded by Ald. Anderson, that twelve rubber coats and eight pairs of rubber boots be purchased by the committee. The question of the kind to purchase will come up at a later date.

ACCOUNTS FOR LUNCHES.

The question of a couple of lunch bills from the Peterborough Lunch which the firemen were supposed to have had on Dec. 1 and 14, came in for a fair share of discussion. The two amounted to $7.6?. One had been certified to by Ald. Morgan, but the other the ex-chairman did not see fit to O.K.

Mayor Bradburn—How do you arrange this matter of lunch for the firemen at the time of a fire?

Ald. Morgan—There are no arrangements. The Chief may send the men at his own discretion and as many as he likes of them. They may not all be allowed to go as I think was the case this time.

Chief Howard—They all go.

Ald. Morgan—I do not believe in certifying to these just because the Chief sends them in. I went and asked the men about this case and some of them said they did not get a chance to go.

All agreed that it was proper to send the firemen for lunch when the occasion arose. For instance if it interfered with their meal hour or they had a bad fire in the night.

Henceforth the man supplying the lunch will specify the number of firemen served when sending in his account.

Both accounts were passed.

Communications were received from several firms including the Gutta Percha Co., Dunlop and The Goodyear Companies, giving a price on fire hose.

Ald. Johnston would like to keep down expenses and it was decided that 800 feet be purchased instead of 1,000 ft., as suggested before.

WANT A GLIMMER.

A petition, signed by fifteen ratepayers, asked that a light be placed at the corner of Lock street and Gladstone avenue. There is a light at present about 150 ft. from the spot where the glimmer is wanted. The present light at Ware St. corner will be moved to the centre of the corner. The estimates of Ald. Johnston only provide for twelve incandescents and three arcs additional this year.

To one accustomed to the phenomenal development of Western Canada, the stories of vast cities "born in a day" read like abstracts from the "Arabian Nights"; and one looks around almost expecting to see the "Genie" appearing in response to the summons of the "Magic Lamp."

Those familiar with the actual conditions, however recognize in this rapid expansion the opportunity of a lifetime, and are acting upon it, thereby ensuring to themselves immense profits in the near future.

DR. LANGFELDT GOING TO EUROPE

Will Visit England, Germany and Switzerland.

The numerous friends of Rev. Dr. Langfeldt, incumbent of the parish of Innisfil, Simcoe county, will be pleased to learn that his work is being practically appreciated. During the past year the genial Doctor has been working hard, and his health has come to be not of the best. His parishioners and friends, seeing that he would be better for a rest, have provided the means that permit him to take a trip to England, Germany and Switzerland. Dr. Langfeldt, accompanied by his son Otto, will sail from St. John, N.B., by steamship Virginian, of the Allan Line, on April 12th, for Liverpool. He and his son will spend a week or two in England. They will visit Switzerland and Germany, returning by way of England some time in June.

Rev. Dr. Langfeldt's friends in Peterborough congratulate him upon having earned the favor of his parishioners and friends, as represented by so prospectively delightful a journey and hope that he will spend a happy sojourn abroad and return improved in health and strengthened for his work.

Visit the New Peterborough Millinery Showrooms and inspect the display of Fashionable Trimmed Hats for spring wear. Upstairs in old T. A. S. rooms, entrance 435 George St. Mrs. W. B. Armstrong.

DISTRICT STAFF GIVEN BANQUET

On the evening of April 11th, at the Oriental Hotel, the district staff of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. will be tendered a banquet in recognition of the staff being the leaders in the work for this large company, the leaders throughout the United States and Canada.

This recognition is a most creditable testimonial to the efficiency of the local Superintendent of the Company, Mr. John Rothwell, and to that of his assistants, who have loyally and energetically assisted. Some of the figures, showing results as a whole and comparatively have been made public, and they show that on many counts and in a remarkable number of percentages the Peterborough district is ahead of all others, even the big metropolitan centres in the States. Efficiency, which is after all the keynote of business, is as conspicuous when developed, as it has been by the superintendent, in Eastern Ontario, as in any State of the Union.

It is expected that the Vice-President of the Metropolitan Company, Mr. Holey Fiske, will be present, and if not, one of the other vice-presidents. The staff, to the number of thirty-five, will be there, and a number of invited guests. The above occasion will be unique in that it will be a public recognition on the part of a company of the success achieved by its superintendent and employes.

There are a few good seats left yet for "Bunty Pulls the Strings" at the Grand on Wednesday night. Phone orders held till eight o'clock only. Don't miss this show.

HAD TO BUILD HIS HOME ON SHORT NOTICE

Local Contractor Found it Difficult to Secure Accomodation

Many and varied are the experiences told by letter to local friends by those who have responded to the lure of the west, with the ultimate object of making money faster than was ever known before.

Some people find the path strewn with floral decorations, but not altogether with the proverbial rose. Others whose vision was nothing less than a bank account, comparing favorably with that of Andrew Carnegie or J. Pierpont Morgan, receive a rude jolt.

A letter arrived in the city this week from a contractor who left here recently. He took all his furniture and finally landed at Edmonton. Of course he could not expect the railway people to turn their car into a storehouse, but just the same, this permission would have been indeed welcome, for the owner, look where he would, could find no house or other shelter in which to place his goods.

What he had to do was to purchase a lot in a suburb of the city, buy lumber and erect a "home."

The following despatch from Edmonton is very significant:—

"Because of the overcrowded condition of the hotels in the city and the influx of immigration, which is expected to be much heavier in a few weeks, the city commissioners to-day decided to request each hotel in the city to construct an annex.

Dr. Bruce Hewson, L. R. C. S., L.R.C.P., Edinburgh, has opened an office at the corner of Charlotte and Stewart Streets for general practice of medicine. Special attention given to diseases of eye, ear, nose and throat. Phone, Bell 220. Hours 9-10 a m, 2-4 p.m., and 7-8 p. m.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES

OBITUARY

The Late Mrs. Oliver

Lethbridge Herald:—After a lingering illness of three years, death came this morning to Mrs. Oliver, wife of ex-Ald. William Oliver. The deceased had borne her illness with great fortitude and was ready to enter the larger life. Mrs. Oliver was born near the village of Warkworth, Northumberland county, Ontario, and her maiden name was Mary Amelia Oliver, she being a daughter of the late Thomas Oliver, of Warkworth. She was married in Lethbridge 22 years ago, the ceremony being performed by the late Rev. Charles McKillop, of Knox church. For nearly a quarter of a century she had been a resident of Lethbridge, and the old timers will remember her as a gracious lady of kind, neighborly disposition who bore her share of the burdens of the olden days, and whose influence was for good in the community.

She leaves two sons and a daughter to share with their father the loss of a loving presence in the home. The sons are William T. and John H., both living in Lethbridge, and Miss Gladys Oliver.

Mr. Robert Oliver, of Edmonton, is a brother. The funeral will take place Wednesday, Rev. A. G. Cameron officiating.

There will be a meeting of the Automobile Owners and Prospective Automobile Owners of Peterborough on Friday evening, March 29th, at 8 p.m. sharp, in the Bank of Montreal Chambers, for the purpose of organizing a Peterboro' Automobile Association. All interested are requested to attend.

SCOTTISH CURLERS ARE AT HOME

Secretary Ferguson, of the Peterborough Curling Club, has been hearing from the Scottish curlers, now that they are at home and reviewing their trip. They one and all express great pleasure with their visit to Canada.

Mr. J. B. Machlan, of Blairgourie, Scotland, writes as follows:

"The reading of the booklet, and its tartan frame I have enjoyed much. It proves, what we have known here, that our brothers on the other side have the ability—which they use (some of us don't) to get a move on, and keep it moving. The program of games is completeness itself, but it is absolutely impossible for us—King Frost is too sparing in dealing out his favors to we curlers here—our arrangements have to be made and unmade in a night.

As Secretary of the Strathmore Province, I am painfully aware of this, as time and again we have had our rinks all drawn out ready for a game on the morrow, when rain or a violent thaw assumed control, and nothing was left for the poor secretary, but to wire to all the associated clubs, "Bonspiel Off."

Across the seas, I shake you by the hand and wish you straight keen ice and a doughty opponent. Here's to ye. Wha's like us? Naebody.

A friend in Toronto sends the opinion expressed by himself as to the stay of the curlers in Peterboro—

I have heard of their quiet Sunday in your city, where oat-cake and electricity are produced; also of their long sleep in the outskirts, their sights of natural and manufactured beauties, their receptions and feeds which have caused them to remark upon you as "fine folk."

The Blairgowrie Advertiser, prints the following paragaph in the issue of Feb. 17th—

"From communications received from the Blairgowrie representative with the Scottish curlers in Canada it is evident, that if they are not winning many matches, they are having a most enjoyable time. The program issued by the Peterborough, Ont., Curling Club when they entertained the Scotchmen, is a sample of Canadian hospitality. It is an elaborately got-up booklet, profusely illustrated with photographs of leading curlers, views of the district, &c and contains a large number of appropriate greetings and quotations. The motto on the title page is interesting as relating to the relations between Canada and the Mother Country—"Daughter am I in my mother's house, but mistress in my own." It is noticeable from the photographs that all the Canadian curlers wear Tam o' Shanters."

PUGSLEY'S AMENDMENT

provincial authorization of racing associations subsequent to the arbitrary date set forth in the federal bill.

The Minister of Justice, in reply, stated that neither of these applications had been refused by the former Secretary of State, Hon. Chas. Murphy, and quite correctly so in view of the decision of the courts. Indeed the deposits of the associations had been retained by the Government, proving that there had been no refusal of the applications.

"Hon. members who were so indignant yesterday," continued the Minister of Justice, "had it in their power to do what we are doing to-day. They were not then so concerned about public morality. Why did they not absolutely refuse these applications for racing associations, instead of keeping the deposits of the applicants and shirking their responsibility as a Government by seeing to it that the law was made clear in this respect."

"Their virtuous indignation to-day is magnificent, but it will deceive no one conversant with the facts. It was kept to be poured out in vials of wrath upon this succeeding administration, which attempted to right a wrong, that they allowed to remain in abeyance. The late Government did not refuse to grant these two racing charters because, under decision of the courts they could not refuse."

"But why the delay of five months in coming to the decision?" said Dr. Pugsley.

"Until the hon. gentleman explains his Government's delay of two years in dealing with the matter, I submit that it does not lie in his mouth to ask why we did not move in the four or five months during which we have been in power," said Hon. Mr. Doherty. "We gave this matter our consideration in due course, but we had many other matters to attend to."

In the Senate last night, Senator Costigan moved an amendment to the Government's Manitoba boundary bill.

Senator Costigan favored conciliation, but declared it should not be one-sided. The compromise he favored was an exchange of money and territory to Manitoba in return for a guarantee by Manitoba of the school rites of the Keewatin minority.

The amendment was lost, 30 to 13.

Automatic Block Signals

As a further evidence of the precautions taken by the Grand Trunk Railway to ensure the safety of the lives and property entrusted to its care, it may be said that plans are now being made to instal the automatic block signalling system now being extensively used in Great Britain and heavy traffic districts of the United States, on the lines between Toronto and Niagara Falls, which is the heaviest traffic line in Canada; and also between Hamilton and Lynden Junction, where the main lines diverge to Harrisburg and Brantford. The G.T.R. is also planning to instal this system on the 26th district track in Indiana. Incidentally, this is the first important example of automatic block signalling to be installed by a Canadian company in Canada.

LOCALS FINISHED TWO SHOTS AHEAD

Had Friendly Games With Curlers From Lindsay

Four rinks from Lindsay were in the city last night and clashed with the same number of local quartettes in the Charlotte street rink. Three of the invading rinks went down to defeat but the other Lindsay aggregation walloped Skip Davidson 24—8.

On the whole the Peterborough brothers of the stone were two shots up.

Skip Lang took an easy victory from O'Connor and succeeded in doubling the score on the Scugogville boys, but both rinks put up a sterling brand of curling. Waddell in his match with Sisson, ran away from his opponent at first and gained a large lead, but they became rather demoralized towards the finish and gave away six shots in the last four ends.

Archie Moore added another laurel to his cap by defeating the Lindsay veteran, Mr. J. D. Flavelle. The game was a fine one and the local stalwarts had their hands full to come out ahead.

The games were:—

SPORTS AT Y. M. C. A.

The Hustlers and Eko Club have decided to play their game in the City Basketball League on Thursday instead of Tuesday as previously announced. The Eko's have not lost a game so far this season and they just managed to defeat the Brownies by one point so that the teams of the league were never more evenly matched than they are at present. The interest in basketball is on the increase in Peterborough, judging from the attendance at the games so far this season.

Business of minor importance was transacted by the Water Commissioners on Monday afternoon at four o'clock. A disputed account of the William Hamilton Company was not paid, the secretary being instructed to write the Company that Mr. Kennedy would be in the city soon, and would see them in reference to the account.

A request was heard from G. W Haley and E. M. Cook asking to have their office hours from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on all days save Saturday when they should close at 12 a.m. The request was received.

Mr. Haley also wrote, tendering his thanks to the Commissioners for their kindness in granting him an increase.

Prices were read from several firms for pipe for the city and an order was instructed to be sent to a Hamilton firm.

Sir Max's Sensational Charge.

London, March 26.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—In the House of Commons yesterday Sir Max Aitken accused the Government of having two years ago abstracted £390,000 from the Treasury for political purposes.

He also contended that consolidated funds, £42,000, was deliberately thrown away by the Treasurer's refusal to adopt modern methods.

Secretary Masterman, for the Government, retorted that he had no intention of chewing the end of old political controversies.

Isn't This Heartrending?

Boston, March 26.—To see a thousand cases of champagne go drifting by in a gale and to be unable to save any of it, was the experience of the officers and crew of the steamer Francisco, from Hull, England.

The champagne was in iron-strapped cases, and appeared to be part of the cargo of some steamer which had recently foundered.

From the very crest of a wave, one sailor picked off a bottle, which had broken loose from one of the cases.

WOMEN, AVOID OPERATIONS

Many Unsuccessful — And Worse Suffering Often Follows. Mrs. Rock's Case A Warning.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will show how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when often it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement.

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has restored the health of thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it?

SPENT SEVENTEEN DAYS IN STACK

John Wannamaker Fed on Oats and Snow

Further particulars of the misfortune which befell John Wannamaker of Trenton, are given in a despatch from Tisdale, Manitoba, which says—

To live seventeen days in a dugout in a straw stack on the open prairie with both feet so badly frozen that he could not walk, and no food or drink but the oats he painfully garnered from the straw in the stack and the snow around the hole in which he sheltered, was the almost unprecedented feat of endurance of John Wannamaker, who is now in Prince Albert hospital.

After spending the winter in the bush Wannamker made his way to Prince Albert, where he met a friend and proceeded to have a good time. When he woke up afterwards he found himself with only 40 cents in his pocket, so he decided to tramp to Crooked River, a distance of 116 miles in search of work. He got along alright until he got to Tisdale having spent his 40 cents frugally on biscuits. Arriving at Tisdale at sundown, he made his way to a straw stack just outside the town, intending to spend the night in it and continue his journey the next morning.

When he prepared to resume his journey the next day, however, he found his feet frozen and he was unable to do more than crawl out from the stack. He tried to attract the attention of some passing section men but could not do so, so he returned into the stack and spent the rest of the day. The same thing happened the second day, and the third, but each time he could make no one hear him, and had to return to the stack to escape the bitter cold.

Day after day, for five days the weary wait continued, and all the time his frozen feet were getting worse until the day came when he could not move even to the outer edge of the hole, and from the close of the fifth day he lay in the stack chewing oats to keep life in his body, and digging down to the floor of the stack to get the snow. This continued until the seventeenth day when Walter Guest, a resident of the district, passing the stack, noticed the peculiar bulge, and on investigating found Wannamaker unconscious. He brought him back to Tisdale and later he was dispatched to the hospital at Prince Albert where he now lies. On recovering consciousness Wannamaker said that night would have been his last as he had lost his reason, and would in all probability have frozen to death.

THE ELECTION OF ALDERMEN

Mr. J. J. Turner Jr. Favors General System of Voting

The question of which system of aldermanic election was preferable; the general vote of the people, or the present ward system, was brought up at the Board of Trade meeting last night by J. J. Turner, Jr. The latter said that it was a subject which should be taken up by the Board, it having been neglected last year, when it arose.

Personally, Mr. Turner favored the general system of voting for aldermen, feeling that it was conducive to the best municipal legislation. In the prevailing ward method, voters were called upon to vote for candidates when they felt that the candidate or candidates for whom they cast their ballot were not perhaps the best men to represent the ward. They might be excellent men in many respects, but yet not the best for the ward.

He strengthened his contention by telling of instances known to him, where voters visited prominent men in a ward right up to the time allowed them to qualify, urging them to qualify and be candidates for aldermanic election. The other system that was in force, two years ago, namely, a system of voting on aldermen throughout the city, irrespective of wards, Mr. Turner was convinced would prove most satisfactory.

The general opinion of the Board seemed to be averse to Mr. Turner's plan, and no action was taken.

HOME FOR PRIESTS RENOUNCING ROME

Rev. Patrick Morgan Plans Refuge for Those Desiring Freedom

Toronto, March 26.—"A home that will ever be open to receive priests who long to travel the roads that lead from Rome" is what Rev. Patrick Morgan, formerly a priest of the Capuchin Order of the Church of Rome, proposes to establish in Toronto.

At the close of a sermon, in which he described his connection with the Catholic Church and the circumstances attending his leaving it, Rev. Mr. Morgan made this announcement in Queen street Methodist Church Sunday night. There were many in the Church of Rome, he said, and particularly in the priesthood, who had the same longing that he had to be free from the bondage of that Church.

Mr. Morgan expects about one hundred influential men in Toronto to give donations in order to buy such a home in a central location in this city, and by similar donations afterwards to maintain it. It will be run on the same lines as the Priests' Refuge in New York, which was established by the late Bishop O'Connor, where priests who desire to leave the Catholic Church may live free of charge while they are making inquiries. Mr. Morgan expects to have the home established by the beginning of next year. It will be undenominational.

PRIESTS WHO SYMPATHIZE.

Mr. Morgan says he knows at least five priests in Canada who are dissatisfied, and sympathize with his project. During the coming summer he will visit Britain and various European countries where he expects to see many former priests and interest them in the work he is undertaking in Canada.

Rev. Mr. Morgan told of turning his back on the monastery he had entered in England where he had found the life led by the priests was far from what he had expected on entering. He came to Canada, and wandered in "the wildest realms of infidelity." For three weeks he walked the streets of Ottawa with scarcely a bite to eat. Finally, through a friend who took an interest in him, he was shown where lay the liberty that he sought. While adhering to no particular denomination, he has been a follower of Protestantism for five years, and is at present editor of The Liberator, which is published in Ottawa. In future he will publish his paper in Toronto.

In adding to what Mr. Morgan said, Rev. C. O. Johnston, pastor of Queen Street Church, said that in Paris in the last five years 1,510 priests had left the Catholic Church. Last year 6,500 people turned their backs on that church in Austria.

ASKS SUPPORT FOR ORDER OF NURSES

Some Communications Before the Board of Trade

Among the communications to the Board of Trade last evening, was one from the Veterinary Department, Ottawa, written by J. G. Rutherford Live Stock Commissioner, asking to be furnished with the names and addresses of wholesale egg dealers in Peterborough. It seems that the Department desires to secure accurate and adequate information of the reason of lack of quality in eggs as they reach the consumers. They have deemed it advisable to solicit the assistance and active co-operation of the wholesale egg dealers of the Dominion, and for that purpose wish to have the names of local parties.

The communication was received.

A letter from Miss Pelly, lady in waiting to the Duchess of Connaught was read, asking for financial support for the Royal Victorian Order of Nurses, an organization of which the Duchess is a great sympathizer and supporter.

The Order makes provision for the supplying of nurses, and where possible hospital accomodation in small towns and in scattered districts. This healing work requires a large amount of financial aid. The letter contained a special request for the Board to appoint a committee who would collect subscriptions.

Mr. J. J. Turner, jr. suggested sending the letter to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Peterborough Health Association and securing their opinion. A committee of Messrs. J. J. Turner and G. C. Wainwright were appointed to see what could be done to assist.

Another important matter which arose was that of sending delegates from the Board, on the proposed British trip, which commences on May 15th from Montreal. Special arrangements with the Royal line of steamships are proposed for first class accomodation and return for the sum of $100. The committee in charge on the trip will decide if it is feasible upon receiving definite replies from all who intend to take in the trip, these answers to be in by March 27th. The object of the trip is to allow any who desire to attend the National Chamber of Commerce Convention to be held in June in London Eng. Peterborough is entitled to send five delegates. The names of delegates will not be accepted without being accompanied by deposits as sureties that they will take passage.

Mr. Vincent thought it would be a fine opportunity for any who wished to travel.

The tickets are good practically for two months, and any delegate is perfectly free to have any friend accompany him.

The names of any who are going must be in some time to-morrow, the earlier the better.

DROPPED DEAD WHILE AT THE BREAKFAST TABLE

Sudden Passing of Mr. John Kelly of McGill Street

The tragic death occurred this morning of Mr. John Kelly, whose home was at the corner of Lock and McGill streets, and who dropped dead while at the breakfast table this morning.

Up to a few minutes before his demise, Mr. Kelly has been apparently in good health, but while partaking of his usual morning meal, he fell from his chair and expired in a few seconds. Dr. McGrath was summoned and pronounced the case to be one of heart failure.

Mr. Kelly has been a resident of Peterborough for nearly five years and came to this city from Deseronto. In Deseronto, Mr. Kelly was very well known, having been cook in the lumber camps of the Rathburn Co., of that town for a long time. This winter, Mr. Kelly was in the employ of the Cavendish Lumber Company having served in the capacity of cook in Mr. Wm. Cresswell's camp.

He was an elderly man and is survived by a sorrowing wife and a family of eight children, the majority of whom are grown up.

The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at nine o'clock to the Sacred Heart Church, and thence to St. Peter's cemetery.

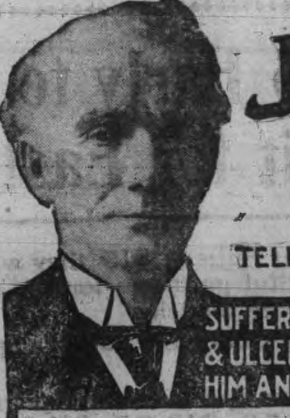
AT THE S. A. TEMPLE

The "Singing Jim" song service given by the songsters in the Salvation Army Temple last night was well attended and proved to be a very interesting meeting.

The story of Jim Mapleton, from a drunkard to his conversion, was read by Ensign Merrett. At intervals, between the different parts of the interesting narrative, choruses by the Songsters and other musical numbers were rendered in a very pleasing manner.

For half an hour before the opening of the song service the Boys' Band favored the early comers with a number of fine selections which were heartily appreciated.



JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

TELLS REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE WITH ZAM-BUK.

SUFFERED FOR YEARS WITH ECZEMA & ULCERS. NOTHING SEEMED ABLE TO DO HIM ANY GOOD. ZAM-BUK CURED HIM.

Mr. J. E. Arsenault, a Justice of the Peace, and station master at Wellington, on the Prince Edward Island Railway, says:

"Four years ago, I slipped in the station and fell on a freight truck, sustaining a bad cut on the front of my leg. I thought this would heal, but instead of doing so it developed into a bad ulcer and later into a form of eczema which spread very rapidly and also started on the other leg. Both legs became so swollen and sore that I could only go about my work by having them bandaged. My doctor said I must stop work and lay up. After six months of this trouble I consulted another doctor, but with no better result. I tried all the salves, liniments and lotions I heard of, but instead of getting better I got worse. This was my condition when I got my first box of Zam-Buk. Greatly to my delight that first box gave me relief. I continued to apply it to the sores, and day by day they got better.

"I could see that at last I had got hold of something which would cure me, and in the end it did. It is now over a year since Zam-Buk worked a cure in my case, and there has been no return of the eczema or any trace of it. It would be impossible to find a case where the sores were worse than those on my limbs, and I think Zam-Buk is a marvellous healing balm or it could not have cured me as it did when all else failed."

WHAT ZAM-BUK CURES.

The above is but one example of the wonderful cures that Zam-Buk is daily working. Purely herbal in composition, this great balm is a sure cure for all skin diseases, cold sores, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, blood-poisoning, varicose sores, piles, scalp sores, ringworm, inflamed patches, cuts, burns and bruises.

ROBERT FAIR & Co Limited

IMPERIAL HOME REUNION ASSOCIATION IS FORMED

Englishmen Giving Proper Credentials to be Assisted in Bringing Their Families to the City—Committee Appointed to Canvass for Guarantors by Which Fund Will be Raised.

A new organization sprung into existence in Peterborough last night at the regular meeting of the Board of Trade, which will be known as the Imperial Home Re-union Association. The organization has for its chief object the lending of financial assistance to Englishmen of Peterborough who are desirous of bringing their wives and children to this country, and who are prevented from doing so at present by limited means. To combat this drawback Messrs. J. J. Turner, jr., and J. John put their heads together and evolved the following, which explains everything necessary regarding the plan to remedy the trouble.

"In the city at the present time are 42 Old Country men who are supporting families in the Old Land, chiefly, for the reason that they were unable to bring their families with them when they emigrated, on account of lack of funds. These men are contributing on an average of $5.00 per week each for the support of their families at home, which means that $120.00 is going out of Peterborough every week which ought to be spent here where the money is being earned.

There is a plan which has been adopted in Winnipeg with a great deal of success, and is at the present time being used in Toronto, as a result of an address delivered by Mr. Bulman, Chairman of the Organization known as The Imperial Home Reunion Association of Winnipeg. To overcome sending of money out of the country, a number of men associated themselves together, and guaranteed a certain amount according to the needs of the situation. We think if $100.00 each was guaranteed by 50 men, it would create a fund large enough to advance money to assist these men in bringing their families to them. The fund could be administered through the City Clerk as trustee, or some other gentleman appointed to the position, who would receive applications for a loan from the men who desired to be assisted. This trustee would work in conjunction with an advisory board, selected from the guarantors.

The plan, as we understand it, is that applicants for assistance are submitted to the trustee, who confers with the advisory board, and if, after investigation, the case is approved by them, the applicant deposits one-fifth of the cost of transportation with the trustee, together with a signed agreement protecting the guarantors. The trustee is then authorized by the advisory board to forward the necessary railway and steamship tickets to bring out the members of the family, of whom full particulars are in the hands of the advisory board.

Experience in other cities shows that the loss to the guarantors is practically nil, while the gain to the various cities taking up such a scheme is great, the moral standpoint is one reason for the existence of such an association in this city; also the business side presents itself, and we must not forget the city's interest in the encouragement of home builders in our midst.

We feel that the matter is one of the utmost importance, and should be dealt with by the Retail Merchants' Association, Board of Trade, and City Council, so that the matter can be fully discussed, and the plan adopted to be put into working order as soon as possible, in event of receiving favorable consideration.

Mr. J. John placed the matter before the Board in a very strong and eloquent appeal. His address in part was as follows:

I believe Peterborough can be very materially benefitted by assisting that which is substantial in our midst, that is, the wage-earners in permanent employment and of good character, to bring their wives and families here and set up their own homes, who at present are unable to do so for lack of the money, for their transportation.

The business interests of the city would be benefitted in this way, that the money spent in keeping up the home in England would be spent here. My attention was first drawn to this matter by an accident which happened last year. One Saturday morning last September I met an old Country man who had just arrived here, near the C.P.R. station. He asked me to direct him to an address at the south end of the city. Being an Old Country man myself, I have some idea of what it means to be alone amongst strangers, and I escorted him to the place he wanted to go to. On the way I engaged in conversation with him and learned he had a wife and six children in England. Some three months later I enquired for this man, and what did I find? That he had gone back to England and the reason was because the transportation problem was too much for him. This man I looked upon as a prospective customer as every other business man might have done, and here he was a good type of citizen, earning good wages, lost to Peterborough, for the sake of One Hundred Dollars. At the present time, there are, as stated in Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons' letter, 42 men in a like position. A few days after I read an account of an address given at the Board of Trade meeting in Toronto outlining a scheme worked by the Irish Home Rule of Winnipeg, to help such cases, and which had been found very successful.

I will deal briefly with the origin, the working of this organization and the results.

The Imperial Home Reunion Association had its inception in the City of Winnipeg in the fall of 1910 at a dinner given by the Manitoba Club to Mr. Norman Griffiths, M.P. for Wednesbury in the Old Country. He remarked that he had often helped British working men to come to Canada, and that in so doing he had never lost a dollar, but that it was a great hardship for the family to be separated whilst the husband was earning sufficient money for their transportation, at the same time laboring under the handicap of keeping two homes together, his wife and family in England, and himself in Canada. Sitting next to Mr. Griffiths was Mr. W. I. Bulman, a large employer of labor in Winnipeg and so impressed was he that a plan to solve the problem could be worked out, that he telephoned a few of his friends the next day and a practical business organization was effected. A solicitor was called in and a draft form for a guaranteed fund of $20,000 was provided. It read as follows:—

"Each of the undersigned subscribers without regard to the number, or to any representations that may have been made or may hereafter be made as to the number or names of parties to become subscribers to this agreement of document or otherwise howsoever hereby agrees with any chartered bank to pay the said bank upon demand, the sum of $250.00 each, on account of any or all loans that may from time to time be made by the said Bank to pay any losses of Trustee in advance transportation to families of British workmen."

In less than two days Mr. Bulman had 50 of Winnipeg's most prominent business men identified with the movement as guarantors to the fund. Thirty others fell in line and the fund of $20,000 was completed. The guarantors then met and proceeded to elect a chairman (Mr. W. I. Bulman) and a trustee. The trustee Industrial Commissioner, and also an advisory board of six. The method of assistance adopted is very simple. The applicant fills out the printed form:

A form is also sent to each applicant's employer.

As soon as there are a sufficient number of applications on the file, the Secretary of the Industrial Bureau calls a meeting of the Advisory Board. These meetings are held at eight o'clock so that the applicants may lose no time from work. The advisory board interviews separately each man desiring assistance, and these interviews have been found very helpful in deciding cases which were doubtful, because it is not to give the exact information on all points required. In all the applications which have been considered only one has been found at variance with the facts. A man stated that his weekly wage was $15.00 whilst his employer stated that he received $12.00. This applicant was rejected.

Now I will show the results of the first year's working—

180 applications were approved and 700 people were added to the population of Winnipeg. The cost of their transportation was $23,582.76. Of this amount $6013.45 was deposited by the applicants in advance for transportation being issued. The balance was borrowed as required from the Eastern Townships Bank at 6 p.c. interest. The arrears of re-payment by reason of delayed instalments amount to $317.00 most of which was safe.

During 1911 Home Reunion Associations were formed in Toronto Fort William, Regina, Saskatoon, Brandon, Medicine Hat, Lethbridge, Calgary, Red Deer, Edmonton, Yorkton, Vancouver, Nelson, St. John, N.B., and two weeks ago, one in Hamilton, and an effort is to be made to start one in London in the near future.

As a result of Winnipeg's showing for its first year, the Toronto Board of Trade invited Mr. Bulman of Winnipeg to address and outline the scheme which had been adopted there. As a result of this visit 200 guarantors to a working fund of $50,000 was formed, and each guarantor subscribed $250.00. Three trustees were appointed, consisting of Mayor Geary, R.S. Gourley and W. K. George. At a meeting of guarantors a permanent committee of 15 was appointed to manage all the affairs of the Association. It comprises the following and this list will show you that the best men in Toronto think it a scheme worth while Frank Arnoldi, K.C., Mayor Geary, W. K. George, R.S. Gourley, Hedley Shaw, G. T. Somers, Benj. Westwood S. Mosley Wickett, F. Wise, Noel Marshall, J. A. Tory and Kenneth J. Duncan. Five constitute a quorum and each applicant has to have three endorsers.

As stated in Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons' letter, a guaranteed fund of $5000 would be ample to start this movement in Peterboro, 50 guarantors of one hundred dollars each, or 20 if it was considered better, at $250 each.

Some few evenings ago I was outlining this scheme to two of our prominent citizens, one of them in a large manufacturing business, the other, a prominent public official. One of them said, "I don't mind going good for one hundred dollars in a scheme like that, it will help my tenant round the corner." "Thank you" I said, "and it will help me too." The following night in conversation with the other, he said, "we were talking about that scheme you spoke of, and you're right, we are going through life only once, and we should help these fellows if we can."

I believe there are in Peterboro many others like my friend, who would like to help their tenant round the corner. I believe our bankers, our professional men, and our manufacturers would like to help to make our merchants and trades more prosperous, and stop the money going to the Old Country, which would, under this scheme be spent here. I believe there are, some like my friend who would like to give a helping hand to the struggling earner in our midst, and in conclusion I have much pleasure in commending to your earnest consideration this movement which will make new comers better citizens, better Canadians and more loyal to Canada their adopted country, and lastly more loyal to the city, Peterboro that has given them assistance

Mr. John's speech was followed by considerable discussion when all the details of the proposed plan were thoroughly reviewed.

Mr J. J. Turner then moved the following motion, which was seconded by Mr. Pennefather—"That a branch of the Imperial Home Re-Union Association be formed in Peterborough and that a canvass of the city be made to obtain guarantors to the fund."

A committee composed of the following were appointed to work out all the details of the work of the newly formed organization — Mayor W. H. Bradburn, Robert Neill, Vincent Eastwood, Alderman Gillespie, J. John and J. J. Turner, jr.

Two one hundred dollar guarantors were found at the meeting in the persons of Mr. Pennefather and Mr. J. John.

The progress of the new society will be followed with interest.

Those present at the meeting were Vincent Eastwood, president, Alderman Gillespie, J. J. Turner, jr., G.C. Wainwright, F. H. Dobbin, G. Walter Green, Reginald Turner, W. H. Pretty and J. John.

Mayor Bradburn dropped in after a committee meeting.

EARL GREY IN SYMPATHY WITH THE MOVEMENT

Imperial Home Re-union Association Endorsed by Him

One matter that will be strictly observed in Peterborough by the Imperial Home Re-union Association when it is in working order, will be the filling out of the application blank by every Englishman desirous of bringing his wife or family to Canada. The blank contains a list of questions which must be filled out correctly. The applicant will be required to state the names in full and ages of family for whom transportation is desired, whether any of them suffer from any disease or are in any way physically or mentally handicapped. They must also state the amount they can deposit and give Old Country and Canadian references.

Attached to the blank is a form to be signed by the applicant, in which he promises to pay to the named trustees, the money which they have advanced towards passage fare, etc.

The employer of an applicant is also required to fill out a form giving full information, relative to the latter's earnings and his character.

In regard to the new movement, Earl Grey former Governor General of Canada is quoted as saying.

"The spirit that has impelled the business men of Winnipeg to re-unite these new citizens, and their families, and to enable them to enjoy the comforts that their ample wage makes possible, has my fullest sympathy and endorsement.

You are at liberty to use my name in any manner you see fit in aiding the Association to develop national scope with greater possibilities for your work."

TALK No. 4

THE EYE LIKE A CAMERA

The eye is constructed so wonderfully and ingeniously that the handicraft of man has not as yet been able to construct as delicate an instrument. It is like a camera—the lens to focus, the lid as a shutter, the iris or color as the diaphram, the thick coatings of the eye-ball as the dark room, the nerve as the sensitive plate, and strange as it may seem, the images are bottom side up exactly as the image in the camera. Now so delicate and sensitive an instrument as the eye should have good care. Let us explain more fully to you how to care for the eyes.

MEN TO VOTE ON THE WAGE MEASURE

Will Likely Accept the Provisions of the Bill.

Special to the Review.

London, March 27—Before a meeting of the Miners' Federation to-day J.R. MacDonald, the leader of Conservative Laborites in the Commons, pleaded that the new minimum wage bill be given a fair trial, and as a result it was decided to take a referendum ballot to determine if the men will accept the provisions of the bill and return to work. It is believed that the majority of the men will vote to abide by the terms of the new measure.

London, March 27.—A fateful day in the history of British trade struggles came to a close early this morning with the passage through Parliament by a large majority of the bill establishing in legislation the principle of a minimum wage in the country's most important industry.

The minimum wage bill passed its third reading in the House of Commons by a vote of 213 to 48, amid a scene of great excitement. The House of Lords reassembled at 2.50 o'clock to receive the bill, and on motion of Lord Herschell it passed its first reading.

Premier Asquith on leaving the House of Commons was loudly cheered by all the members.

After a strike lasting nearly a month and involving the whole coal country in untold distress, the miners have thus secured recognition of the principle which they set out to obtain. But they are still dissatisfied, because the bill does not specify the amount of the minimum wage. Thus there is no prospect of any immediate settlement of the strike.

The miners' leaders declare their determination to keep up the strike until they have secured guarantees of a minimum wage of five shillings for men, or until the district boards, as provided by the bill, arrange acceptable terms.

The Government's persistent efforts to secure an outside settlement collapsed in a most dramatic manner. Premier Asquith had the greatest difficulty in getting the owners and the men to meet yesterday, and it was only finally on the earnest persuasion of Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Secretary, that the owners consented to confer with the men's representatives. The meeting lasted but a few minutes. The representative of the Scotch miners put forward a demand for a minimum of 5 shilling 9 pence for men and 2 shillings 5 pence for boys, whereupon the owners, protesting that they were always being faced by fresh demands, angrily broke up the conference and quitted the room, leaving Premier Asquith, Secretary Grey and Chancellor Llyod-George thunderstruck and crestfallen at the unexpected turn of events.

It was under emotion, the result of disappointment at this scene, that the Premier went immediately to the House of Commons to announce the failure of the conference, in a speech which evoked the sympathy of the whole House.

Maryville, Mo., March 27 — Hez Rasco, murderer of the Hubbell family of four was hanged yesterday morning. He protested his innocence, and recited the twenty-third psalm.

Bloodhounds followed a trail to Rasco's room, where a blood stained pair of overalls was found. The motive assigned was Rasco's desire to recover money won from him by Hubbell in a poker game.

Questions Regarding the Buckhorn Bridge Are Not Agreeable

Special To The Review

Ottawa, March 27—Hon. G. P. Graham. the late Minister of Railways and Canals, declines to substantiate any statement to the effect that the government had made any sort of an agreement to relieve the County of Peterborough and the worship of Harvey of Buckhorn Bridge. When pressed to state if he knew anything that would justify the present minister for taking it over, granted that some such agreement had been made he said, that he preferred not to discuss the matter any further.

FARMERS' BANK INVESTIGATION TO BE LAID OVER

Son-in-Law to Sir William Meredith is Dead

Special to the Review.

Toronto, March 27—Owing to the death of Dr. J. D. Thornburn, Sir William Meredith's son-in-law, the Farmers' Bank enquiry was not gone on with to-day. As Sir William's court duties start Friday, and will keep him busy for several weeks, it is unlikely that the investigation will be resumed before May. In the meantime Travers will likely be returned to penitentiary.

Western Fair Asks Grant.

London, March 27.—It was decided at a meeting of the Western Fair Board held yesterday to ask the City Council for assistance to the extent of $6,000 to make the necessary repairs and improvements to the fair grounds to put them in shape for the coming exhibition.

It is thought that the board will require $40,000 to carry on the work of the exhibit to the fullest extent.

DURBAR IN KINEMACOLOR
King George and the Khedive of Egypt

DURBAR IN KINEMACOLOR

One of the most thrilling scenes of the great Durbar Ceremony when King George and Queen Mary were proclaimed as Emperor and Empress of India, was the state entry into Delhi, amid the plaudits of more than one million of the diversified races of India.

This entry was made through what is known as "The Elephant, or Delhi Gate," from the vast plain that surrounds the city, without the walls. The Elephant Gate is a huge structure of marble and is pierced by the single arch through which the procession passed. On either side of the gate, within, are the two monster elephants carved out of solid blocks of marble, which give it its name. These monster elephants were the spoils of victory of one of the Moguls or Emperors of Delhi in the fourteenth century and were brought a long distance to the spot where they now rest.

It is only on the occasion of the visit of an Emperor, King, Prince or distinguished personage that the Elephant Gate is used, as ordinarily it is kept locked and guarded. At all times, the Lahore Gate, which is situated some short distance from the Elephant Gate, is used. When the victorious British troops captured Delhi and upset the rule of the Moguls they entered by the Elephant Gate, to the complete humiliation of the Great Mogul and his subjects.

One of the most inspiring scenes recorded in motion and natural colors by the wonderful invention of Kinemacolor, is that of the entry of the Royal Pageant of the Durbar procession through this Elephant Gate.

The Durbar pictures in Kinemacolor were taken by Charles Urban, the inventor, by royal command of King George and the pictures have created a sensation in London and New York, in the latter city being presented at the New York Theatre to crowded houses at regular Broadway prices.

Arrangements have been made for the superb Kinemacolor Durbar Pictures to be shown in this city, exactly as in New York and popular prices will prevail during the engagement at the "Grand" for three days, commencing Monday, April 1st, with matinee Tuesday and Wednesday.

The scale of prices has been set at 25c., any seat for the matinees, and 25c. and 50c. for evenings, with the gallery at 15c.

PELLETIER'S RURAL MAIL DELIVERY BILL PASSED

Opposition Speakers Protest Against Plan to Have Routes Laid Out by Local Men, But Postmaster-General Says It Cannot Be Adequately Done Any Other Way—P. E. I. Subsidy Up In Committee.

Ottawa. March 27.—Parliament passed yesterday Hon. L. P. Pelletier's bill providing for the establishment of a system of rural mail delivery and voted to enlarge the annual subsidy to Prince Edward Island by $100,000. The bills extending the boundaries of Ontario and Quebec were given their second reading and put through committee.

The discussion in the rural mail delivery scheme revolved largely around the clause permitting the Postmaster-General to engage local experts to lay out the routes. Opposition speakers claiming that this should be done by the regular postoffice inspectors.

Hon. Mr. Pelletier insisted that the bill was in the nature of an experiment and a permanent organization could be perfected after a year's trial. He intimated that it was his intention to have registered mail delivered by rural mail carriers, but said that it would be impossible to make the money order and postal note service a traveling one.

The Postmaster-General explained that the intention of the Government was to place the service as a separate branch in charge of a superintendent, selected from the present departmental staff, who would have under him employes in the inside service, with the postoffice inspectors and their staffs in the outside service.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier urged that the postoffice inspectors should be given the work of mapping out rural delivery routes. They and their staffs could be assisted in this by the persons petitioning for the establishment of the routes.

F. B. Carvell (Carleton, N.B.) claimed that an attempt was being made to provide offices to reward political friends of the Government.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux declared that the only way to give satisfaction to the public was by placing the rural mail delivery in charge of a trained, conscientious and independent official, as a separate branch of the Postoffice Department. The number of inspectors should be increased in the various districts where demands were made for rural delivery; the inspector might be given more officials to help him map out the routes.

Hon. L. P. Pelletier said there might be a few officials added to the inside service, but he thought it best to get more help outside for the present. Next session, when they had had time to see how the experiment worked, the bill might be amended and more officials added to the inside service.

E. M. Macdonald (Pictou) warned the Finance Minister that his surplus might vanish if the Postmaster-General were allowed to appoint men in every county in Canada without regard to the Civil Service Act and without regulations.

The "little sister of confederation" came in for some discussion in committee on the bill of Hon. W. T. White to provide an additional grant of $100,000 to the Province of Prince Edward Island.

Hon. Mr. White said the island was entitled to consideration, on account of the breach of the agreement entered into at confederation, providing for continuous communication with the mainland. Every year this was interrupted for long periods, to the dislocation of the business of the province. At one time the islanders did not receive any mails for 22 days running.

Then the debt allowance of $4,200,000 had been largely used up in the construction of the P. E. I. Railway, which, under the terms of confederation, bcame the property of the Dominion.

All that P. E. I. had in lieu of public lands was $45,000 a year, whereas, when Alberta and Saskatchewan were created recently, they were each given $375,000 a year in lieu of lands.

The island, said Mr. White, had gone back in population and prosperity largely through the ungenerous treatment that had been meted out to them. In 1871 the population was 94,021, while in 1911 it was only 93,722. In 39 years there had been provincial deficits in 35.

The Manitoba boundaries bill has passed its final Parliamentary stage without amendment. Royal assent and proclamation are all that are now required to make it law. Yesterday the Senate turned down a half dozen proposed amendmntes and gave the bill a third reading.

Refuse to Oust Senator.

Washington, March 27.—The Senate yesterday rejected, 29 to 27, the Jones' resolution to declare that Senator Stephenson's election was invalid. The Jones' resolution was a substitute for the investigating committee's resolution to declare that the Stephenson election was legal.

ABOLISH THE BAR IS THE LIBERAL LEADERS SLOGAN

But Mr. Rowell Does Not Say Abolish the Licenses.

Toronto, March 27.—N. W. Rowell, leader of the Opposition, has adopted the slogan "Abolish the bar" as the policy of the Liberal party on the temperance question.

Yesterday afternoon at two o'clock the Opposition members met in caucus to review and give the finishing touches to the policy that had been decided on by the leader.

As soon as the House got started with the afternoon session the following amendment was handed out:

N. W. Rowell will on Thursday next move:

"That in the opinion of this House the public interests demand: (1) The immediate abolition of the bar; (2) such other restrictions upon the residue of the liquor traffic as experience may show to be necessary to limit its operations, and effective to remedy its evils; (3) the strict enforcement of the law by officials in sympathy with law enforcement, and the elimination of political influence from the administration of the law; (4) regulation and inspection of all houses of public entertainment so as to ensure reasonable accommodation for the traveling public."

Reports that the leaders of the Women's Christian Temperance Union were disappointed with the announcement reached the Parliament Buildings later in the afternoon, and Mr. Rowell was told about them.

"Well, all I have to say," he remarked, "is that if the temperance people don't agree with this policy they are going back on the very policy they themselves have been championing for years."

"The bar is the big thing," commented Sam Clarke, Liberal member for West Northumberland, when it was suggested to him that the effect of the bas being abolished might not improve matters much if licenses are still granted.

Hon. W. J. Hanna seemed much amused when he read Mr. Rowell's announcement.

"The policy that cuts out the bar and leaves hotel licenses, shop licenses, club licenses etc., is a joke."

When Sir James Whitney was spoken to in regard to Mr. Rowell's temperance policy, his comment was: "I am lost in wonderment."

AMENDMENT TO QUEEN'S BILL

Ottawa, March 27.—With the consent of the committee representing the church and the university which have been fathering the measure, the Queen's University bill was amended before the Senate committee yesterday.

The bill as passed by the Commons prescribed Christianity as a religious test for the staff. Jewish people contended that this would exclude their race, even though the institution is now declared to be nationalized.

The amendment yesterday provides that "the trustees shall satisfy themselves of the Christian character of those appointed to the staff." In other words the test is shifted from creed to character. It is felt that a Hebrew, while adhering to his own faith, may nevertheless qualify as possessing Christian characteristics.

Chicago Packers Acquitted.

Chicago, March 27.—Not guilty was the verdict which the jury returned yesterday in the trial of the ten Chicago packers accused by the Government of violating the criminal sections of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

The verdict was returned before U. S. Judge Carpenter after the jury had deliberated over seventeen hours.

The trial has been in progress several weeks, the defence submitting no evidence.

CONFIDENCE EXPRESSED IN FEDERAL GOOD ROADS SCHEME

Mr. Rowell and His Associates Demand That the Dominion Subsidy Be Paid Over to Ontario For the Province to Spend as It Likes, But Cause Is Lost—Brings In Bill for Development of the North.

Toronto, March 27.—By a vote of 78 Conservatives to 20 Liberals, it was clearly shown in the Legislature yesterday, that the Provincial Government was satisfied with the policy of the Dominion Government with respect to good roads. That the Federal subsidy be paid over to Ontario and expended by this province, was the gist of a resolution introduced by Mr. N. W. Rowell, which was defeated in favor of an amendment by Hon. W. H. Hearst to the effect "that the province expressed satisfaction with and approval of the policy of the Dominion Government and full confidence that the policy would be carried out in the best interests of Ontario."

There was a long discussion on the question of good roads. N. W. Rowell started the debate with a motion and speech endorsing the Government's action, but considering that its plan was not sufficiently comprehensive and adequate. The province should expend the federal subsidy on roads as it saw fit, with no interference from Ottawa. In this question there should be provincial autonomy. Allan Studholme voted with the Government.

J. G. Anderson, South Bruce, introduced an amendment, but it went under, along with the Liberal leader's. Mr. Anderson moved to have the the Government fix the expenditures on good roads, so that only one quarter of the entire outlay would fall on the counties, one quarter on the province, and the rest on the federal subsidy.

Mr. Rowell said that under the Highway Improvement Act passed in 1901, one million dollars was set aside and the money had since been expended. There were 50,000 miles of roads in the province, and 1,500 miles had been improved under the act which came into force in the Liberal regime. He expressed the importance and value of good roads, and called for a more comprehensive and adequate plan than now in existence. Despite opinions to the contrary, he was willing to give credit to the present administration for what it had done but taken course was instituted by its predecessors in office. To-day there were 46,000 miles not in good repair in the province.

"We are all regretting rural depopulation," said Mr. Rowell. "There is only one way we can make the people stay on the land, and that is by improving conditions, making the farm more attractive and remunerative, and assisting in this to a great extent would be good roads. The Government should adopt a larger policy than is proposed at the present time, thus adding to the progress and prosperity to the farms, towns and cities. The Government should especially consider the roads leading into market towns."

Hon. Mr. Hearst considered that the leader of the Opposition would come around with appreciation of the Government's services some time, but he never thought it would be so soon. During the last year of office the Ross administration spent $170,000 on roads in New Ontario, and last year the Whitney administration gave half a million. When the Dominion Government gave aid to Ontario, surely it would want to see how the money was being spent. Mr. Rowell, despite the fact, had given quite a lecture to the Dominion Government, the donors, declaring that once they granted the money they should have nothing more to do with the question. It was unnecessary to state that the money would be handled on a systematic, sound and safe basis.

Sir James Whitney replied to the statements that the money would be spent mostly in New Ontario. He said that it would be expended in an equitable manner, both in old and new Ontario. He considered Mr. Rowell's motion would do no harm, it was an endorsation of the Government's policy.

In connection with the colonization scheme of the Government, as announced a few weeks ago, Hon. I. B. Lucas introduced a bill to authorize the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to raise a loan not exceeding $5,000,000 on the credit of the consolidated revenue fund. It calls for the construction of works and improvements, the making of roads, the improvement and development of water powers, the advancement and settlement and colonization and assistance of settlers, the improvement of means of transportation and of communication and the encouragement of reforestation in the north and northwestern districts of the province, and such other public purposes of a like character as the Lieutenant-Governor may deem expedient.

An act respecting aid from the Dominion of Canada for highway construction was introduced by Hon. Dr. Reaume. The Minister of Public Works explained that this bill would authorize the province to enter into an agreement with the Minister of Public Works of Canada, setting forth the terms on which the subsidies granted by the Dominion Government shall be established, and the conditions under which they shall be expended.

"Lost on division" was the Speaker's announcement regarding Allan Studholme's bill providing for a universal eight-hour day.

J. T. H. Regan, South Wentworth, heartily supported Mr. Studholme's bill, but thought that in view of Hon. W. H. Heart's lucid and emphatic statements on the subject, he thought it would be as well to endorse the Government's proposition to investigate the whole matter first.

The Premier said that a bill would be introduced with respect to the appointment of a commissioner to investigate the new territory in the north country and to spend the $5,000,000 set aside for the purpose of colonization by the Government.

HONORARIUM FOR HON. ADAM BECK

His Work is Praised by Sir James Whitney.

Toronto, March 27.—It was announced in the Legislature by Sir James Whitney yesterday that Hon. Adam Beck, the indefatigable chief of the Hydro-Electric Commission, would get remuneration for his services, despite the fact that he is a member of the House. The Premier praised the work of his colleague, and the announcement was greeted with much banging of desks. A bill will be introduced in the Legislature before prorogation to authorize the much-deserved tribute of the Government.

It has not been stated what monetary recognition Mr. Beck will receive, but it is reported that it will be in the form of an honorarium to the amount of $10,000. He has been the most energetic worker in the interests of the public ownership scheme of electric lighting for five years, and this amount would make it a salary of $2,000 a year.

OVER-WORKED KIDNEYS

Cause, Rush of Blood, Fullness, Dizziness.

J. T. Chetland, the well-known railway engineer of Hamilton, found the strain always resting upon men of his occupation vastly intensified by a tendency of the blood to rush to his head, and often at times when clearness of vision and great steadiness were demanded. Finding some difficulty in bending—a stiffness with pain having settled in his back, it occurred to him that his kidneys might be at fault. "This was a happy idea, for by it I not only got rid of the pain but many other troubles as well. I took a full dose of Dr. Hamilton's Pills and was glad to note that some obstruction of the kidneys, which I had lately noticed, was at once relieved. The flushed appearance of my face gave way to a more rational color and there was a perceptible improvement in my appetite. Dr. Hamilton's Pills certainly act splendidly upon the blood, removing heat and fulness and that sort of dizziness that makes a man at the throttle wish when it siezes him that he were elsewhere."

No medicine gives such unquestionably good results for stomach, liver, and blood troubles as Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they are mild, certain, and always curative. Refuse any substitute.

DIVIDE THE BLOCK

Peterborough enjoys the distinction, and the only place in the province that does, of never having been a village. In the early days its affairs were administered as a part of the Colborne District, and afterwards as a part of the township of North Monaghan. When incorporated as a town, in 1850, it was lifted, so to speak, out of the township, and missed the intermediate state of being a village before it reached the status of a town.

When the gentlemen who made the survey of the town plot fell to work they left quite a number of town blocks of extreme length in proportion to width. All of the blocks between George and Aylmer streets are examples in another direction. No doubt the creek was to blame to some extent, as it bisected the area in divers ways.

In what is now the East Ward the same thing was done. The blocks north of Hunter street are extremely long, too long in fact, and several have been divided by cross streets, as they should have been.

If the proposition of the Board of Education to build the new school on the hill lot, overlooking the ward, and at the corner of Hunter and Concession streets, is carried out, it would be a judicious thing, and one seemly as well to try and arrange that the block of land between Concession street and Rogers street have a new and short street laid out dividing the block at some convenient point, and affording readier access to the school. If there be an objection to the children being made climb Hunter street, then the grade could be divided by means of the short street. The additional frontage so made could be utilized for building purposes, and the owners of the property benefitted to such extent that the right of way should not cost only a trifle.

NOTE AND COMMENT

If the public were sure that one dollar per ton, added to the price of coal, would go to benefit the men who actually do its mining, there would be little remonstrance. The trouble is that out of the dollar, only four cents will get to the miner the balance being absorbed in that tangible and untangible power known as the "long haul."

DIABETES

Is one of the most cruel maladies of which mankind is subject, the many complications arising from time to time, making life seem almost unbearable. For many diseases, medical, scientific, and physiological knowledge and experience gained from years of deep research, has achieved remarkable results, but, up to now, little has been discovered of practical value in the treatment and cure of Diabetes. In fact, people have begun to look upon the disease as well-nigh incurable. Even in the medical profession can be found doctors who are of the same opinion, regarding sceptically any claim to ameliorate or improve the condition of a diabetic patient.

It can, however, be proved that SANSOL'S ANTIDIABETES lastingly cures all cases of Diabetes. Full particulars can be obtained from the Sansol Mfg. Co., Winnipeg, Man.

The recent unparalelled crime in the mountains of Virginia, whereby a Judge on the bench, the sheriff and prosecuting attorney were shot down by a party of mountaineers who had averred that none of their friends should be sentenced, creates a feeling of insecurity in the ability of American justice. So far the murderers have not been apprehended. What the district needs is the services of the Northwest Mounted Police. Then the finger of scorn would cease to be pointed, as it is now, at a community powerless to carry out the law.

In the House of Commons, on Monday, when the private bill to increase the financial powers of the Grand Trunk Railway Company was called, Major Currie, sponsor of the bill, asked that it be allowed to stand over till Monday. He said that Vice-President Kelley of the Grand Trunk who was to have an interview with the Minister of Labor in regard to the reinstatement of seventy or eighty employes on the railway, still penalized on account of the strike of 1910, had not arrived, but would be on hand for a conference on Wednesday.

As an indication of the state of affairs in England, following on the coal strike, the prices of fuel have advanced to a figure never before remembered. It has reached famine prices, especially in the north of England, where it is higher than at London, owing to the fact that the merchants had large reserves in the metropolis, when the strike began. At Newcastle the price of coal is more than $20 a ton; at Dover bunker coal is $15. The collieries and merchants having good reserves are making a rich harvest. One colliery in Yorkshire, which had on hand a stock of 200,000 tons, sold to the Cunard Company 50,000 tons at $8.50 pit price, which usually is only $2.50 a ton. This colliery is now offering similar steam coal in Sheffield at $11.50 pit price.

In five minutes I was well and my stomach derangements disappeared entirely."

Lady Betty Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

Mr. Brett and I went up together. The genie crossed arms and grabbed something for us out of both his bags at the same time. Then, by mistake, he gave me the thing from the left hand bag and Mr. Brett the one from the right. We walked away to let others have their chance, looking at the presents we had got. It was funny—they both happened to be rings.

Mine was twisted bands of platinum and gold, forming a knot to hold a cabochon sapphire. His was a thin setting of seven stones set in a straight row—diamond, emerald, amethyst, ruby, emerald, sapphire, topaz.

"Yours is meant for a woman and mine for a man," I said. "He got them out of the wrong bags. But they're both pretty and so queer."

"Will you—shall we change?" he asked.

"Oh, I didn't mean to suggest that," I hurried to say. "I can give mine to my brother when I go home. And you—there must be some one"—

"I've no sister, and there's no one else," said Mr. Brett. "Do have it. You see, I couldn't get it on my little finger. And won't you keep the big one too? It isn't as if I were like Mrs. Stuyvesant-Knox's other guests"—

I couldn't bear to hear him say that, so I broke in and insisted that he should have the ring. "She would want you to have it, of course, if she knew," I said. "And, besides, I want you to, which is something."

"It's everything," he answered.

Then we changed rings, and I told him I hoped his would bring him luck, glorious luck.

"Do you wish it may give me what I want most in the world?" he asked, and I said that I did.

"What do you wish mine may give me?" I went on.

"What do you want most—great wealth?" he questioned me.

I shook my head.

"To have the world at your feet?"

"I shouldn't know what to do with it."

"To have the one you love best on earth love you?"

"I should have to stop and think which one it is."

"Then I wish that you may love the one who loves you best on earth and more than all the world."

Just as I was looking up, surprised at his tone more than his words, there came a burst of music, and part of the wall, with the platform on which the genie and his lamp had been standing, rolled away. The other big room of the cellar was revealed, with quantities of little tables all laid out for supper and the walls covered with smilax and roses. In the middle of this new room was a huge illuminated ship of ice in a green sea.

Everybody exclaimed and laughed at their surprise at such an unexpected transformation. Now was the time for unmasking, of course, and there were shrieks of surprise and amusement as people discovered who their companions really were. For a minute—I'm sure it couldn't have been more—I forgot Mr. Brett to stare at the great glittering ice ship. When I turned to speak to him he was gone. And whether he vanished on purpose because he didn't want to unmask in a company of strange people or whether he was separated from me by the sudden press of the crowd I don't know. I suppose I shall never know. I only know that I lost him and that I was immediately surrounded by other men, saying nice things about my costume, wanting me to have supper with them and asking me for dances afterward.

The rest of the night went by with a wild rush. We didn't stop dancing till 4, we young people, and I believe the older ones played bridge. We had a second supper served upstairs toward dawn, and when the last people went away it was broad and glorious daylight.

"Well, deah," said Sally cozily when every one had gone and she had come into my room to help me undress, "had you a good time?"

"Splendid!" said I, sighing with joy. "I'm dancing still—in my head. My first ball!"

"Katherine doesn't call it a ball. But that's a detail. Had you any proposals?"

"Oh, Sally, how came you to think of such a thing? But isn't it too extraordinary? I had three."

"Why extraordinary?"

"Because I hardly knew the men!"

"Americans make up their minds quickly about what they want."

"So Mr. P— So I've been told."

"Accept any one?"

"Not I."

"Didn't even give them a wee mite of hope?"

"Dear me, no."

"Poor Potter—for one."

"Sally, I do wish he wouldn't—do that sort of thing, since you speak of it. It makes it so embarrassing. And somehow I don't feel he really means it. I've always the impression that—that he does it because he thinks he ought."

"He'd like to marry you, Betty. There's no doubt of that, and one can't blame him for it."

"Well, if he keeps on I shall be driven away," I said, "although they don't want me to go home yet for—for several reasons. I don't want to go either. I'm having a wonderful experience. But"—

"Haven't you met any man you could imagine yourself caring for, deah? Or perhaps you don't fancy Americans."

"Oh, I do!" I exclaimed. "They're all great fun. And one—one man I've met I think superior to any other I ever knew. But, then, I've known so few, and I don't know him well. You needn't look at me like that. It isn't a romance, you dear. I'm most unlikely to know him any better ever. He—isn't like the rest. He isn't like anybody else I ever saw."

"Now," said Sally coaxingly, "you might tell me if he's one of the three who proposed."

"Indeed, he isn't, and he never will. Why, Sally, I don't mind telling you I mean that Mr. Brett who was on the ship and whom we met afterward accidentally in the park. He is rather wonderful considering his station, isn't he?"

"He'd be rather wonderful in any station. That's my theory about him."

"I think it's mine too. He was here tonight—as a newspaper reporter, he hinted, though he didn't exactly say he was in so many words. Did he talk to you?"

"Yes," said Sally. "Indirectly I got him his chance to come."

"I gave him good advice," said I, laughing—"all about his future and ambition and things like that. I hope he'll take it."

"He'll probably try all he knows. Did he thank you prettily?"

"I'm not sure whether he thanked me at all. But he gave me this ring and wished me luck with it. It was the genie's present to him in Aladdin's cave. I changed with him for the one I had. But this is much prettier. Look."

"D-E-A-R-E-S-T, Dearest," Sally spelled out as she held the third finger of my right hand, on which I'd slipped the ring.

"Where do you find that?" I asked quickly.

"Don't you know? Why, the stones spell it—diamond, emerald, amethyst, ruby, emerald, sapphire, topaz."

I felt my cheeks burn when she gave me this explanation.

I wonder if Mr. Brett knew!

Held Up A. O. F. Bill.

Ottawa, March 26.—The banking and commerce committee yesterday held up the bill respecting the Ancient Order of Foresters, pending more definite information from headquarters.

The original act authorized the order to do business in real estate to a limit of $20,000. Hon. W. T. White pointed out yesterday that the bill removed these limitations, and the whole surplus might be put in real estate.

Chairman Ames said the order wanted to erect a building of its own, instead of renting offices. The Minister replied that it costs a great deal to keep up such buildings, and the enterprise might be dangerous.

EVEN HEADACHES ARE QUICKLY CURED

When You Cure the Kidneys With Dodd's Kidney Pills

The Cured Kidneys Strain all Impurities Out of the Blood and the Result is Good Health all Over the Body.

Stornoway, Compton Co., Que., Mar. 26.—Special.—The number of different ailments that Dodd's Kidney Pills have cured would be a cause of constant surprise were it not for the explanation that Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the kidneys, and as everybody knows the kidneys are the point from which disease starts, or good health is assured.

If the kidneys are right all impurities will be strained out of the blood. If the kidneys are not right the impurities remain in the blood to rot, and the blood carries the poison to all parts of the body.

David Bourque, of this place, states: "For headaches there is nothing to compare with Dodd's Kidney Pills. They have relieved me of all pain."

Strong healthy people are not bothered with headaches. It is weak run-down people who suffer from them. And in nine cases out of nine the weakness comes from impure blood, caused by disordered kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure headaches, backaches, rheumatism, lumbago, and similar diseases by curing the kidneys. Cured kidneys make good health all over the body.

FLEETWOOD

Fleetwood, March 25. — It is our painful duty to have to record the sad death of Mr. John Emory Hart which sad event took place at the home of his uncle, Mr. J. L. Hart, of Manvers on Sunday morning, March 17th, at the age of 24 years, 9 months and 20 days. Deceased was a son of Dr. Herman Hart, who along with his mother died some years ago, and of late has made his home with his uncle Mr. J. L. Hart. He was unwell and Dr. Hamilton, of Bethany, was called in, and a consultation was held with Dr. McAlpin, of Lindsay, it was thought well to have an operation, which proved to be successful at the time, but deceased was too far gone to pull through. The funeral which was held on Tuesday, 19th, was very largely attended, a sermon being preached in the home of Mr. J. L. Hart by the Rev. R. M. Patterson, Lifford, who also officiated at Riverside Cemetery, when the remains were placed in the vault. The pall bearers were Messrs. William and Joseph Coulter, Albert Scott, Percy Hart, Victor and Horace Grandy. Deceased was a fine young man and attended the Lindsay Collegiate Institute for some time. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Maguire were visiting with Mr. Thos. Crawford on Saturday last.

Mr. Albert Corby and family who have gone to Manitoba, have reached there safely and like the place well. We wish them every success in their new home.

When will the robin come around? It seems late, and there is plenty of snow in this locality for sleighing yet. It will take some time for old sol to thaw it from off the public highways.

Mr. John Robinson has gone back to visit his daughter in Fenelon Township for a few days.

We welcome Mr. Richard Grandy and family back to our burg again. They have moved into Mr. John Brown's house and we wish they may remain for good.

Mr. Harvey Davidson joined the benedicts last week and we wish him and his bride every success.

HAPPENINGS AT OMEMEE

Special Correspondence.

Omemee, March 25.—On Thursday evening, 28th inst., the adult Bible class of the Presbyterian Sabbath school, will hold an entertainment in the basement of their church. There will be a good program, succeeded by refreshments.

Mr. Dickens, who has secured employment at Mount Pleasant, has moved his family to that southern suburb.

Miss Maud Handley, of Mount Pleasant, was the guest of Omemee friends over the week-end.

We are pleased to report the convalescence of Mrs. D. Blaycock, who has been indisposed for some days.

Miss Lulu Balfour, of Lindsay, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. Rehill the first of the week.

The Misses Miller and Parrott, who have charge respectively of the millinery and dressmaking departments of Mr. Charles Ivory's general store, have returned to town.

Mr. H. Fee was down from Lindsay for over Sunday.

Mr. Ed. Shaw, of Omemee, who was in the wrecked cars of the colonist train in New Ontario, was bound for Estavan, Sask. Reports are that his injuries are about the head, and though painful are not serious.

Mrs. White has purchased the property on Sturgeon street, where she now resides. She bought it from Mrs. English.

Miss Muriel Morrison, of Peterborough, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. J. Morrison, of King street.

Last Friday as good ice as was cut in January was taken from the little lake and stored for summer. There wasn't a sign of honey combing.

Mr. Henry Nugent, who was enlisted in the time of the Fenian Raid, participates in the grant given to these veterans by the Dominion government, through the influence of Hon. Col. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia. The award is $100 per member.

Mr. J. A. Houston, Inspector of High Schools and Collegiates, of Toronto made his official visit the first of the week to our High School.

On Monday Mr. Albert Rutherford, of Mount Pleasant, drove out on business.

One of the latest political songs has struck town, and is gaining in popularity. The air is a quaint, quiet, nerve-exciting melody, which, combined with the peculiarly expressed horse-sense of the verses renders it captivating. The refrain runs:—

"Makes no difference if he is a houn'.
You got t-quit kickin' my dawg aroun'."

The Public Library Board are planning for a grand concert on the evening of Victoria Day.

From an exchange we learn that the Seymour Power Company will construct a transmission line through Omemee to Lindsay early this summer. Prospects look encouragingly for the erection of a sub-station here. While our down-town station has been a convenience since its erection, it seems as though it could be improved by the installation of a telephone. Passengers sit many weary hours in the station when trains are late, and often necessary meals are postponed.

The building of a steel bridge and the laying of heavy steel on the old Bethany branch make it appear as if the proposed new line had been abandoned, and it might be appropriate for our Board of Trade and Town Council to get busy with the G.T.R. and have them deliver either the proper accommodations we bargained for when our bonus was accepted by the Company, or else hand us back the boodle with the interest that is our rights for the years in which we have had very poor service.

[COPY]

Toronto, March 1st, 1912.

W. H. HILL, Esq.,
Manager,
Sun Life Assurance Co.,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I wish to thank the Sun Life Assurance Company, through you, for the prompt and very satisfactory settlement of my 15 year Endowment Policy, No. 64345, which matured and was paid me to-day.

I have also a 15 year Endowment maturing to-day in a leading British Company.

The contrast, in the results, in favor of your Company is so marked that I want you to know it, but I am at a loss to know how such a difference could honestly occur. When I tell you that the profits in your Company are three and one-third times the profits in the other Company referred to, and this too notwithstanding I paid the other Company $1.15 per year more per $1000 than I paid you, you will realize my inability to comprehend the cause.

This is surely a tribute to the management of the Sun Life, and I am so well pleased I have applied for further insurance with you.

Incidentally, I would like to say a word for your loan privilege. As you are aware, I borrowed some money on my policy, a little over a year ago, which enabled me to obtain a substantial interest in a town site in the Northwest, and you will be pleased to learn that it has already yielded substantial gain and gives promise to pay hundreds per cent., so that it is impossible to fully realize the value of that Policy to me.

I thought as an old Peterborough boy you would be pleased to know I am delighted with the result.

Yours truly,
(Signed) ROBERT E. DOLAN.

FOURTH ANNIVERSARY OF DUKE OF MANCHESTER L. O. L. NO. 50

The 4th anniversary of the institution of Duke of Manchester Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 50, was fittingly celebrated last night by a big banquet being held for the members in Coleman's elegant banquet hall. About fifty members of the lodge were present, and after the wants of the inner man had been spppliea in a style that can be better imagined than described, the Worshipful Master called the meeting to order and proceeded with the following short program:)

The very successful and enthusiastic gathering was then brought to a close about midnight by the singing of Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King. Every member left the banquet hall feeling that No. 50 was going to have a banner year, and that, from all appearances, the old motto of "Quality, not Quantity," was being kept to the top.—Com.

PLANS FOR NEW SCHOOL

Architect Bartlett Was Instructed to Prepare Specifications

The plans for the new East City school as submitted by Mr. F. Bartlett, to the Board of Education last night, show a handsome twelve-roomed school of two storeys and a basement. In the basement 4,250 feet of class and play rooms are provided for. In each ground floor, and upper storey class rooms the windows are very large, equalling in size one-fifth of the floor area.

The plans for the new school are conceded by the Board to even excel the King Edward school plans, which is one of the best schools in the province.

The architect was instructed to prepare specifications for the new building, from the plans submitted, when, should his estimate of costs prove suitable, tenders will be called, probably within two weeks time.

The specifications call for Hamilton or Don Valley pressed brick, Georgia pine wood-work, and the best material throughout.

As regards the new site Dr. Morrison reported that the Board's solicitor had been notified of the Board's action in approving of the purchase of the six acres of the Armour Estate property at the lump sum of $3,300.

The following Board members were present,—John Crane, chairman; Dr. Burnham, Col. Miller, R. Fair, V. Eastwood, W. H. Hill, T. H. Adams, Dr. Morrison and B. F. Ackerman.

At St. Luke's To-night

Rev Chas. Carpenter of Campbellford, will preach at the Lenten service at St. Luke's church this evening at 8 o'clock.

We are selling Experience--not Experiment--in MITCHELL Cars

IT is now seventy-seven years since the MITCHELL Manufacturing Interests first engaged in the building of high-grade vehicles. It is thirteen years since they commenced building Automobiles. Thus the accumulated experience of three-quarters of a century, and the special facilities and methods that have been developed during more than a decade, constitutes the basis upon which they have founded a business and engineering success that ranks second to none in the Automobile Industry. ¶ The New 1912 Models are the latest and most improved examples of their respective types—designed and manufactured by an organization that for years has been committed to a consistent policy of creating the highest value for the lowest cost. ¶ If you are in the market for a car, you owe it to yourself to supplement this introduction with a more extended acquaintance. HAD DINNER AT THE COLLEGIATE AND IT WAS GOOD

At noon to-day six prominent citizens of Peterborough were treated to one of the finest dinners they had ever partaken of, by Miss Steinhoff and one of the domestic science classes of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute.

The dinner was served in a most delightful manner by Miss Steinhoff and her pupils, and ample evidence of the skill of the young ladies in providing a noon-day meal was produced. The lucky sextette was made up of the following citizens: Rev. I. Couch and Messrs. T. F. Matthews, E. F. Mason, S. R. Armstrong, M. A. Morrison and A. Mowat.

According to those who enjoyed the repast it is only necessary for the young ladies to keep up to their present standard of cooking to ensure a number of peaceful households and gratified husbands in the days that are to come.

FEATURE BOUT FAILED TO GO PAST THE FOURTH

Edmunds Fouled His Detroit Opponent According to the Referee's Decision and the Police Called a Halt.

There was a damper put on a good card of boxing bouts at the Grand Opera House last night, when the police stopped the last engagement between Artie Edmunds of Toronto known as the "Pocket Hercules" and Tony Hudson of Detroit, when Edmunds fouled Hudson. Referee Gene Hurtubise declared that the bout must stop, and gave the decision to Hudson, but both men wished to continue and in turn, they declared that there was no fouling done. Gene stood by his decision, however, and when the boxers were looking around for another referee, police officers Meagher and Kidd, said that the bout must not continue, declaring that Edmunds had fouled. It was stopped in the fourth round.

LILLY v.s. MONTGOMERY

The curtain raiser was a six round go between Geo. Lilly and R. Montgomery, two local Englishmen. Lilly had the condition on Montgomery, who was rather groggy after the fourth. Montgomery would make a good youngster with a few months coaching.

SPARKS v.s. PETTY

Ted Sparks of Hamilton and Bert Petty of Toronto, went on for six rounds next. The boys did not seem inclined to mix it very much, and referee Hutubise was kept busy handling them in the clinches.

WESTERBY v.s. RYAN

The bout between Harry Westerby of Toronto and Kid Ryan of Rochester, N.Y., at 125 pounds, was alone worth the price of admission. Ryan could not stay longer than the tenth though they were supposed to go twelve rounds. The Rochester boy is very clever, but lacks the punch which Westerby has, and used to effect. This should have been the main bout instead of one of the openers.

PHYSICAL CULTURE

Before going on for his bout with Tony Hudson, Artie Edmunds, gave a physical culture exhibition in which he showed up some of the tricks of supposed strong men, who often perform in vaudeville theatres He explained that most of the "strong men" had flabby muscles, and they could not last longer than three minutes.

EDMUNDS v.s. HUDSON

Though this bout which was to be for ten rounds, only went to the fourth, it did not promise to be as interesting as the Westerby-Ryan fray. The men persisted in taking a swat in the breaks, though warned several times by referee Hurtubise to "break clean." Edmunds was very sore about the decision, claiming that it was the first fight he had lost on a foul.

MUTT AND JEFF

A Mutt and Jeff fracas was run as one of the preliminaries. Jeff secured a knockout, but had to get assistance to drag his "bacon" from the scene of combat. The make-ups were very good.

There may be another card put on at the Grand in the course of a few weeks. It is possible, that a couple of lady grapplers will go on as one of the main attractions.

The audience was not large.

BROOKSIDE BOWLERS MAKE READY FOR SEASON

Officers Elected and Committees Formed—The Report for 1911

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Lawn Bowling and Tennis Club was held last night in the Dominion Bank Chambers.

The reports of the President and Secretary-Treasurer were presented and adopted.

The purpose of the meeting was to elect officers and form committees so that preparations for the coming season could be commenced. The meeting was a success in every way and the prospects of the game for the coming year are brighter than ever.

The following officers were elected and committees formed:—

President—Dr. Marshall.
Vice-Pres.—R. M. Waddell.
Sec.-Treas.—T. Ed. Pratt.

Executive Committee — Messrs. Marshall, Waddell, J. H. Renwick, John Maynard, and R. H. McCartney.

Lawn Committee — Messrs. T. Brightman and D. Belleghem.

Membership Committee.— Messrs. T. Brightman, Ray Best, W. F. McKnight, Stanley Canniff, R. G. Cotterell, T. E. B. Yeats, J. W. McDermid.

Mr. W. Gray was re-appointed caretaker.

The meeting tendered Mr. Crane a hearty vote of thanks for the privilege of using the rooms, and Mr. T. Brightman, the retiring president, was honored in like manner.

Now that the committees have been appointed, it will be the duty to get together and prepare the membership list for next season. When this is completed the President will call a meeting of the club and the skips, vices, leads and seconds will be chosen and the tournaments will be discussed.

Mr. Brightman, last night, in his address gave a brief, but interesting review of the bowlers' doings last season. The address is given in full below:—

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

To the Officers and Members of The Peterborough Lawn Bowling and Tennis Club:

Another milestone has been passed in the existence of our Club and it will not be without its influence on our history.

Your executive, early in the season, endeavored to devise ways and means of arousing a greater interest in the ideal summer game, and after frequent and long consideration and not without some fear and trembling, as to the result, finaly took the plunge and decided to pull off a Tournament. This was held on the 7th of August. That it was an unqualified success, far beyond our most sanguine expectations, is well known to you all. As a result of that Tournament, the Central Ontario Bowling Association was formed, and we believe it will have a great effect in reviving and arousing greater interest in the game throughout the district. And in this regard, while we had a loyal support from all our members, it is only fitting that we should acknowledge our special indebtedness to the enthusiastic and well directed effort of Messrs. Renwick and Soden.

In this connection also we feel it is only common courtesy to acknowledge our special indebtedness to the Hon. J. R. Stratton, who with his well known public spirit and loyalty to everything that is Peterborough, generously donated a beautiful cup for competition in our tournament.

This cup was won the past year by Oshawa and it is up to Peterborough to see that it is not allowed to remain there too long.

The prizes offered in our Tournament were worthy of our Club and it is gratifying and in the interest of the sport, that they were well distributed through the district.

There were games played at various times with Keene, Millbrook, Lindsay and Port Hope in which keen competition and good fellowship prevailed.

It is my duty to call your attention to the irreparable loss our Club sustained in the promotion of our secretary, Mr. Geo. E. Clarke, to a managership of the bank with which he was connected at Forest. While we all join heartily in congratulating him on his well merited promotion, we mourn the loss of one of the most genial gentlemen that ever bowled on our green, or we have had the privilege of associating with.

The executive recognizing his sterling qualities deemed it fitting that he should carry with him some mark of our appreciation and had an address presented to him. The time at our disposal, after learning of his removal, was so short that we could not obtain the bowls spoken of in time, but they are ordered, and will be forwarded to him in due time with a suitable inscription on them.

I would suggest that an active canvass be made for members, similar to that of the curling club and such a course, I believe, would have the effect of doubling our membership and placing our club in the position its importance deserves.

I will leave our financial position in the hands of the Secretary-Treasurer to deal with.

Now in laying down the robes of office, I desire to thank the members one and all, for their generous and hearty support and bespeak the same loyalty to my successor.

T. BRIGHTMAN,
President.

SPORT TALK

Shaughnessy leaves for Fort Wayne on Saturday next and will not sign any more until after his own club has completed its training when a number of good ones will be turned loose. Then he will complete the Ottawa Club which will start out with a squad of 18 or 20, but will be reduced to 14 or 15 during the training at Chatham, Ont. The London Club made the Ottawas an offer for Cook recently, thinking that the locals would be able to hold Shaughnessy, but there was nothing doing. —Ottawa Citizen.

EDMUNDS WOULD LIKE TO MEET HURTUBISE

Artie Edmunds cannot smile today.

The reason is that, as a result of last night's bout with Tony Hudson, the "Pocket Hercules" has a L.O.F. attached to his hitherto unblemished record and all because, so he says, that he and Gene Hurtubise are not altogether of the Damon and Pythias type.

Edmunds didn't like the decision handed to him by Hurtubise, last night and is inclined to attribute the same to the fact that Gene doesn't like him any more.

Furthermore Edmunds would like to do some mat work with Hurtubise and is out with the statement that he will place any necessary amount of greenbacks, with any local man, for a match with the referee of last night.

Regarding the bout, Edmunds claims that he did not foul his man and that Hudson was willing to continue the engagement.

Now then, who is the "boilermaker?"

There will be a meeting of the Automobile Owners and Prospective Automobile Owners of Peterborough on Friday evening, March 29th, at 8 p.m. sharp, in the Bank of Montreal Chambers, for the purpose of organizing a Peterboro' Automobile Association. All interested are requested to attend.

PRESENTATION TO MR. ROBT. MANN

Is Going to Grand Forks to Join His Family

Mr. R. Mann, who has been overseer of the finishing department at the Auburn Woolen Mills, is leaving for the West, and will locate near Grand Forks, B.C., where he has bought some property, and where his sons are in business. Mrs. Mann and daughter, Miss Marjorie, have already preceded him.

Last night the household where Mr. Mann boards, gave him a gift and said some nice things. Mr. Mann was wholly taken by surprise when Mrs. Bickle and her jovial boarders after partaking of a guid old Scotch banquet," that Louis, Rab, Whool, and the twa with the shelebah, opposite our fair guest and our amiable son and Mrs. Bickle to grace the board. They presented the above gentleman with an address and the following present of a silver shaving set, beautifully engraved with Mr. Mann's name.

Dear Mr. Mann, Just now I taen the fit o' rhyme,
My bonnie noddle's working prime,
My fancy yerket up sublime,
Wi' hasty summons,
Hae ye a leisure moment's time
To hear what's coming.

We wish as friends to remember one who has showed our comradeship and who is leaving to answer the call of the Great West, to show that we have appreciated our association with a man of such stirling qualities and strong honest purpose and hope that you make take with you, kind thoughts for those you leave behind. But we know your attractions are strong, and your sentiments are not lightly expressed.

Of a' the airts the wind can blaw,
I dearly love the West,
For there the bonnie lassie lives,
The lassie I loe best.

We would ask you to take with you this little gift, rich in spirit and hope it will remind you of old friends in Peterborough, and may we wish you for you and yours, a long, happy and prosperous sojourn, and if the West is too small for you, Peterborough will take you back,

Farewell, dear friend, may guid luck hit you,
And among her favorites admit
you,
If e'er detraction strive to smite you
May none believe him,
And any de'il that thinks to get
you,
Good Lord, deceive him.

Mr. Mann made the following reply—

Mr. Dear Friends and Mrs. Bickle—I can assure you all that this is a great surprise to me, I never expected anything like this, and it is really too much. I cannot do more than thank you one and all for this beautiful present, and also the "guid aid Scotch" sentiment, expressed in your address. I can again assure you I take this with me, and I never will forget the ten months I have spent with you all. In fact barring the absence of my wife and family, it has been one of the happiest times of my life, and now I would ask you all to join with me in signing Auld Land Syne, and now I'll bid you all good-bye.

POLICE COURT

Drunks Gathered in and Fined The Usual Amount

William Kelly was drunk in a public place yesterday and he ran foul of the long arm of the law. He appeared before Magistrate Dumble this morning.

"How long do you want?" asked His Worship. "That is evidently what you are looking for."

"Oh. I don't know."

Chief Thompson said that Kelly had been working in the woods.

"Is he worth his board up there?" asked the magistrate.

"Kelly can work. He does not come to town very often," replied Chief Thompson.

"I think a good scrub and ten days would do him good," concluded His Worship. I will fine him $2 to be paid forthwith, or in default of payment, ten days in jail.

William is financially embarassed at present, and it is altogether likely he will sojourn on the "hill" for ten days.

"HE IS IN AGAIN."

For about a year Alfred Cooneys silvery voice has not been heard in police court. He was present again this morning and amused the "rail birds" with his grand display of oratory on the evils of the blacklist. Alfred has been on that list for some time, and he should know. He explained to the court that he was now off the list, and was a free now off the list, and was a free agent.

"Well, this will cost you the usual $2," to be paid forthwith, or in default of payment, ten days in jail."

"That is ten days for me," chirped Cooney.

SAME OLD STORY.

George Shearer, while on the blacklist, was found drunk. He was fined $10, to be paid forthwith, or in default of payment. 30 days in jail.

"Where did you get your liquor?" questioned the Chief.

"Well, I was walking down street," began Shearer. "Oh. that will be enough," said the Chief. "It is the same old story."

WAGES CASE.

A case that was to come before the police court this morning on a charge against a local company of non-payment of wages was settled out of court. In order to avoid bother and annoyance, the amount, which was small, was paid.

IMPERIAL HOME REUNION ASS'N.

What the "Standard of Empire" Says of Work.

The Standard of Empire, London, Eng., has the following to say of the Imperial Home Reunion Association work which is now being started in Peterboro.

"This is the kind of work which, more perhaps, than any other, deserves the description of Empire-building. This is true patriotism of the most practical and productive order.

The men who become guarantors of the fund for assisting British workmen were not moved by desire of gain, or a yearning for lime-light. They simply wished to be of genuine assistance to the fellow-men. Their ambition, at the highest, was the unselfish aim of strengthening the bonds of Empire by getting the biggest possible infusion of British blood into the population of Winnipeg. To this end, the gentlemen who make up the list of guarantors not only back the scheme financially, but a number of them, selected to act as an advisory board, give time and attention to holding meetings, at which applications are presented and acted upon.

Within the field of its operation the Imperial Home Re-union Association strengthens and tightens the bonds of Empire, and draws Old Country born and Canadian born citizens closer together, gives them a better understanding of each other, and sets up that cordial relationship that should exist between the newcomers and the home people of this great land of opportunity, this home of promises, which are more nearly kept than those of any other land on earth."

ROBERT FAIR & Co Limited

INDIGNATION EXPRESSED BY EAST CITY RATEPAYERS

Strong Opposition to New School Site---Residents Favor Present Location---Board of Education Receives a "Roasting."

Addresses by Prominent East City Residents—Five Favor New School Site.

The old village hall in East City was the scene of a gathering of its most representative residents and ratepayers last evening to the number of forty who placed themselves on record in no uncertain manner as being almost unanimously opposed to the erection of the new East City school on the Armour Estate site chosen by the Board of Education.

At eight o'clock there were only about fifteen individuals in the hall. Gradually, however, more began to file in and by eight-thirty about forty had assembled and the meeting was called to order. On motion of A. G. Carruthers, Mr. Wm. Scott was appointed chairman and Mr. Rogers secretary. The chairman explained the purpose in view in calling the meeting, which was to protest against the proposed construction of a new school on the Armour Estate at the corner of Hunter and Concession streets.

CHAIRMAN OPPOSED NEW SITE.

Mr. Scott said that he hadn't given the matter much thought personally, as his children were past school age, but he desired to see his neighbors' children helped. He considered it was a mistake to think of changing the site of the East City school now in use. There were two or three reasons to be advanced against the proposed new site.

One was the difficulty in climbing the hill in the winter time which leads to the new site. The sidewalks were extremely slippery. Then there would be the exposure to the biting west and north winds, and the children would find it impossible to play in the open air. The heating of the new school would also cost considerable, the site being so exposed, consequently it would add a great deal to the fuel bill.

Some one said that Mr. Scott should not mind that as he being a dealer in fuel would perhaps benefit by this draw back.

Mr. Scott referred to the close proximity of the canal to the new school site. "We all know what an attraction water is to a child," he remarked, "and it is pretty sure some children will fall in sooner or later, and perhaps meet a watery grave."

JOHN BUTCHER.

Mr. John Butcher next arose, being called upon for his views. He did not care, he said, to pit his views against those of the Board of Education, yet it appeared to his mind that the old site was quite central. He felt, moreover, that the Board with its power to expropriate should not have encountered any difficulty in securing a more suitable site than the one selected. Still he did not wish to censure the Board of Education.

ALD. MORGAN.

Mr. Harry Morgan, the East City alderman, next took the platform. He was glad to see so many of the ratepayers out. After the matter is settled he knew there would be the greatest hub-bub break out ever in the history of the village.

"The site that has been selected" he said, "is the coldest in winter and the hottest in summer. In fact it makes you feel as if the wind from Bethlehem had an unintercepted course until it reached Armour's Hill." As a consequence the little children will be bound to suffer. The "kids" who would attend the school would range in age from four to twelve years, and he did not think there was a parent in the village who would be satisfied to have their children walk up Armour's Hill on a cold winter day. Then the nearness of the canal was a serious thing.

"There will be some little one drowned" he said, "it may be yours or it may be mine, and then there will be trouble sure, no question about that."

Looking at it from a property owner's standpoint it was a drawback. People moving into the ward would consider first thing, what school accommodation was handy.

"I know people," said Ald. Morgan, "who will move over town as soon as the new school is erected, in order that their children will be able to attend school in safety."

"Then if the school is built it will be only a matter of time when they will have to build a kindergarten for the little children. It is not possible for the little ones to go away up on that hill. The old site picked out by our forefathers was all right, and they exercised good judgment." Ald Morgan concluded amid cheers and hearty hand clapping.

FRANK ADAMS.

Mr. Frank Adams was called on next. "I am quite in favor of retaining the present site," he began. "I have no particular reason to criticise the actions of the Board of Education, and the selection of the new site might result in the development of the muscular side of the children. It would be a case of the survival of the fittest. The old site chosen sixty years ago was alright. The school at present was ample. The Board of Education have been guided largely in the matter by the regulations which are demanding extensive playing grounds. School Boards are now rushing from one extreme to another, and it seemed that this was what the local Board of Education were doing. When Mr. J L. Hughes was in the city the Board of Education told him that the people who owned property adjacent to the present school wanted so much for it that the Board did not feel disposed to pay for it. Therefore Mr. Hughes favored the six acres as secured by the Board." It seemed to the speaker that the School Board had not tried to secure the property near the present site at a reasonable price.

"Then if two acres as proposed for a site for a new West Ward school was considered sufficient, why was not a similar extent suitable for an East City site?"

Mr. Adams said that if it was not too late he thought that the meeting should send word to the Board, asking them to reconsider their decision. "It seems to me they will concede," he added. "Everything considered I would like to see the school on the present site, for sentimental as well as other reasons. I think all the people around would like to see it remain where it is.

WAS IN FAVOR OF SITE.

Mr. W H. Pretty, for a change in argument, expressed himself as favoring the new site. He could not see why there were so many objections to it. The coldness of the neighborhood he thought, might be mitigated to scom extent by the architects when they planned the new building. The danger question in the shape of the nearness of the canal, he admitted, was the most serious. This could be overcome, perhaps, by teaching the older children in the school to guard the younger, and instill them with a sense of their responsibility.

Mr. Pretty felt that East City would yet be the biggest part of Peterborough.

Mr. R. A. Elliott was the next champion of the old school site.

"Personally," he said, "I am much in favor of the old site, and very strongly opposed to the new. I think the present school grounds are ample, in fact I cannot see why six or seven acres are required. My children never have any time to play around school. By the time they get home from school and back it occupies most of the period allowed. The ground around the present school could be purchased for a reasonable price. The owners were not asking too much when the houses on the land were taken into consideration. The cost of the ground should not stand in the way of the Board purchasing it. If the same Board owned the property he questioned whether they would sell it for less. The hill site chosen was nothing less than a cold bleak care, barren spot. It is alright for a person in the summer to go up and fill his lungs with fresh air, but it is certainly unnecessary in the winter. (Laughs.)

"It is also treacherous around there for the little children.

"I believe that if the school is built there that there will be more drowning accidnets recorded there in one year than ever before. That is my conviction anyway."

A. G. CARRUTHERS.

A. G. Carruthers was called upon. He felt that in his observation that East City lacked a good strong man to look after its interests. "True we have Mr. Adams" he added, "but I think his views have been dominated by the fact that he has no children at present attending school.

"If the new school, as planned, is erected, it will be found that few children from the first book and thereabouts will attend school in the winter time."

Even at the present school he had witnessed children enter the school in winter time, crying from the cold. "What will their sufferings be in the new site? I feel very strongly in this matter," he continued. "There are a great many parents in East City who are apathetic. They will not come out. But just as soon as the new school is erected and they see its disadvantages there will be heard the greatest howl that was ever put up in East City. I am afraid even now this meeting is too late and the matter has gone too far."

ALD. ANDERSON IN FAVOR.

Ald. Anderson dropped in to the meeting, and being spied, was asked to speak.

In commencing he asked the audience not to look upon him as a curiosity because he favored the Armour Hill site. It seemed to him strange that all these objections should be so late in being advanced, after the warnings they had had that the Board intended to locate there. Ald. Morgan was, himself, satisfied, he added.

"Excuse me," said the latter, interrupting, "I was not in favor of it. I was in favor of the passing of the School Board's demand for $85,000 for the erection of the schools.

Ald. Anderson—"Excuse me, Ald. Morgan, you did express yourself in favor of it, and I have the members of the Council to back me up."

Ald. Morgan did not reply.

Continuing, Ald. Anderson said, that the matter of the height of the hill should not count as every institution and public building in the city aims to have a location on an elevated site. Then the danger of the canal was exaggerated. It was like the bachelor who was afraid to get married because he feared that his little boy would get run over by a street car. (Laughs.)

Regarding the objection of distance to walk, the children who attended the King Edward School had twelve blocks to walk and the most distant scholar in East City only had seven blocks to cover. Where else was it possible to secure six acres for $3,300?

Continuing, the speaker referred to a report in which Ald. Morgan quoted as saying at the Board of Education meeting that he would be agreeable to a six-room school. "Why, the present seven-roomed school is over-crowded," said Ald. Anderson.

Ald. Morgan—"I didn't say that. —It was Dr. Morrison; I was reported wrongly."

Ald. Anderson in closing said that he hadn't intended to speak because he knew he would be out of harmony with the meeting's purpose, and secondly, that it would be of no use as the Board of Education had completed the deal and the papers had been sent to Toronto.

Ald. Duncan, another city father, was in the gathering and when called upon, put himself on record as not in favor of the new school site.

"I think the School Board have used their best judgment, but I think they have made a mistake," he said. When he was in the Council the time it came up, he didn't put himself in favor of it.

Speeches were made by Charles Adams and John Butcher.

Finally the meeting ended by the carrying of the following motion with only five opposed to it:—

"That this gathering of ratepayers place itself on record as opposed to the construction of a school on the Armour Estate site, and favor retaining the present site with additional territory, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Board of Education."

Mr. A. G. Carruthers moved the adoption of the motion, seconded by Mr. McDonald.

Those who opposed it were Messrs. Rogers, Anderson, Swanston, Craig and Pretty.

Mr. Rogers and Mr. Craig also made short addresses.

THE EYE LIKE A CAMERA

The eye is constructed so wonderfully and ingeniously that the handicraft of man has not as yet been able to construct as delicate an instrument. It is like a camera—the lens to focus, the lid as a shutter, the iris or color as the diaphram, the thick coatings of the eye-ball as the dark room, the nerve as the sensitive plate, and strange as it may seem, the images are bottom side up exactly as the image in the camera. Now so delicate and sensitive an instrument as the eye should have good care. Let us explain more fully to you how to care for the eyes.

LORD LANSDOWNE WASHES HIS HANDS OF WHOLE THING

British House of Lords Passes Second Reading of Prime Minister's Coal Strike Relief Measure — Staffordshire Colliers Raid a Mine—Worst of the Trouble Is Over, But Distress Is Acute.

London, March 28.—The House of Lords last night passed the second reading of the minimum wage bill without division. During the debate Lord Lansdowne said that the Opposition would not amend the bill or delay its passage, but the Ministry must accept full responsibility for it. Nobody but the Government and their supporters, he added, had a good word for the bill, which failed to satisfy either of the disputants.

Owing to some hitch in the wording of a Government amendment and its failure to suit both sides of the House, the Marquis of Crewe announced that the committee stage would be postponed until Thursday. This will result in delaying the royal assent until Friday.

The most serious outbreak since the strike began occurred yesterday at Cannock, Staffordshire, where several thousand strikers, accompanied by hundreds of women, raided a colliery in which eighty men were working. They stoned and overpowered the small force of police on guard, setting fire to two buildings and wrecking others. The rioting continued for several hours until large reinforcements of police arrived and scattered the rioters by baton charges.

A prompt decision has been made by the Miners' Federation to take a ballot of the men on the question of terminating the strike. The ballot paper reads:

"Are you in favor of resuming work pending the settlement of the minimum rates of wages in the various grades by the district boards to be appointed under the Coal Mines Minimum Wage Act?"

When it is remembered that 115,000 men voted against commencing the strike, little doubt is felt that a majority will now vote in favor of its termination, especially as the view is gathering force among the miners that the mine owners are trying to prolong the struggle in order to bleed the men's unions while they render them powerless to renew the struggle for a long time to come.

The prospect, therefore, is that the strike may end in a week, although there will be no general resumption until after Easter.

The Government will take immediate steps to organize the district boards under the bill, so that everything will be in readiness when the men are willing to resume. A meeting of the Liberal members of the House of Commons, representing the mining constituencies, has been arranged by the Government whips for to-day, at which the Prime Minister will make an important statement on the attitude of the Government. This meeting is expected to have an ameliorating effect on the situation. No labor members have been invited to attend.

In the lobbies of Parliament the feeling of gloom which was manifest on Tuesday has entirely disappeared, having given place to confidence.

The worst of the trouble is over, but the price of coal and food is still rising, and the work of dealing with the inevitable distress is throwing great responsibility upon the Government.

Having made a strong fight in Parliament to secure the best possible terms for the miners in the bill, the labor leaders now frankly counsel the men to accept the bill. This will have a great influence in the ballot and leaves little doubt that the end of the strike is at hand. James Ramsay Macdonald, addressing the miners' leaders, said:

"My advice to the miners is to accept the bill and get the boards appointed as quickly as possible, so as to secure prompt decisions on the smaller demands, such as five shillings a day rate. Then if the decisions are satisfactory they should be taken as an indication of what the other decisions are likely to be, and resume work forthwith."

James Kier Hardie, the independent labor leader in a speech at Peckham last night, gave similar advice.

Troops In Readiness.

London, March 28.—Orders were issued at Aldershot last night for all the troops, numbering 10,000, to be prepared to move at any moment into the colliery districts. Troop trains are being held in readiness. Five hundred troops left Lichfield for Cannock, Staffordshire, where a serious riot occurred yesterday afternoon, and a detachment of infantry is quartered at Brynkinalt, where trouble is expected between union and non-union men.

The railway managers have decided to suspend all freight traffic except perishable goods from April 3 until April 9.

DESERTED LAWYER ENDS HIS LIFE

Washington, March 28.—Philip Hichborn, a young lawyer and son of the late Admiral Hichborn, committed suicide last night by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. Despondency over the elopement last summer of his wife and Horace L. Wylie, a prominent Washington attorney, probably was the cause. Wylie and Mrs. Hichborn were last heard of in France.

Mrs. Hichborn was a daughter of the late Henry M. Hoyt, former solicitor-general of the United States.

Grand Trunk May Surrender.

Ottawa, March 28.—The deadlock between the Grand Trunk and the Government may yet be broken, as word was received last night that William Wainwright first vice-president of the road would be in Ottawa again to-day to consult with Major Currie, who has charge of the Grand Trunk financial bills, and Hon. T. W. Crothers, Minister of Labor.

The Government does not want to unreasonably hold up the financial measures of the road, and yet Mr. Crothers feels that he is taking the only stand possible to force the Grand Trunk to live up to the agreement.

HAVE PLENTY OF MONEY

Large Campaign Fund for the Suffragettes.

London, March 28.—Mrs. Pankhurst, Mr. and Mrs. Pethick Lawrence, joint editors of Votes for Women, and Mrs. Tuke were brought up again in the Bow Street Police Court yesterday at the resumption of the hearing of the charge of conspiracy and inciting to commit malicious damage to property. The hearing lasted throughout the day.

The court was filled with well-dressed women from an early hour.

The evidence given yesterday dealt with big sums paid by the Women's Social and Political Union for the hire of halls. In one case alone $4,500 was paid. A banker called as a witness testified that checks had been drawn by the four prisoners on behalf of the Women's Social and Political Union, whose credit balance in December was $115,000. After the arrest of the accused the sum of $35,000 was withdrawn on a single check, and the balance now amounted to only $1,500.

A human touch was introduced into the case by the production of a letter written by Mrs. Pankhurst to Dr. Ethel Smyth, who was sentenced on March 9 to two months' imprisonment at hard labor for participating in a window-breaking expedition in the shopping district of London on March 1. The letter commenced: "My darling E.," and in it appeared the sentence: "On Friday there will be a skirmish in which some of our bad bold ones will take part."

The case was adjourned.

Mrs. Alice Green, who refused to be bound over to keep the peace and was sentenced to four months' imprisonment, said, with a catch in her voice: "Since Thursday I have given up my home, husband and child in order to go into this movement, and I will not go back until women get the vote."

Another batch of suffragettes was sent to prison yesterday by Judge Robert Wallace, chairman of the London Sessions.

Most of the women were sentenced to four months' imprisonment, but some who had been previously convicted were given six months, while one who had twice previously convicted had the distinction of getting eight months.

Mrs. Alice Monck-Mason, a grandmother of sixty-eight years old, volubly protested again the injustice of being released and bound over to keep the peace for one year.

"God is on our side," was the retort of another prisoner, who declared that she would do her four months' term in jail with an easy conscience.

NO PARTITION OF FLOWERY KINGDOM

Berlin, March 28.—Alfred Zimmermann, Under Secretary at the Foreign Office, during the discussion of the budget for the German colony in China, in committee, said that President Yuan Shi Kai was worthy of confidence, but that he had shown himself to be not fully equal to the emergency during the recent mutinies in Pekin and elsewhere. The Government would have complete control of the situation if it was quickly furnished with money.

Germany, he said, would oppose every attempt at the partition of China, and would follow with the other powers a policy of non-intervention or eventually a joint action. The disorders in China, he declared, were not ended, and the strengthening of the German forces in Kiacchou by another 500 men was urgently required.

The budget committee approved the declarations of the Under Secretary of State, and voted appropriations for the sending of reinforcements to Kiacchou, several Socialist deputies voting in the affirmative.

CANADIAN GIRLS WHITE SLAVES

Niagara Falls, N.Y., March 28.—Charged with importing four white slaves from Canada, William Weeks, proprietor of a road house near Lewiston, was arrested by U. S. authorities yesterday. Scores of young girls have recently been taken from Canada to the States by white slavers, it is claimed. The federal authorities are determined to break up the traffic.

TYPICAL PIT BOYS IN ENGLISH COAL MINES.

PIT GIRLS WAITING FOR COAL AT THEIR SIFTING TABLES.

Notwithstanding their hardships, the children employed in the coal mines of England appear to be a happy lot, as can be seen in the accompanying pictures. Boys and girls of tender years were engaged before the strike which is now on in the coal pits all day long for very little pay, and yet they occasionally found something to amuse them.

TAX REFORM TO BE TAKEN UP BY COMMISSIONERS.

Ellis and Rowell Bring In Bills Providing a Measure of Single Tax Legislation, But Sir James Recommends That They Be Withdrawn and the Whole Matter Taken Up By Special Commissioners.

Toronto, March 28.—Of such importance is the subject of taxation reform that the Government decided yesterday to appoint a special committee to investigate the whole matter thoroughly during the recess. Experts for and against will submit information and a report will be presented to the Legislature at the next session. This decision was made as a result of two bills which were given their second reading yesterday. They were introduced by N. W. Rowell, leader of the Opposition, and J. A. Ellis, Ottawa West. The bills were similar, but with the exception that Mr. Ellis' proposed legislation aimed to bring about gradual reduction of assessment on buildings, while Mr. Rowell's purported to exempt buildings from taxation.

There was much talk on single tax doctrine. In fact, the whole session was taken up with it. Sir James Whitney attacked many of the principles laid down by Henry George, and also chastised Joseph Fels of Philadelphia. When the House opened Mr. Ellis explained his bill.

"A large amount of unimproved land in this province is being held idle," said Mr. Ellis. "The owners are doing nothing—they are merely holding it till their neighbors build. Those holders of idle land are the gentlemen at whom my bill is directed."

In conclusion, Mr. Ellis suggested that the House appoint a special committee—not one of the regular committees—to investigate every aspect of the situation and enquire if land speculators are making large profits, some of which should go to the community, and if improved land is being held for the special benefit of the holder.

Sir James Whitney suggested that as Mr. Rowell's bill was much on similar lines to Mr. Ellis', it would expedite matters if both bills were explained first and a general discussion follow. Mr. Rowell concurred in the suggestion, and forthwith proceeded to enlighten the House as to his proposed taxation reforms. It was identical, he said, with the Fripp bill which had been previously introduced. Contrasting it with Mr. Ellis' bill, the Opposition leader said his bill dealt with the rate of taxation, while the Ottawa member dealt with assessment. The spirit of both bills, he said, was to decrease the burden of tax on improvements and increase it on land. The Fripp bill, however, gave a larger measure of home rule to municipalities, as regards the amount of taxation adjustment they wished to make.

"The time has come," declared Mr. Rowell, "for this House to take action to rectify matters. Holding large blocks of land for purposes must be discouraged. It would help the prosperity of the community if such legislation is enforced, and I can't see any reasons why these bills can't carry. There is no class of legislation that has been so persistently and generally asked for, during the last five years." With regard to the criticism of the Prime Minister as regards the subject of tax reform, Mr. Rowell stated that he had nothing to say except that it was the Conservative newspapers as well as the Liberal, that had charged the Premier with being the chief obstacle in the way of blocking this reform. "I hope he's not the obstacle in the way of this legislation," added Mr. Rowell. "I hope he'll endorse the proposition heartily."

Sir James Whitney handed no flowers to the single tax idea, its originator, Henry George, or its promoters, Joseph Fels of Philadelphia et al. A great many people were generally fascinated by something new despite its lack of merit. The single tax doctrine was now a dead issue. He characterized Joseph Fels as a "Holy roller" and an "extraordinary creature."

The Premier then read some of the Rt. Hon. John Bright's views on the question. He said it was utter unfairness and cruelty to tax a mechanic's house the same as a millionaire's. It was improper to tax a poor man the same as a rich man. "We will never consent to a 'pie-balled' or 'checker board' system of assessment as put in these bills," he said.

He then touched upon the attitude of the Government. He had nothing but words of commendation for Messrs. Rowell and Ellis, who introduced the two bills. In giving the bills their second reading he assured the members that this did not commit the Government in the slightest degree to the proposition, but he wanted it understood that the second reading would mean its presentation to a special committee to hear argument from both sides during the recess. He urged that a committee be given the question to report to the Government after securing information.

Other speakers against single tax were Provincial Secretary Hanna and J. W. Johnston (Hastings). In favor of the reform were W. McDonald (Centre Bruce), R. J. McCormick (E. Lambton), and Allan Studholme (E. Hamilton), Sam Clarke (W. Northumberland) was on the fence, but thought the assessors should be more capable men.

The debate concluded with both bills being sent to a special committee, to be named later.

Rebel Victory Confirmed.

El Paso, March 28.—An uncensored story of Tuesday's fighting at Jiminez, dated at that place, was received from the Associated Press correspondent at the front by mail yesterday. It confirms telegraphic reports of rebel success.

The doubts which arose over the fact that the rebels continued to report victories but still seemed to retreat, are cleared up. The federals, who attacked Jiminez under Gen. Trucy Auburt, were a different force from that which was defeated at Corralitos. The rebels engaged also were almost a new force, as Gen. Orozeo did not care to weaken his column at Corralitos.

PROTEST BY CANADIANS

Chicago Drainage Canal Hurts Great Lakes Traffic.

Washington, March 28.—A notable body of Canadian legal talent, with a fair sprinkling of large business interests, harbor commissions, boards of trade, mercantile and marine organizations, spent two hours before Secretary Stimson yesterday in vigorous protest against the application of the sanitary district of Chicago for permission to more than double the amount of water now being withdrawn from Lake Michigan through the Chicago drainage canal.

Secretary Stimson was flanked by Gen. Bixby, chief of engineers, and Major Jadwin of the same corps, who have already gone on record as deprecating any increase in the flow of water through the canal.

The Canadians found much to encourage them in the secretary's ready recognition of their status as protestants. Their basic argument that the drainage canal had already seriously damaged lake navigation and that it was reasonably certain that to allow the application for the increased flow of water through the canal would greatly increase the damage to the lake and St. Lawrence river ports.

One significant statement in the argument was that the Canadian members of the joint Waterways Commission, who while objecting to a proposition to allow a flow of 14,000 feet per second through the canal, had tacitly admitted Chicago's right to take 10,000 feet, had exceeded their powers in recognizing the American right to take any water at all for any purpose except that of navigation.

While expressing appreciation of the hearing by the Secretary of War, several Canadians reserved the right to appeal to the International Boundary Commission under the terms of the last treaty in the event that the decision should be against their claim.

CAUCAS ON THE SCHOOLS

Dr. Merchant's Recommendations Will be Carried Out

Special To The Review

Toronto, March 28.— Bi-lingual schools and the Government's attitude thereon, was discussed at a Conservative caucus this morning. Dr. Merchant's report was up for discussion and it is learned from authoritive sources, that the Government will simply carry out his recommendations, which would mean the retaining of English-French, or Bi-lingual schools. The meeting was a harmonious one, nothing in the nature of a fight developing.

French-Canadian members appear to agree with the sentiment of caucus.

ORILLIA PLANING MILL BURNED

Orillia, March 28.—A few minutes after the men had left the factory at noon fire was discovered yesterday in the attic of J. R. Eaton & Sons' large planing mill, and before many minutes elapsed smoke was pouring out of all the windows of the building. Though the firemen were on the scene in a few minutes they could do nothing to save the factory. The loss is well covered by insurance, except perhaps in the case of the men, who lost all their tools. There were about seventy-five hands employed.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE YUKON

Ottawa, March 28.—The Postmaster-General has decided to reduce the rates chargeable on money orders to the Yukon. The province has suffered from the inconvenience of being compelled to pay double rates compared to the other provinces during the past twelve years.

Through the exertion of Dr. Thompson, M.P. for the Yukon, the disability has now been removed.

Line of Steamers Will Facilitate the Movement of Export Grain, Says Minister of Railways—Lemieux Is Again In the Centre of a Stormy Scene — Accusation That Rimouski Man Helped Relatives.

Ottawa, March 28.—The votes for railway subsidies took up a great deal of the time of the House yesterday, and the chief item of interest was the subsidy for 300 miles of railway from the National Transcontinental to the mouth of the Nottaway River on James Bay.

Hon. Frank Cochrane stated that, in connection with the Hudson Bay project, he proposed to have two strings to his bow. He said "by using a line of steamers across James Bay from Port Nelson to Mattaway and thence by rail five or six hundred miles to Quebec, an alternative route for export grain with a shortened rail haul over other routes will be secured. The navigation on the bay is said to be open for seven months in the year at least, and this route could be used when the Hudson Straits are frozen. A reputable company has already signified its intention of building the road.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux supported the project, but Hon. Frank Oliver doubted its feasibility as a solution for the problem. It would mean fully as long a rail haul as by the N.T.R., and also two transhipments.

Hon. Mr. Graham, ex-Minister of Railways and Canals, thought the Government should make in the beginning very careful enquiry as to harbor facilities and navigation on the bay to Nottaway before embarking in the project.

Ontario Government reports had all been to the effect that there was no good harbor available on James Bay.

Hon. Mr. Charleton read a private report that the mouth of the Nottaway River offered splendid harbor facilities.

Hon. Mr. Cochrane mentioned he was sending a survey party to investigate conditions in James Bay and along the Nottaway River before any action would be taken this report would be considered.

The floor of the House presented the appearance of a campaign platform, when hot and excited interchanges took place last night between Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, ex-Postmaster-General, and Mr. Boulay, Conservative member for Rimouski. The House was in committee on consideration of the postoffice estimates and the question of dismissals was naturally taking up a great deal of time.

Mr. Lemieux, speaking in French, took the occasion to refer to the dismissal of the postmaster at Amquie, in the County of Rimouski, and accused the member for that county of having placed a relation of his there. He went further and said that the member for Rimouski had placed many of his relatiives in comfortable positions, notably his daughter, as postmistress in Rimouski, his wife having a contract for railway ties for the Intercolonial Railway and other relatives being in other positons.

The member for Rimouski, also speaking in French, retorted vigorously. He took out his notebook, fixed his spectacles in their place and proceeded carefully to read a long list of people of the name of Lemieux who had received emoluments from the late Government.

Hon. Dr. Beland rose in the middle of the recital to a point of order, but was howled down by the Ministerial forces. During the noise Mr. Boulay could be heard reading the names.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux indignantly denied that those names were his relations. The only name which had been read, namely, that of his father, Achille Lemieux, who was inspector of customs in the County of Gaspe, was correct. The others were fictitious inventions used in a cowardly manner during the last election, when he himself was not present and could not deny it. It was false and unfair, but as the member for Rimouski had read these names before Parliament, he wished to say for future reference that it was untrue to state that his relations had derived such positions from the Federal Government. His father had received a position, already mentioned, from the Provincial Government and was now on pension. But he wished to tell Mr. Boulay that he was not able to explain away the glaring fact that he had dismissed men in order that his daughter should have a position.

Mr. Boulay then denied that his wife had a contract from the Government. (Liberal cries of "Well, she will have one, then, next year.") Mr. Boulay continued that perhaps the ex-Postmaster-General would not deny that Sir Louis Jette was his father-in-law, and that the sheriff of Montreal was his brother.

Jacques Bureau rose to a point of order and said that the ex-Postmaster-General had not denied that these two gentlemen were his relations. (Loud cries of "Order" from Government benches). At this stage Deputy Speaker Blondin rose and stated that it seemed to him the discussion was unseemly and not at all incident to the subject under consideration. The matter was then dropped.

P. E. I. Legislature Opens.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., March 28.—The Provincial Legislature opened yesterday with the customary interesting military display. Hon. J. E. Wyatt was appointed Speaker and Dougald Currie sergeant-at-arms.

The Conservatives will set about the performance of their promise to introduce the ballot, says the speech.

Parties in the House stand: Conservatives, 27; Liberals, 3.

LUNG TROUBLE

Mrs. Biny Brown, of Tenecape, N.S., Was Cured by Catarrhozone of Lung Trouble and Catarrh, After Hundreds of Other Remedies Failed

If your lungs are weak; if there is consumption in your family; if Colds, Catarrh, and Bronchitis bother you, be sure to use Catarrhozone. It is especially adapted for these diseases and cures every time.

Mrs. Brown took cough mixtures, but they made her sick. Then she used an atomizer, but, after resorting without benefit to poultices, she tried Catarrhozone.

"I used Catarrhozone Inhaler," writes Mrs. Brown, "five minutes every hour, and soon recognized that it was going to cure me. I could feel the soothing medicated air spreading through the air passages of the throat, and it touched the sore spots in the lungs that other remedies failed to reach. Catarrhozone seemed to go just where it was needed most, and soon put a stop to my cough. It restored me to perfect health, and I am convinced that no cough, cold, or catarrh can exist if Catarrhozone is used."

No treatment is so clean, so pleasant, so certain to cure as Catarrhozone. By means of the Inhaler, the local symptoms, such as coughing, inflammation and congestion are speedily corrected. Ferrozone tablets, which are taken after each meal purify and cleanse the blood of all poisons, and build up and strengthen the system.

This local and constitutional treatment is always effective, and cures cases that have been given up as hopeless. Money can't buy or produce anything better, and to get cured it is absolutely necessary to use Catarrhozone.

GERMANY'S PROBLEM

The naval program as proposed for Germany, calls for a very large expenditure of money, and just now there is general anxiety as to the source from which the new expenditure will be derived. A Berlin newspaper states that pressure has been brought to bear upon the admiralty to reduce its demands, which have been repeatedly sifted until only what is considered absolutely indispensable remains. Altogether the demands of the forthcoming navy bill are distributed over a period of six years, during which time the personnel of the navy will be annually augmented by 2,500 officers and men.

A new third active squadron is to be formed by the four warships at present constituting the material reserve, which is to be abandoned. The new squadron will further receive the reserve fleet flagship, three entirely new battleships, and two new small cruisers.

When in 1920 all are ready for service the German high sea fleet will consist of one flagship, 24 battleships of the active fleet, two squadrons, each of eight reserve fleet warships, amounting altogether to 41 battleships and 20 armored cruisers. The expenditure commences, according to another authority, with 15,000,000 marks, increasing in very few years to 43,000,000.

The National Liberals, in fact the entire left, are agreed that the only just source of revenue to meet the additional expenses is the inheritance tax, so strenuously opposed by the Conservatives, and it is round this point that the contest will begin. The chancellor and the financial minister have had long conferences on this subject.

THE LIQUOR QUESTION

The official organ of the Methodist church, the Christian Guardian, is out on the "banish the bar" policy and in this week's issue says—

"We are not specially interested in the welfare of any political party either in Dominion or provincial politics, but we think we see bright prospects ahead of the party in Ontario to-day that will stake its future on an 'abolish the bar' policy, and will commit itself to it whole-heartedly and without reserve. There has been really a marvelous growth in temperance sentiment in the province during the past few years, and that growth of conviction must find expression in some advanced movements for temperance reform.

"The 'abolish the bar' policy, while somewhat radical, is a peculiarly sane and level-headed method of facings the evils of the drink traffic as they exist among us to-day. It seems pre-eminently the next step to be taken in temperance reform, at least in this province, and as such it will make a strong appeal to a united conviction in favor of temperance advance.

"If Mr. Rowell, or, for that matter, Sir James Whitney, either will come out straightforwardly in favor of the abolishing of the bar and a careful and conscientious supervising of the traffic in liquor that will remain he will succeed in rousing such enthusiasm in the moral reform forces of this province, as no politician in many years has done.

"The province, if we can form any estimate of the situation, is waiting for just such an advanced proposal, and will be ready to give strong support and backing to the political party that will honestly and unreservedly make it. Politics, altogether aside, we would like to see an abolish-the-bar plank in the platform of either party. We are looking hopefully to see what the next few days will bring forth."

NOTE AND COMMENT

The proposed Bill to amend the Judges Act, provides for the appointment of four new judges. It also includes a clause compelling a minimum of ten years' practice as a barrister before anyone is eligible for appointment to the Bench, and does away with travelling expenses for Judges sitting near the place of their residence.

The Kingston Standard commenting on labor troubles in general, and the absence of such in that city, says:—"For this reason we appeal both to labor and to capital that there be no division. Probably there is no place on this continent more advantageous to labor than this city of Kingston. The workman has domestic and educational advantages the most perfect in the land. His home is his own in the great majority of cases; its his "ain fire side." If the city grows, the value of that home will be immensely increased. He has an open market; he is within walking distance of work, school and church, and he lives in a delightful city. On the other hand the capitalists and the contractors for this same reason have an intelligent, sober and zealous workman. We have in the past few years more than one example of the profits the workmen of Kingston can make for those who employ them and wisely direct them. Therefore, for this year let there be consideration and conciliation. Let there be a season of unbroken industry and peace. Let us show the world just what Kingston can do when it takes its coat off and gets down to work."

CHICAGO, March 27.—News of the first seeding of spring wheat served to-day to check an advance due to depletion of stocks on both sides of the Atlantic. The close, nevertheless, was firm at 1-8c to 1-4c above last night. Corn finished with a gain of 1-4c to 5-8c, oats up 1-8c to 3-8c and provisions dearer by 5c to 22 1-2c.

Liverpool wheat closed ⅛d to ¼d higher than yesterday, and corn ⅝d higher to ⅛d lower. Paris wheat closed ⅝c lower, Antwerp ⅝c higher, Berlin ⅝c higher, and Budapest 1½c higher.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, March 27.—There was a good demand from foreign buyers for all grades of Manitoba spring wheat, and, as the prices bid were again 1½d to 3d higher, a fair amount of business was done for July-August shipment. Oats were firmer under an increased demand and in sympathy with the advance in prices in the west. A small business was worked in spring wheat flour for export account, and Glasgow bid 26s and Leith 26s 6d for 90 per cent. winter wheat patents for prompt shipment. The local trade is fairly active and firm. Butter is quiet, the advance in prices having checked the demand. Hogs strong and 25c higher, under a good demand. Eggs active and steady.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, March 27.—At the Canadian Pacific live stock market, the receipts of live stock for the week ending March 23 were 900 cattle, 125 sheep and lambs, 1225 hogs and 1000 calves. To-day's offerings were 600 cattle, 100 sheep and lambs, 800 hogs and 1800 calves.

There was no important change in the condition of the market for cattle, prices being firmly maintained under a fairly good demand and small supplies. Top quality steers sold as high as $7.25; good at from $6 to $7, and common at from $4.50 to $5.50 per 100 pounds. The trade in cows was fair, at from $3.60 to $5.75, and bulls brought from $3.50 to $5.25 per 100 pounds.

The most important feature of the trade was the exceedingly strong feeling in the market for hogs, and prices scored a further advance of 40c to 50c per 100 pounds, making a net rise for the week so far of 65c to 70c, and also a record price for the year to date. The demand was good, even at the higher range, and sales of selected lots were made at $9 to $9.25, and in some cases as high as $9.50 was paid for small lots per 100 pounds, weighed off cars.

In small meats an active trade was done in calves, and, as the supply was not in excess of the demand, prices ruled steady at from $2 to $8 each, as to size and quality. Sheep were quiet, and, as the quality of the stock offered was only medium, they were sold at $4.50 per 100 pounds. There was a good demand for lambs, and prices were firm at $7.25 to $7.50 per 100 pounds.

Chapter 12

IT'S more than a fortnight since I've been able to write about any of the things that have happened to me. The last I did was on the morning after the great affair, when we were looking forward to the pink ball in the evening. Mrs. Ess Kay didn't quite have her wish, for the ball was a moderate success, but it did seem a pale pink after the gorgeousness of the night before, and it might have been still paler (as every one felt rather washed out) if it hadn't been for one special excitement. Mohunsleigh's engagement to Carolyn Pitchley was announced, and we were told that the wedding would have to be soon, as Mohunsleigh had had news which called him back to England, and he wanted to take his bride with him.

Before I stopped to think I'd promised Carolyn to be one of her bridesmaids, but five minutes later I would almost have liked to change my mind because of Potter. He was asked to be an usher. (I didn't know at the time what that meant, but I had a vague impression it was something of importance at American weddings.) So that I was sure to see a lot of him if I were bridesmaid, and in any case I was beginning to feel he might make it too awkward for me to visit much longer with Mrs. Ess Kay.

However, when on second thought I tried to get out of my promise by hinting that I might have to go home, Carolyn seemed ready to cry and said that if I threw her over it would spoil everything. The wedding would be in ten days, and surely I hadn't been thinking of going back to England as soon as that?

It was quite true, I hadn't. And more than that, I knew I shouldn't be welcome at home. I made up my mind to get through somehow and told Carolyn I had only been joking.

She had always wanted to be married at Grace church in New York, but New York is no place for August weddings, if an August wedding you must have; so Carolyn's invitations, which appeared almost immediately after the engagement was announced, told every one that Mr. and Mrs. Pitchley begged them to be present at their daughter's marriage in the drawing room of the Chateau de Plaisance.

I didn't know that you could be married in a drawing room, but it seems you can, quite properly. However, when I go home I don't think I'd better say much about that part of Mohunsleigh's wedding, or some of the old fashioned people mightn't understand. I should hate them to get the idea just because of the drawing room that poor Carolyn was morganatic or something.

She seemed ecstatically happy, more than I could imagine any girl being if she had to marry Mohunsleigh, who, although a dear good fellow when you know him, isn't a bit romantic. But he suddenly blossomed out into all sorts of pleasant American ways, sent Caro flowers and things every day, though I fancy he couldn't afford it; gave her a lovely solitaire diamond ring, which I'm sure he couldn't, and a "guard," an heirloom in his family.

It would have been shocking, Carolyn said, for her to be seen anywhere after the invitations were out, though I can't think why, as she didn't seem at all ashamed of marrying Mohunsleigh, but rather the contrary, and asked me hundreds of questions about what she would have to do when she was a countess. Fortunately, though, she had lots of things to keep her busy indoors, trying on such frocks as she could get made in a hurry and writing letters to every girl she knew announcing her engagement.

The funniest things about the whole affair were—for me—the ushers, the rehearsals for the wedding and having a married woman as a sort of head bridesmaid. Carolyn's best girl chum was married herself in the spring, so she had to be what they call a matron of honor.

It seemed horribly irreverent to rehearse for the ceremony, but nobody else thought so except Mohunsleigh and me, and Mohunsleigh said in confidence that he'd found out the bridegroom was a mere lay figure at a wedding—anyhow in America—and he intended to let Caro do exactly as she liked until after they were married. Then she might have to find out that once in awhile it would be just as well if she did what he liked. But he asked me not to mention this to Carolyn and her stepmother, so I didn't. And in spite of my objection the rehearsals were interesting. I felt as if I oughtn't to laugh and joke, but the others all did tremendously, so I did, too, in the end.

Mohunsleigh was disappointed because that Californian friend of his (whom he would have visited if it hadn't been for falling in love unexpectedly and getting married) couldn't come and be his best man. He urged him, but something interfered, Mohunsleigh didn't tell us what, and Mr. Jameson B. Harborough wasn't even able to come to the wedding. I was disappointed, too, as Mohunsleigh had told us such romantic things about his friend that we all wanted to see him. Mr. Harborough had been a sailor and a cowboy and had left everything to fight in the Spanish war, where he'd done brave and splendid things, and might have stayed in the army afterward as a captain if he had liked. But he preferred to go back to his old, free life and was still a poor young man until two or three years ago, when some land in which he'd invested a few savings turned out to have gold in it—quantities of gold, gold enough to make a famous mine and give Mr. Harborough a great fortune. Sally knew a good deal about the new millionaire too. It seemed that cousins of his in the west somewhere were acquaintances of hers and had told her how immensely he had been sought out and flattered in San Francisco and other places since he'd become rich. He hated it so much that he'd gone abroad and stopped a long time, wandering about in strange eastern countries making friends with Bedouins and people like that who love horses better than money, and on account of certain experiences with women he'd got almost a morbid horror of falling in love with some girl who would only pretend to like him, while in reality all she cared about was his money. Nobody in Mrs. Ess Kay's set knew Jameson B. Harborough, though everybody would like to, so it was a blow to others beside Mohunsleigh and me that he couldn't or wouldn't show himself at Newport for the wedding.

With the exception of this one hitch nothing went wrong so far as the wedding party was concerned, but with me things began to go very wrong several days before Caro and Mohunsleigh were married. There was a fuss of some sort between Sally and Mrs. Ess Kay, and Sally came to me, very much upset, to say that she would have to leave the Moorings immediately, she couldn't stand it twenty-four hours longer, even for my sake. She had promised to visit a friend in Chicago sooner or later, so she would go straight to her, and if anything too tiresome should happen before I was ready to sail for home, I had better run out there—the friend would be delighted to have me. Sally gave me the address, and I told her I would write often, but of course I didn't dream of having to accept her invitation. I missed her badly, but not as much as if the wedding had not been so near.

Poor old Mohunsleigh—who knows more about the manners of polar bears than etiquette in American society—was coached by Potter, and the night before the wedding rehearsal reluctantly gave an elaborate dinner to his best man (an officer in Stan's regiment who happened to turn up) and the six ushers. The same day Carolyn had her matron of honor and the bridesmaids to lunch, and we did have fun talking over things. I should have thought a luncheon with all girls and no men might have been a little tame, and perhaps it would in England, but in America girls are not at all shy. They say just as funny things as men, and take the most beautiful pains to amuse each other, so that it's impossible to be bored, and for hours on end you forget there is such a creature as man.

At home Mohunsleigh would have had to give us things, of course, but in America it appears that the bridegroom makes presents to the best man and the ushers, so it was from Carolyn that I got a duck of a brooch, like an American flag, with stripes of diamonds and rubies and the blue part sapphires. Mohunsleigh said that, as he was awfully hard up, it was bad luck for him to have to provide each of the bridesmaids with bouquets and chiffon muffs, and he could not see at all that it was a pretty idea for everything they carried in their hands to come from the bridegroom. But as Sally had told me that Carolyn's father had settled ten million dollars on her, I don't think Mohunsleigh need have complained.

Although it was in a house, the wedding was very picturesque, and the bride and groom stood under a bell of white roses about as large as Big Ben.

YOUNG WIFE SAVED FROM HOSPITAL

Tells How Sick She Was And What Saved Her From An Operation.

Upper Sandusky, Ohio.—"Three years ago I was married and went to housekeeping. I was not feeling well and could hardly drag myself along. I had such tired feelings, my back ached, my sides ached, I had bladder trouble awfully bad, and I could not eat or sleep. I had headaches, too, and became almost a nervous wreck. My doctor told me to go to a hospital. I did not like that idea very well, so, when I saw your advertisement in a paper, I wrote to you for advice, and have done as you told me. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, and now I have my health.

"If sick and ailing women would only know enough to take your medicine, they would get relief."—Mrs. BENJ. H. STANSBERY, Route 6, Box 18, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

If you have mysterious pains, irregularity, backache, extreme nervousness, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait too long, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound now.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy and should give every one confidence.

DURBAR IN KINEMACOLOR

A red and gold umbrella and a fan shaped parasol ordinarily mean nothing to the people of America and Europe, other than to be used for the purpose of adornment or shading the eyes from the glare of the sun. But in India, the Land of Mystery and the Cradle of the World, the red and gold umbrella and the fan-shaped parasol will make four hundreds of millions of people bend the knee in subjection to those personages who are walking beneath the shade they cast.

In the recent grand Durbar ceremonials in India when King George of England and his Queen were proclaimed as Emperor and Empress of India, amid scenes of barbaric Oriental splendor, the red and gold umbrella of state and the fan-shaped parasol played important parts in all the ceremonies.

From the moment that King George and Queen Mary set foot upon the soil of India at the Apollo Bunder, the landing stage at Bombay, through all their progress to Calcutta, Delhi and other points, there was not a moment of their daily movements in which they were not accompanied by these emblems of state.

The red and gold umbrella is a gorgeous affair, being six feet in diameter and is made of red silk, embroidered and fringed with gold, and its stick is of solid gold, six feet long. It is borne by a high-caste Hindoo and is emblematic of power, and whether the Royal couple were on foot or in carriages, there was the insignia of Oriental might.

The fan-shaped parasol is called the "Sarajmulh" or "golden-face," and is emblematic of glory. This is made of silk and gold and set with jewels and is waved by an attendant over the heads of the King and Queen on all occasions.

By command of King George, all the ceremonies of the Great Durbar were photographed by the Kinemacolor process of recording motion pictures in their natural colors, and these same Durbar pictures have created the sensation of the year in New York, where they are being shown to crowded houses at the New York Theatre at the $1.50 scale of prices. The Durbar Kinemacolor Pictures have been secured as the attraction at the Grand, for 5 performances, commencing Monday April 1, with matinees Tuesday and Wednesday, and will be shown exactly as given in New York, but at popular prices which will range from 25c. to 50c., for the evening performances and 25c., any seat, for the matinees.

JUDGMENT FOR WIDOW

Mrs. Lillian Spence and Children Awarded $1,500

Damages to the extent of $1,500 were awarded Mrs. Lillian Spence and her two children, in her action against the Bell Telephone Company for the death of her husband, the late Wm. Spence, of Apsley.

The latter, it will be remembered, was killed by coming in contact with a live wire at the corner of Bloor and Chester streets, Toronto, on July 18th, 1911, while in the employ of the company.

Judgment for the plaintiff was as follows: Widow to receive $500 and to pay solicitor and client costs, $1,000 to be paid into court, $600 to credit of youngest infant, and $400 to the other.

Mr. E. A. Peck acted for the plaintiff. The case was heard before Justice Middleton at Toronto.

Norwood, March 26.—Arrangements have been made with the Alderville Indian band to give an entertainment here in the town hall on Friday evening of this week. The entertainment will be somewhat out of the ordinary. PENSION HYSTERIA

Said to be Sapping the Life of German Masses

Berlin, March 26.—In a lecture delivered before the German Association of Iron Founders, Prof. Bernhard, who is one of the best known among the young economists of Germany, pointed out some of the dangers of "social legislation."

He said that in the minds of the masses the idea had been formed that every illness, every accident, must lead to a pension. In consequence, people's attention was becoming morbidly concentrated on the processes going on in their own bodies. This produced those nervous phenomena which doctors described as "pension hysteria."

Appearing sporadically at the outset, Prof. Bernhard said, the disease had gradually developed into an epidemic, as to the prevalence of which doctors in all the industrial regions of Germany had unanimously reported.

This debilitating collateral effect of artisan insurance had, in consequence of the accommodating attitude of the Law Courts, attained dimensions so great that institutions with which it had been hoped to produce vigorous, happy human beings threatened to lead to the degeneration of the nation. Through excess, the idea of protecting artisans was actually resulting in injury to them.

It was necessary, the lecturer added to combat the mischievous practices under which sickness and pension and accident and pension were so bound up with one another that "pension hysteria" had become a national disease.

A LARGE EGG

A hen's egg weighing 3 3-4 ounces is not to be found every day. In fact they are laid so seldom that one is almost a novelty. Mr C. J. Schwerdt, 58 Victoria ave., brought one to the Review office this morning, which had been laid by a Plymouth Rock. The egg measured 6 inches around one way and 8 inches the other.

Mr. Schwerdt's hens seem to have a habit of laying freak eggs. They contributed a couple of very large ones last spring.

15 YEARS A DYSPEPTIC

Forced to Live on Stale Bread and Porridge.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" CURED HIM

AVONDALE, N. B., October, 15th.

"I have been a great sufferer from Indigestion for fifteen years. I was forced to deny myself all such hearty foods as beans, meats, potatoes and could not drink tea or coffee. For the past two years, I lived on porridge, stale bread, etc. I had treatment from two doctors, and tried nearly every kind of medicine, but got worse.

"Finally I saw a testimonial of "Fruit-a-tives" and concluded to give them a trial. I took nearly four boxes of "Fruit-a-tives" and they have made me feel like a new man. I can eat all kinds of hearty foods without suffering, and am no longer constipated."

LEMUEL A. W. BROWN.

Many people look on "Fruit-a-tives" as a miraculous medicine. It has indeed performed what have seemed like miraculous cures in hundreds of cases of chronic Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Constipation and Biliousness.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fresh fruit juices and valuable tonics. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size, 25c. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

Drastic Rules Regarding Solvency of Members Are Strictly Enforced.

There are times of crisis and panic on the Stock Exchange when the excitement is so tremendous that prices fluctuate with epileptic suddenness; clients fail to "cash up"; fortunes are lost, and big firms are ruined in an hour.

It is in such a roaring maelstorm as this that hundreds of frenzied brokers live in haunting fear of that dread "hammer" by which those who "come a cropper" are summarily executed on the floor of the "House" by one of their menial servants. There is no more impressive or poignant ceremony in the entire world of finance, no other Stock Exchange has adopted this curious disciplinary procedure.

The rules and regulations of the London institution, drastic in character, are enforced with remorseless severity, says Answers. Woe to the man who transgresses them!

Curiously enough, the "waiter" is not a waiter, but a messenger, and the "hammer" is not a hammer, but a mallet. When a member notifies the committee—or his exasperated creditors do it for him—that he cannot meet his engagements, his case is considered, and instructions are issued to the executioner.

The following morning, soon after the "House" has opened, the roaring, hustling, gesticulating crowd of members observe the head-waiter pushing his way to the fatal rostrum. There is a sudden and ominous hush. Armed with the big wooden mallet, he removes his hat, and strikes three blows on the side of the rostrum.

At the third stroke he cries, "Gentlemen!" and then proceeds to notify that "Mr. XX. begs to inform the 'House' he cannot comply with his bargains."

Then the hapless victim's name is posted on the notice-board. In former times, defaulters' names were painted on a big black board, and formed a permanent record of the disgrace. Nowadays, the name only remains on the notice-boards for a few hours.

Then, again, the Stock Exchange used to hush up these little domestic scandals; they now publish broadcast the name of every defaulter.

No sooner has the victim's name been posted than the previous uproar is resumed. A man has fallen, perhaps never to rise again, but his colleagues must continue the mad rush.

As a rule, the "hammered" man does not assist at his own execution. But a waiter once announced the name of a creditor, instead of the debtor. The former, a choleric old gentleman, happened to be standing by.

Purple with indignation, he hopped into the rostrum, grabbed the hammer from the bewildered waiter, viciously smote the rostrum, and roared:

"Gentlemen, it's a lie!" And so it proved.

One of the most sensational "hammering" campaigns occurred as a result of the Whitaker Wright failure in December, 1910. The crash was sudden; the value of the shares of all the Wright companies was cut down by half at one fell stroke.

The year-end festivities were overshadowed by the saddest scenes. In one day twenty-nine members were "hammered" amid deathlike silence by a waiter, who was pale as death, and shook like an aspen-leaf. Subsequent failures increased the holocaust; many eminent firms were ruined; the honor of the Stock Exchange was involved; public and stockbrokers lost heavily.

Wright, after escaping to America, was brought back to London, tried, and convicted, and he terminated his meteoric but tragic career by poisoning himself immediately after the trial. Superstitious people will probably see something significant in the fact that the most disastrous "hammerings" have occurred on Friday.

NEWS AROUND THE CIRCUIT

What Canadian League Ball Clubs Are Doing

The Hamilton players will report at Britannia park on Thursday, April 24, weather permitting. If the spring season is late, the date will be changed, but at present the call has been sent out for April 24. The first exhibition game is billed for April 27, a Toronto city league team being brought here for that day. Then will follow a series of games with the Cuban Giants, the Buffalo Pullmans and those old favorites, Niagara university, while to complete matters in every way, Secretary Robinson is putting through a deal whereby the Saginaw club of the Southern Michigan league, will be brought here for a series of games, starting May 4th.

The list of players who will be brought here on April 24th, is practically completed, lines being out for three more players only, and if these are secured there will be no further additions to the squad, which at the present time is as follows—

Catchers—Tom Hess, Fred Fisher, Buffalo; H. E. Wendelom, Jersey City.

Pitchers—Walter Teed, Chick Mueller, Bill Rose, Billy Garlow, Bert Mollinieux, Chas. Kehoe, Rochester; Eddie Durant, Maponset; Dennis O'Brien Binghampton.

Infielders—Martin Killilea, Clayton Brandow, Silver Groh, Paul Schilling Red Maguire, Dewitt Rossman, Philmont; Tots Homer, Philadelphia; Jack Farrel, Corona; J. Dickhout, Saugertis; Carl Marshall, Cleveland.

Outfielders—Knotty Lee, Corns, Carey. C. J. Pierce, Indianapolis; R.C. Boyd, Bridgeport; M. T. Madigan, Lakewood; E. Printup, Syracuse.

Two infielders and an outfielder will be added to this lot in a few days, one of the infielders being a first baseman, and then the squad will be complete. This will bring the squad up to thirty players.

Garlow and Printup are both Indians. Garlow is one of the most promising of the lot of recruits.—Hamilton Spectator.

The Ottawas will have about twenty men on the list when they assemble at Chatham on the 29th of April. The players who will be on hand, will be Rowe and Shortsleeve catchers, Draper and Hannifin, pitchers, and possibly Munson, the big twirler from Burlington, Hopewell and Collingwood, first basemen, Cook and Harrison, second basemen, McMahon short stop, O'Brien, third baseman, and Burke, outfielder. Frank Shaughnessy will send a bunch of recruits up from Fort Wayne a couple of days after the Ottawas get down to business—Ottawa Journal.

Manager Deneau landed another right-handed pitcher in Hendershot He is a giant in build and has a good reputation, control being his fort, the other with a good baseball brain mixed a repertoire fast and slow shoots.

Rube Deneau has everything in readiness at Windsor for the training camp, having booked a number of games with the fastest teams around the City of the Straits and promises to have the champions in the very best of condition by May 14, when they will likely be pitted against the pick of the whole of the New England League, that Ambrose Kane has corralled for the Red Sox in Brantford.

Rube intends to take the measure of the Ottawa Senators, who will be training at Chatham, in a game there as soon as Manager Shaughnessy is ready.

The uniforms of the champions are the same that are worn in the big league and will certainly put to shame last year's outfit. With the new green coats, the champs will look about the smartest bunch on the road.—Berlin Telegraph.

TRIALS IN ITALY.

Criminal Court Methods There Utterly Different From Ours.

Criminal court trials in Italy are conducted under a very simple system, though utterly different from the system which governs procedure in American & English courts, says an exchange.

The trial takes place before three judges and a jury, to which are added a certain number of extra jurors, who are sworn and are present in court to hear the testimony and are held ready to take the place in the jury box of any juror who may in the course of the trial be incapacitated from further service. The depositions of all the witnesses have been taken in writing and signed before the trial begins. Each of the judges has a copy of these before him. The prosecutor and the counsel for the accused furnish to the court a list of the witnesses they desire called, and these are all summoned by the court, which has power to punish nonattendance.

The first thing that happens when the trial begins is the questioning of the accused by the presiding justice. In Italy, as in most of continental Europe, a man accused of a crime is considered by the law to be the very best witness to his own guilt or innocence. In England and America the accused need not testify unless he chooses. In Italy he is the first and most important witness.

The accused is allowed the widest scope in defending himself. He has a right to tell his own story in his own way, to offer anything he can in the way of justification or palliation. Even hearsay evidence is admissible. The judge has absolute discretion as to what testimony may be received and what excluded, and any judge who exercised this discretion unfairly would be an object of execration. Bias on the part of one judge is possible, but there are always the other two judges on the bench with him, and they are a perfect check against unfairness.

When the accused has given his testimony he is confronted personally with his accuser. The accuser is necessarily the principal witness against him. Strictly speaking, the prisoner has no right to interrupt his accuser while the latter is telling his story, but in practice the judges permit it, and the confrontation sometimes becomes a three cornered debate between accuser, accused and judge, the latter giving the accused the widest leeway to demonstrate his innocence.—Case and Comment.

Pages of the Past.

At the opening of Glasgow's huge new library, the Earl of Rosebery, in a characteristic speech, deplored the nightmare of platitudes which the opening of many libraries left behind. The new collection, which now forms the chief library in the city, and will be known as the Mitchell Library, has been magnificently raised at a cost of $500,000. It has accommodation for 400,000 volumes and 500 readers in its spacious halls.

Lord Rosebery, with a delightful effort to seem miserable, lamented how difficult it was to find something to say on such an occasion. The subject of libraries, he thought, was exhausted. For Mr. Carnegie told him the other day that he had founded 2,200 libraries. Well, that was an enormous work of beneficence, and it meant that 2,200 speeches had been delivered in connection with the founding of all those libraries.

When he heard of all those speeches, and when Mr Carnegie told him that he (Lord Rosebery) had opened the first library in Dunfermline, he felt as if he had opened them all. With that horrible nightmare behind him it almost robbed him of speech, when he thought of the hundreds of libraries he had opened with the customary platitudes.

Whistled the Tune.

The death, at Snainton, Yorks, of Rev. Wm. S. Salmon recalls a curious custom that obtained in Elinton Parish Church, near Welback, Notts, Eng. The church possessed no organ, and when the Psalm or hymn was announced the parish clerk used to stride over the pews to the chancel, and there, facing the congregation, gravely whistle the tune.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles, but none that we can recommend as highly as this, for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once.

Of course other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we can tell you all about D.D.D. Prescription and how it cures eczema, because we have had the agency for so long.

Or you can get a free trial bottle by writing the D.D.D. Laboratories, 49 Colborne street, Toronto.

ALBERT PARRISH KILLED IN FALL AT VANCOUVER

Wife and Relatives Here Anxiously Awaiting Further Information.

Vancouver, B.C., March 27—When a scaffold gave way at a mill at False Creek yesterday, Albert Parrish a young machinist, whose parents live in Toronto, was killed. He was thrown into the water with several hundred pounds of iron above him.

The above despatch, it is practically certain, refers to Albert Parrish, who scarcely three weeks ago left Peterborough for Vancouver where he had secured employment in a mill at the place mentioned in the despatch. Mr. John Sadler 466 1-2 Gilmour street, brother-in-law of the young man reported killed, called at the police station to-day seeking information as to the best plan to find if the young mentioned was Albert Parrish, formerly of Peterborough. Chief Thompson advised him to wire the Chief of Police of Vancouver, and until an answer is obtained his anxiety will not be relieved.

There appears to be little reason to doubt however, that the reported victim is any other than the young man known here.

WORKED AT C. G. E.

He left the Canadian General Electric Works this month, where he was employed in the punch press department, in the capacity of dye setter. He was a general favorite with the other employes, and had been with the Company for a period of about a year and a half. He left a wife and child here, who reside at the residence of Mr. Sadler, 466 1-2 Gilmour street. The first intimation that the latter received that the party named in the despatch might be his brother-in-law, was from the last evening's Toronto papers.

NEW ARRIVALS FROM OLD COUNTRY

Business is Brisk With the Immigration Officer

Business around the immigration officers' headquarters is quite brisk these days, and the agent is kept hustling to provide arrivals from the land across the sea with suitable employment.

Now that the spring season is opening, the demand for farm help is commencing to manifest itself, and farmers seem to naturally wend their way to the immigration office to have their wants satisfied in that line.

A family from Lincolnshire, Eng., arrived in the city on Wednesday, consisting of husband and wife, and six children, five boys and one daughter. The two oldest boys are nineteen and seventeen respectively, and the girl is four. They are a particularly bright appearing group, and should do well in Canada.

Mr. Howson placed the two oldest boys out at good employment, and the remainder of the family will go to Mount Pleasant, where they will be employed by Mr. Alex. Fee.

GETS FORTUNE UNEXPECTEDLY

Mechanic at Port Arthur Fall Heir to Two Million and a Half

Fort William, Ont., March 28—John Dazcey, a rivetter, employed at the dry dock in Port Arthur, left work at noon yesterday and came over to this city, informing his friends and relatives that he had succeeded to a windfall.

Investigation show that notification had been sent the man that an uncle in Chicago, unheard of for fifteen years, died some time ago leaving an estate of $2,500,000. Dancey had only just been traced. Everything was left to himself and his family.

SPORTS AT Y. M. C. A.

There should be a good crowd present at the Eko-Hustler game tonight at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium. Both teams are playing fast ball, the Eko's having not lost a game this season, although they have had some close calls. The Hustlers have been practicing of fate, and they expect the Ekos in to-nights' game. The game will be handled by C. E. Sisson and Physical Director Thompson, and is called for 8.30 sharp.

Friday evening the Brownies and Nemos meet for the first time this season in the City League series, and it is needless to say that it will be a game worth seeing. Game will be called at 9 p.m.

Saturday evening at 8.30 the Nemos and Hustlers play off their postponed game in the City League, which will finish up the first half of the schedule.

The city Juvenile Basketball League has been organized with three teams entered, and will open their season on Saturday night with a game between the Midgets and Electrics. Game called at 8 p.m.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM MRS. HILFORD, WEST AFRICA

Below is given a letter received by Mr. A. J. Johnston of the Nugent Drug Company, from his daughter, who, with her husband, Rev. Mr. Hilford, has commenced missionary work in West Africa, they having left Peterboro last September.

A continuation of the interesting letter will be published to-morrow.

Sierra Leone.

At last we have reached our new home and I wish you could see us. You could not imagine one any more different from our old home. The situation is beautiful (please remember that there is one beautiful thing about it.) We are on the top of a high hill, and across a small valley there is the village. The hill is covered with burnt grass and a few shrubs, but there are no trees except two large cotton woods, one on each side of the house about fifty feet away. We get a good breeze up here. They say that soon the desert winds, very fierce ones, will begin to blow.

The house is built of mud and and stands about a foot off the ground on posts with large tin wash basins, covered with tar inverted over them in order to keep the white ants or buggy bugs out of the house. The roof is of grass and extends over a verandah in front. The verandah is just the ground picked hard, and has a mud wall about two feet high around it. At present we use it as a dining room, kitchen and parlor, but when we have things finished we shall use it only as a place in which to receive the people.

There are three rooms in the house, but only one has a floor or a ceiling, and this one we have as our bedroom, Mr. Roseberry sleeps in a tent and Mr. Evans in a little shack. The floor is made of split poles and is covered with native mats, while the ceiling is a layer of palm poles laid on the rafters. Later we shall cover this with mats on the under side, and on the floor we shall have about six inches of mud and then linoleum. There are two windows in each room. Those in our room are covered with wire netting, and have small pieces of matting hung over them for blinds. There is only one door in the house, and that also is in our room. This is the house as we found it, but, of course, it will be changed soon. We are to have the doors from the Tibabidugu house as they do not intend to open that station again, Mr. Evans and Mr Roseberry are going over there on Tuesday, and will bring back everything which will be useful and is movable. They also have to find out the attitude of the king, because reports have reached us that he does not want us here. However, the chief here is very glad to have us. He favored us with a state call last evening. We sat on a pile of poles out in the yard; he and two others sat on our steamer trunk, and the rest sat on the ground; by the rest I mean about forty men who came with him.

We do not have very much worldly goods here, as carriers are difficult to obtain, and so most of our stuff is still at Makomp. But we shall get it all in time. In the meanwhile we are leading the simple life for very obvious reasons. It is surprising how little is really necessary. We have two camp beds, a canvas wash basin and wash tub with a frame to hold them, our two steamer rugs, one blanket, two single sheets and a mosquito net, also five towels. There were a few dishes and cooking utensils here, but there is no stove; we just use a little bonfire for cooking, and a mud oven on the ground for baking. There are two men who help me a little. Needless to say, this is not a typical station. The down country stations are very nice and they did not want me to come up here until they had it fixed up somewhat, but I thought that Mr. Hilford could work better if I was here, and I did not want to be away from him so long. Things are very rough, but I am glad that I came.

The men eat rice because it is the cheapest food, but I cannot eat it yet. It costs five cents a pound to have things brought up here, and we have to have everything in small tins which also increases the cost. I have flour in seven pound tins and sugar in four pound tins. We get bananas at three dozen for six cents, small, native eggs at a cent a piece, and paw-paws which are something like musk melons, at a cent a piece also. The goats came through safely and Nannie gives a little milk now, but will of course give more when she gets over the effects of the long journey. Milk is about the most expensive thing we have to use and so it will be quite a saving when she milks well.

The rats are very bad here. Last night they made so much noise that we could not get to sleep for a long time. It sounded as if they were playing football with some tin cans over our ceiling, they enjoyed some of the rice with which the chief presented us, and while it was being digested thye pulled Mr. Hilford's boots around the floor. When Mr. Roseberry goes to Tibabidugu he is going to try to get a cat as there is not one in this town. The people eat cats. There are a good many lizards in the house also, but I don't mind them much because they eat flies.

Ever since I began to write there has been a crowd around to watch me. The people here are very bad thieves and we have to watch everything closely.

The trip up was a long and weary one but it is over at last and I don't feel as if I shall want to go down country again until it is time to go home, but I suppose when council time comes I shall be glad to go. Until then I shall probably not see another white woman. I am the first white woman who has been stationed in this tribe for about ten years and the only one who ever lived here. We left Makomp on Saturday morning, spent Sunday at Masumbiri, travelled two days to Tendugu, spent Wednesday there and reached here at noon yesterday. We made some heavy marches, sometimes getting up at four o'clock, sometimes travelling seven hours before dinner and all over a very hilly country. There was a tremendous hill just this side of Masumbiri which was almost too much for me because I could not eat much and was a little weak, but it would have been hard for any woman. I was the first white woman who ever crossed it. During that same morning we crossed a stretch of country which I think must have been the path of a lava stream, nothing will grow there except one kind of grass and this had just been burnt off. O! it was hot, the sun just blazed down on us.

It is time for me to get supper so I must close.

Lovingly yours,
GRACE HILFORD.

P. S.—From Mr. Hilford.

Mrs. Hilford asked me to write a few words. We are here at last, and really I am so glad that I do not know how to behave myself. You see we have been on the road for nearly six months now, and I was quite homesick. Now we have our own little home once more, and though it is only a poor little mud house, we are quite happy. Our coming to Koronko country was a big surprise, but a pleasant one. This is a very healthful section and you need have no fears along that line. We can see from five to twenty-five miles in all directions. Have a good water supply, and a little later we will have a better food supply as well. We got our goats through safely, much to the surprise of Mr. Evans. They stood the trip very well, in fact Billy pulled us up the hills at times. A little later our flock will have increased and then we will be quite independent of the tinned milk supply. Soon our own hens will furnish the eggs and our pigeons will furnish squabs for the table. The hills abound with deer, buffalo, some elephants, etc., so we will get on nicely along those lines at least.

MEN ASK FOR INCREASED WAGE

G.T.R. Freight Sheds Staff Send In Notice.

The whole staff of the local G.T.R. freight sheds are prepared to quit work on the first day of April, as they have not received an answer from the G.T.R. authorities to their request for more wages.

Three weeks ago the men decided that they were not receiving just remuneration for their work. They have to handle a lot of very heavy freight and lately their duties have been hurried as well as laborious. Their present wage is $1.50 per day, or nine dollars a week, and three weeks ago all the men, including the foreman, sent in their resignations, to take effect on April the first, unless their pay was raised by the company.

Up till to-day there has been no indication of the company acceding to the demand, and the men, therefore, expect to leave work in a body on the first day of next month.

A law suit involving millions will be opened in London, June 10, when the telephone companies of Great Britain will make claims concerning the price of the plant recently taken over by the Government.

REV. MR. WALLACE ON THE REFORMATION

One of the brightest and most interesting addresses ever given in St. John's, was delivered last evening by Rev. T. J. Wallace, rector of St. Stephen's, Toronto, who spoke on the great "English Reformation."

Mr Wallace pointed out that the Reformation was not one act, but a slow deliberate process extending over one hundred years. He traced the different movements during that time. The Reformation he thought, was partly the result of a revival of learning and the translation of the Bible into the English tongue. There were two forces at work, Conservative and Liberal; those who were disposed to retain as much ancient heritage as possible, and those whose desires reached out to new light and simpler ways. No doubt one side strove for outward order and beauty, and the other for simple truth, and it was many years before a true balance was reached, which in the end however, was satisfactorily accomplished, and in consequence of which the Church of England enjoyed distinguishing freedom.

The lecture was heard by a large audience.

LIKES THE CHIMES

Rev. Mr. Wallace, privately expressed himself as an admirer of the quality and tone of the People's Chimes.

WHEELS ON THE FIRE TRUCKS

After eighty-two days of continuou sleighing the Fire Department yesterday replaced the runners on the various conveyances by wheels. The runners were put on the sleighs on January 4th, and taken off on the 27th of March, making a period of 82 days, during which time, the sleighs were used.

Last winter, the department went on sleighs on November 30th and changed to wheels on February 27th making ninety days of continuous sleighing. This shows that the period of sleighing in the winter of 1911, was only eight days longer than that of this year, although in 1912 the sleighing didn't commence till a date two months later than in 1911.

The last of the old level bridges at the Humber, in Humber Bay, Ont., is being taken to pieces so that a new structure may be erected to complete the four track bridge as planned by the Grand Trunk Railway at that point. The wooden piles which are thickly set beneath the bridge, are also being cut off ten feet below water level for fear that they might block the stream when the spring floods arrive.

Toronto, March 1st, 1912.

W. H. HILL, ESQ.,
Manager,
Sun Life Assurance Co.,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I wish to thank the Sun Life Assurance Company, through you, for the prompt and very satisfactory settlement of my 15 year Endowment Policy, No. 64345, which matured and was paid me to-day,

I have also a 15 year Endowment maturing to-day in a leading British Company.

The contrast, in the results, in favor of your Company is so marked that I want you to know it, but I am at a loss to know how such a difference could honestly occur. When I tell you that the profits in your Company are three and one-third times the profits in the other Company referred to, and this too notwithstanding I paid the other Company $1.15 per year more per $1000 than I paid you, you will realize my inability to comprehend the cause.

This is surely a tribute to the management of the Sun Life, and I am so well pleased I have applied for further insurance with you.

Incidentally, I would like to say a word for your loan privilege. As you are aware, I borrowed some money on my policy, a little over a year ago, which enabled me to obtain a substantial interest in a town site in the Northwest, and you will be pleased to learn that it has already yielded substantial gain and gives promise to pay hundreds per cent., so that it is impossible to fully realize the value of that Policy to me.

I thought as an old Peterborough boy you would be pleased to know I am delighted with the result.

Yours truly,
(Signed) ROBERT E. DOLAN.

THE EYE LIKE A CAMERA

The eye is constructed so wonderfully and ingeniously that the handicraft of man has not as yet been able to construct as delicate an instrument. It is like a camera—the lens to focus, the lid as a shutter, the iris or color as the diaphram, the thick coatings of the eye-ball as the dark room, the nerve as the sensitive plate, and strange as it may seem, the images are bottom side up exactly as the image in the camera. Now so delicate and sensitive an instrument as the eye should have good care. Let us explain more fully to you how to care for the eyes.

MANY MIXED MARRIAGES IN ONTARIO

Large Number Shown by Official Report.

Toronto, March 28—How numerous are mixed marriages in the Province of Ontario is shown conclusively by the official report of the Deputy Registrar General McCullough, which has just been made public. There were 665 men and 844 women of the Roman Catholic faith who married others than members of their own church.

Roman Catholic men to the number of 178 married as many Anglican women: 126 Roman Catholic grooms took Presbyterian brides; 157 Catholics took Methodists, 68 Baptists 10 Congregationalists, 85 Lutherians On the other hand, 259 Roman Catholic brides married Anglican grooms, 164 married Presbyterians; 203 took Methodists; 52 took Baptists; 11 took Congregationalists; 79 married Lutherans; 5 married Jews.

SHOULD BE ADVERTISED

"In our opinion, all licenses to marry should be advertised in a local newspaper. This would have the effect of checking clandestine marriages."

Such is one of the recommendations made by Dr. McCullough.

In summing up the total of marriages for the year 1910 in the Province Dr. McCullough observes that the city of Windsor continues to be the Gretna Green of Ontario. In 1906 there were 1,193 weddings at that place, and in 1910 no less than 2,293.

MANY AMERICAN MARRIAGES

"The cause of the above abnormal increase," observes the report, "is due to the influx of the Americans from all over the United States to this particular point for the expressed purpose of having their marriage celebrated under Ontario laws. This is not because our law is more binding, but because it is so secret.

"Parties may procure a license for the statuory fee of $2,00 and by declaring by affidavit that the reason for procuring the marriage to be celebrated in Windsor is not in order to evade due publicity or for any other improper reason, the marriage is celebrated and no questions asked."

There were 24,036 marriages registered for the year 1910. This is an increase of 1,670 for the year.

There were 55,871 births, males 28,664, females 22,207. Deaths totalled 33,539.

ADDED ESTIMATES.

Hon. Mr. White Asks For a Further Twenty Millions.

Ottawa, March 27.—The supplementary estimates for the fiscal year were laid on the table by Hon. W. T. White, Minister of Finance, last night, amounting to $19,610,039.80. Of this amount $13,072,526.89 is chargeable to consolidated fund, and $3,537,512.91 is chargeable to capital account.

One of the most interesting of the new items is the half million dollars for subsidies to the provinces of Canada for the encouragement of agriculture, and a million dollars as subsidies for the improvement of highways. These amounts have been carefully divided amongst the several provinces according to population.

The subsidy for agriculture is divided as follows: Ontario, $175,833.32; Quebec, $139,482.40; Nova Scotia, $34,288.45; New Brunswick, $24,509.93; Prince Edward Island, $6,529.85; British Columbia $27,334.76; Manitoba, $31,730.05; Saskatchewan, $34,296.29; Alberta, $26,094.95.

One million dollars for highways is divided as follows: Ontario, $351,466.64; Quebec, $278,964.80; Alberta, $52,189.90; British Columbia, $54,669.52; Manitoba, $63,460.10; New Brunswick, $49,019.86; Nova Scotia, $68,576.90; Prince Edward Island, $13,059.70; Saskatchewan, $68,592.58.

For the construction of the Hudson Bay Railway and for the building of terminals and elevators at the harbor, there is a vote of $1,500,000. There is also placed in the estimates a sum of $200,000 to start work on the Welland ship canal.

Improvements to the Lachine Canal make another $200,000. There is a million dollars for the improvement of the Quebec harbor and $100,000 to start the first section of the Georgian Bay Canal down the French River to North Bay.

The Government has to erect a magnificent Dominion Government building at the heart of the City of London, Eng., as a million dollar for this purpose is placed in the estimates.

The Government is evidently preparing, in view of the approaching negotiations for closer trade relations with the West Indies, for a faster mail service between the islands and the Dominion, as $150,000 for a subsidy is to be found in the estimates.

One of the interesting smaller items is $100,000 to be expended in paving out and constructing the historic Quebec battlefield, $5,000 for a Champlain monument and $20,000 for the Cartier monument at Montreal; $15,000, a grant towards the expenses of a Canadian athletic team at the International Olympic games at Sweden, and $60,000 for the new tariff commission, while $200,000 is devoted to the purpose of carrying out an extended rural mail delivery service and a million and a half is placed in the estimates for the construction, acquisition, leasing or expropriation of terminal elevators at Fort William.

Popular Railway Policy of the Premier of British Columbia Has Proven a Universal Appeal to the Electors—Former Opposition of Three Members Has It Is Thought Been Wiped Out.

Vancouver, B.C., March 29—Premier "Dick" McBride has swept British Columbia again. Just how complete the Conservative victory is cannot be determined as yet, but the returns received indicate that the Opposition, which at dissolution consisted of one Liberal and two Socialists in a House of 42 seats, will be wiped out. All seats thus far heard from have gone Conservative on McBride's railway policy.

In Vancouver the five Conservatives lead by 1,000. They are W. J. Bowser,

HON. RICHARD M'BRIDE.

A. H. B. MacCowan, Dr. M. A. McGuire, Harry Watson and C. E. Tisdale.

In New Westminster final returns give Gifford, Conservative, 1,010, and Kennedy, Liberal, 385.

LOST HIS HOME THROUGH FIRE

Another Misfortune Met With by Mr. Wm. Corneil

When Mr. William Corneil, left this city on Monday morning, after a visit with friends, little did he think that on the morrow, his home in South Ops. a short distance from Lindsay, would be destroyed by fire. But such misfortune came to him on Tuesday night, when his home together with all its contents were swept away by the fire fiend.

Mr. Corneil had put a fire on in the stove about seven o'clock before going out to the stable. He was out about half an hour, and when returning to the house noticed a bright light about the dwelling. He hurried on and when about to enter the house, was driven back by the dense smoke and flame. The interior of the house was a fiery furnace, and it was impossible to save anything except a cream separator. Mr. Corneil attempted to gain entrance through a window, and had his hands badly cut by the broken glass.

Mr. Corneil lived some distance from his neighbors, who, when the fire was noticed, hurried to the scene Nothing could be done, however, as the flames had complete control and it was not long before the house was completely destroyed.

Fortunately the wind was blowing from the west and this prevented the sparks being carried towards the barns and stables.

It is understood that Mr. Cornell had some insurance in the London Mutual, but his loss will be a heavy one.

It is only about one year ago that the hand of death visited the Corneil home, and the wife and mother was removed. Since that time, other misfortunes have arisen, and altogether Mr. Corneil's experiences are such as will call for the sympathy of his numerous friends, many of whom are in this city.

THAT WINNIPEG MARRIAGE

Winnipeg, March 29. — A special bill has been forwarded to Parliament at Ottawa to annul the marriage of Dorothy Rogers, aged 17, who met Chas. Watson, aged 40, through correspondence and promptly married him, only to desert him on the street immediately after the ceremony.

U. S. STRIKE IS IMMINENT

Cleveland, O., March 29.—Little prospect of settling the bituminous coal miners' wage dispute to prevent a strike next Monday and the shutting down of practically all mines operated by union men was seen by the operators and union officials yesterday after they had conferred for hours and had failed to agree.

The lack of any steps toward an immediate settlement and the fact that only two more days intervene before both the anthracite and bituminous wage scales expire were said to make it almost certain that a widespread stoppage of coal production will begin next week for an uncertain period, and a strike, involving about 500,000 men, may ensue.

The situation last night was:

The miners in the anthracite fields of Pennsylvania will quit Sunday midnight, because their agreements with the operators expire at that time, and no new agreement, even if it were being considered, could be put into effect in time to prevent the suspension. The union officials declare the suspension virtually will be a strike.

The contracts of the miners in the bituminous regions also expire on Sunday at midnight, and they probably will suspend because they have no new agreement on which to continue.

Officials of the union assert if a strike in both classes of mines is called it will entail a loss of pay to the men of approximately $1,000,000 a day.

A conference, held in the hope that a strike, or even a suspension in the bituminous mines might still be averted, was without result up to last night.

NO VOTES FOR THE WOMEN

London, March 29.—By a vote of 222 to 208 the House of Commons last night rejected the conciliation bill, which was before the House on its second reading. This measure aimed at conferring the right to vote upon every woman possessed of the household qualification and would enfranchise 1,000,000 women.

The announcement of the result was received with deafening cheers. Last year a similar bill, introduced by Sir George Kemp, passed the second reading stage by a vote of 255 to 88 on a non-party division and was referred to a committee of the whole House, making no further progress. The astounding reversal in the views of the members which has since taken place is attributed to the strong resentment aroused by the window-smashing tactics of the militant suffragists.

The bill is a private measure, not backed by the Government, and in recording their votes the members were not restrained by party considerations.

The debate presented the novel spectacle of members of the Cabinet taking opposite sides. The Prime Minister strongly opposed the bill on the ground that there was no evidence that it was desired by a majority of either the men or the women of the country, and in his opinion the proposed change would be injurious to the best interests of women and fraught with the gravest consequences to future good government.

Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Secretary, on the other hand, gave it as his opinion that the enfranchisement of women would neither injure the state nor the home, but would benefit both, as had been proved in all countries where it had been tried.

Crowds of suffragettes were awaiting the result of the vote outside the House and strong forces of police were held in readiness for emergencies.

Although there is no doubt that resentment over the window-smashing resulted in the transfer of many votes which otherwise would have been given in favor of the conciliation bill, an analysis of the voting shows that its defeat in the final instance was directly due to the attitude of the Nationalists, not one of whom voted in its favor. Forty-one of the Nationalists voted against the bill and ten abstained from voting.

Set-back For Anti-Gamblers.

Providence, R.I., March 29.—A bill to establish a state police force, which the Republican platform in the last campaign advocated as a means to suppress gambling, was defeated in the House yesterday by a vote of 48 to 28. Governor Pothier, who recently began a crusade against gambling, had favored this bill.

The representatives from practically every town and city which the governor has visited in the course of his crusade, voted against the bill.

DURBAR IN KINEMACOLOR
The King-Emperor Entering Delhi Through the Famous Elephant Gate

DURBAR IN KINEMACOLOR

One of the most thrilling scenes of the great Durbar Ceremony when King George and Queen Mary were proclaimed as Emperor and Empress of India, was the state entry into Delhi, amid the plaudits of more than one million of the diversified races of India.

This entry was made through what is known as The Elephant, or Delhi Gate, from the vast plain that surrounds the city, without the walls. The Elephant Gate is a huge structure of marble and is pierced by the single arch through which the procession passed. On either side of the gate within, are the two monster elephants carved out of solid blocks of marble, which give it its name. These monster elephants were the spoils of victory of one of the Moguls or Emperors of Delhi in the fourteenth century and were brought a long distance to the spot where they now rest.

One of the most inspiring scenes recorded in motion and natural colors by the wonderful invention of Kinemacolor, is that of the entry of the Royal Pageant of the Durbar procession through this Elephant Gate.

The Durbar pictures in Kinemacolor were taken by Charles Urban, the inventor, by royal command of King George and the pictures have created a sensation in London and New York, in the latter city being presented at the New York Theatre to crowded houses at regular Broadway prices.

Arrangements have been made for the superb Kinemacolor Durbar Pictures to be shown in this city, exactly as in New York and popular prices will prevail during the engagement at the "Grand" for three days. commencing Monday, April 1st, with matinee Tuesday and Wednesday.

The scale of prices has been set at 25c., any seat for the matinees, and 25c. and 50c. for evenings, with the gallery at 15c.

"BUNTY PULLS THE STRING"

Once in ten years or so there comes a play that works its way into the hearts of the people, by sheer force of its appeal to human nature and human recognition. While its fame may be heralded across the country, we do not believe and appreciate until we have seen and heard.

Mr. Moffat's Highland comedy of "Bunty Pulls the Strings," has made the writer famous. Not the first of his efforts, but the one that appeals to human appreciation. It delineates that phase of Scottish character and reflects Scottish attributes.

Verbal description is wholly inadequate. Mere words fail to describe the delicious comedy, the quaint fun, the hits at Scottish characteristics, the portrayal of personal feeling. It must be seen and heard to be appreciated.

The whole thing was a finished piece of work absolutely flawless Miss Mollie McIntyre is irresistible is "Bunty". Mr. E. Hales as "Tammas Biggar," a production of the spirit of the old Covenanters, who put orthodoxy, the catachism and the Sabbath observance beyond anything else. Mr. Lennox as Weelum Sprunt, was so stolid and insensible that half of the men in the audience longed to clamber on to the stage and wake him up. He was the character the writer of the play asked for to life.

All through the company was more than excellent. It was a revelation of good acting. A clean, wholesome, lively and deliciously quaint presentation, true to life and twice as natural.

The local management are to be congratulated on securing such an admirable feature for the entertainment of its patrons.

The Annual Y.W.C.A. Gymnasium Exhibition and Concert will be held in the Collegiate Assembly Hall this evening. Tickets 25 and 35 cents.

DOMINION GOVERNMENT VOTES SUBSIDY FOR T. & N.O.

Opposition Speakers Claim That the Road Is Now Paying Its Way and Should Therefore Not Get Any Help —It Should Get Some Assistance as a Private Venture Replies the Premier—Debated Three Hours.

Ottawa, March 29.—Ontario gets her $2,000,000 subsidy from the Dominion Government for the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway. The bill providing for this was given its third reading and passed last evening, after the Opposition had expressed their disapproval in a debate lasting three hours.

Their main argument was that it was indefensible to grant a subsidy to a railway already constructed and paying its way, an argument which was replied to by the Premier to the effect that the road was not completed, and the line to Hudson Bay could not be expected to pay for some years at least. There was no reason, he said, why a subsidy should not be given to a Government-owned road that would have been given a private-built road.

When the House went into committee on the bill to grant a subsidy of about $2,000,000 to the Ontario Government for the T. & N. O. Railway, Hon. Frank Cochrane declared that, in the opinion of the chairman of the Dominion Railway Commission, there was no better constructed roadbed in America than the Ontario Government line. It had been of great advantage in the building of the National Transcontinental, said Mr. Cochrane, and he was certain that the amount saved to the N.T.R. by being able to use it in getting in supplies, would equal nearly half the subsidy to be granted.

If any province should undertake to build a road to open up its territory, he added, the policy of the Government was to grant it financial aid in such construction.

F. B. Carvell (Carleton, N.B.) argued that if the road were paying running expenses and interest on its bonds and, moreover, were not getting $300,000 or $400,000 a year additional from the Grand Trunk for running rights over its line, there was no justification for the proposed subsidy.

Hugh Clark (N. Bruce) declared that the T. & N. O. was a paying venture, but that made no difference. "We are making a tardy acknowledgment to the Government of Ontario for building that pioneer road," he said.

Rt. Hon. R. L. Borden said it would be difficult to maintain the position that the subsidies should not be granted provinces which would be granted to private companies. If the history of railway subsidies for the past twenty years were scrutinized, he thought they would find that subsidies had been granted for roads already constructed.

An application had been made by the Province of Ontario at the time the T. & N. O. was being constructed, but had been refused. Why should the Province of Ontario, he asked, be placed in a worse position because this principle of aid to Government-built railways was not recognized when the road was built?

The result of the principle advocated by the Opposition, he added, would mean that every subsidy granted by the Dominion should be given back if the road proved a success.

E. M. MacDonald (Pictou) claimed that the Premier was penurious to Nova Scotia, but was make a gift of $2,000,000 to Ontario.

Donald Sutherland (S. Oxford) resented the insinuation that the subsidy was a gift to Ontario. It was a mere matter of justice.

Dr. Clark (Red Deer) thought that if Ontario had been modest in the past, it would soon get over it under the present Minister of Railways. There was something to be said for the Ontario view.

W. H. Bennett (E. Simcoe): "The majority they gave."

"I did not think," Dr. Clark answered, "that my honorable friend from Simcoe would have so readily given me the ground on which to sow the argument I was about to make. Certainly if the principle, 'to the victors belong the spoils' were to obtain, Ontario should get the subsidy."

It was absolutely undefensible, however, he argued, to grant a subsidy to a road already built, and a paying proposition. The time was coming when the whole question of subsidies would have to be more carefully looked into.

E. B. Devlin (Wright) protested against the expenditure as an injustice to the other provinces, especially to his own Province of Quebec. The Government was afflicted with a surplus of $39,000,000 and were trying hard to get rid of it, but they had nothing for the building of the Georgian Bay Canal, which the late Government was just on the point of building before Sept. 21.

The Government, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said, were opening the door to consequences they did not realize. If the Province of Quebec, for instance, next year launched out into extravagant railway construction, what was to prevent them coming to the Dominion and demanding aid to help them out?

Either it was a provincial or a national road. If it was a provincial road, it had no right to the subsidy. If it were a national road it should be kept as a national road. If it were to be treated the same as a corporation railway, it should be treated as a corporation railway right along. It should not only claim the benefits, but should also assume the obligations of a Dominion subsidy.

LINDSAY VISITED BY BAD FIRE

Premises of Knitting Company Completely Gutted

Lindsay, Ont., March 29.—At six o'clock last evening a fire broke out in the building occupied by the Hood Knitting Co., Kent street, west, and notwithstanding the efforts of the firemen, the building was completely gutted and a large portion of the stock and machinery destroyed. It was after the employes had quit work and the place locked up for the night, all hands having gone home, so that it is impossible to tell how the fire originated. The senior member of the firm being out of town, information regarding the amount of stock and insurance on building and stock could not be ascertained. The building was owned by the company and they employed from 15 to 20 operators.

Senate Is Determined.

Ottawa, March 29.—To break the deadlock between the House of Commons and the Senate over the Highways Act, it is very possible a conference may be held between representatives of both parties from the two bodies. The Senate amended the Highways Act, and yesterday the Government refused to accept the amendment, and the bill was sent back to the Upper Chamber.

The Liberal Senators said last night they would not back down, and the measure, which is one of the most important and most popular of the session, will have to be dropped unless an agreement is reached. A million dollars has been placed in the estimates for the improvement of highways in Canada, and this item will have to be dropped unless the bill is passed.

Rise In Wholesale Prices.

Ottawa, March 29.—Yesterday morning Mr. Crothers tables a special report on wholesale prices with special reference to the high cost of living. It shows that prices now are considerably higher than ever before, the advance in ten years having been some 45 per cent. The raise in retail prices in the year was five per cent. and in wholesale prices three per cent.

The 1911 prices reached a higher level than within the present generation. As far as the Department of Labor can find out, the only years in which those compared with 1911 were 1882-84 and 1872-3.

THIRD ANNIVERSARY AT ST. JAMES'

REV. P. P. BRYCE.

Rev. P. P. Bryce, the energetic pastor of the Earlscourt Methodist Church, who is doing a great work for the British suburb in which his church is located.

He is not only looking after the spiritual needs of his people, but their social wants as well. He does not scold them when they come to church on Sunday, but seeks to lift them to higher things and in this he is succeeding remarkably well. In the short space of four years he has been instrumental in the building of a strong church.

The Sunday school is remarkably successful. Its total strength is over twelve hundred; the Cradle Roll alone numbering five hundred. There are many other organizations such as Mothers' Meeting, with its Coal Club, Christmas Clubs, etc., Men's Own, Boys Club, Band of Hope and Epworth Leagues.

Rev. Mr. Bryce will be in Peterborough next Sunday and will preach in St. James' Church, the growing Methodist Church in the south end of the city. Just three years ago this church was dedicated to Divine worship, and special thank offering services will mark the occasion in the morning and evening worship and in the Sunday School session. The congregation rally and social meeting will take place on Monday evening.

FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 1912.

COST OF LIVING

During the past ten years the cost of living has increased 45 per cent., according to a special report presented to the House at Ottawa by the Minister of Labor. Since last year the wholesale prices have climbed 3 per cent. and the retail prices 5 per cent.

The upward movement, the report shows, was particularly pronounced in the last six months of 1911. Wholesale prices in 1910, were approximately 24 per cent. higher than in the closing decade of the last century, and during 1911 they rose to over 27 per cent. above that basis. Crop shortage accentuated consumption. The present high level is the culmination of a movement which began in 1909.

The report gives columns of figures of prices showing the gradual rise in dairy products, fish, fruits, vegetables, provisions, groceries, boots, shoes, fuel, house furnishings, drugs, oil, tobacco and textiles.

"QUITTERS" ONLY TAKEN

That tuberculosis takes only the "quitters" is the statement of Dr. James J. Walsh of Fordham University school of Medicine. In a lecture delivered this week, he said—

"The amount of suffering that may be inflicted through the mind is almost incalculable, "for it is much worse to think that one has something the matter when there is nothing the matter than to have something really the matter. Every organ in the body may be influenced by the mental attitude toward it or concentration of mind upon it. The heart will miss beats when the patient is worried about that organ. This will happen even in a normal heart and still more so when there is some serious caredisc affection. The appetite depends to a great extent on the mental attitude toward food. Certain kinds of food against which there is a prejudice, cannot be eaten with relish, and if eaten will not digest properly.

"The lungs are quite as important a subject for mental healing as the heart and stomach. Tuberculosis takes only the "quitters," and any one who bravely eats and lives outside lengthens life and is often able to accomplish a large amount of good work. Many of the skin diseases have large nervous and mental factors in them. Even so serious disease as cancer can be modified very favorably by mental influence. Patients who become persuaded that they ought to get better, for any reason, often gain in weight, almost to the extent that they have lost though eventually they may die from their cancer."

SINGLE TAX

A special committee is to be appointed to make a thorough investigation and secure evidence regarding the Single Tax system, the evidence to be given as before a Court of Enquiry, and it will be the duty of the committee to ascertain whether the present assessment act had admitted serious evils, what sections are most affected and how relief could be brought about by a possible re-arrangement of the present tax system. Thus the two bills brought before the Legislature by Mr. Ellis and Mr. Rowell are recognized by the Government.

The claim of Sir James Whitney is that while a great many people have been fascinated by the seeming fairness of Single Tax, they do not understand it, and furthermore he declares that the promoters of the scheme are endeavoring to humbug the people on everyhand. Of the petitions received by the Government, eight out of every ten had not asked for single tax but rather for the municipalities to have the power of deciding their own system.

The first class of people who objected to the present manner of taxation was the owners of skyscrapers who wished to pay nothing but a land tax.

The committee is to be appointed within the next ten days.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Nashville Democrat—Capital punishment prevails in all of the States of the Union except Michigan, Wisconsin, Rhode Island, Kansas and Maine. It was abolished in Iowa in 1872, but was restored in 1878. It was also abolished in Colorado, but was afterwards restored. The institution of the electrical method of execution which is less gruesome and torturing than the old practice of hanging criminals by the neck until dead, has perhaps had some effect in moderating the sentimental opposition to capital punishment.

An extraordinary new method of color photography has just been demonstrated before the Royal Photographic Society, at London, Eng. A plain negative is taken and a lantern slide made from it, and by purely optical means, using a grating and a prism, the picture in natural colors is produced.

The method necessitates a special and costly camera and is put forward only for its scientific interests. It turns upon the use of a grating, or line screen, which splits up into immense numbers of tiny spectra, one hundred to the inch, and each one complete. The grating is used in making the negatives and later when placed behind a positive, when made from the negative, it enables black and white pictures to appear in the exact color of nature. Its ability to render the texture or distinctive sheen on such articles as silk, china, or glass, is remarkable.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucuous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifers, acting directly on the mucuous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

The bill providing for the charters of the Grand Trunk Pacific Saskatchewan Railway and of the Grand Trunk Pacific Branch Line Company, has received its first reading in the Saskatchewan Legislature and gives wide powers for construction purposes; a capital of $1,000,000 being authorized. Provision is also made for the operation of steamship lines, of express and telegraph systems and hotels. The Provincial Government proposes to guarantee the bonds to the extent of $13,000 a mile with a similar guarantee for branch lines, for which charters had previously been granted.

VILLAGE MAY GET CANNING FACTORY

There are prospects of a canning factory being located in Norwood this spring. Negotiations are being made between a promoter from Frankfort and certain parties in Norwood. The plan, as it exists at present, is to commence with tomatoes this year and later enlarge and equip for peas, beans, corn, pumpkins, berries, etc.—Register.

It is rumored that the Grand Trunk Railway is considering the erection of a modern hotel, capable of accommodating 300 guests, in connection with its new station at London, Ont.

NORWOOD LADY SUDDENLY CALLED

The death of Mrs. David Foster, of this village, occurred with startling suddenness on Wednesday morning, about four o'clock, of pneumonia.

Deceased had been ill only a few days and her demise following so closely upon the death of Mr. Foster, about five weeks ago, is sad indeed, and will be a great trial to the members of their family, for whom much sympathy is felt.

The first alarming symptoms were manifested on Monday morning, when she was seized with a hemorrhage, and Dr. E. V. Frederick, of Peterborough, was called in consultation with the attending physician. It seems that on the previous Wednesday while eating her tea Mrs. Foster swallowed a sharp piece of bone which afterwards caused her some distress, and it was thought that the irritation following might have produced the hemorrhage.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Mary Drope, was a native of Alnwick. She was in her fifty-seventh year and was married to her late husband about 35 years ago.

She is survived by a family of six—one son and five daughters, viz: William S., Mrs. A. E. Pearson, and Mrs George Hegel, all of Calgary, Alta.; Mrs. John Marks, of Asphodel, and Misses Florence and Margaret, of this village.—Norwood Register.

YOUR BABY'S SKIN

Is the most delicate fabric in the world. You may cause it permanent harm by using poisonous mineral ointments for the little rashes and eruptions that every baby suffers from occasionally. Don't take any chances. Use Zam-Buk, the babys' best balm.

Zam-Buk is made from fine herbal extracts, and is free from any harmful poisonous coloring matter. Like the grasses and the flowers, nature has colored it green. It is nature's own healer!

Most ointments and salves have, as their foundation, various animal oils and fats. Zam-Buk does not contain one atom of animal substance. Most ointments and salves are too coarse to be absorbed by the tender delicate skin of a baby, and remain on the skin an irritating mass. Just put a little Zam-Buk on baby's skin, and see how soon it is absorbed, showing conclusively that the pores of the skin are greedy for it.

Use nothing but Zam-Buk for baby's skin troubles and wash with Zam-Buk Soap.

Zam-Buk should also be used for cuts, burns, scalds, eczema, piles, ulcers, etc. All druggists and stores sell it 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations.

Herbert Johnson, colored, servant of Dr. Vrooman, Napanee, is in Kingston hospital in a very serious condition. A mud-cat ran its horns into his left thumb, and blood poisoning set it.

R. Craig, 65 Hook avenue, Toronto, a C.P.R. brakeman, fell from his train early yesterday morning at Mimico. He was hurried to the Western Hospital where he died later from a fractured skull.

John Whitmarsh, for twelve years keeper of the Four-Mile lighthouse, near Kingston, has been given notice that his services are no longer required. Victor Sudds has been appointed in his place.

Gilbert Longfellow, a cousin of the poet, died at his home in Pasedena, Cal., yesterday, aged 88 years. He was born in Machias, Me., and was intimately associated with his famous cousin, whom he resembled greatly.

Lady Betty Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

I enjoyed it all immensely, for it was my first time as bridesmaid, and I had a lovely frock and hat (copied from an old picture) for which—when I wanted the bill—I found Sally had paid. There was a crush at the reception, but it only lasted two hours. After the bride and groom had gone, with showers of rice and satin slippers, we stayed and had a dance—just the ushers and bridesmaids and a few young people who were intimate friends of Carolyn's.

It was then that my greatest troubles began. On a pretense of showing some wedding presents which he said I hadn't seen because they were in a different room from the others Potter got me alone and proposed again. This time he didn't laugh and joke, as he had before, so that I could take it half in fun even while it made me uncomfortable, but was very serious indeed. When I wanted to go out he stood in front of the door and wouldn't let me pass, and his chin and eyes looked so horribly determined that he was more like Mrs. Ess Kay than ever.

"My dear little ladyship," he said, "you're not going to get away until you've given me my answer."

"But I have given it," said I.

"I don't call what you've given me an answer, because, you see, I want you so much, and I've made up my mind so hard and fast to have you that I shan't take 'no' for an answer."

"I don't see how you can help it, as it's the only one I have to give, and I've told you that two dozen times at least," I said, beginning to feel irritable, as I always have from the first whenever Potter talked about love.

"I know you have, but that doesn't count. There's no such word as fail in the bright lexicon of my youth. Look here, dear girl, you don't quite realize perhaps what a good time I'd give you if you married me. I've got as much money as my sister has, and I'd do just as you liked about staying in the army. You could have a house in New York and a whole, real live castle in your own country if you liked. I wouldn't care a rap how much you spent on clothes, and there isn't a woman in America who's got better jewels than you should have. I'd see to that. Besides, you could do what you choose for your own people. I couldn't stint you. I want to be friends with them. I never talked like this to you before, but you see what I mean. And now, isn't what I've said any inducement?"

"I wouldn't need any such inducements if I loved you," I answered, "but I don't and can't, and somehow I never have been able to believe that you really loved me."

"If that's the trouble you can make your mind easy. I want you badly."

"Then I'm sorry, for I simply can't marry you. I should be miserable and so would you."

"I'll risk that. You're too much of an English rosebud to understand anything about love. What you must do is to trust others who know what you ought to want better than you do yourself—your mother, for instance. You'd like to please her and your sister and brother, wouldn't you? Well, they all want you to say yes to me."

"How do you know?" I broke out.

"I do know. You can ask Kath if it isn't true."

"I don't want to talk to her about it."

"You needn't if you'll only be a good girl and do what everybody expects you to do. Come now, do say yes, and let's be happy."

That did make me furious.

"Any one would think I was a naughty child and you were some kind of medicine the whole family was waiting for me to take!" I exclaimed. "It's a wonder you don't get out your watch and give me five minutes to do it in."

His eyes began to sparkle with anger. I believe he would have liked to box my ears, and I know I could have boxed his.

"I thought English girls were brought up to be sensible," said he, "and amiable."

May Adjourn on Saturday.

Ottawa, March 29.—It is possible now that Parliament may adjourn by Saturday night. Splendid progress is being made in the House, and only a few bills remain to be disposed of. The Senate, by dint of working morning, noon and night, have succeeded in catching up with the Commons, and yesterday afternoon, with the passing of the Grain Act, cleared their slate, and are waiting for more bills from the House.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM MRS. HILFORD

Feb. 16th.

We expected the mailman yesterday but he has not arrived yet, however he must come to-day so I shall begin this and have it ready for him. This has been a busy week and "still there's more to follow." They have the floor partly in one of the rooms, and the frame-work up for the dining room to be built at the back.

Mr. Hilford has put on one door, all the netting on the windows and and a ceiling in our room. They brought down a nice safe and two cupboards from Tjbabidugu, so now I shall not have so much difficulty in finding room for things.

This is just after dinner, Mr. Hilford is lying in the hammock reading. Mr. Roseberry and Mr. Evans are both lying down. I thought I would write a little.

Perhaps you would like a schedule of our day.

We rise at 5.30 or 6 o'clock, breakfast at 6.30, work till 11, dinner at 11.15, rest till 1, work till 5, have supper, and go to bed about eight o'clock, of course I just work when I feel like it, as they all say that I need to rest. Some things are rather hard on me here, notably the bad butter, eating it is absolutely out of the question, I have tasted butter only once since landing, but even to see or smell it makes me sick. I cannot keep things clean and that makes me sick too, but of course when we get things fixed up it will be different.

These days I am busy sorting out our groceries and arranging them in boxes. It seems strange to be so far from supplies, now we are out of sugar. It is ordered but has not yet arrived, and you can scarcely imagine how funny it is to have to get meals without any sugar. The worst thing about it is that it is hard to get anything to drink. The water is too bitter to take alone, I cannot make lime juice or cocoa, without sugar. The men drink these without, but all I can take is "Horlick's Malted Milk." We hope for sugar next Monday.

Mr. Evans and Mr. Roseberry have been at Tibabidugu, but have returned now. The former returns to Makomp on Monday. I wonder if I have told you about our family, It consists of two goats, Sport, two pups, two roadsters, four hens, twelve chickens, two pigeons, and by the time you get this, two little pigeons, we hope. If I tell you the same things twice you will have to excuse me, because in a new place it is hard to remember.

There are tiny flies here, not as large as pin heads, which bite most ferociously; my arms and hands are just covered with big red blotches, caused by them. I hope you will not think this is a grumbly letter for I do not feel like grumbling, but there doesn't seem to be anything cheerful to say. I am just trying to describe things as they are, and it does not sound very nice, but we are quite happy, nevertheless, and would not be any place else if it were possible. Both our mosquito nets are made to fit the tent, and each is large enough to cover the two beds, so I am going to rip one this afternoon, and put it in a shape more suitable for the house. I must stop now, but will write more when the mail comes.

Will father send us some good rat poison and tooth powder, and we will be much obliged. It's getting late and still the mailman has not come, because it is almost impossible to write after dark. I have finished arranging my groceries and want to rest a little.

They brought me a fairly good stove from Tibabidugu, and I shall certainly be glad when it is set up. The old bake oven is very uncertain, but the bread I made on Tuesday turned out as well as any I ever made. I am quite proud of it. We have had between fifteen and twenty little boys here all day carrying mud for the floor, and we pay them two heaping tablespoons of sugar which the ants got into for of course they do not mind it.

The climate here seems to take all the energy out of a person. I cannot think of anything connected to tell you, but my mind will probably get into working order after a while. We had a little shower this morning and one on Tuesday. Next month is the hottest they say and then the rains begin in April. We are expecting the mailman to-night. Sunday afternoon—He came just as we were about to sit down to supper, bringing welcome letters. We were down town and held a service this morning, Mr. Roseberry preaching, and this evening Mr. Evans will preach. There are two rival kings in our town and they are so jealous that it is hard not to offend them. We hold the service in a space in the centre of the town, and are hoping that they will build a union "barry" there. A "barry" is a building something like a bandstand at home, but not raised from the ground. It serves as a public meeting place, and we would use it for preaching and for our night school when we get it started. Both of the kings come to our meetings and we hope the jealousy will soon be done away with.

I have begun to study the language a little, and Mr. Roseberry is very encouraging. He thinks I shall be able to preach in a few months but of course that remains to be seen.

They have put up the stove for me under a tree where it is shady all morning, and this is a great comfort to me. Kamp is my cook and he can boil rice, etc., but I have to watch him closely, at least I think I do. His wife, Benky is very funny, she does not understand a word of English and I understand only about ten words in Temne. They do not belong to this tribe. She comes over to visit me sometimes and we sit down and chatter away like a pair of monkeys, though neither of us can understand a word that the other says, but we nod and smile, and laugh about it and have a very pleasant time.

My stock of news is just about exhausted, so I will close. Please give my love to all inquiring friends.

GRACE HILFORD.
